28 And set vp seuen pillars vpon it, one against another, for his father, his mother, and foure brethren,

29 And set great pillars round about thē, and set armes vpon the pillars for a perpetual memory, and carued shippes beside the armes, that they might be seene of men sayling in the sea.

30 This sepulchre which hee made at Modin, standeth yet vnto this day.

Ioseph. Antiq. 13. chap. 10.

31 ¶ Now as Tryphon went forth with the yong King Antiochus, hee slewe him traiterously, 32 And reigned in his steade, & crowned him selfe King of Asia, and brought a great plague vpon the land.

33 Simon also built vp the castles of Judea, and compassed them about with high towres, and great walles, euen w towres, and gates and barres, and laied vp vitailes in the strong holdes.

34 Moreouer Simon chose certaine mē and sent them to King Demetrius, that he would discharge the land: for all Tryphōs doings were robberies.

35 Whereupon Demetrius the king answered him, and wrote vnto him after this maner, 36 DEMETRIVS the King vnto Simon the high Priest, and the friende of Kinges, and to the Elders and to the nation of the Jewes sendeth greeting.

37 The golden crowne, and ‖ precious stone that ye sent vnto vs, haue we receiued, and are ready to make a stedfast peace with you, and to write vnto the officers, to release you of the thinges wherein wee made you free.

‖ or, coler, or bandeicke: in greke Basmen, or, Labeon.

38 So the thinges that we haue graunted you, shalbe stable: ꝑ strong holds which ye haue buylded, shalbe your owne.

39 Also wee forgiue the ouersightes, and faults cōmitted vnto this day, & the crowne tare that ye ought vs: and where as was any other tribute in Jerusalē, it shalbe nowe no tribute.

40 And they that are meete among you to bee written with our men, let them bee written vp, that there may bee peace betweene vs.

41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken from Jsrael in the hundreth and seuentie yeere.

42 And ꝑ people of Jsrael began to write in their letters, and publike instruments, IN THE FIRST yeere of Simon, the high and chiefe Priest, gouernour and prince of the Jewes.

43 In those dayes Simon camped against Gaza, and besieged it rounde about, where he set vp an engine of warre, and approched neere the citie, and beate a towre, & tooke it.

44 So they that were in the engine, leapt into the citie, & there was great trouble in the citie,

45 In so much that the people of the city rent their clothes, and clymed vp vpon the walles with their wiues, and children, and cryed with a loud voyce, beseeching Simon to graunt them peace, saying,

46 Deale not with vs according to our wickednes, but according to thy mercie.

47 Then Simon pitied them, & would fight no more against them, but put thē out of the citie, and clensed the houses, wherein the idoles were, and so entred thereunto w̄ Psalmes and thanksgiuing.

48 So when hee had cast all ꝑ filthines out, he set such men in it as kept the Lawe, and fortified it, and buylded there a dwelling place for him selfe.

49 Now, when they in the castel at Jerusalē were kept, that they could not come forth forth not goe into the countrey, neither buy nor sell, they were very hungrie, and many of them were famished to death, 50 In so much that they besought Simon to make peace with them: which hee graunted them, & put them out from thence, and clensed the castel from filthines.

51 And vpon the three and twentie day of the seconde moneth, in the hundreth seuentie and one yere, they entred into it with thankesgiuing, & branches of palme trees, and with harpes, and with cymbales, and with violes, and with psalmes, and songs, because the great enemie of Israel was ouercome.

52 And hee ordeyned that the same day should be kept euery yeere with gladnes.

53 And he fortified the mount of the Temple that was beside þ castel where he dwelt him selfe with his companie.

54 Simon also seeing that John his sonne was nowe a man, hee made him captaine of al the hostes, & caused him to dwell in Gazaris.

for, Gaze.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Demetrius is ouercome of Arsaces. 11 Simon being captaine, there is great quietnes in Israel. 18 The couenaunt of friendship with the Romains, & with the people of Sparta is renewed.

IN the hundreth, seuenty & two yeere gathered King Demetrius his hoste, and departed vnto Media, to get him helpe for to fight against Tryphon.

2 But when Arsaces the King of Persia and Media heard, that Demetrius was entred within his borders, hee sent one of his princes to take him aliue.

3 So he went, and ouercame the armie of Demetrius, and tooke him, and brought him to Arsaces, which kept him in ward.

4 Thus all the land [of Iuda] was in rest, so long as Simon liued: for hee sought the welth of his nation: therefore were they glad to haue him for their ruler, & to do him worship alway.

5 Simon also wanne the citie of Joppe to his great honour to bee an hauen to vne, and made it an entrance vnto the yles of the sea.

6 He enlarged also the borders of his people, and conquered the countries.

7 He gathered vp many of their people that were prisoners, and he had the dominion of Gazaris, and Beth-sura, & the castel, which hee clensed from filthines, and there was no man that resisted him.

8 So that euery man tilled his ground in peace, and the land gaue her fruites, and the trees gaue their fruite.

9 The elders sate in the open places, & consulted al together for þ common wealth, and the yong mẽ were honourably clothed and armed.

10 Hee prouided vitailes for the cities, and all kind of munition, so that his glorious fame was renoumed vnto the ende of the worlde.

11 He made peace throughout the lande, and Israel had perfit mirth and ioy.

12 For euery man sate vnder his vine, & the fig trees, and there was no man to fray them.

13 There was none in the lande to fight against them: for then the Kinges were ouercome.

14 He helped al those that were in aduersitie among his people: he was diligẽt to see the Law kept, and hee tooke away the vngodly, and wicked.

15 He beautified the Sanctuarie, and encreased the vessels of the Temple.

16 When the Romains heard, and the Spartians had knowledge, that Jonathã was dead, they were very sorie.

17 But when they heard, that Simon his brother was made hie Priest in his stead, & holde he had wonne the land againe with the cities in it, 18 They wrote vnto him in tables of brasse, to renew the friendship, and bond of loue, which they had made with Judas & Jonathan his brethren.

19 Which writings were read before þ congregation at Jerusalem, and this is the copie of the letters that the Spartians sent,

20 THE SENATORS and citie of Sparta vnto Simon the great Priest, and to the Elders, and to the Priests, and to the residue of the people of the Iewes their brethren sende greeting.

21 When your ambassadours that were sent vnto our people, certified vs of your glory and honour, wee were glad of their comming, 22 And haue registred their ambassage in the publike records in this maner, NVMENIVS [the sonne] of Antiochus, & Antipater [the sonne] of Jason the Iewes ambassadours came vnto vs, to renew amitie with vs.

23 And it pleased the people, that þ men should be honorably intreated, and that the copy of their ambassage should be registred in the publike records, that it might bee for a memorial vnto the people of Sparta: and a copie of the same was sent to Simon the chiefe Priest.

24 After

24 After this, Simon sent Numenius to Rome, with a great shield of gold of a thousand pounde weight, to confirme the friendshippe with them.

25 Which when the people vnderstood, they said, what thanks shal we recompense againe vnto Simon and his children:

26 For hee and his brethren, & the house of his father haue stablished Israel, and ouercome their enemies, and haue confirmed the libertie thereof: therfore they wrote this in tables of brasse, and set it vpon pillars in mount Sion.

27 The copie of the writing is this. In the eight and twentie day of the moneth ‖Elul in the hundreth, seuentie and two yeere, in the third yeere of Simon the high Priest.

‖August.

‖Or, Jerusalem.

28 In ‖Saramel in the great congregation of the Priests, and of the people, and of the gouernours of the nation, and of the Elders of the countrey, We would signifie vnto you, that many battels haue bene fought in our countrey.

29 Wherein Simon the sonne of Mattathias (come of the children of Jarib) and his brethren put themselues in danger, and resisted the enemies of their nation, that their Sanctuary, and Lawe might bee maintained, and did their nation great honour.

30 For Jonathan gathered his nation together, and became their high Priest, and is laid with his people.

31 After that would their enemies haue inuaded their countrey, and destroyed their lande, and lay their handes on their Sanctuarie.

32 Then Simon resisted them, & fought for his nation, and spent much of his owne substance, and armed the valiant men of his nation, and gaue them wages.

33 He fortified also the cities of Judea, & Bethsura that lieth vpon þ borders of Judea (where the ordinance of their enemies lay sometime) and set there a garison of the Jewes.

34 And he fortified Joppe, which lyeth ‖Or, Gaza, or Gazara. vpon the sea, & ‖Gazara that bordereth vpon Azotus (where þ enemies dwelt afore) and there he placed Jewes, and furnished them with things necessarie for the reparation thereof.

35 Now when the people saw þ faithfulnes of Simon, & to what glory hee thought to bring his nation vnto, they made him their gouerner, and the chief Priest, because he had done all these things, and for the vprightnes, and fidelitie that hee had kept to his nation, and that sought by all meanes to exalte his people.

36 For in his time they prospered wel by him, so that the heathen were taken out of their countrey, and they also which were in þ citie of Dauid at Jerusalem, where they had made thê a castel, out of the which they went, and defiled al things that were about the Sanctuarie, and did great hurt vnto religion.

37 And he set Jewes in it, and fortified it, for the assurance of the lande, and citie, & raised vp the walles of Jerusalem.

38 And King Demetrius confirmed him in his high Priesthood for these causes, 39 And made him one of his friends, and gaue him great honour.

40 For it was reported that þ Romains called the Jewes their friendes, and confederates, and that they honourably receiued Simons ambassadours, 41 And that the Jewes, & Priestes consented, that Simon should bee their prince, and high Priest perpetually, till God raised vp the true Prophet,

42 And that he should be their captaine, and haue the charge of the Sanctuarie, and so set men ouer the workes, & ouer the countrey, and ouer the weapons, and ouer þ fortresses, and that should make prouision for the holy things,

43 And that he should be obeyed of euery man, and that al the writings in the countrey should bee made in his name, and that hee shoulde be clothed in purple, and weare gold,

44 And that it should not be lawful for any of the people or Priests to breake any of these things, or to withstand his wordes, or to call any congregation in the countrey without him, or be clothed in purple, or weare a colar of gold:

45 And if any did contrary to these thinges, or brake any of them, he should bee punished.

46 So it pleased all the people to agree that it should bee done to Simon according vnto these words.

47 Simon also accepted it, and was content to be the high Priest, and the captaine, & the prince of the Jewes, & of the Priestes, and to be the chiefe of all.

48 And they commanded to set vp this writing in tables of brasse, and to fasten it to the wall that compassed the Sanctuarie in an open place, 49 And that a copie of the same shoulde be layed vp in the treasurie, that Simon & his sonnes might haue it.

CHAP.

CHAP. XV.

1 Antiochus maketh a couenant of friendshippe with Symon. 11 Tryphon is pursued. 15 The Romanes write letters vnto Kings and nations in the defence of the Iewes. 27 Antiochus refusing the helpe that Simon sent him, breaketh his couenant.

MOreouer King Antiochus the sonne of Demetrius sent letters from the yles of the sea vnto Simon the Priest, and prince of the Iewes, and to all the nation,

2 Conteining these words, ANTIOCHVS the King vnto Simon the great Priest, and to the nation of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

3 For so much as certeine pestilent men haue vsurped the kingdome of our fathers, I am purposed to chalenge the Realme againe, & to restore it to the old estate: wherefore I haue gathered a great hoste, & prepared shippes of warre,

4 That I may goe thorowe the countrey, and bee auenged of them, which haue destroyed our countrey, and wasted many cities in the Realme.

5 Nowe therefore I doe confirme vnto thee all the liberties, whereof al the Kings my progenitours haue discharged thee, and all the payments, whereof they haue released thee.

6 And I giue thee leaue to coine money of thine owne stampe within thy countrey,

7 And that Ierusalem, and the Sanctuarie be free, and that al the weapons, that thou hast prepared, and ꝓ fortresses, which thou hast builded, & keepest in thine hands, shall be thine.

8 And al that is due vnto the King, and al that shalbe due vnto the King, I forgiue it thee, from this time forth for euermore.

9 And when we haue obteined our kingdome, we will giue thee, and thy nation and the Temple great honour, so that your honour shal be knowen throughout ꝓ worlde.

Ioseph. Antiq. 13. chap. 11.

10 ¶ In the hundreth, seuenty and foure yere, went Antiochus into his fathers land, and al the bands came together vnto him, so that fewe were left with Tryphon.

11 So the King Antiochus pursued him, but hee fled and came to Dora, which lyeth by the sea side.

12 For he sawe ꝓ troubles were toward him, and that the armie had forsaken him.

13 Then camped Antiochus against Dora with an hundreth and twentie thousand fighting men, and eight thousand horsemē.

14 So he compassed the citie about, and the ships came by the sea. Thus they preased the citie by lande, and by sea, in so much that they suffered no man to goe in nor out.

15 In the meane seaſō came Numenius, and his companie from Rome, hauing letters written vnto the Kings and coūtries, wherein were contained these words, 16 LVCIVS the Consul of Rome vnto King Ptolemeus sendeth greeting.

17 The ambassadours of the Iewes are come vnto vs as our friends and confederates from Simon the hie Priest & from the people of the Iewes to renewe friendship, and the bond of loue, 18 Who haue brought a shield of golde weying a thousand pound.

19 Wherefore we thought it good to write vnto the Kinges and countries, that they should not go about to hurt thē, nor to fight against them, nor their cities, nor their countrey, neyther to mainteine their enemies against them.

20 And wee were content to receiue of them the shield.

21 If therfore there be any pestilent fellowes fled from their countrey vnto you, deliuer them vnto Simon the hie Priest, that he may punish them according to their owne Lawe.

22 The same thinges were written to Demetrius the King, and to Attalus, and to Arathes, and to Arsaces, 23 And to all ꝓ countries, as ‖ Sampsames, and to them of Sparta, and to ‖ Delus, and to ‖ Mindus and to Sicion, & to Caria, and to Samos, and to Pamphylia, and to Lycia, and to Halicarnassus, & to Rhodus, and to Phaselis, and to Cos, and to Side, and to Coztyna, & to Gnidon, & to Cyprus, and to Cyrene.

‖ or, Sampsaras. ‖ or, Dele. ‖ or, Myndo. or, Myndi.

24 And they sent a copie of them to Simon the hie Priest.

25 ¶ So Antiochus the King camped against Dora the second time euer ready to take it, and made diuers engins of warre, and kept Tryphon in, that he could neither go in nor out.

26 Then Simon sent him two thousand cholen men to helpe him with siluer & gold, and much furniture.

27 Neuertheles, hee would not receiue them, but brake all the couenant, which hee had made with him afore, and withdrewe him selfe from him,

28 And sent vnto him Athenobius one of his friends to commune with him, saying, Ye withhold Ioppe, and Gazara with the castel that is at Ierusalem, the citie of my Realme, 29 Whose borders yee haue destroyed & done great hurt in the land, and haue the gouernement of many places of my kingdome.

30 Wherefore

30 Wherefore nowe deliuer the cities, which yee haue taken, with the tributes of the places, that ye haue rule ouer without the borders of Iudea,

31 Or els giue me for them fiue hundreth talents of siluer, and for the harme that yee haue done, and for the tributes of the places other fiue hundreth talents: if not, We will come, and fight against you.

32 So Athenobius the Kings friend came to Jerusalem, and when he sawe the honour of Simon, and the cupbord of gold and siluer plate, and so great preparation, he was astonished, and tolde him the Kings message.

33 Then answered Simon, and said vnto him, We haue neither taken other mens landes, nor withholden that which appertaineth to others: but our fathers heritage, which our enemies had vnrighteously in possession a certaine time.

34 But when We had occasion, We recouered the inheritance of our fathers.

Or, complaineth concerning.

35 And whereas thou ‖ requirest Joppe and Gazara, they did great harme to our people, and thorow our coūtrey, yet will We giue an hundreth talents for thē. But Athenobius answered him not one word, 36 But turned againe angrie vnto the King, and told him all these words, and the dignitie of Simō, with all that he had seene: and the King was verie angrie.

37 ¶ In the meane time fled Tryphon by ship vnto Orthosias.

38 Then the King made Cendebeus captaine of the sea coast, and gaue him bands of footemen and horsemen, 39 And commanded him to remoue the hoste toward Judea, and to build vp Cedron, and to fortifie the gates, and to warre against the people: but the King pursued Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came vnto Jamnia, and began to vexe the people, and to inuade Judea, and to take the people prisoners, and to slay them.

41 And he built vp Cedron, where he set horsemen and garisons, that they might make outrodes by the wayes of Judea, as the King had commanded him.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Cendebeus the captaine of Antiochus hoste is put to flight by the sonnes of Simon 11 Ptolemeus the sonne of Abubus killeth Simon and his two sonnes at a banket. 23 John killeth them that lie in wayte for his life.

Ioseph. Antiq. 13. chap. 13.

THen came John vp from Gazara, and tolde Simon his father, what Cendebeus had done.

2 So Simon called two of his eldest sonnes, Judas and John, and sayde vnto them, I, and my brethren, and my fathers house, haue euer from our youth vnto this day fought against the enemies of Israel, and the matters haue had good successe vnder our handes, and We haue deliuered Israel oftentimes.

3 But I am nowe olde, and ye by [Gods] mercy are of a sufficient age: be ye therefore in steade of me, and my brother, and go forth and fight for our nation, & the helpe of heauē be with you.

4 So hee chose twentie thousand fighting men of the countrey with the horsmen, which went forth against Cendebeus, and rested at Modin.

5 In the morning they arose, and went into the plaine field: and beholde, a mightie great host came against them both of footemen, and horsemen: but there was a riuer betwixt them.

6 And John ranged his armie ouer against him, and when he saw that the people was afrayd to go ouer the riuer, he went ouer first himselfe, and the men seeing him, passed thorough after him.

7 Then he deuided his men, and set the horsemen in the middes of the footemen. 8 For their enemies horsemen were very manie: but when they blewe the trumpets, Cendebeus fled with his host, whereof many were slaine, and the remnant gate them to the fortresse.

9 Then was Judas Johns brother wounded: but John followed after them, till he came to Cedron, which [Cendebeus] had built.

10 Also they fled vnto the towres, that were in the fieldes of Azotus, and those did [John] burne with fire: thus were there slaine two thousand men of them: so he returned peaceably into the land of Juda.

11 ¶ Nowe in the field of Jericho was Ptolemeus the sonne of Abubus made captaine, and hee had abundance of siluer and golde.

12 (For hee had maried the daughter of the hie Priest.)

13 Therfore he waxed proud in his mind, and thought to rule the lande, and thought to slay Simon and his sonnes by deceit.

14 Now as Simon went about thorow the cities of the countrey, and studyed carefully for them, hee came downe to Jericho with Mattathias, and Judas his sonnes in the hundreth, seuentie and seuen yeere, in the eleuenth moneth, which is the moneth Sabat.

15 Then [the sonne] of Abubus receyued them by treason into a little holde, called Do-chus, which hee had built, where he made them a great bāket, and had hid men there.

16 So when Simon and his sonnes had made good cheare, Ptolemeus stoode vp with his men, and tooke their weapōs, and entred in to Simon in the banket houle, and slew him with his two sonnes, and certaine of his seruants.

17 Whereby he committed a great vilenie, and recompenced euill for good.

18 Then wrote Ptolemeus these things and sent to the king, that he might send him an hoste to helpe him, and so would deliuer him the countrey with the cities.

19 He sent other men also vnto Gazara, to take Iohn, and sent letters vnto the captaines to come to him, and hee would giue them siluer, and gold and rewards.

20 And to Ierusalem hee sent other to take it, and the mountaine of the temple.

21 But one ranne before, and tolde Iohn in Gazara, that his father, and his brethren were slaine, and that [Ptolemeus] had sent to slay him.

22 When he heard this, he was sore astonished, and laid handes of them that were come to slay him, & slew them: for he knew that they went about to kill him.

23 Concerning other things of Iohn, both of his warres, and of his noble actes (wherein he behaued himselfe manfully) of the building of walles which he made, and other of his deedes,

24 Behold, they are written in the chronicles of his Priesthoode, from the time, that he was made high Priest after his father.

The second booke of the Maccabees.

CHAP. I.

1 An Epistle of the Iewes that dwelt at Ierusalem, sent vnto them that dwelt in Egypt, wherein they exhort them to giue thankes for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fire that was hid in the pitte. 24 The prayer of Nemias.

THe brethren the Iewes, which be at Ierusalem, & they that are in the countrey of Iudea, vnto the brethren the Iewes, that are throughout Egypt, send salutation, and prosperitie.

2 God be gracious vnto you and remember his couenant made with Abraham, & Isaac, and Iacob his faythfull seruants,

3 And giue you all an heart, to worship him, and to do his will with a whole heart and with a willing minde,

4 And open your hearts in his Law, and commandements, and send you peace,

5 And heare your prayers, and be reconciled with you, & neuer forsake you in time of trouble.

6 Thus now we pray here for you.

7 When Demetrius reigned, in the hundreth, three score and ninth yere, we Iewes wrote vnto you in the trouble, and violence that came vnto vs in those yeeres, after that Iason and his companie departed out of the holy land and kingdome,

8 And burnt the porch, and shed innocent blood. Then we prayed vnto the Lord, and were heard: wee offred sacrifices and fine flower, and lighted the lampes, and set forth the bread.

9 Now therefore keepe ye the dayes of the feast of the Tabernacles in the moneth Chasleu.

10 ¶ In the hundreth, fourescore & eight yeere, the people that was at Ierusalem, and in Iudea, and the counsell and Iudas, vnto Aristobulus king Ptolemeus master, which is of the stock of the anointed Priests, & to the Iewes that are in Egypt, sendeth greeting and health.

11 In so much as God hath deliuered vs from great perils, we thanke him highly, as though we had ouercome the King.

12 For hee brought them into Persia by heapes, that fought against the holy citie.

13 For albeit the captaine, and the armie, that was with him, seemed inuincible, yet they were slaine in the Temple of Nanea, by the deceit of Naneas priests.

14 For Antiochus, as though he would dwell with her, came thither, he, and his friends with him, to receiue money vnder the title of a dowrie.

15 But when the Priests of Nanea had layde it forth, and hee was entred with a small companie within the Temple, they shut the Temple, when Antiochus was come in.

16 And by opening a priuie doore of the vaute, they cast stones, as it were thunder, vpon the captaine [and his,] and hauing bruised thē in pieces, they cut off their heads and threwe them to those that were without.

17 God be blessed in all things, which hath deliuered vp the wicked.

18 Whereas wee are nowe purposed to keepe the purification of the Temple vpon the fine & twentie day of the moneth Chasleu, we thought it necessarie to certifie you therof, chus, which hee had built, where he made them a great bāket, and had hid men there.

16 So when Simon and his sonnes had made good cheare, Ptolemeus stoode vp with his men, and tooke their weapōs, and entred in to Simon in the banket houle, and slew him with his two sonnes, and certaine of his seruants.

17 Whereby he committed a great vilenie, and recompenced euill for good.

18 Then wrote Ptolemeus these things and sent to the king, that he might send him an hoste to helpe him, and so would deliuer him the countrey with the cities.

19 He sent other men also vnto Gazara, to take Iohn, and sent letters vnto the captaines to come to him, and hee would giue them siluer, and gold and rewards.

20 And to Ierusalem hee sent other to take it, and the mountaine of the temple.

21 But one ranne before, and tolde Iohn in Gazara, that his father, and his brethren were slaine, and that [Ptolemeus] had sent to slay him.

22 When he heard this, he was sore astonished, and laid handes of them that were come to slay him, & slew them: for he knew that they went about to kill him.

23 Concerning other things of Iohn, both of his warres, and of his noble actes (wherein he behaued himselfe manfully) of the building of walles which he made, and other of his deedes,

24 Behold, they are written in the chronicles of his Priesthoode, from the time, that he was made high Priest after his father.

The second booke of the Maccabees.

CHAP. I.

1 An Epistle of the Iewes that dwelt at Ierusalem, sent vnto them that dwelt in Egypt, wherein they exhort them to giue thankes for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fire that was hid in the pitte. 24 The prayer of Nemias.

THe brethren the Iewes, which be at Ierusalem, & they that are in the countrey of Iudea, vnto the brethren the Iewes, that are throughout Egypt, send salutation, and prosperitie.

2 God be gracious vnto you and remember his couenant made with Abraham, & Isaac, and Iacob his faythfull seruants,

3 And giue you all an heart, to worship him, and to do his will with a whole heart and with a willing minde,

4 And open your hearts in his Law, and commandements, and send you peace,

5 And heare your prayers, and be reconciled with you, & neuer forsake you in time of trouble.

6 Thus now we pray here for you.

7 When Demetrius reigned, in the hundreth, three score and ninth yere, we Iewes wrote vnto you in the trouble, and violence that came vnto vs in those yeeres, after that Iason and his companie departed out of the holy land and kingdome,

8 And burnt the porch, and shed innocent blood. Then we prayed vnto the Lord, and were heard: wee offred sacrifices and fine flower, and lighted the lampes, and set forth the bread.

9 Now therefore keepe ye the dayes of the feast of the Tabernacles in the moneth Chasleu.

10 ¶ In the hundreth, fourescore & eight yeere, the people that was at Ierusalem, and in Iudea, and the counsell and Iudas, vnto Aristobulus king Ptolemeus master, which is of the stock of the anointed Priests, & to the Iewes that are in Egypt, sendeth greeting and health.

11 In so much as God hath deliuered vs from great perils, we thanke him highly, as though we had ouercome the King.

12 For hee brought them into Persia by heapes, that fought against the holy citie.

13 For albeit the captaine, and the armie, that was with him, seemed inuincible, yet they were slaine in the Temple of Nanea, by the deceit of Naneas priests.

14 For Antiochus, as though he would dwell with her, came thither, he, and his friends with him, to receiue money vnder the title of a dowrie.

15 But when the Priests of Nanea had layde it forth, and hee was entred with a small companie within the Temple, they shut the Temple, when Antiochus was come in.

16 And by opening a priuie doore of the vaute, they cast stones, as it were thunder, vpon the captaine [and his,] and hauing bruised thē in pieces, they cut off their heads and threwe them to those that were without.

17 God be blessed in all things, which hath deliuered vp the wicked.

18 Whereas wee are nowe purposed to keepe the purification of the Temple vpon the fine & twentie day of the moneth Chasleu, we thought it necessarie to certifie you therof, thereof, that yee also might keepe the feast of the Tabernacles, and of the fire [which was giuen vs] when Neemias offered sacrifice, after that hee had built the Temple, and the altar.

19 For when as our fathers were led away vnto Persia, the Priests, which sought Leuit.6.13. & 10.1.& 16.12. the honour of God, tooke the *fire of the altar priuily, and hid it in an hollow pit, which was drie in the bottome, and therein they kept it, so that the place was vnknowen vnto euery man.

20 Now after many yeres when it pleased God that Neemias should be sent from the King of Persia, he sent of the posteritie of those Priests, which had hid it to fetch the fire, and as they tolde vs, they found no fire, but thicke water.

21 Then commanded he them to drawe it vp, and to bring it: and when the things apperteining to the sacrifices were brought, Neemias commãded the Priests to sprinkle the wood, and the things layde thereupon with water.

22 When this was done, & the time came that the Sunne shone, which afore was hid in the cloude, there was a great fire kindled, so that euery man marueiled.

23 Now the Priests, and all prayed, while the sacrifice was consuming: Jonathan began, and the other answered thereunto.

24 And the prayer of Neemias was after this maner, O Lord, Lord God maker of all things, which art feareful, and strong, and righteous, and mercifull, and the onely and gratious King,

25 Onely liberall, onely iust and almightie and euerlasting, thou that deliuerest Israel from all trouble, and hast chosen the fathers, and sanctified them,

26 Receiue the sacrifice for thy whole people of Israel, and preserue thine owne portion, and sanctifie it.

27 Gather those together, that are scattered from vs: deliuer them that serue among the heathen: looke vpon them which are despised, and abhorred, that the heathen may know that thou art our God.

28 Punish them that oppresse vs, & with pride do vs wrong.

29 Plant thy people againe in thine holy Deut.30.5. place * as Moyses hath spoken.

30 And the Priests sang Psalmes thereunto.

31 Now when the sacrifice was cõsumed, Neemias commanded the great stones to be sprinkled with the residue of the water.

32 Which when it was done, there was kindled a flame, which was consumed by the light, that shined from the altar.

33 ¶ So when this matter was knowen, it was tolde the King of Persia, that in the place where the Priests which were led away had hid fire, there appeared water, wherwith Neemias and his companie had purified the sacrifices.

34 The king tried out the thing, and closed the place about, and made it holy.

35 And to them that the King fauoured, he gaue and bestowed many gifts.

36 And Neemias called the same place a That is to say, a thinne, it is also called Nephi, or Nephthar, which is, a cleansing. *Ephthar, which is to say, purification: but many men call it Nephthar.

CHAP. II.

4 How Jeremie hid the tabernacle, the Arke and the altar in the hill.
23 Of the fiue bookes of Jason contained in one.

IT is found also in the writings of Jeremias the Prophet, that hee commanded them, which were caried away, to take fire, as was declared, and as the Prophet commanded them that were led into captiuitie,

2 *Giuing them a lawe that they should Baruch.6. not forget the cõmandements of the Lorde, & that they should not erre in their mindes, when they sawe images of golde and siluer, with their ornaments.

3 These and such other things cõmanded he them, & exhorted them that they should not let the Law go out of their hearts.

4 It is written also, howe the Prophet, by an oracle that hee had, charged them to take the tabernacle and the arke, and follow him: and when he came vp into the mountaine where Moyses went vp, *and saw the Deut.34.1 heritage of God,

5 Jeremias went forth, and found an hollow caue, wherein he layde the Tabernacle, and the Arke, and the altar of incense, and so stopped the doore.

6 And there came certaine of those that followed him, to marke the place: but they could not find it.

7 Which When Jeremias perceiued, he reproued them, saying, As for that place, it shalbe vnknowen, vntill the time that God gather his people together againe, and that mercie be shewed.

8 Then shall the Lord shew them these things, & the maiestie of the Lord shall appeare and the cloude also, as it was shewed vnder Moyses, and as * when Salomon 1.King.8. 14,23,30. 2.chr.6.21. desired, that the place might be honourably sanctified.

9 For it is manifest that he, being a wise man, offred the *sacrifice of dedication, and 1.King.8. 62,63. 2. chro.7.4,5 consecration of the Temple.

10 *And as When Moyses prayed vnto Leuit.9.24. & 10.2.

the Lord, the fire came downe from heauē, & consumed the sacrifice: so, When Salomon 2.Chr.7.1. prayed, * the fire came downe from heauen, and consumed the burnt offring.

11 And Moyses said, Because the sinne offring was not eaten, therfore is it consumed.

12 So Salomon kept those eight dayes.

13 These things also are declared in the ‖Some read Jeremie. Writtings, and registers of ‖Neemias, & how he made a librarie, and how he gathered the acts of the Kings, and of the Prophets, and the actes of Dauid, and the epistles of the Kings concerning the holy gifts.

14 Euen so Judas also gathered al things that came to passe by the warres that were among vs, which things we haue.

15 Wherefore if yee haue neede thereof, send some to fetch them vnto you.

16 Where as Wee then are about to celebrate the purification, We haue written vnto you, and yee shall doe well, if yee keepe the same dayes.

17 We hope also that the God, Which deliuered all his people, and gaue an heritage to them all & the kingdome, and the Priesthoode, and the Sanctuarie, Deu.30.5. 18 *As he promised in the law, Will shortly haue mercie vpon vs, and gather vs together from vnder the heauen into his holy place: for he hath saued vs from great perils, and hath cleansed the place.

19 As concerning Judas Maccabeus, & his brethren, the purification of the great Temple, and the dedication of the altar,

20 And the warres against Antiochus Epiphanes, and Eupator his sonne,

21 And the manifest signes, that came from heauen vnto those, which manfully stoode for the Iewes religion: (for though they were but fewe, yet they ranne through whole countreys, and pursued the barbarous armies, 22 And repaired the Temple that was renowmed throughout all the worlde, and deliuered the citie, and established the Lawes, that were like to be abolished, because the Lorde was mercifull vnto them with all lenitie)

23 Wee will assay to abbridge in one volume those thinges, that Jason the Cyrenian hath declared in fiue bookes.

24 For considering the wonderful number, and the difficultie that they haue that would be occupied in the reherfall of stories, because of the diuersitie of the matters,

25 We haue indeuoured, that they that would reade, might haue pleasure, and that they which are studious, might easily keepe them in memorie, & that whosoeuer reade them, might haue profite.

26 Therefore to vs that haue taken in hand this great labor, it was no easie thing to make this abbridgement, but required both sweat, and watching,

27 Like as hee that maketh a feast, and seeketh other mens commoditie, hath no small labour: so Wee also for many mens sakes are verie Well content to vndertake this great labour.

28 Leauing to the authour the exact diligence of euery particular, We will labour to go forward according to the prescript order of an abbridgement.

29 For as he that will build a new house, must prounde for the whole building, but he that setteth out the plat or goeth about to paint it, seeketh but only What is comely for the decking thereof:

30 Euen so I thinke for vs, that it appertaineth to the first writer of a storie to enter deepely into it, and to make mention of all things, and to be curious in euery part.

31 But it is permitted to him that will shorten it, to vse fewe words, and to auoyde those things that are curious therein.

32 Here then will We begin the storie, adding thus much to our former words, that it is but a foolish thing to abound in words before the storie, and to be short in the storie.

CHAP. III.

2 Of the honour done vnto the Temple by the Kings of the Gentiles. 6 Simon vttereth what treasure is in the Temple. 7 Heliodorus is sent to take them away. 26 He is stricken of God, and healed by the prayer of Onias.

When the holy citie was inhabited With all peace, and When the Lawes were verie Well kept, because of ỹ godlines of Onias the hie Priest, and hatred of Wickednesse,

2 It came to passe that euen the Kings did honour the place, and garnished the Temple With great gifts.

3 In so much that Seleucus King of Asia of his owne rentes, bare all the costs belonging to the seruice of the sacrifices.

4 But one Simon of the tribe of Beniamin being appointed ruler of the Temple, contended With the hie Priest cõcerning ‖the iniquitie committed in the citie.

‖or, the sure and prouident.

5 And When he could not ouercome Onias, he gate him to Apollonius the sonne of Thraseas, which then was gouernour of Coelosyria and Phenice,

6 And told him that the treasurie in Jerusalem Was full of immmerable money, Which did not belong to the prouision of the sacrifices, and that it Were possible that these things might come into the Kings hands.

7 Nowe

7 Nowe when Apollonius came to the King, and had shewed him of the money, as it was tolde him, the King chose out Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commaundement, to bring him the foresayd money.

8 Immediately Heliodorus tooke his iourney as though he would visite the cities of Coelosyria and Phenice, but in effect to fulfill the Kings purpose.

9 So when he came to Jerusalem, and was courteously receyued of the hie Priest into the citie, hee declared what was determined concerning the money, and shewed the cause of his comming, and asked if these things were so in deede.

10 Then the hie Priest tolde him that there were such things laide vp by the widowes and fatherles,

11 And that a certaine of it belonged vnto Hircanus [the sonne] of Tobias a noble man, and not as that wicked Simon had reported, and that in al, there were but foure hundreth talents of siluer, and two hundreth of golde,

12 And that it were altogether vnpossible to do this wrong to them that had committed it of trust to the holines of the place & Temple, which is honoured through the whole world for holines and integritie.

13 But Heliodorus because of the Kings commandement giuen him, sayde that in any wise it must be brought into the Kings treasurie.

14 So he appointed a day, and went in to take order for these things: then there was no small griefe throughout the whole citie.

15 For the Priests fell downe before the altar in the Priests garments, and called vnto heauen vpon him which had made a Law concerning things giuen to be kept, that they should be safely preserued for such as had committed them to be kept.

16 Then they that looked the hie Priest in the face, were wounded in their heart: for his countenance, and the changing of his colour declared the sorow of his minde.

17 The man was so wrapped in feare and trembling of the body, that it was manifest to them that looked vpon him, what sorow he had in his heart.

18 Others also came out of their houses by heapes vnto the common prayer, because the place was like to come vnto contempt.

19 And the women, girt with sackcloth vnder their breastes, filled the streetes, & the virgins that were kept in, ranne some to the gates, and some to the walles, and others looked out of the windowes.

20 And all helde vp their hands toward heauen, and made prayer.

21 It was a lamentable thing to see the multitude that fell downe of all sortes, and the expectatiō of the hie Priest being in such anguish.

22 Therefore they called vpon the almightie Lorde, that hee would keepe safe and sure the things, which were layed vp for those that had deliuered them.

23 Neuertheles, the thing ꝑ Heliodorus was determined to do, ꝑ did he performe.

24 And as hee and his souldiers were nowe there present by the treasurie, he that is the Lord of the spirits, and of all power, shewed a great vision, so that al they which presumed to come with him, were astonished at the power of God, & fell into feare, and trembling.

25 For there appeared vnto thē an horse with a terrible man sitting vpon him, most richly barded, and he ran fiercely, and smote at Heliodorus with his forefeete, and it seemed that hee that sate vpon the horse, had harnesse of gold.

26 Moreouer, there appeared two yong men, notable in strength, excellēt in beautie, and comely in apparell, which stood by him on either side, and scourged him cōtinually, and gaue him many sore stripes.

27 And Heliodorus fell suddenly vnto the ground, and was couered with great darkenesse: but they that were with him, tooke him vp, and put him in a litter.

28 Thus he that came with so great cōpany, and many souldiers into the said treasurie, was borne out: for he could not helpe himselfe with his weapons.

29 So they did know the power of God manifestly, but hee was dumme by ꝑ power of GOD, and lay destitute of all hope and health.

30 And they prayed the Lorde that had honoured his owne place: for the Temple which a litle afore was ful of feare and trouble, when the almightie Lorde appeared, was filled with ioye and gladnes.

31 Then streightwayes certaine of Heliodorus friendes prayed Onias, that hee would call vpon the most high to graunt him his life, which laye readie to giue vp the ghost.

32 So the hie Priest, considering that the King might suspect that the Iewes had done Heliodorus some euill, he offered a sacrifice for the health of the man. a In working some treacherie or forcerie against him.

33 Nowe when the hie Priest had made his prayer, the same yong men in the same clothing appeared, and stoode beside Heliodorus, dozus, saying, Giue Onias the hie Priest great thanks: for, for his sake hath the Lord granted thee thy life:

34 And seeing that thou hast bene scourged from heauen, declare vnto all men the mightie power of God: and when they had spoken these words, they appeared no more.

35 So Heliodorus offred vnto the Lorde sacrifice, and made great vowes vnto him, which had granted him his life, and thanked Onias, and went againe with his hoste to the King.

36 Then testified hee vnto euery man of the great workes of God that he had seene with his eyes.

37 And when the king asked Heliodorus, who were meete to be sent yet once againe to Jerusalem, he said, 38 If thou hast any enemie or traitour, send him thither, and thou shalt receiue him well scourged, if he escape with his life: for in that place, no doubt, there is a speciall power of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heauen, hath his eye on that place, and defendeth it, and hee beateth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it.

40 This came to passe concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasurie.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Simon reproueth euill of Onias. 7 Jason obteyneth the office of the hie Priest by corrupting the King. 27 And was by Menelaus defrauded by like bribing. 34 Onias is slaine traiterously by Andronicus.

THis Simon nowe, of whom we spake afore, being a bewrayer of the money † of his owne naturall countrey, reported euill of Onias, as though he had moued Heliodorus vnto this, and had beene the inuenter of the euill.

2 Thus was he bolde to call him a traitour that was so beneficiall to the citie, and a defender of his nation, and so zealous of the Lawes.

3 But when his malice increased so farre, that through one that belonged to Simon, murthers were committed,

4 Onias considering the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, as he that was the gouernour of Coelosyria and Phenice, did rage, † increased Simons malice,

5 He went to the King not as an accuser of the citizens, but as one that intended the common wealth both priuately and publikely.

6 For hee sawe that it was not possible except the King tooke order to quiet the matters, and that Simon would not leaue off his follie.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus, called Epiphanes, tooke ꝑ kingdome, Jason ꝑ brother of Onias laboured by vnlawfull meanes to be hie Priest.

8 For he came vnto the King, and promised him three hundreth and three score talents of siluer, and of an other rent, foure score talents.

9 Besides this he promised him an hundreth and fiftie, if hee might haue licence to set vp a place for exercise, and a place for the youth, and that they would ‖ name them of Jerusalem Antiochians.

Or, that he would write the Antiochians that were in Jerusalem among them.

10 The which thing when the King had granted, and he had gotten the superioritie, he began immediatly to drawe his kinsmen to the customes of the Gentiles,

11 And abolished the friendly priuileges of the Kings, that the Iewes had set vp by John, ꝑ father of Eupolemus, which was sent ambassadour vnto Rome, to become friendes and confederates: hee put downe their lawes and policies, and brought vp newe statutes, and contrarie to the Lawe.

12 For he presumed to build a place of exercise vnder the castel, and brought ꝑ chiefe young men vnder his subiection, and made them weare ‖ hattes.

Or, sombrets in token of dignitie, as the Venetians vse.

13 So there began a great desire to followe the maner of the Gentiles, and they tooke vp the facions of strange nations by the erreeding wickednes of Jason, not the hie Priest, but the vngodly person,

14 So that the Priestes were nowe no more diligent about the seruice of the altar, but despised the Temple, and regarded not the sacrifices, but made haste to bee partakers of the wicked expenses at the playe † after the casting of the stone.

† This game was to trie strength by casting a stone ꝑ had an hole in ꝑ midst, or a piece of metall.

15 For they did not set by the honour of their fathers, but liked the glorie of the Gentiles best of all.

16 By reason whereof great calamitie came vpon them: for they had them to bee their enemies † punishers, whose custome they followed so earnestly, and desired to be like them in all things.

17 For it is not a light thing to trāsgresse against the Lawes of God, but the time following shall declare these things.

18 ¶ Now when the ‖ games that were vsed euery fiue yere, were plaied at Tyrus, the King being present,

Or, Olympian games which were vsed to be kept euery fiue yeers.

19 This wicked Jason sent from Jerusalem men to looke vpō them, as though they had bene Antiochians, which brought three hundreth drachmes of siluer for a sacrifice to Hercules: albeit they that caried them, desired they might not bee bestowed on the sa-the sacrifice (because it was not comely) but to be bestowed for other expences.

20 So he that sent them, sent the for the sacrifice of Hercules: but because of those that brought them, they were giuen to the making of galleies.

21 ¶ Now Apollonius the sonne of Menestheus was sent into Egypt because of the coronation of King Ptolemeus Philometor: but when Antiochus perceiued that hee was euill affectioned towarde his affaires, hee sought his owne assurance, and departed frō thence to Joppe, and so came to Jerusalem, 22 Where hee was honourably receiued of Jason, and of the citie, and was brought in with torchlyght, and with great shoutings, and so hee went with his hoste vnto Phenice.

23 Three yeere afterwarde Jason sent Menelaus, the foresaide Simons brother, to beare the money vnto the King, and to bring to passe certaine necessarie affaires, whereof he had giuen him a memoriall.

24 But he, being commended to ỹ King, magnified him for the appearance of his power, and turned the Priesthoode vnto him selfe: for he gaue three hundreth talentes of siluer more then Jason.

Or, commandement.

25 So he gate ỹ Kings ‖ letters patents, albeit hee had nothing in him selfe woorthie of the hie Priesthood, but bare the stomacke of a cruel tyrant, and the wrath of a wilde beast.

26 Then Jason, which had deceiued his owne brother, being deceiued by another, was compelled to flee into the countrey of the Ammonites.

27 So Menelaus gate the dominion: but as for the money that hee had promised vnto the King, hee tooke none order for it, albeit Sostratus the ruler of the castell required it.

28 For vnto him apperteined the gathering of the customes: wherefore they were both called before the King.

29 Now Menelaus left his brother Lysimachus in his steade in the Priesthoode, and Sostratus left Crates which was gouernour of the [b] Cyprians.

b That is, of the that meanured the zone.

30 ¶ Whiles these things were in doing, the Tharsians and they of Mallot made insurrection, because they were giuen to the Kings concubine called Antiochis.

31 Then came the King in al haste, to appeale ỹ busines, leauing Andronicus a man of authoritie to be his lieuetenant.

32 Now Menelaus, supposing that hee had gotten a conuenient time, stole certaine vessels of gold out of the Temple, and gaue certaine of them to Andronicus: and some he sold at Tyrus and in the cities thereby.

33 Which when Onias knewe of a surete, hee reproued him, and withdrewe him selfe into a Sanctuarie at Daphne by Antiochia.

34 Wherefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart, prayed him to slaye Onias: so when he came to Onias, hee counseled him craftily, giuing him his right hand with an oth: (howbeit he suspect him, and perswaded him to come out of the Sanctuarie) so he slewe him incontinently without any regard of righteousnes.

35 For the which cause not onely the Jewes, but many other nations also were grieued, and tooke it heauily for the vnrighteous death of this man.

36 ¶ And when the King was come againe from ỹ places about Cilicia, ỹ Jewes, that were in the citie, and certaine of the Greekes that abhorred the facte also, complained because Onias was slaine without cause.

37 Therefore Antiochus was sorie in his minde, and hee had compassion, and wept because of the modestie and great discretion of him that was dead.

38 Wherefore being kindled with anger, he tooke away Andronicus garmēt of purple, ỻ rent his clothes, ỻ commanded him to bee led throughout the citie, and in the same place where he had committed the wickednes against Onias, he was slaine as a murtherer. Thus the Lord rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserued.

39 ¶ Now when Lysimachus had done many wicked deedes in the citie through ỹ counsell of Menelaus, and the bruite was spread abroade, the multitude gathered thē together against Lysimachus: for hee had caried out nowe much vessel of gold.

40 And when the people arose, ỻ were full of anger, Lysimachus armed about three thousand, and began to vse vnlawful power, a certaine tyrant being their taytaine, who was no lesse decayed in wit then in age.

41 But when they vnderstood the purpose of Lysimachus, some gate stones, some great clubbes, ỻ some cast handfuls of dust, which lay by, vpon Lysimachus men, and those that inuaded them.

42 Whereby many of them were wounded, some were slayne, and all the other chased away: but the wicked Churchrober him selfe, they killed besides the treasurie.

43 For these causes an accusation was layde against Menelaus.

44 And when the King came to Tyrus, three men sent from the Senate pleaded the cause before him.

45 But Menelaus, being nowe convinced, promised to Ptolemeus [the sonne] of Dorimenes much money, if he would perswade the King.

46 So Ptolemeus went to the King into a court, where as hee was to coole him selfe, and turned the Kings minde.

47 In so much that hee discharged Menelaus from the accusations (notwithstanding hee was the cause of all mischiefe) and condemned those poore men to death, which if they had tolde their cause, yea, before the Scythians, they should haue bene heard as innocent.

48 Thus were they soone punished vniustly, which followed vpon the matter for the citie, and for the people, and for the holie vessels.

49 Wherefore they of Tyrus hated that wickednesse, and ministred all thinges liberally for their buriall.

50 And so through the couetousnesse of them that were in power, Menelaus remained in authoritie, increasing in malice, and declared himselfe a great traitour to the citizens.

CHAP. V.

2 Of the signes and tokens seene in Jerusalem. 6 Of the ende and wickednesse of Jason. 11 The persecute of Antiochus against the Jewes. 15 The spoyling of the Temple. 27 Maccabeus fleeth into the wildernesse.

ABout the same time Antiochus vndertooke his seconde voyage into Egypt.

2 And then were there seene throughout all the citie [of Jerusalem,] fourtie dayes long, horsemen running in the ayre, with robes of golde, and as bandes of speare men,

3 And as troupes of horsemen set in array, incountering and coursing one against another with shaking of shieldes and multitude of dartes and drawing of swordes, and shooting of arrowes, and the glittering of the golden armour seene, and harnesse of all sortes.

4 Therefore every man prayed, that those tokens might turne to good.

5 Nowe when there was gone forth a false rumour, as though Antiochus had bin dead, Jason tooke at the least a thousande men, and came suddenly vpon the citie, and they that were vpon the walles, being put backe and the citie at length taken,

6 Menelaus fledde into the castell, but Jason slew his own citizens without mercie, not considering that to haue the aduantage against his kinsmen is greatest disaduantage, but thought that he had gotten the victorie of his enemies, and not of his owne nation.

7 Yet he gate not the superioritie, but at the last receiued shame for ỹ reward of his treason, and went againe like a vagabond into the countrey of the Ammonites.

8 Finally he had this end of his wicked conuersation, that hee was ‖ accused before Areta, the King of the Arabians, and fled from citie to citie, being pursued of euery man, and hated as a forsaker of the Lawes, and was in abomination, as an enemie of his countrey and citizens, and was driuen into Egypt. ‖ Gr. shut vp

9 Thus he that had chased many out of their owne countrey, perished as a banished man, after that he was gone to the Lacedemonians, thinking there to haue gotten succour by reason of kinred.

10 And hee that had cast many out vnburied, was throwen out him selfe, no man mourning for him, nor putting him in his graue: neither was hee partaker of his fathers sepulchre.

11 ¶ Nowe when these things that were done, were declared to the king, he thought that Judea woulde haue fallen from him: wherefore hee came with a furious minde out of Egypt, and tooke the citie by violence.

12 He commanded his men of warre also, that they shoulde kill, and not spare such as they met, and to slay such as went into their houses.

13 Thus was there a slaughter of yong men, and old men, and a destruction of men and women and children, and virgins, and infants were murthered:

14 So ỹ within three dayes were slayne foure score thousand, and fourtie thousande taken prisoners, and there were as many sold as were slaine.

15 Yet was hee not content with this, but durst go into the most holy Temple of all the worlde, hauing Menelaus that traitour to the Lawes, and to his owne countrey, to be his guide,

16 And with his wicked hands tooke the holy vessels, which other Kings had giuen for the garnishing, glory and honour of that place, and handled them with his wicked hands.

17 So hautie in his minde was Antiochus, that he considered not, that God was not a litle wroth for the sinnes of them that dwelt dwelt in ỹ citie, for the which such contempt came vpon that place.

18 For if they had not bene wrapped in many sinnes, hee, assoone as he had come, had suddenly bene punished, and put backe from his presumption, as Heliodorus was, whome Seleucus the King sent to viewe the treasurie.

19 But God hath not chosen the nation for the places sake, but the place for the nations sake.

20 And therefore is the place become partaker of the peoples trouble, but afterward shall it be partaker of the benefites of the Lorde, and as it is now forsaken in the wrath of the Almightie, so when the great Lord shall be reconciled, it shalbe set vp in great worship againe.

21 ¶ So when Antiochus had taken eightene hundreth talents out of the Temple, hee gate him to Antiochia in all haste, thinking in his pride to make men sayle vpon the drie lande, and to walke vpon the sea: such an hie minde had he.

22 But he left deputies to vexe ỹ people: at Jerusalem Philip a Phrygian by birth, in maners more cruell then he that set him there:

23 And at Garizin Andronicus, and with thē Menelaus, which was more grieuous to the citizens then the other, and was despitefull against the Jewes his cittizens.

24 He sent also Apollonius a cruel prince, with an armie of two & twentie thousand, whome he commaunded to slay thole that were toward mans age, and to sell the women, and the yonger sorte.

25 So when he came to Jerusalem, hee fayned peace, and kept him still vntil the holy day of Sabbath: and then finding the Jewes keeping the feast, hee commanded his men to take their weapons.

26 And so hee slewe all them that were gone forth to the shewe, & running through the citie with his men armed, he murthered a great number.

27 But Judas Maccabeus, being as it were the tenth, fled into the wildernes, and liued there in the mountaines with his company among the beasts, and dwelling there, and eating grasse, least they should bee partakers of the filthinesse.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Jewes are compelled to leaue the Lawe of God. 4 The Temple is defiled. 10 The women cruelly punished. 28 The grieuous payne of Eleazarus.

NOt long after this, sent the King an olde man of ‖ Athens, for to compell ỹ Jewes, to transgresse the Lawes of the fathers, and not to be gouerned by the Lawe of God,

‖ Or, Amebia.

2 And to defile the Temple that was at Jerusalem, and to call it the temple of Jupiter Olympius, and that of Garizin, according as they did that dwelt at that place, Jupiter, that keepeth hospitalitie.

3 This wicked gouernment was sore & grieuous vnto the people.

4 For the Temple was full of dissolution, and gluttonie of the Gentiles, which dallyed with harlots, and had to doe with women within the circuit of the holy places, and brought in such thinges as were not lawfull.

5 The altar also was full of such things, as were abominable and forbidden by the Law.

6 Neither was it lawfull to keepe the Sabbaths, nor to obserue their auncient feasts, nor plainly to confesse him selfe to be a Jewe.

7 In the day of ỹ kings birth they were grieuously compelled parforce euery moneth to banket, and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, they were constrayned to go in the procession of Bacchus with garlands of yuie.

8 Moreouer through the counsel of Ptolemeus, there went out a commaundement vnto the next cities of ỹ heathen against the Jewes, that the like custome, and ‖ banketting should be kept.

‖ Or, eating of the flesh that was sacrificed.

9 And who so would not conforme themselues to the maners of the Gentiles, should be put to death: then might a mā haue seene the present miserie.

10 For there were two women brought forth, that had circumcised their sonnes, whom when they had led round about the citie, (the babes hanging at their breasts) they cast thē downe hedlong ouer ỹ walles.

11 Some that were runne together into dennes to keepe the Sabbath day secretly, were discouered vnto Philippe, and were burnt together, because that for the reuerēce of the honourable day they were afrayde to helpe themselues.

12 ¶ Nowe I beseech those which reade this booke, that they be not discouraged for these calamities, but that they iudge these afflictions, not to be for destruction, but for a chastening of our nation.

13 For it is a token of his great goodnes not to suffer sinners long to continue, but straight wayes to punish them.

14 For the Lorde doeth not long wayte for vs, as for other nations, whom he punisheth when they are come to the fulnes of their sinnes.

15 But

15 But thus he dealeth with vs, that our sinnes should not be heaped vp to ꝑ full, so that afterward he should punish vs.

16 And therefore he neuer withdraweth his mercie from vs: and though hee punish with aduersitie, yet doeth he neuer forsake his people.

17 But let this bee spoken nowe for a warning vnto vs: and nowe will we come to the declaring of ꝑ matter in fewe words.

18 ¶ Eleazar then one of the principall scribes, an aged man, and of a wel fauoured countenance, was constrained to open his mouth, and to eate swines flesh.

19 But he desiring rather to die gloriously then to liue with hatred, offered him selfe willingly to the torment, and spit it out:

20 As they ought to go [to death] which suffer punishment for such things, as it is not lawefull to taste of for the desire to liue.

21 But they that had the charge of this wicked banket, for that olde friendship of the man, tooke him aside priuily, and prayed him, that he would take such flesh, as was lawefull for him to vse, and as he would prepare for him selfe, and dissemble as though he had eaten of the things appointed by the King, euen the flesh of the sacrifice,

22 That in so doing he might bee deliuered from death, and that for the olde friendship that was among them, hee would receiue this fauour.

23 But he began to consider discretely, ꝛ as became his age, and the excellencie of his ancient yeeres, and the honour of his graye heares, whereunto hee was come, and his most honest conuersation frō his childhode, but chiefly the holy Lawe made and giuen by God: therefore he answered consequently, and willed them straightwayes to sende him to the graue.

24 For it becommeth not our age, [saide he,] to dissemble, whereby many yong persons might thinke, that Eleazar being foure score yeere olde and ten were nowe gone to ‖another religion,

‖Or, to another maner of life.

25 And so through mine hypocrisie (for a litle time of a transitorie life) they might be deceiued by me, and I should procure malediction and reproche to mine olde age.

26 For though I were nowe deliuered from the torments of men, yet could I not escape the hande of the Almightie, neither aliue nor dead.

27 Wherefore I will nowe change this life manfully, and will shewe my selfe such as mine age requireth, 28 And so will leaue a notable example for such as be yong, to die willingly and courageously for the honourable ꝛ holy lawes. And when he had said these wordes, immediatly he went to torment.

29 Nowe they that led him, changed the loue which they bare him before, into hatred, because of the wordes that he had spoken: for they thought it had bene a rage.

30 And as hee was readie to giue ꝑ ghost because of the strokes, hee sighed and saide, The Lorde ꝑ hath the holie knowledge, knoweth manifestly, that wheras I might haue bene deliuered from death, I am scourged and suffer these sore paines of my bodie: but in my minde I suffer them gladly for his religion.

31 Euen now after this maner ended hee his life, leauing his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memoriall of vertue, not onely vnto yong men, but vnto all his nation.

CHAP. VII.

The punishment of the seuen brethren and of their mother.

IT came to passe also that seuen brethren, with their mother, were taken to bee compelled by the King against the Lawe, to taste swines flesh, and were tormēted with scourges and whippes.

2 But one of them, which spake first, sayde thus, What seekest thou and what wouldest thou know of vs? We are ready to die, rather then to transgresse the Lawes of our fathers.

3 Then was the King angrie, and commanded to heate pannes ꝛ caldrons, which were incontinently made hote.

4 And he commanded the tongue of him that spake first, to be cut out, and to flay him and to cut off the vtmost partes of his body in the sight of his other brethrē and his mother.

5 Now when he was thus mangled in al his members, hee commaunded him to be brought aliue to the fire ꝛ to frie him in the panne: and while the smoke for a long time smoked out of the pan, the [other brethren] with their mother, exhorted one another to die courageously, saying in this maner,

6 The Lord God doth regard vs, and in deede taketh pleasure in vs, as Moyses *declared in the song whereim he testified openly, saying, That [God] will take pleasure in his seruants. * Deu. 32. 36

7 ¶ So when ꝑ first was dead after this maner, they brought ꝑ second to make him a mocking stocke: and when they had pulled the skinne with the heare ouer his head, they asked him, if he would eate, or he were punished in all the members of the body.

8 But

8 But he answered in his own language, and said, No. Wherefore he was tormented forthwith like the first.

9 And when he was at the last breath, he saide, Thou murtherer takest this present life from vs, but the King of the world will raise vs vp, which die for his Lawes, in the resurrection of euerlasting life.

10 ¶ After him was the third had in derision, and when they demaded his tongue, hee put it out incontinently, and stretched forth his handes boldely, 11 And spake manfully, These haue I had from the heauen, but now for the Law of God, I despise them, & trust that I shall receiue them of him againe.

12 In so much that the King and they which were with him, marueiled at the yong mãs courage, as at one that nothing regarded the paines.

13 ¶ Now when hee was dead also, they vered and tormented the fourth in like maner.

14 And when he was now readie to die, hee saide thus, It is better that we shoulde change this which wee might hope for of men, & waite for our hope from God, that we may be rayled vp againe by him: as for thee, thou shalt haue no resurrection to life.

15 ¶ Afterward they brought the fift also and tormented him,

16 Who looked vpon the King, and said, Thou hast power among men, and though thou bee a mortall man, thou doest what thou wilt: but thinke not, that God hath forsaken our nation.

17 But abide a while, and thou shalt see his great power, how he will torment thee and thy seede.

18 After him also they brought the sixte, who being at the point of death, saide, Deceiue not thy selfe foolishly: for wee suffer these things, which are worthy to bee wondred at for our owne sakes, because we haue offended our God.

19 But thinke not thou, which vndertakest to fight against God, that thou shalt be vnpunished.

20 But the mother was marueilous aboue all other, and worthy of honourable memorie: for When shee sawe her seuen sonnes slaine within the space of one daye, she suffered it with a good will, because of the hope that she had in the Lord.

21 Yea, she exhorted euery one of them in her owne language, and being full of courage and wisedome, stirred vp her womanly affections with a manly stomacke, and said vnto them,

22 I can not tell howe ye came into my wombe: for I neither gaue you breath nor life: it is not I that set in order the members of your body,

23 But doutles the Creator of the world, which formed the birth of man, and founde out the beginning of all things, will also of his owne mercie giue you breath and life againe, as yee nowe regarde not your owne selues, for his Lawes sake.

24 Now Antiochus thinking him selfe despised, and considering the iniurious wordes, while the yongest was yet aliue, hee did exhort him not onely with wordes, but swore also vnto him by an othe that he would make him riche and welthie, if hee would forsake the Lawes of his fathers, and that he would take him as a friend, and giue him offices.

25 But when the yong man would in no case hearken vnto him, the King called his mother, and exhorted that she would counsell the yong man to saue his life.

26 And when he had exhorted her with many wordes, shee promised him that shee would counsell her sonne.

27 So she turned her vnto him, laughing the cruell tyrant to scorne, and spake in her owne language, O my sonne, haue pitie vpon mee, that bare thee nine moneths in my wombe, & gaue thee sucke three yeeres, and nourished thee, and tooke care for thee vnto this age, and brought thee vp.

28 I beseeche thee, my sonne, looke vpõ the heauen and the earth, and all that is therein, and consider that God made them of things that were not, and so was mankinde made likewise.

29 Feare not this hangman, but shewe thy selfe worthy such brethren by suffring death, that I may receiue thee in mercie with thy brethren.

30 While shee was yet speaking these wordes, the yong man said, Whome waite ye for? I will not obey the kings cõmandement: but I will obey the commandement of the Lawe that was giuen vnto our fathers by Moyses.

31 And thou that imaginest all mischiefe against the Hebrewes, shalt not escape the hand of God.

32 For We suffer these things, because of our sinnes,

33 But though the liuing Lord be angry with vs a litle while for our chastening and correction, yet will he be reconciled with his owne seruants.

34 But thou, O man without religion and most wicked of all men, lift not thy selfe vp in vp in vaine, which art puffed vp with vncertaine hope, & lifteſt thine handes against the ſeruants of God.

35 For thou haſt not yet eſcaped ỹ iudgement of almightie God, which ſeeth all things.

36 My brethren that haue ſuffred a litle paine, are nowe vnder the diuine couenant of euerlaſting life: but thou through ỹ iudgement of God, ſhalt ſuffer iuſt punishments for thy pride.

37 Therefore I, as my brethren haue done, offer my bodie and life for the Lawes of our fathers, beſeeching God, that he will ſoone be mercifull vnto our nation, and that thou by torment and punishment maieſt confeſſe, that he is the onely God, 38 And that in mee and my brethren the Wrath of ỹ Almightie, which is righteouſly fallen vpon all our nation, may ceaſe.

39 Then the King being kindled with anger, raged more cruelly against him then the others, and tooke it grieuouſly, that hee was mocked.

40 So he alſo dyed holily, and put his whole truſt in the Lord.

41 Laſt of all after the ſonnes, was the mother put to death.

42 Let this now be inough ſpoken cõcerning the bankets, and extreme cruelties.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Iudas gathereth together his hoſte. 9 Nicanor is ſent against Iudas. 16 Iudas exhorteth his ſouldiers to conſtancie. 20 Nicanor is ouercome. 27 The Iewes giue thankes, after they haue put their enemies to flight, deuiding part of the ſpoyles vnto the fatherles and vnto the widowes. 30 Timotheus and Bacchides are diſcomfited. 35 Nicanor fleeth vnto Antiochus.

THen Iudas Maccabeus, & they that were with him, went priuily into the townes, and called their kinſfolkes and friendes together, and tooke vnto them all ſuch as continued in the Iewes religiõ, and aſſembled ſix thouſand men.

2 So they called vpon the Lord, that he would haue an eye vnto his people, which was vexed of euery man, and haue pitie vpon the Temple that was defiled by wicked men,

3 And that hee would haue compaſſion vpon the citie that was deſtroyed, and almoſt brought to the ground, and that hee would heare ỹ voyce of the bloud that cried vnto him,

4 And that hee would remẽber the wicked ſlaughter of the innocent children, and the blaſphemies committed againſt his Name, and that he would ſhew his hatred againſt the wicked.

5 Now when Maccabeus had gathered this multitude, hee could not bee withſtand by the heathen: for the Wrath of the Lorde was turned into mercie.

6 Therefore hee came at vnwares, and burnt vp the townes and cities: yet he tooke the moſt commodious places, and ſlewe many of the enemies.

7 But ſpecially hee vſed the nightes to make ſuch aſſaultes, inſomuch that the bruit of his manlineſſe was ſpread euery where.

8 ¶ So when Philippe ſawe that this man increaſed by litle and litle, & that things proſpered with him for the moſt part, hee wrote vnto Ptolemeus the gouernour of Coeloſyria and Phenice, to helpe him in the kings buſines.

9 Then ſent hee ſpeedily Nicanor [the ſonne] of Patroclus, a ſpeciall friend of his, and gaue him of all nations of the heathen no leſſe then twentie thouſand mẽ, to roote out the whole generation of the Iewes, and ioyned with him Gorgias a captaine, which in matters of warre had great experience.

10 Nicanor ordeined alſo a tribute for the King of two thouſand talentes, which the Romaines ſhould haue, to bee taken of the Iewes that were taken priſoners.

11 Therefore immediatly hee ſent to the cities on the ſea coaſt, prouoking them to bie Iewes to be their ſeruants, promiſing to ſell foureſcore and ten for one talent: but he cõſidered not the vengeãce of almightie God, that ſhould come vpon him.

12 When Iudas then knew of Nicanors cõming, he told them that were with him, of the comming of the armie.

13 Now were there ſome of them fearefull, which truſted not vnto the righteouſnes of God, but fled away, and abode not in that place.

14 But the other ſolde all that they had left, and beſought the Lorde together, to deliuer them from that wicked Nicanor, which had ſolde them, or euer he came neere them.

15 And though hee would not doe it for their ſakes, yet for the couenant made with their fathers, and becauſe they called vpon his holy and glorious Name.

16 And ſo Maccabeus called his men together, about fiue thouſand, exhorting them not to bee afraide of their enemies, neither to feare the great multitude of the Gẽtiles, which came againſt them vnrighteouſly, but to fight manly,

17 Setting before their eyes the iniurie that they had vniuſtly done to the holy place,

place, and the crueltie done to the citie by derision, and the destruction of the orders established by their fathers.

18 For they, saide hee, trust in their weapons and boldnesse: but our confidence is in the almightie God, which at a becke can both destroy thē that come against vs, and all the world.

19 Moreouer he admonished them of the helpe ꝑ [God] hewed vnto their fathers, as when there perished an hundred and
2. King. 19. 35. Isa. 37. 36. tob. 1. 18. ecclus. 48. 21. 1. mac. 7. 41. fourescore, and fiue thousande vnder * Sennacherib,

20 And of the battel that they had in Babylon against the Galatians, howe they ‖ Some read fiue thousand. came in all to the battell ‖ eight thousande, with foure thousande Macedonians: and when the Macedonians were astonished, the eight thousand slewe an hundreth and twentie thousande through the helpe that was giuen thē from heauen, whereby they had receiued many benefites.

21 Thus when he had made them bolde with these wordes, and readie to die for the Lawes ⁊ the countrey, hee deuided his armie into foure parts, 22 And made his owne brethrē captaines ouer the armie, [to wit,] Simon, and Joseph and Jonathan, giuing eche one fiftene hundreth men.

23 And when Eleazarus had read the holy booke, and giuen them a token of the helpe of God, [Judas] which led the forward, ioyned with Nicanor,

24 And because the Almightie helped them, they slewe aboue nine thousand men, and wounded and maimed the most part of Nicanors host, and so put all to flight,

25 And tooke the money from those that came to buy them, and pursued them farre: but lacking time they returned.

26 For it was the day before the Sabbath, and therefore they would no longer pursue them.

27 So they tooke their weapons, and spoiled the enemies, and kept the Sabbath, giuing thankes and prayling the Lord wonderfully, which had deliuered them that day, and powred vpon them the beginning of his mercie.

Num. 31. 27. 1. sam. 30. 24. 28 And after the Sabbath, * they distributed the spoiles to the sicke, ⁊ to the fatherles, and to the widowes, and deuided the residue among them selues and their children.

29 When this was done, and they al had made a generall prayer, they beseought the merciful Lord to be reconciled at the length with his seruants.

30 Afterward with one consent they fell vpon Timotheus and Bacchides, and slew aboue twentie thousande, and wanne hie and strong holdes, ⁊ deuided great spoyles, and gaue an equall portion vnto the sicke, and to the fatherlesse, and to the widowes, and to aged persons also.

31 Moreouer they gathered their weapons together, and laied them vp diligently in conuenient places, and brought the remnant of the spoyles to Jerusalem.

32 They slewe also Philarches a most wicked person, which was with Timotheus, ⁊ had vexed the Jewes many wayes.

33 And when they kept the feast of victory in their countrey, they burnt Callisthenes that had set fire vpon the holy gates, which was fledde into a litle house: so he receiued a reward meete for his wickednesse.

34 And that most wicked Nicanor, which had brought a thousand marchants to buye the Jewes, 35 He was through the helpe of the Lord brought downe of them whom he thought as nothing, in so much that hee put off his glorious rainent, and fled ouerthwart the countrey like a fugitiue seruant, and came alone to Antiochia, with great dishonour through the destruction of his host.

36 Thus he that promised to pay tribute to the Romaines, by meanes of the pyloners of Jerusalem, brought newes, that the Jewes had a ‖ defender, ⁊ for this cause none could hurt the Jewes, because they folowed the lawes appointed by him.
‖ Or, God their defender.

CHAP. IX.

1 Antiochus willing to spoyle Persepolis, is put to flight. 5 As he persecuteth the Jewes, he is stricken of the Lord. 13 The fayned repentance of Antiochus. 28 He dieth miserably.

AT the same time, came Antiochus againe with dishonour out of the countrey of Persia.

2 For when he came to Persepolis, and went about to rob the Temple, and to subdue the citie, the people ranne in a rage to defende themselues with their weapons, and to put them to flight, and Antiochus was put to flight by the inhabitantes, and returned with shame.

3 Nowe when he came to Ecbatane, hee vnderstoode the thinges that had come vnto Nicanor, and Timotheus.

4 And then being chafed in his fume, he thought to impute to ꝑ Jewes their faulte, which had put him to flight, and therefore commanded his charet man to driue continually, and to dispatche the iourney: for Gods iudgement compelled him: for he had said thus in his pride, I will make Jerusalem a common burying place of the Jewes, when I come thither.

5 But the Lorde almightie and God of Israel smote him with an incurable and inuisible plague: for assoone as he had spoken these wordes, a payne of the bowelles, that was remedilesse, came vpon him, and sore tormentes of the inner parts,

6 And that most iustly: for he had tormẽted other mens bowels with diuers, and strange torments.

7 Howbeit he would in no wise ceasse frõ his arrogancie, but swelled the more with pride, breathing out fyre in his rage against the Iewes, and commanded to haste the iourney: but it came to passe ẏ he fell downe from the charet that ranne swiftly, so that all the members of his body were dysiled with the great fall.

8 And thus hee that a little afore thought he might commande the floods of the sea (so proude was he beyond the condition of man) and to weigh the hie mountaines in the balance, was nowe cast on the ground, and caried in an horselitter, declaring vnto all the manifest power of God,

Act. 12.23. 9 *So that the wormes came out of the body of this wicked man in aboundance: & whiles hee was aliue, his flesh fell off for payne and torment, and all his armie was (Or, grieued. noyse. grieued at his ‖ smell.

10 Thus no man couldе beare because of his stinke, him that a little afore thought hee might reache to the starres of heauen.

11 Then hee began to leaue off his great pride, and leise will, when hee was plagued and came to the knowledge of him selfe by the scourge of God, and by his payne which increased euery moment.

12 And when he himselfe might not abide his owne stinke, he saide these wordes, It is meete to bee subiect vnto God, & that a man which is mortal, should not thinke himselfe equall vnto God through pride.

13 This wicked person prayed also vnto the Lord, who would nowe haue no mercy on him, 14 And sayde thus that he woulde set at libertie the holy citie vnto ẏ which hee made haste to destroy it, and to make it a burying place.

15 And as touching the Iewes (whome he had iudged not worthy to be buryed, but woulde haue cast them out with their children to be deuoured of the foules and wilde beasts) he woulde make them all like the citizens of Athenes.

16 And where as he had spoyled the holy Temple afore, he woulde garnish it with great giftes, and increase the holy vessels, and of his owne rents beare the charges belonging to the sacrifices.

17 Yea, and that he would also become a Iewe himselfe, & go through all the worlde that was inhabited, and preach the power of God.

18 But for all this his paynes would not cease: for the iust iudgement of God was come vpon him: therefore despairing of his health, he wrote vnto the Iewes this letter vnder written, conteining the forme of a supplication.

19 ¶ THE KING and prince Antiochus vnto the Iewes his louing citizens wisheth much ioye and health and prosperitie.

20 If ye and your children fare well, and if all thinges goe after your minde, I giue great thankes vnto God hauing hope in the heauen.

21 Though I lie sicke, yet I am mindefull of your honour, & good will for the loue I beare you: therefore when I returned from the countrey of Perſia, and fell into a sore disease, I thought it necessarie to care for the common safetie of all,

22 Not distrusting mine health, but hauing great hope to escape this sickenes.

23 Therefore considering that when my father ledde an hoste against the high countreys, hee appoynted who shoulde succeede him:

24 That if any controuerſie happened contrary to his expectation, or if that any tidings were brought that were grieuous, they in the land might knowe to whom the affayres were committed, that they should not be troubled.

25 Againe, when I ponder how that the gouernours, that are borderers, and neighbours vnto my kingdome, waite for al occasions, & looke but for opportunitie, I haue ordeyned that my sonne Antiochus shalbe King, whome I oft commended and committed to many of you, when I went into the hie prouinces, and haue written vnto him as followeth hereafter.

26 Therefore, I pray you, and require you to remember the benefites that I haue done vnto you generally, and particularly, and that euery man will be faithfull to mee and to my sonne.

27 For I trust that he will be gentle, and louing vnto you according to my minde.

28 ¶ Thus the murtherer and blasphemer suffred most grieuously, and as he had intreated other men, so he dyed a miserable death in a strange countrey among ẏ mountaynes.

29 And Philip that was brought vp with him, him,caried away his body,Who fearing the sonne of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolemeus Philometor.

CHAP. X.

1 Iudas Maccabeus taketh the citie and the Temple. 10 The acts of Eupator. 16 The Iewes fight against the Idumeans. 24 Timotheus inuadeth Iudea, with whome Iudas toyneth battell. 29 Fiue men appeare in the aire to the helpe of the Iewes. 37 Timotheus is slayne.

MAccabeus nowe and his company, through ꝑ helpe of the Lord, wanne the Temple and the citie againe,

2 And destroyed the altars, and chappels that the heathen had buylded in the open places,

3 And clensed the Temple, and made an other altar, and burned stones, and tooke fire of them, & offred sacrifices, and incense two yeeres, and fire moneths after, and set forth the lampes, and the shewbread.

4 When that was done, they fell downe flatte vpon the grounde, and besought the Lorde, that they might come no more into such troubles: but if they sinned any more against him, that he himselfe would chasten them with mercie, and that they might not be deliuered to the blasphemous, and barbarous nations.

5 Nowe vpon the same day, that ꝑ strangers polluted the temple, on the very same day it was clensed againe euen the fiue and twentieth day of the same moneth, which is ‖ Chasleu.

For, Nouember.

6 They kept eyght dayes with gladnesse as in the feast of the Tabernacles, remembring, that not long afore they helde the feast of the Tabernacles when they liued in the mountaynes and dennes lyke beastes.

7 And for ꝑ same cause they bare greene boughes, and fayre branches and Palmes, and sang Psalmes vnto him that had giuen them good successe in clensing his place.

8 They ordeyned also by a common statute and decree, that euery yeere those daies shoulde bee kept of the whole nation of the Iewes.

9 And this was the ende of Antiochus called Epiphanes.

10 ¶ Nowe will wee declare the actes of Antiochus Eupator, which was the sonne of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the warres, that followed.

11 For when he had taken the kingdome, hee made one Lysias, which had bene captaine of the host in Phenice, and Coelosyria, ruler ouer the affaires of the Realme.

12 For Ptolemeus that was called Macron, purposed to doe iustice vnto ꝑ Iewes for the wrong, that had bene done vnto thē, and went about to behaue him selfe peaceably with them.

13 For the which cause he was accused of his friendes before Eupator, and was called oft times traytour, because hee had left Cyprus that Philometor had committed vnto him, and came to Antiochus Epiphanes: therefore seeing that he was no more in estimation, he was discouraged, and poysoned him selfe, and died.

14 ¶ But when Gorgias was gouernour of the same places, hee intertayned strangers, and made warre oft times against the Iewes.

15 Moreouer the Idumeans that helde the strong holdes, which were meete for their purpose, troubled the Iewes, and by receiuing them that were driuen from Ierusalem, tooke in hand to continue warre.

16 Then they that were with Maccabeus made prayers, and besought God that he would be their helper, and so they fell vpon the strong holds of the Idumeans, 17 And assaulted them sore, that they wanne the places, and slewe all that fought against them on the wall, and killed all that they met with, and slew no lesse then twentie thousande.

18 And because certaine (which were no lesse then nine thousand) were fled into two strong castels, hauing all maner of thinges conuenient to susteine the siege, 19 Maccabeus left Simon, and Ioseph, and Zaccheus also, and those that were with them, which were ynowe to besiege them, and departed to those places which were more necessarie.

20 Nowe they that were with Simon, being led with couetousnes, were intreated for money (through certaine of those ꝑ were in the castell) and tooke seuentie thousande * drachmes, and let some of them escape.

* A drachme is the eight part of an ounce, which is about three pence.

21 But when it was tolde Maccabeus what was done, hee called the gouernours of the people together, and accused those men, that they had solde their brethren for money, and let their enemies go.

22 So hee slewe them when they were conuict of treason, and immediately wanne the two castels:

23 And hauing good successe, as in all the warres that he tooke in hande, he slewe in the two castels mo then twentie thousand.

24 Now Timotheus whom the Iewes had ouercome afore, gathered an armie of strangers of all sortes, and brought a great troupe of horsemen out of Asia to Winne Iewrie by strength.

25 But when he drewe neere, Maccabeus, and they that were with him, turned to pray vnto God, and sprinkled earth vpon their heads, and girded their reynes with sackecloth,

26 And fell downe at the foote of the altar, and besought [the Lord] to be mercifull to them, & to be an enemie to their enemies, and to be an aduersary to their aduersaries, Exo. 23. 20 deut. 20. 4. * as the Lawe declareth.

27 So after the prayer, they tooke their weapons, and went on further from the citie, & when they came neere to the enemies, they tooke heede to themselues.

28 And when þ morning appeared, they both ioyned together: the one part had the Lord for their refuge, and pledge of prosperitie, and noble victorie, and the other tooke courage as a guide of the warre.

29 But when the battell waxed strong, there appeared vnto þ enemies from heauē fiue comely men vpon horses with bridles of golde, and two of them led the Iewes,

30 And tooke Maccabeus betwixt them, and couered him on euery side with their weapons, and kept him safe, but shot darts, and lightnings against the enemies, so that they were confounded with blindnesse, and beaten downe and full of trouble.

31 There were slaine of foote men twentie thousande & fiue hundreth, and fiue hundreth horsemen.

32 As for Timotheus himselfe, he fled vnto Gazara, which was called a very strong hold, wherein Chereas was captaine.

33 But Maccabeus and his companie laide siege against þ fortresses with courage for foure dayes.

34 And they that were within, trusting to the height of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and spake horrible words.

35 Neuertheles vpon the ‖ fifth day in the morning, twentie yong men of Maccabeus company, whose hearts were inflamed, because of the blasphemies, came vnto þ wall, and with bolde stomackes smote downe those that they met.

‖ Or, the fiue and twentieth day.

36 Others also that climed vp vpon the engins of warre against them that were within, set fire vpon the towres, and burnt those blasphemers quicke with þ fires that they had made, & others brake vp the gates, and receiued the rest of the armie, and tooke the citie.

37 And hauing founde Timotheus, that was crept into a caue, they killed him, and Chereas his brother with Apollophanes.

38 When this was done, they prayed the Lorde with Psalmes, and thankes giuing, which had done so great things for Israel, and giuen them the victorie.

CHAP. XI.

1 Lysias goeth about to ouercome the Iewes. 8 Succour is sent from heauen vnto the Iewes. 16 The letter of Lysias vnto the Iewes. 20 The letter of King Antiochus vnto Lysias. 27 A letter of the same vnto the Iewes. 34 A letter of the Romains to the Iewes.

VEry shortly after this, Lysias the kings steward, and a kinsman of his, which had the gouernance of the affaires, tooke sore displeasure for the things that were done.

2 And whē he had gathered about foure score thousand, with all þ horsemen he came against the Iewes, thinking to make the citie an habitation of the Gentiles.

3 And the Temple would he haue to get money by, like the other Temples of the heathen: for he would sell the Priests office euery yeere.

4 And thus being puffed vp in his minde, because of the great number of footemen, & thousands of horsemē, and in his foure score Elephants,

5 He came into Judea, and drew neere to Beth-sura, which was a castell of defense, fiue furlonges from Jerusalem, and layde sore siege vnto it.

a Where of eyghe make a myle.

6 But when Maccabeus, and his companie knewe that he besieged the holds, they, & all the people made prayers with weeping, and teares before the Lord, that he would sende a good Angel to deliuer Israel.

7 And Maccabeus himselfe first of all tooke weapons, exhorting the other that they would ieoparde themselues together with him to helpe their brethren: so they went forth together with a courageous minde,

8 And as they were there besides Jerusalem, there appeared before them vpon horseback a man in white clothing, shaking his harnesse of golde.

9 Then they prayed the merciful God altogether, and tooke heart, in so much that they were ready, not onely to fight with men, but with the most cruell beasts, and to breake downe walles of yron.

10 Thus they marched forward in aray, hauing an helper from heauē: for the Lorde was mercifull vnto them.

11 And running vpon their enemies like lions, they slew eleuen thousand footemen, and fiftene hundreth horsemen, and put all the other to flight.

12 Many of them also being wounded, escaped naked, and Lysias himselfe fled away shamefully, and so escaped,

13 Who as hee was a man of vnderstanding, ding, considering what losse he had had, and knowing, that the Hebrewes could not be ouercome because the almightie God helped them, sent vnto them, 14 And promised, that he would consent to all things which were reasonable, and perswade the King to be their friend.

15 Maccabeus agreed to Lysias requests, hauing respect in all things to the common wealth, and whatsoeuer Maccabeus wrote vnto Lysias concerning the Jewes, the King granted it.

16 For there were letters written vnto the Jewes from Lysias conteining these words, LYSIAS vnto the people of the Jewes sendeth greeting.

Or, Absalom, or Absolom.

17 Iohn and ‖Abessalom, which were sent from you, deliuered me the things that you demaunde by writing, and required mee to fulfill the things that they had declared.

18 Therefore what things soeuer were meete to bee reported to the King himselfe, I haue declared them, and he granted that that was possible.

19 Therefore if ye behaue your selues as friends toward his affaires, hereafter also I will indeuour my selfe to do you good.

20 As concerning these things, I haue giuen commandement to these men, and to those whome I sent vnto you, to commune with you of the same particularly.

21 Fare ye well, the hundreth and eight and fourtie yeere, the foure and twentieth day of the moneth Dioscorinthius.

22 ¶ Nolde the Kings letter conteined these words, KING ANTIOCHVS vnto his brother Lysias sendeth greeting.

23 Since our father is translated vnto the gods, our will is, that they which are in our realme, liue quietly, that euery mã may applie his owne affaires.

24 We vnderstand also that the Jewes would not consent to our father, for to bee brought vnto the custome of the Gentiles, but would keepe their owne maner of liuing: for the which cause they require of vs, that we would suffer them to liue after their owne Lawes.

25 Wherefore our minde is that this nation shall be in rest, and haue determined to restore them their Temple, that they may be gouerned according to ỹ custome of their fathers.

26 Thou shalt do well therefore to sende vnto them, and grant them peace, that whē they are certified of our minde, they may be of good comfort, and cheerefully goe about their owne affaires.

27 And this was the Kings letter vnto the nation, KING ANTIOCHVS vnto the Elders of the Jewes, and to the rest of the Jewes sendeth greeting.

28 If ye fare well, we haue our desire: we are also in good health.

29 Menelaus declared vnto vs that your desire was to returne home, and to applye your owne businesse.

30 Wherefore, those that will depart, we giue them free libertie, vnto the thirtie day of the moneth of ‖Panthicus, ‖Or, April, some reade Xanticus, and some Zanticus.

31 That the Jewes may vse their owne maner of liuing and Lawes, like as afore, and none of them by any maner of wayes to haue harme for things done by ignorãce.

32 I haue sent also Menelaus to comfort you.

33 Fare ye well: the hundreth and eight and fourtie yere, the fifteenth day of the moneth of Panthicus.

34 ¶ The Romaines also sent a lettter conteining these words, QVINTVS MEMMIVS and Titus ‖Manilius ambassadours of the Romaines, vnto the people of the Jewes send greeting.

‖Or, Manlius.

35 The thinges that Lysias the Kings kinsman hath graunted you, we graunt the same also.

36 But concerning that which he shal report vnto the King, sende hither some with speede, when ye haue considered the matter diligently, that we may consult thereupon as shalbe best for you: for we must goe vnto Antiochia.

37 And therefore make haste and sende some men, that we may know your minde.

38 Fare well: this hundreth & eight and fourtie yere, the fifteenth day of the moneth of Panthicus.

CHAP. XII.

2 Timotheus troubleth the Jewes. 3 The wicked deede of them of Joppe against the Jewes. 6 Judas is auenged of them. 9 He setteth fire in the hauen of Jamnia. 20 The pursuite of the Jewes against Timotheus. 24 Timotheus is taken and let goe vnhurt. 32 Judas pursueth Gorgias.

WHen these couenãts were made, Lysias went vnto the King, and the Jewes tilled their ground.

2 But the gouernours of the places, [as] Timotheus & Apollonius the sonne of Genneus, and Jeronimus, and also Demophon, and besides them Nicanor the gouernour of Cyprus, would not let thē liue in rest and peace.

3 ¶ They of Joppe also did such a vile acte: they prayed the Jewes that dwelt among them, to goe with their wiues and children into ỹ shippes, which they had prepared as though they had ought them none euill will.

4 And so by the common aduice of the citie, they obeyed them, and suspect nothing: but when they were gone foorth into the deepe, they drowned no lesse then two hundreth of them.

5 Now when Judas knewe of this cruelty shewed against his nation, he commanded thole men that were with him, to make them readie.

6 And hauing called vpon God the righteous Judge, he went forth against ꝑ murtherers of his brethren, and set fire in the hauen by night, and burnt the ships, and those that fled thence, he slewe.

7 And when the citie was shut vp, he departed as though hee would come againe, and roote out all them of the citie of Joppe.

8 ¶ But when he perceiued that ꝑ Jamnites were minded to do in like maner vnto the Jewes, which dwelt among them,

9 He came vpon the Jamnites by night, and set fyre in the hauen with the naule, so that the light of the fyre was seene at Jerusalem, vpon a two hundreth and fourtie furlongs.

10 Now when they were gone frō thence nine furlongs, in their iourney toward Timotheus, about fiue thousand men [of foote] and fiue hundreth horsemen of the Arabians set vpon him.

11 So the battell was sharpe, but it prospered with Judas through the helpe of God: the a Nomades of Arabia, being ouercome, besought Judas to make peace with them, & promised to giue him certaine ‖ cattell, and to helpe him in other things.

a So called because they were the shepheards, ꝙ. pastures

12 And Judas thinking that they should in deede bee profitable concerning manie things, graunted them peace: whereupon they shooke handes, and so they departed to their tents.

13 ¶ Judas also assaulted a citie called Caspis, which was strong by reason of a bridge, & fenced round about with walles, and had diuers kindes of people dwelling therein.

14 So they that were within it, put such trust in the strength of the walles, and in store of vitails, that they were the slacker in their doings, reuiling them that were with Judas, and reprochīg them: yea, they blasphemed and spake such wordes as were not lawfull.

15 But Maccabeus souldiers, calling vpon the great Prince of ꝑ world (which without any ‖ instrumentes, or engins of warre, did * cast downe the walles of Jericho, in the time of Jesus) gaue a fierce assault against the walles, ꝙ. battell rammes. Iosh.6.20.

16 And tooke the citie by the will of God, and made an exceeding great slaughter, in so much that a lake of two furlongs broade, which lay thereby, seemed to flowe with blood.

17 ¶ Then departed they from thence, seuen hundreth and fiftie furlongs, & came to Characa vnto the Jewes, that are called Tubieni.

18 But they found not Timotheus there: for he was departed from thence, and had done nothing, and had left a garison in a very strong holde.

19 But Dositheus, & Sosipater, which were captaines with Maccabeus, went forth, and slewe those that Timotheus had left in the fortresse, more then ten thousande men.

20 And Maccabeus prepared, and ranged his armie by bandes, and went courageously against Timotheus, which had with him an hundreth & twentie thousand men of foote, and two thousande and fiue hundreth horsemen.

21 When Timotheus had knowledge of Judas comming, he sent the women, and children, and the other baggage afore vnto a fortresse called Carion (for it was hard to besiege, and vneasie to come vnto because of the straites on all sides.)

22 But when Judas first bande came in sight, the enemies were smitten vᵭ feare, & a trembling was among them through the presence of him ꝑ seeth all things, in so much that they fleeing one here, another there, were oft times hurt by their owne people, & wounded with ꝑ points of their own swords.

23 But Judas was very earnest in pursuing, and slewe those wicked men: yea, he slewe thirtie thousand men of them.

24 Timotheus also himselfe fell into the hands of Dositheus, and Sosipater, whom he besought with much craft to let him goe with his life, because he had many of the Jewes parents and the brethren of some of thē, which, if they put him to death, should be despised.

25 So when hee had assured them with many wordes, and promised that he would restore them without hurt, they let him goe for the health of their brethren.

26 ¶ Then went Maccabeus toward Carnion, & Atargation, and slewe fiue and twentie thousand persons.

27 And after that he had chased away & slaine them, Judas remoued ꝑ host toward Ephron a strong citie, wherein was Lysias and and a great multitude of all nations, & the strong yong men kept the walles defending them mightily: there was also great preparation of engins of warre, and darts.

28 But when they had called vpon the Lorde, which with his power breaketh the strength of the enemies, they wanne the citie, and slewe fiue and twentie thousande of them that were within.

29 ¶ From thence went they to ‖ Scythopolis, which lieth six hundreth furlongs from Jerusalem. for, Sythis

30 But when the Jewes which dwelt there, testified, that the Scythopolitans dealt louingly with them, and intreated them kindly in the time of their aduersitie, 31 They gaue them thankes, desiring them to be friendly still vnto them, & so they came to Jerusalem, as the feast of the weekes approched.

32 ¶ And after the feast called Pentecost, they went forth against Gorgias the gouernour of Idumea:

33 Who came out with three thousande men of foote and foure hundreth horsemen.

34 And when they ioyned together, a few of the Jewes were slayne,

35 And Dositheus one of the Baccenors, which was on horsebacke & a mightie man, tooke Gorgias, and laide holde of his garment, and drewe him by force, because hee would haue taken the wicked man aliue: but an horseman of Thracia fell vpon him, and smote off his shoulder, so that Gorgias fled into ‖ Marisa. for, Marisa or, Marsa or, with Gorgias.

36 And when they that were ‖ with Esdrin, had foughten long, and were wearie, Judas called vpon the Lord, that he would shewe him selfe to be their helper, and captaine of the fielde.

37 And the he began in his own language, and sung Psalmes with a loude voyce, in so much that straight wayes he made the the were about Gorgias, to take their flight.

38 ¶ So Judas gathered his hoste, and came into the citie of Odolla. And when the seuenth day came, they cleansed them selues (as the custome was) & kept the Sabbath in the same place.

39 And vpon the day following, as necessitie required, Judas & his companie came to take vp the bodies of the that were slaine, and to burie the with their kinsmen in their fathers graues.

40 Now vnder the coates of euery one, that was slayne, they founde iewels & had bene consecrate to the idoles of the *Jamnites, which thing is forbidden the Jewes by the Law. Then euery man saw, that this was the cause wherefore they were slaine. Deut.7.25. Iosh.ua.7.21. 22.12.

41 And so euery man gaue thankes vnto the Lorde, the righteous Judge, which had opened the things that were hid. a From this verse to the end of this chapter, the Greeke text is corrupt, so that no good sense, much lesse certain doctrine can be gathered thereby. Also it is euident that this place was not written by the holy Ghost, both because it casleth differeth from the rest of the holy Scriptures, & also the author of this booke acknowledging his owne infirmitie, desireth pardon, if he haue not atteined to that hee should. And it seemeth, that this Jason the Cyrenean, out of whom he tooke this abbridgement, is Joseph Ben Gorion, who hath written in Ebrew fiue bookes of these matters, & intreating this place, maketh no mention of this prayer for the dead, lib.3.chap.19. for it is contrary to the custome of the Jewes, euen to this day, to pray for the dead. And though Judas had so done, yet this particular example is not sufficient to establish a doctrine, no more then Zipporahs was to proue that women might minister the Sacraments, Exod.4.25. or the example of Nazis that one might kill him selfe, whom this author so much commendeth, Chap.14.41.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The comming of Eupator into Judea. 4 The death of Menelaus. 10 Maccabeus going to fight against Eupator, moueth his soulders vnto prayer. 15 He killeth fourteene thousand men in the tents of Antiochus. 21 Rhodocus the betrayer of the Jewes is taken.

IN the hundreth, fourtie and nine yere it was told Judas, that Antiochus Eupator was comming with a great power into Judea,

2 And Lysias the steward & ruler of his affayres with him, hauing both in their armie an hundreth and ten thousand men of foote of the Grecians, & fiue thousand horsemen, & two and twentie Elephants, & three hundreth charets set with hookes.

3 Menelaus also ioyned him selfe with them, & with great deceit incouraged Antiochus, not for the sauegard of the countrey, but because hee thought to haue bene made the gouernour.

4 But the King of Kings moued Antiochus minde against this wicked man, & Lysias informed the King that this man was the cause of all mischiefe, so that the King commanded to bring him to Berea to put him vnto death as the maner was in that place.

5 Nowe there was in that place a towre of fiftie cubites high, full of ashes, and it had an instrument that turned round, and euery side it rowled downe into the ashes.

6 And there whosoeuer was condēned of sacrilledge, or of any other grieuous crime, was cast of all men to the death.

7 And so it came to passe that this wicked man shoulde die such a death, and it was a most iust thing that Menelaus should want buriall.

8 For because hee had committed many sinnes by the altar, whose fire & ashes were holy: he himselfe also died in the ashes.

9 ¶ Nowe the King raged in his minde, and came to shew himselfe more cruell vnto the Iewes then his father.

10 Which things whē Iudas perceiued, hee commanded the people to call vpon the Lord night and day, that if euer he had holpen them, he would now helpe them, when they shoulde be put from their Lawe, from their countrey and from the holy Temple:

11 And that he would not suffer ꝑ people, which a litle afore begaine to recouer, to be subdued vnto the blasphemous nations.

12 So when they had done this altogether, and besought the Lord for mercy with weeping, & fasting, and falling downe three dayes together, Iudas exhorted them to make themselues readie.

13 And hee being apart with the Elders, tooke counsell to goe forth, afore the King brought his hoste into Iudea, and shoulde take the citie, and commit the matter to the helpe of the Lord.

14 So cōmitting the charge to ꝑ Lord of the World, he exhorted his souldiers to fight manfully, euen vnto the death for ꝑ lawes, the Temple, the citie, their countrey, & the common wealth, and camped by Modin.

15 And so giuing his souldiers for a watch word, The victorie of God, he piked out the manliest yong men, and went by night into the kings campe, and slew of the host foureteene thousand men, & the greatest elephant with all that sate vpon him.

16 Thus when they had brought a great feare, and trouble in the campe, and all thinges went prosperously with them, they departed.

17 This was done in the breake of the day, because the protection of the Lord dyd helpe them.

18 ¶ Nowe when the King had tasted the manlines of the Iewes, he went about to take the holds by policie, 19 And marched towarde Beth-sura, which was a strong hold of the Iewes: but hee was chased away, hurt and lost of his men.

20 For Iudas had sent vnto them that were in it, such things as were necessarie.

21 But Rhodocus which was in the Iewes hoste, disclosed the secretes to the enemies: therfore he was sought out, & whē they had gotten him, they put him in prisō.

22 After this did the King commune wᵗʰ them that were in Beth-sura, and ‖ tooke truce with them, departed, and ioyned battel with Iudas, who ouercame him. ‖ or gaue & tooke the right hand.

23 But when he vnderstood, ꝑ Philippe (whom he had left to be ouerseer of his busines at Antiochia) did rebel against him, he was astonished, so that hee yelded himselfe to the Iewes, and made them an oth to do all things that were right, and was appeased towarde them, and offered sacrifice and adorned the Temple, & shewed great gentlenes to the place, 24 And embraced Maccabeus, & made him captaine and gouernour from Ptolemais vnto the Gerreneans.

25 Neuertheleſſe when he came to Ptolemais, the people of the citie were not content with this agreement: and because they were greeued, they woulde that hee should breake the couenants.

26 Then went Lysias vp into ꝑ iudgement seate, & excused the fact as well as hee could, & perswaded them, & pacified them, & made them well affectioned, & came againe vnto Antiochia. This is the matter concerning the kings iourney, and his returne.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Demetrius moued by Alcimus sendeth Nicanor to kill ꝑ Iewes. 18 Nicanor maketh a compact with the Iewes. 29 Which hee per breaketh thyough the motion of the King. 37 Nicanor commandeth Razis to be taken, who slayeth him selfe.

AFter three yeres was Iudas enformed that Demetrius ꝑ sonne of Seleucus was come vp with a great power and nauie by the hauen of Tripolis,

2 And he had wonne the countrey, and slaine Antiochus & his lieutenant Lysias.

3 Nowe Alcimus, which had bene ꝑ high Priest, & wilfully defiled him self in the time that al things were confounded, seeing that by no meanes hee coulde saue him selfe, nor haue any more entrance to the holy altar,

4 Hee came to King Demetrius in the hundreth, fiftie and one yere, presenting vnto him a crowne of gold, & a palme, & of the boughes, which were vsed solemnely in the Temple, and that day he held his tongue.

5 But when he had gotten opportunity, and occasion for his rage, Demetrius called him to counsell, & asked him what deuise or counsels the Jewes leaned vnto.

6 To the which he answered, ꝑ Jewes that bee called Assideans, whose captaine is Judas Maccabeus, mainteine warres, and make insurrections, & will not let ꝑ Realme be in peace.

7 Therfore I, being depriued of my fathers honour (I meane ꝑ high Priesthood) am now come hither,

8 Partly because I was wel affectioned vnto the kinges affaires, & secondly because I sought the profit of mine owne citizens: for al our people, through their rashnes, are not a litle troubled.

9 Wherefore, O King, seeing thou knowest all these things, make prouision for the countrey, and our nation which is abused, according to thine owne humanity, that is ready to helpe al men.

10 For as long as Judas liueth, it is not possible that the matter should be well.

11 When he had spoken these wordes, other friends also hauing euil will at Judas, set Demetrius on fire.

12 Who immediatly called for Nicanor, the ruler of the Elephants, and made him captaine ouer Judea, 13 And sent him forth, commanding him to slay Judas, & to scatter them that were with him, and to make Alcimus high Priest of the great Temple.

14 Then the heathen which fled out of Judea from Judas, came to Nicanor by flockes, thinking the harme and calamities of the Jewes to be their welfare.

15 Now when the Jewes heard of Nicanors comming, & the gathering together of the heathen, they sprinkled them selues with earth, and prayed vnto him which had appointed him selfe a people for euer, & did allwayes defend his owne portion with euident tokens.

16 So at the commandement of the captaine, they remooued straight wayes from thence, and came to the towne of Dessau, 17 Where Simon Judas brother had ioyned battel with Nicanor, and was somewhat astonished through the sudden silence of the enemies.

18 Neuertheless Nicanor hearing the manlines of them that were with Judas, & the bolde stomackes that they had for their countrey, durst not proue the matter with bloodshedding.

19 Wherefore he sent Posidonius, ‖ Theodotius, & Matthias before, to make peace.

20 So when they had taken long aduisement thereupon, & the captaine shewed it vnto the multitude, they were agreed in one minde, and consented to the couenants.

21 And they appointed a day when they should particularly come together: so when the day was come, they set for euery mā his stoole.

22 Neuertheless Judas commanded certeine men of armes to waite in conuenient places, least there should suddenly arise any euil through the enemies: & so they communed together of the things whereupon they had agreed.

23 Nicanor, while hee abode at Jerusalem, did none hurt, but sent away the people that were gathered together.

24 He ‖ loued Judas, and fauoured him in his heart. ‖ for, had Judas before his eyes.

25 Hee prayed him also to take a wife, & to beget children: so he maried, & they lined together.

26 But Alcimus perceiuing the loue that was betweene them, & vnderstanding the couenants that were made, came to Demetrius, and told him that Nicanor had taken strange matters in hand, & ordeined Judas a traitour to ꝑ Realme, to be his successour.

27 Then the King was displeased, and by the reports of this wicked man, he wrote to Nicanor, saying, that he was very angrie for the couenants, commaunding him that he should send Maccabeus in al haste prisoner vnto Antiochia.

28 When these things came to Nicanor, he was astonished and sore grieued, that he should breake the things whereim they had agreed, seeing that that man had committed no wickednesse.

29 But because it was not commodious to him to withstand the King, he sought craftily to accomplish it.

30 Notwithstanding when Maccabeus perceiued that Nicanor began to bee rough vnto him, and that hee intreated him more rudely then he was wont, he perceiued that such rigour came not of good, and therefore he gathered a fewe of his men, & withdrew him selfe from Nicanor.

31 But the other perceiuing that he was preuented by ‖ Maccabeus ‖ worthy pollicie, came into the great and holy Temple, and cōmanded the Priests, which were offring their vsuall sacrifices, to deliuer him ꝑ man.

32 And when they sware ꝑ they could not tel where the man was, whom he sought, 33 He stretched out his right hand toward the Temple, and made an othe in this maner, If ye will not deliuer mee Judas as a prisoner, I will make this Temple of God a plaine fielde, & will breake downe the altar, & will erect a notable temple vnto Bacchus.

34 After

34 After these wordes he departed: then the Priests lift vp their handes toward heauen, & besought him that was euer the defender of their nation, saying in this maner, 35 Thou, O Lorde of al thinges, which hast neede of nothing, wouldest that þ Temple of thine habitation should be among vs.

36 Therefore nowe, O most holy Lord, keepe this house euer vndefiled, which lately was clensed, and stoppe al the mouthes of the vnrighteous.

37 Now was there accused vnto Nicanor, Razis one of the Elders of Jerusalem, a louer of the citie, and a man of very good report, which for his loue was called a father of the Jewes.

38 For this man aforetimes when the Jewes were minded to keepe them selues vndefiled and pure, being accused to bee of the religion of the Jewes, did offer to spend his body and life with all constancie for the religion of the Jewes.

39 So Nicanor willing to declare the hatred that he bare to the Jewes, sent about fiue hundreth men of warre to take him.

40 For he thought by taking him to do the Jewes much hurt.

41 But when this company would haue taken his castel, and would haue broken the gates by violence, and commanded to bring fire to burne the gates, so that hee was ready to be taken on euery side, hee [a] fell on his owne sworde, a As this priuate example ought not to be followed of the godly, because it is contrary to the worde of God, although the author seeme here to approue it: so that place as touching prayer, chap. 12. 44. though Judas had appointed it, yet were it not sufficient to proue a doctrine, because it is onely a particular example.

42 Willing rather to dye manfully, then to giue him selfe into the handes of wicked men, and to suffer reproch vnworthy for his noble stocke.

43 Notwithstanding what time as he missed of his stroke for haste, and the multitude rushed in violently betweene þ doores, he ran boldly to the wall, and cast him selfe downe manfully among the multitude.

44 Which conueyed them selues lightly away, and gaue place, so that hee fel vpon his bellie.

45 Neuertheles while there was yet breath in him, being kindled in his mind, he rose vp, & though his blood gushed out like a fountaine, & he was very sore wounded, yet hee ranne thorow the middes of the people,

46 And gat him to þ top of an hie rocke: so when his blood was vtterly gone, he tooke out his owne bowelles with both his hands, and threw them vpō the people, calling vpon the Lord of life and spirit, that he would restore them again vnto him, & thus hee died.

CHAP. XV.

1 Nicanor goeth about to come vpon Judas on the Sabbath day. 5 The blasphemie of Nicanor. 14 Maccabeus expounding vnto the Jewes the vision, incourageth them. 21 The prayer of Maccabeus. 30 Maccabeus commaundeth Nicanors head and hands to be cut off, and his tongue to bee giuen vnto the foules. 39 The author excuseth him selfe.

NOw when Nicanor knewe that Judas and his company were in the countrey of Samaria, hee thought with all assurance to come vpon them, vpon the Sabbath day.

2 Neuertheless the Jewes that were compelled to go with him, said, O kill not so cruelly and barbarously, but honour & sanctifie the day, that is appointed by him that seeth all things.

3 But this most wicked person demanded, Is there a Lorde in heauen, that commanded the Sabbath day to be kept?

4 And when they said, There is a liuing Lord, which ruleth in the heauen, who cōmanded the seuenth day to be kept,

5 Then he said, And I am mighty vpon earth to commaund them for to arme them selues, and to performe the kinges busines. Notwithstanding hee could not accomplish his wicked enterprise.

6 For Nicanor lifted vp with great pride, purposed to set vp a memoriall of the victorie obteined of al them that were with Judas.

7 But Maccabeus had euer sure confidence & a perfit hope that the Lord would helpe him,

8 And exhorted his people not to be afraid at the comming of the heathen, but alway to remember the helpe that had bene shewed vnto them from heauē, and to trust now also that they should haue the victorie by the Almightie.

9 Thus he incouraged thē by the Law and Prophets, putting them in remēbrance of the battels that they had wonne afore, & so made them more willing,

10 And stirred vp their hearts, & shewed them also the deceitfulnes of the heathen, & howe they had broken their othes.

11 Thus hee armed euery one of them, not with the assurance of shields & speares, but with wholsome wordes and exhortations, and shewed them a dreame worthie to be beleeued, and reioyced them greatly.

12 And this was his vision, He thought that he saw Onias (which had bene þ high Priest, a vertuous and a good man, reuerēt in behauiour, and of sober conuersatiō, well spoken, and one that had bene exercised in al points of godlines from a child) holding vp his handes toward heauen, and praying for the whole people of the Jewes.

13 After this there appeared vnto him another, another mã which was aged, honourable, and of a wonderful dignitie, and excellencie aboue him.

14 And Onias spake, and saide, This is a louer of the brethren, who prayeth much for the people, and for the holy citie, [to wit,] Jeremias the Prophet of God.

15 He [thought also] ẏ Jeremias held out his right hand, & gaue vnto Judas a sword of gold: and as he gaue it, he spake thus,

16 Take this holy sword a gift from God, wherwith thou shalt woũd ẏ aduersaries.

17 And so being comforted by the words of Judas, which were very sweete & able to stirre them vp to valiantnes & to incourage the heartes of the yong men, they determined to pitch no campe, but courageously to set vpon them, and manfully to assaile them, and to trie the matter hande to hand, because the citie and the Sanctuary & the Temple were in danger.

18 As for their wiues, and children, and brethren & kinsfolkes, they set lesse by their danger: but their greatest & principall feare was for the holy Temple.

19 Againe they that were in the city, were carefull for the armie that was abroad.

20 Now whiles they all waited for ẏ trial of the matter, & the enemies nowe mette wth ẏe, & the hoste was set in aray, & the ‖beasts were separated into conuenient places, and the horsemen were placed in the wings: ‖or, elephãts

21 Maccabeus considering the comming of the multitude & the diuers preparations of weapons, and the fiercenes of the beasts, helde vp his hands toward heauen, calling vpon the Lorde that doth wonders, & that looked vpon them, knowing that the victorie commeth not by the weapons, but that he giueth the victorie to them that are worthy, as seemeth good vnto him.

22 Therfore in his praier he said after this manner, O Lord, thou ẏ diddest sende thine Angel in ẏ time of Ezecias King of Judea, who in ẏ hoste of Sennacherib slew an hundreth, fourescore and fiue thousand, 2.King.19. 35.isa.37. 36.tob.1. 28.ecclus. 48.21.

23 Send now also thy good Angel before vs, O Lorde of heauens, for a feare & dread vnto them, 24 And let them bee discomfited by the strength of thine arme, which come against thine holy people to blaspheme. Thus with these words he made an end.

25 Then Nicanor and they that were wth him, drewe neere with trumpets and shoutings for ioy.

26 But Judas & his companie praying and calling vpon GOD, incountred with ẏ enemies, 27 So that wth their hands they fought, but wth their hearts they prayed vnto God, and slew no lesse then fiue and thirty thousand men: for through the presence of God they were wonderously comforted.

28 Now when they left off, & were turning againe with ioy, they vnderstood that Nicanor him selfe was slaine for all his armour.

29 Then they made a great shout and a crie, praising the Almightie in their owne language.

30 Therfore [Judas,] which was euer the chiefe defender of his citizens both in body and minde, and which bare euer good affection towards them of his nation, commanded to smite off Nicanors head, wth his hand & shoulder, & to bring it to Jerusalem.

31 And when he came there, he called all them of his natiõ, and set the Priests by the altar, and sent for them of the castel, 32 And shewed them wicked Nicanors head, and the hande of that blasphemour which hee had holden vp against the holy Tẽple of ẏ Almightie with proude bragges.

33 Hee tauled the tongue also of wicked Nicanor to be cut in little pieces, and to bee cast vnto the foules, and that the rewardes of his madnesse should be hanged vp before the Temple.

34 So euery man praised towarde the heauen the glorious Lorde, saying, Blessed be he, that hath kept his place vndefiled.

35 He hanged also Nicanors head vpon the hie castel, for an euident and plaine toke vnto all of the helpe of God.

36 And so they established all together by a common decree that they would in no sale suffer this day without keeping it holy:

37 And that the feast should be the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, which is called Adar in the Syrians language, the day before Mardocheus day.

38 Thus farre as concerning Nicanors matters, and from that time the Hebrewes had the citie in possession. And here will I also make an end.

39 If I haue done well, & as the storie required, it is the thing that I desired: but if I haue spoken slenderly and barely, it is that I could.

40 For as it is hurtfull to drinke Wine alone, and then againe Water: and as wine tempered with water is pleasant & delighteth the taste, so the setting out of the matter delighteth the eares of them that reade the storie. And here shal be the end.

The ende of Apocrypha.

Ann Stubbs was born March 3rd 1756
Hannah Stubbs Was Born
Dec.r 5th 1757
Sam.l Stubbs Was Born August 3d 1759
Rich.d Stubbs was Born
Apr.l 6th 1761 & Died May 6 1763

THE

Newe Testament

of our Lord Iesus Christ,

Conferred diligently with the Greeke, and best approued translations in diuers languages.

Imprinted at London by Christopher Barker, printer to the Queenes most excellent Maiestie.
1583.

Cum gratia & priuilegio Regiæ Maiestatis.

C. B.

PROVERBES. XXX.

5 Euery word of God is pure: he is a shield to those that trust in him.

6 Put nothing vnto his wordes, least he reproue thee, and thou be found a liar.

THE DESCRIPTION of the holy land, conteining the places Mentioned In The Foure Euangelists, with other places about the sea coasts, wherein may be seene the wayes and iourneys of Christ & his Apostles in Iudea, Samaria, and Galile: for into these three partes this lande is deuided.

Zion, and the word of the Lord from

The Lawe shall goe foorth of Ierusalem, Isaiah Chap. 2. Verse 3.

The places specified in this Mappe with their situation by the obseruation of the degrees concerning their length and breadth.

Ascalon	65,24: 31,32.	Gadara or, Garaza	66,48: 32,29.
Azot	65,35: 32.	Gaza	65,10: 31,40.
Bethlehem	65,55: 31,51.	Iericho	66,10: 32,1.
Bethphage	66, 31,58.	Ierusalem	66, 31,55.
Bethsaida	66,51: 32,29.	Ioppe	65,40: 32,5.
Bethabara	66, 34: 32,1.	Ior the other fountaine whence Iordan springeth	67,31: 33,7.
Bethania	66, 31,58.	Magdalon called also Dalmanutha	66,48: 32,28.
Cana of Galile	66,52: 32,48.	Naim	66,35: 32,33.
Capernaum	66,53: 32,29.	Nazareth	66,56: 32,42.
Carmel mount	66,31: 32,50.	Ptolemais	66,50: 32,58.
Cesarea Stratonis	66,16: 32,25.	Samaria the citie	66,22: 32,19.
Cesarea Philippi	67,39: 33, 5.	Sidon	67,15: 33,30.
Corasim	66,53: 32,29.	Silo	66,27: 32,19.
Dan one of the fountaines whence Iordan springeth	67,25: 33, 8.	Tyrus	67, 33,20.
Ennon	66,40: 32,18.	Tyberias	66,44: 32,26.
Emaus	65,54: 31,59.
Ephen	66, 8,32.

The

The holie [a] Gospell of Iesus Christ,

[b] according to Matthewe.

The Argvment.

In this historie written by Matthewe, Marke, Luke, and Iohn, the Spirit of God so gouerned their hearts, that although they were foure in nomber, yet in effect and purpose they so consent, as though the whole had bene composed by any one of them. And albeit in style and maner of writing they bee diuers, and sometime one writeth more largely that which the other doth abbridge: neuertheleſſe in matter and argument they all rende to one ende: which is, to publish to the worlde the fauour of God towarde mankinde through Christ Iesus, whome the Father hath giuen as a pledge of his mercie and loue. And for this cause they intitle their storie, Gospel, which signifieth good tidings, forasmuch as God hath performed in deede that which the fathers hoped for. So that hereby we are admonished to forsake the worlde, and the vanities thereof, and with most affectioned heartes embrace this incomparable treasure freely offred vnto vs: for there is no ioy nor consolation, no peace nor quietneſſe, no felicitie nor saluation, but in Iesus Christ, who is the very substance of this Gospell, and in whom all the promises are Yea, and Amen. And therefore vnder this word is conteined the whole Newe Testament: but commonly we vse this name for the historie, which the foure Euangelists write, conteining Christs comming in the flesh, his death and resurrection, which is the perfect summe of our saluation. Matthewe, Marke, and Luke are more copious in describing his life and death: but Iohn more laboureth to set forth his doctrine, wherein both Christs office, and also the vertue of his death and resurrection more fully appeare: for without this, to knowe that Christ was borne, dead and ryſen againe, shoulde nothing profite vs. The which thing notwithstanding that the three first touch partly, as he also sometime intermedleth the historicall narration, yet Iohn chiefely is occupied herein. And therefore as a most learned interpreter writeth, they describe, as it were, the body, and Iohn setteth before our eyes the soule. Wherefore the same aptly termeth the Gospell written by Iohn, the key which openeth the doore to the vnderstanding of the others: for whosoeuer doeth knowe the office, vertue and power of Christ, shall reade that which is written of the Sonne of God come to bee the redeemer of the worlde, with most profite. Nowe as concerning the writers of this historie, it is euident that Matthewe was a Publicane or custome gatherer, and was thence chosen of Christ to be an Apostle. Marke is thought to haue bene Peters disciple, and to haue planted the first Church at Alexandria, where he died the eight yere of the reigne of Nero. Luke was a physition of Antiochia and became Pauls disciple, and fellowe in all his trauelles: he liued foure score and foure yeeres, and was buried at Constantinople. Iohn was that Apostle whom the Lord loued, the sonne of Zebedeus, and brother of Iames: he died threescore yeres after Christ, and was buried neere to the citie of Ephesus.

a This woorde signifieth good tidings, and is taken here for ỹ storie, which conteineth the ioyfull message of the coming of the Sonne of God promised frō the beginning.

b That is, written and taught by Matthewe.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogie of Christ, that is, the Messias promised to the fathers, 18 Who was conceiued by the holy Ghost, & borne of the virgin Marie, when hee was betrothed vnto Ioseph. 20 The Angel satisfieth Ioseph minde. 21 Why he is called Iesus, and whereforе Emmanuel.

THe *[c] booke of the generation of Iesus Christ ỹ [d] sonne of [e] Dauid, the sonne of Abraham.

2 *Abraham begat Isaac. *And Isaac begat Iacob. And *Iacob begate Iudas and his brethren.

3 *And Iudas begat Phares, & Zara [f] of Thamar. And *Phares begate Esrom. And Esrom begate Aram.

4 And Aram begate Aminadab. And Aminadab begate Naasson. And Naasson begate Salmon.

5 And Salmon begat Booz of [g] Rachab. And *Booz begate Obed of Ruth. And Obed begate Iesse.

6 And *Iesse begat Dauid the King. And *Dauid the King begat Solomon of her that was [the wife] of Urias.

7 And *Solomon begate Roboam. And Roboam begate Abia. And Abia begate Asa.

8 And Asa begat Iosaphat. And Iosaphat begate Iozam. And Iozam begate Ozias.

9 And Ozias begat [h] Ioatham. And Ioatham begate Achaz. And Achaz begate Ezekias.

10 And *Ezekias begate Manasses. And Manasses begate Amon. And Amon begate Iosias.

11 And *Iosias begate Iacim. And Iacim begate Iechonias and his brethren about the time they were caried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were caryed away vnto Babylon, *Iechonias begat Salathiel. *And Salathiel begat Zorobabel.

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud. And Abiud begate Eliacim. And Eliacim begate Azor.

14 And Azor begat Sadoc. And Sadoc begate Achim. And Achim begate Eliud.

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar. And Eleazar begate Matthan. And Matthan begate Iacob.

16 And

Luke 3.23.

c This is the rehearsall of the pyogenie, whereof Iesus Christ is lyneally accoyding to the flesh.

d So called for that he came of the stocke of Dauid.

e These two are first rehearsed, because Christ was especially promised to come of them & their seede, & therefore Christ commonly was called ỹ sonne of Dauid, because ỹ promes was more euidently confirmed vnto him. Gene. 21.2. Gene. 25.24. Gene. 29.35. Gene. 38.27.

f By incestuous aduitery, the which thame setteth forth his great humilitie, who made himselfe of no reputation, but became a seruant for our sakes: yea, a worme & no man, the reproych of men, ỹ contempt of the people, ỹ at lengthe suffred the accursed death of the crosse. 1. Chro. 2.5. ruth. 4.18, 19.

g Rachab and Ruth being Gentiles, signifie that Christ came not onely of the Iewes, and for them, but also of the Gentiles, and for their saluation, Ruth. 4.21. 1. Sam. 16.1. and 17.12. 2. Sam. 12.24.

1. King. 11.43.

1. chro. 3.10.

h He hath omitted three Kings, Ioas, Amasia, Azaria, abbridging the nomber, to make ỹ times foureteene generations. 2. King. 20.21. and 21.18. 1. chro. 3.13, 14, 15.

2. King. 23.34. and 24.1, 6. 2. chro. 36.4, 9.

1. Chron. 3.16.

i After ỹ captiuitie, the title royall was appointed vnto him: so that notwithstanding that they were as slaues for the space of seuentie yeres, yet by the prouidence of god the gouernement remained in the familie of Dauid where it continued till the comming of Christ. 1. Chro. 3.17, 19. ezra. 3.2, and 5.2.

16 And Jacob begat Joseph, the husbande of Marie, [k] of whome was borne Jesus, that is called [l] Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to Dauid, are foureteene generations. And from Dauid vntill they were caried away into Babylon, foureteene generations: and after they were caried away into Babylon vntil Christ, foureteene generations.

18 ¶ Nowe the birth of Jesus Christ was thus, when as his mother Marie was [m] betrothed to Joseph, [n] before they came together, shee was founde [o] with childe of the holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband being a [p] iust man, & not willing to [q] make her a publike example, was minded to put her away secretly.

20 But whiles hee thought these things, beholde, the Angel of the Lorde appeared vnto him in a [r] dreame, saying, Joseph [s] sonne of Dauid, feare not to take Marie [for] thy wife: for that which is conceiued in her, is of the holy Ghost.

21 And thee shall bring forth a sonne, and thou shalt [t] call his name [u] Jesus: for he shall [x] saue his people frō their sinnes.

22 And all this was done that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of [y] the Lord by the Prophet, saying,

23 [z] Behold, a virgin shalbe [w] childe, and shal beare a sonne, and ‖ they shal cal his name Emmanuel, which is by interpretation, [c] God with vs.

24 ¶ Then Joseph, being raised frō sleepe, did as the Angel of the Lord had enioyned him, and tooke his wife.

25 But he knewe her not, till she had brought forth her [d] first borne sonne, & he called his name Jesus.

k Albeit the Jewes nūber their kinred by the male kinde, yet this linage of Marie is comprehended vnder the fame, because she was married to a man of her owne flocke and tribe.

l Who is the true King, Priest, & Prophet anointed of God to accomplish the office of the redeemer.

Luke 1.27.

m Before he tooke her home to him.

n As the Angel afterward declared to Joseph.

o Vpright & fearing God, & therefore suspecting that she had cōmitted fornication, before she was betrothed, would neither receiue her.

p Which by the Jewe should be married to another, neither by accusing her put her to shame for her fact.

Deut. 24.1.

q This dreame is witnessed by the holy ghost, and is a kinde of reuelation, Nomb. 12.6.

r This name putteth him in remembrance of Gods promes to Dauid, Act. 4.12. phil. 2.10. Isa. 7.14.

s Or, thou, t God is ioyned with vs by ye meanes of Jesus Christ, who is both God & man.

u Christ is here called the first borne, because she had neuer any before, and not in respect of any she had after. Neither yet doeth this word (till) import always a time following wherein the contrary may be affirmed, as our Sauiour, saying, that he will be present with his disciples till the ende of the worlde, meaneth not, that after this world he will not be with them.

CHAP. II.

1 The time and place of Christs birth. 11 The wise men offer their presents. 14 Christ fleeth into Egypt. 16 The yong children are slaine. 23 Joseph turneth into Galile.

Luke 2.6.

a For there is another Bethlehem in the tribe of Zebulun.

b Wilmen, or Magi, in the Persians and Chaldeans tongue signifie Philosophers, Priestes, or Astronomers, and are here the first fruites of the Gentiles that came to worship Christ.

Then Jesus then was borne at Beth-lehem in [a] Judea, in the daies of Herode the king, behold, there came [b] Wise mē from the East to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, where is the King of the Jewes that is borne? for we haue seene his [c] starre in the East, and are come [d] to worship him.

3 When King Herode heard [this,] hee was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And gathering together all the chiefe Priestes and Scribes of the people, he asked of thē, where Christ should be borne.

5 [e] And they said vnto him, At Bethlehem in Judea: for so it is written by the Prophet,

6 [f] And thou Beth-lehem in the land of Juda, art not the least among the Princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come the gouernour that shall feede my people Israel.

7 Then Herode [g] priuily called the wisemen, [and] diligently inquired of them the time of the starre that appeared,

8 And sent them to Beth-lehem, saying, Goe, and search diligently for the babe: and whē ye haue found him, bring me word againe, that I may come also, and worship him.

9 ¶ So when they had heard the king, they departed: and loe, the [h] starre which they had seene in the East, went before them, till it came, and stoode ouer [the place] where the babe was.

10 And when they sawe the starre, they reioyced with an exceeding great ioye, 11 And went into the house, & ‖ found the babe with Marie his mother, and fell downe, and worshipped him, and opened their treasures, and presented vnto him giftes, [i] euen] gold, and incense, and myrrhe.

12 And after they were warned of God in a dreame, that they shoulde not go againe to Herode, they returned into their countrey another way.

13 ¶ After their departure, beholde, the Angel of the Lorde appeareth to Joseph in a dreame, saying, Arise, and take the babe and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be there til I bring thee word: For Herode will seeke the babe to destroy him.

14 So hee arose and tooke the babe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt,

15 And was there vnto the death of Herode, [k] that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lorde by the [l] Prophet, saying, Out of Egypt haue I called my Sonne.

16 ¶ Then

c An extraordinarie signe to set forth that Kings honour, whom ye world did not esteme.

d Which was a declaration of that reuerence, which the Gentiles shoulde beare vnto Christ.

e They coulde well tell of Christ in generall: but when they houlde professe his name, & giue him his due honour, they were colde, & shrinke backe.

Micah. 5.2.

John 7.42.

f An euil conscience is a burning fire.

g The starre banished away before, to the intent they should carry at Jerusalem, & there inquire of the thing, to the confusiō of the Jewes.

[i] Or, saue.

h The Persians maner was not to salute Kinges without a present, & therfore they brought of that which was most precious in their countrey, wherof euery one of them offred.

i Promise ought not to be kept, where Gods honour & preaching of his truth is hindered: or els it ought not to be broken.

k That which was prefigured by the deliuerance of the Israelites out of Egypt, which were Christs church and his body, is now perfected, & accomplished in ye head Christ.

Hose. 11.1.

16 ¶ Thē Herode,seeing that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, & sent forth, and slue all the male children ỹ were in Beth-lehem,and in al the coasts therof, from two yere old and vnder, accoꝛding to ỹ time which he had diligently learched out of the wise men.

17 Thē was that fulfilled which was spoken by ỹ Prophet Jeremias, saying, 18 *Jn Rama was a voice heard, mourning, and weeping, and great lamētation: Rachel weeping foꝛ her children, and would not bee comfoꝛted, because they were not.

19 And when Herode was deade, behold, an Angel of the Lord appeareth in a dreame to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the babe and his mother, and go into the lande of Jsrael: foꝛ they are dead which sought the babes life.

21 Then hee arose vp, and tooke the babe and his mother, and came into the land of Jsrael.

22 But when hee heard that Archelaus did reigne in Judea in steade of his father Herode, he was afrayde to go thither: ‖ yet after he was warned of God in a dreame, hee turned aside into the parts of Galile, 23 And went and dwelt in a citie called Nazaret, that it might bee fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophetes, [which was,] that he should be called ‖ a ỹ Nazarite.

CHAP. III.

1 The office, doctrine, and life of Iohn. 7 The Pharisees are reproued. 8 The fruites of repentance. 13 Christ is baptized in Iorden, 17 And authorized by God his father.

Mark.1.4. luke.3.3.

a Jn the 15. yere of ỹ reigne of Tiberius, after Christ had long time remained in Nazaret, and was now about 30. yeere olde, luke 3.1,23.

b So called in respect of the plaine countrey and fertile valleys: & not because it was not inhabited, ‖ Or, be sory for your faults past and amend.

c Which is, that God will reigne ouer vs, gather vs vnto him, pardon our sinnes, and adopt vs by ỹ preaching of the Gospell. Isa.40.3. marke 1.3. luke 3.4. iohn 1.23. Marke 1.6.

d Mouen with heare, as grosse heare cloth. ‖ Or, grashoppers. e Such meates as nature bringeth forth without mans labour or diligence: reade Leuit. 11,22. Marke 1.5. luke 3.7.

AND * in a those dayes, John the Baptist came & preached in the b wildernes of Judea,

2 And said, ‖ Repent: foꝛ the c kingdome of heauen is at hand.

3 Foꝛ this is hee of whom it is spoken by the Prophet Esaias, saying, * The voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernes, [is,] Prepare ye the way of ỹ Lord: make his pathes straight.

4 *And this Iohn had his d garment of camels heare, and a girdle of a skin about his loines: his meate was allo ‖ locustes and wilde honie.

5 *Then went out to him Jerusalem and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And they were baptized of him in Jordan, e confessing their sinnes.

7 Nowe when he sawe many of the Pharises and of the Sadduces come to his baptisme, he said vnto them, *O ‖ generations of vipers, who hath foꝛewarned you to flie from the anger to come?

8 Bꝛing foꝛth therefoꝛe f fruites woꝛthy amendment of life,

9 And thinke not to say with your selues, * we haue Abraham to [our] father: foꝛ I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to raise vp children vnto Abraham.

10 And nowe allo is the h axe put to ỹ roote of the trees: * therefoꝛe euery tree which bringeth not foꝛth good fruite, is hewen doWn, and cast into the fire.

11 *Jn deede I baptize you w water to amēdemēt of life, but he ỹ cōmeth after me, is mightier thē I, whose shoes I am not woꝛthy to beare: he will baptize you with ỹ holy Ghost, & with i fire.

12 Which hath his k fanne in his hād, and will make cleane his flooꝛ, & gather his wheate into his garner, but will burne vp the chaffe with vnquencheable fire.

13 ¶ *Then came Jesus from Galile to Jordan vnto Iohn, to bee baptized of him.

14 But Iohn put him backe, saying, I haue neede to be baptized of thee, and commest thou to me?

15 Then Jesus answering, saide to him, Let be now, foꝛ thus it becommeth vs to l fulfill all righteousnes. So he suffered him.

16 And Jesus whē he was baptized, came straight out of the water. And lo, the heauens were opened vnto him, and [Iohn] sawe the Spirit of God descending like a m doue, & lighting vpon him.

17 And lo, a voyce [came] from heaue, saying, *n This is my * beloued Sonne, in whome I am well pleased.

Jere.31.15.

m Herode renewed the sorow which the Beniamites had suffered long before: yet foꝛ all his crueltie he could not hynder ỹ passe, ỹ Christ should not reigne.

n That is, they were killed and dead.

o Thus the faithfull may see how God hath infinite meanes to preserue them from the rage of tyrants.

‖ Or, therefore.

‖ Or, of Nazaret

p Which is holy & consecrated to God: alluding vnto those that were Nazarites in the old Law, which were a figure of that holines which should be manifested in Christ, as was Samson, Ioseph, &c.

e Acknowledging their faultes: foꝛ there is no repentance without confession. Chap. 12. 34. ‖ Or, brodes.

f Be menaced those bitter, mouous and malicious Pharises with the iudgement of God, except they shewe before men such workes as are agreeable to the profession of the godly, whom Jsai calleth the trees of righteousnes, Chā. 61. 3 John 8. 39. 2a. 13. 26.

g The iniquitie of God is at hand to destroy such as are not meete to bee of his Church. Chap. 7. 19. Mark. 1. 8. luk. 3. 16. iohn. 1. 26. act. 1. 5. & 2. 4. & 8. 17. & 19. 4. 5.

h When God baptizeth inwardly with the vertue of his spirit, he burneth and consumeth the vices, and inflameth the hearts with loue to ward him.

i Which is the preaching of the Gospel, wherein he gathereth the faithfull as good corne, & scatereth the infidels as chaffe. Mark. 1. 9.

luk. 3. 21. l We must render perfite obedience to God in all things, which hee hath ordeined. m To shewe the state of his kingdom, which is in all mē hewes and lowlines. Chap. 17. 5. 2. pet. 1. 17. n The fauour of God reserued on Jesus Christ, that from him it might bee powred on vs, which deserue of our selues his wrath and indignation. Colos. 1. 13.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Christ fasteth and is tempted. 11 The angels minister vnto him. 17 Hee beginneth to preach. 18 Hee calleth Peter, Andrew, James and Iohn, and healeth all the sicke.

THen * was Jesus led aside of the Spirit into the wildernes, to be a tempted of the deuil.

2 And when he had fasted

Mark. 1. 12. luk. 4. 1.

a By the holy Ghost.

b To the end ỹ he ouercomming these tentations, might get the victorie foꝛ vs.

fourtie daies, and fourty nights, he was afterward hungrie.

3 Then came to him the tempter, and said, If thou be the sonne of God, c command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answering, said, It is written, *Man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery d Word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the deuill tooke him vp into the e holy citie, and set him on a ‖ pinacle of the temple,

6 And sayd vnto him, If thou be the sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe: for it is written, *that he will giue his Angels charge ouer thee, and with their handes they shall f lift thee vp, least at any time thou shouldest dash thy foote against a stone.

7 Iesus said vnto him, It is written againe, *Thou shalt not g tempt ỹ Lord thy God.

8 Againe the deuill tooke him vp into an exceeding high mountaine, & h shewed him all the Kingdomes of the world, and the glorie of them,

9 And sayde to him, All these will I giue thee, if thou wilt fall downe and worship me.

10 Then said Iesus vnto him, Auoid Satan: for it is written, *Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serue.

11 *Then the deuill i left him: and behold, the Angels k came, and ministred vnto him.

12 ¶ *And when Iesus had heard that Iohn was l deliuered vp, he returned into Galile, 13 And leauing Nazareth, went and dwelt in Capernaum, which is neere the m Sea, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim, 14 That it might bee fulfilled which was spoke by Esaias ỹ Prophet, saying,

15 *The land of Zabulon, & the lande of Nephthalim [vp] the way of the sea, beyond Iordan, n Galile of the Gentiles:

16 The people which sate in o darkenes, saw great light: and to them which sate in the region and shadow of death, light is risen vp.

17 *From that time Iesus began to preach, and to say, Amend your liues: for the kingdome of heauen is at hand.

18 ¶ *And Iesus walking by the sea of Galile, saw two brethren, Simon, which was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were p fishers.)

19 And he said vnto thē, Follow me, and I will make you fishers q of men.

20 And they straightway leauing ỹ nets, followed him.

21 And when he was gone forth frō thence, hee saw other two brethren, Iames [the sonne] of Zebedeus, and Iohn his brother in a shippe with Zebedeus their father, meding their nets, and he called them.

22 And they r without tarying, leauing their ship & their father, followed him.

23 So Iesus went about all Galile, teaching in their Synagogues, & preaching the Gospel of the s kingdome, and healing euery sickenes and euery disease among the people.

24 And his fame spred abroade through all Syria: and they brought vnto him all sicke people, ỹ were taken with diuers diseases and gripings, and them that were possessed with t deuils, & those which were u lunatike, & those that had the palsey: and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes out of Galile, and x Decapolis, & Ierusalem, and Iudea, and from beyonde Iordan.

CHAP. V.

3 Christ teacheth who are blessed. 13 The salt of the earth and light of the worlde. 16 Good workes. 17 Christ came to fulfill the Lawe. 21 What is mente by killing. 23 Reconciliation. 27 Aduulterie. 29 Offences. 31 Diuorcement. 33 Not to sweare. 39 To suffer wrong. 44 To loue our enemies. 48 Perfection.

AND when he sawe the multitude, he went vp into a mountaine: & when he was set, his disciples came to him.

2 And he opened his mouth & taught them, saying,

3 *Blessed [are] the a poore in spirit, for theirs is the kingdome of heauen.

4 *Blessed [are] they that b mourne: for they shalbe comforted.

5 *Blessed [are] the c meeke: for they shall inherite the earth.

6 Blessed [are] they which d hunger and thirst for righteousnes: for they shal be filled.

7 Blessed [are] the mercifull: for they shall obtaine mercie.

8 Blessed [are] the *pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed [are] the peacemakers: for they shalbe called the e children of God.

10 Blessed [are] they *which suffer persecution for righteousnes sake: for theirs is the kingdome of heauen.

11 *Blessed

c Satan wold haue Christ to distrust God & his word, and so we other straunge and vnlawfull meanes. Deut.8.3.

d He meaneth the other that God hath ordained to maintaine his creatures by.

e To wit, Ierusalem.

‖ Or, vane which shewed where the wind flood, Psal.91. 11,12.

f He alledgeth but halfe the sentence to deceiue therby the rather, and stroke his craftie purpole. Deut.6.16.

g We must not leaue such lawfull meanes as God hath appointed, to seeke others after our owne fantasie.

h In a vision. Deut.6.13. and 10.20. Marke 1.13. Luke 4.13.

i The word of God is the sword of the Spirit, wherewith Satan is ouercome.

k To comfort him. Marke,1.14. Luke 4.14. Iohn 4.43.

l And cast in prisō by Herod.

m For so they called the lake of Genesareth. Ita.9.1.2.

n Christ had preached now almost a yere in Iudea, and Samaria, and after went to preach in the vppermost Galile, which was out of the borders of Palestina.

o Which was without comfort, hauing receiued cōsolation. Marke 1.15. Marke 1.16.

p God hath chosen ỹ weake things of the world to confound ỹ mighty.1.Cor.1.27

q To drawe them out of the sea of this world, wherein they are drowned.

r We ought to be most readie to follow Christ when he calleth, leauing al worldly respects apart.

s That is, the blessed tidings of forgiuenesse of sinnes and reconciliation with God.

t So that by healing incurable diseases Christes diuinitie appeared.

u They that were mad or sicke at a certaine time of the moone.

x It was a cōtrey wherein were ten cities, as ỹ word signifieth.

Luk.6.20.

a That feele themselues voide of all righteousnes that they may onely seeke it in Christ. Isa.61.2.3.7.& 65.13.19. luk.6.21.

b Which feele their owne miserie, and seeke their comfort in God. Psal.37.11.

c Who rather would suffer al iniuries, then they would reuenge themselues.

d Being in necessitie, desire nothing but ỹ which is ỹ right & godly. Psal.24.4.

e For ỹ he is called the God of peace, 1.Cor. 14.33. 1.Pet.3.14.

11 *Bles-

11 * Blessed are yee when men reuile you, & persecute [you,] and say all maner of euill against you for my sake, falsly.

12 Reioyce & be glad, for great is your reward in heauen: for so persecuted they the Prophets which were before you.

13 * Ye are the f salt of the earth: but if the salt haue lost his sauour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thence forth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to bee troden vnder foote of men.

14 Ye are g light of the world. A citie that is set on an hill, can not be hid.

15 * Neither do men light a candle, & put it vnder a bushell, but on a candlesticke, and it giueth light vnto all that are in the house.

16 * Let h your light so shine before men, y they may see your good workes, & glorifie your father which is in heauē.

17 Thinke not that I am come to destroy the lawe, or the Prophets. i I am not come to destroy thē, but to fulfill thē.

18 * For truely I say vnto you, Till heauen and earth perish, one iote, or one title of the lawe shall not scape, till all things be fulfilled.

19 * Whosoeuer therefore shal breake one of k these least commandements, and teach men so, he shall be called y least in y kingdom of heauen: but whosoeuer shal obserue & teach [them,] the same shalbe called great in the kingdome of heauen.

20 For I saye vnto you, except your righteousnes * exceed the [righteousnes] of the l Scribes & Pharises, yee shall not enter into the kingdome of heauen.

21 m Ye haue heard that it was sayde vnto them of the olde time, * Thou shalt not kill: for whosoeuer killeth, shall be ‖culpable of iudgement.

22 But I say vnto you, whosoeuer is angrie with his brother ‖ n vnadui sedly, shalbe culpable of iudgement. And whosoeuer sayeth vnto his brother, o Raca, shalbe worthy to be punished by p q Counsil. And whosoeuer shall say, Foole, shal be worthy to be punished with hell fyre.

23 If then thou bring thy gift to the altar, & there remembrest that thy brother hath ought against thee, 24 Leaue there thine offring before y altar, & goe thy way: first be r reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 * Agree ẏ thine aduerlary quickely, whiles thou art in y way with him, least thine aduersarie deliuer thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the sergeant, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verely I say vnto thee, thou shalt not come out thence, till thou hast payed the vtmost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye haue heard that it was said to them of olde time, * Thou shalt not commit adulterie.

28 But I say vnto you, that whosoeuer looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed s adulterie with her alreadie in his heart.

29 * Wherefore if thy right t eye cause thee to offende, plucke it out, and cast it from thee: for better it is for thee, that one of thy members perish, ‖ then that thy whole bodie should be cast into hell.

30 Also if thy right hande make thee to offend, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for better it is for thee that one of thy members perish, then that thy whole bodie should be cast into hell.

31 It hath bene saide also, * Whosoeuer shal put away his wife, let him giue her a testimonial of diuorcement.

32 But I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shall put away his wife (except it be for fornication) u causeth her to commit adulterie: and whosoeuer shall marrie her y is diuorced, committeth adulterie.

33 Againe, ye haue heard that it was saide to them of olde time, * Thou shalt not forsweare thy selfe, but shalt performe thine othes to the Lorde.

34 But I say vnto you, x Sweare not at all, neither by heauen, for it is the throne of God:

35 Nor yet by the earth: for it is his footestoole: neither by Ierusalem: for it is the citie of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou sweare by thine head, because thou canst not make one heare white or blacke.

37 * But let your communication be, y Yea, yea: Nay, nay. For whatsoeuer [is] more then these, commeth of z euill.

38 ¶ Ye haue heard ẏ it hath bin said, An * eye for an eye, & a tooth for a tooth.

39 But I say vnto you, * Resist not ‖euill: but whosoeuer a shall smite thee on thy right cheeke, turne to him the other also.

40 And if any man wil sue thee at y lawe, and take away thy coate, let him haue thy cloke also.

41 And whosoeuer will compell thee [to goe] a mile, go with him twaine.

42 * Giue

1. Pet. 4. 14. act. 5. 41.
Mark. 9. 50. luk. 14. 34.
f Your office is to season men with the salt of the heauenly doctrine.
Mark. 4. 21. luk. 8. 16, & 11. 33.
1. Pet. 2. 12.
g Because you are seene farre off, giue good example of life.
h The Gospel is y stablishing & accomplishing of the Lawe. Luke 16. 17.
i The doctrine of y lawe reiecteth nothing vnprofitable or superfluous. Iames 2. 10.
k Whosoeuer shal transgresse the least of the ten cōmandements in word & example, he shalbe cast out of y kingdome of God, except it be pardoned him in Christ. Luke 11. 39.
l Which neyther expound y law truely, nor obserue it well, nor be diuerse from y same.
m For God knowing his secret malice will punish him.
n Or, without cause.
o Which signifieth in y Syrians tongue an idle haine, and is spoken in contempte.
p Like iudgement almost the Romanes obserued: for Demmuir had the examinatiō of small matters, the cōsell of 22. of greater causes, & finally great matters of importance were decided by the Senate of 71 iudges which here is compared to the iudgemēt of God, or to be punished with hell fire.
q For that thou hast offended him, or he hath offended thee: for God preferreth brotherly reconciliation to sacrifice. Luke 12. 58.
r Or, fully, subiect to punishment.
s Or, Nothing is so precious which ought not to be reiected in respect of the glorie of God, Or, and not that, Chap. 19. 7. deut. 24. 1. mar. 10. 4. luke 16. 18.
t Or, in that he giueth her leaue to marry another by that testimoniall. Exod. 20. 7. leuit. 19. 12. deut. 5. 11.
u All superfluous othes are vtterly debarred, whether the name of God be therein mentioned, or otherwise.
x Let simplicitie, & truely be in your words & then ye shall not be so light, and readie to sweare.
y When a man speaketh other wise then he thinketh in his heart, it commeth of an euil conscience, & of the deuill.
Exod. 21. 24. deut. 19. 21. leuit. 24. 20.
z Albeit this was spoken for the iudges, yet euery man applyed it to reuenge his priuate quarel. Luk. 6. 29.
Exod, 20. 14. rom. 13. 9.
r Chastitie is required both in bodie and in minde.
Chap. 18. 8, 9. mar. 9. 47.
s Or, Whosoeuer looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adulterie with her alreadie in his heart.
Exod. 20. 17. rom. 7. 7.
t Or, eye, and not that, Chap. 19. 9. deut. 24. 1. mar. 10. 4. luke 16. 18.
1. cor. 7. 10.
u In that he giueth her leaue to marry another by that testimoniall. Exod. 20. 7. leuit. 19. 12. deut. 5. 11.
x Let simplicitie, & truely be in your words & then ye shall not be so light, and readie to sweare.
y When a man speaketh other wise then he thinketh in his heart, it commeth of an euil conscience, & of the deuill. Exod. 21. 24. deut. 19. 21. leuit. 24. 20.
z Albeit this was spoken for the iudges, yet euery man applyed it to reuenge his priuate quarel. Luk. 6. 29.
rom. 12. 17. 1. Cor. 6. 7.
Or, iniurie.
a Rather receiue double wrong, then reuenge thine owne griefes.

Deut.15.8. Leuit.19.18.
b This was added by the false expositers the Pharisies. Luke 6.27.35. Luke 23.34. a&7.60.1.cor. 4.13.
‖Or,ruth in vpon you. Luke 6.35. Luke 6.32.
c These dyd take to farme the taxes, tow les and other payments, and therefore were greatly in disdaine with all men.
‖Or, imbrace.
d We must labour to atteine vnto the perfection of God, who of his free liberalitie, doth good to them that are vnworthy.

42 *Giue to him ỹ asketh, & from him ỹ would borow of thee, turne not away.
43 Ye haue heard that it hath bene sayde, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour, and b hate thine enemie.
44 But I say vnto you, *Loue your enemies: blesse them that curse you: doe good to them that hate you, *and pray for thẽ which ‖ hurt you, & persecute you, 45 *That ye may bee the children of your Father ỹ is in heauẽ: for he maketh his sunne to arise on the euil, & the good, and sendeth rayne on the iust, & vniust.
46 *For if yee loue them, which loue you, What reward shall you haue? Doe not the c Publicans euen the same?
47 And if ye ‖ be friendly to your brethren onely, What singular thing doe ye? do not euen the Publicans like wise?
48 Ye shall therefore be d perfite, as your Father which is in heauẽ, is perfit.

CHAP. VI.

1 Of almes, 5 Prayer, 14 Forgiuing one another, 16 Fasting, 19 He forbiddeth the carefull seeking of worldly things, and willeth men to put their whole trust in him.

TAke heede that yee giue not your almes before men, to be seene of them, or else yee shall haue no rewarde of your Father which is in heauen.
2 *Therefore when thou giuest thine almes, thou shalt not make a trumpet to be blowen before thee, as the a hypocrites do in the Synagogues and in the streets, to be prayed of men. Verely I say vnto you, they haue their b reward.
3 But when thou doest thine almes, let not thy c left hande knowe what thy right hand doeth, 4 That thine almes may be in secret, and thy Father that seeth in secrete, hee will reward thee d openly.
5 And when thou prayest, bee not as the hypocrites: for they loue to stande, and praye in the Synagogues, and in the corners of the streetes, because they would bee seene of men. Verely I saye vnto you, they haue their reward.
6 But when thou prayest, c enter into thy chamber: and when thou hast shut thy doore, pray vnto thy Father which is in secrete, and thy Father which seeth in secrete, shall reward thee openly.
7 Also when ye pray, ‖ f vse no vayne repetitions as ỹ heathen: for they thinke to be heard for their much babbling.
8 Be yee not like them therefore: for your g Father knoweth whereof ye haue neede, before ye aske of him.
9 After this h maner therefore praye ye, *Our Father which art in heauen, halowed be thy i Name.
10 Thy k kingdome come. Thy Will be done euen in earth, as [it is] in heauẽ.
11 Giue vs this l day our daily bread.
12 And forgiue vs our dettes, as We also forgiue our detters.
13 And leade vs not into l tentation, but deliuer vs *from euill: for m thine is the kingdome, and the power, and the glory for euer, Amen.
14 *For if ye doe forgiue men their trespaces, your heauenly Father Wil also forgiue you.
15 But if ye doe not forgiue men their trespaces, no more will your Father forgiue [you] your trespaces.
16 Moreouer, when ye fast, looke not sowre as the hypocrites: for they n disfigure their faces, that they might seeme vnto mẽ to fast. Verely I say vnto you, that they haue their rewarde.
17 But when thou fastest, o anoint thine head, and wash thy face, 18 That thou seeme not vnto men to fast, but vnto thy Father which is in secret: and thy father which seeth in secret, will rewarde thee openly.
19 ¶ Lay not vp treasures for your selues vpon the earth, where the moth and canker corrupt, and where thieues digge through, and steale.
20 *But lay vp treasures for your selues in heauẽ, where neither the moth nor canker corrupteth, & where thieues neither digge through, nor steale.
21 For Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
22 ¶ *The light of the bodie is the eye: if then thine eye bee p single, thy whole bodie shall be light.
23 But if thine eye be q wicked, then all thy bodie shalbe darke. Wherefore if the r light that is in thee, be darkenesse, howe great is that darkenesse?
24 *No man can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other, or els he shall leane to the one, and despise the other. Ye can not serue God and riches.
25 *Therefore I say vnto you, be not f carefull for your life, What ye shal eate, or What ye shall drinke: nor yet for your bodie, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more worth then meate: and the bodie then rayment?
26 Behold the foules of the heauen: for they sowe not, neither reape, nor carie into the barnes: yet your heauenly Father

Rom.12.8. a Whose workes proceede not of a right faith, but are done for vaine glory.
b In that they are prayed & commended of men.
c It is sufficient that God appyoue our workes.
d In that day wher al things shall be reueiled.
e Withdraw ye thy selfe rather apart.
‖Or, babble not much.
f He commandeth vs to beware of much babbling and superfluous repetes.
g Who is not perswaded by eloquent speache, and long talke, as men are.
h Christ byndeth them not to the wordes, but to ỹ sense & forme of prayer.

Luke 11.2. i We must seeke Gods glory first, & aboue al things.
k Reigne thou ouer all, and let vs render vnto thee perfect obedience, as thine Angels doe.
l To be ouercome thereby. Chap.13.19.
m This conclusion exclu deth mans merits, & teacheth vs to grounde our prayers onely on God. Mark.11. 25.
n Make their faces to seeme of an other sort then they were wont to doe.
o Whereby is commanded to auoyde all vaine ostentation.

Luke 12.33. 1.tim.6.19.

Luke 11.34. p If thine eye be disposed to liberalitie. 1.Ioh.2.9.
q If thine affection be corrupt, and giuen to couetousnesse, Deut.15.9.
r If the concupiscence and wicked affections ouercome reason, we must not marueile though men be blinded, and be like vnto brasts. Luk.16.13. Psal.55.22. luke 12.22. philip.4.6. 1.tim.6.8. 1.pet.5.7.
s Paines trauel nothing auaileth where God giueth not increase.

Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better then they?

27 Which of you by taking care, is able to adde one cubite vnto his stature?

28 And why care ye for rayment? Learne, how the lilies of t the fielde doe growe: they u labour not, neither spinne:

29 Yet I say vnto you, that euen Salomō in al his glory was not arayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore if God so clothe ỹ grasse of the field which is to day, & to morowe is cast into the ouen, shall he not [doe] much more vnto you, O ye of litle faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eate? or what shall we drinke? or wherewith shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these thinges x seeke the Gentiles) for your heauenly Father knoweth, that ye haue neede of all these thinges.

33 But seeke ye first the kingdome of God, and his y righteousnesse, and all these things shalbe ministred vnto you.

34 Care not then for the morow: for the morowe shall care for ‖ it selfe: the day hath ynough with his owne griefe.

t The goodnesse of God, & euen towardes the herbes of the field, farre passeth all things that man can compasse by his power and labour.

u The woyde signifieth, they wearie not them selues.

x With care and distrust.

y That is, to be regenerate, and amende your liues.

‖ Or, his owne things.

z God will prouide for euery day that shalbe necessary, though we doe not encrease the pyelent griefe by the carefulnes howe to liue in time to come.

CHAP. VII.

Chist forbiddeth rash iudgement. 6 Not to cast holy things to dogges. 7 To aske, seeke, & knocke. 12 The scope of the Scripture. 13 The straight and wide gate. 15 Of false prophets. 16 The good tree and euill. 22 False miracles. 24 The house on the rocke, & vpon the sande.

a He commandeth, not to be curious & malicious to trie out, & condemne our neighbours faultes: for hypocrites hide their owne faultes, & seeke not to amende them, but are curious to reproue other mens. Luke 6.37. rom.2.1. 1.cor.4.3. Mat.4.24. luke 6.38. Luke 6.41.

JUdge a not, that ye be not iudged.

2 For With what *iudgement ye iudge, ye shalbe iudged, and With what *measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you againe.

3 And why seest thou the mote, that is in thy brothers eye, and perceiuest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

4 *Or howe sayest thou to thy brother, Suffer me to cast out the mote out of thine eye, and beholde a beame is in thine owne eye?

5 Hypocrite, first cast out the beame out of thine owne eye, and then shalt thou see cleerely to cast out the mote out of thy brothers eye.

b Declare not the Gospell to the wicked contemners of God, whome thou seest left to themselues and forsaken. Chap. 22.22. marke 11.24. luke 11.9. john 14.13. and 16.23,24. jam.1.5.

6 bGiue ye not that which is holy, to dogges, neither cast ye your pearles before swine, least they treade them vnder their feete, and turning againe, all to rent you.

7 *Aske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, and ye shall finde: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

8 For Whosoeuer asketh, receiueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shalbe opened.

9 For What man is there among you, which if his sone aske him bread, would giue him a stone?

10 Or if he aske a fish, will he giue him a serpent?

11 If ye then Which are euill, can giue to your children good gifts, howe much more shall your Father which is in heauen, giue good things to them that aske him?

12 *Therefore Whatsoeuer ye would that men should doe to you, euen so doe ye to them: for this is the cLawe and the Prophets. Luke 6.31. tob.4.15.

c The whole lawe and the Scriptures set foorth vnto vs, and commend charitie. Luke 13.24.

d We must ouercome, and mortifie our affections, if we will be true disciples of Christ.

13 ‖Enter in at the straite gate: for dwide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction: and many there be which goe in thereat, 14 Because the gate is straite, and the way narrow that leadeth vnto life, and fewe there be that finde it.

15 ‖Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheepes clothing, but inwardly they are rauening wolues.

e For the most part of men seek their owne libertie, and runne headlong to euill. Luke 6.43, 44.

16 Ye shall knowe them by their fruites. *Doe men gather grapes of thornes? or figges of thistles?

17 So euery good tree bringeth forth good fruite, and a ‖ corrupt tree bringeth foorth euill fruite.

‖ Or, a rotten.

18 A good tree can not bring foorth euill fruite: neither can a corrupt tree bring foorth good fruite.

19 *Euery tree that bringeth not good fruit, is hewen downe, and cast into the fire. Chap.3.10.

20 Therefore by their fruites ye shal knowe them.

21 ‖Not euery one that sayeth vnto me, fLorde, Lorde, shall enter into the kingdome of heauen, *but he that doeth my Fathers will which is in heauen.

f He meaneth hirelings and hypocrites, who rather serue God with their lippes then with their heart. Rom.2.13. iames 1.22.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lorde, Lorde, haue wee not g by thy Name prophesied? and by thy Name cast out deuils? and by thy Name done many ‖ great workes?

g By thy vertue, authoritie and power.

‖ Or, miracles.

23 And then will I profesSe to them, h*I neuer knewe you: *depart from me, ye that worke iniquitie.

h I neuer accepted you to be my true ministers and disciples. Luke 13.27. Psal.6.8. Luke 6.47.

24 Whosoeuer then heareth of mee these wordes, *and doeth the same, I will liken him to a wise man, which hath builded his house on a rocke:

25 And the raine fell, and the floods came, and the windes blewe, and beate vpon that house, and it fell not: for it was grounded on a rocke.

26 But Wholoeuer heareth these my wordes, and doeth them not, shalbe likened vnto a foolish mã, which hath builded his house vpon the sande:

27 And the raine fell, and the floods came, and the windes blewe, and beate vpon that house, and it fell, and the fall thereof was great.

28 ¶*And it came to passe, when Iesus had ended these wordes, the people were astonied at his doctrine.

29 For he taught them as one hauing i authoritie, and not as the Scribes.

Marke 1.22. luke 4.32. i The mightie power of gods Spirit appeared in him, whereby he declared him selfe to be God, and caused others to beleeue in him.

CHAP. VIII.

2 Christ healeth the leper. 5 The captaines faith. 11 The vocation of the Gentiles. 14 Peters mother in lawe. 19 The Scribe that woulde followe Christ. 20 Christs pouertie. 24 He stilleth the sea and the winde. 28 And driueth the deuills out of the possessed, into the swine.

NOwe when hee was come downe frõ ye mountaine, great multitudes followed him.

2 *And lo, there came a leper & worshipped him, saying, Master, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

Marke 1.40. luke 5.12.

3 And Iesus putting forth his hand, touched him, saying, I will, be thou cleane: and immediatly his a leprosie was cleansed.

a It was not like that leprosie that is now, but was a kinde there of which was incurable.

4 Then Iesus said vnto him, See ye tell b no man, but go, [and] shew thy selfe vnto the c Priest, & offer the gift ye *Moyses cõmanded, for d a witnesse to them.

b He would not yet be throughly knowen, but had his time and houre appointed. c Our Sauiour would not contemne that which was ordeined by the Law, seeing as yet the ceremonies thereof were not abolished. Leuit. 14.4. d To condemne them of ingratitude, when they shal see the whole. Luke 7.1.

5 ¶*when Iesus was entred into Capernaum, there came vnto him a ‖Centurion, beseeching him,

‖Or, a captaine ouer an hundreth.

6 And saide, Master, my ‖seruant lyeth sicke at home of ye pallsie, and is grieuously pained.

‖Or, sonne.

7 And Iesus saide vnto him, I will come and heale him.

8 But the Centurion answered, saying, Master, I am not worthie that thou shouldest come vnder my roofe: but speake the worde onely, and my seruant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man also vnder the authoritie [of another,] and haue souldiers vnder me: and I say to one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he commeth: and to my seruant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 Whe Iesus heard [that,] he marueiled, and saide to them that followed [him,] Verely, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, euen in Israel.

e Which are strange people and the Gentiles, to whom the couenant of God did not properly appertaine,

11 But I say vnto you, that e many shall come from the East and West, and shal sit downe with Abraham, & Isaac, and Iacob in the kingdome of heauen

12 And ye childrẽ of the kingdom shall be cast out into f vtter * darkenes: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

f For there is nothing but meere darkenesse out of the kingdome of heauen. Chap. 22.13.

13 Then Iesus said vnto the Centurion, Goe thy way, and as thou hast beleeued, so be it vnto thee. And his seruãt was healed the same houre.

14 ¶*And when Iesus came to Peters house, he saide his wiues mother layde downe, and sicke of a feuer.

Mar. 1.29. luke 4.38.

15 And he touched her hande, and the feuer left her: so she arose, and ministred vnto them.

16 *when the euen was come, they brought vnto him many that were possessed with deuils: and he cast out the spirits with [his] worde, and healed all that were sicke,

Mar. 1.32. luke 4.40. Iſa. 53.4

17 That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by *Esaias the Prophet, saying, g He tooke our infirmities, and bare [our] sicknesses.

1. pet. 2.24. g The Hyphet breaketh chiefly of the feblenesse and diseases of our soules, which Iesus Christ hath borne: therefore he setteth his great mercie and power before our eyes by healing the body. Luke 9.57.

18 ¶And when Iesus saw great multitudes of people about him, he cõmanded them to goe ouer [the water.]

19 *Thẽ came there a certain Scribe, and said vnto him, Master, h I will followe thee whither soeuer thou goest.

h He thought by this meanes to courry fauour with the worlde: but Iesus sheweth him that he is farre wide frõ that he looketh for: for in stead of worldly welth, there is but pouertie in Christ.

20 But Iesus saide vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birdes of the heauen haue nestes, but the Sonne of man hath not whereon to rest his head.

21 ¶And i another of his disciples saide vnto him, Master, suffer me first to goe, and k burie my father.

i Luke maketh mention of three, which were hindred by worldly respectes from comming to Christ.

22 But Iesus said vnto him, Followe me, and let the l dead burie their dead.

k To succour and helpe him in his olde age till he die, and then I will followe thee wholy.

l No duetie or loue is to be preferred to Gods calling: therefore Iesus calleth the dead, which are hindered by any worldly thing to follow Christ. Marke 4.35. luke 8.22.

23 ¶*And When he was entred into the shippe, his disciples followed him.

24 And beholde, there arose a great tẽpest in the sea, so that the ship was couered with waues: but he was a sleepe.

Marke 5.1. luke 8.26.

25 Then his disciples came, & awoke him, saying, Master, saue vs: we perish.

26 And he saide vnto them, Why are ye fearefull, O ye of litle faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the windes and the sea: and [so] there was a great calme.

27 And the men marueiled, saying, What man is this, that both ye windes and the sea obey him!

28 ¶And whẽ he was come to ye other side, into the countrey of ye Gergesenes, there met him two possessed w deuils, which came out of ye graues verie fierce, so that no man might goe by that way.

29 And beholde, they cryed out, saying, Iesu ye Sonne of God, What haue we to doe with thee? Art thou come hither m The wicked would euer deferre their punishment, thinking all correction to come to soone.

n The deuill desireth euer to doe harme, but he can do no moye then God doeth appoint.

o Meaning, the lake of Gennesareth.

p These Gergesenes esteemed moye their hogs then Jesus Christ.

hither to torment vs m before the time?

30 Nowe there was a farre off from them, a great heard of swine feeding.

31 And the deuils besought him, saying, If thou cast vs out, n suffer vs to go into the heard of swine.

32 And he sayde vnto them, Goe. So they went out, and departed into the heard of swine: and behoulde, the whole heard of swine was caryed with violence from a steepe downe place into the o sea, and dyed in the water.

33 Then the heardmen fled: and whē they were come into the citie, they tolde all things, and what was become of thē that were possessed with the deuils.

34 And behold, all the citie came out, to meete Jesus: and when they sawe him, p they besought him to depart out of their coastes.

CHAP. IX.

2 He healeth the palsie, 5 And forgiueth sinnes. 9 He calleth and vseeth Matthew. 13 Mercie. 15 He answereth the Pharisies and Johns disciples. 16 Of the newe cloth and newe wine. 22 He healeth the woman of the bloodie issue. 25 He raiseth Jairus daughter. 29 Giueth two blind men their sight. 33 Maketh a domme man to speake. 35 Preacheth and healeth in diuers places. 38 And exhorteth to prayers for the aduancement of the Gospell.

THen he entred into a ship, and passed ouer, and came into his owne citie.

Marke 2.3. luke 5.18.

a And also his faith that had the palsie: for except we haue faith, our sinnes can not be forgiuen.

b Jesus toucheth the principall cause of all our miseries, which is sinne.

c Because they did maliciously refuse Christ, who offered him selfe vnto them.

d Christ speaketh according to their capacitie: for they moye esteemed outward miracles, then the vertue & power of Jesus Christ, whereby their sinnes might be forgiuen.

Marke 2.14. luke 5.27.

2 And * loe, they brought to him a man sicke of the palsie, lying on a bed. And Jesus seeing their a faith, said to the sicke of the palsie, Sonne, be of good comfort: thy b sinnes are forgiuen thee.

3 And behoulde, certaine of ỹ Scribes sayde with them selues, This man blasphemeth.

4 But when Jesus sawe their thoughtes, he sayde, Wherefore thinke ye euill things c in your heartes?

5 For whether is it d easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee, or to say, Arise, and walke?

6 And that ye may knowe that the Sonne of man hath authoritie in earth to forgiue sinnes, (then sayde he vnto the sicke of the palsie,) Arise, take vp thy bed, and goe to thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his owne house.

8 So when the multitude sawe it, they marueiled, & glorified God, which had giuen such authoritie to men.

9 ¶ * And as Jesus passed foorth from thence, he sawe a man sitting at the receite of custome named Matthewe, and sayde to him, Followe me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to passe, as Jesus sate at meate in [his] house, behoulde, many Publicanes and sinners, that came [thither,] sate downe at the table with Jesus and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisies sawe that, they sayde to his disciples, Why eateth your master with Publicanes and sinners?

12 Nowe when Jesus heard it, he said vnto them, The e whole neede not a phylition, but they that are sicke.

13 But goe f ye and learne what this is, * I s will haue mercie, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but the * sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ * Then came the disciples of John to him, saying, Why doe we and the Pharisies fast oft, and thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus sayde vnto them, Can the h children of the mariage chamber mourne as long as the bridegrome is with them? But the dayes will come when the bridegrome shalbe take from them, and then shall they fast.

16 Moreouer no man pieceth an olde garment with a piece of ‖ newe cloth: for that that shoulde fill it vp, taketh away from the garment, and the breach is worse.

17 Neither doe they put newe wine into k olde ‖ vessels: for then the vessels woulde breake, and the wine woulde be spilt, and the vessels shoulde perish: but they put newe wine into newe vessels: and [so] are both preserued.

18 ¶ * While he thus spake vnto thē, behoulde there came a certaine ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is now deceased, but come and lay thine hande on her, and she shall liue.

19 And Jesus arose and followed him with his disciples.

20 (And behoulde a woman which was diseased with an yssue of blood twelue yeeres, came behinde him, and touched the hemme of his garment.

21 For she said in her selfe, If I may touche but his garment onely, I shalbe whole.

22 Then Jesus turned him about, and seeing her, did say, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole at that houre)

23 Nowe when Jesus came into the rulers house, and sawe the minstrels and the e He reproueth the vaine perswasion of them, which thought themselues whole, and contemned the poore sicke sinners, which sought Jesus Christ to be their phy-sition.

f Which are puffed vp with vaine confidence of your owne righteousnesse. Hose.6.6. chap.12.7.

g God requireth not ceremonies, but hotherly loue of one towardes another. 1.Tim.1.15. Marke 2.18. luke 5.33.

h Christ would spare his disciples a while, not but denying them to much, least he shoulde discourage them.

i Christ compareth his disciples for their infirmitie, to old garments, and old vessels, which are not able as yet to beare the perfection of his doctrine.

k The minde which is infected with the dregges of superstitious ceremonies, is not meete to receiue the pleasant wine of the Gospel.

‖ Or, rawe and vndressed.

‖ Or, bottels or bags of leather or skinne, wherein wine was caryed on asses or camels. Marke 5.22. luke 8.41.

l Players vpon flutes or pipes, or other instrumentes, which in those dayes they vsed at burials.

51 ¶ Jesus saide vnto them, Vnderstand ye all these things? They said vnto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then saide he vnto them, Therefore euery [q] Scribe which is taught vnto the kingdome of heauen, is like vnto an householder, which bringeth foorth out of his [r] treasure things both newe and olde.

53 ¶ And it came to passe, that when Jesus had ended these parables, he departed thence,

54 *And came into his owne country, and taught them in their Synagogue, so that they were astonied, and sayde, Whence commeth this wisedome and great workes vnto this man?

55 Is not this the carpenters sonne? is not his mother called Marie, * and his ‖ brethren James and Joses, and Simon and Judas?

56 And are not his sisters all with vs? Whence then hath he all these things?

57 And they were offended with him. Then Jesus saide to them, *A Prophet is not without honor, [t] saue in his owne country, and in his owne house.

58 And he did not many great workes there, for their vnbeliefes sake.

q Because the Scribes office was to expounde the Scriptures, he meaneth him that doeth interprete them aright, and according to the Spirit.

r The preachers of Gods worde must haue store of sundrie and ample instructions, Mark. 6.1. Luke 4.16. John 6.42.

‖ Or, cousins. Mar. 6.4. Luke 4.24. John 4. 44.

t Men commonly neglect them, whome they haue knowen of children: also they do enuie them of the same countrie: and such is their ingratitude, that they take light occasion to contemne the graces of God in others.

CHAP. XIIII.

2 Herodes opinion concerning Christ. 10 John is beheaded. 19 Christ feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues and two fishes. 23 He prayeth in the mountaine. 25 He appeareth by night vnto his disciples vpon the Sea, 31 And sauueth Peter. 33 They confesse him to be the sonne of God. 36 He healeth all that touched the hemme of his garment.

Mar. 6.14. luke 9.7.

AT * that time Herode the Tetrarche heard of the fame of Jesus, a He spake after the common errour: for they thought that the soules of them that were departed, entred into an other body.

2 And saide vnto his seruants, This is John Baptist: [a] he is risen againe from the dead, and therefore great [b] workes are wrought by him.

b To approue his resurrection, and to get him greater authoritie. Mar. 6.17. luke 3.19. Leuit. 18.16. and 20.21.

3 *For Herode had taken John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife.

4 For John said vnto him, [c] It is not lawfull for thee to haue her.

c Albeit because nature abhorred such horrible incest, as also that he had taken her by force from his brother.

5 And when he would haue put him to death, hee feared the multitude, because they counted him as a *Prophet.

Chap. 21.26.

6 But when Herodes birth day was kept, the daughter of Herodias daunced before them, and pleased Herode.

7 Wherefore hee [d] promised with an othe, that he would giue her whatsoeuer she would aske.

d The yonnes was wicked: but yet it was more vile to be obstinate in the same, that he might seeme constant.

8 And she being before instructed of her mother, saide, Giue me here John Baptists head in a platter.

9 And the king was sorie: neuertheless because of the othe, and them that sate with him at the table, he commaunded it to be giuen [her,]

10 And sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a platter, and giuen to the mayde, and she brought it vnto her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and tooke vp his ‖ bodie, and buried it, and went, and tolde Jesus.

‖ Or, karkeis.

13 *And when Jesus heard it, he departed thence by shippe into a [e] desert place apart. And when the multitude had heard it, they followed him a foote out of the cities.

Mar. 6.32. luke 9.10.

e To the intent that his disciples nowe after their ambassage might somewhat rest them, or els that he might instruct them to greater enterprises. Mar. k. 6.35. luke 9.12. iohn 6.5.

14 And Jesus went forth and sawe a great multitude, and was mooued with compassion toward them, and he healed their sicke.

15 ¶ And when euen was come, *his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the houre is alreadie past: let the multitude depart, that they may goe into the townes, and bye them vitailes.

16 But Jesus sayde to them, They haue no [f] neede to go away: giue ye them to eate.

f Christ leaueth them not destitute of bodily nourishment, whiche seeke the foode of the soule.

17 Then said they vnto him, We haue here but fiue loaues, and two fishes.

18 And hee sayde, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit downe on the grasse, and tooke the fiue loaues and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen and ‖ blessed, and brake, and gaue the loaues to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

‖ Or, prayed and gaue thankes to God.

20 And they did all eate, and were suffised, [g] they tooke vp of the fragments that remained, twelue baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten, were about fiue thousande men, beside women and litle children.

g The disciples were loth to depart from Christ: but yet they shewed their obedience.

22 ¶ And straight way Jesus [g] compelled his disciples to enter into a shippe, and to go ouer before him, while he sent the multitude away.

Mar. 6. 46, 47. iohn 6.16, 17, 18.

23 And assoone as he had sent [h] multitude away, hee went vp into a mountaine alone to pray: * and when the euening was come, he was there alone.

h The night was deuided into foure watches, whereof euery one conteined three houres.

24 And the shippe was nowe in the middes of the sea, and was tossed with waues: for it was a contrarie winde.

25 And in the [h] fourth watch of the night, might, Jesus went vnto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when his disciples sawe him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit, & cried out for feare.

27 But straightway Jesus spake vnto them, saying, i Be of good comfort. It is I: be not afraide.

i The presence of Christ mareth his bolde.

28 Then Peter answered him, and saide, Master, if it be thou, k bid me come vnto thee on the water.

k His zeale was great, but he had not sufficiently considered the measure of his faith.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come downe out of the shippe, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he sawe a mightie winde, hee was afraide: and as hee l began to sinke, he cryed, saying, Master, saue me.

l His enterprise was too great, & therefore he must needes fall in danger, when his fayth failed.

31 So immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said to him, m O thou of litle faith, wherefore diddest thou dout?

m Christ correcteth his fault, and also giueth remedie both at once.

32 And assoone as they were come into the shippe, the winde ceased.

33 Then they that were in the shippe, came and worshipped him, saying, Of a trueth thou art the Sonne of God.

Mark.6.54. n It seemeth they were led with a certaine superstition, notwithstanding our Saviour would not quench the smoking flaxe, and therefore did beare with these small beginnings.

34 ¶ And whē they were come ouer, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place knewe him, they sent out into all that countrie round about, and brought vnto him all that were sicke, 36 And besought him, that they might touch the hemme of his n garment only: and as many as touched it, were made whole.

CHAP. XV.

3 Christ reproueth his disciples, and rebuketh the Scribes, and Pharises, for transgressing Gods commaundement by their owne traditions. 13 The plant that shalbe rooted out. 18 What things defile a man. 22 He deliuereth the woman of Canaanes daughter. 26 The heed of the children. 30 He healeth the sicke. 36 And feedeth foure thousand men, beside women and children.

Mar.7.1,5. a Open are more rigorous to obserue their owne traditions, then Gods cōmandement. ‖ Or, meate. Exod.20.12. deut.5.16. ephel.6.2. Exod.21.17. leuit.20.9. prou.20.20.

THen came to Jesus p Scribes and Pharises, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 * Why doe thy disciples transgresse the tradition of the Elders? for they a wash not their handes when they eate ‖ bread.

3 But hee answered and saide vnto them, Why do ye also transgresse p commandement of God by your tradition?

4 * For God hath commaunded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: * and hee that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoeuer shall say to father or mother, b By the gift that is [offred] by me, thou mayst haue profite, b The Scribes dispensed with them p did not their duties to their owne parents, so p they would recompence p same to their profite by their offrings.

6 Though he honour not his father, or his mother, [shalbe free:] thus haue ye made the commaundement of God of no authoritie by your tradition.

7 O hypocrites, Esaias prophesied well of you, saying,

8 * This people draweth neere vnto mee with their mouth, and honoureth mee with the lippes, but their heart is farre off from me.

Isa.29.13.

9 But c in vaine they worship me, teaching [for] doctrines, mens precepts.

c God will not be honoured accopting to mans fantasie, but vnfeined all good intentions, whiche are not grounded on his word. Mar.7.14,15.

10 * Then he called the multitude vnto him, and saide to them, Heare and vnderstand.

11 That which goeth into the mouth, defileth not the man, but that which commeth out of the mouth, that defileth the man.

12 ¶ Then came his disciples, and said vnto him, Perceiuest thou not, that the Pharises are offended m hearing [this] saying?

13 But he answered and said, * d Euery plant which mine heauenly Father hath not planted, shalbe rooted vp.

John 15.2. d All they which are not grafted in Jesus Christ by free adoption, and euery doctrine, that is not established by Gods word.

14 e Let them alone: they be p * blinde leaders of the blinde: & if the blinde lead the blinde, both shall fall into the ditche.

e They are not worthie to be cared for. Luke 6.39. Mat.7.17.

15 ¶ * Then answered Peter, & saide to him, Declare vnto vs this parable.

16 Then said Jesus, Are ye yet without vnderstanding?

17 Perceiue ye not yet, that whatsoeuer entreth into the mouth, goeth into the belly, & is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceede out of the mouth, come from the heart, and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart * come euill f thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false testimonies, slanders.

Gen.6.5. and 8.21. f All vices proceede of the corrupt affection of the heart.

20 These are the things, which defile the man: but to eate with vnwashen handes, defileth not the man.

21 * And Jesus went thence, & departed into the coastes of Tyrus and Sidon. Mar.7.24.

22 And behold, a woman a Cananite came out of the same coastes, and cryed, saying vnto him, Haue mercie on me, O Lord, the Sonne of Dauid: my daughter is miserably vexed with a deuill.

23 But he answered her not a word. Then came to him his disciples, and besought him, saying, g Sende her away, for she cryeth after vs.

g The disciples were offended at her importunitie. Chap.10.6.

24 But he answered, and said, I am not sent, but vnto the * lost sheepe of the house of Israel.

25 Yet ſhe came, and worſhipped him, ſaying, Lord, helpe me.

26 And he anſwered, and ſaide, It is not good to take the childrens bread, and to caſt it to [h] whelpes.

27 But ſhe ſaid, Trueth, Lord: yet in deede the whelpes eate of the crommes, which fall from their maſters table.

28 Then Jeſus anſwered, & ſaid vnto her, O woman, great is thy [i] faith: be it to thee, as thou deſireſt. And her daughter was made whole at that houre.

29 ¶ So Jeſus * went away from thence, and came neere vnto the ſea of Galile, and went vp into a mountaine and ſate downe there.

30 And great multitudes came vnto him, * hauing with them, halte, blinde, domme, maymed, and many other, and caſt them downe at Jeſus feete, and he healed them,

31 In ſo much that the multitude wondered, to ſee the domme ſpeake, the maymed whole, the halt to goe, and the blinde to ſee: and they glorified the God of Iſrael.

32 * Then Jeſus called his diſciples vnto him, and ſaid, I [k] haue compaſſion on this multitude, becauſe they haue continued with me alreadie three dayes, and haue nothing to eate: and I will not let them depart faſting, leaſt they faint in the way.

33 And his diſciples ſaide vnto him, Whence ſhould we get ſo much bread in the wildernes, as ſhould ſuffice ſo great a multitude?

34 And Jeſus ſaide vnto them, How many loaues haue ye? And they ſaide, Seuen, and a fewe litle fiſhes.

35 Then he commaunded the multitude to ſit downe on the ground,

36 And tooke the ſeuen loaues, and the fiſhes, and gaue thankes, and brake [them,] and gaue to his diſciples, and the diſciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eate, and were ſuffiſed: and they tooke vp of the fragmẽts that remained, ſeuen baſkets full.

38 And they that had eaten, were foure thouſand men, beſide women and litle children.

39 Then [Jeſus] ſent away the multitude, and tooke ſhippe, and came into ‖ Or, Magadan. the partes of ‖ Magdala.

h Chriſt calleth them dogs or whelpes, which are ſtrangers from the houſe of God.

i Chriſt graunted her petition, for her faiths ſake, and not at the requeſt of his diſciples. Mark 7.31.

Iſa. 35.5.6.

Mark. 8.1.

k Chriſt can not forget thoſe that follow him.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Phariſes require a token. 6 Jeſus warneth his diſciples of the Phariſes doctrine. 16 The confeſſion of Peter. 19 The keyes of heauen. 24 The faithfull muſt beare the croſſe, 25 To winne or loſe the life. 27 Chriſtes comming.

THen * came the [a] Phariſes and Sadduces, and did [b] tempt [him,] deſiring him to ſhewe them a ſigne from heauen.

2 But he anſwered, and ſaide vnto them, When it is euening, ye ſay, Faire weather: for the ſkie is red.

3 And in the morning [ye ſay,] To day [ſhalbe] a tempeſt: for the ſkie is red and lowring. O hypocrites, ye can diſcerne the face of the ſkie, and can ye not [diſcerne] the [c] ſignes of the times?

4 * The wicked generation, and adulterous ſeeketh a ſigne, and there ſhall no ſigne be giuen it, but the [d] ſigne of the Prophet * Jonas: ſo he left them, and departed.

5 ¶ And whē his diſciples were come to the other ſide, they had * forgotten to take bread [with them.]

6 Then Jeſus ſaid vnto them, Take heede and beware of the leauen of the Phariſes and Sadduces.

7 And they ‖ thought in themſelues, ſaying, [It is] becauſe we haue brought no bread.

8 But Jeſus [e] knowing it, ſaide vnto them, O ye of litle faith, why thinke you [thus] in your ſelues, becauſe ye haue brought no bread?

9 Do ye not yet perceiue, neither remember the fiue loaues, When there were * fiue thouſande [men,] and howe many baſkets tooke ye vp?

10 Neither the ſeuen loaues when there were * foure thouſand [men,] and how many baſkets tooke ye vp?

11 Why perceiue ye not, that I ſaide not vnto you concerning bread, that ye ſhould beware of the leauen of the Phariſes and Sadduces?

12 Then vnderſtood they that he had not ſaide, that they ſhould beware of the leauen of bread, but of the [f] doctrine of the Phariſes, and Sadduces.

13 ¶ * Now when Jeſus came into the coaſtes of Ceſarea Philippi, he aſked his diſciples, ſaying, Whome do men ſay that I, the Sonne of man am?

14 And they ſaid, Some [ſay,] John Baptiſt: and ſome, Elias: and others, Jeremias, or one of the Prophets.

15 He ſaid vnto them, But whom ſay ye that I am?

16 Then Simõ Peter anſwered, and ſaide, * Thou art the Chriſt, the Sonne of the liuing God.

17 And Jeſus anſwered, and ſaid to him, Bleſſed art thou, Simon, the ſonne of Chap. 12.38. mark. 8.11. luke 12.54.

a Although they did not agree in doctrine, yet they ioyned together to fight againſt the trueth.

b Men tempt God either by their incredulitie, or curioſitie.

c Which appertaine to the heauenly and ſpirituall life. Chap. 12.34.

d Chriſt ſhall be to them as Jonas rapped vp from death. Jonas 1.17. and 2.1. Mark. 8.14. luke 12.1.

e A token of Chriſtes diuinitie to know mens thoghts.

‖ Or, reaſoned with themſelues.

Chap. 14.17. john 6.9.

Chap. 15.34.

f We may boldly by Chriſtes admonition reiect and condemne all erronious doctrine and mans inuentions, and ought onely to cleaue to the word of God.

Marke 8.27. luke 9.18.

John 6.69.

of Jonas: for ᵍ flesh and blood hath not reueiled it vnto thee, but my father which is in heauen.

18 And I say also vnto thee, that thou art * Peter, and vpon ʰ this rocke, I will build my Church: and the ⁱ gates of hell shall not ouercome it.

19 ᵏ And I * will giue vnto thee the keyes of the kingdome of heauen, and whatsoeuer thou shalt ⁱ bind vpō earth, shall be bound in heauen: and whatsoeuer thou shalt ‖ loose on earth, shall be loosed in heauen.

20 Then hee charged his disciples, that they shoulde ᵐ tell no man that hee was Iesus the Christ.

21 ℣ ⁿ From that time forth Iesus began to shew vnto his disciples, that he must go vnto Ierusalem, and suffer many things of the Elders, and of the high Priests, and Scribes, and be slaine, and rise againe the third day.

22 Then Peter tooke him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, Master, pitie thy selfe: this shall not be vnto thee.

23 Then hee turned backe, and sayde vnto Peter, Get thee behinde me, ᵒ Satan: thou art an offence vnto me, because thou vnderstandest not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.

24 Iesus then saide to his disciples, * If any man will followe me, let him forsake himselfe, and take vp his crosse, and followe me.

25 For ᵖ whosoeuer will ᵍ saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose his life for my sake, shall finde it.

26 * For what shall it profite a man, though he should winne ʸ whole world, if he lose his owne soule? or what shall a man giue for recompence of his soule?

27 For the Sonne of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his Angels, and * then shall he giue to euery man according to his deedes.

28 * Verely I say vnto you, there be some of them ʸ stand here, which shall not taste of death, ʳ till they haue seene ʸ Sonne of man come in his kingdome.

g He meaneth any thing that is in man. Iohn 1.42.

h Vpon that faith whereby thou hast confessed and acknowledged me: for it is grounded vpon an infallible truth.

i The power of Satan which standeth in craft and violence.

k The preachers of the Gospel open the gates of heauen with the worde of God, which is the right key: so that where this worde is not purely taught, there is neither key, nor authoritie. Iohn 20.23.

l Condemne by Gods worde.

‖ Or, absolue.

m Because he would yet instruct them, & not preuent his time.

n He woulde plucke out of their hearts that false opinion, which they had of his temporall kingdome.

o Which worde signifieth an aduersarie, who resisteth the will of God either of malice, as did Iudas, or of rashnes and arrogancie, as Peter did. Chap. 10.38. mark. 8.34. luke 9.23. & 14.27.

Chap. 10.39. mar. 8.35. luke 9.24. & 17.33.

p That is, whosoeuer thinketh to saue himselfe by forsaking Iesus Christ. Mar. 8.36. luk. 9.25. iohn 12.25. Psalm. 62.12. rom. 2.6 Mar. 9.1. luke 9.27.

q This was fulfilled in his resurrection, which was as an entrie into his kingdome, and was also confirmed by sending the holy Ghost, whereby hee wrought so great and sundrye miracles.

CHAP. XVII.

2 The transfiguration of Christ vpon the mountaine of Thabor. 5 Christ ought to be heard. 11. 13 Of Elias and Iohn Baptist. 15 Hee healeth the lunatike. 20 The power of faith. 21 Prayer and fasting. 22 Christ telleth them before of his passion. 27 He payeth tribute.

AND * ‖ after sixe daies, Iesus toke Peter, ᵗ Iames, and Iohn his brother, ᵗ brought them vp into an high mountaine apart,

Mar. 9.2. luke 9.28.

‖ Or, the sixt day after.

2 And was ᵃ transfigured before thē: and his face did shine as the Sunne, and his clothes were as white as the light.

3 And beholde, there appeared ᵇ vnto them Moses, and Elias, talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said to Iesus, Master, it is ᶜ good for vs to be here: if thou wilt, let vs make here three tabernacles, one for thee, ᵗ one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 ᵘ while hee yet spake, beholde, a bright cloude shadowed them: and beholde, there [came] a voyce out of the cloude, saying, * This is my beloued Sonne, ᵈ in whom I am well pleased: ᵉ heare him.

6 And when the disciples heard that, they ᶠ fell on their faces, and were sore afrayde.

7 Then Iesus came and touched them, and sayde, Aryse, and be not afrayde.

8 And when they lifted vp their eyes, they sawe no man, saue Iesus onely.

9 ℣ And as they came down from the mountaine, Iesus charged them, saying, Shewe the vision to no man, ᵍ vntill the Sonne of man rise againe from the dead.

10 * And his disciples asked him, saying, ʷhy then say the Scribes that * Elias must first come?

11 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Certainely Elias must first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but haue done vnto him whatsoeuer they would: likewise shall also ʸ Sonne of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples perceiued that he spake vnto them of Iohn Baptist.

14 ℣ * And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certaine man, and kneeled downe to him,

Mar. 9.14. luke 9.38.

15 And said, Master, haue pitie on my sonne: for he is lunatike, and is sore vexed: for oft times he falleth into the fire, and oft times into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not heale him.

17 Then Iesus answered, ᶠ said, ʰ O generation faithles, and crooked, howe long a Christ shewed them his glory, that they might not thinke ẏ he suffered through infirmitie, but that he offred vp himselfe willingly to dye.

b By these two witnesses are represented the law and the Prophets, which leade vs to Christ.

c After Moses and Elias departure, Peter fearing he should lose that ioyfull sight, speaketh as a man distract, & would haue longed them in earthly houses, which were receiued in glory. Chap. 3.17. 2.pet. 1.17.

d We are reconciled to God by Christ onely.

e Christ is our chiefe and only schoolemaster.

f And so worshipped Christ.

g For men would not haue beleeued them, before that Christ had made his glorie more manifest by his resurrection. Mat. 9.11. Chap. 11.14. malac. 4.5.

h He speaketh chiefely to the Scribes, who began to bragge, as if they had nowe gotten the victorie ouer Christ, because his disciples were not able to doe this miracle.

long nowe shall I be with you? howe long now shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the deuil, and he went out of him: and the childe was healed at that houre.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and saide, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus saide vnto them, Because of your vnbeliefe: for * verely I say vnto you, if ye haue faith [as much] as [is] a graine of mustard seede, ye shall say vnto this mountaine, i Remoue hence to yonder place, and it shall remoue: and nothing shalbe vnpossible vnto you.

21 Howbeit this kinde goeth not out, but by k prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And as ‖ they * abode in Galile, Jesus saide vnto them, The Sonne of man shalbe deliuered into the hands of men, 23 And they shall kill him, but p third day shall he rise againe: and they were verie sorie.

24 ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that receiued l polle money, came to Peter, and saide, Doeth not your Master pay tribute?

25 He saide, Yes. And when hee was come into the house, Jesus preuented him, saying, What thinkest thou Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take tribute, or polle money? of their children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saide vnto him, Of strangers. Then said Jesus vnto him, Then are the children free.

27 Neuertheles, lest we shoulde m offende them, goe to the sea, and cast in an angle, and take the first fishe that commeth vp, and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt finde a n piece of twentie pence: that take, and giue it vnto them for me and thee.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The greatest in the kingdome of heauen. 3 He teacheth his disciples to be humble and harmelesse. 6 To auoyde occasions of euill. 10 Not to contemne the litle ones. 11 Why Christ came. 15 Of brotherly correction. 17 Of the authoritie of the Church. 19 The commendation of prayer and godly assemblies. 21 Of brotherly forgiuenesse.

Luke 17.6.

i By this maner of speache is signified, that they should doe things by their faith, that shoulde seeme impossible.

k The best remedie to strengthen the weake faith is prayer, which hath fasting added to it, as an helpe to the same.

‖ Or, were conuersant, or returned into Galile.

Chap.20.17. mar.9.31. luke 9.44. and 24.7.

l The Greeke woyde is (didrachma) which was of halue about 1. pence of olde sterling money, and the Israelites payed it once by the law, Exod.30. 13. and at this time they payed it to the Romanes.

m By this occasion to forsake the truetth.

n The woyde is (Statera) which conteineth two didrachmas, and is valued about 5. groates of old sterling.

Mar.9.34. luke 9.46.

a They striue for the rewarde before they haue taken any paine: and where as they shoulde haue holpen and reuerenced one an other, they were ambitious and despisers of their brethren.

THe * same time the disciples came vnto Jesus, saying, a Who is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen?

2 And Jesus called a litle childe vnto him, and set him in the middes of them,

3 And sayde, Uerely I say vnto you, except ye be * conuerted, and become as litle b children, ye shall not enter into the kingdome of heauen.

4 Whosoeuer therefore shall humble himselfe as this litle childe, the same is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen.

5 c And whosoeuer shall receiue such a litle childe in my name, receiueth me.

6 * But whosoeuer shall offende one of these litle ones which beleeue in me, it were better for him, that a d millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 e Woe [be] vnto the worlde because of offences: for it must needes be that offences shall come, but woe [be] to that man, by whom the offence commeth.

8 * Wherefore, if thine hande or thy foote cause thee to offende, cut them off, and cast [them] from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life, halt, or maimed, then hauing two handes, or two feete, to be cast into euerlasting fire.

9 And if thine eie cause thee to offend, plucke it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, then hauing two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

10 f See that ye despise not one of these litle ones: for I say vnto you, g in heauen their * s Angels allwayes behold the face of my Father which is in heauen.

11 For * the sonne of man is come to h saue that which was lost.

12 How thinke ye: * If a man haue an hundreth sheepe, & one of them be gone astray, doeth hee not leaue ninetie and nine, and go into the mountaines, and seeke that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he finde it, verely I say vnto you, hee reioyceth more of that sheepe, then of the ninetie and nine which went not astray.

14 So is it not the wil of your Father which is in heauen, that one of these litle ones should perish.

15 ¶ * Moreouer, if thy brother trespasse against thee, go, and ‖ tell him his faute betweene thee and him alone: if hee heare thee, thou hast wonne thy brother.

16 But if hee heare thee not, take yet with thee one or two, that by the * mouth of two or three witnesses euery woyde may be confirmed.

17 And if hee will not vouchsafe to Chap.19.14. 1.cor.14.20. b Not in lacke of discretion, but that they be not vaine glorious, seeking to aduance themselues to worlde lyhonours.

c He calleth them litle children nowe, which humble theselues with all humilitie & subiection.

Mark.9.42. luke 17.1,2.

d The woyde signifieth a great millstone which an asse turneth, and it is spoken in respect of that which is turned with mans hand, which is lesse.

e Christ warneth his to take heede, that they shrinke not backe from him for any euill example or offence that man can giue.

Chap.5.30. mar.9.45.

f Christ toucheth the cause of this offence, which is pride and disdaine of our infe-riours.

Psal.34.7. g Seeing God hath commanded his Angels to take the charge of his children, the wicked may be assured that if they despise them, God will reuenge their cause.

Luke 19.10. h We may not lose by our offence that which God hath so nearely bought.

Luke 15.4. Leuit.19.17. eccles.19.13. luke 17.3. iam.5.19. i Either with thou mayest be offended: or hee speaketh [Or, reproue him. Deut.19.15. iohn 8.17. hebr.10.28. 2.cor.13.1.

of secrete or particular sinnes, and not of open or knowen to others.

heare

heare them, tell it vnto the [b] Church: and if he refuse to heare the Church also, let him be vnto thee as an heathen man, and a Publicane.

18 Uerely I say vnto you, *whatsoeuer ye [i] binde on earth, shall be bounde in heauen: and *whatsoeuer ye loose on earth, shall be loosed in heauen.

19 Againe, Uerely I say vnto you, that if two of you shall agree in earth vpon any thing, whatsoeuer they shall desire, it shall be ‖ giuen them of my Father which is in heauen.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my Name, there am I in the middes of them.

21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Master, how oft shall my brother sinne against me, & I shall forgiue him? *vnto seuen times?

22 Iesus sayd vnto him, I say not to thee, vnto seuen times, but vnto [m] seuentie times seuen times.

23 Therefore is the kingdome of heauen likened vnto a certaine King, which would take a count of his seruants.

24 And when hee had begun to reken, one was brought vnto him, which ought him ten thousand [n] talents.

25 And because hee had nothing to pay, his master commanded him to be solde, and his wife, and [his] children, and all that he had, and [the dette] to be payed.

26 The seruant therefore fell downe, and besought him, saying, Master, appeace thine anger toward me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then that seruants master had compassion, and loosed him, and forgaue him the dette.

28 But when the seruant was departed, he found one of his fellowes, which ought him an hundreth [o] pence, and hee layde hands on him, & tooke him by the throte, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 Then his fellow fell downe at his feete, and besought him, saying, Appeace thine anger towards me, and I will pay thee all.

30 Yet hee would not, but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the dette.

31 And when his [other] felowes saw what was done, they were very sorye, and came, and declared vnto their master all that was done.

32 Then his master called him, and saide to him, O euill seruant, I forgaue thee al ỹ dette, because thou prayedst me.

33 Oughtest not thou also to haue had pitie on thy fellowe, euen as I had pitie on thee?

34 So his master was wroth, and deliuered him to the iaylers, till he shoulde pay all that was due to him.

35 So likewise shall mine heauenly Father doe vnto you, except ye forgiue [p] from your heartes, eche one to his brother their trespasses.

b He meaneth according to the order that was among the Iewes, who had their councell of ancient and expert men, to reforme maners, and exercise discipline. This assembly representeth the Church, which hath appointed them to this charge. 1. Cor. 5. 4. 2. thess. 3. 14. 1 Tim. 1. 6. Chap. 19. he ment this of doctrine, and here of ecclesiasticall discipline, which dependeth of the doctrine. John 20. 23.

i Or, done to. Luke. 17. 4.

m We must be continually ready to forgiue and be forgiuen.

n A common talent was valued at three score pound: some also were greater and some lesse.

o Which amounteth of our money to the summe of 25. shillings, or very neere, and was nothing in respect of the former, which his master forgaue him.

p God esteemeth onely the heart and affection.

CHAP. XIX.

3 Christ sheweth for what cause a woman may be diuorced. 11 Continence is a gift of God. 14 Hee receiueth little children. 16 To obteine life euerlasting. 24 That riche men can scarcely be saued. 28 Hee promiseth them which haue left all to followe him, life euerlasting.

AND * it came to passe, that when Iesus had finished those sayings, hee departed from Galile, and came into the coastes of Iudea beyond Iordan.

2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 Then came vnto him the Pharises tempting him, and saying to him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for euery ‖ faute?

4 And he answered and sayde vnto them, Haue ye not read, *that he which made [them] at the beginning, made them male and female,

5 And sayde, * For this cause, shall a man leaue father & mother, and cleaue vnto his wife, and they [a] twaine shall be one ‖ flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twaine, but one flesh. Let not man therefore put asunder that, which God hath coupled together.

7 They sayde to him, Why did then * Moses commande to giue a bill of diuorcement, and to put her away?

8 He said vnto them, Moses, because of the [b] hardnes of your heart, suffred you to put away your wiues: but [c] from the beginning it was not so.

9 I say therfore vnto you, *that whosoeuer shall put away his wife, except [it be] for whoredome, and marry another, [d] committeth adulterie: and whosoeuer marrieth her which is diuorced, doeth commit adulterie.

10 [Then] sayde his disciples to him, If the matter be so betweene man and wife, it is not good to marrie.

11 But he sayde vnto them, All men cannot receiue this thing, saue they to whom it is giuen.

12 For there are some [e] chaste, which were a They that of one were as two, shalbe now as one person.

[Or, cause. Gen. 1. 27. Gen. 2. 24. 1. cor. 6. 16. ephes. 5. 31.

[Or, person. Deut. 24. 1.

b It was to auoide the cruelte that men would haue vsed toward their wiues, if they had bene seized to reteine them in their displeasure, furie and malice.

c That is, at the beginning, and by Gods ordinance. Chap. 5. 32. mark. 10. 11. luke 16. 18. 1. cor. 7. 11.

d For this hand cannot be broken at mans pleasure.

e Some by nature are vnable to marrie, and some by arte.

f The worde signifieth (geldes:) and they were so made, because they shoulde keepe the chambers of noble women: for they were iudged chaste.

were so borne of [their] mothers bellie: and there be some chaste, which be made chaste by men: and there be some chaste, g Which haue made themselues chaste for the kingdome of heauen. He h that is able to receiue [this], let him receiue it.

13 ¶ Then were there brought to him little children, that he should put [his] hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus saide, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not to come to me: for of such is the kingdome of heauen.

15 And when he had put his hands on them, he departed thence.

16 ¶ *And beholde one came, and said to him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may haue eternall life?

17 And he saide vnto him, i Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, euen God: but if thou wilt enter into life, k keepe the commandements.

18 He said to him, Which? And Jesus sayd, *These, Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not commit adulterie: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnesse.

19 Honour thy father and mother: and thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

20 *The yong man said vnto him, I haue l obserued all these things from my youth: what lacke I yet?

21 Jesus said vnto him, If thou wilt be perfite, go, m sell that thou hast, and giue it to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come and followe me.

22 And when the yong man heard that saying, he went away sorowful: for he had great n possessions.

23 Then Jesus saide vnto his disciples, Verely I say vnto you, that a rich man shall hardly enter into o kingdome of heauen.

24 And againe I say vnto you, It is easier for a ‖ camel to go through the eye of a needle, then for a riche man to enter into the kingdome of God.

25 And when his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amased, saying, who then can be saued?

26 And Jesus beheld them, and saide vnto them, With men this is vnpossible, but with God p all things are possible.

27 ¶ *Then answered Peter, and said to him, Behold, we haue forsaken all, and followed thee: what shall wee haue?

28 And Jesus said vnto them, Verely I say to you, that when the Sonne of man shall sit in the throne of his maiestie, ye which followed me q in the regeneration, *shall sit also vpon twelue thrones, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

29 And whosoeuer shall forsake houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my Names sake, he shal receiue an r hundreth fold more, and shall inherite euerlasting life.

30 *But many that are first, shall be last, and the last [shalbe] first.

g Which haue the gift of continence, and vse it to serue God with more free libertie.
h This gift is not common for all men, but is very rare, & giuen to few: therefore men may not rashly abstaine from marriage. Chap. 18. 3. mar. 10. 7 is nothing as Christ his manner is, to lead him to more things.
k The intent that his doctrine might better take place.
l He boasteth much because as yet he knew not himselfe.
m Christ hereby discouered his hypocrisie, and caused him to feele his owne weakenes, not generally commanding all to do the like.
n What hinderance men haue by riches.
‖ Or, cable rope.
o Who can frame mens hearts so, that they shall not set their minds on their riches. Mar. 10. 28. Luke 18. 28.
p In this worke where by the world is changed, renued and regenerate: or to ioyne this word with the sentence following, and so take regeneration for the day of iudgement, when the elect shal in soule and body enioye their inheritance, to the ende that they might knowe that it is not sufficient to haue begun once. Luke 22. 30.
q The ioy of cōscience which Gods children feele euē in their afflictiōs, is a 1000 fold more worth then al worldly treasures, Chap. 20. 16. mar. 10. 31. luk. 13. 30.
r Or, a 100 fold more.

CHAP. XX.

1 Christ teacheth by a similitude, that God is better vnto no man, and howe he alway calleth men to his labour. 18 He admonisheth them of his passion. 20 He teacheth his to flee ambition. 28 Christ payeth our ranſome. 30 Two giue two blind men their sight.

FOr the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a certaine housholder, which went out at the dawning of the day to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And he agreed with the labourers for a s penie a day, and sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the t thirde houre, and sawe other standing idle in the market place,

4 And said vnto them, Go ye also into [my] vineyarde, and whatsoeuer is right, I will giue you: and they went their way.

5 Againe hee went out about the sixt and ninth houre, and did like wise.

6 And hee went about the eleuenth houre, & found other standing idle, and said vnto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They saide vnto him, Because no man hath hired vs. He said to them, Go ye also into [my] vineyard, and whatsoeuer is right, that shall ye receiue.

8 ¶ And when euen was come, the Master of the vineyard said vnto his steward, Call the labourers, and giue them their hire, beginning at the last, till [thou come] to the first.

9 And they [which were hired] about the eleuenth houre, came and receiued euery man a penny.

10 Nowe when the first came, they supposed

s Which was called denarius, and was of value about foure pence halfe penie of olde money, & was common by a workemans hire.
t They deuided the day into twelue houres, so that the third was the fourth part of the day, fire of the clocke was noone, nine was three of the clocke after dinner, & the eleuenth houre was an houre before the sunne set.

supposed that they should receiue more, but they likewise receiued euery man a penny.

11 And when they had receiued it, they murmured against the master of the house, 12 Saying, These last haue wrought but one houre, and thou hast made them equall vnto vs, which haue borne the burden, and heate of the day.

13 And he answered one of them, saying, ‖ Friend, I doe thee no wrong: didest thou not agree with me for a penny?

‖ Or, fellowe.

14 Take that which is thine owne, and go thy way: I will giue vnto this last, as much as to thee.

15 Is it not lawfull for me to doe as I will with mine owne? Is thine eye e euill because I am good?

e Or, enuious, because of my liberalitie. Deut.15.9. Chap.19.30. mark.10.31. luke 13.30.

16 *So d the last shall bee first, and the first last: *for many are called, but fewe chosen.

d Therefore euery man in his vocation, as he is called first, ought to go forward, & encourage others, seeing the hier is indifferent for all. Chap.22.14. Mark.10.32. luke 18.31. Iohn.18.32.

17 And *Iesus went vp to Ierusalem, and tooke the twelue disciples apart in the way, and layd vnto them,

18 Beholde, we go vp to Ierusalem, and the Sonne of man shalbe deliuered vnto the chiefe Priestes, and vnto the Scribes, and they shall condemne him to death, 19 And *shall deliuer him to the Gentiles, to mocke, and to scourge, and to crucifie [him:] but the third day he shall rise againe.

Mark.10.35.

20 *Then came to him the mother of Zebedeus children with her sonnes, worshipping [him,] and desiring a certaine thing of him.

21 And he layd vnto her, What wouldest thou? She said to him, Graunt that these my two sonnes may sit, the one at thy right hand, and the other at thy left hand in thy kingdome.

22 And Iesus answered and sayd, Ye know not what ye aske. Are ye able to drinke of the e cup, that I shall drinke of, and to be baptized with the baptisme that I shall be baptized with? They sayd to him, We are able.

e He setteth the crosse before their eyes to driue them from ambition, calling it a cup, to signifie the measure of the affections, which God hath ordeined for euery man: the which thing also he calleth baptisme.

23 And he sayd vnto them, Ye shal drinke in deede of my cup, and shall be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with, but to sit at my right hand, and at my left hand, is f not mine to giue: but it shall be giuen [to them for] whom it is prepared of my Father.

f God my father hath not giuen me charge to bestowe offices of honour here: but to be an example of humilitie vnto all. Matth.10.41. luk.22.25.

24 *And when the [other ten heard this, they disdained at the two brethren.

25 Therefore Iesus called them vnto him, and sayde, Ye knowe that the lordes of the Gentiles haue domination ouer them, and they that are great, exercise authoritie ouer them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoeuer will be great among you, let him be your seruant.

27 And whosoeuer will be chiefe among you, let him be your seruant, 28 *Euen as the Sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ransome of many.

Philip.2.7.

29 C*And as they departed from Iericho, a great multitude followed him.

Mark.10.46. luke 18.35.

30 And beholde, two blinde men, sitting by the way side, when they heard that Iesus passed by, cryed saying, O Lord, the Sonne of Dauid, haue merry on vs.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should holde their peace: but they cried the more, saying, O Lord, the Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on vs.

32 Then Iesus stoode still, and called them, and sayd, What will ye that I should doe to you?

33 They sayd to him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 And Iesus moued with compassion touched their eyes, and immediatly their eyes receiued sight, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

7 Christ rideth into Ierusalem on an asse. 12 The byers and sellers are chased out of the Temple. 15 The children wish prosperitie vnto Christ. 19 The fig tree withereth. 22 Faith requisite in prayer. 25 Iohns baptisme. 28 The two sonnes. 33 The parable of the husbandmen. 42 The corner stone reiected. 43 The Iewes reiected, and the Gentiles receiued.

AND *when they drewe neere to Ierusalem, & were come to Bethphage, vnto p mount of the Oliues, then sent Iesus two disciples,

Mark.11.1.luk. 19.29.

2 Saying to them, Go into the towne that is ouer against you, and anon ye shall finde an a asse bound, and a colte with her: loose them, and bring them vnto me.

a By this entrie Christ would shewe the state and condition of his kingdome which is farre contrary to the pompe and glorie of the world.

3 And if any man say ought vnto you, say ye, that the Lorde hath neede of them, and straight way hee will let them goe.

4 All this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying,

5 C*Tell ye the b daughter of Sion, Beholde, thy King commeth vnto thee, meeke and sitting vpon an asse, and a Isai.62.11. zach.9.9. Iohn 12.12.15.

b That is, the citie Sion, or Ierusalem.

c It is a maner of speache called Synechdoche, whereby two are taken for one.

d He rid on the fole and the dam̃e went by.

e Which is to say, Saue I pray thee, desiring God to prosper & sende good successe to the Messias.

f For God which is in heaven, must onely saue. Mark. 11.11. Luke 19.45. iohn 2.13.

g In the porch or entrie into the Temple.

Isa. 56.7.

h Under the pretence of religion hypocrites seeke their owne gaine, & spoile God of his true worship. Iere. 7.11. mar. 11.17. luk. 19. 46. Mark. 11.18. Luke 19.47.

Psalm. 8.2.

i If God reueile his glory and might by babes, that can not as yet speake, is it marueile, if they that can speake, doe set forth & magnifie the same?

k In Chewe it is, halt obedience or grounded & strength: which is all to one purpose, because God is then most prayfed when his strength is best knowen. Mark. 11.12, 13. Chap. 17.20.

colt, the fole of an asse vsed to the yoke.

6 So the disciples went, and did as Iesus had commanded them,

7 And brought the asse and the colte, and put on d them their clothes, and set him thereon.

8 And a great multitude spred their garments in the way: and other cut downe branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 Moreouer, the people that went before, and they also that followed, cryed, saying, e Hosanna the sonne of Dauid: blessed be he that commeth in ỹ Name of the Lord, Hosanna [thou which art] in the f highest heauens.

10 *And when he was come into Ierusalem, all the citie was moued, saying, Who is this?

11 And the people said, This is Iesus the Prophet of Nazaret in Galile.

12 ¶ And Iesus went into the Temple of God, & cast out all them that solde and bought in the g Temple, and ouerthrewe the tables of ỹ money changers, and the seates of them that solde doues, 13 And sayde to them, It is written, *Mine house shall be called the house of prayer: h but *ye haue made it a denne of theeues.

14 Then the blinde, & the halt came to him in the Temple, and he healed them.

15 But when the *chiefe Priests and Scribes sawe the marueils that he did, and the children crying in the Temple, and saying, Hosanna the Sonne of Dauid, they disdained, 16 And sayd vnto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Iesus sayde vnto them, Yea: read ye neuer, *By ỹ i mouth of babes and suckelings thou hast k made perfite the prayse?

17 ¶ So he left them, and went out of the citie into Bethania, and lodged there.

18 And *in the morning as he returned into the citie, he was hungrie.

19 And seeing a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaues onely, and sayd to it, Neuer fruite growe on thee hence forwardes. And anon the fig tree withered.

20 And when his disciples sawe it, they marueiled, saying, Howe soone is the fig tree withered!

21 And Iesus answered and sayd vnto them, *Verely I say vnto you, if ye haue faith, and doute not, ye shall not onely doe that, [which I haue done] to the fig tree, but also if ye say vnto this mountaine, l Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, it shall be done.

l Which thing seemeth to be impossible. Chap. 7.7. iohn. 15.7. 1. iohn. 3.22. Mark. 11.27, 28. luk. 20.1, 2.

22 *And whatsoeuer ye shall aske in prayer, if ye beleeue, ye shall receiue it.

23 ¶ *And when he was come into the Temple, the chiefe Priests, and the Elders of the people came vnto him, as he was teaching, and sayd, By what authoritie doest thou these thinges? and who gaue thee this authoritie.

24 Then Iesus answered and sayd vnto them, I also will aske you of a certaine thing, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

25 The baptisme of John whence was it? ‖ from heauen, or of men? Then they reasoned among themselues, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say vnto vs, Why did ye not then beleeue him?

‖ Or, of God.

26 And if we say, Of men, we m feare the people: *for all holde John as a Prophet.

m The hypocrites feare mẽ more then God, and malice neuer suffereth the truerth. Chap. 14.5. mark. 6.20.

27 Then they answered Iesus, and sayd, We can not tell. And he sayd vnto them, Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

28 ¶ But what thinke ye? A [certaine] man had two sonnes, and came to the elder, & sayd, Sonne, go [and] worke to day in my vineyarde.

29 But he answered, and sayd, I will not: yet afterward he repented himselfe, and went.

30 Then came he to the second, and sayd like wise. And he answered, & sayd, I will, sir: yet he went not.

n So farre it is impossible for them to repent and be saued, as stande in their owne conceit, & the greatest sinners that are, shall more soone come to repentance.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of the father? They said vnto him, The first. Iesus sayd vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that the n Publicanes and the harlots shall go before you into the kingdome of God.

o God taught by John the way of righteousnes, whose life was vprigte and perfite. Iia. 5.1. iere. 2. 21. mar. 12.1. luk. 20.9.

32 For John came vnto you in the o way of righteousnes, and ye beleeued him not: but the Publicanes, & the harlots beleeued him, & ye, though ye saw it, were not moued with repentance afterward, that ye might beleeue him.

p The vineyard is the people, whom he had elected.

33 ¶ Heare another parable, There was a certaine houlholder, *which planted a p vineyarde, and q hedged it round about, and ‖ made a winepresse therein, and built a towre, and let it out to husbandmen, & went into a strange countrey.

q Vsed all meanes to prepserue it, and to make it fruitfull.

34 And when the time of the fruite drewe

‖ Or, digged.

dreWe neere, hee sent his seruants to r Which were the Priestes and rulers. r the husbandmen to receiue the fruites thereof.

35 And the husbandmen tooke his s The Prophets. s seruants and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Againe he sent other seruants, mo then the first: and they did the like vnto them.

37 But last of all he sent vnto them t Iesus Christ. his owne t sonne, saying, They wil reuerence my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen sawe the sonne, they sayd among themselues, Chap. 26.3,4. & 27.1. Iohn 11.53. * This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and let vs take his inheritance.

39 So they tooke him, and cast him out of the vineyarde, and slewe him.

40 When therefore the Lord of the vineyarde shall come, what will he doe to those husbandmen?

41 They sayd vnto him, He will cruelly destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyarde vnto other husbandmen, which shall deliuer him the fruites in their seasons.

42 Iesus sayd vnto them, Read ye Psal.118.22. act.4.11. rom. 9.33. 1.peter 2.7. neuer in the Scriptures, * The stone which the builders u refused, the same is made the x head of the corner: This was the Lords doing, and it is maruelous in our eyes.
u As not meet or fit for their building.
x To fasten & ioyne the building together, and to vpholde the whole. Isa.8.14.

43 Therefore say I vnto you, the kingdome of God shall be taken from you, and shalbe giuen to a nation, which shall bring forth the fruites thereof.

44 * And whosoeuer shal fall on this stone, he shall be broken: but on whomsoeuer it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

45 And when the chiefe Priests and Pharises had heard his parables, they perceiued that he spake of them.

46 And they seeking to lay hands on him: feared the people, because they tooke him as a Prophet.

CHAP. XXII.

2 The parable of the marriage. 9 The vocation of the Gentiles, 11 The marriage garment. 17 Of paying of tribute. 25 Of the resurrection. 36 The Scribes question. 44 Christes triumphe.

Luke 14.16. reue.19.9. a Christ reproueth the Iewes of their ingratitude & obstinate malice, in that they reiected the grace of God, which was so plentifully offered vnto them.

AND * Iesus answered, and spake vnto them againe in parables, saying,

2 The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a certaine king which married his sonne,

3 And a sent forth his seruants, to call them that were bid to the wedding, but they would not come.

4 Againe hee sent forth other seruants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Beholde, I haue prepared my dinner: mine oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come vnto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, and another about his marchandise.

6 And the remnant tooke his seruants, and intreated them sharpely, and slewe them.

7 But when the King heard it, hee was wroth, and sent forth his warriers, and b destroyed those murderers, and burnt vp their citie.

8 Then saith he to his seruants, Truely the wedding is prepared: but they which were bidden, were not worthie.

9 Goe ye therefore out into the hie wayes, & as many as ye finde, bid them to the marriage.

10 So c those seruants went out into the [hie] wayes and gathered together all that euer they found, both d good and bad: so the wedding was furnished with ghestes.

11 Then the King came in, to see the ghestes, and sawe there a man which had not on a e wedding garment.

12 And he sayd vnto him, Friend, how f camest thou in hither, and hast not on a wedding garment? And he was speachelesse.

13 Then sayde the King to the seruants, Binde him hand and foote: take him away, and cast him into vtter darknesse: * there shall be weeping & gnashing of teeth.

14 * For many are g called, but fewe chosen.

15 ¶ * Then went the Pharises and tooke counsell howe they might tangle him in talke.

16 And they sent vnto him their disciples with the h Herodians, saying, Master, we knowe that thou art true, and teachest the way of God truely, neither carest for any man: for thou considerest not the i person of men.

17 Tell vs therefore, howe thinkest thou: Is it lawfull to giue tribute vnto Cesar, or not?

18 But Iesus perceiued their wickednes, and sayd, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shewe me the ‖ tribute money. And they brought him a k peny.

20 And he sayd vnto them, Whose is b God punisheth extremely such ingratitude.

c The ingratitude of them which are bid, can not cause Gods liberalitie and his holy meates to perish, which he hath prepared for his.
d In the Church the hypocrites are mixed with the godly.
e He had not a pure affection and vpright conscience, which proceeded of fayth.
f Though God suffer for a time hypocrites in the Church, yet he knoweth how to trie them, and fanne them out. Chap.8.12. & 13.42.& 25.30. Chap.20.16.
g By the outward and generall calling. Mar.12.13. luke 20.20.
h These were certaine flatterers of the court, which euer maintened that religion, which king Herod best approued: and though they were enemies to the Pharises: yet in this thing they consented, thinking to entangle Christ, and so either to accuse him of treason, or to bring him into the hatred of all his people.
i As touching the outwarde qualitie, as whether a man be riche or poore.
‖ Or, the coyne of the tribute.
k Which was of value about foure pence halfe peny.

this image and superscription?

21 They said vnto him, Cesars. Then sayd he vnto them, *Giue therefore to Cesar, the [things] which are Cesars, and giue vnto God, those [things] which are Gods.

Rom. 13.7. marke 12.17. luke 20.25.

22 And when they heard it, they marueiled, and left him, & went their way.

23 ¶ *The same day the Sadducees came to him (which say that there is no resurrection) and asked him, Marke 12.18. luke 20.27. actes 23.8.

24 Saying, Master, *Moses sayde, If a man die, hauing no [children, let his brother [marrie his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

Deut. 25.5. [Or, sonnes. l By the title of alliance: and here by brother he meaneth the next kinsman, that lawfully might marrie her.

25 Nowe there were with vs seuen brethren, and the first married a wife, and deceased: and hauing no yssue, left his wife vnto his brother.

26 Likewise also the second, and the third, vnto the seuenth.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seuen? for all had her.

29 Then Jesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Ye m are deceiued, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

m Where Gods worde is not preached and vnderstand, there must needes reigne blindnes and errours.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marrie wiues, nor wiues are bestowed in marriage, but are as the n Angels of God in heauen.

n For asmuch as they shalbe exempted frō the infirmities of this present life. Ezod. 3.6.

31 And concerning the resurrection of the dead, haue ye not read what is spoken vnto you of God, saying,

32 *I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the liuing.

33 And when the people heard it, they were astonied at his doctrine.

Marke 12.28.

34 ¶ *But when the Pharises had heard, that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they assembled together.

35 And one of them, [which was] an expounder of the Lawe, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandement in the Lawe?

Deut. 6.5. luke 10.27.

37 Jesus sayd to him, *Thou shalt loue the Lorde thy God with all thine heart, with all thy soule, and with all thy minde.

38 This is the first and the great commandement.

Leuit. 19.18. marke 12.31. rom. 13.9. gala. 5.14. iam. 2.8.

39 And the second is like vnto this, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

40 On these two commandements hangeth the whole Lawe and the Prophets.

41 ¶ *While the Pharises were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 Saying, What thinke ye of Christ? whose ° sonne is he? They sayde vnto him, Dauids.

43 He sayd vnto them, Howe then doeth Dauid in p spirite call him Lorde, saying, 44 *The Lorde sayd to my Lorde, Sit at my q right hand, r till I make thine enemies thy footestoole?

45 If then Dauid call him [Lorde, howe is he his sonne?

46 And none could answere him a worde, neither durst any from that day forth aske him any mo questions.

Marke 12.35. luke 20.41.

o Of what stocke or familie.

p By the spirit of prophetie speaking of the kingdome of Christ.

Psal. 110.1.

q By the right hand is signified the authoritie and power, which God giueth his Sonne Christ in making him his lieutenaunt and gouernor ouer his Church.

r Not that his kingdome shal then end: but the office of his humanitie shall cease, and he with the Father and holy Ghost shal reigne for euer as one God all in all.

s Christ is Dauids sonne touching his manhode, and his Lorde, concerning his Godhead.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 Christ condemneth the ambition, couetousnes, and hypocrisie of the Scribes and Pharises. 31 Their persecutions against the seruants of God. 37 He prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem.

THen spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The *Scribes and the Pharises a sit in Moses seate.

Nehe. 8.4.

a And teache that which Moses saith.

3 All therefore whatsoeuer they bid you obserue, that b obserue and doe: but after their workes doe not: for they say, and doe not.

b Accepting to Moses whom they read, but not that which they teach of themselues.

4 *For they binde heaute burdens, and grieuous to be borne, and lay them on mens shoulders, but they themselues will not moue them with [one] of their fingers.

Luke 11.46. act. 15.10.

5 All their workes they doe for to be seene of men: for they make their c phylacteries broad, and make long the *fringes of their garments, c They were scroles of parchment wherein the commandements were written: and to this day the Jewes vse the same, and close them in a piece of lether, and so binde them to their hande and left arme, to the intent they might haue continual remembrance of the Lawe.

6 *And loue the chiefe place at feasts, and to haue the chiefe seates in the assemblies, Nom. 15.38. deut. 22.12. Marke 12.38. luke 11.43. & 20.46.

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, [Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 *But be not ye called, d Rabbi: for one is your [doctor, [to wit,] Christ, and all ye are brethren.

[Or, master.

9 And *call no man your father vpon the earth: for there is but one, your Father which is in heauen.

Pagistrates and Pastors, but condemneth ambition and superiorizitie ouer our brothers fayth, which office apperteineth to Christ alone.

10 Be not called e doctors: for one is [Or, teacher.

James 3.1. d Christ forbiddeth not to giue full honour to Ma'a. 1.6. e The Pharises were called Masters or fathers, and the Scribes Doctours.

your your doctour, [euen] Christ.

11 But hee that is [f] greatest among you, let him be your seruant.

12 *For whosoeuer wil exalt himselfe, shall be brought lowe: and whosoeuer will humble himselfe, shalbe exalted.

13 ¶ Wo therefore [bee] vnto you Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites, because ye [g] shut vp the kingdome of heauen before men: for ye your selues go not in, neither suffer ye them [h] that would enter, to come in.

14 *Wo [be] vnto you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye deuoure widowes houses, euen vnder a colour of long prayers: wherefore ye shall receiue the greater damnation.

15 Wo [be] vnto you, Scribes & Pharises, hypocrites: for ye compasse [i] sea and land to make one of your profession: and when he is made, ye make him two folde more the childe of hell, then you your selues.

16 Wo [be] vnto you blinde guides, which say, Whosoeuer sweareth by the Temple, it is nothing: but whosoeuer sweareth by the golde of the Temple, he ‖offendeth.

17 Ye fooles and blinde, whether is greater, the golde, or the Temple that [k] sanctifieth the golde?

18 And whosoeuer sweareth by the altar, it is nothing: but whosoeuer sweareth by the offering [that is] vpon it, offendeth.

19 Ye fooles and blinde, whether is greater, the offring, or the altar which sanctifieth the offring?

20 Whosoeuer therefore sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, & by all things thereon.

21 *And whosoeuer sweareth by the Temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 *And he that sweareth by heauen, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 ¶ *Wo [be] to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye tythe mint, and anyse, and cummin, and leaue the weightier matters of the Lawe, [as] iudgement, & mercie, and fidelitie. These ought ye to haue done, and not to haue left the other.

24 Ye blinde guides, which [l] straine out a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 ¶ Wo [be] to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: [m] for ye make cleane the vtter side of the cuppe, and of the platter: but within they are full of rauerie and ‖ excesse.

26 *Thou blinde Pharise, cleanse first the inside of the cuppe and platter, that the outside of them may be cleane also.

27 Wo [be] to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye are like vnto ‖ whited tombes, which appeare beautifull outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, and of all filthines.

28 So are ye also: for outward ye appeare righteous vnto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisie and iniquitie.

29 ¶ Wo [be] vnto you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye builde the tombes of the [n] Prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had bene in [o] dayes of our fathers, we would not haue bene partners with them in the blood of the Prophets.

31 So then ye be witnesses vnto your selues, that ye [o] are the children of them that murdered the Prophets.

32 Fulfill ye also the measure of your fathers.

33 O serpents, the generation of vipers, howe should ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 Wherefore beholde, I sende vnto you [p] Prophetes, and wise men, and Scribes, and of them ye shall kill & crucifie: and of them shall ye scourge in your Synagogues, and persecute from citie to citie,

35 That vpon [q] you may come all the righteous blood that was shedde vpon the earth, *from the blood of Abel the righteous, vnto the [r] blood of Zacharias, the sonne of Barachias, whom ye slewe betweene the Temple and the altar.

36 Verely I say vnto you, all these things shall come vpon this generation.

37 *Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them which are sent to thee, how often would I haue gathered thy children together, *as the henne gathereth her chickens vnder her wings, and ye would not!

38 Beholde, your habitation shalbe left vnto you desolate.

39 For I say vnto you, ye shall not see me [s] henceforth till that ye say, Blessed [is] he that commeth in the Name of the Lord.

f The highest dignitie in the Church is not lordship, or dominion, but ministerie and seruice. Luke 14.11. and 18,14.

g Ye keepe backe the pure religion and knowledge of God when men are ready to embrace it.

h Which haue now their foote within the doores. Mar.12.40. Luke 20.47.

i They sought all meanes, that they could inuent to make of a Gentile a Iewe.

‖ Or, is a debter.

k And maketh it to be taken as an holy thing, because of the vse: and hereby Christ sheweth that mans doctrine doth not onely obscure the word of God, but is contrary to it.

1.King.8.13. 2.chro.6,2.

Chap.5.34.

Luke 11.42.

l Ye stay at that which is nothing, and let passe that which is of greater importance.

m Ye seeke how to get estimation with men, and passe not whether ye haue a good conscience or no.

‖ Or, intemperancie. Luke 11.39.

‖ Or, painted.

n For a remembrance of them, and in the meane season they passed not for their doctrine.

o It is not now onely that your nation hath begun to be cruel against the seruants of God, & therefore it is no maruelle though the children of such murderers handle roughly the Prophets.

p To conuince you of greater ingratitude.

q Christ meaneth that all their race shall be punished, so that the iniquitie of the fathers shalbe powred into the bosome of the children, which resemble their fathers. Gen.4.8. hebr.11.4.

r Read 2.chro. 24,22. Luke 13.34. 2.Esd.1.30.

s He will returne no more to them as a teacher, but as a iudge, when as they shalbe compelled to confesse (although to late) that he is the verie sonne of God.

CHAP. XXIIII.

2 Christ sheweth his disciples the destruction of the Temple. 5.24 The false Christs. 13 To perseuere. 14 The preaching of the Gospel. 6, 29 The signes of the end of the world. 42 He warneth them to wake. 44 The sodaine comming of Christ.

Marke 13.1. luke 21.5.

AND *Jesus went out, and departed from þ Temple, and his disciples came to him, to shewe him the a building of the Temple.

2 And Jesus said vnto them, See ye not all these things? Verely I say vnto you, *there shall not be here left a stone vpō a stone, that shall not be cast downe.

3 And as he sate vpon the mount of Olives, his disciples came vnto him apart, saying, Tell vs when these things shall be, and what signe [shalbe] of thy comming, b and of the ende of the world.

4 And Jesus answered, and saide vnto them, *c Take heede that no man deceiue you.

5 For many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceiue many.

6 And ye shall heare of warres, and rumors of warres: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to passe, but the ende is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and realme against realme, and there shal be pestilence, and famine, and earthquakes in diuers places.

8 All these are but the d beginning of sorowes.

9 * Then shall they deliuer you vp to be afflicted, and shal kill you, and ye shall be e hated of all nations for my Names sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false Prophets shall arise, and shall deceiue many.

12 And because f iniquitie shall be increased, the loue of many shalbe colde.

13 *But he that endureth to the ende, he shall be saued.

14 And this Gospell of the kingdome shalbe preached through þ whole world for a witnesse vnto all nations, and then shall the ende come.

15 Whē g ye therefore shall see the h abomination of desolation spoken of by *Daniel the Prophet, standing in the holy place, (let him that readeth, cōsider it.)

16 Then let them which be in Judea, flee into the mountaines.

17 Let him which is on the house top, not come downe to fetche any thing out of his house.

18 And he that is in the fielde, let not him returne backe to fetch his clothes.

19 And wo [shalbe] to them that are with childe, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.

20 But pray that your flight be not in the winter, neither on þ *Sabbath [day.] Actes 1.12.

21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not from the beginning of the world to this time, nor shall be.

22 And except those dayes should be shortened, there should no ‖ flesh be saued: but for the i electes sake those dayes shall be shortened. ‖ Or, man. i God promiseth for his children in the middes of troubles. Marke 13.21. luke 17.23.

23 *Then if any shal say vnto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there, beleeue it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christes, and false prophets, and shall shew great signes & wonders, so that if it were possible, they should deceiue the very elect.

25 Beholde, I haue tolde you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say vnto you, Beholde, he is in the k desert, go not foorth: Beholde, he is in the ‖ secret places, beleeue it not. k Whether the false Christes, and deceiuers lead the people, hyding themselues in holes, as if they were ashamed of their profession. ‖ Or, closets.

27 For as the lightning commeth out of the East, and shineth into the West, so shall also the comming of the Sonne of man be. Luke 17.37.

28 *For wheresoeuer a dead l carkeis is, thither will the Egles resort. l In despite of Satan the faithfull shalbe gathered and ioyned with Christ, as the Egles assemble to a dead carkeis. Marke 13.24. luke 21.25. isai.13.10. ezech.32.7. ioel 2.31. and 3.15.

29 *And immediatly after the m tribulations of those dayes, shall the sunne n be darkened, and the moone shall not giue her light, and the starres shall fall from heauen, and the powers of heauen shall be shaken. m When God hath made an end of the troubles of his Church.

30 *And then shall appeare the signe of the Sonne of man in heauen: and then shall all the kinreds of the earth mourne, and they shall see the Sonne of man come in the cloudes of heauen with power and great glorie. n He meaneth an horrible trembling of the world, and as it were, an alteration of the order of nature. Dan.7.13. reuel.1.7. 1.Cor.15.52. 1.thes.4.16.

31 *And hee shall sende his Angels with a great sounde of a trumpet, and they shal gather together his elect, from the foure windes [and] from the one end of the heauen vnto the other.

32 Now learne the parable of the figge tree: when her bough is yet tender, & it bringeth foorth leaues, ye know that sommer [is] neere.

33 So likewise ye, when ye see all these things, knowe that [the kingdome of God] is neere, [euen] at the doores.

34 Verely I say vnto you, this o generation shall not passe, till all these things be done. o For within fiftie yeres after, Jerusalem was destroyed: the godly were persecuted, false teachers seduced the people, religion was polluted, so that the world seemed to be at an ende.

35 *Heauen & earth shall passe away: but my wordes shall not passe away.

36 But of that day & houre knoweth no man, no not the Angels of heauen, but Mar.13.31.

a Whose excellencie appeareth in that that Herode for the space of 8. yeres kept ten thousande men in worke: the stones were 25. cubites long, in height 12, in breth 8, as Josephus writeth. Luke 19.44. b They thought the worlde should be at an ende, when Jerusalem were destroyed. Ephes.5.6. colos.2.18. c He answereth them not according to their minds, but admonisheth them of that which is necessarie for them to know. d Great and cruell warres haue ensued since among the heathen for the contempt of the Gospell, and increase of sinne. Chap.10.17. luke 21.12. john 15.20. and 16.2. e As if you were the cause of these troubles. f Many will keepe backe their charitie, because they are vnthankefull and euill, vpon whome they should bestow it. 2.Thes.3.13. 2.tim.2.5. g When the Temple shalbe polluted, it shalbe a signe of extreme desolation: the sacrifices shall ende and neuer be restored. Marke 13.14. luke 21.20. h The horrible destruction of the Temple, and the corruption of Gods pure religion. Dan.9.27.

but my Father onely.

37 But as the dayes of Noe [were,] so likewyse shall the comming of the Sonne of man be.

Gen.7,5,11. luke 17,16. 1,peter 3.20.

38 *For as in the dayes [before] the flood, they did eate and drinke, marrie, and giue in marriage, vnto the day that Noe entred into the Arke, p Because of their incredulitie.

39 And p knewe nothing, till the flood came, ‖ tooke them all away: so shall also the comming of the Sonne of man be.

Luk.17.34,35. 1.thess.4.17.

40 *q Then two men shall be in the fieldes, the one shall be receiued, and the other shall be refused.

q This teacheth every man to walke warely, not respecting his companion, although he be neuer so deare vnto him.

41 Two women shalbe grinding at the mill: the one shall be receiued, and the other shall be refused.

Marke 13.35. Luke 12,39. 1.thess.5,2. reuel.16,15.

42 *Wake therefore: for ye know not what houre your master will come.

43 Of* this be sure, that if the good man of the house knewe at what watch the thiefe would come, he would surely watch, and not suffer his house to be digged through.

44 Therefore be ye also readie: for in the houre that ye thinke not, will the Sonne of man come.

Luke 12.42.

45 *Who then is a faithfull seruant and wise, whome his master hath made ruler ouer his houshold, to giue them meate in season?

46 Blessed [is] that seruant whome his master, when hee commeth, shall finde so doing.

47 Verely I say vnto you, he shall make him ruler ouer all his goods.

48 But if that euill seruant shall say in his heart, My master doeth deferre his comming,

49 And begin to smite his fellowes, and to eat, ‖ to drinke with the drunken,

50 That seruants master will come in a day, when he looketh not for him, and in an houre that he is not ware of,

‖ Or, separate him. Chap.13.42. and 25.30.

51 And will ‖ cut him off, and giue him his portion with hypocrites: *there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

1 By the similitude of the virgines Iesus teacheth euery man to watch. 14 And by the talentes to be diligent. 31 The last iudgement. 32 The sheepe and the goates. 35 The workes of the faithfull.

a This similitude teacheth vs that it is not sufficient to haue once giuē our selues to folow Christ, but that we must continue. b To do him honour, as the manner was.

THen the a kingdome of heauen shall be likened vnto ten virgines, which tooke their lampes, and went to b meete the bridegrome.

2 And fiue of them were wise, and fiue foolish.

3 The foolish tooke their lampes, but tooke none oyle with them.

4 But the wise tooke oyle in their vessels with their lampes.

5 Now while the bridegrome tarryed long, all slumbred and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a crie made, behold, the bridegrome commeth: go out to meete him.

7 Then all those virgines arose, and trimmed their lampes.

8 And the foolish sayde to the wise, c Giue vs of your oyle, for our lampes are ‖ out.

c Many seeke that which they haue contemned, but it is too late. ‖ Or, quēched, d This was spoken in reproche, because they made not prouision in time.

9 But the wise answered, saying, [We feare] lest there will not be ynough for vs and you: but d goe ye rather to them that sell, and bye for your selues.

10 And while they went to bye, the bridegrome came: and they that were readie, went in with him to the wedding, and the gate was shut.

11 Afterwardes came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs.

12 But he answered, and said, Verely I say vnto you, c I know you not.

c I will not open to you because you haue failed in the midway. Chap.24.42, 44.mar.13.33, 35. Luke 19.12.

13 *Watche therefore: for ye knowe neither the day, nor the houre, when the Sonne of man will come.

f This similitude teacheth how we ought to continue in the knowledge of God, and to good with those graces that God hath giuen vs.

14 *f For [the kingdome of heauen is] as a man that going into a strange countrey, called his seruants, and deliuered to them his goods.

15 And vnto one he gaue fiue talents, and to another two, and to another one, to euery man after his owne habilitie, and straightway went from home.

g Euery talent commonly made three score pounde. reade chapter 18,24.

16 Then he that had receiued the fiue talents, went and occupied with them, and ‖ gained other fiue talents.

17 Likewise also, he that [receiued] two, he also gained other two.

‖ Or, made.

18 But he that receiued that one, went and digged it in the earth, and hid his masters money.

19 But after a long season, the master of those seruants came, and reckoned with them.

20 Then came hee that had receiued fiue talents, and brought other fiue talents, saying, Master, thou deliueredst vnto mee fiue talents: beholde, I haue gained with them other fiue talents.

21 Then his master sayde vnto him, It is well done good seruant and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in litle, I will make thee ruler ouer much: h enter in into thy masters ioy.

h The master receiued him into his house to giue him part of his goods and commodities.

22 Also hee that had receiued two talents, came and saide, Master, thou deliuered vnto mee two talents: beholde, I haue gained two other talents with them.

23 His master saide vnto him, It is well done good seruant, and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in litle, I will make thee ruler ouer much: enter in into thy masters ioy.

24 Then hee which had receiued the one talent, came & said, Master, I knew that thou wast an hard man, which reapest where thou sowedst not, and gatherest where thou strawedst not:

25 I was therefore afraide, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: beholde, thou hast thine owne.

26 And his master answered, and saide vnto him, Thou euill seruant, and ‖ slothfull, thou knewest that I reape where I sowed not, and gather where I strawed not.

27 Thou oughtest therefore to haue put my money to the exchangers, and then at my comming should I haue receiued mine owne with vantage.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and giue it vnto him which hath ten talents.

29 *For vnto euery man that hath, it shalbe giuen, and hee shall haue abundance, and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken away.

30 Cast therfore that vnprofitable seruant into vtter * darknes: there shall be weeping, and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ And when the Sonne of man commeth in his glorie, and all the holy Angels with him, then shall he sit vpon the throne of his glorie.

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepheard separateth the sheepe from the goates.

33 And he shall set the sheepe on his right hand, and the goates on the left.

34 Then shall the King say to them on his right hande, Come ye [k] blessed of my Father: inherite ye the kingdome prepared for you from the [l] foundations of the world.

35 *For [m] I was an hungred, and ye gaue me meate: I thirsted, and ye gaue mee drinke: I was a stranger, and ye lodged me:

36 [I was] naked, and ye clothed me: I was * ‖ sicke, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came vnto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answere him, saying, Lord, when sawe we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or a thirst, and gaue thee drinke?

38 And when sawe we thee a stranger, and lodged thee? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when sawe we thee sicke, or in prison, and came vnto thee?

40 And the King shall answere and say vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, in as much as ye haue done it vnto one of the least of these my brethren, ye haue done it to me.

41 Then shall he say vnto them on the left hand, *Depart from me ye cursed, into euerlasting fire, which is prepared for the deuill and his Angels. Psal.6.8. chap.7.23. luke 13.27.

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gaue me no meate: I thirsted, and ye gaue me no drinke:

43 I was a stranger, and ye lodged me not: [I was] naked, and ye clothed me not: sicke, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shal they also answere him, saying, Lorde, when sawe we thee an hungred, or a thirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sicke, or in prison, and did not minister vnto thee?

45 Then shall he answere them, and say, Verely I say vnto you, in as much as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. Dan.12.2. iohn 5.29. n We must therefore onely do that, which God requireth of vs, and not followe mens foolish fantasties.

46 *And these [n] shall go into euerlasting paine, and the righteous into life eternall.

CHAP. XXVI.

3 Conspiracie of the Priestes against Christ. 10 He reciteth Magdalene. 26 The institution of the Lords supper. 31 The disciples weakenesse. 48 The treason of Iudas. 62 The lwoyd. 64 Because Christ called himselfe the Sonne of God, he is iudged worthy to die. 69 Peter denieth, and repenteth.

AND * it came to passe, when Iesus had finished all these sayings, he said vnto his disciples, Marke 14.1. luke 22.1.

2 Ye know that within two dayes is the Passeouer, and the Sonne of man shall be deliuered to be crucified.

3 *Then assembled together [o] the chiefe Priestes, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people into the hall of the hie Priest called Caiaphas. Iohn 11.47.

4 And cõsulted how they might take Iesus by subtiltie, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on [p] feast [day,] lest any vproare be among the people.

6 ¶ And when Iesus was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the leper, Marke 14.3. iohn 11.2. and 12.3.

7 There came vnto him a woman, which had a box of very costly ointment,

‖ Or, lingerer.

Chap.13.12. luke 8.18. and 19.26. mark.4.25. i The graces of God shalbe taken away from him that doeth not bestow them to Gods glorie and his neighbours profite. Chap.8.12. and 22.13.

k For our saluation cometh of the blessing and fauour of God. l Hereby God declareth the certaintie of our predestination, whereby we are saued because we were chosen in Christ before the foundations of the world, Ephes.1.4. Iia.58.7. ezek.18.7.

m Christ meaneth not that our saluation dependeth on our workes or merites, but teacheth what it is to liue iustly according to godlinesse and charitie, and that God recompenseth his of his free mercie, likewise as he doth elect them. Ecclus.7.35.

‖ Or, infirme.

ment, and [a] powred it on his head, as he sate at the table.

8 And when his disciples saw it, they had [b] indignation, saying, What needed this waste?

9 For this ointment might haue bene solde for much, and bene giuen to the poore.

10 And Jesus knowing it, saide vnto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for shee hath wrought a good worke vpon mee.

11 * For ye haue the poore alwayes with you, but me shall ye not [c] haue alwayes.

12 For in that shee powred this oyntment on my body, she did it to [d] bury me.

13 Verely I say vnto you, wheresoeuer this Gospell shall bee preached throughout all the world, there shall also this that she hath done, be spoken of for a memoriall of her.

14 ℭ* Then one of the twelue, called Judas Iscariot, went vnto the chiefe Priests, 15 And saide, What will ye giue me, and I will deliuer him vnto you? and they appointed vnto him thirtie [e] [pieces] of siluer.

16 And from that time, hee sought opportunitie to betray him.

17 ℭ* Nowe on the first [day] of the feast of vnleauened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying vnto him, Where wilt thou that wee prepare for thee to eate the Passeouer?

18 And hee sayde, Goe into the citie to such a man, and say to him, The master sayth, [f] My time is at hand: I will keepe the Passeouer at thine house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had giuen them charge, and made ready the Passeouer.

20 *So when the euen was come, he sate downe with the twelue.

21 And as they did eate, he sayde, Verely I say vnto you, that one of you shal betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorowful, and began euery one of them to say vnto him, Is it I, Master?

23 And he answered and said, *He that [g] dippeth his hand with me in the dish, he shall betray me.

24 Surely the sonne of man goeth his way, [h] as it is written of him: but woe [be] to that man, by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had bene good for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

25 Then Judas which betrayed him, answered, and said, Is it I, Master? He said vnto him, Thou hast said it.

26 ℭ* And as they did eate, Jesus tooke the bread: and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue it to the disciples, and said, Take, eate: [i] this is my body.

27 Also he tooke the cuppe, and when he had giuen thankes, he gaue it them, saying, Drinke ye all of it.

28 For this is my [k] blood of the Newe testament, that is shed for many, for the remission of sinnes.

29 I say vnto you, that [l] I will not drinke henceforth of this fruite of the vine vntill that day, when I shall drinke it newe with you in my Fathers kingdome.

30 And when they had sung a Psalme, they went out into the mount of Oliues.

31 ℭ* Then saide Jesus vnto them, All ye shall be [m] offended by me this night: for it is written, I will *smite the shepheard, and the sheepe of the flocke shalbe scattered.

32 But * after I am risen againe, I will go before you into Galile.

33 But Peter answered, and saide vnto him, [n] Though that all men should be offended by thee, yet will I neuer be offended.*

34 *Jesus saide vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, that this night, before the cocke crow, thou shalt deny me thrise.

35 Peter saide vnto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not denie thee. Likewise also saide all the disciples.

36 ℭ* Then went Jesus with them into a place which is called Gethsemane, and saide vnto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And hee tooke Peter, and the two sonnes of Zebedeus, and began to waxe sorowfull, [o] and grieuously troubled.

38 Then sayd Jesus vnto them, My soule is very heauie, [euē] vnto [p] death: tary ye here, and watch with me.

39 So he went a litle further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this [q] cuppe [r] passe from me: neuertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 After, he came vnto the disciples, and found them a sleepe, and said to Peter, What? could ye not watch with me one houre?

41 Watch, a He weeth what occasion Judas tooke to commit his treason.

b This was through Judas motion, to whom they gaue credit.
Deut.15.11.
c This fact was extraordinarie, neither was it left as an example to be followed: also Christ is not presente with his bodily or to be honoured with any outward pompe.
d To honour my buriall withall. Mar.14.10. Luke 22.4.
e Euery one in value was about foure pence halfepenny of olde sterling. Mar.14.12. Luke 22.7.
f He maketh haste to a more worthie sacrifice, to wit, to that which the Passeouer signified.
Mar.14.18. luke 22.14. iohn 13.21.
Psalm.41.9.
g He that is accustomed to eate with me dayly at the table. Psalm. 41.9.
h To the intent his disciples might know that all this was appointed by the prouidence of God.
i That is, a true signe and testimonie that my bodie is made yours, & by me your soules are nourished.
k The wine signifieth that our soules are refreshed and satisfied with the blood of Christ, spiritually receiued, so that without him we haue no nourishment.
l You shall no more enioye my bodily presence till wee meete together in heauen. Mar.14.27. iohn 16.32. and 18.8.
m Shal turne backe and be discouraged. Zach.13.7. Mar.14.28. and 16.7.
n This declareth what danger it is to trust too much to our owne strength. Iohn 13.38. Mar.14.32. luke 22.39.
o He feared not death of it selfe, but trembled for feare of Gods anger towarde sinne, the burden wherof he bare for our sakes.
p For he saw Gods anger kindled towards vs.
q That is, the anger of God for mans sinnes.
r Hee knewe well what his father had determined, and therefore was ready to obey: but he prayeth as the faithfull doe in their troubles without respect of the eternall counsell of God.

1.Cor.11.24.

41 Watch, and pray, that ye enter not into tentation: the spirit in deede is readie, but the flesh is [t] weake.

42 Againe he went awaye the seconde time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup can not passe away from mee, but that I must drinke it, thy will be done.

43 And hee came, and founde them a sleepe againe: for their eyes were heauie.

44 So hee left them and went awaye againe, and prayed the third time, saying the same wordes.

45 Then came he to his disciples, and said vnto them, [x] Sleepe henceforth, and take your rest: beholde, the houre is at hand, and the Sonne of man is giuen into the hands of sinners.

46 [u] Rise, let vs go: beholde, he is at hand that betrayeth me.

47 *And while he yet spake, lo, Iudas, one of the twelue, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staues, from the high Priestes and Elders of the people.

48 Nowe he that betrayed him, had giuen them a token, saying, Whomsoeuer I shall kisse, that is he, lay holde on him.

49 And foorthwith hee came to Iesus, and saide, ‖God saue thee, Master, and kissed him.

50 Then Iesus saide vnto him, [x] Friende, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laide handes on Iesus, and tooke him.

51 And beholde, one of them which were with Iesus, stretched out [his] hand, and drew his sworde, and strooke a seruant of the high Priest, and smote off his eare.

52 Then sayde Iesus vnto him, Put vp thy sword into his ‖place: for [y] all that take the sworde, shall perish with the sworde.

53 Either thinkest thou, that I cannot nowe pray to my Father, and hee will giue me mo then twelue [z] legions of Angels?

54 How then should the *Scriptures be fulfilled, [which say,] that it must be so?

55 The same houre said Iesus to the multitude, Ye be come out as [it were] against a thiefe, with swordes & staues, to take me: I sate dayly teaching in the Temple among you, & ye tooke me not.

56 But all this was done, that the *Scriptures of the Prophets might be fulfilled. * Then all the disciples forsooke him, and fled.

57 C*And they tooke Iesus, and led him to Caiaphas the hie Priest, where the Scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 And Peter followed him a farre off vnto the high Priests hall, and went in, and sate with the seruants to see the ende.

59 Nowe *the chiefe Priests and the Elders, & all the whole Councel [a] sought false witnes against Iesus, to put him to death.

60 But they found none, and though many false witnesses came, yet founde they [b] none: but at the last came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This man said, *I can destroy the Temple of God, and builde it in three dayes.

62 Then the chiefe Priest arose, and sayde to him, Answerest thou nothing? what is the matter that these men witnesse against thee?

63 But Iesus [c] held his peace. Then the chiefe Priest answered, and saide to him, I [d] charge thee by the liuing God, that thou tell vs, if thou be the Christ the Sonne of God.

64 *Iesus said to him, [e] Thou hast sayde it: neuertheles I say vnto you, hereafter shall ye see the Sonne of man, sitting at the right hand of the power of [God,] and come in the cloudes of the heauen.

65 Then the high Priest rent his [f] clothes, saying, Hee hath [g] blasphemed: what haue we any more neede of witnesses? beholde, now ye haue heard his blasphemie.

66 What thinke ye? They answered, and said, He is worthy to dye.

67 *Then spate they in his face, and buffeted him: and [h] other smote him with their roddes, 68 Saying, Prophecie to vs, O Christ, who is he that smote thee?

69 C*Peter sate without in the hall: and a maide came to him, saying, Thou allo wast with Iesus of Galile.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I wot not what thou sayest.

71 And when hee went out into the porche, an other [maide] sawe him, and sayde vnto them that were there, This man was also with Iesus of Nazaret.

72 And [k] againe hee denied with an othe, f And therefore we must continually fight against the flesh x He speaketh this in a contrary sense, meaning they should anon be well wakened.

u Christ obeyed willingly, and therefore presented himselfe to his enemies, Mar.14.43. luke 22.47. iohn 18.3.

‖Or, Hayle, Rabbi.

x He rebuketh his vnkindnes vnder the cloke of pretended friendship.

‖Or, sheathe. Gen.9.6. reuel.13.10.

y The exercising of the sword is forbid to priuate persons. Also hee would haue hindered by his vnbridled zeale the worke of God.

z Euery legion conteined commonly 6000. foote men, and 732. horsemen, wherefore here he meaneth an infinite number. Isa.53.10.

Lamen.4.20. Verse 31.

Mar.14.53. luke 22.54. iohn 18.13, 24. Mar.14.55.

a He declareth howe Iesus was wrongfully accused, to the end that we may know his innocencie, and not that he suffered for him selfe, but for vs.

b Which could iustly witnes against him. iohn 2.19.

c Christ did neglect their false reproyts, & moreouer he was not there to defend his cause, but to suffer condemnation.

d Obiure thee by thine allegeance towards God. Chap.16.27. rom.14.10. 1.thes.4.16.

e Christ confesseth that he is the Sonne of God.

f This was one of their owne traditions, if they had heard any Israelite blasphemie.

g The enemies of God call a true confession, blasphemie. Isai 50.6.

h The officers smite Christ with their rods or little staues.

i They mocked him after this sort that he might not seme to be a Prophet, and so would turne the peoples mindes from him. Mar.14.66. luke 22.55. iohn 18.25.

k An example of our infirmitie that wee may learne to depende vpon God, and not put our trust in our selues.

othe, saying, I know not the man.

73 So after a while, came vnto him they that stood by, and said vnto Peter, Surely thou art also one of them: for euen thy speach bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse [himselfe,] and to sweare, saying, I know not the man. And immediatly the cocke crew.

75 Then Peter remembred ỹ wordes of Iesus, which had said vnto him, Before the cocke crowe, thou shalt deny me thrise. So hee went out, and [i] wept bitterly.

i Hee was liuely touched with repentance by the motiō of gods Spirit, who neuer suffereth his to perish vtterly, though for a time they fall, to the intent they may feele their own weakenes and acknowledge his great mercie.

CHAP. XXVII.

2 Christ is deliuered vnto Pilate. 5 Iudas hangeth himselfe. 24 Christ is pronounced innocent by the iudge, and yet is condemned, and crucified among theeues. 46 Hee prayeth vpon the crosse. 51 The baile is rent. 52 The dead bodies arise. 57 Ioseph burieth Christ. 64 Watchmen keepe the graue.

Matth. 15.1. Luke 22.66. Iohn 18.28.

WHen * ỹ morning was come, all the chiefe Priests, and the Elders of the people tooke counsel against Iesus, to put him to death,

2 And led him away bounde, and [a] deliuered him vnto Pontius Pilate the gouernour.

a For they had no authoritie to condemne him, or to put any to death. b Ouer late repentance bringeth desperation. c Although he abhorre his sinnes, yet is he not displeased therewith, but despaireth in Gods mercies, and seeketh his owne destruction.

3 ¶ Then when Iudas which betrayed him, sawe that hee was condemned, [b] he repented himselfe, and brought againe the thirtie [pieces] of siluer to the chiefe Priests, and Elders,

4 Saying, I haue [c] sinned betraying the innocent blood. But they said, what is that to vs: [d] see thou to it.

5 And when he had cast downe the siluer [pieces] in the Temple, he departed, and went, * and hanged himselfe.

6 And the chiefe Priests tooke the siluer [pieces,] and said, It is not [e] lawfull for vs to put them into the ‖ treasure, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they tooke counsell, [f] & bought with them a potters field, for the buriall of [f] strangers.

8 Wherefore that field is called, * The field of blood, vntill this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled ỹ which was spoken by Ieremias the Prophet, saying, * And they tooke thirtie siluer [pieces,] the price of him that was valued, whom [they] of the children of Israel valued,

10 And they gaue them for the potters fielde, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 ¶ * And Iesus stoode before the gouernour, and the gouernour asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes: Iesus sayde vnto him, Thou sayest it.

12 And when hee was accused of the chiefe Priests and Elders, hee answered nothing.

13 Then sayde Pilate vnto him, Hearest thou not how many things they lay against thee:

14 But hee answered him not to one worde, in so much that the gouernour marueyled greatly.

15 Nowe at the feast, the gouernour was wont to ‖ deliuer vnto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 When they were then gathered together, Pilate said vnto them, whether will ye that I let loose vnto you Barabbas, or Iesus which is called Christ:

18 (For he knewe well, that for enuie they had deliuered him.

19 Also when he was set downe vpon the iudgemēt seate, his wife sent to him, saying, [h] Haue thou nothing to doe with that iust man: for I haue suffred many things this day in a dreame by reason of him.)

20 * But the chiefe Priests and the Elders had perswaded ỹ people, that they should aske Barabbas, and shoulde destroy Iesus.

21 Then the gouernour answered, [i] & sayd vnto them, whether of the twaine will yee that I let loose vnto you: And they sayd, [i] Barabbas.

22 Pilate sayd vnto them, what shall I doe then with Iesus which is called Christ: They all sayde to him, Let him be crucified.

23 Then said ỹ gouernour, But what euill hath he done: Then they cryed the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate sawe that he auailed nothing, but ỹ more tumult was made, hee tooke water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this [k] iust man: looke you to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and sayde, His [l] blood [be] on vs, and on our children.

26 Thus let he Barabbas loose vnto them, and scourged Iesus, and deliuered him to be crucified.

27 ¶ * Then the souldiers of the gouernour tooke Iesus into the common hall, and gathered about him the whole band.

28 And they stripped him, and put vpon him a [m] skarlet robe, g It was a tradition of the Iewes to deliuer a prisoner at Easter.

‖ Or, quit.

h This was to the greater condemnation of Pilate, who neither his owne knowledge could reache, nor counsell of others, to defend Christes innocencie. Mar. 15.11. Luke 23.18. Iohn 18.40. actes 3.14.

i The multitude preferre the wicked to the righteous.

k Pilate beareth witnes that he is innocent, before he condemne him.

l If his death be not lawfull, let the punishment fall on our heades and our childrens. And as they wished, so this curse taketh place to this day. Mar. 15.16. Iohn 19.2.

m To deride him, because he called himselfe a King.

29 And

29 And platted a crowne of thornes, and put it vpon his head, and a reede in his right hand, and bowed their knees before him, and mocked him, saying, God saue thee king of the Iewes,

30 And spitted vpon him, and tooke a reede, and smote him on the head.

31 Thus when they had mocked him, they tooke the robe from him, and put his owne raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

Mar.15.21. Luke 23.26. Mar.15.22. iohn 19.17.

32 *And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, named Simon: him they compelled to beare his Crosse.

n It was a kind of drinke to open the brines, and so to hasten his death, which was giuen him vpon ꝑ crosse. Psalm.22.18. mar.15.24.

33 *And when they came vnto the place called Golgotha, (that is to say, the place of dead mens skulles)

34 They gaue him n vineger to drinke, mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drinke.

o The maner then was to set vp a writing to signifie wherefore a man was executed: but here God gouerned Pilates hand to write otherwise then he thought. iohn 2.19. Psal.22.8. wisd.2.18.

35 ¶ And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, and did cast lots, that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the Prophet, *They deuided my garments among them, and vpon my vesture did cast lottes.

36 And they sate, and watched him there.

p This was a great tentation, to go about to take from him his trust in God, and so to bring him to dispaire.

37 ¶ They set vp also ouer his head his cause written, oTHIS IS IESVS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

38 ¶ And there were two thieues crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

q Meaning by this speache the one of the thieues.

39 And they that passed by, reuiled him, wagging their heades,

40 And saying, *Thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, saue thy selfe: if thou be ꝑ Sonne of God, come downe from the crosse.

r That was from noone till three of the clocke.

41 Likewise also the hie Priests mocking him, with ꝑ Scribes, and Elders, and Pharises, said, f Of Iewrie and ꝑ countrie there about. Psal.22.2.

42 He saued others, [but] he cannot saue himselfe: if he be the King of Israel, let him nowe come downe from the crosse, and we will beleeue him.

s Notwithstanding that he feeleth him selfe as it were wounded with Gods wrath, and forsaken for our sinnes, yet he ceaseth not to put his confidence in God and call vpon him: which is written to teache vs in all afflictions to trust still in God, be the assaultes neuer so grieuous to the flesh.

43 *He ꝑ trusteth in God, let him deliuer him nowe, if he will haue him: for he saide, I am the Sonne of God.

44 That same also the q thieues which were crucified with him, cast in his teeth.

45 Nowe from the r first houre was there darkenesse ouer all the f land, vnto the ninth houre.

46 And about the ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, saying, *Eli, Eli, lamasabachthani: that is, s My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 And some of them that stoode there, when they heard it, saide, This man calleth u Elias.

u They mocked at Christs prayer, as if it had bene in vaine. Iohn 19.29.

48 And straightway one of them ranne, and tooke *a sponge, and filled it with vineger, and put it on a ‖ reede, and gaue him to t drinke.

‖ Or, hyssope stalke. Psal.69.21.

49 Other saide, Let be: let vs see, if Elias will come and saue him.

50 Then Iesus cryed againe with a loude voyce, and yeelded vp the x ghost.

x Voluntarily after hee had obeyed his Father in all things. 2.Chro.3.14.

51 And behold, *the y paile of ꝑ Temple was rent in twaine, from the toppe to the bottome, and the earth did quake, and the stones were clouen, y Which signified an ende of all the ceremonies of the Lawe.

52 And the graues did open themselues, and many bodies of the Saintes which slept, arose, 53 And came out of the graues after his reiurrection, and went into the ‖ holy Citie, and appeared vnto many.

‖ Or, Ierusalē.

54 When the Centurion, z they that were with him watching Iesus, saw the earthquake, z the things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truely a this was the Sonne of God.

z This iudgement of an heathen man was sufficient to condemne the grosse malice of the Iewes.

55 ¶ And many women were there beholding him a farre off, which had followed Iesus from Galile, ministring vnto him.

56 Among whom was Marie Magdalene, and Marie ꝑ mother of Iames and Ioses, and the mother of Zebedeus sonnes.

57 ¶ And when the euen was come, there came a a riche man of Arimathea, named Ioseph, who had also himselfe bene Iesus disciple.

Mar.15.42, 43. luke 23. 50,51. iohn 19.38.

a Who was so much the more in danger by declaring himselfe to be Iesus disciple.

58 Hee went to Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be deliuered.

59 So Ioseph tooke the bodie, and wrapped it in a cleane linnen cloth, 60 And put it in his newe b tombe, which he had hewen out in a rocke, and rolled a great stone to the dooze of the sepulchre, and departed.

b Christs burying doeth so much more bewtifie his death and resurrection.

61 And there was Marie Magdalene, and the other Marie sitting ouer against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Nowe the next day that followed the c Preparation [of the Sabbath,] the hie Priestes and Pharises assembled to Pilate, c Which was the day before the Sabbath.

63 And saide, Syr, we remember that that deceiuer sayde, While hee was yet aliue, within three dayes I will rise.

64 Commaunde therefore, that the sepulchre sepulchre bee made sure vntill the third day, least his disciples come by night, and steale him away, and say vnto the people, Hee is risen from the dead: so shall the last [d] errour bee worse then the first.

65 Then Pilate saide vnto them, Yee haue [e] a watch: go, and make it sure as ye know.

66 And they went, and made the sepulchre [f] sure with the watch, and sealed the stone.

d Poze will follow his doctrine then did afoze he was put to death.
e That is, men appointed for the keeping of the Temple.
f The more that men go about to subdue Christs power, the more shewe they their own malice, and procure to themselues the greater condemnation, for as much as Gods glory the more appeareth thereby.

CHAP. XXVIII.

6 The resurrection of Christ. 10 The brethē of Christ. 12 The hie Priestes bribe the souldiers. 17 Christ appeareth to his disciples, and sendeth them forth to preach, and to baptize, 20 Promising to them continuall assistance.

Mar.16.1,2,5. Iohn.20.11.

NOwe * in the ‖ ende of the [a] Sabbath, when [b] first [day] of the Weeke beganne to dawne, Marie Magdalene, and the other Marie came to see the sepulchre.

‖ Or, euening.
a Here the Euangelist reckeneth the naturall day from the Sunne rising to his rising againe, & not as the Iewes did, which began so soone at the first houre after the Sunne set.
b There were two: but it is a maner of speach to vse the singular number for the plurall, and contrarie.

2 And beholde, there was a great earthquake: for the [b] Angel of the Lord descended from heauen, and came and rolled backe the stone from the doore, and sate vpon it.

3 And his countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snowe.

4 And for feare of him, the keepers were astonied, and became as dead men.

5 But the Angel answered, and saide to the women, Feare ye not: for I know that yee seeke Iesus which was crucified:

6 He is not here, for he is risen, as hee said: come, see the place where the Lord was layd,

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that hee is risen from the deade: and beholde, hee goeth before you into Galile: there yee shall see him: [c] lo, I haue

c He assureth them that it is so.

tolde you.

8 So they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with feare and great [d] ioy, and did run to bring his disciples worde.

d Their ioy was mixt with feare, both because of the Angels presence, and also for that they were not assured.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, beholde, Iesus also mette them, saying, God saue you. And they came, and tooke him by the feete, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Iesus vnto them, Bee not afrayde. Go, [and] tell my brethren, that they go into Galile, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were gone, beholde, some of the watch came into the citie, and shewed vnto the hie Priests all the things that were done.

12 and they gathered them together with the Elders, and tooke counsell, and gaue large money vnto the souldiers,

13 Saying, Say, His disciples came by night & stole him away while we slept.

14 And if the gouernour heare of this, we will perswade him, and saue you harmeles.

15 So they tooke the money, and did as they were taught: and this [e] saying is noysed among the Iewes vnto this day.

e An extreme vengeance of God, whereby the Iewes were the more hardened, so that they can not feele the profite of his death and resurrection. Heb.2.8.chap. 11.27, Iohn. 17.2. Marke 16.15.

16 ¶ Then the eleuen disciples went into Galile, into a mountaine, where Iesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

f Men may not teach their owne doctrine, but whatsoeuer Christ hath taught them: for he reserueth this authority to himselfe, to be the onely teacher and authour of the doctrine. Iohn 14.16.

18 And Iesus came, and spake vnto them, saying, *All power is giuen vnto me in heauen and in earth.

19 *Go therfore, and teach all nations, baptizing thē in the name of the Father, and the Sonne, and the holy Ghost,

20 Teaching thē to obserue al things, whatsoeuer I [f] haue commanded you: and lo, *I am with you alway, vntil the [g] end of the world. Amen.

g By power, grace and vertue of the holy Ghost.

The holy Gospell of Iesus Christ,

according to Marke.

CHAP. I.

2 The office, doctrine and life of Iohn the Baptist. 9 Christ is baptized, 13 And tempted. 14 He preacheth. 17 Calleth the fathers. 23 Christ healeth the man with the vncleane spirit. 27 Newe doctrine. 29 He healeth Peters mother in law. 34 The deuils know him. 41 He cleanseth the leper, and healeth diuers others.

a He sheweth that Iohn Baptist was the first preacher of the Gospel. Malac.3.1.

THe [a] beginning of the Gospel of Iesus Christ the Sonne of God:

2 As it is written in the Prophets, *Beholde, I send my [b] messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

b In Greeke, Angel, or Ambassadour.

3 *The voice of him that crieth in the wildernes [is,] [c] Prepare the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

Ma.40.3. Iuke 3.4. Iohn.1.15.
c Take away all lets, which might hinder Christ to come to you. Mat.3.1,6.

4 *Iohn did baptize in the wildernes, and [d] preache the baptisme of amended He did both baptize and preach, but preached first, and after baptized, as appeareth by Matth.3.1: so that the order is here inuerted, which thing is common in the scriptures.

sepulchre bee made sure vntill the third day, least his disciples come by night, and steale him away, and say vnto the people, Hee is risen from the dead: so shall the last [d] errour bee worse then the first.

65 Then Pilate saide vnto them, Yee haue [e] a watch: go, and make it sure as ye know.

66 And they went, and made the sepulchre [f] sure with the watch, and sealed the stone.

d Poze will follow his doctrine then did afoze he was put to death.
e That is, men appointed for the keeping of the Temple.
f The more that men go about to subdue Christs power, the more shewe they their own malice, and procure to themselues the greater condemnation, for as much as Gods glory the more appeareth thereby.

CHAP. XXVIII.

6 The resurrection of Christ. 10 The brethē of Christ. 12 The hie Priestes bribe the souldiers. 17 Christ appeareth to his disciples, and sendeth them forth to preach, and to baptize, 20 Promising to them continuall assistance.

Mar.16.1,2,5. Iohn.20.11.

NOwe * in the ‖ ende of the [a] Sabbath, when [b] first [day] of the Weeke beganne to dawne, Marie Magdalene, and the other Marie came to see the sepulchre.

‖ Or, euening.
a Here the Euangelist reckeneth the naturall day from the Sunne rising to his rising againe, & not as the Iewes did, which began so soone at the first houre after the Sunne set.
b There were two: but it is a maner of speach to vse the singular number for the plurall, and contrarie.

2 And beholde, there was a great earthquake: for the [b] Angel of the Lord descended from heauen, and came and rolled backe the stone from the doore, and sate vpon it.

3 And his countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snowe.

4 And for feare of him, the keepers were astonied, and became as dead men.

5 But the Angel answered, and saide to the women, Feare ye not: for I know that yee seeke Iesus which was crucified:

6 He is not here, for he is risen, as hee said: come, see the place where the Lord was layd,

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that hee is risen from the deade: and beholde, hee goeth before you into Galile: there yee shall see him: [c] lo, I haue

c He assureth them that it is so.

tolde you.

8 So they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with feare and great [d] ioy, and did run to bring his disciples worde.

d Their ioy was mixt with feare, both because of the Angels presence, and also for that they were not assured.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, beholde, Iesus also mette them, saying, God saue you. And they came, and tooke him by the feete, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Iesus vnto them, Bee not afrayde. Go, [and] tell my brethren, that they go into Galile, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were gone, beholde, some of the watch came into the citie, and shewed vnto the hie Priests all the things that were done.

12 and they gathered them together with the Elders, and tooke counsell, and gaue large money vnto the souldiers,

13 Saying, Say, His disciples came by night & stole him away while we slept.

14 And if the gouernour heare of this, we will perswade him, and saue you harmeles.

15 So they tooke the money, and did as they were taught: and this [e] saying is noysed among the Iewes vnto this day.

e An extreme vengeance of God, whereby the Iewes were the more hardened, so that they can not feele the profite of his death and resurrection. Heb.2.8.chap. 11.27, Iohn. 17.2. Marke 16.15.

16 ¶ Then the eleuen disciples went into Galile, into a mountaine, where Iesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

f Men may not teach their owne doctrine, but whatsoeuer Christ hath taught them: for he reserueth this authority to himselfe, to be the onely teacher and authour of the doctrine. Iohn 14.16.

18 And Iesus came, and spake vnto them, saying, *All power is giuen vnto me in heauen and in earth.

19 *Go therfore, and teach all nations, baptizing thē in the name of the Father, and the Sonne, and the holy Ghost,

20 Teaching thē to obserue al things, whatsoeuer I [f] haue commanded you: and lo, *I am with you alway, vntil the [g] end of the world. Amen.

g By power, grace and vertue of the holy Ghost.

The holy Gospell of Iesus Christ,

according to Marke.

CHAP. I.

2 The office, doctrine and life of Iohn the Baptist. 9 Christ is baptized, 13 And tempted. 14 He preacheth. 17 Calleth the fathers. 23 Christ healeth the man with the vncleane spirit. 27 Newe doctrine. 29 He healeth Peters mother in law. 34 The deuils know him. 41 He cleanseth the leper, and healeth diuers others.

a He sheweth that Iohn Baptist was the first preacher of the Gospel. Malac.3.1.

THe [a] beginning of the Gospel of Iesus Christ the Sonne of God:

2 As it is written in the Prophets, *Beholde, I send my [b] messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

b In Greeke, Angel, or Ambassadour.

3 *The voice of him that crieth in the wildernes [is,] [c] Prepare the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

Ma.40.3. Iuke 3.4. Iohn.1.15.
c Take away all lets, which might hinder Christ to come to you. Mat.3.1,6.

4 *Iohn did baptize in the wildernes, and [d] preache the baptisme of amended He did both baptize and preach, but preached first, and after baptized, as appeareth by Matth.3.1: so that the order is here inuerted, which thing is common in the scriptures.

ment of life, for remission of sinnes.

5 And all the countrey of Judea, and they of Jerusalem went out vnto him, and were all baptized of him in the riuer Jordan confessing their sinnes.

Matth.3.4

6 *Now John was clothed with camels heare, and with a girdle of a skinne about his loynes: and he did eate ‖locustes and wilde honie,

‖Or, grashoppers. Leuit.11.22. Mat.3.11.luk. 3.16.ioh.1.27

7 *And preached, saying, A stronger then I commeth after me, whose shoes latchet I am not worthie to stoupe downe, and vnloose.

Act.1.5.& 2.4. & 11.16.& 19.4.

8 Trueth it is, I haue *baptized you with a water: but hee will baptize you with the holie Ghost.

a He declareth that he is but the minister of the outward signe, and that it is Iesus Christ that giueth the force and vertue.

9 ¶And it came to passe in those daies, that Jesus came from Nazaret [a citie] of Galile, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

Mat.3.13.luk. 3.21.ioh.1.33.

10 And assoone as ‖he was come out of the water, [John] sawe the heauens cloue in twaine, and the b holy Ghost descending vpon him like a doue.

‖Or, Iesus.

b This was done for the confirmation of John and them that stoode by.

11 And there was a voyce from heauen, [saying,] Thou art my beloued c Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

c The Father beareth witnes that Christ is the verie Sonne of God. Matth.4.1. luke 4.1.

12 *And immediately the ‖Spirit driueth him into the wildernes.

‖Or, the holy Ghost.

13 And hee was there in the wildernesse fourtie dayes, and was d tempted of Satan: hee was also with the wilde beastes, and the Angels ministred vnto him.

d Christ would be tempted, to confirme vs that he will helpe them that be tempted. Heb.2.18. Mat.4.12.luk. 4.14.ioh.4.43

14 ¶*Nowe after that John was committed [to prison,] Jesus came into Galile, preaching e the Gospell of the kingdome of God, e By the which Gospell he will rule and reigne ouer all.

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdome of God is at hand: repent and beleeue the Gospell.

Matth.4.18. luke 5.2.

16 ¶And as he walked by the ‖sea of Galile, he sawe Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, (for they were fishers.)

‖Or, lake.

17 Then Jesus sayd vnto them, Follow me, and I will make you to be f fishers of men.

f To saue them from perdition.

18 And straight way they forsooke their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he sawe James [the sonne] of Zebedeus, and John his brother, as they were in the ship, mending their nets.

20 And anon he called them: and they left their father Zebedeus in the shippe with his hyred seruants, and went their way after him.

21 ¶So *they entred into Capernaum, and straight way on the Sabbath day he entred into the Synagogue, and taught.

Matth.4.13. luke 4.31.

22 And they were astonyed at his doctrine: *for hee taught them as one that had authoritie, and g not as the Scribes.

Mat.7.28,29. luke 4.32.

g Without doctrine was dead, and nothing sauoured of the spirit.

23 ¶And there was in their Synagogue a man which had an vncleane spirit, and he cried, 24 Saying, Ah, what haue we to doe with thee, O Jesus of Nazaret? Art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe thee what thou art, [euen] h holy one of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, i Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

h Christ would not suffer the father of lyes to beare witnes to the trueth.

i Christ would not haue such witnesses to preach him and his Gospel. So Paul was offended that the Pythonesse should testifie of him, Act.16.18.

26 And the vncleane spirit tare him, and cryed with a loude voyce, and came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, so that they demaunded one of another, saying, What thing is this? what k newe doctrine is this? for he commandeth the foule spirites with authoritie, and they obey him.

k They referre the miracle to the kinde of doctrine, and so maruelle at it, as a new and strange thing, and do not consider the power of Christ, who is the authour of the one and the other. Matth.8.14. luke 4.38.

28 And immediately his fame spred abroad throughout all the region boudering on Galile.

29 ¶*And assoone as they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 And Simons wiues mother lay sicke of a feuer, and anon they tolde him of her.

31 And he came and tooke her by the hande, and lift her vp, and the feuer forsooke her by and by, and shee ministred vnto them.

32 And when euen was come, and the sunne was downe, they brought to him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with deuils.

33 And the whole citie was gathered together at the doore.

34 And hee healed many that were sicke of diuers diseases: and hee cast out many deuils, and l suffered not the deuils to say that they knewe him.

l Christ would not haue such witnesses to preach him and his Gospel. So Paul was offended that the Pythonesse should testifie of him, Act.16.18.

35 And in the morning very early, ‖before day, [Jesus] arose and went out into a solitarie place, and there prayed.

‖Or, being yet night.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they sayd vnto him, All men seeke for thee.

38 Then he sayd vnto them, Let vs goe into the next townes, that I may preach preach there also: for I came out for that purpose.

39 And hee preached in their Synagogues, throughout all Galile, and cast the deuils out.

Matth.8.2. luke 5.12.

40 ¶ *And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeled downe vnto him, and sayde to him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

41 And Iesus had compassion, & put forth his hande, and touched him, and said to him, I will: be thou cleane.

42 And assoone as he had spoken, immediately the leprosie departed from him, and he was made cleane.

43 And after hee had giuen him a straight [p] commandement, hee sent him away forthwith, 44 And said vnto him, See thou say nothing to any man, but get thee hence, [and] shewe thy selfe to [q] the *Priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things, which Moses commanded, for a [r] testimoniall vnto them.

p Forbidding him to tell any man, because as yet his time was not come to be knowen.
q It belonged to the Priest to know if a man were healed of the leprosie. Leuit.14.4.
r To take all maner of excuse frō them, and to condemne them of ingratitude. Luke.5.15.

45 But when he was departed, *he began to tel many things, and to publish the matter: so that Iesus [s] coulde no more openly enter into the citie, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from euery quarter.

s The preasse was so great that he should haue bene thronged.

CHAP. II.

3 Hee healeth the man of the palsey. 5 Hee forgiueth sinnes. 14 He calleth Leui the customer. 16 He eateth with sinners. 18 He excuseth his disciples, as touching fasting, and keeping the Sabbath day.

Matth.9.1. luke 5.18.

AFter* [a fewe] dayes, he entred into Capernaum agam, & it was noysed that hee was [a] in the house.

a Where he was wont to remaine.

2 And anon many gathered together, in so much that the places about the doore could not receiue any more: and he preached the worde vnto them.

3 And there came vnto him, that brought one sicke of the palsie, borne of foure men.

4 And because they coulde not come neere vnto him for the multitude, they vncouered the roofe of the house where he was: and when they had broken it open, they let downe the bed, wherein the sicke of the palsie lay.

5 Now when Iesus saw their faith, he sayd to the sicke of the palsie, Sonne, thy [b] sinnes are forgiuen thee.

b By these words Christ shewed that he was sent of his Father with authoritie to take away our sinnes. Iob.14.4. isa.43.25.

6 And there were certayne of the Scribes, sitting there, and reasoning in their heartes,

7 Why doeth this man speake such blasphemies: *who can forgiue sinnes, but God onely?

8 And immediately when Iesus perceyued in his spirite, that thus they thought with themselues, hee sayde vnto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 [c] Whether is it easier to say to the sicke of the palsie, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee: or to say, Arise, and take vp thy bed, and walke?

c Christ speaketh according to their capacitie, who were so blind that they would beleeue nothing, but that which they saw with their eyes, and therefore shewed his authoritie ouer the soule by the power which he hath ouer the bodie.

10 And that ye may knowe, that the Sonne of man hath authoritie in earth to forgiue sinnes, (he sayde vnto the sicke of the palsie)

11 I say vnto thee, Arise and take vp thy bed, and get thee hence into thine owne house.

12 And by and by he arose, and tooke vp his bed, and went forth before them all, in so much that they were al amased, and glorified God, saying, [d] Wee neuer saw such a thing.

d Their owne consciences cause them to confesse the trueth.

13 ¶ Then he went againe to warde the sea, and all the people resorted vnto him, and he taught them.

14 *And as Iesus passed by, he saw Leui [the sonne] of Alpheus sitte at the receyte of custome, and sayde vnto him, Followe me. And he arose and followed him.

Matth.9.9. luke 5.27.

15 ¶ And it came to passe, as Iesus sate at table in his house, many Publicanes and sinners sate at table also with Iesus, and his disciples: for there were many that followed him.

16 And when the Scribes and Pharises saw him eate with the Publicanes & sinners, they sayde vnto his disciples, Howe is it, that hee eateth and drinketh with Publicanes and sinners?

17 Nowe when Iesus heard it, hee sayde vnto them, The whole haue no neede of the physition, but the sicke. *I came not to call the [e] righteous, but the sinners to repentance.

1.Tim.1.15.

e He speaketh of such as perswade themselues to be iust, although they be nothing iesse.

18 *And the disciples of Iohn, and the Pharises did fast, and came and said vnto him, Why doe the disciples of Iohn and of the Pharises fast, and thy disciples fast not?

Matth.9.14. luke 5.33.

19 And Iesus said vnto them, Can the [f] children of the mariage chamber fast, whiles the bridegrome is with them? as long as they haue the bridegrome with them, they cannot fast.

f Christ sheweth that he will spare his, and not burden the before it bee necessarie.

20 But the daies will come, when the bridegrome shall be taken from them, & then shall they fast in those dayes.

g The woorde properly signifieth new cloth which as yet hath not passed the handes of the fuller.

21 Also no man soweth a piece of new cloth in an old garment: for elſe the newe [piece] taketh away the filling vp from the olde, and the breach is worſe.

22 Likewiſe, no man putteth newe wine into old veſſels: for elſe the newe wine breaketh the veſſels, and the wine runneth out, and the veſſels are loſt: but newe wine muſt bee put into newe veſſels.

Matth.12.1. luke 6,1.

23 ¶ And it came to paſſe as he went through the corne on the Sabbath day, that his diſciples, as they went on their way, began to plucke the eares of corne.

24 And the Phariſes ſaide vnto him, Beholde, why do they on the Sabbath day, that which is not lawfull?

a 1.Sam.21.6. b He was alſo called Achimeleth, as his father was, ſo that both the father and the ſonne were called by both theſe names, 1.Chro.24.6. 2.Sam.8.17. & 15.29.1. king. 2.26. Exod.29.33. leuit.8.31. & 24.9.

25 And he ſaid to them, Haue ye neuer read what a Dauid did, when he had need, and was an hungred, [both] he, and they that were with him?

26 Howe hee went into the houſe of God, in the dayes of b Abiathar the hie Prieſt, & did eate the ſhewe bread, which were not lawfull to eate, but for the *Prieſtes, and gaue alſo to them which were with him?

c Seeing the Sabbath was made for mans vſe, it was not meete it ſhould be vſed to his hinderance and incommoditie.

27 And he ſaid to them, The Sabbath was c made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

28 Wherefore the Sonne of man is Lord, euen of the Sabbath.

CHAP. III.

1 He healeth the man with the dryed hand. 14 He choſeth his Apoſtles. 21 Chriſt is thought of the worldlings to be beſides himſelfe. 22 He caſteth out the vncleane ſpirit, which the Phariſes aſcribe vnto the deuill. 29 Blaſphemie againſt the holy Ghoſt. 35 The brother, ſiſter and mother of Chriſt.

Mar.12.9,10. luke 6.6.

AND *he entred againe into the Synagogue, and there was a man which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heale him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuſe him.

a They belde their tongues of malice: for they would neither confeſſe nor denie.

3 Then he ſaide vnto the man which had the withered hande, Ariſe: [ſtande forth] in the middes.

4 And he ſayd to them, Is it lawfull to do a good deede on the Sabbath day, or to doe euill? to ſaue the life, or to kill? But they a held their peace.

b Chriſt is in ſuch ſorte angry with man that he pitieth him and ſeeketh to winne him.

5 Then hee looked rounde about on them b angerly, mourning alſo for the hardneſſe of their hearts, & ſaid to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he ſtretched it out: and his hand was reſtored as whole as the other.

c Although they hated one another deadly, yet this hindred them not to ioyne their malice to reſiſt Chriſt, ſeade Mat.22,16,

6 ¶ And the Phariſes departed, and ſtraight way gathered a councill with the c Herodians againſt him, that they might deſtroy him.

7 But Jeſus auoyded with his diſciples to the ſea: and a great multitude followed him from Galile, and from Judea,

8 And from Jeruſalem, and from Idumea, and beyonde Jordan: and they that dwelled about Tyrus and Sidon, when they had heard what great things hee did, came vnto him in great nomber.

9 And hee commanded his diſciples, that a ſhippe ſhould wayte for him, becauſe of the multitude, leaſt they ſhould throng him.

10 For he had healed many, inſomuch that they preaſed vpo him, to touch him as many as had ||plagues.

||Or, ſcourges, meaning diſeaſes.

11 And when the vncleane ſpirits ſaw him, they fell downe before him, & cryed, ſaying, Thou art the Sonne of God.

12 And he ſharpely rebuked them, to the end they ſhould not vtter him.

Chap.6.7. mat.10.1. luke 9.1.

13 ¶ Then he went vp into a mountaine, and called vnto him whome hee would, and they came vnto him.

14 And he appointed twelue that they ſhould be with him, and that hee might ſend them to preach,

15 And that they might haue power to heale ſickneſſes, and to caſt out deuils.

16 And the firſt [was] Simon, and he named Simon, Peter.

||Or, Lebbeus, or Iudas.

17 Then James [the ſonne] of Zebedeus, and John, James brother (and named them Boanerges, which is, the ſonnes of thunder)

||Or, zealous.

18 And Andrewe, and Philip, and Bartlemew, and Matthewe, and Thomas, & James, [the ſonne] of Alpheus, and ||Thaddeus, and Simon the ||Canite,

||Or, they that were about him.

19 And Judas Iſcariot, who alſo betrayed him, and they came d home.

c His kinſfolkes would haue hut him within doores, leaſt any harme ſhould haue come vnto the, if any tumult ſhould haue bene made: for ſome would haue made him a King, and the Phariſes with others ſought his life: ſo that hereby they might haue procured the hatred of Herode, and of the Phariſes and of the Romanes. Mat.9.34. and 12.24. luke 11.15.

d The diſciples were now conuerſant with Chriſt, both at home and abroade.

20 And the multitude aſſembled againe, ſo that they could not ſo much as eat bread.

21 And when his kinſfolkes heard of it, they went out to lay c holde on him: for they thought hee had beene beſide himſelfe.

22 ¶ And the Scribes which came from Jeruſalem, ſaide, He hath Beelzebub, and through the prince of deuils he caſteth out deuils.

23 But he called them vnto him, and ſaide vnto them in parables, Howe can Satan caſte out Satan?

24 For if a kingdome bee deuided againſt gaynſt it ſelfe, that kingdome can not ſtand.

25 Or if a houſe be deuided agaynſt it ſelfe, that houſe cannot continue.

26 So if Satan make inſurrection agaynſt himſelfe, and bee deuided, he can not endure, but is at an ende.

27 No man can enter into a ſtrong mans houſe, and take away his goodes, except he firſt bind that ſtrong man, and then ſpoile his houſe.

Matth.12.31. luke 12.10. 1.ioh.5.16.

28 Verely I ſay vnto you, all ſinnes ſhall be forgiue vnto the children of men, and blaſphemies, wherewith they blaſpheme:

29 But he that [e] blaſpheme th agaynſt the holy Ghoſt, ſhal neuer haue forgiuenes, but is culpable of eternall dānation, e Which is, when a man fighteth againſt his own conſcience, and ſtriueth againſt the truethy which is reuelled vnto him: for ſuch one is in a reprobate ſenſe, & cannot come to repentance.

30 Becauſe they ſaide, He had an vncleane ſpirit.

Matth. 12.46 luke 8.9.

31 Then came his ‖ brethren & mother, and ſtoode without, and ſent vnto him, and called him.

‖ Or, couſins.

32 And the people ſate about him, and they ſaide vnto him, Beholde, thy mother, and thy brethren ſeeke for thee without.

33 But hee anſwered them, ſaying, who is my mother and my brethren?

34 And hee looked rounde about on them, which ſate in cõpaſſe about him, and ſayde, Beholde my mother and my brethren.

35 For whoſoeuer doth the will of God, he is my brother, and my ſiſter, and mother.

CHAP. IIII.

2 By the parables of the ſeede, and the muſtard corne, Chriſt ſheweth the ſtate of the kingdome of God. 11 A ſpeciall gift of God to know the myſteries of his kingdome. 37 He ſtilleth the tempeſt of the ſea which obeyed him.

Matth.13.1. luke 8.4.

AND hee beganne againe to teach by the ſea ſide, & there gathered vnto him a great multitude, ſo that he entred into a ſhippe, and ſate in the ſea, and all the people was by the ſea ſide on the lande.

‖ Or, as hee caught.

2 And he taught them many things in parables, and ſaid vnto them ‖ in [a] his doctrine, a Its called Chriſts doctrine, either for that he was accuſtomed to ſpeake vnto them by ſimilitudes: or els becauſe it had that vertue and maieſtie, that men could not denie but it came from heauen.

3 Hearken: Beholde, there went out a ſower to ſowe.

4 And it came to paſſe as he ſowed, ſome fell by the way ſide, and the foules of the heauen came and deuoured it vp.

5 And ſome fell on ſtonie grounde, where it had not much earth, and by and by ſpāg vp, becauſe it had not depth of earth.

6 But aſſoone as the ſunne was vp, it caught heate, and becauſe it had not roote, it withered away.

7 And ſome fell among the thornes, and the thornes grew vp and choked it, ſo that it gaue no fruite.

8 Some againe fell in good ground, and did yeeld fruite that ſprong vp, and grewe, and it brought forth, ſome thirtie folde, ſome ſixtie folde, and ſome an hundreth folde.

9 Then hee ſaid vnto them, Hee that hath [b] eares to heare, let him heare.

b For God doth not open al mens hearts to vnderſtande his myſteries.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelue, aſked him of the parable.

11 And he ſaid vnto them, To [c] you it is giuen to know the myſterie of ỹ kingdome of God: but vnto thē ỹ are [d] without, all things be done in parables, c Which are led by the ſpirit of God.

d And are not of the number of the faithfull, neither attaine to the pith and ſubſtance, but onely ſtay in the outwarde rinde & bark.

12 *That they ſeeing, may ſee, and not diſcerne: and they hearing, may heare, and not vnderſtande, leaſt at any time they ſhould turne, and their ſinnes ſhould be forgiuen them.

Iſa.6.9. mat. 13.14. luk.8. 10. ioh.12.40 act.28.26. rom.11.8

13 Againe he ſaid vnto them, Perceiue ye not this parable? how then ſhould ye vnderſtand all other parables?

14 The ſower ſoweth the worde.

15 And theſe are they that receiue the ſeede by the wayes ſide, in whome the worde is ſowen: but when they haue heard it, Satan commeth immediatly, and taketh away the worde that was ſowen in their hearts.

16 And likewiſe they that receiue the ſeede in ſtonie grounde, are they, which when they haue heard ỹ word, ſtraight wayes receiue it with gladnes.

17 Yet haue they no roote in themſelues, and endure but a time: for when trouble and perſecution ariſeth for the word, immediatly they be offended.

18 Alſo they that receiue the ſeede among the thornes, are ſuch as heare the worde:

19 But the cares of this worlde, & the *deceitfulnes of riches, and the luſtes of other things enter in, and choke ỹ word, and it is vnfruitfull.

1.Tim.6.17.

20 But they that haue receiued ſeede in good ground, are they that heare the word & receiue it, and bring forth fruite, one corne thirtie, another ſixtie, & ſome an hundreth.

21 Alſo he ſaid vnto them, *Is the candle ‖ lighted to be put vnder a buſhel or vnder the table, and not to be put on a candleſticke?

Mat.5.15. luk.8.16.& 11.33.

c Chriſt ſetteth before their eyes the true patterne of a Chriſtian life.

Mat.10.26. luke 8.17. & 12.2.

22 *f For there is nothing hid, that shal not be opened: neither is there a secrete, but that it shall come to light.

f We may not take occasiō to do euill vnder colour to hide our doings: for all shalbe disclosed at the length.

23 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

Matth.7.2. luke 6,38.

24 And he said vnto them, Take heed what ye heare. *With g what measure ye mete, it shalbe measured vnto you: and vnto you that heare, shal moze be giuen.

g If you doe your endeuour faithfully, ye shalbe recompenced iustly.

Mat.13.12. & 25.29. luk.8 18.& 19.26.

25 *For vnto him that hath, shall it be giuen, and from him that hath not, shall be taken away, h euen that he hath.

h That which he thinketh himselfe to haue.

26 ¶ Also he said, So is the i kingdome of God, as if a man should k cast seede in the ground, i These two similitudes following, proue, that although the kingdome of God seemeth to haue verie little appearance of beginning, yet God doeth increase it aboue mans reason.

27 And should sleepe, & rise vp night and day, and the seede should spring and grow vp, he not knowing how.

k If the ministers do their duetie, God will giue the increase.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her selfe, first the blade, then the eares, after that, full corne in the eares.

29 And assoone as the fruite sheweth it selfe, anon hee putteth in the sickle, because the haruest is come.

Mat.13.31. luke 13.19.

30 ¶ *He said moreouer, Whereunto shall wee liken the Kingdome of God? or With what comparison shall we compare it?

31 [It is like a graine of mustard seed, which when it is sowne in the earth, is the least of all seedes that be in the earth:

32 But after that it is sowne, it groweth vp, and is greatest of all herbs, and beareth great braunches, so that the foules of heauen may builde vnder the shadow of it.

Mat.13.34.

33 And *with many such parables he preached the worde vnto them, as they were able to heare it.

34 And without parables spake hee nothing vnto them: but hee expounded all things to his disciples apart.

Mat.8.23. luke 8.22.

35 ¶ *Now the same day when euen was come, hee sayde vnto them, Let vs passe ouer vnto the other side.

l And set forward.

36 And they left the multitude, & tooke him as he was in the shippe: and there were also with him other ships.

37 And there arose a great storme of wind, & the waues dashed into the ship, so that it was now full.

m Christ teacheth vs oftentimes to our selues, both as well that we may learne to know our owne weaknes, as his mighty power.

38 And he was in the sterne m a sleepe on a pillowe: and they awoke him, and sayd to him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And hee rose vp, and rebuked the winde, and sayd vnto the sea, Peace, and be still. So the winde ceased, and it was a great calme.

40 Then hee saide vnto them, Why are ye so fearefull? ‖ howe is it that yee haue no faith?

‖ Or, haue you not yet faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who is this, ? both the winde and the sea obey him?

CHAP. V.

1 Jesus casteth the deuils out of the man, and suffereth them to enter into the swine. 25 He healeth a woman from the bloodie issue. 41 And raiseth the captaines daughter.

Mat.8,28, luk.8,26.

AND * they came ouer to the other side of the sea into the countrey of the Gadarens.

2 And when he was come out of ship, there met him incontinently out of the graues, a man which had an vncleane spirite:

3 Who had his abiding among the graues, and no man could binde him, no not with chaines,

4 Because that when hee was often bounde with fetters & chaines, hee pluked the chaines asunder, and brake the fetters in pieces, neither could any man tame him.

5 And alwayes both night and day he cried in the mountains, & in graues, and strooke himselfe with stones.

6 And When he sawe Jesus afarre off, he ran, and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loude voyce, and said, a What haue I to do with thee, Jesus, the Sonne of the most high God? ‖ I charge thee by b God, that thou torment me not.

a The deuil is constrained to confesse Jesus Christ, and yet craftely not to resist him.

‖ Or, adiure thee to sweare by God.

8 (For he said vnto him, Come out of the man, thou vncleane spirite.)

b He abuseth the name of God, to maintein e his tyrannie.

9 And hee asked him, What is thy name? and hee answered, saying, My name is c Legion: for we are many.

c A Legion contained aboue 6000. in number, reade Mat.26.53.

10 And he prayed him instantly, that he would not sende them away out of the countrey.

11 Now there was there in the mountaines a great heard of swine, feeding.

12 And all the deuils besought him, saying, Send vs into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And incontinently Jesus gaue them leaue. Then the vncleane spirites went out, and entred into the swine, and the herde ‖ ranne headlong from the high banke into sea, (and there were about two thousand swine) and they were drowned in the ‖ sea.

‖ Or, ran with violēce headlong.

‖ Or, in the lake

14 And the swineherdes fled, and tolde it in the citie, and in the countrey, and they came out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Jesus, and sawe him him that had byn possessed with ỹ deuil, and had the legion, sit both clothed, and in his right minde: & they were afraid.

16 And they that sawe it, tolde them, what was done to him that was possessed with the deuill, and concerning the swine.

d Marke howe loue of riches and worldly respects hinder men to receiue Christ.

17 Thē d they began to pray him, that he would e depart from their coastes.

e The worldlings more esteeme their swine, then they do Iesus Christ.

18 And whē he was come into ỹ ship, he that had bene possessed with ỹ deuill, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Iesus Woulde not sufferhim, but sayde vnto him, Goe thy way home to thy friendes, and f shewe them what great things the Lord hath done vnto thee, and [howe] he hath had compassion on thee.

f We must declare vnto others the benefites which God hath wrought towardes vs, that thereby they may giue him prayse and glory.

20 So he departed, and began to publish in ‖ Decapolis, what great thinges Iesus had done vnto him: and all men did marueile.

‖ Or, in the countrey of the ten cities.

21 ¶ And when Iesus was come ouer againe by ship vnto the other side, a great multitude gathered to him, and he was neere vnto the sea.

Mat.9.18.luk. 8.41.

22 *And beholde, there came one of the rulers of the Synagogue, whose name was Iairus: and when hee sawe him, he fell downe at his feete, 23 And besought him instantly, saying, My litle daughter lieth at poynt of death: I pray thee [that thou wouldest] come and laye thine handes on her, that she may be healed, and liue.

24 Then hee went with him, and a great multitude followed him, & thronged him.

25 (And there was a certaine womā, which was diseased wt an issue of blood twelue yeeres, 26 And had suffred many thinges of many physicions, and had spent all that shee had, and it auailed her nothing, but she became much worse.

27 when she had heard of Iesus, she came in the preasle behind, and g touched his garment.

g Her fayth brought her to Christ, and moued her to approach neere vnto him, and not a superstitious opinion, to attribute any vertue to his garment.

28 For she saide, If I may but touch his clothes, I shalbe whole.

29 And straightway ‖ ỹ course of her blood was dried vp, & she ‖ felt in her body, that she was healed of that ‖ plague.

‖ Or, fountaine. ‖ Or, knewe. ‖ Or, scourge.

30 And immediatly when Iesus ỹd knowe in himselfe the vertue that went out of him, he turned him rounde about in the preasle, and sayde, who hath touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples sayde vnto him, Thou seest the multitude thronge thee, and sayest thou, who did touch me?

32 And he looked round about, to see her that had done that.

33 And the woman feared and trembled: for she knewe what was done in her, and she came and fell downe before him, and tolde him the whole trueth.

34 And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole: goe in peace, and be whole of thy ‖ plague.

‖ Or, scourge.

35 While hee yet spake, there came from the [same] ruler of the Synagogues house [certaine] which sayde, Thy daughter is dead: Why diseasest thou the Master any further?

36 Assone as Iesus heard that word spoken, he said vnto the ruler of the Synagogue, Be not afraide: onely beleeue.

37 And he suffred no man to followe him, saue Peter and Iames, and Iohn the brother of Iames.

38 So he came vnto the house of the ruler of the Synagogue, and sawe the tumult, and them that wept and wayled greatly.

39 And he went in, and said vnto thē, why make ye this trouble, and weepe? the childe is not h dead, but sleepeth.

h He meaue, he was not dead to remaine so, because he shuld incontinently be restored again to life.

40 And they i laught him to scorne: but he put them all out, and tooke the father, and the mother of the childe, and k them that were with him, and entred in where the childe lay,

i For they had no hope to see her liue again.

41 And tooke the childe by the hand, and said vnto her, Talitha cumi, which is by interpretation, Maiden, I say vnto thee, arise.

k That is, his three disciples.

42 And straight way the maiden arose, and walked: for she was of the age of twelue yeeres: and they were astonied out of measure.

43 And he charged them straightly that no man shoulde knowe of it, and commanded to giue her meate.

CHAP. VI.

4 Howe Christ and his are receiued in their owne country. 7 The Apostles commission. 15 Sundrie opinions of Christ. 25 Iohn is put to death, and buried. 32 Christ giueth rest to his disciples. 38 The fiue loaues and two fishes. 48 Christ walketh on ỹ water. 55 He healeth many.

AFterwarde * hee departed thence, & came into his owne countrey, and his disciples followed him.

Mat.13.54. luke 4.16.

2 And when ỹ Sabbath was come, he began to teach in the Synagogue, & many that heard him, were astonied, and saide, l From whence hath he these things? & what wisedome is this that l Christ is neglected of his owne friendes, and kinsfolks.

‖Or, miracles.

‖Or, cousin.

b That which ought to moue them to come to Christ, constreyneth them to go backe from him, which cõmeth of their owne wickednes, Mat. 13.57. luk. 4.24. ioh. 4.44.

c That is, he would not.

d Lacke of faith maketh vs vnable to receiue Gods benefites, Mat. 4.23. luk. 13.22. Mar. 10.1. chap 3.14. luk. 9.1.

e Christ onely foyleth the deuil, to carie any thing, which might be burdenous, or hinder their message.

‖Or, purses.

Act. 12.8.

f Which were a kinde of light shoes tyed to the feete with strings.

g He forbiddeth curiositie in changing their lodgings in this their speedie message. Matth. 10.14. luk. 9.5.

h In token of execration, and of the horrible vengeance of God which shall light vpon them. Act. 13.51. and 18.6. Iam. 5.14.

i The oyle was a signe of this miraculous working, and not a medicine to heale diseases: so that the gift of miracles ceasing, the ceremonie is to no vse. Matth. 14.1. luk. 9.7.

k Speaking of old Prophets. Luke 3.19.

l They had the this common errour, ỹ they thought the soules being departed out of one body went straight into another. Leuit. 18.16. and 20.21.

is giuen vnto him, that euen such ‖great workes are done by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter Maries sonne, the ‖brother of Iames & Ioses, and of Iuda and Simon? and are not his sisters here with vs? And they were [b] offended in him.

4 Then Iesus sayde vnto them, A *Prophet is not without honour, but in his owne countrey, & among his owne kindred, and in his owne house.

5 And he couldenot there [c] doe no great workes, saue that he laide his hands vpon a fewe sicke folke, and healed [them.]

6 And he marueiled at their vnbelief, *and went about by ỹ townes on euery side, teaching.

7 ¶ *And hee called the twelue, & began to sende thẽ two and two, and gaue them power ouer vncleane spirits,

8 And commanded them, that they should take nothing for [their] iourney, saue a staffe onely: neither [e] scrip, neither bread, neither money in their ‖girdles,

9 But that they should be shod with *[f] sandales, and that they should not put on two coates.

10 And he said vnto them, Wheresoeuer yee shall enter into an house, there abide till ye depart [g] thence.

11 *And whosoeuer shall not receiue you, nor heare you, whẽ ye depart thẽce, [h] *shake off the dust that is vnder your feete, for a witnes vnto them. Verely I say vnto you, It shall bee easier for Sodom, or Gomorrha at the day of iudgement, then for that citie.

12 ¶ And they went out, & preached, that [men] should amend their liues.

13 And they cast out many deuils: and they *anoynted many that were sicke, with [i] oyle and healed [them.]

14 ¶ *Then King Herode heard [of him] (for his name was spread abroad) and sayde, Iohn Baptist is risen againe from the dead, & therefore great workes are wrought by him.

15 Other said, It is Elias: & some said, It is a prophet, or as one [k] of ỹ prophets.

16 *So whẽ Herode heard it, he said, It is Iohn whome I beheaded: hee is [l] risen from the dead.

17 For Herode himselfe had sent forth, and had taken Iohn, and bound him in prison for Herodias sake, which was his brother Philips wife, because hee had maried her.

18 For Iohn saide vnto Herode, *It is not [m] lawfull for thee to haue thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarell against him, and would haue killed him, but she could not:

20 For Herode feared Iohn, knowing that he [was] a iust man, and an holy, and reuerenced him, and when hee heard him, he did many thinges, and [n] heard him gladly.

21 But the time being conuenient, when Herode on his birth day made a banket to his princes and captaines, and chiefe estates of Galile:

22 And the daughter of the same Herodias came in and [o] daunced, and pleased Herode and them that sate at table together, the King sayd vnto the maid, Aske of me what thou wilt, and I will giue it thee.

23 And he sware vnto her, Whatsoeuer ỹ shalt aske of me, I will giue it thee, [euen] vnto the halfe of my kingdome.

24 *So she went forth, and saide to her mother, What shall I aske? And she said, Iohn Baptists head.

25 Then she came in straight way with haste vnto the King, and asked, saying, I would that thou shouldest giue me euen now in a charger the head of Iohn Baptist.

26 Then the King was verie sorie: [yet] for his othes sake, & for their sakes which sate at table with him, he would not refuse her.

27 And immediately the King sent the hangman, and gaue charge that his head should be brought. So he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gaue it to the [p] maide, and the maide gaue it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard it, they came and tooke vp his ‖bodie, and put it in a tombe.

30 ¶ *And the Apostles gathered them selues together to Iesus, & [q] told him all thinges, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he sayde vnto them, Come ye aparte into the wildernesse, [r] and rest a while: for there were many commers & goers, that they had not leasure to eate.

32 *So they went by ship out of the way into a desert place.

33 But ỹ people saw them when they departed, and many knewe him, & ran afoot thither out of all cities, & came thither before them, & assembled vnto him.

m The liberty that Iohn feared to reproue vice without exception of person, declareth howe the true ministers ought to behaue themselues.

n Such is the nature of Gods worde, that it compelleth the very tyrants to reuerence it: as no doubt the King had some good motions, but the feede fell in thorie places, and so tooke no roote.

o What inconuenience commeth by wanton dancing. Mar. 14.8.

p Iosephus calleth her name Salome, ỹ daughter of Philip, & Herodias.

‖Or, caskets. Luke 9.10.

q The Apostles render account of their message, which is to declare their diligence and obedience.

r Christ beareth with the infirmitie of his seruants, and hyngreth them to quietnesse, that he may instruct them, & make them strong against troubles. Mat. 14.13. luke 9.10.

34 *Then

Mat. 9.36, and 14.14.

34 *Then Iesus went out, and saw a great multitude, and had compassion on them, because they were like [f] sheepe which had no shepheard: & he began to teache them many things.

[f] This declareth that there is an horrible disorder amog that people, where the true preaching of Gods worde wanteth.

35 *And when [g] day was now farre spent, his disciples came vnto him, saying, This is a desert place, and now the day is farre passed.

Luk. 9.11. Mat. 14.15.

36 Let them departe, that they may go into the villages and townes about, and bie them bread: for they haue nothing to eate.

37 But he answered, and saide vnto them, Giue ye them to eate. And they said vnto him, Shall wee goe and bye [z] two hundreth peny worth of bread, and giue them to eate?

[z] Which is about fiue pound sterling. Mat. 14.17. luk. 9.13. ioh. 6.9.

38 *Then hee said vnto them, Howe many loaues haue yee? goe and looke. And when they knewe it, they said, Fiue, and two fishes.

39 So he commanded them, to make them all sit downe by [h] companies vpon the greene grasse.

[h] Or, by tables: for in euery rake were as many as a table could holde.

40 Then they sate downe by [i] rowes, by hundreths, and by fifties.

[i] The Greeke woyde signifieth furth beds as are made in a garden, so that the company, which were there set, might seeme as rowes, or bayders of beds in a garden.

41 And he tooke the fiue loaues, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and gaue thākes, and brake the loaues, and gaue them to his disciples to set before them, and the two fishes he deuided among them all.

42 So they did al eat, & were satisfied.

43 And they tooke vp twelue baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that had eaten, were about fiue thousand men.

45 ¶ And straight way he caused his disciples to go into the ship, and to go before vnto the other side vnto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 Then assoone as hee had sent them away, hee departed into a mountaine to pray.

Mat. 14.23. ioh. 6.15.

47 *And when euen was come, the ship was in the middes of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And hee sawe them troubled in rowing, (for the winde was contrarie vnto them) and about the fourth [x] watch of the night, hee came vnto them, walking vpon the sea, and would haue passed by them.

[x] Which was about two or three houres before day.

49 And whē they saw him walking vpon the sea, they supposed it had bene a spirite, and cried out.

50 For they all sawe him, and were sore afraide: but anone hee talked with them, and said vnto them, Be [y] of good comfort: it is I, be not afraide.

[y] Christ asswageth his & maketh the bolde, both by his worde, & mightie power.

51 Then he went vp vnto them into the ship, and the winde ceased, and they were sore amased in themselues beyond measure, and marueiled.

52 [z] For they had not considered [the matter] of the loaues, because their hearts were hardened.

[z] They had forgot the miracle which was wrought with the fiue loaues. Mat. 14.34.

53 ¶ *And they came ouer, & went into the land of Gennesaret, and arriued.

54 So when they were come out of the ship, straight way they knewe him, 55 And ran about throughout al that region round about, & [k] began to carie hither & thither in beddes all that were sicke, where they heard that he was.

[k] Or, markets.

56 And whither soeuer he entred into townes, or cities, or villages, they laid their sicke in the [l] streetes, & prayed him that they might touche at the least the [a] edge of his garment. And as many as touched him, were made whole.

[l] Not for any such vertue that was in his garment, but for the confidence which they had in him.

CHAP. VII.

2 The disciples eate with vnwashen handes. 8 The commandement of God is transgressed by mans traditions. 21 What defileth man. 24 Of the woman of Syrophenitia. 32 The healing of the domme. 37 The people prayse Christ.

Then *gathered vnto him the Pharises, and certaine of the Scribes which came from Ierusalem. Mat. 15.1.

2 And when they sawe some of his disciples eate meate with [l] common [a] handes, (that is to say vnwashen) they complained.

[l] Or, filthie

[a] The pharises would not eate with vnwashen handes, because they thought that the common handling of things defiled them, so that they made holines and religiō to depende in handes washings.

3 (For the Pharises, and all the Iewes, except they wash their handes [b] oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the Elders.

[b] Or, contentiously, striuing to wash best.

4 And [when they come] from the market, except they wash, they eate not: and many other things there be, which they haue taken vpon them to obserue, [as] the washing of cups, and [c] pottes, & of brasen vessels, and of tables.)

[c] Litle pots, somwhat more in quantitie then a wine pinte.

5 Then asked him the Pharises and Scribes, Why walke not thy disciples according to the tradition of the Elders, but eate [l] meate with vnwashen handes?

[l] Or, breade.

6 Then hee answered and said vnto them, Surely * Esai hath prophesied well of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their [d] lippes, but their heart is farre awaye from me. Isa. 29.13.

[d] With an outward shew.

7 But they worship me in vaine, teaching [for] doctrines the [e] commandements of men.

[e] Whosoeuer teacheth any doctrine but Gods word, is a false worshipper, and a seducer of the people, seeme his doctrine neuer so probable to the iudgement of man.

8 For yee lay the commandement of of God apart, and obserue the tradition of men, [as] the washing of pottes and of cuppes, & many other such like things ye doe.

9 And he saide vnto them, well, ye reiect the commandement of God, that ye may obserue your owne tradition.

Exod.20.12. deut.5.16. ephes.6.2. Exod.21.17. leuit.20.9. prou.20.20.

10 For Moses said, *Honour thy father, and thy mother: and, *whosoeuer shall curse father or mother, let him [c] die the death.

[c] That is without any hope of pardon.

11 But ye say, If a man say to father or mother, Corban, [that is,] By the gift that is offered by me, thou maiest haue profite, [he shall be free.]

12 So ye suffer him no more to do any thing for his father, or his mother, 13 Making the worde of God of none authoritie, by your tradition which yee haue ordeined: and yee doe many such like things.

Mat.15.10.

14 *Then he called the whole multitude vnto him, & said vnto them, Harken ye all vnto me, and vnderstand.

[a] There is nothing without a man, that can defile him, when it entreth into him: but the things which proceede out of him, are they which defile the man.

15 There is nothing without a man, that can defile him, when it entreth into him: but the things which proceede out of him, are they which defile the man.

16 If any haue eares to heare, let him heare.

17 And when he came into an house [away] from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he said vnto them, What, are ye without vnderstanding also? Doe ye not knowe that whatsoeuer thing from without entreth into a man, cannot defile him, 19 Because it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught which is the purging of all meates?

20 Then he said, That which commeth out of man, that defileth man.

Gen.6.5, & 8.21.

21 *For from within, [euen] out of the heart of men, proceede euill thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murthers, 22 Theftes, couetousnes, wickednes, deceit, [a] vncleannes, [b] a wicked eye, backbiting, pride, foolishnes.

[a] Or, wantonnes. [b] Or, enuie.

23 All these euill things come from within, and defile a man.

Mat.15.21.

24 *And from thence he rose, and went into the borders of Tyrus & Sidon, and entred into an house, & would that no man should haue knowen: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certaine woman, whose litle daughter had an vncleane spirit, heard of him, and came, and fell at his feete.

26 (And the woman was a Greeke, a Syrophenitian by nation) and she besought him that he would cast out the deuill out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said vnto her, Let the [b] children first be fedde: for it is not good to take the childrens bread, and to cast it vnto [c] whelpes.

[b] Meaning the Iewes, to whom the promises were first made.

[c] The Iewes tooke strangers no better then the dogs, and therfore Christ speaketh according to their opinion.

28 Then she answered, and said vnto him, Trueth, Lord: yet in deede the whelpes eate vnder the table of the childrens [k] crommes.

[k] She alleth but the poore crommes, and not the childrens bread, wherein he declareth her faith and humilitie.

29 Then hee said vnto her, For this saying go thy way: the deuill is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come home to her house, she found the deuill departed, and her daughter lying on the bed.

31 ¶ And hee departed againe from the coastes of Tyrus and Sidon, and came vnto the sea of Galile, through the middes of the coastes of Decapolis.

32 And they brought vnto him one that was deafe, & stabred in his speache, & prayed him to put his hand vpon him.

33 Then he tooke him aside from the multitude, & put his fingers in his eares, and did spit, and touched his tongue.

34 And looking vp to heauen, hee [l] sighed, and said vnto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

[l] Declaring by this signe the compassio that he bath vpon mans miseries.

35 And straight way his eares were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plaine.

36 And hee commanded them, that they should tell no man: but how much soeuer he forbade them, the more a great deale they published it,

Gen.1.31. ecclus.39.16.

37 And were beyond measure astonied, saying, *[m] He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deafe to heare, and the dumme to speake.

[m] As if they would say, besides al the miracles that he hath done, euen this now declareth that whatsoeuer he doth, is very well.

CHAP. VIII.

2 The miracle of the seuen loaues. 11 The Phariſes aſke a ſigne. 15 The leauen of the Phariſes. 22 The blinde receiueth his ſight. 29 He was knowen of his diſciples. 33 He reproueth Peter. 34 And sheweth how neceſſarie perſecution is.

IN *those daies, when there was a very great multitude, and had nothing to eate, Jesus called his disciples to him, and said vnto them,

Mat.15.32.

2 I haue [a] compassion on the multitude, because they haue now be continued with me three dayes, and haue nothing to eate.

[a] Christ prouideth for his when they seeme to be destitute and forsaken.

3 And if I send them away fasting to their owne houses, they would faint by the way: for some of thē came frō farre.

4 Then

4 Then his diſciples anſwered him, ‖Howe can a man ſatiſfie theſe [b] with bread here in the wildernes?

‖Or, whence.

5 And hee aſked them, Howe many loaues haue ye? And they ſaid, Seuen.

b If bread were ſo hard to come by, it ſeemed impoſſible to obtaine other meate.

6 Then he cõmanded the multitude to ſit downe on the ground: and he tooke the ſeuen loaues, and gaue thankes, brake [them,] and gaue to his diſciples to ſet before [them,] and they did ſet [them] before the people.

7 They had alſo a fewe ſmall fiſhes: and when he had giuen thankes, he cõmanded them alſo to be ſet before [thẽ.]

8 So they did eate, & were ſufficed, and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was left, ſeuen baskets full,

9 (And they that had eaten, were about foure thouſãd) ſo he ſent thẽ away.

Mat. 15. 39.

c Which was neere to Bethſaida, betweene the lake of Genezaret and mouſt Thabor, Mat. 16. 1.

10 ¶ And anon he entred into a ſhip with his diſciples, and came into ẏ parts of [c] Dalmanutha.

11 And the Phariſes came forth, and began to diſpute with him, ſeeking of him a ſigne from heauen, and tempting him.

12 Then hee [d] ſighed deepely in his ſpirite, and ſaid, Why doeth this [e] generation ſeeke a ſigne? Verely I ſay vnto you, [f] a ſigne ſhal not be giuen vnto this generation.

d Oh the incõprehenſible loue of our Chriſt! how long ſhall we abuſe his great mercies?

e Chriſt goeth about by Pharyſees of ſpeach to ſaue them frõ wilful deſtruction.

‖Or, if a ſigne be giuen.

f As if he would ſay, If I ſhewe them any ſigne let me be a liar and deceiuer. Mat. 16. 5.

13 ¶ So he left them, & went into the ſhip againe, & departed to the other ſide.

14 ¶ And they had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ſhip with them, but one loafe.

15 And he charged thẽ, ſaying, Take heed, & beware of the [g] leaué of the Phariſes, and of the leauen of Herode.

g He willeth them to beware contagious doctrine, and ſuch ſubtile practiſes as the aduerſaries vſed to ſuppreſſe his Goſpel.

16 And they thought among themſelues, ſaying, [It is,] becauſe we haue no bread.

17 And when Jeſus knew it, he ſaid vnto thẽ, Why reaſon you [thus] becauſe ye haue no bread? perceiue ye not yet, neither vnderſtande? haue ye your hearts yet hardened?

John. 6. 11.

h Chriſt reproueth them becauſe their mindes are as yet vpon the materiall leauen, notwithſtanding they had proued by diuers miracles ẏ he gaue them their daily bread.

18 Haue ye eyes and and ſee not? and haue ye eares and heare not? and doe ye not remember?

19 *when I brake the fiue loaues among fiue thouſand, howe many baskets full of broken meate tooke ye vp? they ſaid vnto him, Twelue.

20 And when [I brake] ſeuen among foure thouſand, howe many baskets of the leauings of broken meate tooke yee vp? and they ſaide, Seuen.

21 Then he ſaide vnto them, [h] Howe [is it] that ye vnderſtand not?

22 ¶ And he came to Bethſaida, & they brought a blind man vnto him, and deſired him to touch him.

23 Then hee tooke the blinde by the hand, and led him out of the towne, and ſpit in his eyes, and put his hands vpon him, and aſked him, if he ſawe ought.

24 And he looked vp, and ſaide, I ſee men: for I ſee them walking like trees.

25 After that, he put his hãds againe vpõ his eyes, & made him looke againe. And he was reſtored to his ſight, & ſawe euery man afarre off clerely.

26 And he ſent him home to his houſe, ſaying, Neither goe into the towne, nor tell it to any in the towne.

27 ¶ And Jeſus went out, and his diſciples into ẏ townes of Ceſarea Philippi. And by the way he aſked his diſciples, ſaying vnto them, Whome do men ſay that I am?

Mat. 16. 13. luk. 9. 18.

28 And they anſwered, [Some ſay,] John Baptiſt: and ſome, Elias: & ſome, one of the Prophets.

29 And he ſaid vnto thẽ, But whom ſay ye that I am? Thẽ Peter anſwered and ſaid vnto him, thou art the [i] Chriſt.

i He that is the anointed of God and fulfilled with all grace for mans ſaluation.

30 And he charpely [k] charged thẽ that concerning him they ſhould tel no man.

k Deferring it to a more cõmodious time, leſte ſodeine haſte ſhould rather hinder the further the myſterie of his cõming.

31 Then he began to teach them that the Sonne of man muſt ſuffer many things, and ſhould bee reiected of ẏ Elders, and of the hie Preſtes, and of the Scribes, and be ſlaine, and within three dayes riſe againe.

32 And he ſpake that thing plainely. Then Peter tooke him aſide, and began to rebuke him.

33 Then he turned backe, and looked on his diſciples, and rebuked Peter, ſaying, Get thee behind me, Satã: for thou vnderſtandeſt not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.

l This worde ſignifieth, aduerſarie, or enemie: and he calleth him ſo becauſe he did as much as in him lay, to pull him from obeying God. Mat. 10. 38. & 16. 24. luk. 9. 23. & 14. 27. Mat. 10. 39. & 16. 25. luk. 9. 24. & 17. 33. iohn 12. 25.

34 ¶ And hee called the people vnto him with his diſciples, and ſaide vnto them, *whoſoeuer will followe mee, let him forſake himſelfe, and take vp his croſſe, and followe me.

m For mortalitie & corruption, he ſhall receiue immortalitie and perfection. Mat. 10. 33. luk. 9. 26. & 12. 9.

35 For whoſoeuer will *ſaue his life, ſhall loſe it: but whoſoeuer ſhal loſe his life for my ſake and the Goſpels, he ſhall [m] ſaue it.

36 For what ſhall it profite a man, though he ſhould winne ẏ whole world, if he loſe his ſoule?

37 Or what ſhall a man giue for recompence of his ſoule?

38 *For whoſoeuer ſhalbe aſhamed of me, me, and of my wordes among this adulterous and sinfull generatiō, of him shal the Sonne of mā be ashamed also, whē he commeth in the glorie of his Father with the holy Angels.

CHAP. IX.

1 The transfiguration. 7 Christ is to be heard. 26 The dom spirit is cast out. 29 The force of prayer and fasting. 31 Of the death and resurrection of Christ. 33 The disputation who should be the greatest. 38 Not to hinder the course of the Gospel. 42 Offences are forbidden.

Matth. 16.28. luk.9.27.

AND he said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, þ there be some of them that stande here, which shal not taste of death, till they haue seene þ a The preaching of the Gospel receiued and increased: he spake this to comfort them, and that they should not thinke they had wrought in vaine. Matt. 7.1. luk.9.28.

1 kingdome of God come with power.

2 *And sixe dayes after, Jesus tooke Peter, & James, and John, & brought them vp into an hie mountaine out of the way alone, and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment did b shine, [and was] verie white, as snowe, so white as no fuller can make vpon the earth.

b Christ sheweth his maiestie to some as their infirmitie was able to comprehend it.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.

5 Then Peter answered, and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for vs to bee here: let vs make also three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

c Peter measured this vision according to his owne capacitie, not considering the end thereof. Mat.3.17. & 17.5. luk.3.22. chap.1.11.

6 c For he knewe not what he saide: for they were afraide.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them, & a voyce came out of the cloude, saying, * This is my beloued Sonne: d heare him.

d Christ onely must be the chiefe teacher & instructour of all them, which professe themselues to be his members, seeing þ God the Father giueth him this authoritie, and commandeth vs this obedience. Matt.17.9. Malach.4.5.

8 And suddenly they looked round about, and sawe no more any man saue Jesus onely with them.

9 *And as they came downe from the mountaine, he charged them, that they should tell no man what they had seene, saue whē the Sonne of man were risen from the dead againe.

10 So they kept that matter to themselues, and demaunded one of another, what the rising from the dead againe should meane.

11 Also they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, that * Elias e must first come?

e Their false opinion was that either Elias should rise againe from þ dead, or that his soule should enter into some other bodie. Mal.5.5.4. f That is, John Baptist.

12 And hee answered, and saide vnto them, Elias verely shall first come and restore all things: and * as it is written of the Sonne of man, he must suffer many things, and be set at naught.

13 But I say vnto you, that f Elias is come, (and they haue done vnto him whatsoeuer they would) as it is written of him.

14 ¶ *And when he came to [his] g disciples, he sawe a great multitude about them, & the Scribes disputing with thē.

Mat.17.14. luk.9.37.38.

g To the nine, which he left þ day before.

15 And straight way all the people, when they beheld him, were amased, & ran to him, and saluted him.

16 Then he asked the Scribes, what dispute you [among your selues?]

[Or, against them.

17 And one of the cōpanie answered, and said, Master, I haue brought my sonne vnto thee, which hath a dom spirit:

18 And wheresoeuer he taketh him, he h teareth him, and he foameth, & gnasheth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they shoulde cast him out, and they could not.

h When the spirit cōmeth vpon him, he teareth him with inward sorowe and pangs, as in a colike a man feeleth such griefe, as if his bowels were rent asunder.

19 Then he answered him, and said, i O faithles generation, how long nowe shall I be with you! how lōg now shall I suffer you! Bring him vnto me.

i It seemeth that this man deserued not so sharpe an answere: but Christ spake verily in his person to the Pharisies, which were stubborne and desperate 20 So they brought him vnto him: and assoone as þ spirit saw him, he tare him, and he fell downe on the grounde, wallowing and fōming.

21 Then he asked his father, howe long time is it since he hath bene thus? And he said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times he casteth him into the fire, & into the water to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Jesus said vnto him, If k thou canst beleeue it, al things are l possible to him that beleeueth.

k The Lord is euer readie to helpe vs, so that we put him not backe through our incredulitie.

l All things that are agreeable to the will of God, shalbe graunted to him that beleeueth: for faith seeketh nothing, that is contrary to his will, or that is not reuealed in his worde.

24 And straight way the father of þ childe cryed with teares, said, Lord, I beleeue: helpe my m vnbeliefe.

m That is, the feeblenes, and imperfection of my faith.

25 When Jesus sawe that the people came running together, he rebuked the vncleane spirit, saying vnto him, Thou dōme & deafe spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

n Meaning, the childe.

26 Then [the spirit] cryed, & rent him sore, & came out, & n he was as one dead, in so much that many said, he is dead.

27 But Jesus tooke his hande, and lift him vp, and he rose.

28 And when hee was come into the house, his disciples asked him secretly, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said vnto them, This kind can by no other meanes come forth, but by o prayer and fasting.

o Meaning, that prayer which is surely grounded vpō faith, and hath fasting ioyned vnto it as a profitable aide. Matt.17.22. luk.9.22.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and went through Galile, and he would not that any should haue knowen it.

31 For

31 For he taught his disciples, & sayd vnto them, The Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the handes of men, & they shall kill him, but after that he is killed, he shall rise againe the third day.

32 But p they vnderstoode not that saying, and were afraied to aske him.

p Because they imagined that Christ should reigne temporally, this matter of his death was so straunge, that they could perceiue nothing. Mat.18.1. luk. 9.46.

33 * After he came to Capernaum: and when he was in the house, he asked the, what was it that yee disputed among you by the way?

34 And they helde their peace: for by the way they reasoned among themselues, who [should be] the chiefest.

35 And he sate downe, and called the twelue, and saide to them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and seruant vnto all.

36 And he tooke a litle childe, & set him in the middes of them, and tooke him in his armes, and said vnto them, 37 Whosoeuer shal receiue one of such litle children in my name, receiueth me: and whosoeuer receiueth me, receiueth not q me, but him that sent me.

q To wit, onely as man, but as him in whis all perfection and fulnesse of all graces & benefites. Luke 9.49. 1.Cor.12.3.

38 ℂ * Then Iohn answered him, saying, Master, We sawe one casting out deuils by thy Name, which followeth not vs, and we forbade him, because hee followeth vs not.

39 * But Iesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man that can doe a ‖miracle by my Name, that can lightly speake euill of me.

‖Or, any great worke.

40 For whosoeuer is not r against vs, is on our part.

r Although he shewe not himselfe to be mine, yet in that he beareth reuerence to my Name, it is ynough for vs. Matth. 10.42. Matth.18.6. luke.17.1,2.

41 * And whosoeuer shal giue you a cup of water to drinke for my Names sake, because ye belong to Christ, verely I say vnto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 * And whosoeuer shall offend one of these litle ones, that beleeue in mee, it were better for him rather, p a millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were cast into the sea.

Matth.5.30. and 18.8.

43 * Wherefore if thine s hande cause thee to offende, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life, maimed, then hauing two hands, to go into hell, into the fire that neuer shalbe quenched, s It is a maner of speach, which signifieth, that we should cut off all thinges, which hinder vs to serue Christ. Iiai, 66,24.

44 * Where their t worme dyeth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

t These similitudes declare the paynes, & eternall torments of the damned.

45 Likewise, if thy foote cause thee to offende, cut it off: it is better for thee to goe halt into life, then hauing two feete to be cast into hel, into the fire that neuer shalbe quenched,

46 Where their worme dieth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

47 And if thine eye cause thee to offende, plucke it out: it is better for thee to goe into the kingdome of God with one eye, then hauing two eies, to be cast into hell fire, 48 Where their Worme dyeth not, & the fire neuer goeth out.

49 For euery man shall bee u salted with fire: and * euery sacrifice shalbe salted with salt.

u He teacheth that it is better to be sacrificed to God by salt and fire, that is, to be purged and sanctified, then to be sent into hell fire. Leuit. 2.13. Matth.5.13. luke 14.34.

50 * Salt is good: but if the x salt bee vnsauerie, wherewith shall it bee seasoned? Haue salt in your selues, and haue peace one with another.

x They which destroy ỹ grace that they haue receiued of God, are as salt, which hath lost his sauour, and are worse then infidels.

CHAP. X.

2 Of diuorcement. 17 The rich man questioneth with Christ. 30 Their reward that are persecuted. 35 Of the sonnes of Zebedeus. 46 Bartimeus hath his eyes opened.

AND * he arose from thence, & went into the coastes of Iudea by the farre side of Iordan, and the people resorted vnto him againe, and as hee was wont, he taught them againe. Matth.19.1.

2 Then the Pharises came and asked him, if it were lawfull for a man to put away [his] wife, and tempted him.

3 And he answered, and said vnto the, what did * Moses command you? Deut.24.1.

4 And they sayde, Moses suffered to write a bil of diuorcement, and to put her away.

5 Then Iesus answered and said vnto them, For the hardnes of your heart he wrote this precept vnto you.

6 But at the y beginning of the creation, * God made the male and female. a The true way to amende abuses, is to returne to the institution of things, and to trie them by Gods worde. Gene.1.27. matth.19.4. Gene.2.24.

7 * For this cause shall man leaue his father and mother, and cleaue vnto his wife.

8 And they twaine shalbe one ‖flesh: so that they are no more twaine, but one flesh. 1.cor.6.16. ephes.5.31. ‖Or person.

9 * Therefore, what God hath coupled together, let no man separate. 1.Cor.7.10.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him againe of that matter.

11 And he sayde vnto them, * whosoeuer shall put away his wife and marry another, b committeth adulterie against her. Matth.5.32. &19.9.luk.16. 18.1.cor.7.10. b For the second is not his wife, but his harlot.

12 And if a woman put away her husbande, and bee maried to another, shee committeth adulterie.

13 ℂ * Then they brought litle children to him, that he should touch them: and his Disciples rebuked those that brought them. Matth.19.13. luk.18.15.

14 But when Iesus sawe it, he was displeased, and saide to them, Suffer the litle children to come vnto mee, & forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

15 Verely I say vnto you, whosoeuer shal not receiue the kingdome of God as a litle childe, he shall not enter therein.

c We must be regenerate and borne of all pride, and concupiscence.

16 And he tooke thē vp in his armes, and put [his] hands vpon them, & d blessed them.

d It was vsuall with the Iewes that the greater should blesse the inferiour. Heb. 7.7. wherefore Christ being head of his Church, did by a solemne kind of prayer offer vp & consecrate the babes to God. Matth. 19.16. Luke 18.18.

17 ¶ And when he was gone out on the way, there came one *running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I doe, that I may possesse eternall life?

e Christ would shewe that his goodnes was far otherwise then the goodnesse which is attributed to men, which is full of vanitie and hypocrisie. Exod. 20.12.

18 Thou knowest the commaundementes, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false witnesse. Thou shalt hurt no [man.] Honour thy father and mother.

f That is, he approued certaine good seed that was in him, which gaue him a litle motion.

20 Then he answered, & said to him, Master, all these thinges I haue observed from my youth.

g He toucheth his malaide, & sore, which before he felt not.

21 And Jesus beheld him, & f loued him, & sayde vnto him, One thing is lacking vnto thee, Goe [and] s sell all that thou hast, and giue to the poore, & thou shalt haue treasure in heauē, and come, followe me, and take vp the crosse.

22 But he was sad at that saying, and went away sorowfull: for hee had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked rounde about, and said vnto his disciples, How hardly doe they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God!

24 And his disciples were astonied at his wordes. But Jesus answered again, and said vnto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God!

Or, cable rope

h Which putteth his trust in riches.

25 It is easier for a ‖ camel to goe throwe the eye of a needle, then for a h rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 And they were much more astonied, saying with them selues, Who then can be saued?

27 But Jesus looked vpon thē, and said, With men [it is] impossible, but not with God: for with God i all things are possible.

i For he can giue grace to the riche to cause him to enioy his riches, as if he had them not. Matth. 19.27. Luke 18.28.

28 ¶ *Then Peter began to say vnto him, Lo, we haue forsaken all, and haue followed thee.

29 Jesus answered, and said, Verely I saye vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and the Gospels,

30 But hee shall receiue an hundreth folde nowe at this present: houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands with k persecutions, and in the world to come, eternall life.

k We must not measure these promises by our owne couetous desires, but refer the accomplishment to Gods will, who cuen in our persecutions and afflictions performeth the same so farre as they be expedient.

31 *But many [that are] first, shalbe last, and the last, first.

32 ¶ *And they were in the way going vp to Jerusalem, and Jesus went before them, and they were amased, and as they followed, they were afrayd, and Jesus tooke the twelue againe, and began to tell them what things should come vnto him, 33 [Saying,] Behold, we go vp to Jerusalē, & the Sonne of man shall be deluered vnto ỹ hie Priests, & to ỹ Scribes, and they shall condemne him to death, & shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.

l He saith this because they that are first called, should go stil forward & not disdaine others. Matth. 20.17. luke. 18.31.

34 And they shal mocke him, & scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kill him: but the third day he shall rise againe.

Matth. 20.20.

35 ¶ *Then James and John the sonnes of Zebedeus came vnto him, saying, Master, wee would e that thou shouldest doe for vs that that we desire.

36 And he said vnto thē, What would ye I should do for you?

37 And they said to him, Graunt vnto vs, that wee may sit one at thy ryght hande, and the other at thy left hande in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said vnto thē, Ye know not what ye aske. Can ye m drinke of the cup that I shall drinke of, and bee baptized with the baptisme that I shall be baptized with?

m Can you be partakers of my crosse and afflictions?

39 And they saide vnto him, Wee can. But Jesus said vnto thē, Ye shal drinke in deede of the cup that I shal drinke of, and be baptized with ỹ baptisme wherewith I shalbe baptized:

40 But to sit at my right hand, and at my left, is not n mine to giue, but [it shall be giuen] to thē for whom it is prepared.

n I haue not this commission for this time.

41 And whē the ten heard that, they began to disdaine at James and John.

42 But Jesus called them vnto him, and said to them, *Ye knowe that they which delite to beare rule among the Gentiles, haue dominatiō ouer them, & they that be great among them, exercise authoritie ouer them.

Luke 22.25.

o Christ would not ỹ his disciples and ministers shoulde beare rule as worldly gouernours doe.

43 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoeuer will be great among you, shalbe your seruant.

44 And

44 And whosoeuer will bee chiefe of you, shall be the seruant of all.

45 For euen the Sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ransome of many.

Matth.20.29. luk.18.35.

46 ¶ * Then they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples, and a great multitude, p Bartimeus ẏ sonne of Timeus, a blinde man, sate by the way side begging.

p The other Euangelists mention two, but Marke nameth him that was most known.

47 And when hee heard that it was Jesus of Nazaret, he began to crye and to saye, Jesus the Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

48 And many rebuked him, because he should holde his peace: but he q cryed much more, O Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

q The more that Satan resisteth vs, the more our faith ought to increase.

49 Then Jesus stoode still, and commanded him to be called: and they called the blinde, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort: arise, he calleth thee.

50 So he threwe away his cloke, and rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered, and said vnto him, what wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And ẏ blinde said vnto him, Lord, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Jesus saide vnto him, Goe thy way: thy faith hath saued thee. And by and by, he receiued [his] sight, & followed Jesus in the way.

CHAP. XI.

11 Christ rideth to Jerusalem. 13 The figge tree typeth vs. 15 The buiers ẏ sellers are cast out of the Temple. 24 He declareth the vertue of fayth, & how we should pray. 27 The Pharisees question with Christ.

Mat.21.1. luk. 19.29.

AND * when they came neere to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethania vnto ẏ mount of Olines, he sent foorth two of his disciples,

2 And sayde vnto them, a Goe your wayes into that towne that is ouer against you, and assoone as ye shall enter into it, ye shal find a colte bound, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him.

a Christ sheweth by this poore entrie the state of his kingdome, and it is not like to the great magnificence of this world.

3 And if any man say vnto you, why do ye this? Say that ẏ Lord hath neede of him, and straight way hee will sende him hither.

4 And they went their way, & founde a colte tyed by the doore without, in a place where two wayes met, and they loosed him.

5 Then certaine of them that stoode there, saide vnto them, what doe ye loosing the colte?

6 And they said vnto them, as Jesus had commanded thē. So they let them goe.

7 ¶ * And they brought the colte to Jesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sate vpon him. John 12.14.

8 And b many spread their garments in the way: other cut downe branches of the trees, and strawed them in ẏ way.

b Euery one shewed some signe of honor and reuerence.

9 And they that went before, & they that followed, cryed, saying, ‖ Hosanna: blessed [be] he that commeth in ẏ Name of the Lord.

‖ Or, saue, I pray thee.

10 Blessed [be] the kingdome ẏ commeth in the c Name of the Lord of our father Dauid: Hosanna, [O thou which art] in the highest [heauens].

c Many came in their owne name, but Christ came in the Name of the Lord.

11 * So Jesus entred into Jerusalem, and into the Temple: and when he had looked about on all things, and nowe it was euening, hee went foorth vnto Bethania with the twelue.

d Because the promise was made to him. Matth.21.10. luke.19.45.

12 * And on the morowe when they were come out from Bethania, he was e hungrie.

Matth. 21.19.

e Christ was subiect to our infirmities.

13 And seeing a figge tree a far off, that had leaues, he went [to see] if he might find any thing theron: but whē he came vnto it, he found nothing but leaues: for the time of figges was not yet.

14 Then Jesus answered, and said to it, f Neuer man eate fruite of thee hereafter while the worlde standeth: & his disciples heard it.

f This woorde declare howe much they displease God which haue but an outward shewe and appearance without fruit.

15 ¶ And they came to Jerusalem, & Jesus went into the Temple, & began to cast out them that sold and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrewe the tables of the money chaungers, and the seates of them that solde doues.

16 Neither would he suffer that any man shoulde carie a vessell through the Temple.

17 And he taught, saying vnto them, Is it not written, * Mine house shall be called the house of prayer vnto all nations? * but you haue made it a denne of theeues. Isai.56.7. Iere.7.11.

18 And ẏ Scribes & hie Priests heard it, and sought howe to g destroy him: for they feared him, because the whole multitude was astonied at his doctrine.

g For neither could they suffer reprehension, nor ẏ their profit should be hindered.

19 But whē euen was come, [Jesus] went out of the citie.

20 ¶ * And in the morning as they passed by, they sawe the figge tree dryed vp from the rootes. Matth.21. 19,20.

21 Then Peter remembred, and sayd vnto him, Master, behold, the figge tree which thou cursedst, is withered.

22 And Jesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Haue [h] faith in God.

h Christ taketh occasion to instruct the of the vertue of fayth.

23 For verely I say vnto you, [i] Whosoeuer shall saye vnto this mountaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, and shall not wauer in his heart, but shal beleeue that those things which he saith, shal come to passe, whatsoeuer he saith, shalbe [done] to him.

Matth.7.7. luke.11.9. i He teacheth vs not hereby to aske whatsoeuer commeth good in our fantasies: for our prayer must be grounded on fayth, and our fayth vpon the worde of God. Matth.6.14.

24 *Therfore I say vnto you, Whatsoeuer yee desire when yee pray, beleeue that ye shall haue it, and it shalbe [done] vnto you.

25 *But when ye shall stand, & pray, forgiue, if ye haue any thing against any man, that your Father also which is in heauē, may forgiue you your trespasses.

26 For if you will not forgiue, your Father which is in heauen, will not pardon you your trespasses.

Matth. 21.23. luk.20.1.2.

27 ¶ *Then they came again to Jerusalem: and as he walked in the Temple, there came to him the hie Priestes, & the Scribes, and the Elders, 28 And said to him, By what authority doest thou these things? & who gaue thee this authoritie, that thou shouldest doe these things?

29 The Jesus answered, & said vnto them, I will also aske of you a certaine thing, & answere ye me, & I will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

k He compendendeth his whole office & ministerie.

30 The [k] baptisme of John, was it from heauen, or of men? answere me.

31 And they thought with thē selues, saying, If we shall say from heauen, he will say, Why thē did ye not beleeue him?

32 But if we say of men, We feare the people: for all men counted John, that he had bene a very Prophet.

33 Then they answered, and said vnto Jesus, We can not tel. And Jesus answered, and sayde vnto them, [l] Neither will I tell you by what authoritie I do these things.

l They came of malice, and not to learne: therfore Christ thought them vnworthie to be taught.

CHAP. XII.

1 The vineyarde is let out. 14 Obedience and tribute due to princes. 25 The resurrection of the dead. 28 The summe of the Lawe. 35 Christ the sonne of Dauid. 38 Hypocrites must be eschewed. 41 The offring of the poore widowe.

Isai.5.1.Iere.2. 21.mat.21.33. luk.20.9.

AND hee began to speake vnto them in parables, *A [certaine] man planted a vineyard, and compassed it with an hedge, and digged a pit for the [a] Winepresse, and builte a towre in it, and let it out to husbandmē, & went into a strange countrey.

a The Greeke word signifieth the vessel or fat, which standeth vnder the wine pressit to receiue the iuice or liquour.

2 And at a time, he sent to the husbandmen a seruant, that hee might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyarde.

3 But they tooke him, and beat him, and sent him away emptie.

4 And againe, he sent vnto them an other seruant, & at him they cast stones, and brake his head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And againe he sent another, & him they slewe, and many other, beating some, and killing some.

6 Yet had he one sonne, his deare beloued: him also hee sent the last vnto thē, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

7 But the husbandmen saide among themselues, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 So they tooke him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyarde.

9 What shall then the Lorde of the vineyard do? He [b] will come and destroy these husbandmē, and giue the vineyard to others.

b He sheweth the plague that shal befall these ambitious and couetous rulers, whose hearts are hardened against Christ. Psal.118,22. ia.28.16 mat. 21.42.act.4. 11.rom.9.33. 1.pet.2.7,8.

10 Haue yee not read so much as this Scripture: *The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner.

11 This [c] was done of the Lord, and it is marueilous in our eyes.

c It is the ordinance of God that it shoulde be so, which most commonly is contrary to mans reason: & thus that which was spoken figuratiuely of Dauid, is fulfilled in Christ, reade Matth. 22.16.

12 Thē they went about to take him, but they feared the people: for they perceiued that hee spake [d] parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

Matth.22.15. luk.20.20. d As the qualities of [d] mind or body, or of outwarde things.

13 ¶ And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharises, & of the Herodians that they might take him in [his] talke.

14 And when they came they said vnto him, Master, We know we that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou considerest not the [e] person of men, but teachest the [f] way of God truely, Is it lawfull to giue tribute to Cesar, or not?

e As goodly maners, agreeable to Gods Lawe.

15 Shoulde we giue it, or shoulde we not giue it? But he knewe their hypocrisie, and saide vnto them, [g] Why tempt ye me? Bring me a penie, that I may see it.

f He gaue thē to vnderstande that he knewe their malicious intent. Rom.13.7.

16 So they brought it, and hee saide vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? and they sayde vnto him, Cesars.

17 Then Jesus answered, & said vnto them, *Giue to Cesar the things that are Cesars, and to God, those that are Gods: and they marueiled at him.

18 ¶ *Then came the Sadducees vnto him, (which say, there is no resurrection) and they asked him, saying,

Matth. 22.23. luk.20.27.

19 Master,

Deut.25.5.

19 Master, *Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue [his] wife, and leaue no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

g This was a politike lawe giuen for a time for the preseruation of families, reade Mat. 22.24.

20 There were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and when he dyed, left no issue.

21 Then the second tooke her, and he dyed, neither did he yet leaue issue, and the third likewise.

22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.

23 In the resurrection then, when they shal rise again, whose wife shal she be of them: for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Are ye not therefore deceiued, because yee knowe not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shal rise againe frō the dead, neither men marie, nor wiues are maried, but are [h] as the Angels which are in heauen.

h Not as touching the spirituall nature, but concerning the state of incorruption, & immortalitie, so that then there shall need no more mariage. Exod.3.6. mat.22.32.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue ye not read in the booke of Moses, howe in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I *am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

i Then it followeth that they liue, although they be deceiued out of this life. Mat.22,35.

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the [i] liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceyued.

28 ¶ *Then came one of the Scribes that had heard the disputing together, [and] perceyuing that hee had answered them well, hee asked him, Which is the first commandement of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the commandements [is,] *Heare, Israel, The Lord our God is the only Lord.

Exod.20.2. deut.6.4.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy [mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandement.

‖Or, thought.

k That is, dependeth on the first, and preceeth of the loue of God. Leuit.19.18. mat.22.39. rom.13.9. galat.5.14. iam.2,8.

31 And the seconde [is] [k] like, that is, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self. There is none other cōmandement greater then these.

32 Then the Scribe saide vnto him, Well Master, thou hast saide the trueth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he,

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, & with all the soule, and with all the strength, & to loue [his] neighbour as himselfe, is more then all burnt offrings & sacrifices.

34 Then, when Iesus sawe that he answered discretely, hee said vnto him, Thou [m] art not farre from the kingdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

m Because he shewed himself willing to be taught, & well perceiued the difference betwixt our outward professiō, and that which God doth principally require of vs, Matt.22.44. luk.20.41.

35 ¶ And Iesus answered and said teaching in the Temple, Howe say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of Dauid?

n Inspired by the holy Ghost by the spirit of prophecie. Psal.110.1. Mat.23.6.luk. 11.43.& 20. 46.

36 For Dauid himself said by the [n] holy Ghost, *The Lord said to my Lorde, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole.

‖Or, as he taught.

37 Then Dauid himselfe calleth him Lorde: by what meanes is he then his sonne? & much people heard him gladly.

o The condemneth not their apparell, but their vaine ostentation and outward shew of holines, whereby they deceiued the simple people. Matth. 23.14. luk.20.47.

38 *And he vttered in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes which loue to go in long [o] robes, & [loue] salutations in the markets,

‖Or, & vnder pretence pray long. Luk.21.1.

39 And the chiefe seates in the Synagogues, and the first roomes at feastes, 40 Which deuoure widowes houses, [‖] euen vnder a colour of long prayers. These shal receiue the greater damnation.

p Which is about half a farthing.

41 *And as Iesus sate ouer against the [p] treasurie, he beheld how the people cast money into the treasurie, and many rich men cast in much.

42 And there came a certaine poore widow, and shee threwe in two mites, which make a [p] quadrin.

q Our Sauiour esteemeth our gifftes by our affections & readie willes.

43 Then he called vnto him his disciples, and said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that this poore widowe hath cast [q] more in, then all they which haue cast into the treasurie.

44 For they all did cast in of their superfluitie: but she of her pouertie did cast in all that she had, [euen] all her liuing.

CHAP. XIII.

r The destruction of Ierusalem. 10 The Gospel shalbe preached to all. 9. 22. The perfections & false prophets which shalbe before the comming of Christ, whose houre is vncertaine. 33 He exhorteth euery one to watch.

Mat.24.1. luk.21.5.

AND *as hee went out of the Temple, one of his disciples saide vnto him, Master, see what stones, and what [r] buildings [are here.]

Luk.19.43.44

2 *Then Iesus answered & said vnto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not bee left one stone vpon a stone, that shal not be throwen downe.

3 And as he sate on the mount of Olines, ouer against the Temple, Peter, & James, and Iohn, and Andrewe asked him secretly, 4 Tell vs, when shall these things be? and what [shalbe] the signe when al these things shalbe fulfilled?

Deut.25.5.

19 Master, *Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue [his] wife, and leaue no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

g This was a politike lawe giuen for a time for the preseruation of families, reade Mat. 22.24.

20 There were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and when he dyed, left no issue.

21 Then the second tooke her, and he dyed, neither did he yet leaue issue, and the third likewise.

22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.

23 In the resurrection then, when they shal rise again, whose wife shal she be of them: for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Are ye not therefore deceiued, because yee knowe not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shal rise againe frō the dead, neither men marie, nor wiues are maried, but are [h] as the Angels which are in heauen.

h Not as touching the spirituall nature, but concerning the state of incorruption, & immortalitie, so that then there shall need no more mariage. Exod.3.6. mat.22.32.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue ye not read in the booke of Moses, howe in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I *am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

i Then it followeth that they liue, although they be deceiued out of this life. Mat.22,35.

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the [i] liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceyued.

28 ¶ *Then came one of the Scribes that had heard the disputing together, [and] perceyuing that hee had answered them well, hee asked him, Which is the first commandement of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the commandements [is,] *Heare, Israel, The Lord our God is the only Lord.

Exod.20.2. deut.6.4.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy [mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandement.

‖Or, thought.

k That is, dependeth on the first, and preceeth of the loue of God. Leuit.19.18. mat.22.39. rom.13.9. galat.5.14. iam.2,8.

31 And the seconde [is] [k] like, that is, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy self. There is none other cōmandement greater then these.

32 Then the Scribe saide vnto him, Well Master, thou hast saide the trueth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he,

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, & with all the soule, and with all the strength, & to loue [his] neighbour as himselfe, is more then all burnt offrings & sacrifices.

34 Then, when Iesus sawe that he answered discretely, hee said vnto him, Thou [m] art not farre from the kingdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

m Because he shewed himself willing to be taught, & well perceiued the difference betwixt our outward professiō, and that which God doth principally require of vs, Matt.22.44. luk.20.41.

35 ¶ And Iesus answered and said teaching in the Temple, Howe say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of Dauid?

n Inspired by the holy Ghost by the spirit of prophecie. Psal.110.1. Mat.23.6.luk. 11.43.& 20. 46.

36 For Dauid himself said by the [n] holy Ghost, *The Lord said to my Lorde, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole.

‖Or, as he taught.

37 Then Dauid himselfe calleth him Lorde: by what meanes is he then his sonne? & much people heard him gladly.

o The condemneth not their apparell, but their vaine ostentation and outward shew of holines, whereby they deceiued the simple people. Matth. 23.14. luk.20.47.

38 *And he vttered in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes which loue to go in long [o] robes, & [loue] salutations in the markets,

‖Or, & vnder pretence pray long. Luk.21.1.

39 And the chiefe seates in the Synagogues, and the first roomes at feastes,

40 Which deuoure widowes houses, [‖] euen vnder a colour of long prayers. These shal receiue the greater damnation.

p Which is about half a farthing.

41 *And as Iesus sate ouer against the [p] treasurie, he beheld how the people cast money into the treasurie, and many rich men cast in much.

42 And there came a certaine poore widow, and shee threwe in two mites, which make a [p] quadrin.

q Our Sauiour esteemeth our gifftes by our affections & readie willes.

43 Then he called vnto him his disciples, and said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that this poore widowe hath cast [q] more in, then all they which haue cast into the treasurie.

44 For they all did cast in of their superfluitie: but she of her pouertie did cast in all that she had, [euen] all her liuing.

CHAP. XIII.

r The destruction of Ierusalem. 10 The Gospel shalbe preached to all. 9. 22. The perfections & false prophets which shalbe before the comming of Christ, whose houre is vncertaine. 33 He exhorteth euery one to watch.

Mat.24.1. luk.21.5.

AND *as hee went out of the Temple, one of his disciples saide vnto him, Master, see what stones, and what [r] buildings [are here.]

Luk.19.43.44

2 *Then Iesus answered & said vnto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not bee left one stone vpon a stone, that shal not be throwen downe.

3 And as he sate on the mount of Olines, ouer against the Temple, Peter, & James, and Iohn, and Andrewe asked him secretly,

4 Tell vs, when shall these things be? and what [shalbe] the signe when al these things shalbe fulfilled?

Ephe.5.6. 2.thes.2.3.

a He warely answere them of things that were more necessarie for thē to know then the things that they demaunded.

b Usurping the authoritie of Christ.

5 And Jesus answered them, and began to say, *a Take heede least any man deceyue you.

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I [b] am [Christ,] and shall deceiue many.

7 Furthermore when yee shall heare of warres, and rumours of warres, bee yee not troubled: for [such things] must needes be: but the end [shall not] be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome, and there shall bee earthquakes in diuers quarters, & there shall be famine & troubles: these [are] ‖ beginnings of sorowes.

9 But take ye heed to your selues: for they shall deliuer you vp to the Coūcils, & to the Synagogues: ye shalbe beaten, and brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a [c] testimoniall vnto them.

c That they may be inexcusable. Matth.10.19. Luke 12.11. and.21.14.

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 *But when they leade you, and deliuer you vp, take yee no [d] thought afore, neither premeditate what ye shall say: but whatsoeuer is giuen you at the same time, that speake: for it is not yee that speake, but the holy Ghost.

d He onely forbideth that care which commeth of distrust.

12 Yea, and the brother shall deliuer the brother to death, and the father the sonne, and the children shall rise agaynst their parents, & shall cause them to die.

e This is not to make them negligent, but to assure them that he will assist them and instruct them sufficiently with answers, so that they may hereby perceyue that their defence standeth not in their owne wisedome, or eloquence. Matth. 24.15. Dan.9.27.

13 And ye shalbe hated of all men for my Names sake: but whosoeuer shall endure vnto the end, he shalbe saued.

14 *Moreouer, when ye shall see the abomination of desolation (spoken of by *Daniel the Prophet) [f] ‖ standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth, consider it) *then let them [that be] in Judea, flee into the [g] mountaines, f This is ment of that time that the Romanes should prophane the Temple.

15 And let him that is vpon the house, not come downe into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.

‖Or, being.

16 And let him that is in the fielde, not turne backe againe vnto the things which hee left behinde him, to take his clothes.

g Because the destruction shalbe most extreme and cruel.

17 Then wo [shalbe] to them that are with [h] child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.

h For they shall not be able to flee.

18 [i] Pray therefore that your flight be not in the winter.

i That you haue no let to hinder you when you should escape.

19 For there shalbe in those dayes such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created vnto this time, neither shalbe.

20 And except that the Lorde had shortened those dayes, no ‖ flesh should be saued: but for the electes sake, which he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

‖Or, man.

21 Then *if any man say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or, loe, [he is] there, beleeue it not.

Mat.24.23. luk.21.8.

22 For false Christes shall rise, and false prophets, and shal shew signes and wonders, to deceiue if it were [k] possible, the very elect.

k The elect may wauer & be troubled, but they can not vtterly be deceiued, and ouercome.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I haue shewed you all things [l] before.

l Wherefore he that suffereth himselfe not to be seduced, hath none excuse. Iſai.13.10. ezech.32.7. ioel,2.10,& 3.15.

24 ¶ Moreouer *in those daies, after that tribulation, the Sunne shall ware dark, & [m] Moone shal not giue her light, m This teacheth y there shalbe a chāge of the whole order of nature

25 And the [n] starres of heauen shall fall: and the powers which are in heauen, shall shake.

Mat.24.31.

26 And then shal they see the Sonne of man comming in the cloudes, with great power and glorie.

27 *And he shall then sende his Angels, and shall gather together his elect from the foure windes, [and] from the vtmost parte of the earth to the vtmost part of heauen.

28 Now learne a parable of the figge tree. When her bough is yet tender, and it bringeth forth leaues, yee knowe that sommer [is] neere.

29 So in like maner, when ye see these things come to passe, knowe that [the kingdome of God] is neere, [euen] at the doores.

30 Verely I say vnto you, that this [n] generation shall not passe, till all these things be done.

n The worde signifieth the space of a 100. yeeres: albeit this came to passe before fifty yeeres.

31 Heauen & earth shall passe away, but my wordes shall not passe away.

32 But of that [o] day & houre knoweth no man, no, not the Angels which are in heauen, neither the [p] Sonne himselfe, saue the Father.

o When the destruction of Jerusalem, the persecutions & illusions shall come: but chiefly these are vnderstand of the second cōming of Christ.

p In that he is man and Mediator. Mat.24.42.

33 *Take heede: watch, and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 [For the Sonne of man is] as a man going into a strāge countrey, & leaueth his house, & giueth authoritie to his seruants, & to euery man his worke, and commandeth the porter to watch.

35 [q] Watch therefore, (for yee knowe not when the Master of the house will come, at euē, or at midnight, at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning)

q For of the comming we are most assured: but of the time, the yeere, day or houre, we are ignorāt, and therefore must watche continually, 36 Lest if he come sodeinly, he should finde you sleeping.

37 And those things that I say vnto you, I say vnto all men, watch.

CHAP.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The Priestes conspire against Christ. 3 Mary Magdalene anoynteth Christ. 12 The Passeouer is eaten. 18 He telleth afore of the treason of Iudas. 22 The Lords supper is instituted. 46 Christ is taken. 67 Peter denieth him.

Matth. 26.1. luke 22.1.

AND * two dayes after followed [the feast of] the Passeouer, & of vnleauened bread: and the hie Priestes, and Scribes sought howe they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they sayde, Not in the feast [day,] least there be any tumult among the people.

Matth. 26.6. iohn 12.1.

3 * And when he was in Bethania in ỹ house of Simon the leper, as he sate at table, there came a woman hauing a box of oyntment of ‖ spikenarde, very costly, and shee brake the box, & powred it on his head.

‖ Or, of pure nard, and faithfully made.

4 Therefore [a] some disdained among themselues, and sayde, To what ende is this waste of oyntment?

a As Iudas who caused this murmuring.

5 For it might haue byn sold for more then [b] three hundreth pence, and bene geuen vnto the poore, [c] and they grudged against her.

b Which are in value about sixe pound sterling.

c To wit, Iudas: who was offended therewith, & therefore made a busines, 6 But Iesus sayde, Let her alone: why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good worke on me.

7 For ye haue the poore with you alwayes, and when yee will yee may doe them good, but me yee shall not haue alwayes.

8 She hath done that she coulde: she came afore hande to anoynt my body to the burying.

9 Verely I say vnto you, Whersoeuer this Gospel shall bee preached throughout the whole worlde, this also that she hath done, shall be spoken of in remembrance of her.

Matth. 26.14. luk. 22.4.

10 C* Then Iudas Iscariot, one of the twelue, [d] went awaye vnto the hie Priests, to betray him vnto them.

d He tooke occasion by this oyntment as of a thing euill done.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised that they would giue him money: therefore he sought how he might conuenently betray him.

Matth. 26.17. luk. 22.7,8,

12 C* Nowe the first day of vnleauened bread, when they sacrificed ỹ Passeouer, his disciples said vnto him, Where wilt thou that we goe and prepare, that thou mayest eate the Passeouer?

13 Then he sent forth two of his disciples, and said vnto them, Goe ye into the citie, & there shall a man meete you bearing a pitcher of water: followe him.

14 And whithersoeuer hee goeth in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master sayeth, Where is the lodging where I shall eate the Passeouer with my disciples?

15 And he will shewe you an vpper chamber [which is] large, trimmed and prepared: there make it readie for vs.

16 So his disciples went forth, and came to the citie, and founde as he had sayde vnto them, and made readie the Passeouer.

17 C And at euen he came with the twelue.

Mar. 26.20. luke 22.14. iohn 13.21.

18 * And as they sate at table and did eate, Iesus saide, Verily I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray mee, which eateth with me.

19 Then they beganne to be sorowfull, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? And another, Is it I?

20 And he answered and sayde vnto them, [It is] one of the twelue that e* dippeth with me in the platter.

e To dip the hande, is as much to say, as he that is accustomed to eate with me. Psal. 41.9. iohn 13.18.

21 * Truely the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is [f] written of him: but woe [be] to that man, by whome the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had bene good for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

Mat. 26.24. acts 1.16.

f This declareth that nothing can be done without Gods prouidence. Mat. 26.26. 1. cor. 11.24.

22 * And as they did eate, Iesus g tooke the bread, and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue it to them, and said, Take, eate, this is my bodie.

g Reade Mat. chap. 26.26.

23 Also he tooke the cuppe, and when he had [h] giuen thankes, gaue it to them: and they all dranke of it.

h The Greeke worde is to blesse, which is here taken onely to giue thankes, as S. Luke and S. Paul interpret it, and S. Marke also speaking of the cuppe. Iohn 16.32.

24 And he saide vnto them, This is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verely I say vnto you, I will drinke no more of the fruite of the vine, vntill that day, that I drinke it newe in the kingdome of God.

26 And whē they had sung a psalme, they went out to the mount of Olives.

27 C* Then Iesus said vnto them, All ye shalbe [i] offended by me this night: for it is written, * I will smite the shepherd, and the sheepe shall be scattered.

i That is, turned from me, because of the persecution. Zacha. 13.7. Chap. 16.7.

28 But after that I am risen, I will goe into * Galile before you.

29 And Peter sayde vnto him, Although all men shoulde be offended, yet woulde not I.

30 Then Iesus sayde vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, this day, [euen] in this night, before the cocke crowe twise, thou shalt deny me thrise.

31 But he sayde more earnestly, If I shoulde die with thee, I will not denie thee: likewise also saide they all.

E 4. 32 C* After

32 ¶ *After they came into a place named Gethsemane: & he said to his disciples, Sit ye here, till I haue prayed.

33 And he tooke with him Peter, and James, and John, and he began [k] to be afraide, and in great heauinesse, 34 And saide vnto them, My soule is very heauie, [euen] vnto the death: tary here and watch.

35 So he went forwarde a litle, & fell downe on the grounde, and prayed, that if it were possible, ỹ houre might passe from him.

36 And he saide, [l] Abba, Father, all things are possible vnto thee: take away this cup from me: neuertheles, not that I will, but that thou [m] wilt, [be done.]

37 Thē he came & found thē sleeping, and said to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one houre?

38 Watch ye, and pray, that ye enter not into tentation: the spirite in deede is ready, but the flesh is weake.

39 And againe he went away, & prayed, and spake the same wordes.

40 And he returned, and found thē a sleepe againe: for their eies were heauy: neither knewe they what they shoulde answere him.

41 And he came the third time, & said vnto them, [n] Sleepe henceforth, & take your rest: it is ynough: ỹ houre is come: beholde, the Sonne of man is deliuered into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise vp: let vs goe: lo, he that betrayeth me, is at hand.

43 *And immediately while hee yet spake, came Iudas that was one of the twelue, and with him a great multitude with swordes and staues from the hie Priests, and Scribes, and Elders.

44 And he that betraied him, had giuen them a token, saying, Whomsoeuer [o] I shal kisse, he it is: take him and leade him away safely.

45 And assoone as he was come, hee went straight way to him, & said, [p] Master, Master, and kissed him.

46 Then they laide their handes on him, and tooke him.

47 And [q] one of them ỹ stood by, drew out a sword, and smote a [r] seruant of the hie Priest, and cut off his eare.

48 And Iesus answered & saide vnto them, Ye be come out as vnto a thiefe w swordes and with staues to take me.

49 I was daily with you teaching in the Temple, and ye [s] tooke me not: but [this is done] that the scriptures should be fulfilled.

50 Then they [t] al forsooke him, & fled.

51 And there followed him a certaine yong mā, clothed in linen vpon his bare [bodie,] and the yong men caught him.

52 But he left his linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 *So they led Iesus away to ỹ hie Priest, & to him came all the [u] hie Priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes.

54 And Peter followed him [x] a farre off, euen into the hall of the hie Priest, and sate with the seruāts, and warmed [him selfe] at the ‖ fire.

55 And the * hie Priestes, and all the Councill sought for Witnes against Iesus, to put him to death, but found none.

56 For many bare false witnesse against him, but their witnesse ‖ agreed not together.

57 Then there arose certaine, and bare false witnesse against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, * I [y] will destroy this Temple made with handes, and within three dayes I will builde another, made without handes.

59 But their witnesse yet agreed not together.

60 Then the hie Priest stoode vp amongs them, and asked Iesus, saying, Answerest ỹ nothing? what is the matter ỹ these beare Witnesse against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Againe the hie Priest asked him, and sayde vnto him, Art thou Christ the Sonne of the [z] Blessed?

62 And Iesus saide, I am [he,] * and ye shall see the [a] Sonne of man sit at the right hande of the power of [God,] and come in the cloudes of heauen.

63 Then ỹ hie Priest rent his clothes and said, What haue we any more neede of witnesses?

64 Ye haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? And they all condemned him to be worthie of death.

65 And some beganne to spit at him, and to couer his face, and to beate him with fistes, and to say vnto him, Prophesie. And the [b] sergeants smote him with [their] roddes.

66 *And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the maides of the hie Priest.

67 And whē she saw Peter warming [him selfe,] she looked on him, and saide, Thou wast also w Iesus of Nazaret.

68 But [c] he denied it, saying, I know him not, neither wot I what thou saist.

Then

Matth. 26.36. luke 22.39.

k His diuinitie was as it were hid, and his humanity shewed it selfe fully.

l Ab in Ebrue, and Abba in the Syrian tongue signifieth father.

m He standeth not so to his owne will, but that willingly he offreth himselfe to obey God, n He meaneth that the houre will come whē they shall be kept from sleeping.

Matth. 26.47. luke 22.47. Iohn 18.3.

o It was the fashion then to greet with killing at their meetings, and also at their departure.

p He repeateth it twise, as if he had bene moued with a certaine pitie in taking his last leaue.

q To wit, Peter.

r Called Malchus.

s Which declareth that no man can doe any thing contrary to Gods ordinance, t Meaning all the disciples.

Mat. 26.57. luke 22.54. iohn 18.24.

u That is, they which had the best authoritie among the Priestes.

x Which signified that his hoat zeale began nowe to be abated.

[Or, light. Mat. 26.56. [Or, were not like. Iohn 2.19.

y These two witnesses dissented, in that ỹ one reported ỹ Christ said, he could destroy the Tēple, (as Matth. writeth) and the other said, ỹ he heard him say, that he would doe it, as is here noted.

z That is, of God, who is worthie all praise: ỹ which worde in their language, the Iewes when they spake of God, vse commonly in their writings euen to this day.
Mat. 24.30.

a Whom they nowe contemned in this base estate, they should see appeare at the last day with maiestie and glorie.

b This declareth the wickednesse & insolencie of the gouernours, & rulers, seeing their officers contrary to all iustice, thus raged and tormented him, that was innocent.
Mat. 26.69. luke 22.55. iohn 18.25.

c We ought to consider our owne infirmitie, that we may learne onely to trust in God, & not in our owne strength.

Then he went out into the ‖ [d] porch, and the cocke crewe.

69 *Then a maide sawe him againe, and beganne to say to them that stoode by, This is [one] of them.

70 But he denied it againe: and anon after, they that stoode by, saide againe to Peter, Surely thou art [one] of thē: for thou art of Galile, and thy speach is like.

71 And he beganne to curse, & sweare, [saying,] I knowe not this man, of whome ye speake.

72 *Then the seconde time the cocke crewe, and Peter remembred the word that Iesus had saide vnto him, Before the cocke crowe twise, thou shalt denie me thrise, and ‖ waping that with him selfe, he wept.

Mat.26.75. iohn 13.38.

‖ Or, rushed out of the doores and wept.

CHAP. XV.

1 Iesus is leade to Pilate. 15 He is condemned, reuiled and put to death. 46 And is buried by Ioseph.

AND *anon in ỹ dawning, the high Priestes helde [a] a counsell with the Elders, and the Scribes, & the whole Counsell, and bound Iesus, and ledde him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

Mat.27.1,2, luke 22.66. iohn 18.28. a For the Romanes gaue them no authoritie to put any man to death.

2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Iewes: And he answered, and laid vnto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the hie Priestes accused him of many things.

4 *Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing: behold howe many things they witnes against thee.

Mat.27.12. luke.23.3. iohn 18,35.

5 But Iesus answered [b] no more at all, so that Pilate marueiled.

b He would not defende his cause, but pretented himselfe willingly to be condemned.

6 Nowe at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whomsoeuer they would desire.

7 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bound with his fellowes, ỹ had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had cōmitted murder.

8 And the people cryed aloude, and began to desire [that he would doe] as he had [c] euer done vnto them.

c The people alwayes maintaine their customes, although they be worth nothing.

9 Then Pilate answered them, and saide, Will ye that I let loose vnto you the King of the Iewes:

10 For he knewe that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enuie.

11 But the hie Priestes had moued the people [to desire] that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and sayde againe vnto them, What will ye then that I doe [with him,] whome ye call the King of the Iewes:

13 And they cried againe, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate said vnto them, But what euill hath he done: And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie him.

15 So Pilate [d] willing to content the people, loosed them Barabbas, and deliuered Iesus when he had scourged him, that he might be crucified.

d When a iudge hath respect to men, he quite forgetteth iustice.

16 Then the souldiers led him away into the hall, which is the ‖ common hal, and called together the whole bande,

‖ Or, pretorie.

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, and put it about [his head,]

18 And began to salute him, [saying,] Haile, King of the Iewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a ‖ reede, and spate vpon him, and bowed the knees, [&] did him reuerence.

‖ Or, stalke.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, and put his owne clothes on him, and ledde him out to crucifie him.

21 *And they [e] compelled one ỹ passed by, [called] Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the countrey, & was father of Alexander & Rufus) to beare his crosse.

Mat.27.32. luke 23.26. e Iewes the custome to make him that was condemned, to carry his crosse, but Iesus was not able for weakenesse.

22 *And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of [dead mens] skulles.

Mat.27.33. luke 23.33. iohn 19.17.

23 And they gaue him to drinke wine mingled [f] with myrrhe: but he receiued it not.

f Which was to hasten his death: but he would not drinke it, because he would waite for the houre that his father had appointed, that he might render vnto him perfite obedience.

24 And whē they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lottes for them, what euery man should haue.

25 And it was [g] the third houre, whē they crucified him.

g The Iewes deuided their day into foure parts, so that by the third houre is here ment the third part of the day, which was from vi. a clocke to nine, at what time Marke, saith he was crucified.

26 And ỹ title of his cause was Written aboue, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

Iesa. 53.12. iohn 2.19.

27 They crucified also with him two thieues, the one on the right hande, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, *And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heades, and saying, *Hey, thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, 30 Saue thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the hie Priests mocking, said among them selues with the Scribes, He saued other men, him selfe he can not saue.

32 Let Christ ỹ King of Israel now come come downe from the crosse, that wee may see, and beleeue. h They also that were crucified with him, reuiled him.

33 ¶ Now when the sixt houre was come, darkenesse arose ouer all the land vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the k ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, *Eloi, Eloi, lamma-sabachthani? which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stoode by, when they heard it, saide, l Beholde, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a *sponge full of vineger, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone: let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 ¶ And the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the toppe to the bottome.

39 Now when ẏ m Centurion, which stoode ouer against him, sawe ẏ he thus crying gaue vp the ghost, he said, Truely this man was the Sonne of God.

40 ¶ There were also women, which beheld afarre off, among whom was Marie Magdalene, & Marie (the mother of Iames the lesse, and of Ioses) and Salome, 41 which also when he was in Galile, *followed him, and ministred vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 ¶ *And now when ẏ night was come (because it was the day of the preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an n honorable Counsellour, which also looked for the kingdome of God, came, and went in o boldely vnto Pilate, and asked the bodie of Iesus.

44 And Pilate marueiled, if he were already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether he had bene any while dead.

45 And when he knew [of ẏ truetly] of ẏ Centurion, he gaue the bodie to Ioseph.

46 Who bought a linnen cloth, and tooke him downe, & wrapped him in the linnen cloth, & laide him in a tombe that was hewen out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the dooze of the sepulchre.

47 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie Ioses [mother] beheld where he thoulde be layde.

h Meaning the one of the that were crucified, i Because this darkenes was onely ouer the land of Canaan, when the rest of the worlde was light, the miracle is the greater.

k Which was the thirde part of the day, and about three of the clocke after noone. Psal.22.1. mat.27.46.

l This was spoken mockingly. Psal.69.21.

m Who had charge ouer an hundred men.

Luke 8.2,3.

Mat.27.57. luk.23.50,51. iohn 19.38.

n A graue man and of great authoritie.

o This man shewed his faith boldely when the danger seemed to be most perilous.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The women come to the graue. 9 Christ being risen againe, appeareth to Magdalene, 14 Also to the eleuen, and reproueth their vnbeliefe. 16 He committeth the preaching of the Gospell & the ministration of baptisme vnto them.

AND * when the Sabbath day was past, Marie Magdalene, and Marie the [mother] of Iames, and Salome, bought sweete ointments, that they might come, and embaulme him. Luke 24.1. iohn 20.1.

2 Therefore earely in the morning, the first day of the weeke, they came vnto the sepulchre, when the sunne was ‖yet rising,

‖Or, not risen.

3 And they said one to another, Who shall rolle vs away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they sawe that the stone was rolled away (for it was a very great one.)

5 *So they went into the sepulchre, and sawe a a young man sitting at the right side, clothed in a long white robe: and they were afr...d. Mat.28.1. 1.ioh.20.12.

a The Angel of God in the likenesse of a yong man.

6 But he said vnto thē, Be not afraid: ye seeke Iesus of Nazaret, which hath bene crucified: he is risen: he is not here: beholde the place, where they put him.

7 But goe your way, and tell his disciples, and b Peter, that he wil go before you into Galile: there shall ye see him, *as he said vnto you.

b He especially maketh mention of Peter to comfort him, because he had fallen into greater danger then the rest. Mar.26.32. chap.14.28.

8 And they went out quickely, & fled from the sepulchre: for they trembled, and were amased: neither said they any thing to any man: for they were afraid.

9 ¶ And when Iesus was risen againe, in the morowe (which was the first day of the weeke) he appeared first to Marie Magdalene *out of whome he had cast seuen deuils. Iohn 20.16. luke 8.2.

10 And she went and tolde them that had bene with him, which mourned and wept.

11 And when they heard that he was alive, and had appeared to her, they c beleeued it not.

c They had soone forgotten that, that Christ had foretolde them of his resurrection.

12 ¶ *After that, he appeared vnto two of them in another forme, as they walked, and went into the countrey. Luke 24.13, 15.

13 And they went and tolde it to the remnant, but they beleeued them not.

14 ¶ * Finally, he appeared vnto the eleuen as they d sate together, and reproued them of their vnbeliefe and hardenesse of heart, because they beleeued not them which had seene him, being risen vp againe. Luke 24.36. iohn 20.19.

d Mourning and praying.

15 And he saide vnto them, *Goe ye into Mar.28.19.

c As wel Gentile as Iewe. Ioh n 12.48.

into all the worlde, and preach the Gospell to c euery creature.

16 He that shall beleeue and be baptized, shall be saued: * but he that will not beleeue, shall be damned.

17 And these d tokens shall followe them that beleeue, * In my Name they shall cast out deuils, and * shall speake with e newe tongues,

18 * And shall take away serpents,

Act. 16.18.

Act. 2.4. and 10.46.

and if they shall drinke any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them: * they shall lay their handes on the sicke, and they shall recouer.

Act. 28.8.

Luke 4.41. Heb. 2.4.

19 * So after the Lorde had spoken vnto them, he was receiued into heauē, and sate at the right hande of God.

20 And they went forth, & preached euery where. And the * Lorde wrought with them, and confirmed the worde with h signes that followed. Amen.

h The miracles & signes folow the doctrine, as certaine seales, so that if the doctrine be false, the miracles can be no better, Deut. 13.3.

d Many other and diuers, as Luke saith. Act. 28.5.

The holy Gospell of Iesus Christ,

according to Luke.

CHAP. I.

5 Of Zacharias and Elisabet. 11 The Angell sheweth him of the nativitie of Iohn Baptist. 20 His incredulitie is punished. 28 The talke of the Angell, & Marie. 46 Her song. 57 The birth, Circumcision, and graces of Iohn. 68 Zacharias giueth thankes to God, and prophecieth.

FOr as much as many haue taken in hande to set forth the storie of those thinges, whereof we are fully persuaded.

2 a As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning sawe them their selues, and were ministers of the worde,

3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) also one as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point,

4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certaintie of those things, wherein thou hast bene instructed.

5 IN the time of b Herode king of Iudea, there [was] a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the c course of Abia: & his wife [was] of the d daughters of Aaron, and her name [was] Elisabet.

6 Both were e iust before God, & walked in all the cōmandements and f ordinances of the Lorde, without reproofe.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabet was barren: and both were well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe, as he executed the Priestes office before God, as his course came in order,

9 According to the custome of the Priestes office, his lot was to h burne incense, when he went into the i Temple of the Lorde.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, * while the incense was burning.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angell of the Lorde standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw [him], he was troubled, & feare fell vpon him.

13 But k Angel sayde vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabet shall beare thee a sonne, & thou shalt cal his name l Iohn.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnesse, & many shall reioyce at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shal neither drinke wine, nor l strong drinke: and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 * And many of the children of Israel shall he turne to their Lorde God.

17 * For he shall goe m before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turne the heartes of the n fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the iust men, to make readie a people prepared for the Lorde.

18 The Zacharias said vnto o Angel, whereby shall I knowe this: for I am an olde man, & my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angell answered, and said vnto him, I am o Gabriel that stande in the presence of God, & am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shewe thee these good tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be domme, and not bee able to speake, vntill p the day that these things be done, because a Meaning, the Apostles with whom he was conuersant.

b Of the ofting: and it may be referred either to Christ or to the Gospell: and hereby is ment, that they were the ministers of Christ, who is called the word or ministers of the worde, that is to say, of the Gospell: and this commendeth the authoritie of his doctrine, seeing he receiued it of the Apostles.

c The sonne of Antipater.

d Reade 1. Chron. 24. 10.

e By her father: for by her mothers line she was of the house of David.

f This perfection or iustice is iudged by the fruit, and outward appearance, & not by the cause: which onely commeth of Gods free mercie through Christ.

g The Greeke worde signifieth iustifications, whereby is meant the outwarde obseruation of the ceremonies commanded by God.

h That is, the euening and morning sacrifice, according to the Lawe.

i The Temple was deuided into three partes: the first was the bodie of the Temple called Atrium, where the people was: the seconde called Sanctum, where the Priestes and Leuites were: and the thirde Sanctum Sanctorum, into the which the hie Priest entred once a yeere to sacrifice. Exod. 30.7. Leuit. 16.17.

k Which signifieth the grace of the Lorde.

l The worde signifieth all maner of drinke which maketh men drunken. Mal. 4.5.6. Mat. 11.14.

m As a King in his royaltie hath one to go before him, who signifieth the King to be at hande.

n Whē Christ saith he came to set the father against the sonne &c. he meaneth the successe which commeth of the Gospell, though the malice of men: but here he speaketh of the true ende and proferitie of the Gospel.

o Which signifieth, the strength or power of God.

p We must not measure Gods promise by our weake sences.

thou

c As wel Gentile as Iewe. Ioh n 12.48.

into all the worlde, and preach the Gospell to c euery creature.

16 He that shall beleeue and be baptized, shall be saued: * but he that will not beleeue, shall be damned.

17 And these d tokens shall followe them that beleeue, * In my Name they shall cast out deuils, and * shall speake with e newe tongues,

18 * And shall take away serpents,

Act. 16.18.

Act. 2.4. and 10.46.

and if they shall drinke any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them: * they shall lay their handes on the sicke, and they shall recouer.

Act. 28.8.

Luke 4.41. Heb. 2.4.

19 * So after the Lorde had spoken vnto them, he was receiued into heauē, and sate at the right hande of God.

20 And they went forth, & preached euery where. And the * Lorde wrought with them, and confirmed the worde with h signes that followed. Amen.

h The miracles & signes folow the doctrine, as certaine seales, so that if the doctrine be false, the miracles can be no better, Deut. 13.3.

d Many other and diuers, as Luke saith. Act. 28.5.

The holy Gospell of Iesus Christ,

according to Luke.

CHAP. I.

5 Of Zacharias and Elisabet. 11 The Angell sheweth him of the nativitie of Iohn Baptist. 20 His incredulitie is punished. 28 The talke of the Angell, & Marie. 46 Her song. 57 The birth, Circumcision, and graces of Iohn. 68 Zacharias giueth thankes to God, and prophecieth.

FOr as much as many haue taken in hande to set forth the storie of those thinges, whereof we are fully persuaded.

2 a As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning sawe them their selues, and were ministers of the worde,

3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) also one as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point,

4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certaintie of those things, wherein thou hast bene instructed.

5 IN the time of b Herode king of Iudea, there [was] a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the c course of Abia: & his wife [was] of the d daughters of Aaron, and her name [was] Elisabet.

6 Both were e iust before God, & walked in all the cōmandements and f ordinances of the Lorde, without reproofe.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabet was barren: and both were well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe, as he executed the Priestes office before God, as his course came in order,

9 According to the custome of the Priestes office, his lot was to h burne incense, when he went into the i Temple of the Lorde.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, * while the incense was burning.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angell of the Lorde standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw [him], he was troubled, & feare fell vpon him.

13 But k Angel sayde vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabet shall beare thee a sonne, & thou shalt cal his name l Iohn.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnesse, & many shall reioyce at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shal neither drinke wine, nor l strong drinke: and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 * And many of the children of Israel shall he turne to their Lorde God.

17 * For he shall goe m before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turne the heartes of the n fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the iust men, to make readie a people prepared for the Lorde.

18 The Zacharias said vnto o Angel, whereby shall I knowe this: for I am an olde man, & my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angell answered, and said vnto him, I am o Gabriel that stande in the presence of God, & am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shewe thee these good tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be domme, and not bee able to speake, vntill p the day that these things be done, because a Meaning, the Apostles with whom he was conuersant.

b Of the ofting: and it may be referred either to Christ or to the Gospell: and hereby is ment, that they were the ministers of Christ, who is called the word or ministers of the worde, that is to say, of the Gospell: and this commendeth the authoritie of his doctrine, seeing he receiued it of the Apostles.

c The sonne of Antipater.

d Reade 1. Chron. 24. 10.

e By her father: for by her mothers line she was of the house of David.

f This perfection or iustice is iudged by the fruit, and outward appearance, & not by the cause: which onely commeth of Gods free mercie through Christ.

g The Greeke worde signifieth iustifications, whereby is meant the outwarde obseruation of the ceremonies commanded by God.

h That is, the euening and morning sacrifice, according to the Lawe.

i The Temple was deuided into three partes: the first was the bodie of the Temple called Atrium, where the people was: the seconde called Sanctum, where the Priestes and Leuites were: and the thirde Sanctum Sanctorum, into the which the hie Priest entred once a yeere to sacrifice. Exod. 30.7. Leuit. 16.17.

k Which signifieth the grace of the Lorde.

l The worde signifieth all maner of drinke which maketh men drunken. Mal. 4.5.6. Mat. 11.14.

m As a King in his royaltie hath one to go before him, who signifieth the King to be at hande.

n Whē Christ saith he came to set the father against the sonne &c. he meaneth the successe which commeth of the Gospell, though the malice of men: but here he speaketh of the true ende and proferitie of the Gospel.

o Which signifieth, the strength or power of God.

p We must not measure Gods promise by our weake sences.

thou

q While their course endured to sacrifice, they might not lie with their wiues, nor drinke any licour that might make one drunke.

r For the barren women enioyed not the promise which God made to them that were maried, to haue issue: but principally they were deprined of that promise which God made to Abraham, that he would increase his seede.

‖ Or, gladnesse be to thee.

‖ Or, receiued into fauour.

s Not for her merits: but onely through Gods free mercie, who loued vs when we were sinners, that wholoeuer reioyceth should reioyce in the Lorde. Iſa. 7.14. mat. 1.21. chap. 2.21.

t Because he is the true Sonne of God, begotten from before all beginning, and manifested in flesh at the determinate time Dan. 7.14. mich. 4.7.

u She would be resolued of all doubtes, to the ende that she might more surely embrace the promise of God.

x It shall be a secret operation of the holy Ghost.

y He must be pure and without sinne, which must take away the sinnes of the worlde.

z Notwithstanding that Elisabet was married to one of the tribe of Leui, yet she was Maries cousin, which was of the stocke of Dauid. For the Lawe which forbade marriage out of their owne tribe, was onely that the tribes should not be mixt and confounded, which could not be in marrying with the Leuites: for they had no portion assigned vnto them.

thou beleeuedst not my wordes, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 Nowe the people waited for Zacharias, and marueiled that he taried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speake vnto them: then they perceiued that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for he made signes vnto them, and remained domme.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed [a] to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes, his wife Elisabet conceiued, and hid her selfe fiue moneths, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord delt with me, in the dayes wherein he looked on [me,] to take from [b] me my rebuke among men.

26 ¶ And in the first moneth, the Angell Gabriel was sent from God vnto a citie of Galile, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgin affianced to a man whose name [was] Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, & the virgins name [was] Marie.

28 And the Angell went in vnto her, and saide, ‖ Haile thou [that art] freely beloued: the Lorde [is] with thee: blessed [art] thou among women.

29 And when she saw [him,] she was troubled at his saying, & thought what maner of salutation that should be.

30 Then the Angell sayde vnto her, Feare not, Marie: for [c] thou hast found fauour with God.

31 *For loe, thou shalt conceiue in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt call his name IESVS.

32 He shalbe great, and shall be called the Sonne [d] of the most High, and the Lord God shall giue vnto him the throne of his father Dauid.

33 *And he shal reigne ouer the house of Iacob for euer, and of his kingdome shall be none ende.

34 Then sayde Marie vnto the Angell, [e] How shall this be, seeing I know not man?

35 And the Angel answered, and said vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the most High shal [f] ouershadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shalbe borne of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.

36 And beholde, thy [g] cousin Elisabet, she hath also conceiued a sonne in her olde age: and this is her first moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing be vnpossible.

38 Then Marie saide, Beholde, the seruaunt of the Lorde: be it vnto me according to thy worde. So the Angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Marie arose in those daies, and went into the hill [countrey] with haste to a [h] citie of Iuda, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabet.

41 And it came to passe, as Elisabet heard the salutation of Marie, the babe [i] sprang in her bellie, and Elisabet was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she cryed with a loud voyce, and saide, Blessed art thou among women, because the [k] fruite of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence [commeth] this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For loe, assoone as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my bellie for ioy.

45 And blessed [is] she that beleeued: for those thinges shall be performed, which were tolde her [l] from the Lorde.

46 Then Marie sayde, My [m] soule magnifieth the Lorde, 47 And my spirite reioyceth in God my Sauiour.

48 For he hath looked on the ‖ poore degree of his seruant: for beholde, from henceforth [n] shal all ages call me blessed.

49 Because he that is mightie, hath done for me great things, and holy [is] his Name.

50 And his [o] mercie [is] from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 *He hath shewed strength with his arme: *he hath scattered the proude in the [p] imagination of their heartes.

52 He hath put downe the mightie from [their] seates, and exalted them of lowe degree.

53 *He hath filled the hungrie with good things, & sent away the rich emptie.

54 *He hath vpholden Israel his seruant, being mindefull of [his] mercie, 55 (*As he hath spoken to our fathers, [to wit,] to Abraham and his [q] seede) for euer.

56 ¶ And Marie abode with her about three moneths: after, she returned to her owne house.

a Which was also called, Kiriath-arba, or Hebron, Iosh. 14.15. & 21.11.

b This moouing was extraordinarie & not naturall, which was to commend the miracle.

c He sheweth the cause why Marie was blessed.

d By the message of the Angell.

e The soule, & the spirit signifie the vnderstanding and affection which are the two principal parts of the soule.

‖ Or, lowe estate.

f This fauour that God hath shewed me, shall be spoken of for euer.

g According to the promise made to Abraham that he would be his God, and the God of his seede for euer, Iſa. 51.9. Psalm. 33.10. Iſa. 29.15.

h The wicked lay snares for other, wherein they themselues are taken.

i Sam. 2.5, 6, 7.

k Psal. 34.10. Iſa. 30.18. and 41.9. and 54.5. Iere. 31.3, 20.

l Gen. 17.19. and 22, 17. Psal. 132.11.

m Or, posteritie.

57 ¶ Nowe

57 ¶ Nowe Elisabets time was fulfilled, that she should be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours, and cousins heard tell howe the Lorde had shewed his great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so that on the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered, & said, Not so, but he shall be called John.

61 And they sayd vnto her, There is none of thy kinred, that is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, howe he would haue him called.

63 So he asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is John, and they marueiled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue [loosed,] and he [k] spake and praysed God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt neere vnto them, and all these wordes were noysed abroad throughout all the hill [countrey] of Judea.

66 And all they that heard them, layd [them] vp in their hearts, saying, What maner child shall this be! and the [k] hand of the Lord was with him.

67 Then his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed [be] the Lord God of Israel, because he hath [l] visited *and redemed his people,

69 *And hath raised vp the [m] horne of saluation vnto vs, in the house of his seruant Dauid,

70 *As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets, which were since the world began, saying,

71 [That he would send vs] deliuerance from our enemies, and from the hands of all that hate vs,

72 That he would shewe [n] mercie towardes our fathers, and remember his holy Couenant,

73 *[And] the othe which he sware to our father Abraham:

74 [Which was,] that hee would graunt vnto vs, that we being deliuered out of the hands of our enemies, should [o] serue him without feare

75 All the dayes of our life, in [*p] holines and righteousnes [p] before him.

76 And thou, babe, shalt be called the Prophet of the most High: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes,

77 [And] to giue knowledge of saluation vnto his people, by the [q] remission of their sinnes,

78 Through the tender mercie of our God, whereby [*r] the day spring from an high, hath visited vs, 79 To giue light to them that sit in darkenes, and in the shadowe of death, and to guide our feete into the way of peace.

80 And the childe grewe, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in [s] the wildernesse till the day came, that hee should shewe himselfe vnto Israel.

was least inhabited, where also the grosse and rude people dwelled.

1. Not onely for his benefite in pardoning his fault, but also to shewe that he was iustly punished for his incredulitie.
k The mightie power of God and his graces, which declared that he should be an excellent person.
l In declaring him selfe mindfull of his people, and therefore is come from heauen to visite and redeme them. Matth. 1,21. chap. 2.30. Psam. 132,17, 18.
m When the promises of God seemed to haue fayled & the state of Israel to haue perished, then sent he his Christ who by his inuincible strength, as with a strong horne ouerthewe his enemies. Ierem. 23.6. and 30.10.
n He declareth the cause and fountaine of our redemptio, Gene. 22,16, 17. iere. 32.33. hebr. 6.13.
o This is the ende of our redemption. 1. Pet. 1,15.
p To whome no hypocrisie can be acceptable.
q He sheweth that our saluation consisteth in the remission of sinnes, which is the principall part of the Gospel. Zech. 3.8. & 6, 12. mal. 4.2.
r Or branch of a tree, meaning the Messias, who is ꝑ sunne of righteousnes which shineth from heauen.
s That is, of all felicitie.
t He meaneth that part of Judea which

CHAP. II.

7 The birth and circumcision of Christ. 22 He was receiued into the Temple. 28 Simeon and Anna prophesie of him. 46 He was found among the doctours. 51 His obedience to father and mother.

AND it came to passe in those dayes, that there came a commaundement from Augustus Cesar, that all the [a] world should be [‖] taxed.

2 (This first [b] taxing was made when Cyrenius was gouernour of Syria.)

3 Therefore went all to be taxed, euery man to his owne citie.

4 And [c] Joseph also went vp from Galile out of a citie called Nazaret, into Judea, vnto the citie of *Dauid, which is called Beth-lehem (because he was of the house and linage of Dauid,)

5 To be taxed with Marie that was giuen him to wife, which was with childe.

6 ¶ And so it was, that while they were there, ꝑ dayes were accomplished that she should be deliuered.

7 And she brought forth her [d] first begotten sonne, and wrapped him in swadling clothes, and layed him in a [e] cratch, because there was no roome for them in the Inne.

8 ¶ And there were in ꝑ same countrey shepheards, abiding in the fielde, and keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

9 And lo, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, & the glory of ꝑ Lord shone about them, and they were sore afraide.

10 Then the Angel sayd vnto them, Be not afraide: for beholde, I bring you tidings of great ioy, that shall be to all the people:

11 [That is,] that vnto you is borne a So much as was subiect to the Romanes.

‖ Or, put in writing.
b Whereby the people were more charged and oppressed.
c He sheweth by what occasion Jesus was borne in Beth-lehem. Iohn 7.42.
d Reade Mat. 1.25.
e Whereby appeared his pouertie, & their crueltie, which would not pitie such a woman in such case.

this day in the citie of [f] Dauid, a Sauiour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And [g] this [shall be] a signe to you, Ye shall finde the childe swadled, and layed in a cratch.

13 And straightway there was with the Angel a multitude of heauenly souldiers, praysing God, and saying,

14 Glory [be] to God in the high [heauens,] and peace in earth, and towards men [h] good will.

15 And it came to passe when the Angels were gone away frō them into heauen, that the shepherds sayd one to another, Let vs go then vnto Beth-lehem, and see this thing that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

16 So they came with haste, & found both Marie and Ioseph, and the babe layed in the cratch.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that childe.

18 And all that heard it wondered at the things which were tolde them of the shepheards.

19 But Marie kept all those sayings, and pondred [them] in her heart.

20 And the shepheards returned, glorifying and praysing God, for all that they had heard and seene, as it was spoken vnto them.

Gene.17,12. Iohn 7.22. Leuit.12.3.

21 ¶ *And when the eight dayes were accomplished, that they should circumcise the childe, his name was then called *IESVS, which was named of the Angel, before hee was conceiued in the wombe.

Matth.1.21. chap.1.31.

22 *And when the dayes of ‖ her purification after the Law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Ierusalem, to present him to the Lord, Leuit.12.6. ‖Or, their.

23 (As it is written in the Law of the Lord, *Euery man childe ‖ that [first] openeth the wombe, shall be called holy to the Lord:)

Exod.13.2. nom.8.16. ‖Or, that is first borne.

24 And to giue an oblation, *as it is commanded in the Lawe of the Lord, [i] a paire of turtle doues, or two yong pigeons.

Leuit.12.6. i Which offering was appointed to the which were so poore that they were not able to offer a lambe.

25 And beholde, there was a man in Ierusalem, whose name was Simeon: this man [was] iust, & feared God, and waited for the consolation of Israel, and the [k] holy Ghost was vpon him.

k The spirit of prophesie.

26 And a reuelation was giuen him of the holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before hee had seene the Lordes ‖ Christ.

‖Or, Messias.

27 And he came [l] by [the motion] of the Spirit into the Temple, and when the parents brought in the childe Iesus, to doe for him after the custome of the Lawe, l Ebr. Greeke, in the Spirit.

28 Then he tooke him in his armes, and praysed God, and sayd,

29 Lord, [m] nowe lettest thou thy seruant depart in peace, according to thy worde:

m Simeon declareth himselfe to die willingly since he hath seene the Sauiour which was promised.

30 For mine eyes haue seene thy [n] saluation, n The meane and substance of saluation, ‖Or, for thereuelation of.

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people:

32 A light ‖ to be reuealed to the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Ioseph and his mother marueiled at those things, which were spoken touching him.

34 And Simeon [o] blessed them, & said vnto Marie his mother, Beholde, this [childe] is appointed for the [p] fall and rising againe of many in Israel, and for a signe which shall be spoken against, o That is, prayed to God for them, and for the prosperitie of Christes kingdome.

p To be the fall of the reprobate which perish through their owne default, & rayling vp of the elect to whom God giueth faith; Isa.8.14. rom. 9.32.1.pet.2.8.

35 (Yea and a [q] sworde shall pearce through thy soule) that the [r] thoughtes of many hearts may be opened.

q That is, sorowes should pearce her heart as a sworde.

r This chiefly appeareth why the crosse is laide vpon vs, whereby mens hearts are tryed.

36 And there was a Prophetisse, one Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser, which was of a great age, and had [s] liued with an husband seuen yeeres from her virginitie.

s She was seuen yeeres maried.

37 And she [was] widow about foure score and foure yeres, and went [t] not out of the Temple, but serued [God] with fastings and prayers, night and day.

t She was continually in the Temple, ‖Or, prailed.

38 She then comming at the same instant vpon them, ‖ confessed likewise the Lord, and spake of him to all that looked for redemption in Ierusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the Lawe of the Lord, they returned into Galile to their owne citie Nazaret.

40 And the childe grewe, and waxed strong in Spirit, and was filled with wisedome, and the grace of God was with him.

41 ¶ Nowe his parents went to Ierusalem euery yeere, *at the feast of the Passeouer.

Deut.16.1.

42 And when he was twelue yeere olde, and they were come vp to Ierusalem, after the custome of the feast,

43 And had finished the dayes [thereof,] as they returned, the child Iesus remained in Ierusalem, & Ioseph knewe not nor his mother,

44 But they supposing, that he had bene bene in the company, went a dayes iourney, and sought him among [their] kinsfolke, and acquaintance.

45 And when they founde him not, they turned backe to Ierusalem, and sought him.

46 And it came to passe three dayes after, that they found him in the Temple, sitting in the middes of the ‖doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

‖Or, learned men.

47 And all that heard him, were astonied at his understanding, & answeres.

48 So when they sawe him, they were amased, and his mother sayd vnto him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with vs: behold, thy father and I haue sought thee with heauie hearts.

49 Then sayd he vnto them, How is it that ye sought me? knewe ye not that I must go about my Fathers busines?

t Our duetie to God is to be preferred before father and mother.

50 But they [u] vnderstoode not the worde that he spake to them.

u For his vocation was not yet manifestly knowen.

51 Then he went downe with them, and came to Nazaret, and was subiect to them: and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Iesus increased in wisedome, and stature, and in fauour with God and men.

CHAP. III.

3 The preaching, baptisme, and pvnishment of Iohn. 15 He is thought to be Christ. 21 Christ is baptized. 23 His age, and genealogie.

NOwe in the fifteenth yeere of [y] reigne of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being gouernour of Iudea, and [a] Herode being Tetrarch of Galile, and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Iturea, and of the countrey of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the Tetrarch of Abilene, a This was the sonne of Herode called the great. Actes 4.6.

2 (*when Annas & Caiaphas were the hie [b] Priests) the worde of God came vnto Iohn, the sonne of Zacharias in the wildernes.

b There could be by Gods lawe but one sacrificer at once: but because of the troubles that then reigned, the office was so mangled by reason of ambition & hyberie, that both Caiaphas and Annas his father in lawe had it deuided betweene them. Mat. 3.2. mark. 1.4. Isai. 40.3. iohn 1.23.

3 *And he came into all the coastes about Iordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance for the remission of sinnes,

4 As it is written in the booke of the sayings of Esaias the Prophet, which saith, *The voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernes [is,] Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

5 Euery [c] valley shalbe filled, & euery mountaine, and hill shall be brought lowe, and crooked things shall be made straight, and the rough wayes [shall be] made [smooth.

c All impediments shall be taken away, which should hinder the way of God, or of saluation, so that the way shall be plaine by Christ to leade vs vnto God.

6 And ‖all flesh shall see the [d] saluation of God.

‖Or, euery man.

d That is, the Messias shall be reuealed to ỹ world. Mat. 3.7.

7 Then sayd he to the people that were come out to be baptized of him, *‖O generations of vipers, who hath forewarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

‖Or, vipers broods.

8 Bring forth therefore fruites worthie amendement of life, and begin not to say with your selues, We haue Abraham to [our] father: for I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to raise vp children vnto Abraham.

9 Nowe also is the [e] axe laid vnto the roote of the trees: therefore euery tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, shal be hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

e The vengeance of God is at hand.

10 ¶ Then the people asked him, saying, what shall we doe then?

11 And he answered, and sayd vnto them, *He [f] that hath two coates, let him part with him that hath none: and he that hath meate, let him doe likewise.

James 2.15. 1. iohn 3.17.

f He willeth that the riche helpe the poore according to their necessitie.

12 Then came there [g] Publicanes also to be baptized, and sayde vnto him, Master, what shall we doe?

g Whole office was to receiue the tribute & tolles.

13 And he sayd vnto them, Require no more then that which is appointed vnto you.

14 The souldiers likewise demaunded of him, saying, And what shall we doe? And he sayd vnto them, Doe violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages.

15 As the people waited, and all men mused in their hearts of Iohn, if hee were not the Christ, 16 Iohn answered, and sayd to them all, *Indeede I [h] baptize you with water, but one stronger then I, commeth, whose shooes latchet I am not worthie to vnloose: he will baptize you with the holy Ghost, and [i] with fire.

Mat. 3.11. marke 1.8. iohn 1.26. act. 1.5. & 2.4. & 11.16. & 19.4.

h The dettue and force of baptisme standeth in Iesus Christ, & Iohn was but the minister thereof.

i That is, with a mightie and vehement spirit: whose vpperetie is to consume, and purge our filth as fire doeth the metalles.

17 *Whose fanne [is] in his hand, and he will make cleane his floore, and will gather the wheate into his garner, but the chaffe will he burne vp with fire that neuer shall be quenched.

Mat. 3.12. Mat. 13.3. marke 6.17.

18 Thus then exhorting with many other things, he preached vnto ỹ people.

19 *But when [k] Herode the Tetrarch was rebuked of him, for Herodias his brother Philips wife, & for all the euils which Herode had done, k Named Antipas. Mat. 3.13. mar. 1.9. iohn 1.32.

20 He added yet this aboue all, that he shut vp Iohn in prison.

21 *Nowe it came to passe, as all the people were baptized, and that Iesus was baptized & did pray, that the heauen was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost came downe in a bodily shape like a doue, vpon him, and there was a voyce from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued Sonne: in thee I am well pleased.

23 ¶ And Jesus himselfe began to be about thirtie yeres of age, being as men supposed the sonne of [1] Joseph, [which was the sonne of Eli,

24 [The sonne] of Matthat, [the sonne] of Leui, [ꝑ sonne] of Melchi, [the sonne] of Janna, [the sonne] of Joseph,

25 [The sonne] of Mattathias, [the sonne] of Amos, [the sonne] of Naum, [the sonne] of Esli, [the sonne] of Nagge,

26 [The sonne] of Maath, [the sonne] of Mattathias, [the sonne] of Semei, [the sonne] of ‖ Joseph, [the sonne] of Juda,

27 [The sonne] of Joanna, [ꝑ sonne] of Rhesa, [the sonne] of Zorobabel, [the sonne] of Salathiel, [the sonne] of Neri, 28 [The sonne] of Melchi, [the sonne] of Addi, [ꝑ sonne] of Cosam, [the sonne] of Elmodam, [the sonne] of Er,

29 ¶ [The sonne] of ‖ Jose, [the sonne] of Eliezer, [the sonne] of Jorim, [the sonne] of ‖ Matthat, [the sonne] of Leui, 30 [The sonne] of Simeon, [ꝑ sonne] of Juda, [the sonne] of Joseph, [the sonne] of Jonan, [the sonne] of Eliacim.

31 [The sonne] of Melea, [the sonne] of ‖ Mainan, [the sonne] of Mattatha, [the sonne] of Nathan, [the sonne] of Dauid, 32 [The sonne] of Jesse, [the sonne] of Obed, [the sonne] of Booz, [the sonne] of Salmon, [the sonne] of Naasson, 33 [The sonne] of Aminadab, [the sonne] of Aram, [the sonne] of Esrom, [the sonne] of Phares, [the sonne] of Juda, 34 [The sonne] of Jacob, [the sonne] of Isaac, [the sonne] of Abraham, [the sonne] of Thara, [the sonne] of Nachor, 35 [The sonne] of Saruch, [the sonne] of Ragau, [the sonne] of Phalec, [the sonne] of Eber, [the sonne] of Sala, 36 [The sonne] of Cainan, [the sonne] of Arpharad, [the sonne] of Sem, [the sonne] of Noe, [the sonne] of Lamech, 37 [The sonne] of Mathusala, [the sonne] of Enoch, [the sonne] of Jared, [the sonne] of Maleleel, [the sonne] of Cainan, 38 [The sonne] of Enos, [the sonne] of Seth, [ꝑ sonne] of Adam, [the sonne] [m] of God.

[1] Luke ascendeth from the last father to the first, and Matthewe descendeth from the first to the last. Matthewe extendeth not his rehearsall further then to Abraham, which is for the affiliance of ꝑ promise for the Jewes. Luke refereth it euen to Adam, whereby the Gentiles also are assured of the promise, because they came of Adam, and are restored in the second Adam: Matthewe counteth by the legal discent, and Luke by the naturall: finally both two speaking of the same persons applie vnto them diuers names.

Or, Iosech.
Or, Iesus.
Or, Matcha.
Or, Menna.

m Not that Adam was the sonne of God by generation, but by creation, in the which sence, God also calleth him selfe Father, Deut. 32.6, 18, 19.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Jesus is led into the wilderness to be tempted. 13 He ouercommeth the deuill. 14 He goeth into Galile, 16 preacheth at Nazaret, and Capernaum. 22 The Jewes despise him. 38 He commeth into Peters house, and healeth his mother in lawe. 41 The deuils acknowledge Christ. 43 He preacheth through the cities.

AND Jesus full of the holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wildernes, Matt. 4.1, mar. 1.12.

2 *And was [there] fourtie dayes tempted of the deuill, and in those dayes [a] he did eate nothing: but when they were ended, he afterward was hungry.

2 This fast was miraculous, to confirme the Gospel, and ought no more of men to be followed then the other miracles that Christ did. Deut. 8.3. matth. 4.4.

3 Then the deuill sayd vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, commaunde this stone that it be made bread.

b That is, by the ordinance and prouidence of God, ‡ Greeke in a moment of time.

4 But Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, *That man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery [b] worde of God.

5 Then the deuill tooke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the worlde, ‡ in the twinkeling of an eye.

c Satan professeth that, which he can not giue, thinking thereby that he might perceiue the more craftily: for he is but prince of the world by permission, & hath his power limited.

6 And the deuill sayd vnto him, All this power will I [c] giue thee, and the glorie of those [kingdomes:] for that is deliuered to me: and to whome so euer I will, I giue it,

‖ Or, fall down before me.

7 If thou therefore wilt ‖ worship me, they shall be all thine.

8 But Jesus answered him, and said, ‡ Hence from me, Satan: for it is written, *Thou shalt worship the Lord thy [d] God, and him alone thou shalt serue.

‡ Greeke, goe behinde me. Deut. 6.13. and 10.20.

d Christ sheweth that all creatures ought onely to worship and serue God.

9 Then he brought him to [e] Jerusalem, & set him on a pinacle of the Temple, and sayd vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence, e This declareth howe hard it is to resist the temptations of Satan: for he giueth not ouer for thrise or thrise putting backe.

10 For it is written, *That he will giue his Angels charge ouer thee to keepe thee:

Psal. 91.11, 12, Deut. 6.16.

11 And with [their] hands they shall lift thee vp, least at any time thou dash thy foote against a stone.

12 And Jesus answered, and said vnto him, It is sayde, *Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

f It is not ynough, thrise or thrise to resist Satan: for he neuer ceaseth to tempt: or if he relent

13 And when the deuill had ended all the tentation, he departed from him [f] for a season.

14 ¶ And Jesus returned by ꝑ power a little, it is to the end that he may renue his force and assaile vs more sharpely.

of

of the Spirite into Galile: and there went a fame of him throughout all the region round about.

15 For hee taught in their Synagogues, and was honoured of all men.

Matth.13.54. marke 6.1. 1.chro.4.43.

16 *And he came to Nazaret where he had bene brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stoode vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Esaias: and when he had opened the booke, he found the place, where it was written,

Isa.61.1.

18 *The Spirit of the Lord [is] vpon me, because he hath [f] anointed me, that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: he hath sent me, that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preache deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blinde, that I should set at libertie them that are bruised, f That is, endued with graces.

19 And that I should preach the [h] acceptable yere of the Lord.

h He alludeth to the yere of Jubile, which is mentioned in the Lawe, whereby this great deliuerance was figured.

20 And he closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sate downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then hee began to say vnto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

i They approued and commended whatsoeuer he said.

22 And all [i] bare him witnesse, and wondered at þ gracious wordes, which proceeded out of his mouth, and said, Is not this Josephs sonne?

23 Then he saide vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto me this prouerbe, Physicion, [k] heale thy selfe: whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

k Bestow thy benefites vpon them, which appertaine moze vnto thee.

24 And he saide, Verely I say vnto you, * No [l] Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

John 4.44. l Their infidelitie staied Christ from working miracles.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of *Elias, when heauen was shut three yeeres and sire moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land,

1.King.17.9. iames 5.17.

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue vnto Sarepta, [a citie of] Sidon, vnto [m] a certaine widow.

m He sheweth by examples, that God oft times preferreth the strangers to them of the household.

27 Also many lepers were in Israel, in the time of *Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

2.King.5.14. n Because they perceiued that the grace of God should be taken from them and giuen to others.

28 Then all [that were] in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were [n] filled with wrath, 29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the citie, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their citie was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But he passed [o] through the mids of them, and went his way, o And escaped miraculously out of their handes: for his houre was not yet come.

31 ¶ *And came downe into Capernaum a citie of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

Matth.4.13. marke 1.21.

32 * And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his worde was with [p] authoritie.

Matth.7.29. marke 1.22. p Full of dignitie and maiestie, which touched the heart of the auditours and caused them to beare reuerence to his wordes.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a [q] spirit of an vncleane deuil, which cryed with a loude voyce, q That is, the motion of the deuil, or that was tormented with a bery deuill.

34 Saying, Oh, What haue we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazaret? art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe who thou art, [euen] the Holy one of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Holde thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes [of them,] came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselues, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power hee commaundeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spred abroade throughout all the places of the countrie round about.

38 ¶ *And he rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house. And Simons wiues mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

Matth.8.14. marke 1.30.

39 Then he stood ouer her, & rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediately she arose, and ministred vnto them.

40 Now when þ sunne was downe, all they that had sicke [folkes] of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and he layed his handes on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 *And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, [r] Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but he rebuked them, and suffred them not to say that they knew him to be the Christ.

Marke 1.34. r The deuils are constrained to confesse Christ to be the Sonne of God, and yet it doth nothing auaile them, because it commeth not of faith.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went forth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that he should not depart from them.

43 But he said vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdome of God to other cities: for therefore am I sent.

44 And hee preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ preacheth out of the shippe. 6 The great draught of fishe. 10 Certaine disciples are called. 12 He cleanseth the Leper. 18 He healeth the man of the palsie. 27 He calleth Matthewe the customer, 30 Eateth with sinners, 34 And excuseth his, as touching fasting.

Matth.4.18. marke 1.16.

THen * it came to passe, as the people preassed vpon him to heare the worde of God, that he stoode by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And sawe two shippes stand by the lake side, but y fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And [a] he entred into one of the shippes, which was Simons, and required him that he would thrust off a litle from the land: and he sate downe, and taught the people out of the shippe.

4 ¶ Now when he had left speaking, he saide vnto Simon, Launche out into the deepe, and let downe your nets to make a draught.

5 Then Simon answered, and saide vnto him, [b] Master, We haue trauailed all night, & haue taken nothing: neuertheleste at thy [c] word I will let downe the net.

6 And when they had so done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, so that their net brake.

7 And they beckened to their parteners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and helpe them, Who came then, and filled both the ships, that they did [d] sinke.

8 Now when Simon Peter saw it, he fell downe at Jesus knees, saying, Lord, go from me: for I am a sinfull man.

9 For he [e] was vtterly astomed, and all that were with him, for the draught of fishes which they tooke.

10 And so was also James and John the sonnes of Zebedeus, which were companions with Simon. Then Jesus saide vnto Simon, Feare not: from [f] henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought the shippes to lande, they forsooke all, and followed him.

12 ¶ * Nowe it came to passe, as hee was in a certaine citie, beholde, [there was] a man full of leprosie, and when he sawe Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lorde, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 So he stretched forth his hande, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou cleane. And immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he commaunded him that he should tell it no man: but Go, [saith he,] and shewe thy selfe to the [g] Priest, and offer for thy clensing, as * Moses hath commanded, for a Witnesse vnto them.

15 But so much more went there a fame abroade of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But hee kept himselfe apart in the wildernesse, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, on a certaine day, as he was teaching, that the Pharises and doctours of the Lawe sate by, which were come out of euery towne of Galile, and Judea, and Jerusalem, and the power of the Lorde was [in him] to heale them.

18 * Then beholde, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palsie, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

Matth.9.2. marke 2.3.

19 And when they coulde not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the preasse, they went vp on the house, and let him downe through the tiling, bed & all, in the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he sawe their faith, he saide vnto him, Man, thy [h] sinnes are forgiuen thee.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharises began to thinke, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgiue sinnes, but God onely?

22 But when Jesus perceiued their thoughtes, he answered, and saide vnto them, What thinke ye in your heartes?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy [i] sinnes are forgiuen thee, or to say, Rise and walke?

24 But that ye may knowe that the Sonne of man hath authoritie to forgiue sinnes in earth (he saide vnto the sicke of the palsie) I say to thee, arise: take vp thy bed, and go to thine house.

25 And immediatly he rose vp before them, and tooke vp [his bed] whereon he lay, and departed to his owne house, praysing God.

26 And they were all amased, and praised God, and were filled with feare, saying, Doutlesse we haue seene ‖ strange things to day.

27 ¶ * And after that, he went forth and sawe a Publicane named ‖ Leui, sitting at the receite of custome, and saide vnto him, Followe me.

28 And hee left all, rose vp, and followed him.

29 Then

a To the intent that he might not be thronged of the preasse, and also that he might the better be heard.

b The word signifieth him that is made ruler ouer any thing.

c He sheweth his prompt obedience to Christs commandement.

d They were so laden that they almost sunke.

e The feeling of Gods presence maketh afraide.

f He appointeth him to the office of an Apostle.

Matth.8.2. marke 1.40.

g Hereby he shewed them that he would not transgresse the Lawe, and that they should be inexcuseable, who seeing the miracle wrought, would not beleeue Christ. Leuit.14.4.

h Christ toucheth the principall cause of all our euils.

i So much as his diuinitie was sufficiently shewed by this miracle, he gaue them hereby to vnderstand that he had power to forgiue sinnes.

‖ Or, aboue our expectation. Matth.9.9. marke 2.14.

‖ Or, Matthew.

29 Then Leui made him a great feast in his owne house, where there was a great company of Publicanes, and of other that sate at table with them.

30 But they that were Scribes and Pharises among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eate ye and drinke ye with Publicanes and sinners?

31 Then Iesus answered, and saide vnto them, They that are whole, neede not the Physitiō, but they that are sicke.

32 *I came not to call the [k] righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ *Then they said vnto him, Why do the disciples of Iohn fast often, and ‡ pray, and the [disciples] of the Pharises also, but thine eate, and drinke?

34 And hee saide vnto them, Can ye make the [l] children of ỹ Wedding chamber to faste, as long as the bridegrome is with them?

35 But the dayes will come, euen when the bridegrome shall be taken away from them: then shall they faste in those dayes.

36 Againe hee spake also vnto them a parable, No man putteth a piece of a newe garment into an olde vesture: for then the newe renteth it, and the piece [taken] out of the new, agreeth not with the olde.

37 [m] Also no man powreth newe Wine into olde vessels: for then the newe Wine will breake the vessels, and it will runne out, and the vessels will perish.

38 But new Wine must be powred into newe vessels: so both are preserued.

39 Also no man that [n] drinketh olde wine, straight way desireth newe: for he saith, the olde is better.

CHAP. VI.

3 Christ standeth in his disciples defence and his owne, as touching the breach of the Sabbath. 12 After watching and prayer he electeth his Apostles. 18 He healeth & teacheth the people. 20 He theweth who are blessed, 27 To loue our enemies, 37 Not to iudge rashly, 41 And to auoide hypocrisie.

AND * it came to passe on the second [a] Sabbath, [after] the first, that he went through the corne fieldes, and his disciples plucked the eares of corne, and did eate, and rubbe them in [their] hands.

2 And certaine of the Pharises saide vnto them, Why do ye that which is not lawfull to do on the Sabbath dayes?

3 Then Iesus answered them, and said, * Haue ye not read this, that Dauid did when he himselfe was an hungred, and they which were with him,

4 Howe hee went into the house of God, and tooke, and ate the shew bread, and gaue also to them which were with him, which was not lawfull to eate, but for the *Priestes onely?

5 And he said vnto them, The Sonne of man is [b] Lord also of ỹ Sabbath day.

6 ¶ *It came to passe also on another Sabbath, that he entred into the Synagogue & taught, and there was a man, whose right hand was dryed vp.

7 And the Scribes and Pharises watched him, whether he would heale on the Sabbath [day,] that they might finde an accusation [against] him.

8 But he knew their thoughtes, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, and stand vp in the middes. And he arose, and stoode vp.

9 Then said Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath dayes to do good, or to do euill? to saue ‖ life, or to destroy it?

10 And hee beheld them all in compasse, and saide vnto the man, Stretch forth thine hande. And he did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnesse, and communed one with another, What they might do to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went into a mountaine to pray, & spent the night in prayer to God.

13 *And when it was day, he called his disciples, and of them he chose [c] twelue, which also he called [d] Apostles.

14 (Simon whom he named also Peter, and Andrewe his brother, Iames and Iohn, Philippe, and Bartlemewe:

15 Matthewe, and Thomas: Iames [the sonne] of Alpheus, and Simon called Zelous:

16 Iudas Iames [brother,] & Iudas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then he came downe with them, and stoode in a ‖ plaine place, with the companie of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea, and Ierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyrus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ *And he lifted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and saide, Blessed [be] ye

1.Tim.1.15. k Which seeme to be righteous and yet are but hypocrites. Matth.9.14. marke 2.18. ‡Greeke, make prayers.

l The friendes and familiars of Christ: and hereby Iesus Christ declareth that he will not burden his, before that he hath made them able to beare.

m Reade, Matth.9.17.

n He admonisheth them not to trust too much to their owne sense or iudgement: no, because they haue accustomed them selues to one thing, to condemne another which is better.

Matth.12.1. marke 2.23. a Those feasts which conteined many dayes as the Passeouer, and the feast of Tabernacles, had two Sabbaths: the first day of the feast and the last.

1.Sam.21.6.

Exod.29.33. leuit.8.31. and 24.9. b Hauing power to dispence with, and qualifie the keeping of the Sabbath and other ceremonies. Matth.12.9. marke 3.1.

‖ Or, a person.

Matth.10.1. marke 3.13. and 6.7. chap. 9.1. c According to the similitude of the twelue Patriarkes, of whome the Church of God is sprong. d Ambassadours or messengers whom he had elected before, but now inioyneth them their charge. ‖ Or, champion.

Matth.5.3.

c They that are humble and submit themselues willingly to obey God, Iaa.65.13. Iaa.61.3.

poore: for yours is ᵖ kingdome of God.
21 *Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be satisfied: blessed [are] ye that *weepe now: for ye shall laugh.
22 *Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when ᶜ they separate you, and reuile [you,] and put out your name as euill, for the Sonne of mans sake.
23 Reioyce ye in that day, ᵠ be glad: for behold, your reward [is] great in heauen: for after this maner their fathers did to the Prophets.
24 *But woe [be] to you [ᵖ are] ʳ rich: for ye haue receiued your consolation.
25 *Woe [be] to you that are full: for ye shall hunger. Woe [be] to you that now laugh: for ye shall waile and weepe.
26 Woe [bee] to you when all ˢ men speake well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.
27 ¶ *But I say vnto you which heare, Loue your enemies: doe well to them which hate you.
28 Bleste them that curse you, and pray for them which hurt you.
29 *And vnto him that ᵗ smiteth thee on the [one] cheeke, offer also the other: *and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not [to take thy] coate also.
30 Giue to euery man that asketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy [goods,] ᵘ aske them not againe.
31 *And as ye would that men should do to you, so do ye to them likewise.
32 *For if ye loue them which loue you, what thanke shall ye haue: for euen the ˣ sinners loue those that loue them.
33 And if ye do good for them which doe good for you, what thanke shall ye haue: for euen the sinners do the same.
34 *And if ye lend to [them] of whom ye hope to receiue, what thanke shall ye haue: for euen the sinners lende to sinners, to receiue the like.
35 Wherefore loue ye your enemies, and do good, and lende, ᵒ looking for nothing againe, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of *the most high: for he is kinde vnto the vnkinde, and to the euill.
36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.
37 ¶ *Iudge not, and ye shall not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgiue, and ye shalbe forgiuen.
38 Giue, and it shalbe giuen vnto you: *a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together and running ouer shall men giue into your bosome: for with what measure ye mete, with ᵖ same shall men mete to you againe.
39 And he spake a parable vnto them, *Can the blinde leade the blinde? shall they not both fall into the ditch?
40 *The disciple is not aboue his master: but whosoeuer [willbe] a perfite disciple, shall be as his master.
41 ¶ *And why ᵖ seest thou a mote in thy brothers eye, and considerest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?
42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let mee pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seest not the beame that is in thine owne eye? Hypocrite, cast out ᵖ beame out of thine owne eye first, and then shalt thou see perfitely, to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.
43 ¶ *For it is not a good tree that bringeth forth euill fruit: neither an euill tree, that bringeth forth good fruite.
44 *For euery tree is knowen by his owne fruite: *for neither of thornes gather men figges, nor of bushes gather they grapes.
45 A ᵠ good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth good, and an euill man out of the euill treasure of his heart bringeth forth euill: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.
46 ¶ *But why call ye me ʳ Master, master, and doe not the things that I speake?
47 Whosoeuer commeth to me, and heareth my wordes, and doth the same, I will shewe you to whome he is like.
48 Hee is like a man which built an house, and digged deepe, and layde the foundation on a rocke: and when the waters arose, the flood beat vpon that house, and could not shake it: for it was grounded vpon a rocke.
49 But he that heareth and doth not, is like a man that built an house vpon the earth without foundation, against which the flood did beat, & it fell by and by: and the fall of that house was great.

Matth.7.2. marke 4.24.
Matth.15.14.
Matt.10.24. iohn 13.16. and 15.20.
Matth.7.3.
Matth.7.17.
Matth.12.33. Matth.7.16.
Matth.7.21. rom.2.13. iames 1.22.

CHAP. VII.

2 He healeth the captaines seruant. 11 He rayseth vp the widowes sonne from death to life. 19 He answereth the disciples whome Iohn Baptist sent vnto him. 24 He commendeth Iohn. 31 And reproueth the Iewes for their vnfaithfulnesse. 36 He eateth with the Pharise. 37 The woman washeth his feete with her teares, and he forgiueth her sinnes.

When

Matt.5.46. n They are commonly called sinners, which are of a wicked life, and without all feare of God. Mat.5.42.deut.15.8. o Not onely not hoping for profite, but to lose the stocke and principal, for as much as Christ bindeth himselfe to repay the whole with a most liberal interest. Matth.5.45. Matth.7.1.

p He reproueth the hypocrisie of such as winke at their owne horrible faultes, and yet are too curious to spie out the least faule in their brother.

q The name and title are nothing worth to proue that a man is sent of God, except in effect he shewe the same.

r He speaketh not onely to the false prophets, but to all false pastors, hirelings and hypocrites.

Mat. 8. 5.

WHen* he had ended al his sayings in the audience of ỹ people, hee entred into Capernaum.

2 And a certaine [a] Centurions seruant was sicke and readie to die, which was deare vnto him.

a It might be, that this captaine did lie with his garrison in Capernaum.

3 And when hee heard of Iesus, hee sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that he would come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying that hee was worthie ỹ he should do this for him.

5 For he loueth, [sayd they,] our nation, and he hath built vs a [b] Synagogue.

b In building them a Temple for their assemblies, he shewed his zeale towards the true seruice of God.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when hee was nowe not farre from the house, ỹ Centurion sent friends to him, [c] saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthie that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

c The friends speake to Iesus in the captaines name.

7 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthie to come vnto thee: but [d] say the worde, and my seruant shalbe whole.

d Or, cõmand by a worde onely that it be.

8 For I likewise am a man set vnder authoritie, & haue vnder me souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another Come, and he commeth: and to my seruant, Doe this, and hee doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, he marueiled at him, and turned him, and sayd to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great fayth, no not in Israel.

e He cõmendeth this heathen captaine because he assureth himselfe vpon Christes worde alone.

10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they founde the seruant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that hee went into a citie called [f] Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

f Which was a towne of Galile in the tribe of Issachar not farre from Tiberias.

12 Nowe when he came neere to the gate of ỹ citie, beholde, there was a dead man caried out, [who was] the only begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widowe, and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lorde sawe her, hee had compassion on her, and sayde vnto her, Weepe not.

‖Or, biere.

14 And he went and touched the ‖ cofin, (and they that bare him, stoode still) and hee saide, [g] Yong man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

g Christ calleth those things that are not, as if they were, and giueth life to them that be dead.

15 And he that was dead, sate vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, & they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is rayled vp among vs, & God hath [h] visited his people.

h That is, to establish, and restore them.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou [i] hee that shoulde come, or shall wee waite for an other?

i To wit, the Messias, and redeemer.

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they saide, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou hee that shoulde come, or shall we waite for an other?

21 And at that time he cured many of their sicknesses, and plagues, & of euill spirits, and vnto many blinde men hee gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Go your wayes & shewe Iohn [k] what things ye haue seene and heard: that the blinde see, the halt goe, the Lepers are cleansed, ỹ deafe heare, the dead rise againe, [and] the ‖ poore receiue the Gospell.

k He declareth by the vertues, and power that were in him, that he was the Christ.

‖ Such as feele their owne miserie, and wretchednes.

‖ Or, the Gospel is preached to the poore.

23 And blessed is hee, that shall not be [m] offended in me.

m That shall persuere and not thinke backe for any thing that can come vnto them.

24 And when ỹ messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people, of Iohn, what went ye out into the wildernes to see? A [n] reede shaken with the winde?

n Reade Mat. 11. 7.

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? beholde, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and liue delicately, are in kings courtes.

Mat. 3. 1. 3. ‖ Or, Angel. ‖ Or, borne.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater then a Prophet.

o They prayed him as iust, faithfull, good & mercifull, so that the fruite of their baptisme appeared in them.

27 This is he of whom it is written, *Beholde, I send my ‖ messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

p This worde comprehendeth the whole doctrine that Iohn taught.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are ‖ begotten of women: neuertheles, he that is the least in the kingdome of God, is greater then he.

q Meaning, to their owne condemnation, or as some reade, with them selues, because they durst not openly speake against Iohns doctrine: for they feared the people. Mat. 21. 46.

29 Then all the people that heard, and the Publicanes [o] iustified God, being baptized with ỹ [p] baptisme of Iohn.

30 But the Pharises and the expounders of the Lawe despised the counsel of God [q] against themselues, and [were] not not baptized of him.

Mat.11.16. 31 *And the Lorde sayde, whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation: and what [thing] are they like vnto?

32 They are like vnto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, r We haue piped vnto you, & ye haue not daunced: We haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

r The songs of licle children are sufficiente to condemne the Iewes and such like.

33 For Iohn Baptist came, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hath the deuill.

s Liueth according to the facion of other men.

34 The Sonne of man is come, and seateth and drinketh: and ye say, Beholde, a man [which is] a glutton, and a drinker of wine, a friend of Publicans and sinners.

t He sheweth that the wicked, although they turne frō God, hall nothing hinder the elect to continue in the fayth of the Gospel.

35 But wisedome is t iustified of all her children.

Mark.14.3. 36 ¶ And one of the Pharises desired him that he would eate with him: and he went into the Pharises house, and sate downe at table.

37 And beholde, a woman in the citie, which was a sinner, whē she knew that Iesus sate at table in ỹ Pharises house, she brought a boxe of oyntment.

Marke 15.40. iohn 11,2. 38 *And she stoode at his feete behind him weeping, and began to wash his feete with teares, & did wipe them with the heares of her head, and kissed his feete, and anointed them with the oyntment.

39 Nowe when the Pharise which bade him, sawe it, he spake within himselfe, saying, If this man were a Prophet, hee would surely haue knowne who, & what maner of woman this is which toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Simō, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he saide, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two detters: the one ought fiue hundreth pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgaue them both. Which of thē therefore, tell [me,] Will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and sayde, I suppose that he, to whome hee forgaue most. And he said vnto him, Thou hast truely iudged.

44 Then hee turned to the woman, and saide vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, and thou gauest me no water to my feete: but shee hath washed my feete with teares, and wiped them with the heares of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but she since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou didest not anoynt: but thee hath anoynted my feete with oyntment.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, many sinnes are forgiuen her: for shee u loued much. To whom a litle is forgiuen, hee doth loue a litle.

u This great loue is a signe that shee felt her selfe much bounde vnto Christ, who had forgiuen her so many sinnes.

48 And he said vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee.

49 And they that sate at table with him, began to say within themselues, Who is this that euen forgiueth sinnes?

x The peace of conscience commeth onely of fayth.

50 And he sayde to the woman, Thy fayth hath saued thee: go in x peace.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ with his Apostles go from towne to towne, & preach. 2 The women minister vnto them of their goodes. 5 Hee sheweth the parable of the sede. 21 telleth who is his mother and his brother. 24 Hee stilleth the raging of the lake. 27 Hee deliuereth the possessed. 33 The deuils enter into the heard of swine. 41 Hee healeth the sicke woman, and Iairus daughter.

AND it came to passe afterward, that he himselfe went through euery citie & towne, preaching, and publishing the kingdome of God, and the twelue [were] with him.

2 And certaine women, which were healed of euill spirites, and infirmities, [as] *Marie which was called Magdalene, out of whom went seuen deuils, Marke 16.9.

3 And Ioanna the wife of Chuza Herodes steward, and Susanna, and many other which y ministred vnto ‖ him of their substance.

y Whereby they acknowledged the benefite which they had receiued of him, and also shewed their perceuerance, which proued their knowledge to be of God.

4 *Nowe when much people were gathered together, & were come to him out of all cities, he spake by a parable,

[Or, to them. Matth.13.3. marke 4.1,2.

5 A sower went out to sowe his seede, and as hee sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden vnder feete, and the foules of heauen deuoured it vp.

6 And some fell on the stones, & when it was sprong vp, it withered away, because it lacked moystnes.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprang vp with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell on good grounde, and sprang vp, and bare fruite, an hundreth folde. And as he sayd these things, he cryed, He that hath eares to z heare, let him heare.

z That is, to vnderstand and beleeue these things.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demaunding, what parable that was?

10 And he said, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secrets of the kingdome of God, but but to other in c parables, that when *they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not understand.

11 *The parable is this, The seede is the worde of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterward cometh the deuill, and taketh away the worde out of their hearts, lest they should beleeue, and be saued.

13 But they that are on p stones, [are they] which when they haue heard, receiue the worde with ioy: but they haue no rootes, which for a while d beleeue, but in the time of tentation go away.

14 And p which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and e after their departure are choked with cares and with riches, & voluptuous liuing, and bring forth no fruite.

15 But p [which fell] in good ground, are they which with an honest and good heart heare the worde, and keepe it, and bring forth fruite with patience.

16 ¶*No f man when he lighteth a candle, couereth it vnder a vessel, neither putteth it vnder the ‖table, but setteth it on a candlesticke, that they that enter in, may see the light.

17 *For nothing is secrete, that shall not be euident: neither any thing hid, that shall not be knowne, and come to light.

18 Take heede therefore howe yee heare: *for whosoeuer hath, to him shal be giuen: and whosoeuer hath not, from him shall be taken euen that, which g it seemeth that he hath.

19 ¶*Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come neere to him for the preasse.

20 And it was told him [by certaine] which sayd, Thy mother and thy ‖brethren stande without, & woulde see thee.

21 But he answered, & said vnto them, My mother, & my brethren are h these which heare the Word of God, and do it.

22 ¶*And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a ship with his disciples, and he said vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto p other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 And as they sayled, he fell i a sleepe, and there came downe a storme of wind on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in ieopardie.

24 Then they went to him, & awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. And hee arose, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: & they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then he sayd vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondred among themselues, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes and water, and they obey him?

26 ¶So they sayled vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile. Mat.8.28. mar.5.1.

27 And as he went out to land, there met him a certaine man out of the citie, which had a deuill long time, & ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when he sawe Jesus, he cried out, and fell downe before him, and with a loude voyce saide, What haue I to doe with thee, Jesus the Sonne of God, the most High? I beseeche thee k torment me not.

29 For he commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for ‖ oft times he had caught him: therefore hee was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but he brake the bandes, and was l caried of the deuill into wildernesses.)

30 Then Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, m Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they belought him, p he would not command them to go out into p n deepe.

32 And there was thereby, an heard of many swine, feeding on an hill, and the [deuils] besought him, that hee would suffer them to enter into them. So hee suffred them.

33 Then went the deuils out of p man, and entred into the swine: and the heard was caried with violente from a steepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the heardmen sawe what was done, they fled: & when they were departed, they told it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, & founde the man out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Jesus, clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afrayde.

36 They also which sawe it, told them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuill, was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about p Gadarenes, besought him, that he would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and c Which word is here taken for an obscure or darke saying. Ma.6.9. mat. 13.14. mar.4. 12. Joh 12.40. actes 28.26. rom.11.8. Mat.13.18. marke 4.13.

d That is, acknowledge, & consent to the word and also reuerence it.

e When they returne home to their affaires.

Chap.11.33. mat.5.15. mar.4.21.

f Christ warneth his to do good with their light which they haue receiued, and to set it forth before all mens faces. ‖Or, bed. Chap.12.2. mat.10.26. mar.4.22. Mat.13.12. & 25.29. mar.4.25. chap.19.24. 26.

g Both to him selfe, and to others. Mat.12.46. mar.3.31. ‖Or, kinsfolkes.

h The spirituall kindred is to be preferred to the carnall: and that all, for asmuch as thereby of many we are made one, confessing together one God, one faith, and one baptisme, louing God aboue all things, and our neighbours as our selues. Mat.8.23. mar.4.36.

i The worde signifieth a deepe or sound sleepe.

k Satan is tormented where Christ is present. ‖Or, many a day agone.

l The worde signifyeth to be inforced to violence, as an horse when he is spurred.

m A Legion, as writeth Vegetius, conteyned 6000. footemen, and 726 horsemen: but here it is taken for an vncertaine and infinite nomber.

n That is, so to depart, that they could do no harme: and this worde, chap.16.23. is called hell, where the deuils are chayned in the obscurite of darkenes, 2. Peter 2.4.

and he went into the ship, and returned.

38 Then the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

o Christ knew that he should better serue him being absent then with him.

39 ° Returne vnto thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached throughout all the p citie, what great things Jesus had done vnto him.

p This was his owne citie called Gadaris, which was in the countrey of Decapolis, and therefore Luke dissenteth not from Marke who writeth that he preached in Decapolis. Matth 9.18. mar.5.22.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Jesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they al waited for him.

41 ¶ * And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was the ruler of the q Synagogue, who fell downe at Jesus feete, and besought him that hee would come into his house.

q Of the congregation of the Iewes.

42 For he had but a daughter onely, about twelue yeeres of age, and she lay a dying (r as he went, the people throng-ged him.

43 And a woman hauing an issue of blood, twelue yeeres long, which had spent all her substance vpon physicions, and could not be healed of any:

44 When she came behind [him,] she touched the s hemme of his garment, & immediatly her issue of blood stanched.

r Being allured of the vertue and power of Jesus Christ, and not attributing any vertue to the garment.

45 Then Jesus sayde, Who is it that hath touched me? When euery man denied, Peter said and they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and treade on thee, and sayest thou, who hath touched me?

46 And Jesus saide, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman sawe that shee was not hid, shee came trembling, and fell downe before him, and tolde him before al the people, for what cause she had touched him, and howe she was healed immediatly.

48 And he saide vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy t faith hath made thee whole: go in peace.

t Christ doeth not impute vnto vs the weakenes of our faith, but doeth accept it, as though it were perfect.

49 While he yet spake, there came one from the ruler of ꝑ Synagogues house, which sayde to him, Thy daughter is dead: disease not the master.

50 When Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Feare not: beleeue onely, and she shall be made whole.

s Meaning, the ruler of the Synagogue.

51 And when he went into the house, he suffred no man to goe in with him, saue Peter, and James, and John, and the father and mother of the maide.

52 And all wept, and sorowed for her: but he sayde, Weepe not: for shee is not u dead, but sleepeth.

u Although she was verely dead: yet to Christ it was more easie to restore her to life, then it is for one man to wake another out of his sleepe.

53 And they laught him to scorne, knowing that she was dead.

54 So he x thrust them all out, & tooke her by the hand, & cried, saying, Maide, arise.

x He meaneth those which he founde in the house.

55 And her spirit came againe, and she rose straightway: and he commanded to giue her meate.

56 Then her parents were astonied: but hee commaunded them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

2 Hee sendeth out the twelue Apostles to preach. 7 Herode heareth tell of him. 12 Hee feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues, and two fishes. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 28 He transfigureth himselfe vpon the mount. 42 He deliuereth the possessed. 47 And teacheth his disciples to be lowly. 54 They desire vengeance, but he reproueth them.

THen * called he the twelue disciples together, and gaue them power and authoritie ouer all deuils, and to heale diseases.

Mat.10.1. mar.3.13, & 6.7.

2 * And hee sent them to preache the kingdome of God, and to cure the sicke.

Mat.10.7,8. mar.6.8.

3 And he said to them, * Take nothing to your iourney, neither ‖ staues, nor scrippe, neither bread, nor siluer, neither haue two coates.

a To the ende they might do their charge with greater diligence when they had nothing to let them.

4 And whatsoeuer house ye enter into, there abide, and b thence depart.

b Or, rodde.

5 And whosoeuer will not receiue you, when ye go out of that citie, * shake off the verie c dust from your feete for a testimonie against them.

b He willeth them not to tary long, but to preach from towne to towne.

c Which was a signe of detestation, and of the vengeance which was prepared for such contemners of Gods benefits which are vnworthie that one should receiue any thing at their hands.

Acts 13.51. chap.10.11.

Mat.14.1. mar.6.14.

6 And they went out, & went throughout euery towne preaching the Gospell, and healing euery where.

7 ¶ * Nowe Herode the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he douted, because that it was saide of some, that John was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of some, that one of the old Prophets was risen againe.

9 Then Herod said, John haue I beheaded: who then is this of whome I heare such things? and hee desired to see him.

Mat.6.30.

10 ¶ * And when the Apostles returned, they tolde him what great things they had done. * Then hee tooke them, and went aside into a solitarie place, [neere] to the citie called Bethsaida.

Mat.14.13. mar.6.32.

11 But when the people knewe it, they followed him: & he receiued thē, & spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had neede to be healed.

12 * And

Matth.14.15. mark.6.35. iohn 6.5.

12 *And when the day beganne to weare away, the twelue came, and said vnto him, Send the people away, that they may go into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate: for we are here in a desert place.

d Christ forsaketh not the that followe him, but sendeth them sufficient reliefe.

13 But he sayde vnto them, d Giue ye them to eate. And they said, We haue no mo but fiue loaues and two fishes, except we should go, and buy meate for all this people.

14 For they were about fiue thousand men. Then hee sayde to his disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a companie.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then hee tooke the fiue loaues, & the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and e blessed them, and brake, and gaue to the disciples, to set before the people.

e Iohn sayeth, he gaue thāks, Iohn, 6.11.

17 So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

Matth.16.13. mark.8.27.

18 ¶*And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he asked them, saying, Whome say the people that I am?

19 They answered, and sayd, Iohn Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen againe.

20 And he said vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and sayd, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned, and commanded them, that they should tell f that to no man, f For he knew best his conuenient time which was appointed for him to be manifested in.

22 Saying, *The Sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reiected of the Elders, and of the hie Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the third day rise againe.

Matth. 17. 22. mark. 8. 31.

Chap.14.27. mat.10.38.& 16.24.mark. 8.34.

23 ¶*And hee sayd to them all, If any man will come after me, let him denie himselfe, and take vp his crosse g daily, and followe me.

g For as one day followeth another, so doeth one crosse followe in the necks of another.

24 For whosoeuer will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

25 For what auantageth it a man, if he winne the whole worlde, and destroy himselfe, or lose himselfe?

Chap.17.33. mark.10.39.& 16.25.mark. 8.38.2.tim. 2.12.

26 *For whosoeuer shall be ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shal the Sonne of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his glory, and [in the glory] of the Father, and of the holy Angels.

27 *And I tell you of a suretie, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the h kingdome of God.

Matth. 16.28. mark.9.1.

h Established and enlarged by the preaching of the Gospel.

28 *And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he tooke Peter, and Iohn, and James, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

Matth.17.2. mark.9.2.

29 And as he prayed, the facion of his countenance was changed, and his garment [was] white and glistered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias, 31 Which appeared in glorie, and tolde of his i departing, which he should accomplish at Ierusalem.

i That is, what ysse he should haue and howe he should die.

32 But Peter & they that were with him, were heauy with sleepe, and when they awoke, they sawe his glorie, and the two men standing with him.

33 And it came to passe, as they departed from him, Peter sayd vnto Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs therefore make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wist not what he sayd.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloude, and k ouershadowed them, and they feared when they were entring into the cloude.

k For other wayes they had not bene able to comprehend his great maiestie.

35 *And there came a voyce out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued sonne, heare him.

Matth.3.17. mark.1.11.

36 And when the voyce was past, Iesus was found alone: and they kept it close, & tolde no man in l those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

l They conceled it till Christs resurrection, as Sarke witneth.

37 ¶And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from m mountaine, much people met him.

38 *And beholde, a man of the company cryed out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, beholde my sonne: for he is all that I haue.

Matth.17.14. mark.9.17.

39 And lo, a spirite taketh him, and suddenly he cryeth, and he teareth him, that he fometh, and with much paine departeth from him, when he hath bruised him.

40 Nowe I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Iesus answered, and sayd, n O generation faithles, and crooked, howe long nowe shall I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy sonne hither.

m Under the colour that his disciples could not heale the sicke man, he reproueth the, which woulde haue diminished his authoritie.

42 And whiles he was yet comming, the deuill rent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vncleane spirit, and healed the childe, and deliuered him to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mightie power of God: and while they all wondred at all thinges, which Jeſus did, he ſayd vnto his diſciples, 44 ‡Marke theſe wordes diligently: for it ſhall come to paſſe, that the Sonne of man ſhall be deliuered into the handes of men.

‡Greeke, put theſe wordes into your eares.

45 But they [n] vnderſtoode not that worde: for it was hid from them, [ſo] that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aſke him of that worde.

n They were ſo blinded with this opinion that Chriſt ſhould haue a temporal kingdome, that they wouldе not vnderſtand when he ſpake of his death. Matth.18.1. mar.9.33.34.

46 And [*] Then there arole a diſputation among them, which of them ſhould be the greateſt.

47 When Jeſus ſawe the thoughtes of their hearts, he tooke a little child, and ſet him by him, 48 And ſayd vnto them, Whoſoeuer receiueth this little childe in my Name, receiueth me: and whoſoeuer ſhall receiue me, receiueth him that ſent me: for he that is leaſt among you all, he ſhall be great.

Mark.9.38.

49 And [*] Iohn anſwered & ſayd, Maſter, we ſawe one caſting out deuils in thy Name, and we forbade him, becauſe he followeth [thee] not with vs.

50 Then Jeſus ſayd vnto him, Forbid ye [him] not: for hee that is not againſt vs, [o] is with vs.

o Foraſmuch as he letteth vs not, and God is glorified by his occaſion.

51 And it came to paſſe, When the [p] dayes were accompliſhed, that hee ſhould be receiued vp, he ſetled himſelfe fully to go to Jeruſalem, p Of his death whereby he was exalted.

52 And ſent meſſengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritanes, to prepare him [lodging.]

53 But they would not receiue him, becauſe his [q] behauiour was, [as] though he would go to Jeruſalem.

54 And when his diſciples, James and Iohn ſawe it, they ſayd, Lord, wilt thou that we commaund, that fire come downe from heauen, & conſume them, euen as [*] Elias did?

q Of face, or apparell: for they knewe he was a Iewe, & as touching the Samaritans opinion of the Temple, reade Iohn 4. 20. alſo they hared the Iewes becauſe they differed from them in religion.

2.King.1.10. r He reproueth their raſh and carnall affection, which were worſe then Elias ſpirit. Matth. 8.19.

55 But Jeſus turned about, and rebuked them, and ſayd, Ye knowe not of what ſpirit ye are.

56 For the Sonne of man is not come to deſtroy mens liues, but to ſaue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 And it came to paſſe that as they went in the way, [*] a certaine man ſayde vnto him, I will followe thee, Lord, whitherſoeuer thou goeſt.

58 And Jeſus ſayd vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birds of the heauen haue neſtes, but the Sonne of man hath not whereon to lay his head.

59 But he ſaid vnto another, Followe me. And the ſame ſayd, Lord, ſuffer me firſt to go and [t] burie my father.

60 And Jeſus ſayd vnto him, [u] Let the dead burie their dead: but goe thou and preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another ſayd, I will followe thee, Lord: but let me firſt go bid them farewel, which are at mine houſe.

62 And Jeſus ſayd vnto him, No man that putteth his hand to [y] plough, and [x] looketh backe, is apt to the kingdome of God.

f We muſt not followe Chriſt for riches and commodities, but prepare our ſelues to ſorowe & to the croſſe by his example.

t That is, till he be dead, & I haue done my duetie to him in burying him.

u We may not followe what ſeemeth beſt to vs, but onely Gods calling, and here by deadе he meaneth thoſe that are vnpoſſeſſable to ſerue God.

x To be hindred, or entangled with reſpect of any worldly commodite, or ſtayed to go forward for any paine, or trouble,

CHAP. X.

1 He ſendeth the ſeuentie before him to preach, and giueth them a charge howe to behaue themſelues. 13 He threatneth the obſtinate. 21 He giueth thankes to his heauenly Father. 25 He anſwereth the Scribe that tempted him. 33 And by the example of the Samaritane ſheweth who is a mans neighbour. 38 Martha receiueth the Lorde into her houſe. 40 Marie is ſeruent in hearing his worde.

Matth.10.1.

AFter [*] theſe things, the Lord appointed other ſeuentie alſo, and ſent them, two and two before him into euery citie and place, whither he himſelf ſhould come.

Matth.9.37. a Meaning a great number of people, which are ready to be brought vnto God.

2 And he ſaid vnto them, [*a] The harueſt [is] great, but the [b] labourers [are] fewe: pray therefore the Lorde of the harueſt to ſend forth labourers into his harueſt.

b That is, the preachers. Matth. 10.16.

3 Go your wayes: beholde, [*] I ſende you forth as lambes among [c] wolues.

c Not that they ſhall hurt you, but that ye ſhall be preſerued by my prouidence. 2.King.4.29.

4 Beare no bagge, neither ſcrip, nor ſhooes, [*] and [d] ſalute no man by the way.

d He willeth that they ſhuld diſpatch this iourney with diligence, noe occupying themſelues about other dueties. Matth.10.12. mark.6.10.

5 [*] And into whatſoeuer houſe ye enter, firſt ſay, [e] Peace [be] to this houſe.

e It was their maner of ſalutation, whereby they wiſhed health and felicitie.

6 And if the [f] ſonne of peace be there, your peace ſhall reſt vpon him: if not, it ſhall turne to you againe.

f Which loueth the doctrine of peace and the Goſpel.

7 And in that houſe tarie ſtill, eating and drinking ſuch thinges as by them [ſhall be ſet before you:] [*] for the labourer is worthie of his wages. Goe not from [g] houſe to houſe.

Deut. 24.14, 15. mat. 10.10. 1.tim.5.18.

g He woulde not that they ſhould tarie long in one towne, neither yet be carefull to change their lodging, but to receiue nouriſhment of them, for whom you trauaile.

8 But into whatſoeuer citie ye ſhall enter, if they receiue you, [h] eate ſuch things as are let before you,

h Doubt

9 And heale the ſicke that are there, and ſay vnto them, The kingdome of God is come neere vnto you.

10 But into whatſoeuer citie ye ſhall enter,

enter, if they will not receiue you, goe your wayes out into the streetes of the same, and say,

Mat.10.14. chap.9.5. actes 13.51. & 18.6.

11 Euen the very *dust, which cleaueth on vs of your citie, we wipe off against you: notwithstanding knowe this, that the i kingdome of God was come neere vnto you.

i God did present life vnto you by his messengers, and would haue reigned ouer you.

12 For I say to you, that it shall be easier in that day for them of Sodom, then for that citie.

Mat.11.21.

13 *Woe [be] to thee, Chorazin: woe [be] to thee, Beth-saida: for if the miracles had bene done in Tyrus and Sidon, which haue bene done in you, they had a great while agone repented, sitting k in sackecloth and ashes.

k Which were the signes of repentance.

14 Therefore it shalbe easier for Tyrus, l and Sidon, at the iudgement, then for you.

l The more benefites that God bestoweth vpon any people, the more vnworthy their ingratitude deserue to be punished.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heauen, shalt be thrust downe to hell.

Mat.10.40. Iohn 13.20.

16 C*He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 C And the seuentie turned againe with ioy, saying, Lorde, euen the deuils are subdued to vs through thy Name.

18 And he sayd vnto them, I sawe m Satan, like lightning, fall downe from heauen.

m The power of Satan is beaten downe by the preaching of the Gospel.

19 Beholde, I giue vnto you power to tread on serpents, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemie, and nothing shall hurt you.

20 Neuertheles, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heauen.

‖Or, in his minde.

21 C That same houre reioyced Iesus in ‖ the spirit, and said, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen & earth, that thou hast hid these things from the n wise and learned, and hast reuealed them to babes: euen so, Father, because it so pleased thee.

n He attributeth it to the free election of God, that the wise & worldlinges knowe not the Gospel and yet y poore base people vnderstand it.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are o giuen me of my Father: and p no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, saue the q Sonne, and he to whom the Sonne will reueale him.

o Christ is our onely meane to receiue Gods mercies by.

p Therefore we must esteeme him as the Fathers voyce hath taught vs, and not accoyding to mans iudgment.

23 C And hee returned to his disciples, and sayd secretly, *Blessed [are] the eyes, which see that ye see.

q In whom we see God as in his liuely image.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets & Kings haue desired to see those things which ye see, and haue not seene [them:] and to heare those things which ye heare, and haue not heard [them.]

Matth.13.16.

25 C*Then beholde, a certaine expounder of the Lawe stoode vp, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shal I doe, to inherite eternall life?

Mar.12.28.

26 And he sayde vnto him, What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

27 And he answered, & sayd, *Thou shalt loue the Lorde God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy strength, & with all thy thought, *and thy neighbour as thy selfe.

Deut.6.5. Leuit.19,18.

28 Then he sayde vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this doe, and thou shalt liue.

‖Or, to approue himselfe as iust.

29 But he willing to ‖ iustifie himselfe, sayde vnto Jesus, who r is then my neighbour?

r For they counted no man their neighbour, but their friend.

30 And Jesus answered, and sayd, A certaine man went downe from Jerusalem to Jericho, & fell among theeues, and they robbed him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by s chance there came downe a certaine t Priest that same way, and when he sawe him, he passed by on the other side.

s For so it seemed to mans iudgement, although this was so appointed by Gods counsell and prouidence.

t Deplorably noteth the great cruelties, which was among this people, and chiefly the gouernours.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when he was come nere to the place, went and looked [on him,] and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine u Samaritane, as he iourneyed, came neere vnto him, and when he sawe him, he had compassion on him, u This nation was odious to the Iewes.

34 And went to him, and bound vp his wounds, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and brought him to an Inne, and made prouision for him.

35 And on the morowe when he departed he tooke out x two pence, & gaue them to the hoste, and sayde vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompence thee.

x Which was about nine pence of ster. ling money.

36 Which nowe of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theeues?

37 And he sayd, He that shewed mercie on him. Then sayd Jesus vnto him, Go, y and doe thou likewise.

y Helpe him that hath need of thee although thou know him not.

38 C Nowe it came to passe as they went, that hee entred into a certaine towne, and a certaine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Marie, which also sate at Jesus feete, & heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was combred about much serving, and came to him, & sayd, Master, doest thou not care that my sister hath left me to serue alone? bid her therefore, that she helpe me.

41 And Jesus answered, & sayd vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou carest, and art troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needefull, Marie hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

z For the forgate the principall, which was to heare Gods worde.

a Je was not meete that she should haue bene drawen from so profitable a thing, whereunto she could not alwayes haue opportunitie.

CHAP. XI.

2 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 He driueth out a deuil, 15 And rebuketh the blasphemous Pharises. 28 He preferreth the spirituall consinage. 29 They require signes and tokens. 37 He eateth with the Pharise, and reproueth the hypocrisie of the Pharises, Scribes and hypocrites.

AND so it was, that as hee was praying in a certaine place, when he ceased, one of his disciples sayd vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

Matth.6.9.

2 *And he sayd vnto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, halowed be thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy Will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen:

a Or euery day, or all such as is sufficient for this day.

3 Our dayly bread giue vs a for the day:

4 And ‖ forgiue vs our sinnes: for euen we forgiue euery man that is indetted to vs: And leade vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

b By this similitude he teacheth vs that we ought not to be discouraged, if we obtaine not incontinently that which we demand.

‖ Or, in passing by the way.

5 ¶ Moreouer hee sayd vnto them, b Which of you shall haue a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lende me three loaues:

6 For a friend of mine is come ‖ out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him:

7 And he within should answere, and say, Trouble me not: the doore is nowe shut, & my children are with me in bed: I can not rise and giue them to thee.

‖ Or, impudencie.

8 I say vnto you, though he would not arise and giue him, because he is his friend, yet doutles because of his ‖ importunitie, he would rise, and giue him as many as he needed.

Mat.7.7. & 21.22. mar.11.24. iohn 14.13. & 16.23. iames 1.5.

9 *And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, & ye shall finde: knocke, and it shalbe opened vnto you.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

Matth.7.9.

11 *If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? or if [he aske] a fish, will he for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If ye then which are euill, can giue good gifts vnto your children, howe much more shall your heauenly Father giue c the holy Ghost to them, that desire him?

c The chiefest thing that we can desire of God, is his holy Spirit.

14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuil which was dumme: and when the deuill was gone out, the dumme spake, and the people wondred.

Matth.12.25. mar.3.24,25.

15 But some of them sayd, he casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

d That is to say, your conturers.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

e The finger of God is taken for the vertue & power of God. And the vertue of the Father and the Sonne is the holy Ghost: for so Matthew doeth interpret this place.

17 But he knew their thoughts, and sayd vnto them, *Euery kingdome deuided against it selfe, shall be desolate, and an house [deuided] against an house, falleth.

f The worde signifieth an entrie or porch before an house. Or, sastie.

18 So if Satan also be deuided against himselfe, how shall his kingdome stand, because ye say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whom doe your children cast them out? therefore shall they be your iudges.

g They that doe not wholy applie themselues to destroy the kingdome of Satan, can not be counted to be on Christs side, but are his aduersaries: how much more is he against him that maketh open warre with him as Satan doeth.

20 But if I by the e finger of God cast out deuils, doubtles the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

21 When a strong man armed, keepeth his f palace, the things that he possesseth, are in ‖ peace.

Matth.12.43.

22 But when a stronger then he, commeth vpon him, & ouercommeth him: he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and deuideth his spoyles.

h To the intent that he might worke according to his malicious nature.

23 He that is not g with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

i Woe apt to receiue him then it was afore.

24 *When the vncleane spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through drie places, seeking h rest: and when he findeth none, he saith, I will returne vnto mine house whence I came out.

25 And when he commeth, he findeth it swept and i garnished.

k If by inst[illegible] litie we turne backe from God, Satan hath greater power ouer vs then he had before.

26 Then k goeth he, and taketh to him i seuen other spirits worse then him selfe: and they enter in, and dwell there, *so the last state of that man is worse then the first.

l He meaneth an infinite nomber.

Heb.6.4,6. 2.peter 2.20.

27 ¶ And it came to passe as he sayd these things, a certaine woman of the compa[illegible]nie companie lifted vp her voyce, and saide vnto him, Blessed [is] the Wombe that bare thee, and the pappes which thou hast sucked.

m Christ gaue her a priuie taunt for that she omitted the chiefe praise which was due vnto him: that was, that they are blessed in deede to whom he communicateth himselfe by his word. Matth.12.38, 39. Ionas 1.17. 1.King.10.1. 2.chro.9.1.

28 But he saide, m Yea, rather blessed [are] they that heare the worde of God, and keepe it.

29 ¶ *And when the people were gathered thicke together, he began to say, This is a wicked generation: they seeke a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen them, but þ signe of *Ionas the prophet.

30 For as Ionas was a signe to the Ninuites, so shall also the Sonne of man be to this generation.

31 *The Queene of the South shall rise in iudgement with the men of this generation, and shall condemne them: for she came from the vtmost partes of the earth to heare the wisedome of Solomon, and beholde, a greater then Solomon [is] here.

32 The men of Nineue shall rise in iudgement with this generation, and shall condemne it: for they *repented at the preaching of Ionas: and beholde, a greater then Ionas [is] here.

Ionas 3.5.

Chap.8.16. marth.5.15. marke 4.21.

33 ¶ *No man lighteth a candle, and putteth it in a priuie place, neither vnder a bushell: but on a candlesticke, that they which come in, may see the light.

Matth.6.22. ‖ Or, candle. n Because it should guide and lead the body. o Without spot or vice.

34 *‖ The light of þ bodie is the n eye: therefore when thine eye is o single, then is thy whole bodie light: but if thine eye be euill, then thy bodie is darke.

35 Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee, be not darkenes.

36 If therefore thy whole bodie [shall be] light, hauing no part darke, then shall all be light, euen as when a candle doth light thee with the brightnesse.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certaine Pharise besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sate downe at table.

38 And when the Pharise sawe it, he marueiled that he had not first washed before dinner.

Matth.23.25. p Christ here requireth two things: first that we come truely by our meat & drinke: and next, that we distribute part to the poore: for charitie is the perfection of the Lawe. ‖ Or, of that that you haue.

39 *And þ Lord said to him, In deede ye Pharises make cleane the outside of the cup, & of the platter: but the inward part is full of rauening and wickednesse.

40 Ye fooles, did not hee that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 Therefore, p giue almes of ‖ those things which are within, and beholde, all things shall be cleane to you.

42 But woe [be] to you, Pharises: for ye tithe the minte and the rewe, and all manner herbes, and passe ouer ‖ iudgement and the loue of God: these ought ye to haue done, and q not to haue left the other vndone.

‖ Or, that which is iust and right. q He would not breake the very least commandement before all things were accomplished. r but tangle them to sticke to the chiefest and not perferre the inferiour ceremonies which must quickly be abolished. Chap.20.46, matth 23.6. marke 12.38.

43 *Woe [be] to you, Pharises: for ye loue the vppermost seates in the Synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe [be] to you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye are as graues which r appeare not, and the men that walke ouer them, perceiue not.

r Whose stinke and infection appeare not sodenly.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the expounders of the Lawe, and saide vnto him, Master, Thus saying thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

Acies 15.10.

46 And he said, Woe [be] to you also, ye interpreters of the Lawe: for ye *lade men with burdens grieuous to be borne, and ye your selues touche not the burdens with one of your fingers.

s Whereby you keepe in remembrance the execrable deedes of your fathers.

47 Woe [be] to you: for ye s builde the sepulchres of the Prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 t Truely ye beare witnesse, and allow the deedes of your fathers: for they killed them, & ye u build their sepulchres.

t You shewe your selues as great hypocrites as were your fathers, making men beleeue ye honour God, when you dishonour him. u They were more curious to builde their graues, then to follow their doctrine.

49 Therefore saide the Wisedome of God, I will sende them Prophets and Apostles, and of them they shal slay and ‖ persecute,

‖ Or, cruelly expell them. Gen.4.8. 2.Chr.24.21.

50 That þ blood of all the Prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation, 51 From the blood of *Abel vnto the blood of *Zacharias, which was slaine betweene the altar and the Temple: verely I say vnto you, it shall be required of x this generation.

x Because they were culpable of the same fault that their auncestours were.

52 Woe [be] to you, interpreters of the Law: for ye haue y taken away the keye of knowledge: ye entred not in your selues, & them that came in, ye forbade.

y They hid and tooke away the pure doctrine and true vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

53 And as he saide these things vnto them, the Scribes and Pharises began to vrge him sore, and to prouoke him to speake of many things, 54 Laying waite for him, and seeking to catche some thing of his mouth, whereby they might accuse him.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ commandeth to auoyde hypocrisie. 4 That we should not feare man but God, 5 To confesse his Name. 10 Blasphemie against the Spirit. 14 Not to passe our vocation. 15 Not to giue our selues to courtous care of this life, 32 But to righteousnes, almes, watching, patience, wisdome & concord.

IN* the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: and he began to say vnto his disciples first,

Matth.16.5,6. marke 8.14.

Take heede to your selues of the leauen of the Pharises, which is hypocrisie.

Matth.10.26. marke 4.22.

2 *For there is nothing couered, that shall not be reuealed: neither hid, that shall not be knowne.

3 Wherefore whatsoeuer ye haue spoken in darkenes, it shalbe heard in the light: and that which ye haue spoken in the eare, in secret places, shalbe preached on the a houses.

a Openly that all men may heare. Matth.10.28.

4 *And I say vnto you, my friends, be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that are not able to do any more.

5 But I will forewarne you, whom ye shall feare: feare him which after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say vnto you, him feare.

6 Are not fiue sparowes bought for two farthings, [and] yet not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 Yea, and all the heares of your head are nombred: feare not therefore: ye are more of value then many sparowes.

Chap.9.26. matth.10.32. marke 8.38. 2.tim.2.12. b He that shall resist against the worke of God purposely, and against his conscience. Matth.10.19. marke 13.11. c Be not so douchfull that you should be discouraged or distrust.

8 *Also I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shall confesse me before men, him shall the Sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

9 But he that denie me before men, shalbe denied before the Angels of God.

10 And whosoeuer shal speake a word against the Sonne of man, it shalbe forgiuen him: but vnto him, that b shall blaspheme the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiuen.

11 *And when they shall bring you vnto the Synagogues, and vnto the rulers and princes, take no c thought how, or what thing ye shall answere, or what ye shall speake.

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same ‖houre, what ye ought to say.

‖ Or, moment.

13 And one of the companie said vnto him, Master, bid my brother deuide the inheritance with me.

14 And he saide vnto him, Man, who made me a d iudge, or a deuider ouer you?

d Christ chiefly came to be iudged, and not to iudge, notwithstanding he willeth the Christians to be iudges and decide controuersies betwixt their brethren, 1.Cor.6.1.

15 Wherefore he said vnto them, Take heede, and beware of couetousnes: e for though a man haue abundance, [yet] his life standeth not in riches.

e Christ condemneth the arrogancie of the rich worldlings, who as though they had God locked vp in their coffers and barnes, set their whole felicitie in their goods, not considering that God gaue them life and also can take it away when he will.

16 And hee put foorth a parable vnto them, saying, The ‖ ground of a certaine rich mā brought forth fruits plenteously.

‖ Or, countrey.

17 Therefore hee thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I do, because I haue no [roume,] where I may lay vp my fruites?

18 And he saide, This will I do, I will pull downe my barnes, and builde greater, and therein will I gather all my fruites and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soule, Soule, *thou hast much goods layde vp for many yeeres: liue at ease, eate, drinke, and take thy pastime.

Eccles.11.19.

20 But God saide vnto him, O foole, this night will they fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast prouided?

21 So [is] he that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in f God.

f To depende onely on his prouidence, knowing that he hath ynough for all. Matth.6.25. 1.pet.5.7. psal.55.22.

22 And hee spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, *Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eate: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the bodie [more] then the raiment.

24 g Consider the rauens: for they neither sow nor reape: which neither haue storehouse nor barne, and [yet] God feedeth them: how much more are ye better then foules?

g He exhorteth vs to cast our care on God, and to submit our selues to his prouidence, 25 And which of you with taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?

26 If ye then be not able to doe the least thing, why take ye thought for the remnant?

27 h Consider the lilies how they grow: they labour not, neither spinne they: yet I say vnto you, that Solomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

h The liberalitie of God which shineth in the herbes and flowres, surmounteth all that man can do by his riches or power.

28 If then God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the fielde, & to morow is cast into the ouen, howe much more [will he clothe] you, O ye of little faith?

29 Therefore alke not what ye shall eate, or what ye shall drinke, neither ‖ stand in doute.

‖ Or, make discourses in the aire.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue needs of these things.

i Which are but accessaries and are common as well to the wicked men as to the godly.

31 But rather seeke ye after the kingdome of God, i and all these things shalbe minister ed vnto you.

k Which is the chiefest thing that can be giuen, and therefore you can not want these things which are of lesse importance. Matth.6.20. 1.Pet.1.13.

32 Feare not, litle flocke: for it is your Fathers pleasure, to giue you the k kingdome.

l Be in a readines to execute the charge which is committed vnto you.

33 ¶ * Sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bagges, which waxe not olde, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no theefe commeth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your hearties be also.

35 ¶ * Let your loynes be l girded about about, and your lightes burning,

36 And ye your selues like vnto men that wait for their master, when he will returne from the wedding, that when he commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediately.

37 Blessed [are] those seruāts, whom the Lorde when he commeth shall finde waking: verely I say vnto you, he will [m] girde himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

m Because they did vse long garmēts, the maner was to girde or trusse them vp when they went about any busines. Matth. 24.43. reuel. 16.15.

38 And if he come in the second watch, or come in the thirde watche, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 *Now vnderstand this, ẏ if the good man of the house had knowne at what houre the theefe would haue come, he would haue watched, & would not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter saide vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And ẏ Lord said, Who is a faithfull steward, & wise, whom the master shall make ruler ouer his household, to giue them their [n] portion of meate in season?

n The portion of seruants euery moneth was foure pecks of corne, as Donatus writeth in Phormio.

43 Blessed [is] that seruant, whome his master when hee commeth, shall finde so doing.

44 Of a trueth I say vnto you, that he will make him ruler ouer all ẏ he hath.

45 But if that seruāt say in his heart, My master doeth deferre his comming, and shall beginne to smite the seruants, and maydens, and to eate, and drinke, and to be drunken,

46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when he thinketh not, and at an houre when he is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbeleeuers.

o Therefore ignorance is inexcusable. p To whome God hath giuen many graces. q The Gospel is as a burning fire most behement, which maketh a change of things though all the world. r If there be great troubles and alterations vpon the earth, which things come not by the propiertie of the Gospel, but though the wickednes of man,

47 ¶ And that seruant that knewe his masters will, and prepared not himselfe, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many [stripes.]

48 But he that knewe it not, and yet did commit things o worthie of stripes, shalbe beaten with few [stripes:] for vnto whom soeuer p much is giuen, of him shalbe much required, and to whome men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

49 ¶ I am come to put q fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it be r alreadie kindled?

50 Notwithstanding I must be [s] baptized with a baptisme, and howe am I grieued, till it be ended?

s He compareth his death to baptisme.

51 *Thinke ye that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate. Matth. 10.34.

52 For from henceforth there shall be fiue in one house deuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shalbe deuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in lawe against her daughter in lawe, and the daughter in lawe, against her mother in lawe.

54 ¶ *Then saide hee to the people, when ye see a cloude rise out of the west, straightway ye say, A showre commeth: and so it is. Matth. 16.2.

55 And when [ye see] ẏ South winde blowe, ye say, that it will be hoate: and it commeth to passe.

56 Hypocrites, ye can discerne the face of the earth, and of the skie: but why discerne ye not this time?

57 Yea, and why iudge ye not of your selues what is right?

58 ¶ * While thou goest with thine aduersarie to the ruler, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest be [t] deliuered from him, least he bring thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the iayler, and the iayler cast thee into prison. Matth. 5.25.

t Though it be to thy losse and hinderance.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, til thou hast payed ẏ vtmost mite.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The cruelnie of Pilate. 2 We ought not to condemne all to be wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 He healeth ẏ crooked woman. 15 Answereth to the matter of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes hee declareth what the kingdome of God is. 23 Also that the number of them which shalbe saued, is small. 33 Finally he sheweth that no worldly policie or force can let the worke & counsel of God.

THere were certaine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galilea- [a] mingled with their owne sacrifices.

a He murthered them as they were sacrificing: and so their blood was mingled with the blood of the beastes which were sacrificed.

2 And Jesus answered, and said vnto them, Suppose ye, that these Galileans were [b] greater sinners then all ẏ [other] Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

b For ẏ Iewes tooke occasion hereby to condemne them as most wicked men.

3 I tell you, nay: but except c ye amend your liues, ye shall all like wise perish.

c He warneth them rather to consider their owne estate, then to repyne at other mens.

4 Or thinke you that those eighteene, vpon whom the towre in d Siloam fell, and slewe them, were ‖ sinners aboue d Which towre stood by ẏ riuer Siloe or fishpoole in Jerusalem. ‖ Or, debters.

all men that dwell in Ieruſalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except ye amend your liues, ye all ſhall likewiſe periſh.

6 ¶ He ſpake alſo this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and he came and ſought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then ſaide he to the dreſſer of his vineyarde, Beholde, [e] this three yeeres haue I come and ſought fruite of this figge tree, and finde none: [f] cut it downe: why keepeth it [g] alſo the ground baren?

8 And hee anſwered, and ſaide vnto him, Lorde, let it alone this yere alſo, till I digge rounde about it, and dung it.

9 And if it beare fruite, [well:] if not, then after thou ſhalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had an [h] ſpirit of infirmitie eighteene yeeres, and was [i] bowed together, and could not lift vp [her ſelfe] in any wiſe.

12 When Ieſus ſaw her, he called her to him, and ſaid to her, Woman, thou art ‖ looſed from thy diſeaſe.

13 And he layde his hands on her, and immediately ſhe was made ſtraight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue anſwered with indignation becauſe that Ieſus had healed on the Sabbath [day,] and ſaid vnto the people, There are ſixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then anſwered him the Lord, and ſaid, Hypocrite, doeth not eche one of you on the Sabbath [day] looſe his oxe or his aſſe from the ſtall, and leade him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whome Satan had bounde, lo, eightene yeeres, be looſed from this bonde on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he ſaid theſe things, all his aduerſaries were aſhamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things, that were done by him.

Matth.13.31. marke 4.31. [k] By theſe ſimilitudes he ſheweth the increaſe, whereby God augmenteth his kingdome, contrarie to all mens opinions.

18 ¶ * Then ſaide hee, What is the [k] kingdome of God like? or Whereto ſhal I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of muſtard ſeede, which a man tooke and ſowed in his garden, and it grewe, and waxed a great tree, and the foules of the heauen made neſtes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe he ſaid, Whereunto ſhall I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three peckes of floure, till all was leauened.

22 ¶ * And he went thorough all cities and townes, teaching, and iourneying towards Ieruſalem.

23 Then ſaide one vnto him, Lorde, [are there fewe that ſhall be ſaued? And he ſaid vnto them, 24 * [l] Striue to enter in at the ſtraite gate: for many, I ſay vnto you, will ſeeke to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

25 When the good man of the houſe is riſen vp, and hath ſhut to the doore, and ye begin to ſtand without, and to knocke at the doore, ſaying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and he ſhall anſwere and ſay vnto you, I know you not whence ye are,

26 [m] Then ſhall ye begin to ſay, We haue eaten and dronke in thy preſence, and thou haſt taught in our ſtreetes.

27 But hee ſhall ſay, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are: * depart from me, all ye workers of iniquitie.

28 There ſhall be weeping & gnaſhing of teeth, when ye ſhall ſee Abraham and Iſaac, and Iacob, and all the Prophets in the kingdome of God, and your ſelues thruſt out at doores.

29 Then ſhall come [many] from the [n] Eaſt, and from the Weſt, and from the North, and from the South, and ſhall ſit at table in the kingdome of God.

30 * And behold, [o] there are laſt, which ſhall be firſt, and there are firſt, which ſhalbe laſt.

31 The ſame day there came certaine Phariſes, and ſaide vnto him, Depart, and go hence: for Herode will kill thee.

32 Then ſaid he vnto them, Go ye and tell that fore, Behold, I [p] caſt out deuils, and doe heale ſtill * to day, & to morowe, and the thirde day [q] I ſhalbe ‖ perfected.

33 Neuertheles I muſt walke to day, and to morowe, and the day following: for it can not be, that a Prophet [r] ſhould periſh out of Ieruſalem.

34 * O Ieruſalem, Ieruſalem, which killeſt the Prophets, and ſtoneſt them that are ſent to thee, how often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the henne [gathereth] her brood vnder [her] winges, and ye would not!

35 Beholde, your [s] houſe is left vnto you deſolate: and verely I tell you, ye ſhall not ſee mee vntill [the time] come that ye ſhall ſay, [u] Bleſſed [is] he that commeth in the Name of the Lord.

which ye nowe denie, which ſhalbe when you ſhall ſee me in my maieſtie.

Matth.9.35. marke 6.6. Matth.7.13. [l] We muſt endeuour, and cut of all impediments, which may let vs.

[m] He warneth the Iewes that they perpiue not themſelues by their owne negligence, of that ſaluation, which was offred vnto them. Pſal.6.8. matth.7.23. and 25.41.

[n] The people which then were ſtrangers. Matth.19.30. and 20.16. marke 10.31.

[o] Chriſt cuteth off vaine confidence of the Iewes, who gloried in that, that God had choſen them for his people: yet they obeyed him not accoꝛding to his woꝛd.

[p] Neither the enmie of the Phariſes, who would haue put him in feare of Herode, noꝛ yet any pohcie of man could ſtay him from that office which God had inioyned him.

[q] Meaning, a litle while.

[r] By Chriſtes death we are made perfect for euer.

‖ Or, make an ende.

[s] He noteth their malice, which by all meanes ſought his death moꝛe then did the tyrant, of whome they willed him to beware. Matth.23.37.

[t] Chriſt foꝛewarneth them of the deſtruction of the Temple, and of their whole policie.

[u] When your owne conſcience ſhall reproue you and cauſe you to confeſſe that

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Jeſus eateth with the Phariſe. 4 Healeth the dropſie vpon the Sabbath. 8 Teacheth to be lowly and to bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great ſupper. 28 He warneth them that will follow him, to lay their accounts before, what it will coſt them. 34 The ſalt of the earth.

AND it came to paſſe that whē hee was entred into ꝑ houſe of one of the chiefe Phariſes on ꝑ Sabbath [day,] to ‖ eate bread, they watched him.

‖ Or, take his refection.

2 And beholde, there was a certaine man before him, which had the dropſie.

3 Then Jeſus anſwering, ſpake vnto the expounders of ꝑ Lawe, and Phariſes, ſaying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath [day?]

4 And they held their peace. Then he tooke him, and healed him, & let him go,

5 And anſwered them, ſaying, Which of you [ſhall haue] an aſſe, or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not ſtraightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not anſwere him againe to thoſe things.

7 ¶ Hee ſpake alſo a parable to the gheſtes, when hee marked howe they choſe out the chiefe roomes, and ſaid vnto them, a He reproueth their ambition, which deſire to ſit in the beſt places.

8 [a] When thou ſhalt be bidden of any mā to a Wedding, ſet not thy ſelfe downe in the chiefeſt place, leaſt a more honourable man then thou, be bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade both him & thee, come, and ſaye to thee, Giue this man roome, & thou then beginne with ſhame to take the loweſt roome.

Prou. 25. 5.

10 *But when thou art bidden, go and ſit downe in the loweſt roome, that whē he that bade thee, commeth, he may ſay vnto thee, Friend, ſit vp hier: then ſhalt thou haue worſhip in ꝑ preſence of them that ſit at table with thee.

Chap. 18. 14. mat. 23. 12.

11 *For whoſoeuer exalteth himſelfe, ſhall be brought lowe, and he that humbleth himſelfe, ſhalbe exalted.

b Chriſt reproueth onely the blinde affection of man, which regardeth nothing but a worldly recompence. Prou. 3. 9, 27. 28. tob. 4. 7.

12 ¶ Then [b] ſaide hee alſo to him that had bidden him, *when thou makeſt a dinner or a ſupper, call not thy friendes, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinſmen, nor the riche neighbours, leaſt they alſo bid thee againe, and a recompence bee made thee.

13 But when thou makeſt a feaſt, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, [and] the blind,

14 And thou ſhalt be bleſſed, becauſe they can not recompence thee: for thou ſhalt be recompenſed at the reſurrection of the iuſt.

15 ¶ Nowe when one of them that ſate at table, heard theſe things, he ſaide vnto him, Bleſſed [is] hee that eateth bread in the kingdome of God.

16 Then ſaide he to him, *[c] A certaine man made a great ſupper, & bade many.

Mat. 22. 2. reuel. 19. 9.

c He caſteth the Iewes in the teeth with their ingratitude, which would not eate of thoſe holy meates of Gods worde, which was preſented vnto them, and whereunto they were bid a long time before.

17 And ſent his ſeruant at ſupper time to ſay to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are nowe readie.

18 But they all with one [minde] began to make excuſe: The firſt ſayd vnto him, I haue bought a farme, & I muſt needes go out & ſee it: I pray thee haue me excuſed.

19 And another ſaide, I haue bought fiue yoke of oxen, & I go to proue them: I pray thee, haue me excuſed.

20 And another ſaide, I haue maried a wife, and therefore I can not come.

21 So that ſeruant returned, & ſhewed his maiſter theſe thinges. Then was the good man of the houſe angry, and ſaid to his ſeruant, [d] Go out quickly into the places and ſtreetes of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, and the maymed, and the halt, and the blind.

d Here is ſignified the calling of the Gentiles.

22 And the ſeruant ſaide, Lorde, it is done as thou haſt commanded, and yet there is roome.

c God will rather receiue all the raſcall people of the worlde to his banket, then them which are vnthankefull.

23 Then the maiſter ſayde to the ſeruant, Go out into the [c] hie wayes, and hedges, and [f] compell them to come in, that mine houſe may be filled.

f This compulſion commeth of the feeling of the power of gods worde, after that his worde hath bene preached.

24 For I ſay vnto you, that none of thoſe men which were bidden, ſhal taſte of my ſupper.

Mat. 10. 37. and 16. 24.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and he turned and ſaide vnto them, g That is, he that caſteth not off all affections and deſires which withdraw vs from Chriſt.

26 *If any man come to me, & [g] hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and ſiſters: yea, and his owne life alſo, he cannot be my diſciple.

Chap. 9. 23. mat. 16. 24. mar. 8. 34.

27 *And whoſoeuer beareth not his croſſe, and commeth after me, cannot be my diſciple.

h He that will profeſſe the Goſpell, muſt diligently conſider what his profeſſion requireth, and not raſhly take in hande ſo great an enterpriſe: neyther yet when he hath take it in hand, in any caſe forſake it.

28 For which of you minding to build a towre, ſitteth not downe before, and [h] counteth the coſt, whether he haue ſufficient to perfourne it,

29 Leaſt that after he hath layde the fundation, & is not able to perfourne it, all that beholde it, beginne to mocke him,

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to make an ende.

31 Or what king going to make warre againſt another king, ſitteth not downe firſt, and taketh counſell whether he be be able with tenne thousande, to meete him that commeth against him with twentie thousand.

32 Or els while he is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, Whosoeuer hee be of you, that [i] forsaketh not all that he hath, he can not be my disciple.

34 * Salt is good: [k] but if salt haue lost his sauour, wherewith shall it be ‖ salted?

35 It is neither meete for the land, nor yet for the dounghil, but men cast it out. He [ℓ] hath eares to heare, let him heare.

i He that is not perswaded to leaue all at euery houre to bestow himself frankely in Gods seruice. Mat.5.13. marke 9.50.

k If they that should season others, haue lost it themselues, where should a man recouer it?

‖Or, seasoned.

CHAP. XV.

2 The Pharises murmure because Christ receyueth sinners. 4 The louing mercie of God is openly set forth in the parable of the hundreth sheepe. 7 Ioy in heauen for one sinner. 12 Of the prodigall sonne.

THen resorted vnto him all the Publicanes and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharises and Scribes murmured, saying, He receyueth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake he this parable to thē, saying,

Mat.18,12.

4 *What man of you hauing an hundreth sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wildernesse, and goe after that which is lost, vntill he finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when he commeth home, hee calleth together his friendes and neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue found my sheepe, which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shalbe in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, [more] then for ninetie and nine [a] iust men, which neede none amendment of life.

a Which iustifie themselues, and knowe not their owne faultes.

8 Either what woman hauing ten [b] pieces of siluer, if she lose one piece, doeth not light a candle, & sweepe [ℓ] house, and seeke diligently till she finde it?

b The worde is drachma, which is somewhat more in value then fiue pence of olde sterling money, and was equall with a Romane penie.

9 And when she hath founde it, shee calleth her friendes, and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with me: for I haue found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

c This declareth that wee ought not to desire to haue our portion separate from God, except we will lose all.

11 ¶ He sayde moreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the younger of them sayd to his father, Father, giue me the [c] portion of the goods that falleth to me. So hee deuided vnto them [his] substance.

13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his iourney into a farre countrey, and there he wasted his goods with [d] riotous liuing.

d The Greeke word signifieth to waste all, that a man reserueth nothing to himselfe.

14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and hee sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

16 And he would faine haue filled his belly with [ℓ] huskes, that the swine ate: [e] but no man gaue [them] him.

e For no man had pitie vpon him.

17 Then he came to himselfe, & sayde, Howe many hired seruants at my father's haue breade ynough, and I die for hunger!

18 I will rise and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against [f] heauen, and before thee, f That is, against God.

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hyred seruants.

20 So he arose and came to his father, and when he was yet a [g] great way off, his father sawe him, and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

g God preuenteth vs and heareth our groninges before we crie to him.

21 And the sonne said vnto him, [h] Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthie to be called thy sonne.

h He was couched with the feeling of his sinne, & therefore was ashamed thereof, and heauie in heart.

22 Then the father sayde to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, & put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feete, 23 And bring the fat calfe, & kill him, and let vs eate, and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but hee is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now the [i] elder brother was in the fielde, and whē he came & drew neere to the house, hee heard melodie, and daunting, i God reproueth the enuie of such as grudge when God receiueth sinners to mercie.

26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he saide vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then he was angrie, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But he answered and said to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commandement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kidde that I might make merry with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goodes with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

31 And he said vnto him, [k] Sonne, thou art euer with me, and all that I haue, is thine. It was meete þ we should make merye, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but he is found.

k Thy part which art a Iewe, is nothing diminished by that that Christ was also killed for þ Gentiles: for he accepteth not the person, but feedeth indifferently all them that beleeue in him, with his body and blood to life euerlasting.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth his to wisedome and liberalitie by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproueth the couetousnes and hypocrisie of the Pharises. 16 Of the ende and force of the Lawe. 18 Of the holy state of marriage. 19 Of the rich man, and Lazarus.

AND he saide also vnto his disciples, [a] There was a certaine rich man, which had a stewarde, and he was accused vnto him, that he wasted his goodes.

2 And hee called him, and sayde vnto him, Howe [is it] that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounte of thy stewardship: for thou maist be no longer stewarde.

3 Then the steward said within himselfe, What shall I doe: for my master will take away from me þ stewardship: I can not digge, [and] to begge I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will do, that whē I am put out of the stewardship they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called he euery one of his masters detters, and said vnto þ first, Howe much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he said, An hundreth measures of oyle. And he said to him, Take thy writing, & sit downe quickely, & write fiftie.

7 Then saide hee to an other, Howe much owest thou? And he said, An hundreth measures of wheate. Then he said to him, Take thy writing, and write fourescore.

8 And þ Lorde commended [b] the vniust steward, because he had done wisely. Wherefore the children of this world are in their generation wiser then the children of light.

9 And I say vnto you, Make you friends [c] with þ riches of iniquitie, that when ye shall want, they may receiue you into euerlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in the least, he is also faithfull in much: and he that is vniust in the least, is vniust also in much.

11 If then ye haue not bene faithfull in [d] wicked riches, who will trust you in the true [treasure?]

12 And if ye haue not bene faithfull in [e] another mans [goods], who shall giue you that which is [f] yours?

13 * No seruāt can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or els he shall leane to the one, and despise the other. Ye can not serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharises also which were couetous, and they [g] mocked him.

15 Then he said vnto thē, Ye are they, which [h] iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 * The Law and the Prophets [endured] vntill Iohn: and since that time the kingdome of God is preached, and euery man preaseth into it.

17 * Now it is more easie that heauen and earth should passe away, then that one title of the Law should fall.

18 ¶ * Whosoeuer putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, cōmitteth adulterie: and whosoeuer marrieth her that [k] is put away from her husbande, committeth adulterie.

19 ¶ There was a [l] certaine rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine linnen, and fared wel and deliceately euery day.

20 Also there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was layed at his gate full of sores, 21 And desired to be refreshed with the crommes that fell from the riche mans table: yea, and the dogges came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger dyed, and was caried by the Angels into [m] Abrahams [n] bosome. The rich man also died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in torments, hee lift vp his eyes, & sawe Abraham afarre off, and Lazarus in his bosome.

24 Then he cryed, and sayde, Father Abraham, haue mercie on me, and sende Lazarus that he may dippe the tip of his [o] finger in water, & coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

a Christ teacheth hereby, that likewise as hee which is in authoritie and hath riches, if he get friends in his prosperitie, may be relieued in his aduersities: so our liberalitie towards our neighbour shal stand vs in such steade at the day of iudgement, that God will accepte it as done vnto him.

b God, who doeth here repreasent the master of þ house, doth rather commend the prodigall waste of his goods, and the liberall giuing of þ same to the poore, then the strait keeping & hoording of them.

c That is, ye ther wickedly gotten, or wickedly kept, or wickedly spēt: and hereby we be warned to suspect riches which for the most part are an occasion to their possessours of great wickednes.

d They which cannot wel bestowe worldly goods, will bestowe euill spirituall treasures: & therefore they ought not to be committed vnto them.

e As are riches and such like things, which God hath giuen not for your selues onely, but to bestowe vpon others.

f Christ calleth þ gifts which he giueth vnto vs, ours. Mat. 6.24.

g Because they iudged no man happy, but those that were riche.

h Which loue outward appearance, and haue glorye. Matth. 11.12.

i Their zeale is so inflamed, that they follow the Gospell without respect of worldlye things. March. 5.18. Mat. 5.32. & 19.9. 1.cor. 7. 11.

k That is, which is not lawfully diuorced.

l By this storie is declared what punishment they shall haue, which liue deliciously and neglect the poore.

m As the children in the old Law, were said to be gathered into þ bosome of Abraham, because they receiued the fruite of þ same faith yt him: so in the new Testamente we say that the members of Christ are ioyned to their head, or gathered vnto him.

n Whereby is signified þ most blessed life, which they þ die in the faith that Abraham did, shal enioy after this woyld.

o Christ describeth spirituall things by such maner of speach, as is most proper to our vnderstāding: for our soules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither are they thirstie or speake but þ Lord as it were made comfortable, painteth forth þ state of þ life to come, as our capacity is able to coprehend it, 25 But Abraham saide, [p] Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuedst thy ‖ pleasures, and likewise Lazarus ‖ paines: nowe therefore is hee comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betweene you and vs there is a great ‖ gulfe set, so that they which would go from hence to you, can not, neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then he saide, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house, 28 (For I haue fiue brethren) that he may testifie vnto them, least they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saide vnto him, They haue Moses & the [q] Prophets: let them [r] heare them.

30 And hee saide, Nay, father Abraham: but if one came vnto them from the dead, they will amend their liues.

31 Then he sayde vnto him, If they heare not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be perswaded, though one rise from the dead againe.

p In calling him sonne, he taunteth his vaine boasting, who in his life time beleeued not him selfe to be the sonne of Abraham: warning vs also hereby how little glorious titles auaile.

‖ Or, good things.

‖ Or, euill things.

q Which declareth that it is too late to be instructed by the dead, if in their life time they cannot profite by the liuely worde of God.

r As faith commeth by Gods word, so is it maintained by the same. So that neither we ought to looke for Angels from heauen, or the dead to confirme vs therein, but onely the worde of God is sufficient to life euerlasting.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ teacheth his disciples to auoide occasions of offence, 3 One to forgiue another. 5 We ought to pray for the increase of faith. 6 He magnifieth the vertue of faith. 10 And sheweth the vnabilitie of man. 11 Healeth ten lepers. 20 Speaketh of the latter dayes, and of the ende of the worlde.

THen saide hee to the disciples, * It can not be auoyded, but that offences will come, but woe [be] to him by whome they come.

Mat.18.7. mar.9.42.

2 It were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his necke, and that hee were cast into the sea, then that hee shoulde [a] offende one of these litle ones.

a That is, to turne him backe from the knowledge of God, and his saluation.

3 ¶ Take heede to your selues: if thy brother trespasse against thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgiue him.

4 * And though he sinne against thee [b] seuen times in a day, & seuen times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, It repenteth me, thou shalt forgiue him.

b That is, many times: for by a certaine number hee meaneth an vncertaine.

5 ¶ And the Apostles saide vnto the Lord, Increase our faith.

Mat.17.20.

6 And [p] Lord saide, * If ye had faith, [as much] as [is] a [c] graine of mustard seede, and should say vnto this mulberie tree, [d] Plucke thy selfe vp by the rootes, and plant thy selfe in the sea, it shoulde euen obey you.

c That is, if they had neuer so litle of pure and perfite fayth.

d Meaning, they should do wonderfull and incredible things,

7 ¶ Who is it also of you, that hauing a seruant plowing or feeding cattel, would say vnto him by and by, When he were come from the fielde, Goe, and sit downe at table:

8 And woulde not rather say to him, [e] Dresse wherewith I may suppe, and girde thy selfe, & serue me, till I haue eaten and dronken, and afterwarde thou shalt eate and drinke:

9 Doeth he thanke that seruant, because hee did that which was commanded vnto him: I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, whē ye haue done al those things, which are cōmanded you, say, We are [f] vnprofitable seruants: We haue done [p] which was our duetie to do.

e Hereby is declared that it is not ynough to do a piece of our duetie for a time, but also we must continue to the ende.

f For God receiueth nothing of vs, whereby he should stand bounde vnto vs.

11 ¶ And so it was when hee went to Jerusalem, that hee passed through the middes of Samaria and Galile.

12 And as hee entred into a certaine towne, there met him tenne men that were lepers, which stoode afarre off.

Leuit.14.2.

13 And they lift vp their voyces & said, Jesus, Master, haue mercie on vs.

g To whom it did appertaine to iudge of the leprosie, Leuit. 14.2. and herein also the Priests should haue no occasion to grudge, or murmure.

14 And when he sawe [them,] he said vnto them, * Go, shewe your selues vnto [g] the Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

h He noteth hereby their ingratitude, & that the greatest part neglect the benefites of God.

15 Then one of them, when he sawe that he was healed, turned backe, and with a loud voyce prayed God, 16 And fell downe on his face at his feete, & gaue him thankes: and he was a Samaritane.

i It can not be discerned by any outward shewe, or maiestie, whereby it might the rather be knowen.

17 And Jesus answered, and sayde, Are there not ten cleansed? but where [are] the [h] nine?

18 There are none founde that returned to giue God praise, sane this strāger.

19 And he said vnto him, Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Pharises, when the kingdome of God shoulde come, hee answered them, and saide, The kingdome of God commeth not [i] with obseruation.

k Either by reason of the worde of God, which is receiued by fayth, or that the Messias who they sought as absent, is now present, euen within their owne bowes, and yet they knowe him not. Joh.1.11. l He speaketh of his first comming into the worlde. Mat.24.23. mar.13.21.

21 Neither shall men say, Lo here, or loe there: for beholde, the kingdome of God is ‖ [k] within you.

22 And he said vnto the disciples, The dayes will come, when ye shall desire to see [l] one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

m Meaning, his seconde comming, wherein hee shall appeare in glorie.

23 * Then they shall say to you, Beholde here, or behold there: [but] go not thither, neither follow them.

24 For as the lightning [p] lighteneth out of [p] one [part] vnder heauen, shineth vnto the other [part] vnder heauen, so shall the Sonne of man be in his [m] day.

25 But

25 But first must hee suffer many things, & be reproued of this generation.

Gen. 7.5. mat. 24.38. 1.pet. 3.20.

26 *And as it was in the [n] dayes of Noe, so shall it bee in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

n When men contemned the iudgement of God, where with they were before mencased. Gen. 19.24.

27 They ate, they dranke, they married wiues, and gaue in marriage vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: & the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 *Likewise also, as it was in the daies of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built.

29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

o We must forget that which we haue left behind vs, to the end, that we may the better followe our heauenly vocation. Gen. 19.26. Chap. 9.24. & 16.25. mat. 10 39. mar. 8.35. iohn 12.25.

30 After these [ensamples] shall it bee in the day when the Sonne of man shall be reuealed.

31 At that day he that is vpō the [o] house, and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out: and he that is in the fielde likewise, let him not turne backe to that he left behind.

32 *Remember Lots wife.

p This corporall death shall engender life euerlasting. Mat. 24.40, 41

33 *Whosoeuer will seeke to saue his soule, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose it, [p] shall get it life.

q He meaneth that no band or coniunction is so strait that should stay vs. Mat. 24.28.

34 *I tell you, in that night there shal be two in one [q] bed: the one shalbe receyued, and the other shalbe left.

r Nothing can hinder ye faithful to be ioyned to their head Iesus Christ: for they shall gather vnto him, as the vnreasoning birds about a carion.

35 Two women shall be grinding together: the one shalbe taken, and the other shalbe left.

36 Two shalbe in the field: one shalbe receiued, and another shalbe left.

37 And they answered, and saide to him, where, Lorde: And hee saide vnto them, *[r] wheresoeuer the bodie [is,] thither will also the Egles resort.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 By the example of the widow, and the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray. 15 By the example of children, he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saued, and what things let. 29 The reward promised to his. 31 And of the crosse. 35 The blind man receiueth sight.

Eccles. 18.22. rom. 12.12. 1. thes. 5.17.

AND *he spake also a parable vnto them, [to this end,] that they ought alwayes to pray, and not to [a] waxe faint, a The Greeke word signifieth not to shrinke backe, as cowardes doe in warre, or to giue place in afflictions or daungers. [Or, auoyde me.

2 Saying, There was a iudge in a certaine citie, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widow in that citie, which came vnto him, saying, ‖ Doe me iustice against mine [b] aduersarie.

b Who pleadeth against me.

4 And hee would not for a time: but afterwarde hee sayde with him selfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widowe troubleth me, I will do her right, least at the last she come and make me wearie.

6 And the Lord sayd, Heare what the vnrighteous iudge saith.

7 Now shal not God auenge his elect, which crie day and night vnto him, yea, though [c] he suffer long for them?

c And seeme slowe in reuenging their wrongs.

8 I tell you hee will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man commeth, shall hee finde fayth on the earth?

9 ¶ Hee spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselues that they were iust and despised other,

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharise [d] stoode and prayed thus with himselfe, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or euē as this Publicane.

d Whereby he declared his pryde and disdainfull heart.

12 I fast twise in the weeke: I giue tithe of all that euer I possesse.

13 But the Publicane standing afarre off, would not lift vp so much as his eies to heauen, but smote his brest, saying, O God, be mercifull to me a sinner.

e These were figures of an humble and lowly heart. [Or, and not the other. Chap. 14.11. mat. 23.12. Mat. 19.13. mar. 10.13.

14 I tel you, this man departed to his house iustified, ‖ rather then the other: *for euery man that exalteth himselfe, shall be brought lowe, and he that humbleth himselfe, shalbe exalted.

f The worde signifieth yong sucking babes which they carried in their armes.

15 ¶ * They brought vnto him also [f] babes, that he should touch them. And when his disciples sawe it, they rebuked them.

g He meaneth the nourses or them that bare the babes, whō the Apostles rebuked.

16 But Iesus called [g] them vnto him, and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of [h] such is the kingdome of God.

h He comprehendeth al such them that are infantes of age, as them also, which are like vnto infants in simplicitie and plainnesse.

17 Verely I say vnto you, Whosoeuer receiueth not the kingdome of God as a babe, he shall not enter therein.

i Signifying that they ought to lay aside all malice & pride. Matth. 19.16.

18 *Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, What ought I to do, to inherite eternall life?

mar. 10.17.

19 And Iesus said vnto him, why callest thou me [k] good? none is good, saue one, [euen] God.

k Because commonly they abused this worde, Iesus sheweth him that he could not cōfesse him to be good, except also he acknowledged þ he was of God. Exo. 20.13,14.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnes: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Nowe when Iesus heard that, he sayde vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Sell all that euer thou haſt, and diſtribute vnto the poore, and thou ſhalt haue treaſure in heauen, and come, follow me.

23 But when he heard thoſe things, hee was verie heauie: for he was marueilous rich.

24 And when Jeſus ſaw him ſorowfull, he ſaide, With what difficultie ſhall they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is eaſier for a ‖camell to go through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the Kingdome of God.

‖Or, cable rope.

26 Then ſaid they that heard it, And who then can be ſaued?

27 And he ſayde, The things which are vnpoſſible with men, are [1] poſſible with God.

1 For he ſo gouerneth the hearts of his, that their riches do not blinde them. Mat. 19.27. mar. 10.28.

28 ¶ Then Peter ſaid, Lo, we haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he ſayde vnto them, Verely I ſay vnto you, there is no man that hath left houſe, or parentes, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdome of Gods ſake, 30 Which ſhall not receyue [m] much more in this world, and in the worlde to come life euerlaſting.

m The little that a man hath with the grace of God, is an hundreth folde better then all the abundance that one can haue without him: but the chiefe recompence is in heauen. Mat. 20.17. mar. 10, 32.

31 ¶ Then Jeſus tooke vnto him the twelue, and ſaid vnto them, Behold, we go vp to Jeruſalem, and all things ſhall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For he ſhall bee deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and ſhall be mocked, and ſhall be ſpitefully intreated, and ſhall be ſpitted on.

33 And when they haue ſcourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day he ſhall riſe againe.

34 But they vnderſtood none of theſe things, and this ſaying was hid from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were ſpoken.

35 ¶ * And it came to paſſe, that as he was come nere vnto Jericho, a certaine blinde man ſate by the way ſide begging.

Mat. 20.29. mar. 10.46.

36 And when hee heard the people paſſe by, he aſked what it ment.

37 And they ſaid vnto him, that Jeſus [n] of Nazaret paſſed by.

n The people vſed to call the Meſſias by this name, becauſe they knew he ſhould come of the ſtocke of David, Pſal. 132. 11. Act. 2. 30.

38 Then hee cried, ſaying, Jeſus the Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he ſhould holde his peace, but hee cryed much more, O [n] Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

40 And Jeſus ſtood ſtill, and cõmanded him to bee brought vnto him. And when he was come nere, he aſked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I do vnto thee? And he ſaid, Lord, that I may receyue my ſight.

42 And Jeſus ſaid vnto him, Receiue thy ſight: thy faith hath ſaued thee.

o He was mindfull of the benefite receyued, and alſo the people were moued thereby to glorifie God.

43 Then immediatly he receiued his ſight, and followed him, [o] praiſing God: and al the people, when they ſaw [this,] gaue praiſe to God.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Of Zaccheus. 12 The ten pieces of money. 28 Chriſt rideth to Jeruſalem, and weepeth for it. 45 He chaſeth out the marchants. 47 And his enemies ſeeke to deſtroy him.

NOw when Jeſus entred and paſſed through Jericho,

2 Beholde, there was a [1] man named Zaccheus, which was ‖the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was rich.

3 And he ſought to ſee Jeſus, who he ſhould be, and could not for the preaſe, becauſe he was of a low ſtature.

4 Wherefore hee ranne before, and climed vp into a wilde figge tree, that he might ſee him: for hee ſhould come that [way.]

5 And when Jeſus came to the place, hee looked vp, and ſawe him, and ſayde vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I muſt abide at thine houſe.

6 Then hee came downe haſtily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when al they ſaw it, they murmured, ſaying, that hee was gone in to lodge with a ‖ſinfull man.

‖Or, a man of a wicked life.

8 And Zaccheus ſtood forth, and ſaid vnto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by ‖ forged cauillation, I reſtore him foure fold.

‖Or, falſe accuſation.

9 Then Jeſus ſayde to him, This day is ſaluation come vnto this [a] houſe, foraſmuch as he is alſo become the [b] ſonne of Abrahaam.

a Zaccheus adoption was a ſigne that the whole family was receyued to mercy. Notwithſtanding this promiſe, God reſerueth to himſelfe free libertie either to chuſe or forſake as in Abrahams houſe.

10 * For the Sonne of man is come to ſeeke and to ſaue that which was loſt.

11 And whiles they heard theſe things, he [c] ſtoode and ſpake a parable, becauſe he was neere to Jeruſalem, and becauſe alſo they thought that the kingdome of God ſhould ſhortly appeare.

12 Hee ſaide therefore, * A certaine

b To be the ſonne of Abraham is to bee choſen freely, Rom. 9. 8. to walke in the ſteppes of the faith of Abraham, Rom. 4. 12. to doe the workes of Abraham, Iohn. 8. 39. by the which things, we are moſt aſſured of life euerlaſting, Rom. 8. 29. Matth. 18. 11. Matth. 25. 14.

noble

noble man went vnto [c] a farre countrey, to receiue for himselfe a kingdome, and [so] to come againe.

13 And he called his ten seruants, and deliuered them ten [d] pieces of money, & said vnto them, [c] Occupie till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, & sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe, when he was come [f] againe, and had receiued his kingdome, that he commanded the seruants to be called to him, to whom he gaue his money, that he might know what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy peece hath increased ten pieces.

17 And he saide vnto him, Well, good seruant: because thou hast bene faithfull in a very little thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy peece hath increased fiue pieces.

19 And to the same he saide, Be thou also [ruler] ouer fiue cities.

20 So the other came and said, Lord, beholde thy peece, which I haue laid vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a straite man: thou takest vp, that thou laidest not downe, and reapest that thou diddest not sowe.

22 Then he saide vnto him, Of thine owne mouth will I iudge thee, O euill seruant. Thou knewest y I am a strait man, taking vp that I laide not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest not thou my money into the banke, that at my coming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he said to them that stood by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they said vnto him, Lord, he hath ten pieces.)

26 *For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue it, shalbe [h] giuen: and frō him that hath not, euen that hee hath, shall be taken from him.

27 Moreouer, those mine enemies, which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither and slay them before me.

28 ¶And when he had thus spoken, he went forth [i] before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 *And it came to passe when hee was come nere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called [the mount] of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye to the towne which is before [you,] wherein, assoone as yee are come, ye shal finde a colt tied, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him [hither.]

31 [k] And if any man aske you, Why ye loose [him,] thus shall yee say vnto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and found it as he had sayde vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colte, the owners therof said vnto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they saide, The Lorde hath neede of him.

35 ¶So they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as hee went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come nere to the going downe of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce, and to praise God with a loude voice, for all y great workes that they had seene,

38 Saying, Blessed [bee] the King that cōmeth in the Name of the Lorde: peace in heauen, and glorie in the hyest [places.]

39 Then some of the Pharises of the companie said vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered, and sayde vnto them, I tel you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would cry.

41 ¶*And when he was come neere, he beheld the Citie, and wept for it, 42 Saying, [n] O if thou haddest euen knowen at the least in this thy day those things, which [belong] vnto thy peace! but now are they [o] hid from thine eyes.

43 For the dayes shal come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compasse thee round, and keepe thee in on euery side, 44 And shal make thee euen with the ground, and thy children which are in thee, and they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not the time of thy [p] visitation.

45 ¶*He went also into the Temple, and beganne to cast out them that solde therein, and them that bought,

[c] This was to declare to the, that he must yet take great paines before his kingdome should be established.

[d] This piece of money is called Mina, and the whole fumme mounteth about the value of fiuereereent pound, esteeming euery piece about fiue Nobles & seuen pence.

[e] God will not that his graces remaine idle with vs.

[f] Whereby we learne that the seconde comming of our Sauiour Christ shall be more glorious, and excellent then it doeth nowe appeare.

[g] They that suppresse the gifts of God, & liue in idlenes, are without all excuse. Chap.8.18. mat.13.12. and 25.29. mar.4.25.

[h] He that faithfully bestoweth the graces of God, shall haue the increase: but they shalbe taken away frō him that is vnprofitable, & vseth them not to Gods glory.

[i] Hereby we perceiue the excellēt constancie of Christ, who notwithstanding he did nowe fight against the terrour of death, & Gods iudgement: yet went before his fearefull disciples, and led the way to death. Mat.21.1. mar.11.1.

[k] Christ preuenteth such difficulties as might haue troubled his disciples.

Mat.21.7. iohn 12,14.

[l] They wish that God may be appeased, & receiued with men: and so by this meanes be glorified. Chap.21.6. mat.24.1. mar.13.1.

[m] Christ partly pitieth the Citie which was so neere her destruction, and partly vpbraideth their malice which would not imbrace Christ their Sauior.

[n] Therefore now pronounceth greater punishment to Ierusalem, then to other Cities, which had not receiued like graces.

[o] Meaning Christ, without whom there is no saluation, & with whom is all felicitie.

[p] Though thine owne malice thou art blinded.

[q] And receiuedst not the Redeemer, which was sent thee. Matth.21.12. mar.11.17.

Isa.56.7. Iere.7.11.

46 Saying vnto them, It is written, *Mine house is the house of prayer, *but ye haue made it a denne of theeues.

[Or, in the day time.

47 And he taught [daily] in the Temple. And the high Priests & the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people sought to destroy him.

q That is, were most attent to heare.

48 But they could not find what they might do to him: for all ᵠ people hanged vpon him when they heard him.

CHAP. XX.

4 Christ stoppeth his aduersaries mouthes by an other question, 9 Sheweth their destruction by a parable. 22 The authoritie of Princes. 27 The resurrection, and his diuine power. 46 He reproueth the ambition of the Scribes.

Mat.21.23. mar.11.27,28.

AND *it came to passe, that on one of those dayes, as hee taught the people in the Temple, and preached the Gospel, the high Priestes and the Scribes came vpon him with the Elders,

2 And spake vnto him, saying, Tell vs by what authoritie thou doest these things, or who is he that hath giuē thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered, & said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell mee therefore:

a By baptisme he comprehendeth all Iohns ministerie, who bare witnes to Christ.

4 The [a] baptisme of Iohn was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within thēselues, saying, If we shal say, From heauen, he will say, why then beleeued ye him not?

6 But if we shall say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therfore they answered, that they could not tell whence it [was.]

b By this meanes he made them ashamed and astonished.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them, [b] Neither tell I you, by what authoritie I do these things.

Isa.5.1.ier.2.21

c The Iewes were as Gods plants and his owne grafting.

d God committed his people to the gouernours and priests.

9 ¶ *Then began he to speake to the people this parable, * A certaine man planted a [c] vineyard, and [d] let it forth to husbandmen: and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.

e He raised vp Prophets.

10 And at a time he sent a [e] seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruit of the vineyarde, but the husbandmen did beat him, and sent him away emptie.

11 Againe he sent yet another seruant: and they did beat him, and vsed him intreated him, and sent him away emptie.

12 Moreouer, he sent the third, & him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then saide the Lorde of the vineyard, what shall I do? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may be that they will do reuerence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with thēselues, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of ᵖ vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lorde of the vineyard therefore do vnto them?

16 He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others. But when they heard it, they sayd, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he beheld them, and sayde, what meaneth this thē that is written, *The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head [f] of the corner?

Psal.118.22. isa.28.16.act. 4.11.rom.9. 33.1.pet.2.7.

f For by it the building is ioyned together, and made strong.

18 [g] Whosoeuer shall fall vpon that stone shall be broken: & on whom soeuer it shal fall, it will grind him to powder.

g They that stumble and fall on Christ, thinking to ouerselle him, shall be ouerthrowē themselues and destroyed.

19 Then the hie Priests & the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceiued that hee had spoken this parable against them.

Mat.22.16. marke 12.13.

h They wayted for a conuenient time and place.

20 *And they [h] watched [him,] & sent forth spyes, which should faine themselues iust men, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know we that thou sayest, and teachest right, neyther doest thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truly.

i They thought it vnlawfull to pay to a prince being an infidell, that which they were wont to pay to God in his Temple.

22 Is it [i] lawfull for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

23 But he perceiued their craftines, & said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shewe me a penie. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesars.

25 Then he saide vnto them, *[k] Giue then vnto Cesar the things which are Cesars, & to God those which are Gods.

Rom.13.7.

k The duetie which we owe to princes letteth nothing that which is due vnto God

26 And they could not reproue his saying before the people: but they marueiled at his answere, and held their peace.

27 *Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees (which denie that there is any resurrection) and they asked him,

Mat.22.23. mar.12.18.

28 Saying, Master, *Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take [his] wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

Deut.25.5.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee dyed without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he dyed childlesse.

31 Then

31 Then the third tooke her: & so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.
32 And last of al, the woman died also.
33 Therfore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she bee? for seuen had her to wife.
34 Then Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, The [1] children of this worlde marrie wiues, and are married.
35 But they which shall bee counted worthie to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry wiues, neither are married.
36 [m] For they can die no more, for al much as they are equall vnto ỹ Angels, and are the Sonnes of God, [n] since they are the children of the resurrection.
37 And that the dead shal rise againe, euen *Moses shewed it besides the bush, when he said, The Lord [is] the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, & the God of Iacob.
38 For he is not the God of the [o] dead, but of them which liue: [p] for all liue vnto him.
39 Then certaine of the Pharises answered and sayd, Master, thou hast well sayde.
40 And after that, durst they not aske him any thing at all.
41 ¶ Then said he vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?
42 And Dauid himselfe saieth in the booke of the Psalmes, *The Lord saide vnto my Lord, sit at my right hand, 43 Till I shall make thine enemies thy foote stoole.
44 Seeing Dauid calleth him Lord, how is he then his [q] sonne?
45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people he said vnto his disciples, 46 *Beware of the Scribes, which desire to go in long robes, and loue salutations in the markets, and the highest seates in the Synagogues, and the chief roomes at feasts:
47 Which deuoure widowes houses, eue vnder a colour of long prayng: these shall receyue greater damnation.

CHAP. XXI.

3 Christ commendeth the poore widow. 6 He foretelleth the destruction of Ierusalem. 8 Of false teachers. 9 Of the tokens and troubles to come. 27 Of the end of the worlde, 37 And of his dayly exercise.

Mar.12.41. AND *as he beheld, he saw the riche men, which cast their gifts into the treasurie, 2 And he sawe also a certaine poore widow, which cast in thither two mites,
3 And he saide, Of a trueth I say vnto you, that this poore widow hath cast in more then they all.
4 [a] For they all haue of their superfluitie cast into the offerings of God: but she of her penurie hath cast in all the liuing that she had.
5 *Now as some spake of ỹ Temple, how it was garnished wt goodly stones, and with ‖ consecrate things, he said,
6 Are these the things that yee looke vpon? the dayes will come, wherein a stone shall not be left vpon a stone, that shall not be throwen downe.
7 Then they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what signe [shall there be] when these things shall come to passe?
8 *And he said, [b] Take heede, that ye be not deceiued: for many will come in my Name, saying, I am [Christ], and the time draweth neere: follow ye not them therefore.
9 And when ye heare of warres and seditions, be not afraid: for these things must first come, but the ende followeth not by and by.
10 Then said he vnto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome, 11 *And great earthquakes shalbe in diuers places, and hunger, & pestilence, & fearefull things, and great signes shall there be from heauen.
12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute [you,] deliuering you vp to the Synagogues, and into prisons, and bring you before kings and rulers for my Names sake.
13 And this shall turne to you, for a [c] testimoniall.
14 *Lay it vp therfore in your hearts, that ye premeditate not, what yee shall answere.
15 For I wil giue you a mouth, & wisdom, where against al your aduersaries shall not be able to speake, nor [d] resist.
16 Yea, ye shall bee betrayed also of your parents, and of your brethren, and kinsmen, and friendes, and [some] of you shall they put to death.
17 And yee shall be hated of all men for my Names sake.
18 *Yet there shall not one heare of your heads perish.
19 By your patience [e] possesse your soules.
20 ¶ *And when ye see Ierusalem besieged with souldiers, then vnderstand

1 In this place he calleth all them children of this worlde which remaine in the same: or els matrimonie should not seeme to appertaine to the children of God, as that wicked monster Pope Cyricius taught against the manifest scriptures.
m Since matriage is ordeyned to maintein and increase mankinde, when we shall be immortall, it shall not be in any vse.
n For although the wicked rise againe, yet that life is but death & an eternal destruction. Exod.3.6.
o Of them which are not, but of them which are.
p The immortalitie of the soule cannot be separated from the resurrection of the bodie, whereof here Christ properly speaketh. Mat.22.44. mar.12.35. Psal.110,1.
q For the sonne is not Lorde of his father, and therefore it followeth that Christ is God. Chap.11.43. mat.23.6. mar.12.38.

a God estemeth not the gift or almes by the quantitie or value, but by the heart & affection. Chap.19.43. 44.mat.24.1. mar.13.1.
‖ Or, gifts.

Ephes.5.6. 2.thes.2,3.
b Christ then maketh answere of that which was more necessarie for them, and not to the question they demanded.

Mat.24.7. mar.13.8.

c This their suffrance shall both be a greater confirmatio to the Gospel, & also by their constancie the tyrannie of their enemies shall at length be manifest before God and man. Chap.12.12. mar.10.19. mar.13.11.
d For though they were so impudent to resist, yet truth euer gayneth the victorie. Mat.10.30.
e That is, liue ioyfully and blessedly euen vnder ỹ crosse. Mat.24.15. mar.13.14. dan.9.27.

that the desolation thereof is neere.

21 Then let them which are in Iudea, flee to the mountaines: and let them which are in the middes thereof, depart out: and let not them that are in the countrey, enter therein.

22 For these be the daies of vengeance, to fulfill all things that are written.

23 But wo [bee] to them that be with child, & to them that giue sucke in those dayes: for there shalbe great distresse in this land, and [c] wrath ouer this people.

[c] Gods wrath against this people shal appeare by the calamities and plagues wherwith he will punish them.

24 And they shall fall on the edge of the sworde, and shalbe led captiue into al nations, and Ierusalem shall be troden vnder foote of the Gentiles, vntill the [g] time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

[g] He meaneth their iniquities to receiue likewise their punishment afterward. Isa.13.10.ezec. 32.7.mat.24. 29.mar.13.24.

25 *Then there shall be signes in the Sunne, and in the Moone, and in the starres, & vpon the earth trouble among the nations with perplexitie: the sea and the waters shall roare.

26 And mens hearts shall faile them for feare, & for looking after those things which shall come on the world: for the powers of heauen shalbe shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Sonne of man come in a cloud, with power and great glorie.

28 And when these things beginne to come to passe, then looke vp, and lift vp your heades: * for your [h] redemption draweth neere.

Rom.8.23. [h] The effect of that redemption which Iesus Christ hath purchased, shall then fully appeare.

29 And hee spake to them a parable, Behold, the figge tree, and all trees, 30 when they nowe shoote forth, yee seeing them, know of your owne selues, that sommer is then neere.

31 So likewise yee when ye see these things come to passe, knowe ye that the kingdome of God is neere.

32 Verely I say vnto you, This age [i] shal not passe, til all these things be don.

[i] For all these things came within fiftie yeeres after.

33 Heauen and earth shal passe away, but my wordes shall not passe away.

34 Take heede to your selues, least at any time your hearts be oppressed with surfetting and drunkennesse, and cares of this life, and lest that day come on you at vnwares.

[k] To catch and intangle them, wheresoeuer they be in the world.

35 For as a [k] snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch therefore, and pray continually, || that ye may be counted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to passe, and that yee may stand before the Sonne of man.

|| Or, that ye may be made worthie.

37 ¶Now in the day time he taught in the Temple, and at night he wēt out, and abode in the mount that is called [the mount] of Oliues.

38 And al the people came in the morning to him, to heare him in [p] Temple.

CHAP. XXII.

4 Conspiracie against Christ. 7 They eate the Passeouer. 19 The institution of the Lordes supper. 24 They striue who shall be greatest, and he reproueth them. 42 He prayeth vpon the mount. 47 Iudas treason. 54 They take him & bring him to the high Priestes house. 60 Peter denieth him thrise, and yet repenteth. 67 Christ is brought before the Councell, where he maketh ample confession.

NOw *the feast of vnleauened bread drewe neere, which is called the Passeouer. Mat.26.1. mar.14.1.

2 And the hie Priestes and Scribes sought howe they might kill him: for they feared the people. a The feast was so called, because they could eate no leauened bread for the space of seuen dayes: for so long the feast of the Passe ouer continued.

3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the nomber of the twelue.

4 And hee went his way, and communed with the hie Priestes and [b] captaines, how he might betray him to them. b Such as were appointed to keepethe Temple.

5 So they were [c] glad, and agreed to giue him money. c For they were in dout what way to take before this occasion was offered.

6 And he cōsented, and sought opportunitie to betray him vnto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶*Then came the day of vnleauened bread when the Passeouer [d] must be sacrificed. Mat.26.17. mark.14.13. d According to Gods commandement which was first to offer it, and after to eate it.

8 And he sent Peter and Iohn, saying, Go, and prepare vs the Passeouer, that we may eate it.

9 And they saide to him, where wilt thou, that we prepare it?

10 Then he said vnto them, Behold, When yee be entred into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: followe him into the house that he entreth in,

11 And say vnto the good man of the house, The Master saieth vnto thee, where is the lodging where I shal eate my Passeouer with my disciples?

12 Then he shal shewe you a great hie chamber trimmed: there make it ready.

13 So they went, and founde as hee had said vnto them, and made ready the Passeouer. Mat.26.20. mar.14.17.18

14 *And whē the [e] houre was come, he sate downe, and the twelue Apostles with him. e Which was in the euening about the twylight, which time was appointed to eate the Passeouer.

15 Then hee said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eate this Passeouer with you before I suffer. f He meaneth that this is the last time that he would be conuersant with them as he was before, or so eate with them.

16 For I say vnto you, [f] Henceforth I will not eate of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And

17 And hee tooke the cuppe, and gaue thanks, and laid, Take this, and deuide it among you.

18 For I saye vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine, vntill the kingdome of God be come.

Matth. 26.26. mark.14.22. 1.cor.11.24.
g The head is a true signe, and an assured testimonie that the bodie of Jesus Christ is giuen for the nourriture of our soules: like wise the wine signifieth that his blood is our drinke to refreth & quicken vs euerlastingly.
h The signe of the newe couenant which is established and ratified by Christs blood. Iohn 13.18. psal.41.9.

19 *And he tooke bread, and when he had giuen thankes, he brake it, and gaue to the, saying, gThis is my body, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after supper [hee tooke] the cup, saying, This cup [is] the newe hTestament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 *Yet behold, the hand of him that betraieth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truely the Sonne of man goeth as it is iappointed: but woe [be] to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

i By the secret counsell of God, as Act. 4.28.

23 Then they beganne to enquire among the selues, which of the it should be, that should do that.

Matth. 20.25. mark.10.42.
k Meaning, that they haue daine and flattering titles giuen them, for as much as they are nothing lesse then their names do signifie.

24 C*And there arose also a strife among them, which of the should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But he said vnto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, & they that beare rule ouer them, are called kGracious lordes.

26 But ye [shall] not [be] so: but let the greatest among you be as the ‖ least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.

‖ Or, yongest.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or hee that serueth? Is not hee that sitteth at table? And I am among you as he that serueth.

28 And yee are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I ‖ appoynt vnto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appoynted to me,

‖ Or, leaue by bequest.

Matth. 19.28.
l By these similitudes he declareth that they shall be partakers of his glory: for in heauen is neither eating nor drinking. 1.Pet.5.8.
m Satan seeketh by all meanes to disquiet & Church of Christ, to disperse it, and to shake it from the true faith.

30 *That ye may leate, and drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

n Ie was foye shaken, but yet not ouerthrowen.

31 CAnd the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, *Satan hath desired you, mto winowe you, as wheat.

Matth. 26.34. 35. mark. 14. 29, 31. iohn. 13.38.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, þ thy faith nfaile not: therefore when thou art conuerted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 *And he laide vnto him, Lorde, I am readie to goe with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But hee sayde, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shal not crowe this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knewest me.

35 CAnd he said vnto them, *When I sent you without bagge, and scrippe, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they laide, Nothing.

Mat.10.9,10.

36 Then he said to them, But nowe he that hath a bagge, let him take it, and likewise a scrippe: and he þ hath none, let him sell his coate, and obye a sworde.

o By this he sheweth them that they must suffeine great troubles and afflictions. Isa.53.12.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written, must be perfourmed in me, *Euen with the wicked was he nombred: for doutlesse thole things which [are written] of me, haue an end.

38 And they laide, Lorde, beholde, here are ptwo swordes. And he said vnto them, It is ynough.

p They were yet so rude þ they thought to haue resisted with materiall weapos, whereas Christ meaneth them of a spirituall fight, wherein as well their life as faith shoulde be in danger. Mat.26.36.

39 C*And he came out, and went (as he was wont) to þ mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

marke 14.32. iohn 18.1.

40 *And when he came to the place, he sayde to them, Pray, least ye enter into tentation.

Mat.26.41. mar.14.38.

41 And he gate him selfe from them, about a stones cast, and kneeled downe, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this qcup from me: neuertheles, not my will, but thine be done.

q Meaning, his death and passion.

43 And there appeared an Angell vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 But being in an ragonie, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was like droppes of blood, trickeling downe to the grounde.

r The worde signifieth that horrour that Christ had conceiued not onely for feare of death, but of his Fathers iudgement and wrath against sinne.

45 And he rose vp from prayer, and came to [his] disciples, and founde them sleeping for heauinesse.

46 And he laide vnto them, Why sleepe yee? rise and pray, least ye enter into tentation.

47 C*And while he yet spake, beholde a companie, and he that was called Judas one of the twelue, went before them, and came nere vnto Jesus to kisse him.

Mat.26.47. mar.14.43. iohn 18.3.

48 And Jesus saide vnto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 Nowe when they which were about him, sawe what woulde followe, they sayde vnto him, Lorde, shall we smite with sworde?

50 And one of them smote a seruant of the high Priest, and strake off his right eare.

51 Then Jesus answered, and saide, Suffer [them] thus farre: and he touched his eare, and healed him.

52 The Jesus said vnto þ hie Priests,

H.4. and and captaines of the Temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a theefe with swordes and staues?

53 When I was dayly with you in the Temple, ye stretched not forth the hands against me: but this is your very houre, and the [f] power of darkenes.

54 ¶ Then tooke they him, and led him, and brought him to the hie Priests house. And Peter followed afarre off.

55 *And when they had kindled a fire in the middes of the hall, and were set downe together, Peter also sate downe among them.

56 And a certaine maide beheld him as hee sate by the fire, and hauing well looked on him, sayde, This man was also with him.

57 But hee denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while, another man sawe him, & said, Thou art also of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of an houre after, a certaine other affirmed, saying, Verely euen this man was with him: for he is also a Galilean.

60 And Peter sayde, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediatly while he yet spake, the cocke crewe.

61 Then the Lord turned backe, and looked vpon Peter: and Peter remembred the word of the Lord, howe he had said vnto him, *Before the cocke crowe, thou shalt denie me thrise.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Iesus, mocked him, and strooke him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they smote him on the face, and asked him, saying, [t] Prophesie who it is that smote thee.

65 And many other thinges blasphemously spake they against him.

66 *And assoone as it was day, the Elders of the people, and the hie Priests and the Scribes came together, and led him into their Councill, 67 Saying, [u] Art thou the Christ? tell vs. And he sayde vnto them, If I tell you, ye will not beleeue it.

68 And if I also aske you, ye will not answere me, nor let me go.

69 *Hereafter shall the Sonne of man sit at the [y] right hande of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Sonne of God? And he sayde to them, Ye say that I am.

71 Then sayde they, What neede we any further witnesse? for We our selues haue heard it of his owne mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate and Herode. 18 Of Barabbas. 26 Of Simon the Cyrenian. 27 The women make lamentation. 33 Christ crucified. 34 He prayeth for his enemies. 40 He conuerteth the theefe and many others at his death. 53 And is buryed.

THen * the whole multitude of them arose, and ledde him [a] vnto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We haue founde this man peruerting the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a King.

3 *And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priestes, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching throughout al Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knewe that he was of Herods iurisdiction, he [b] sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem ‖ in those dayes.

8 And when Herode sawe Iesus, he was exceedingly glad: for he was [c] desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many thinges of him, and trusted to haue seene some ‖ signe done by him.

9 Then questioned he with him of many thinges: but he answered him [d] nothing.

10 The hie Priests also and Scribes stood forth, & accused him vehemently.

11 And Herode with his ‖ men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arayed him in ‖ white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate & Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, & the rulers, and the people,

14 *And sayde vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerted the people: & behold, I haue examined him before you, & haue found no

f For now God gaue liberty to Satan, whose ministers they were, to execute his rage against him: which thing we see is gouerned by the prouidence of God. Matth. 26, 69. mark. 14, 66. iohn 18, 25.

Matth. 26, 34. iohn 13, 38.

t They scoffed at him, because the people thought he was a Prophet. Matth. 27, 1. mark. 15, 1. iohn 18, 28.

u They asked not to the ende that the truth might be known (for ỹ thing was to manifest) but for malice they bare towards Christ.

x At his seconde comming.

y As in the second place of honour and dignitie.

Mat. 22, 21. mar. 12, 17.

a Who was the chiefe gouernour, and had the examination of matters of life and death.

Mat. 27, 11. mar. 15, 2. iohn 18, 33.

b To rid his hands, and to gratifie Herode.

‖ Or, at that time.

c Of certaine curiositie.

‖ Or, miracle.

d For Christ came not to defende him selfe, neither yet would please the vain curiositie of this tyrant.

‖ Or, bande, or, traine.

e Commonly this was a robe of honour or excellencie: but it was giuen to Christ in mockage.

‖ Or, in bright colour.

Mat. 27, 23. mar. 15, 14. Iohn 18, 38. and 19, 4.

no fault in this man, of those thinges
Whereof ye accuse him:
15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him: and lo, nothing worthy of death is done ‖ to him.
16 I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.
17 (For [f] necessitie he must haue let one loose vnto them at the feast.) 18 Then all the multitude cryed at once, saying, Away with him, and deli-uer to vs Barabbas:
19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and murder was cast in prison.
20 Then Pilate spake againe to thē, willing to let Iesus loose.
21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.
22 And he saide vnto them the third time, What what euill hath he done? I [g] finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.
23 But they were instant with loude voyces, and required that he might bee crucified: and the voyces of them and of the hie Priests preuailed.
24 So Pilate gaue sentence, that it should be as they required.
25 And hee let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to do With him what they would.
26 ¶ And as they ledde him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, com-ming out of the fielde, and on him they laide the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.
27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, & of women, which women bewayled and lamented him.
28 But Iesus turned back vnto thē, and saide, ‖ Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for mee, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.
29 For beholde, the dayes will come, when men shall say, Blessed [are] the barren, and [h] wombes that neuer bare, & the paps which neuer gaue sucke.
30 Then shal they begin to say to the mountaines, *Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs.
31 *For if they doe these things to a greene tree, what shalbe done to [h] dry?
32 *And there were two others, which were euill doers, ledde With him to bee slaine.
33 And When they were come to the place, which is called ‖ Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers:
one at the right hande, and the other at the left.
34 Then said Iesus, Father, forgiue them: for they know not what they do.
And they parted his raiment, & cast lots.
35 And the people stoode, and beheld:
and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue him
selfe, if he be [h] Christ, the [i] chosen of God.
36 The souldiers also mocked him, & came and offred him [k] vineger, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.
38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in [l] Greeke letters, & in Latin, & in Hebrewe, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.
39 ¶ And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, rayled on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.
40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, [m] Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?
41 We are in deede rightcously [here:]
for we receiue things worthy of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.
42 And he said vnto Iesus, Lorde, remember me, when thou commest into thy kingdome.
43 Then Iesus said vnto him, Uerely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou bee
With me in Paradise.
44 ¶ And it was about the [n] sixt houre: and there was a darkenes ouer all the land, vntill the ninth houre.
45 And [h] sunne was darkened, & the vaile of [h] Temple rent through [h] mids.
46 And Iesus cried With a loud voice, and said, *Father, into thine handes I commend my spirit. And When he thus had said, he gaue vp the ghost.
47 ¶ Nowe when the ‖ [o] Centurion sawe What was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a suretie this man was iust.
48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding [h] things, which were done, smote their breastes, and returned.
49 And all his acquaintance stood a farre off, and the women that followed him frō Galile, beholding these things.
50 ¶ *And behold, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a counseller, a good man and a iust.
51 Hee did not consent to the counsell and deede of them, [which was] of Arimathea,

[Or, by him.]
[f] For the Romanes had gi-uen such fran-chises & liberties to the Iewes, which was but a tradition, and not according to the word of God.
[g] The iudge giueth sentēce with Christ, before he condemneth him, whereby plain-ly appeareth Iesus inno-cencie.
Mat.27.32. mar.15.21.
[Or, women of Ierusalem.]
Isa.2.19. hose. 10.8. reuel.6. 16. 1.Pet.4.17.
[h] If the inno-cent be thus handled, what shall the wic-ked man be? Mat.27.38. mar.15.27. ioh.19.18.
[Or, the place of scalles.]
[i] Whom God hath before all others appoin-ted to be the Messias: o-therwise the Scriptures calleth them & elect of God, whom he hath chosen before all beginning to life euerla-sting.
[k] Sitt with impiete and gall to hasten his death.
[l] That is, thing might be know-en to all nations, because these three langua-ges were most common.
[m] The condē-nation which thou nowe suf-ferest, causeth it thee not to feare God?
[n] Which was midday.
Psal.31.5.
[Or, captaine.]
[o] The Romane Captaine, who had charge o-uer an hundreth men.
Mat.27.57. mar.15.43. ioh.19.38.

mathea, a citie of the Iewes: Who also him selfe ‖ p waited for the kingdome of God.

‖ Or, had embraced.

p He looked for the redeemer, by whom all should be restored.

52 He went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus, 53 And tooke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laid it in a tombe hewē out of a rocke, wherin was neuer man yet layed.

q When men prepared all things ready for the feast.

54 And that day was the q preparation, and the Sabbath drewe on.

55 And the womē also that followed after, which came with him from Galile, beheld the sepulchre, and how his bodie was laide.

56 And they returned, and prepared odours, and ointments, and rested the Sabbath [day,] according to the commandement.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 The women come to the graue. 13 Christ appeareth vnto the two disciples that goe towarde Emmaus. 36 Hee standeth in the middes of his disciples, and openeth their vnderstanding in the Scriptures. 47 He giueth them a charge. 51 He ascendeth vp to heauen. 52 His disciples worship him. 35 And of their daily exercise.

Mar.28.1.mar. 16.1.ioh.20.1

a Which was the first day after the first Sabbath of the feast.

NOw the *a first [day] of the weeke early in the morning, they came vnto ỹ sepulchre, and brought the odoures which they had prepared, and certaine [women] with them.

2 And they founde the stone rolled away from the sepulchre,

3 And went in, but founde not the bodie of the Lord Iesus.

b Two Angels in foyme of men.

4 And it came to passe, that as they were amased thereat, behold, b two men sodenly stood by thē in shining vestures.

5 And as they were afraid, & bowed downe their faces to the earth, they said to them, why seeke yee him that liueth, among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember * howe he spake vnto you, when hee was yet in Galile,

Chap.9.22. mat.17.23. mar.9.31.

7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must be deliuered into the handes of sinfull men, and be crucified, and the third day rise againe.

8 And they remembred his wordes,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, & tolde all these things vnto the eleuē, and to all the remnant.

10 Now it was Marie Magdalene & Ioanna, & Marie the [mother] of Iames, and other women with thē, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their wordes seemed vnto thē, as a fained thing, neither beleeued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, & ran vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linnen clothes laid by themselues, & departed wondering in him selfe at that which was come to passe.

Mar.16.12.

13 ¶ * And behold, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about c three score furlongs, called Emmaus.

c Which is about seuen miles and an halfe.

14 And they talked together of all these things that were done.

d Hereby appeareth ỹ they had faith, although it was weake.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, & reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drewe nere, & went with them.

16 But their eyes c were holden, that they could not know him.

e This declareth that we can neither see, nor vnderstand till God open our eyes.

17 And he said vnto them, what maner of communications are these ỹ ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered, and said vnto him, Art thou only a f stranger in Ierusalem, & hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?

f For ỹ thing was so notorious, that all men might haue knowē it.

19 And he said vnto thē, what things? And they saide vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet, mightie in deede and in word before God, and all the people, 20 And how the hie Priests, and our rulers deliuered him to bee condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

g They vnderstoode not yet what was the deliuerance ỹ Iesus Christ purchased for vs, but looked for some worldly prosperitie.

21 But wee g trusted that it had bene he that should haue deliuered Israel, & as touching al these things, to day is the third day, that they were done.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And when they found not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which said that he was aliue.

h Infidelitie is reproued.

24 Therfore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, & found it euen so as the women had said, but him they sawe not.

i Christ onely is the interpreter of the scriptures: for both the beginning and end therof direct vs to him, because he is the Sauiour that is promised.

25 Thē he said vnto them, h O fooles and slow of heart to beleeue all that the Prophets haue spoken.

26 Ought not Christ to haue suffred these things, and to enter into his glorie?

k Because Christ did both shut their eyes and open them, he would keepe thē in suspense till his time came to manifest him selfe vnto them.

27 And he began at i Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were [written] of him.

28 And they drew neere vnto ỹ towne, which they went to, but hee k made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towardes night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tarie with them.

30 And it came to passe, as hee sate at table with them, he tooke the bread, [l] & gaue thankes, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knewe him: but he was taken out of their sight.

32 And they said betweene themselues, Did not our heartes burne within vs, while hee talked with vs by the way, & when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Jerusalem, and founde the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them,

34 Which said, The Lord is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they told what things [were] done in the way, & how he was knowen of them in [m] breaking of bread.

36 ¶ * And as they spake these thinges, Jesus himselfe stoode in the middes of them, and saide vnto them, Peace [be] to you.

37 But they were abashed & afraide, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold mine hands and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle mee, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh & bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when he had thus spoke, he shewed them [his] handes and feete.

41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And hee said vnto them, These are the words, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Lawe of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstande the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus is it written, & thus it behoued Christ to suffer, & to rise againe frō the dead ỹ third day,

47 And that repentance, and remission of sinnes should be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 Nowe yee are witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I will send the * promises of my Father vpon you: but tary ye in the citie of Jerusalem, [n] vntill ye bee endued with power from an hie.

50 Afterward hee led them out into Bethania, and lift vp his handes, and blessed them.

51 And it came to passe, that as hee blessed them, * he departed from them, & was caried vp into heauen.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great ioy, 53 And were continually in the Temple, praising, and lauding God, Amen.

l According to the custome: the which manner of praying before meales they vse to this day.

m So soone as he began to breake bread, Mat.16.14. Ioh.20,19.

Ioh.15,26. act.1.4

n Which was till Whitsontide, when the holy Ghost was sent from heauen.

Mar.16.19. act.1.9.

The holy Gospell of Iesus Christ,

according to Iohn.

CHAP. I.

1.14.17. The diuinitie, humanitie, and office of Jesus Christ. 15 The testimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrewe, Peter, &c.

§ Or, before the beginning.

a Christ is God before all time.

b The Sonne is of the same substance with the Father.

c No creature was made without Christ.

d Whereby all things are quickened and preserued.

e The life of man is more excellent then of any other creature, because it is ioyned with light and vnderstanding.

f Sathans minde is ful of darknes because of the corruption thereof. Mat.7.1, mar, 1.4.luk.3.2.

IN § the beginning was the Worde, and the Worde was with [a] God, and that Worde was God.

2 The same was [b] in the beginning with God.

3 All thinges were made by it, and [c] without it was made nothing ỹ was made.

4 In it was [d] life, & the life was the [e] light of men.

5 And the light shineth in [f] the darknes, and the darknes comprehended it not.

6 ¶ * There was a man sent from God, whose name [was] Iohn.

7 The same came for a witnes, to beare witnes of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.

8 He was not that light, but [was sent] to beare witnes of the light.

9 That was the true light, which lighteth

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towardes night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tarie with them.

30 And it came to passe, as hee sate at table with them, he tooke the bread, [l] & gaue thankes, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knewe him: but he was taken out of their sight.

32 And they said betweene themselues, Did not our heartes burne within vs, while hee talked with vs by the way, & when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Jerusalem, and founde the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them,

34 Which said, The Lord is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they told what things [were] done in the way, & how he was knowen of them in [m] breaking of bread.

36 ¶ * And as they spake these thinges, Jesus himselfe stoode in the middes of them, and saide vnto them, Peace [be] to you.

37 But they were abashed & afraide, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold mine hands and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle mee, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh & bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when he had thus spoke, he shewed them [his] handes and feete.

41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And hee said vnto them, These are the words, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Lawe of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstande the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus is it written, & thus it behoued Christ to suffer, & to rise againe frō the dead ỹ third day,

47 And that repentance, and remission of sinnes should be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 Nowe yee are witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I will send the * promises of my Father vpon you: but tary ye in the citie of Jerusalem, [n] vntill ye bee endued with power from an hie.

50 Afterward hee led them out into Bethania, and lift vp his handes, and blessed them.

51 And it came to passe, that as hee blessed them, * he departed from them, & was caried vp into heauen.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great ioy, 53 And were continually in the Temple, praising, and lauding God, Amen.

l According to the custome: the which manner of praying before meales they vse to this day.

m So soone as he began to breake bread, Mat.16.14. Ioh.20,19.

Ioh.15,26. act.1.4

n Which was till Whitsontide, when the holy Ghost was sent from heauen.

Mar.16.19. act.1.9.

The holy Gospell of Iesus Christ,

according to Iohn.

CHAP. I.

1.14.17. The diuinitie, humanitie, and office of Jesus Christ. 15 The testimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrewe, Peter, &c.

§ Or, before the beginning.

a Christ is God before all time.

b The Sonne is of the same substance with the Father.

c No creature was made without Christ.

d Whereby all things are quickened and preserued.

e The life of man is more excellent then of any other creature, because it is ioyned with light and vnderstanding.

f Sathans minde is ful of darknes because of the corruption thereof. Mat.7.1, mar, 1.4.luk.3.2.

IN § the beginning was the Worde, and the Worde was with [a] God, and that Worde was God.

2 The same was [b] in the beginning with God.

3 All thinges were made by it, and [c] without it was made nothing ỹ was made.

4 In it was [d] life, & the life was the [e] light of men.

5 And the light shineth in [f] the darknes, and the darknes comprehended it not.

6 ¶ * There was a man sent from God, whose name [was] Iohn.

7 The same came for a witnes, to beare witnes of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.

8 He was not that light, but [was sent] to beare witnes of the light.

9 That was the true light, which lighteth

[Or, is borne.

lighteth euery man that ‖ commeth into the world.

10 He was in the world, & the worlde was * made by him: and the worlde [g] knewe him not.

11 He came vnto [h] his owne, and his owne receiued him not.

12 But as many as receiued him, to thē he gaue power to be [i] sōnes of God, euen to thē that beleeue in his Name, 13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 *And the Word was made [k] flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we sawe the glorie thereof, as the glorie of the onely begotten [Sonne] ‖ of the Father) * full of grace and trueth.

15 ¶ Iohn bare witnes of him, and cryed, saying, This was he of whom I said, He that cōmeth after me, is preferred before me: for he was ‖ before me.

16 And of his fulnes haue all we receiued, and [l] grace for grace.

17 For the Law was giuē by Moses, but grace & trueth came by Iesus Christ

18 * No man hath seene God at any time: the onely begotten sonne, which is in the [m] bosome of the Father, hee hath [n] declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priests and Leuites from Ierusalē, to aske him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denied not, & said plainely, I * am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art thou the [o] Prophet? And hee answered, No.

22 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou that wee may giue an answere to them that sent vs? what saiest thou of thy selfe?

23 He saide, I * am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernes, Make straight the way of the Lorde, as saide the Prophet Esaias.

24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharises.

25 And they asked him, and said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.

27 *He it is [p] commeth after me, which is preferred before mee, whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to vnloose.

28 These thinges were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.

29 ¶ The next day Iohn seeth Iesus comming vnto him, and saith, Behold the lambe of God, which taketh away the [p] sinne of the worlde.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knewe him not: but that he should be declared to Israel, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I saw * the Spirit come down frō heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knewe him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, hee saide vnto mee, Vpon whome thou shalt see the Spirit come down, and tarie still on him, that is he which baptizeth with [q] holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Sonne of God.

35 ¶ The next day, Iohn stoode a-gaine, and two of his disciples:

36 And he beheld Iesus walking by, and said, Behold the [r] lambe of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speake, and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, & saw them follow, and said vnto them, What seeke ye? And they said vnto him, Rabbi (which is to say by interpretatiō, Master) where dwellest thou?

39 He said vnto them, Come, and see. They came and sawe where he dwelt, & abode with him that day: for it was about the [s] tenth houre.

40 And one of the two which had heard [t] of Iohn, and that followed him.

41 The same found his brother Simon first, and saide vnto him, We haue found the Messias, which is by interpretation, ‖ the Christ.

42 And hee brought him to Iesus. And Iesus beheld him, and said, Thou art Simon [q] sonne of Iona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, ‖ a stone.

43 ¶ The day following, Iesus would go into Galile, & found Philippe, and said vnto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philippe was of Bethsaida, the citie of Andrewe and Peter.

45 Philippe found Nathanael, & said vnto him, We haue found him, of whom

* Moses

Heb. 11. 3.
g Because they did not worship him as their God. Rom. 1. 21. Act. 14. 15.
h To the Israelites, who were his peculiar people.
i Meaning a priuiledge or dignitie. Mat. 5. 16. luk. 2. 7. 11.
k He was formed and made man by the operation of the holy Ghost without the operation of man. Mat. 1. 20. 2. pet. 1. 17.
[Or, proceeding from the Father.
Col. 1. 19. & 2. 9.
[Or, more excellent then I.
l Hee abundant grace the by Moses.
1. Tim. 6. 16.
1. Iohn. 4. 12.
m Meaning, he is most deare, & straitly ioyned to his Father not only in loue, but also in nature and vnion.
n And so God that before was inuisible, was made, as it were visible in Christ.
Act. 13. 25.
o Whom they looked for to be such one as Moses was. Deut. 18. 15. Isai. 40. 3. mat. 3. 3. luk. 3. 4.

Mat. 3. 11. mar. 1. 7. luk. 3. 16. act. 13. 25. & 11. 16. & 19. 4.

p Signifying the originall sinne, which is the fountaine of all sinnes, & therewith all other sinnes.
q That is, by sight, but only by the reuelation of God. Mat. 3. 16. mar. 1. 10. luk. 3. 22.

r Who giueth the vertue and effect to baptisme, accomplishing that thing which is thereby represented.
s He alludeth to the Paschall lambe which was a figure of Christ.

t Or, where is thy lodging? or whether goest thou? For he dwelled in Nazaret, and was there as a stranger.
u That was, two houres before night.
x Howe Iohn said, that Iesus was the lambe of God.
‖ Or, the anointed.

‖ Or, Petrus.

Gene.49.10. deut.18.18. Isa.4.2.& 40. 10.& 42.1.& 45.8,9.ierc. 23.5.& 33.14. ezek.34.23, 29.& 37.24. 25.dan.9.24. 25.

* Moses did write in the Lawe, and the * Prophets, Iesus of Nazaret the sonne of Ioseph.

46 Then Nathanael said vnto him, Can there any y good thing come out of Nazaret? Philippe saide to him, Come, and see.

47 Iesus sawe Nathanael cõming to him, & sayde of him, Behold, in deede an Israelite, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael said vnto him, whence knewest thou me? Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast vnder ỹ figge tree, I sawe thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and sayde vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God: thou art the King of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, & said vnto him, Because I saide vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder the figge tree, ‖ beleeuest thou: Thou shalt see greater things thẽ these.

51 And he saide vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto you, hereafter shall yee see heauẽ z open, and the Angels of God * ascending and descending vpon the Sonne of man.

y Those things which are contemptible to the world, are esteemed and preferred of God: & those things which the world preferreth God abhorreth.

‖ Or, thou beleeuest.

z Christ openeth the heauens, that we may haue access to God, & maketh vs fellowes to the Angels. Gene.28.12.

CHAP. II.

8 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He purgeth the buyers, and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuerteth many, and distrusteth man.

AND the third day, was there a mariage in Cana [a towne] of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the mariage.

3 Nowe when ỹ wine failed, the mother of Iesus said vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother said vnto the seruants, whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, do it.

a Who vsed continuall washings to purifie themselues. Which superstition Hebion the heretike would haue brought into the Church, & nowe the Papists haue receiued it.

6 And there were set there, fiue water pots of stone, after the maner of the a purifying of the Iewes, cõteining two or three ‖ b firkins a piece.

‖ Or, measures.

b Whereof euery one contained 15. gallons.

7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fill the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brimme.

8 Then he said vnto them, Draw out nowe and beare vnto the ‖ gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

‖ Or, stewarde.

9 Nowe when the gouernour of the feast had tasted ỹ water that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was: but the seruantes, which drewe the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome,

10 And saide vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and whẽ men haue well dronke, then that which is worse: [but] thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill nowe.

11 This beginning of ‖ miracles dyd Iesus in Cana [a towne] of Galile, and shewed forth his glory: and his disciples beleeued on him.

‖ Or, signes.

12 After that he went downe into Capernaum, he & his mother, and his ‖ brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not many dayes there.

‖ Or, cousins.

13 For the Iewes Passeouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem,

14 * And he found in ỹ Temple those that solde oxen, and sheepe, & doues, and changers of money, sitting [there.]

Matth.21.12. mark.11.15. luk.19.45.

15 Then hee made a scourge of small cordes, and draue thẽ al out of the Temple with the sheepe & oxen, and powred out the changers money, & ouerthrewe the tables,

16 And sayde vnto them that solde doues, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house, an house of marchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, * The c zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

Psalm.69.9.

c This affection was so burning in him, that it surmounted and swallowed vp all the others.

18 Then answered the Iewes & said vnto him, what ‖ signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

‖ Or, miracle.

19 Iesus answered and said vnto thẽ, * Destroy this Temple, & in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

Matt.26,61. & 27.40. mark. 14.58.& 15. 29.

20 Then saide the Iewes, Fourtie and sixe yeres was this Temple a buylding, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But he spake of the Temple of his d bodie.

d Christs body might iustly be called ỹ Temple, because the fulnesse of the godhead dwelleth in it corporally. Col.2.9.

22 Assoone therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that he thus sayde vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the worde which Iesus had said.

23 Nowe whẽ he was at Ierusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleeued in his Name, when they saw his miracles which he did.

e For he tooke not them for true disciples, as he knewe vp their inwarde thoughts, what religion soeuer they did pretend outwardly,

24 But Iesus e did not cõmit himself vnto them, because he knewe them all,

25 And had no neede that any should testifie of man: for hee knewe what was in man.

CHAP. III.

3 Christ instructeth Nicodemus in the regeneration. 15 Of faith. 16 Of the loue of God towards the world. 23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn. 28 And the witnesse that he beareth of Christ.

THere was now a man of the Pharises named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes.
2 Hee came to Iesus by night, & said vnto him, Rabbi, We know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man could do these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.
3 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he can not [a] see the [b] kingdome of God.
4 Nicodemus saide vnto him, Howe can a man be borne which is olde: can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?
5 Iesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of [c] water and of the Spirite, he can not enter into the kingdome of God.
6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: and that that is borne of the Spirit, is Spirit.
7 Marueile not that I sayde to thee, Ye must be borne againe.
8 The [d] winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sounde thereof, but canst not tell whence it commeth, and whither it goeth: so is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.
9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, Howe can these things be?
10 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and [e] knowest not these things?
11 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, We speake that we [f] knowe, and testifie, that wee haue seene: but yee [g] receiue not our witnesse.
12 If whē I tel you [h] earthly things, ye beleeue not, howe shoulde ye beleeue, if I shall tell you of heauenly things?
13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but hee that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in [i] heauen.
14 *And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernes, so must the Sonne of man be [k] lift vp,
15 That whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.
16 *For God so loued the worlde, that he hath giuen his onely begotten sonne, that whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euerlasting life.
17 *For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that he should [l] condemne the world, but that the [m] world through him might be saued.
18 He that beleeueth in him, shall not be condemned: but he that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeueth not in the name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.
19 *And this is the [n] condemnation, that light is come into the worlde, & men loued darkenes rather then light, because their deedes were euill.
20 For euery man that euill doth, hateth the light, neither commeth to light, least his deedes should be reproued.
21 But he that doeth [o] truely, cōmeth to the light, that his deedes might be made manifest, that they are wrought [‖] according to God.
22 CAfter these things, came Iesus and his disciples into the [‖] lande of Iudea, and there taried with them, and *baptized.
23 And Iohn also baptized in Enon besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.
24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.
25 Then there arose a question betweene Iohns disciples & the Iewes, about [q] purifying.
26 And they came vnto Iohn, & sayd vnto him, Rabbi, [r] hee that was with thee beyonde Iordan, to whome *thou bearest witnes, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.
27 Iohn answered and saide, A man can receiue nothing, except it bee giuen him from heauen.
28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that *I saide, [s] I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.
29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friend of the bridegrome which standeth & heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of [t] bridegromes voice. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.
30 He must [u] increase, but I [‖] must decrease.
31 He that is come frō on hie, is aboue all: he that is of [x] earth, is of the earth, & speaketh of the earth: he that is come from heauen, is aboue all.
32 And what hee hath seene & heard, that hee testifieth: but no man receiueth his testimonie.
33 Hee that hath receiued his testimonie, a To enter therein.

b Which thing is to be assembled and incorporate into the Church of God.
c Which is the spirituall water where the holy Ghost doth wash vs into newnesse of life.
d As the power of God is manifest by the mouing of the aire, so is it in changing & renuing vs, although the maner be hid from vs.
e Although he was excellently learned, yet knewe he not those thinges which the very babes in Christs schole ought to knowe.
f We may not teach our owne inuentions.
g He repeateth him, for that men doe teach things which they vnderstand not, & yet others beleeue them: but Christ teacheth things most certaine and knowen, and men will not receiue his doctrine.
h Which was after a common and grosse maner.
i By reason of the vnion of his Godhead with his manhood.
Nom. 21.9.
k His power must be manifest which is not yet knowen.
1. Iohn 4.9.

Chap. 9.39. & 12.47.
l Therefore tempt of Christ, & the sinnes of the wicked condemne them: yet Christ as a iust iudge giueth sentence against them for their obstinate.
m Not onely the Iewes, but whosoeuer should beleeue in him.
Chap. 1.9.
n The cause & matter of condemnation.
o In walking roundly, and syncerely.
‖ Or, in God.
p As they doe which set God onely before their eyes, and follow the rule of his word.
‖ Or, territorie.
Chap. 4.1, 2.
q That is, how they might be made cleane before God, which the washings vnder the Lawe did represent.
r They were led with ambition, fearing least their master houlde haue lost his fame.
Chap. 1.34.
Chap. 1.20.
s No man ought to disparage any thing further then God giueth him.
t And he exalted, and esteemed as his seruant.
u The minister compared to Christ, is but earth.

Rom.3.4.

nie, hath sealed that * God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the wordes of God: for God giueth [him] not the Spirit by x measure.

x For vnto Christ was giuen the full abundance of all grace, that we might receiue of him as of the onely fountaine. Matth. 11.27. Habac.2.4. 1.ioh.5.10.

35 The Father loueth the Sonne, & hath * giuen all things vnto his hand.

36 * He that beleeueth in the Sonne, hath euerlasting life, and he that obeieth not the Sonne, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAP. IIII.

7 The communication of Christ with the woman of Samaria. 34 His zeale toward his Father and his haruest. 39 The conuersiō of the Samaritanes, 45 And Galileans. 47 How he healeth the rulers sonne.

NOw when the Lord knewe, howe y Pharises had heard, that Iesus made and baptized mo disciples then Iohn,

2 (Though Iesus himselfe baptized not: but his disciples)

3 He a left Iudea, and departed again into Galile.

a To giue place to their rage.

4 And hee must needes goe through Samaria.

5 Then came hee to a citie of Samaria called ‖ Sychar, neere vnto the possession that * Iacob gaue to his sonne Ioseph.

‖ Or, Sychem. Gen.33.19,& 48.22,ioi.24. 32.

6 And there was Iacobs well. Iesus then wearyed in the iourney, sate b thus on the well: it was about the c first houre.

b Euen weary as he was.
c Which was midday.

7 There came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Iesus sayde vnto her, Giue me drinke.

8 For his disciples were gone away into the citie, to buy meate.

9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, Howe is it, that thou being a Iewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of d Samaria? For the Iewes medle not with the Samaritanes.

d For y Iewes esteemed the Samaritans as wicked and prophane.

10 Iesus answered and sayde vnto her, If thou knewest the e gift of God, and who it is that sayeth to thee, Giue me drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, & he would haue giuen thee f ‖ water of life.

e Meaning of himselfe whom his Father had sent to conuert this woman.
f Which is the loue of God in his Sonne powred into our hearts by the holy Ghost vnto euerlasting life. Rom. 5.5.1.ioh.3.5.
‖ Or, the liuely water.

11 The woman saide vnto him, Syr, thou hast nothing to drawe with, & the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, and hee him selfe dranke thereof, & his children, and his cattell?

13 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoeuer drinketh of this water, shal thirst againe:

14 But whosoeuer drinketh of the water that I shal giue him, shal neuer be more h a thirst: but the water that I shal giue him, shalbe in him a well of water, springing vp into euerlasting life.

g Of the spirituall grace.
h He shall neuer be vexed vp with destitute.

15 The woman saide vnto him, Syr, giue mee of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to drawe.

16 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, & saide, I haue no husbande. Iesus sayde to her, Thou hast well said, I haue no husbād.

18 For thou hast had fiue husbands, & he whome thou nowe hast, is not thine husband: that saydest thou truely.

19 The woman saide vnto him, Syr, I i see that thou art a Prophet.

i Till she was finely touched with her faults, she mocked & would not heare Christ. Deut.12.6.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and ye say, that in * Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worshippe.

21 Iesus saide vnto her, Woman, beleeue me, the houre commeth, when yee shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which ye * know not: we worship that which we knowe: for saluation is of the Iewes.

2.King.17.29.

23 But the houre commeth, and now is, whē the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirite, and trueth: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.

24 * God is a k Spirite, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and trueth.

2.Cor.3.17. k God being of a spirituall nature, requireth a spirituall seruice, and agreeable to his nature.

25 The woman sayde vnto him, I know we l Messias shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus said vnto her, I am he, that speake vnto thee.

27 ¶ And vpon that came his disciples, and marueiled that he talked with a woman: yet no man sayde vnto him, what askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the citie, and sayde to the men, 29 Come, see a man which hath tolde me all thinges that euer I did: is not he the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, and came vnto him.

31 ¶ In m meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eate.

32 But hee sayde vnto them, I haue meate to eate, that ye knowe not of.

33 Then saide the disciples betweene themselues, hath any man brought him meate?

34 Iesus said vnto them, [i] My meat is that I may do the wil of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not yee, There are yet foure moneths, and [then] commeth harueste? Beholde, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: *for they are white already vnto haruest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiueth wages, & gathereth fruite vnto life eternal, that both hee that soweth, and hee that reapeth, might [m] reioyce together.

37 For herein is the ||saying true, that one soweth and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reape that, whereon ye bestowed no labour: [n] other men laboured, and yee are entred into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritanes of that citie [o] beleeued in him, for the saying of þ woman which testified, He hath told me all things that euer I did.

40 The when þ Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him, that he would tarie with them: and he abode there two dayes.

41 And many mo [p] beleeued, because of his owne word.

42 And they sayde vnto the woman, Now we beleeue, not because of thy saying: for wee haue heard him our selues, and knowe that this is in deede þ Christ the Sauiour of the world.

43 ¶ So two dayes after hee departed thence, and went into Galile.

44 For Iesus himselfe had * testified that a prophet hath none honour in [q] his owne countrey.

45 Then when hee was come into Galile, þ Galileans receiued him, which had seene all the thinges that hee did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

46 And Iesus came again into * Cana [a towne] of Galile, where hee had made of water Wine. And there was a certaine [r] ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galile, he went vnto him, & besought him that he would ||goe downe, and heale his sonne: for he was euen ready to die.

48 Then sayde Iesus vnto him, except ye see signes and wonders, yee will not beleeue.

49 The ruler saide vnto him, Syr, goe downe before my sonne die.

50 Iesus said vnto him, Go thy way, thy sonne liueth: and the man beleeued the worde that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and went his way.

51 And as he was now ||going downe, his seruãts met him, saying, Thy sonne liueth.

52 Then enquired hee of them the houre when hee began to amende. And they said vnto him, Yesterday þ seuenth houre the feuer left him.

53 Then the father knew, that it was the same houre in the which Iesus had said vnto him, Thy sonne liueth. And he beleeued, and all his household.

54 This second miracle did Iesus againe, after hee was come out of Iudea into Galile.

CHAP. V.

8 Hee healeth the man that was sicke eight and thirtie yeeres. 10 The Iewes accuse him. 19 Christ answereth for him selfe, and reproueth them. 32 Beareth by the testimonie of his Father. 33 Of Iohn. 36 Of his workes. 39 And of the Scriptures, who he is.

AFter that, there was a feast of the Iewes, & Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalẽ by ||þ place of þ sheepe, a [a] poole called in Ebrue [b] Bethesda, hauing fiue porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halt, & withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoeuer thẽ first, after the stirring of þ water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certain mã was there, which had bene diseased eight & thirtie yeres.

6 When Iesus saw him lie, & knew þ he nowe long time had bene diseased, he saide vnto him, Wilt þ bee made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, whẽ the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but while I am cõming, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus sayde vnto him, Rise: [c] take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediatly þ man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, & walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath [day:] * it is not lawfull for thee to carie thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me i There is nothing that I hunger for more, or wherin I take greater pleasure.

Matth.9.37. luke 10.2.

m Without grudging the one at the others labour.

||Or, proouerbe.

n Meaning the Prophets.

o The Samaritanes shewed themselues willing to receiue his doctrine, who beeing but strangers, & charcefully knowing Christ, are a condemnation to the Iewes, and all others, which neglect Gods worde when it is offred.

p That is, hath the right and true sayt).

Matth.13.57. mark.6.4.luk. 4.24.

q Here, by his owne countrey hee meaneth Ierusalem, & the countrey about.

Chap.2.1.

r The worde signifieth properly one of þ Kings court: & it seemeth, that he was one of Herods court, who was in great estimation with Herode, whome the people called King. Mar. 6.14.

||Or, come.

Leuit.23.3. deut.16.1.

||Or, the sheepe market.

a Where the sheepe were washed, that should be sacrificed.

b Which signifieth a house of powring out, because the water ran out by conduites.

c This was, to the ende that the miracle might be so euident, that no man coulde speake against it.

Ierem.17.22.

me whole, he said vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, what man is that which sayde vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And he that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Jesus had conueied him selfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Jesus found him in the Temple, & said vnto him, Behold, thou art made whole: [d] sinne no more, least a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 ¶ The man departed, and told the Jewes that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Jewes did persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath [day.]

17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, & I worke.

18 Therefore the Jewes sought the more to kill him: not only because he had broken the Sabbath: but sayd also that God was [e] his Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and saide vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of himselfe, saue that he seeth the Father do: for whatsoeuer things hee doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the father loueth the Sonne, and [f] sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he himselfe doeth, and he will shewe him greater workes then these, that yee should marualle.

21 For like wise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all [h] iudgement vnto the Sonne, 23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoureth not the Father, the same honoureth not the Father, which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that heareth my word, and beleeueth in him that sent me, hath euerlasting life, & shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, the houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voice of the sonne of God: and they that [i] heare it, shall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in [k] him selfe, so likewise hath hee giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute [l] iudgement, in that hee is the Sonne of man.

28 Marueile not at this: for the houre shall come in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, * that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: & my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

31 If I * should beare witnes of my selfe, my witnes were not [m] true.

32 There is another that beareth witnes of me, and I know that the witnes, which he beareth of mee, is true.

33 * Ye sent vnto John, and hee bare witnes vnto the trueth.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheles, these things I say, that ye might be saued.

35 He was a burning, and a shining ‖candle: and ye would for a [n] season haue reioyced in his light.

36 But I haue greater witnes then the witnes of John: for the workes which the Father hath giuen me to finishe, the same workes that I do, beare witnes of me, that the Father sent me.

37 And the * Father him selfe, which hath sent me, [o] beareth witnes of me. Ye haue not heard his voyce at any time, * neither haue ye seene his shape.

38 And his worde haue yee not abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye beleeue not.

39 * Search the Scriptures: for in them ye thinke to haue eternall life, and they are they which testifie of me.

40 But ye will not come to mee, that ye might haue life.

41 I receiue not praise of men.

42 But I know you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fathers name, & ye receiue me not: if [p] another shall come in his owne name, him will ye receiue.

44 How can ye beleeue, which [q] receiue * honour one of another, & seeke not the honour that cometh of God alone?

45 Do not thinke that I will accuse you to my Father: there is one [r] accuseth you, [euen] Moses in whom ye trust.

d The afflictions that we endure, are chastisements for our sinnes.

e That is, proper and peculiar to him alone.

f Jewes vsurpfull for all Israel to cal God their Father, Exod.4.22. but because Christ did attribute to himselfe, that he had power ouer all things, and wrought as his Father did, they gathered that Christ did not onely make himselfe the Sonne of God but also equall with him.

g That is, he doeth communicate with him, hauing the same power and the same will.

h In giuing him power and rule ouer all i They that receiue it by fayth.

k To communicate it with vs.

l That is, to gouerne & rule all things.

Mat.25.46.

Chap.8.14. mat.3.17.

m Christ had respect to their weakenes, that heard him, and therefore said his owne witnes should not be sufficient. Chap.1.27.

‖Or, lampe.

n But ye left him quickly, & did not persecute.

Mat.3.17. and 17.5.

o In the Law and Prophets. Deut.4.12. Act.17.11.

p The people are more ready to receiue false prophets, then Jesus Christ.

q Vaine glory is a great let for a man to come to God. Chap.12.43.

r As Moses shall accuse the Jewes, so they shall haue no greater excuses at the day of iudgement, then the virgine Marie and the Sainctes, vpon whom now they call: but whosoeuer doth accuse the godly, Christ & their own conscience shall condemne them.

Gen.3.15.& 22.17.& 49. 10.deut.18.15

46 For had ye beleeued Moses, ye would haue beleeued me: *for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye beleeue not his Writings, how shall ye beleeue my words?

CHAP. VI.

1 Iesus feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loues and two fishes. 15 He departeth away, that they should not make him king. 26 He reproueth fleshly hearers of his word. 41 The carnall are offended at him. 63 The flesh profiteth not.

AFter these things, Iesus went his way ouer the a sea of Galile, [or] of b Tiberias.

a Called the lake of Gennesareth.

b Tiberias, Bethsaida, and Capernaum were on this side the lake, in respect of Galile: but it is here said that he went ouer, because there were diuers crieks and turnings, ouer the which men ferried. Leuit.23.5. deut.16.1. Mat.14.16. mar.6.37. luke 9.13.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they sawe his miracles, which he did on them that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went vp into a mountaine, & there he sate with his disciples.

4 Now the Passeouer, a feast of the Iewes, was neere.

5 *Then Iesus lift vp [his] eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he saide vnto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these might eat?

6 (And this he saide to proue him: for he himselfe knew what he would do)

7 Philip answered him, c Two hundreth peny worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them may take a litle.

c This summe amounteth to about fiue pound sterling.

8 Then said vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, 9 There is a litle boy here, which hath fiue barly loaues, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus said, Make the people sit down. (Now there was much grasse in that place) Then the men sate downe in number, about fiue thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, d & gaue thankes, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

d Prayer and thanksgiuing do sanctifie our meates, wherewith we are nourished.

12 And when they were satisfied, hee sayde vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that e nothing be lost.

e The abundant store of Gods gifts ought not to make vs prodigall to waste them.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broke meat of the fiue barly loaues, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

f They imagined an earthly kingdome without the testimonie of Gods worde, so that by this meanes his spirituall kingdome should haue bene abolished.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, sayde, This is of a trueth the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceyued that they would come, and take him to make him a f King, hee departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

16 ¶ When euen was now come, his disciples went downe into the sea,

17 *And entred into a ship, and went g ouer the sea towardes Capernaum: & now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

Mat.14.25. mar.6.47.

g Ouer a corner of the lake.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blewe.

19 And when they had rowed about fiue and twentie, or thirtie h furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, & drawing neere vnto the shippe: so they were afrayed.

h Whereof eight make a mile.

20 But he said vnto them, It is I: be not afrayed.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, the people which stoode on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other shippe there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in þ ship, but that his disciples were gone i alone.

i Wherefore it must needes followe that Christ passed miraculously.

23 And that there came other ships frō Tiberias neere vnto þ place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thankes.

24 Now when the people sawe that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

k This was not straight ouer the lake from side to side, but ouer a cricke, or arme of the lake, which saued much labour to them that should haue gone about by land.

25 And when they had found him on the k other side of the sea, they saide vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and saide, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seeke me not, because ye sawe the miracles, but because ye ate of þ loaues, & were filled.

27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for þ meat that l endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of man shal giue vnto you: for him hath *God the Father m sealed.

l Which nourisheth & augmenteth our faith.

Chap.1.32. mat.3.17.& 17.5.

m For when he appointed him to be the mediatour, he set his marke and seale in him to be the onely one to reconcile God and man together.

28 Then said they vnto him, What shall we doe, that wee might worke the n workes of God?

n Such as be acceptable vnto God.

29 Iesus answered, and said vnto thē, *This is the worke of God, that ye beleeue in him, whom he hath sent.

1.Ioh.3.23.

30 They sayde therefore vnto him, what signe shewest thou then, that we may see it, and beleeue thee? what doest thou worke?

Exo.16.14.15. nom.11.7. Psal.78.24.25. wisd.16.20.

31 *Our Fathers did eate Manna in the desert, as it is *written, He gaue them bread from heauen to eate.

32 Then

32 Thē Jesus said vnto thē, Uerely, verely I say vnto you, [o]Moses gaue you not bread from heauen, but my Father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is hee which commeth downe from heauen, and giueth life vnto the world.

34 Then they saide vnto him, Lorde, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Jesus saide vnto them, I am the bread of life: he that commeth to me, shall not hunger, and [p]he that beleeueth in me, shall neuer thirst.

36 But I said vnto you, that yee also haue seene me, and beleeue not.

37 All [q] that the Father giueth mee, shal come to me: and him that commeth to me, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to doe mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which hee hath giuen mee, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent mee, that euery man which seeth the Sonne, [r] beleeueth in him, should haue euerlasting life: and I will rayse him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because he sayde, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they saide, * Is not this Jesus the sonne of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? howe then saith he, I came downe from heauen?

43 Jesus then answered, [s] saide vnto thē, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can [t] come to me, except [u] father, which hath sent me, [v] draw him: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in [w] * Prophets, And they shal be al taught of God. Euery mā therefore that hath heard, [x] hath learned of the Father, commeth vnto me, 46 * Not that any man hath seene the Father, saue he which is of God, he hath seene the Father.

47 Uerely, verely I say vnto you, he [y] beleeueth in mee, hath euerlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 * Your fathers did eat Manna in the wildernesse, [z] and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that hee which eateth of it, should not die.

51 I am [y] [a] liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, he shall liue for euer: and the bread that I wil giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the worlde.

52 Then the Iewes stroue among themselues, saying, Howe can this man giue vs [his] flesh to eate?

53 Then Jesus said vnto them, Uerely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue [x] no life in you.

54 Whosoeuer * eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat in deede, and my blood is drinke in deede.

56 He [y] that eateth my flesh, [z] drinketh my blood, [z] dwelleth in me, & I in him.

57 As the liuing Father hath sent me, so liue I by the Father, and he that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers hath eaten Manna, and are dead. Hee [y] eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake he in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) saide, This is an hard saying: who can [a] heare it?

61 But Jesus knowing in him selfe, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto them, Doeth this offende you?

62 [What] then if ye should see the Sonne of man [b] ascende vp * where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh [c] profiteth nothing: the words that I speake vnto you, are spirit & life.

64 But there are some of you that beleeue not: for Jesus knewe from the beginning, which they were that beleeued not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, [b] no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus to the twelue, will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whome shall we goe? Thou hast the wordes of [d] eternall life:

69 And we beleeue and knowe that thou art * the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

70 Jesus answered them, Haue not I * chosen you twelue, and [c] one of you is a deuill?

J.4. 71 Howe

o He compareth Moses with the Father, & Manna with Christ, who feedeth vs vnto euerlasting life, 1. Cor. 10. 3.

Eccles. 24. 24. chap. 4. 14.

p He shall neuer want spirituall nourishment.

q God doeth regenerate his elect, and calleth them to obey the Gospel.

Matth. 13. 55.

r That is, to beleeue in me.

s By lightening his heart with his holy Spirit. Isa. 54. 13. Iere. 31. 33.

Matth. 11. 27.

Exod. 16. 15.

t Then there is no food that can nourish our soules, but Jesus Christ.

u Which giue life to the world.

x Where Christ is not, there death reigneth. 1. Cor. 11. 27.

y As our bodies are fulfilled with meat and drinke: so are our soules nourished with the bodie and blood of Jesus Christ.

z To eate the flesh of Christ and drinke his blood, is to dwel in Christ, and to haue Christ dwelling in vs.

a That is, vnderstande it.

b He meaneth not that his humanitie ascended from heauen: but he speaketh, touching the vnion of both natures, attributing to the one, that which appertaineth to the other. Chap. 3. 13.

c To wit, if it be separated from the Spirit, wherof it hath the force: for it commeth of the power of the Spirit that the flesh of Christ giueth vs life.

d Then without Christ there is but death: for his worde onely leadeth vs to life. Mat. 16. 16. Mar. 26. 16.

c Although your number be small, yet shall ye be diminished.

7 Nowe he spake it of Iudas Iscariot the [sonne] of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelue.

CHAP. VII.

6 Iesus reproueth the ambition of his cousins. 12 There are diuers opinions of him among the people. 17 He sheweth how to know the truth. 20 The iniurie they do vnto him. 47 The Pharises rebuke the officers because they haue not take him. 52 And chide with Nicodemus for taking his part.

AFter these thinges, Iesus walked in Galile, and would not walke in Iudea: for the Iewes sought to kill him.

2 Now the Iewes [a] feast of the Tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said vnto him, Depart hence, and goe into Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy woorkes that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing secretly, and he himselfe seeketh to be ‖famous. If thou doest these things, shewe thy selfe to the world.

5 For as yet his brethren beleeued not in him.

6 Then Iesus sayde vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readie.

7 The woorlde can not hate you: but me it hateth, [b] because I testifie of it, that the woorkes thereof are euill.

8 Go ye vp vnto this feast: I will [c] not goe vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 ¶ These things he said vnto them, and abode still in Galile.

10 But assoone as his brethren were gone vp, then went hee also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as [it were] priuily.

11 The the Iewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some sayde, He is a good man: other saide, Nay: but he deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the [d] Iewes.

14 Nowe when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, Howe knoweth this man the ‖Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

16 Iesus answered them, and sayde, My doctrine is not [e] mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shal knowe of the doctrine, whether it bee of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

18 He [f] that speaketh of him selfe, seeketh his owne glorie: but he that seeketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no [g] vnrighteousnes is in him.

19 *Did not Moses giue you a Law, and [yet] none of you keepeth the Law? *why goe ye about to kill me?

20 The [h] people answered, and said, Thou hast a deuill: Who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Iesus answered, and said to them, I [i] haue done one woorke, and ye all marueile.

22 *Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the *fathers) and ye on the Sabbath [day] circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Lawe of Moses shoulde not be broken, be ye angrie with me, because I haue made a man euery whit whole on the Sabbath [day?]

24 *Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

25 ¶ Then sayd some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this he, whome they goe about to kill?

26 And behold, he speaketh ‖openly, and they say nothing to him: do the rulers know in deede that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we knowe this man whence he is: but when the Christ commeth, no man shall know whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cried Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye [k] both know me, and know whence I am: yet am I not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whome ye knowe not.

29 But I knowe him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man layde handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Nowe many of the people [l] beleeued in him, and sayde, When the Christ commeth, will he doe mo miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharises and the Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then saide Iesus vnto them, Yet am I [m] a litle while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

34 *Ye shall seeke me, & shall not find [me,] & where I am, can ye not come.

35 Then said the Iewes among themselues, whither will he go, that we shall not finde him? will he goe vnto them that are [†] dispersed among the [n] Gretians, and Leuit.23.34.

a As this feast they dwelled seuen dayes in tents, which put them in remembrance, that they had no citie here permanent, but that they must seeke one to come.

‖Or, manifest.

b Why the world hateth Christ.

c Christ doeth not vtterly denie that he would goe to the feast, but signifieth that as yet he was not fully determined.

d These were the heads of the people who did enuie Christ.

‖Or, lerners.

e In that, that he is man onely.

f By this marke we may knowe whether the doctrine be of God or of man.

g Nothing counterfaut or vntrue.

Exod.24.3.

Chap.5.18.

h Who did not knowe the fetch of the Scribes.

i Because I did it on the Sabbath day.

Leuit.12.3.

Gen.17.10.

Deut.1.16,17.

‖Or, freely.

k He speaketh this, as it were ieopardy.

l They were well minded to beare him: which preparation is here called (although improperly) faith.

m He sheweth vnto them that they haue no power ouer him, till the time come that his Father hath ordeined.

Chap.13.33.

†Or, shall be.

†Greeke, dispersion.

n Among the Iewes which were scatterers here and there among the Gentiles.

and

and teach the Gretians?
36 What saying is this that he saide, Ye shal seeke me, and shal not find [me:] and where I am, can ye not come?
Leuit.23.36. 37 Nowe in the last [and] *great day of the feast, Iesus stoode and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.
o The true way to come to Christ, is by faith.
38 He that o beleeueth in me, *as saith the Scripture, out of his belly shal flow riuers of water p of life.
Deut.18.15.
p Which that neuer ryse vp. Ioel.2.28. act.2.17.
39 (*This spake he of the Spirite which they that beleeued in him, should receiue: for the q holy Ghost was not yet [giuen,] because that Iesus was not yet glorified) q These were the visible graces, which were giuen to the Apostles after his ascension.
40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, said, Of a trueth this is the r Prophet.
r They looked for some notable Prophet besides the Messias, Chap.1.21. Mich.5.2. mat.2.5.
41 Other sayde, This is the Christ: and some sayde, But shall Christ come out of Galile?
42 *Sayeth not the Scripture that the Christ shall come of the seede of Dauid, & out of the towne of Beth-lehem, where Dauid was?
43 So was there dissension among the people for him.
44 And some of thē would haue taken him, but no man laid hands on him.
45 Then came the officers to ỳ high Priests & Pharises, and they saide vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?
46 The officers answered, s Neuer man spake like this man.
s Wherein appeareth the mighte power of Christes word against his enemies.
47 Then answered them the Pharises, Are ye also deceiued?
48 Doeth any of the r rulers, or of the Pharises beleeue in him?
t They alledge the authoritie of man against Gods authoritie.
49 But this people, which knowe not the Lawe, are cursed.
50 Nicodemus sayde vnto them, (*he that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them.)
Chap.3.1,2.
51 Doeth our Lawe iudge a man before it heare him, * and knowe what he hath done?
Deut.17.8. and 19.15.
52 They answered and sayde vnto him, Art thou also of Galile? Search and looke: for out of Galile ariseth no Prophet.
53 And euery man went vnto his owne house.

CHAP. VIII.

11 Christ deliuereth her that was taken in adulterie. 12 He is the light of the world. 14 He sheweth from whence he is come, wherefore, and whither he goeth. 32 Who are free, and who are bonde. 34 Of free men and slaues, and their reward. 46 He beleeth his enemies. 59 And being persecuted, withdraweth him selfe.

AND Iesus went vnto the mount of Olines,
2 And earely in the morning came againe into the Temple, and all the people came vnto him, & he sate downe, and taught them.
3 Then the Scribes, and the Pharises brought vnto him a Woman, taken in adulterie, and set her in the middes,
4 And saide vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adulterie, in the verie act.
5 *Nowe Moses in the Lawe commanded vs, that such should be stoned: What sayest thou therefore?
Leuit.20.10.
6 And this they saide to tempt him, that they might haue whereof to a accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the grouֹnd.
a Either for breaking the Law, if he did deliuer her, or of lightnes, and inconstancie, if he did condemne her. Deut.17.6,7.
7 And while they continued asking him, he lift him selfe vp, and saide vnto them, *Let him that is amōg you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.
b Iesus would not meddle, but with that which did appertaine to his office, to wit, to bring sinners to repentance: & therefore did not abolish the Law against adulterie.
8 And againe he stouped downe, and wrote on the ground.
9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.
Chap.1.5. and 9.5.
10 When Iesus had lift vp him selfe againe, and sawe no man, but the woman, he saide vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers: hath no man condemned thee?
‖ Or, liuely light.
‖ Or, iust. Chap.5.31.
11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus saide, b Neither doe I condemne thee: goe and sinne no more.
c That which Christ denied Chap.5.31. here he graunteth, to declare vnto thē their stubbernes, & saith that being God he beareth witnes to his humanitie: likewise doth God the father witnesse the same, which are two distinct persons, though but one God, Chap.5.37.
12 Thē spake Iesus again vnto thē, saying, I* am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darknes, but shall haue the ‖ light of life.
13 The Pharises therefore said vnto him, Thou beareſt recorde of thy selfe: thy recorde is not ‖ true.
d In that he came from his father, he sheweth that he is not only man, but God also.
14 *Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, c Though I beare recorde of my selfe, [yet] my recorde is true: for I knowe whence I came and whither I goe: but ye can not tel d whence I come, and whither I goe.
15 Ye iudge after the flesh: e I iudge no man.
e He would not iudge rashly, as they did. Deut.17.6. and 19.15. mat.18.16. 2.cor.13.1. hebr.10.28.
16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.
17 And it is also written in your lawe, * that the testimonie of two men is true.
18 I am

f Which place proueth Christ to be very God and man.

18 I am f one that beare witnesse of my selfe, and the Father that sent me, beareth witnesse of me.

19 Then said they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye neither knowe me, nor my Father. If ye had knowen me, ye shoulde haue knowen my Father also.

g That is, the place where the vessell and other things belonging to the Temple, were kept.

20 These wordes spake Iesus in the g treasurie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid handes on him: for his houre was not yet come.

h Because of their rebellion wherein they did persewere.

21 Then saide Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your h sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then said the Iewes, Will he kil himselfe because he saith, whither I goe, can ye not come?

i Ye sheweth the difference betweene the Gospel, & the subtill wit of man.

23 And he said vnto them, Ye are frō beneath: I am from aboue: ye are of this worlde, I am not of this worlde.

24 I said therfore vnto you, That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleeue, that I am he, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then saide they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus saide vnto them, ‖ Euen the same thing that I saide vnto you k from the beginning.

‖ Or, From the beginning euen that I said vnto you.

k That is, who he was, whence he was, & why he came into this worlde.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the worlde.

27 They vnderstoode not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Iesus vnto them, Whē ye haue l lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye m know ṗ I am he, & ṗ I do nothing of my self, but as my Father hath taught me, [so] I speake these things.

l Their endeuours & practises where by they thinke to destroy him, shall serue to exalt and magnifie his glorie.

29 For he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe allwayes those thinges that please him.

m Not to beleeue in him, but to be conuicted.

30 ¶ As he spake these things, many beleeued in him.

n To wit, the Messias.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which beleeued in him, If ye continue in my worde, ye are verely my disciples, 32 And shall knowe the trueth, and the trueth n shall make you free.

o For we were slaues to sinne.

33 They answered him, o We be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bond to any man: why saiest thou then, Ye shall be made free?

p These were not the beleeuing Iewes, but the murderers that answered thus. Rom.6.20. 2.pet.2.19.

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoeuer committeth sinne, is the * seruāt of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If ṗ Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deede.

q He granteth their sayings in such sort, that he theweth vnto them that their own deedes proue them lyars.

37 I q know that ye are Abrahams seede, but ye seeke to kill me, because my worde hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seene with my Father: and ye do that which ye haue seene with your father.

39 They answered, and saide vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus said vnto thē, If ye were Abrahās children, ye would doe the r works of Abraham.

r Which were his obedience, charitie & such good workes which proceeded of faith.

40 But nowe ye goe about to kil me, a man that haue tolde you the trueth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye doe the works of your father. Then said they to him, We are not borne of fornication: wee haue one Father, which is God.

42 Therfore Iesus said vnto them, If God were your Father, then would ye loue me: for I proceeded forth, and came from God, neither came I of my selfe, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not vnderstād my talke: because ye can not s heare my worde.

s For you are carnal and can not vnderstand spirituall things. 1.Ioh.2.8.

44 * Ye are of your father the deuill, & the lusts of your father ye will doe: he hath bene a murtherer t from the beginning, & u abode not in the trueth, because there is no trueth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his x owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

t Since the first creation of man.

u It followeth then that he was once in the trueth: for he was not created euill.

x According to his wont & custome. 1.Ioh.4.6.

45 And because I tel you the trueth, ye beleeue me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the trueth, why doe ye not beleeue me?

47 * He that is of God, heareth Gods wordes: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes and said vnto him, Say we not well ṗ thou art a Samaritane, and hast a deuill?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuill, but I honour my Father, and ye haue dishonoured me.

50 And I seeke not mine owne praise: but there is one that seeketh it, and y iudgeth.

y Who will reuenge the iniurie that you do against me, or rather against him.

51 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If a man keepe my worde, he shall neuer z see death.

z For the faithfull euen in death see life.

52 Then said ṗ Iewes to him, Now know we that thou hast a deuill. Abraham ham is dead, and the Prophets, and thou sayest, If a man keepe my worde, he shall neuer taste of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abrahã, which is dead? & the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

54 Iesus answered, If I honour my self, mine honour is nothing worth: it is my father that honoureth me, whõ ye say, that he is your God.

55 Yet ye haue not knowne him: but I know him, & if I should say I know him not, I should be a lyar like vnto you: but I know him, & keepe his word.

56 Your father Abraham reioyced to see my [a] day, and he sawe it, & was glad.

57 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yet fiftie yeere olde, and hast thou seene Abraham?

58 Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, before Abraham was, [b] I am.

59 *Then tooke they vp stones, to cast at him. but Iesus hid him selfe, and went out of the Temple‖.

a Which was to see the coming of Christ in the flesh: which thing Abraham sawe farre off in the eyes of faith, Heb. 11.10.

b That onely God, but the Mediatour betweene God and man, appointed before all eternitie. Chap. 10.31.

‖ And he passed thorowe the middes of them and so went his way.

CHAP. IX.

1 Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blinde men Christ giueth sight.

AND as Iesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, [a] Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but [b] the workes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is [b] day: the night commeth, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the worlde, *I am the light of the worlde.

6 Assoone as he had thus spoken, he [c] spat on the grounde, and made clay of the spettle, and anoynted the eyes of the blinde with the clay,

7 And said vnto him, Go wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, [d] Sent) He went his way therefore, & washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Nowe the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blinde, sayde, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: and others sayde, He is like him: but he him selfe saide, I am he.

10 Therefore they sayde vnto him, Howe were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anointed mine eies, and said vnto me, Go to the poole of Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they saide vnto him, Where is he? He said, I can not tell.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath [day,] when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, howe he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, He laid clay vpõ mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then saide some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath [day.] Others sayde, Howe can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissension among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What saiest thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whome ye say was borne blinde? how doth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and saide, We knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he nowe seeth, We knowe not: or who hath opened his eyes, [c] can we not tell: he is old ynough: aske him: he shall answere for him selfe.

22 These wordes spake his parents, because they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordeined already, that if any man did confesse that he was the Christ, he should be [excommunicate] out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is olde ynough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blinde, and said vnto him, [f] Giue glory vnto God: We knowe that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered, and sayde, Whether he be a sinner or no, [g] I can not tell: one thing I knowe, that I was blinde, and nowe I see.

26 [h] Then saide they to him againe, What a God doeth not alwayes punish men for their sinnes.

b When opportunitie and the season serueth. Chap. 1.9. and 8.12. and 12.35.

c This was not for any vertue that was in the earth, in the spettle, or in the clay to make one see: but it onely pleased him to vse these signes and meanes. d Hereby was prefigured the Messias, who should be sent vnto them.

c They durst not speake the truth for feare they should be excommunicate.

f That is, Consider that no thing is hid from God: therefore tel vs the truth that God may be glorified ther of by. Ios. 7.19. 1. Sam. 6.5.

g He spake this in mocherie.

h They thought either to wyne him from the truth, or to make him swarue by their oftimes examining him: which practise Satans members euer doe obserue in examining the Christians.

what did he to thee? howe opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue tolde you alreadie, and ye haue not heard it: wherefore woulde ye heare it againe? Will ye also be his disciples?

(He derideth their wilfull malice and ignorance.

28 Then checked they him, and said, Thou art his disciple: We be Moses disciples.

29 We knowe that God spake with Moses: but this man we knowe not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and saide vnto them, Doutlesse, this is a maruellous thing, that ye [k] knowe not whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

k They doubted not of his countrey or parents, but of his office and authoritie.

31 Nowe we knowe that God heareth not [l] sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him heareth he.

l Or, wicked men, contemners of God, & such as delite in sinne.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he coulde haue done nothing.

34 They answered, and sayde vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and doest thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had ‖ cast him out: and when he had founde him, he said vnto him, Doest thou beleeue in the Sonne of God?

‖ Or, excommunicate him.

36 He answered, and said, who is he, Lorde, that I might beleeue in him?

37 And Iesus saide vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then he saide, Lorde, I beleeue, and [m] worshipped him.

m As all acknowledged him to be God, and worshipped him.

39 And Iesus said, I am come vnto [n] iudgement into this worlde, that they which see not, might see: and that they *which see, might be made blinde.

n Meaning, with rule and authoritie to make the poore blinde to see, and the proude seers blinde. Chap. 3.17, 18. and 12.46,47.

40 And some of the Pharises which were with him, heard these things, and said vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus said vnto them, If ye were blinde, [o] ye should not haue sinne: but nowe ye say, we see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

o You should not be so much in fault.

CHAP. X.

11 Christ is the true shepheard, and the doore. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 He is asked if he be Christ. 32 His workes declare that he is God. 34 The Iudges called gods.

VErely, verely I say vnto you, He that entreth not in by the doore into the sheepefold, but climeth by another way, he is a theefe and a robber.

2 But he that goeth in by the doore, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and he [a] calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

a That is, there is mutuall agreement and consent of faith betweene the Pastour & the sheepe.

4 And when he hath sent forth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe followe him: for they know his voyce.

5 And they will not followe a straunger, but they flee from him: for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstoode not what thinges they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then said Iesus vnto them again, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe.

8 All, [b] that euer came before me, are theeues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

b He meaneth all the false prophets, who led not men to Christ, but from him.

9 I am the doore: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saued, and shall [c] goe in and goe out, and finde pasture.

c He shall be sure of his life.

10 The theefe commeth not, but for to steale, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue life, & haue it in abundance.

11 *I am the good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for his sheepe.

Isa. 40.11. ezek. 34.23.

12 But an hireling, and he which is not the shepherd, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe comming, and leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scatereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, & careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepheard, and [d] knowe mine, and am knowen of mine.

d Christ knoweth his because he loueth the, careth and prouideth for the.

15 [e] As the father [f] knoweth me, so knowe I the Father: and I lay downe my life for [my] sheepe.

e As the Father can not forget him, no more can he forget vs.

f In that he loueth and approueth me.

16 [g] Other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this folde: them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voyce: and *there shall be one sheepefold, [and] one shepherde.

g To wit, among the Gentiles, which the were strangers from the Church of God.

Ezek. 37.22, 24.

17 [h] Therefore doth my Father loue me, because *I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

h Christ euen in that that he is man, hath deserued his Fathers loue & euerlasting life, not to his flesh onely, but to vs also which by his obedience and perfect iustice are imputed righteous. Rom. 5.19. Phil. 2.7. Isa. 53.7. Act. 2.24.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this *commaundement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 ¶ Then there was a dissension againe gaine among the Iewes for these sayings.

20 And many of them sayd, He hath a deuill, and is mad: why heare ye him?

21 Others sayde, These are not the wordes of him that hath a deuil: can the deuill open the eyes of the blinde?

22 And it was at Ierusalem f [feast of the] *Dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Iesus walked in the Temple, in k Solomons porche.

24 Then came the Iewes round about him, and sayd vnto him, How long doest thou ‖ make vs doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell vs plainely.

25 Iesus answered them, I tolde you, and ye beleeue not: the workes that I doe in my Fathers Name, they beare witnes of me.

26 But ye beleeue not: l for ye are not of my sheepe, as I sayd vnto you.

27 My sheepe heare my voyce, and I knowe them, and they followe me, 28 And I giue vnto them eternal life, and they shall neuer perish, neither shall any plucke them out of mine hand.

29 My Father which gaue [them] me, is m greater then all, and none is able to take them out of my Fathers hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 *Then the Iewes againe tooke vp stones, to stone him.

32 Iesus answered them, Many good workes haue I shewed you from my Father: for which of these workes doe ye stone me?

33 The Iewes answered him, saying, For the good worke we stone thee not, but for blaspheme, and that thou being a man, makest thy selfe God.

34 Iesus answered them, Is it not written in your Lawe, *I sayd, ye are n gods?

35 If he called them gods, vnto whom the worde of God was giuen,] and the Scripture can not be broken, 36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the worlde, Thou blasphemest, because I sayd, I am the Sonne of God?

37 If I doe not the workes of my Father, beleeue me not.

38 But if I doe, then though ye beleeue not me, [yet] beleeue the workes, that ye may knowe and beleeue, that the Father [is] in me, and I in him.

39 Againe they went about to take him: but he escaped out of their hands, 40 And went againe beyonde Iordan, into the place where Iohn first baptized, and there abode.

41 And many resorted vnto him, and sayde, Iohn did o no miracle: but all things that Iohn spake of this man, were true.

42 And many beleeued in him there.

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The hie Priestes and Pharises gather a counsell against him. 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

AND a certain man was sicke, [named] Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that *Marie which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feete with her heare, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore [his] sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lorde, beholde, he whome thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, hee sayde, This sickness is not p vnto death, but for the glorie of God, that q Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 ¶ Nowe Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, said he to his disciples, Let vs go into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples sayd vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to *stone thee, and doest thou go thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not b twelue houres in the day? if a man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this worlde.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after he sayd vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I go to wake him vp.

12 Then sayd his disciples, Lorde, if he sleepe, he r shall be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the ‖ naturall sleepe.

14 Then sayde Iesus vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleeue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 Then sayde Thomas (which is called d Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die.

i Which was instituted, that the people might giue thankes to God for their deliuerance and restoring of their religion and Temple, which Antiochus had corrupted & polluted. 1.Mac.4.59.

k Which was builded againe after the paterne of that which Salomon builded.

‖ Or, holdest our minde in suspense.

l The cause wherefore the reprobate can not beleeue.

m Whereby we learne how safely we are preserued against all dangers. Chap.8.59.

Psalm.82.6.

n Meaning of Princes and rulers, who for their office sake are called gods and are made here in earth as his Lieutenants: wherefore if this noble title be giuen to man, much more it appertained to him that is the Sonne of God equall with his Father.

o Whereby they gathered that Christ was more excellent then Iohn.

Chap.12.3. matth.26.7.

p For although he died, yet being restored so soone to life, it was almost no death in comparison.

Chap.7.30.& 8.59.& 10.31.

b He ‖ walketh in his vocation, and hath the light of God for his guide, needeth to feare no dangers. The day also, both summer and winter was with the Iewes deuided into twelue houres.

c They laboured to stay Christ from going into Iudea, as though there had beene no neede.

‖ Or, slumbring sleepe.

d Which signifieth in our tongue, a twin in birth.

die with him.

17 ¶ Then came Iesus, and found that he had lien in the graue foure dayes alreadie.

18 (Nowe Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, about c fiftene furlongs off.)

c Which were almost two mile.

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, went to meete him: but Marie sate still in the house.

21 Then sayde Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

f She theweth some fayth, which notwithstanding was almost ouercome by her affections.

22 But nowe f I knowe also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus sayd vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha sayd vnto him, I knowe that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

g Christ restoreth vs from death to giue vs euerlasting life.

25 Iesus sayd vnto her, g I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, [yet] shall he liue.

26 And whosoeuer liueth, and beleeueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleeuest thou this?

27 She sayd vnto him, Yea, Lorde, I beleeue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 ¶ And when she had so sayd, she went her way, & called Marie her sister secretly, saying, The master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they sawe Marie, that she rose vp hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue, to weepe there.

h Wherein she declared her affection and reuerence that she bare to Christ.

32 Then when Marie was come where Iesus was, and sawe him, she fell downe at his feete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Iesus therefore sawe her weepe, & the Iewes also weepe which came with her, he i groned in the spirit, and was troubled in himselfe, i For compassion: for he felt our infirmities, as though he suffred y like.

34 And sayd, Where haue ye layd him? They sayd vnto him, Lord, come, and see.

35 [And] Iesus k wept.

k We reade not that his affections were so excessiue that he kept no measure, as we doe in our sorowes, ioyes and other affections.

36 Then sayd the Iewes, Beholde, howe he loued him.

37 And some of them sayd, Could not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also, that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groned in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, & a stone was layd vpon it.

39 Iesus sayde, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, sayd vnto him, Lorde, he stinketh already: for he hath bene [dead] foure dayes.

40 Iesus said vnto her, Sayd I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleeue, thou shouldest see the l glorie of God?

l That is, a miracle whereby Gods Name should be glorified.

41 Then they tooke away the stone [from the place] where the dead was layd. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, & sayd, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I sayd it, that they may beleeue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these things, he cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came foorth, bound hand & foote with bands, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus sayd vnto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 ¶ Then many of ỹ Iewes, which came to Marie, & had seene the things, which Iesus did, beleeued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priests, and the Pharises a councill, and sayd, What shall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If m we let him thus alone, all men will beleeue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

m They resist God, thinking to hinder his worke by their owne policies.

49 Then one of them [named] Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest n that same yeere, sayd vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

n Of, for that present time.

50 Nor yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This

51 This spake he not of himselfe: but being hie Priest that same yere, he o prophecied that Jesus should dye for the nation:

o God made him to speake, neither could his impietie let Gods purpose, who caused this wicked man euen as he did Balaam, to be an instrument of ỹ holy Ghost.

52 And not for the nation onely, but that he should gather together in one ỹ children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jewes, but went thence vnto a countrey neere to the wildernes, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Jewes Passeouer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Jerusalem before the Passeouer, to p purifie themselues.

p Because they thought hereby to make them selues more holy against they should eat the Passeouer: but they were not cõmanded by God to vse this ceremony.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselues, as they stoode in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he commeth not to the feast?

57 Now both the hie Priests and the Pharises had giuen a commandement, that if any man knewe where he were, he should shewe it, that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

7 Christ excuseth Maries fact. 13 The affection of some towards him, and the rage of others against him and Lazarus. 25 The commoditie of the crosse. 27 His prayer. 28 The answere of the Father. 32 His death, and the fruite thereof. 36 He exhorteth to fayth. 40 The blindnes of some, and the infirmities of others.

Mat.26.7. marke 14.3.

SIx* Jesus fire dayes before ỹ Passeouer, came to Bethania, where Lazarus was, which was dead, whome he had raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sate at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Marie a pound of ointment of spikenard very costly, & anointed Jesus a feete, and wiped his feete with her heare, and the house was filled with the sauour of the ointment.

a Euen from the head to the feete.

4 Then sayde one of his disciples, [euē] Judas Iscariot Simons [sonne,] which should betray him,

5 Why was not this oyntment solde for b three hundreth pence, and giuen to the poore?

b Reade Mar. 14.5.

6 Nowe he sayd this, not that he cared for the poore, but because he was a theefe, and had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen.

Chap.13.29.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying she kept it.

8 For the poore allwayes ye haue with you, but me ye shall not haue allwayes.

9 Then much people of the Jewes knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whome he had raised from the dead.

10 The hie Priests therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also,

11 Because that for his sake many of the Jewes went away, and beleeued in Jesus.

12 ¶* On the morow a great multitude that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus should come to Jerusalem, Matth.21.8. mar.11.8.luke 19.35.

13 Tooke branches of palme trees, and went forth to meete him, and cried, c Hosanna, Blessed [is] ỹ King of Israel that commeth in the Name of the Lord.

c That is, saue I beseech thee.

14 And Jesus found a d yong asse, and sate thereon, as it is written, d This doeth well declare that his kingdome stood not in outwarde things. Zach.9.9.

15 * Feare not, daughter of Sion: beholde, thy King commeth sitting on an asses colte.

16 But his disciples vnderstoode not these things at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembred they, that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things vnto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, bare witnesse that he called Lazarus out of the graue, and raised him from the dead.

18 Therefore met him the people also, because they heard that hee had done this miracle.

19 And the Pharises sayde among themselues, Perceiue ye howe ye preuaile nothing? Beholde, the [|] worlde goeth after him.

20 ¶ Nowe there were certaine e Greekes among them that came vp to worship at the feast.

[Or, the preasse

e They were of the race of the Jewes, and came out of Asia and Grecia: for els the Jewes would not haue permitted that they shoulde worship with them in the Temple.

21 And they came to Philippe, which was of Bethsaida in Galile, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philippe came and tolde Andrew: and againe Andrew and Philippe tolde Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the Sonne of man must be f glorified.

f Which is, that the knowledge of him should be manifested thorough all the world.

Mat. 10.39.& 16.25. mar.8. 35. luke 9.24. and 17.32.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, except the wheate corne fall into ỹ ground and die, it bideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruite.

25 * He that g loueth his life, shall lose it, and hee that h hateth his life in this

g If the loue thereof let him from comming to Christ.

h And so loseth it for Christes sake.

world, shall keepe it vnto life eternall.

Chap.17.24.

26 *If any man serue me, let him follow me: for where I am, there shall also my seruant be: and if any man serue me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soule troubled: and what shall I say: Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, [saying,] I haue both glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 Then sayd the people that stoode by and heard, that it was a thunder: others sayd, An Angel spake to him.

30 Iesus answered, and sayd, This voyce came not because of mee, but for your sakes.

i The reformation and restoring of choise things, which were out of vyer.

Chap.3.14.

k The crosse is the meane to gather the Church of God together, and to draw men to heauen.

31 Now is the i iudgement of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 *And k I, if I were lift from the earth, will draw all men vnto me.

l Not onely the Iewes, but also the Gentiles.

33 Now this said he, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the *Lawe, that the Christ bideth for euer: and how sayest thou, that the Sonne of man must be lift vp: who is that Sonne of man?

Psal.89.36.& 110.4. & 117. 2. ezek.37.25.

35 Then Iesus said vnto them, Yet a litle while is* the light with you: walke while ye haue light, least the darkenes come vpon you: for he that walketh in the darke, knoweth not whither hee goeth.

Chap.1.9.

36 While ye haue light, beleeue in the light, that ye may be the children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, and hid himselfe from them.

37 ¶ And though hee had done so many miracles before them, [yet] beleeued they not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he sayde, *Lord, who beleeued our report: and to whom is the m arme of the Lord reuealed?

Isa.53.1.rom. 10.16.

m That is, the Gospel, which is the power of God to saluation to euery one that doeth beleeue.

39 Therefore could they not beleeue, because that Esaias saith againe, Isa.6.9. matth. 13.14.mar.4. 12.luke 8.10. act.28.26. rom.11.8.

40 *He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with [their] eyes, nor vnderstand with [their] heart, and should be conuerted, and I should n heale them.

n By deliuering them frō their miseries, and giuing them true felicitie.

41 These things sayd Esaias when he sawe his glorie, and spake of him.

42 Neuertheles euen among the chiefe rulers many beleeued in him: but because of the Pharises, they did not confesse him, least they should ‖ be [cast] out of the Synagogue.

‖ Or, excommunicate.

43 *For they loued the o praise of men, more then the prayse of God.

Chap.5.44. o To be esteemed of men.

44 And Iesus cryed, and sayd, He that beleeueth in me, beleeueth not in me, but in him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I *am come a light into the world, that whosoeuer beleeueth in me, should not abide in darkenes.

Chap.3.19. and 9.39.

47 *And if any man heare my wordes, and beleeue not, I ‖ iudge him not: for I came not to ‖ iudge the world, but to saue the world.

Chap.3.17.

‖ Or, condemne.

‖ Or, condemneth.

48 He that refuseth me, and receiueth not my wordes, hath one that ‖ iudgeth him: *the worde that I haue spoken, it shall iudge him in the p last day.

Mar.16,16.

p For that day shalbe the approbation of the Gospel.

49 For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the Father, which sent me, he gaue me a commaundement what I should say, and what I should speake.

50 And I knowe that his commandement is life euerlasting: the thinges therefore that I speake, I speake [them] so as the Father sayd vnto me.

CHAP. XIII.

5 Christ washeth the disciples feete, 14 Exhorting them to humilitie and charitie. 21 Telleth them of Iudas the traitour, 34 And commandeth them earnestly to loue one another. 38 He forewarneth of Peters denial.

NOwe *before the feast of the Passeouer, when Iesus knewe that his houre was come, that he should depart out of this world vnto the Father, forasmuch as he loued his owne which were in the world, vnto the end he a loued them.

Mat.26.2. mar.14.1.luke 22.1.

a Because he sawe the danger great which was towarde them: therefore he tooke greater care for them.

2 And when b supper was done, (and that the deuill had now put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot, Simons [sonne,] to betray him)

b Which was the eating of the Passeouer.

3 Iesus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside [his vpper] garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that, he powred water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towell, wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came hee to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, doest thou wash my feete?

7 Iesus

7 Jesus answered and said vnto him, What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter saide vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Jesus answered him, If I [c] wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the handes and the head.

10 Jesus sayde to him, Hee that is washed, needeth not, saue to [d] wash [his] feete, but is cleane euery whit: and ye are *cleane, but not all.

11 For hee knewe who should betray him: therefore saide hee, Ye are not all cleane.

12 ¶ So after hee had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Know ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say well: for [so] am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your feete, ye also ought to wash [e] one anothers feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should do, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, *The seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then he that sent him.

17 If ye knowe these things, blessed are ye, if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speake not of you all: I know whom I haue chosen: but [it is] that the Scripture might be fulfilled, *Hee that eateth bread with mee, hath [f] lift vp his heele against me.

19 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue that I am [g] he.

20 *Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I sende any, hee that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth me, receiueth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had said these things, he was [h] troubled in the Spirit, and [i] testified, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 *Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Jesus [k] bosome, whom Jesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that hee should aske who it was of whome he spake.

25 Hee then, as hee leaned on Jesus brest, said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall giue a soppe, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a soppe, and gaue it to Judas Iscariot, Simons [sonne.]

27 And after the soppe, [l] Satan entred into him. Then saide Jesus vnto him, That thou doest, do quickely.

28 But none of them that were at table, knew, for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Judas had the bagge, that Jesus had said vnto him, Buy those things that we haue neede of against the feast: or that he should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Assoone then as hee had receiued the soppe, he went immediately out, and it was night.

31 ¶ When he was gone out, Jesus said, [m] Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, and shall straight way glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: ye shall seeke me, but as I saide vnto the *Iewes, whither I goe, can ye not come: also to you say I now.

34 *A newe commandement giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

35 By this shall all men knowe that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter sayde vnto him, Lorde, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I goe, thou canst not follow me now: but thou [o] shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lorde, why can I not follow thee now? *I will lay downe my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely I say vnto thee, The cocke shall not crowe, till thou haue denied me thrise.

c And make thee cleane from thy sinnes.

d That is, to be continually purged of his corrupt affections and worldly cares which remaine dayly in vs. Chap.15.3.

e To serue one another.

Chap.15.20. matth.10.24. luke 6.40.

Psal.41.9.

f Vnder pretence of friendship seeketh his destruction.

g To wit, the Christ and redeemer of the world. Matth.10.40. luke 10.16.

h For very horrour and indignation of such an abominable acte, as Judas should commit.

i He did openly affirme. Matth.26.21. marke 14.18. luke 22.21.

k Their fashion was not to sit at table, but hauing their shoes off, and cushions vnder their elbowes, leaned on their sides, as it were halfe lying.

l Satan tooke full possession of him.

m Meaning, that his crosse shall ingender a maruellous glorie, and that in it shall shine the infinite bountie of God.

Chap.7.34.

Leuit.19.18. matth.22.39. chap.15.12. 1.ioh.4.21.

n Where of we ought to haue continuall remembrance as though it were euen newly done.

o When thou shalt be more strong.

Matth.26.33. marke 14.29.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Hee armeth his disciples with consolation against trouble. 2 Hee ascendeth into heauen to prepare vs a place. 6 The way, the trueth and the life. 10 The father and Christ one. 13 Howe we should pray. 23 The promes into them that keepe his woyde.

AND he saide to his disciples, Let not your heart be troubled: ye beleeue in God, [a] beleeue also in me.

2 In my Fathers house are [b] many a For in so beleeuing, no troubles shal ouercome them.

b So that there is not onely place for him, but for all his.

dwelling places: if it were not so, I would haue tolde you: I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And though I go to prepare a place for you, I will [c] come againe, and receiue you vnto my selfe, that where I am, there may ye be also.

c At the latter day, Act. 1. 11.

4 And whither I goe, ye knowe, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas said vnto him, Lord, We [d] knowe not whither thou goest: howe can we then know the way?

d He was not altogether ignorant, but his knowledge was weake and imperfect.

6 Iesus said vnto him, I am [e] the way, and the Trueth, and the Life. No man commeth vnto the Father, but by me.

e Therefore we must begin in him, continue in him, and euer in him.

7 If ye had knowen mee, ye should haue knowen my Father also: and from henceforth ye knowe him, and haue seene him.

8 Philippe said vnto him, Lord, shew vs [thy] Father, and it sufficeth vs.

9 Iesus saide vnto him, I haue bene so long time with you, and hast thou not knowen me, Philip? he that hath seene mee, hath seene my Father: howe then sayest thou, Shewe vs [thy] Father?

10 Beleeuest thou not, that I am in the Father, and [f] the Father is in me? the wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my [g] selfe: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he [h] doeth the workes.

f For the very fulnesse of the diuinitie remaineth in Christ.

g In that, that he is man.

h Who declareth his maiestie and vertue by his doctrine and miracles.

11 Beleeue me, that I [am] in the Father, and the Father in me: at the least, beleeue me for the very workes sake.

12 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleeueth in me, [i] the workes that I do, he shall do also, and greater then these shall he do: for I go vnto my Father.

i This is referred to the whole bodie of the Church, in whom this vertue of Christ doth shine and remaine for euer. Chap. 16. 23. matth. 7. 7. marke 11. 24. iames 1. 5.

13 * And whatsoeuer ye aske in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

14 If ye shall aske any thing in my Name, I will do it.

15 If ye loue me, keepe my commandements,

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall giue you another [k] Comforter, that he may abide with you for euer, k I haue comforted you whiles I was with you, but henceforth the holy Ghost shall comfort you, and preserue you.

17 [Euen] the Spirit of [l] trueth, whom the world cannot receiue, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye knowe him: for hee dwelleth with you, and shalbe in you.

l So called, because he worketh in vs the trueth.

18 I will not leaue you comfortlesse: [but] I will [m] come to you.

m Which thing he doeth by the vertue of his Spirit.

19 Yet a litle while, and the worlde shall see me no more, but ye shall see me: because I liue, ye shall liue also.

20 At that day shall ye know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandements, and keepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, [n] shall be loued of my Father: and I will loue him, and will shewe mine owne selfe to him.

n He shall feele that the grace of God abideth in him.

22 Iudas (not [o] Iscariot) Lorde, what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

o But the brother of Iames.

23 Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, If any man loue me, he will [p] keepe my word, and my Father will loue him, and we will come vnto him, and will dwell with him.

p Whereby he answereth them not to haue respect to the world, lest they should be drawen backe by euill example.

24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare, is not [q] mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

q That is, not his alone: for he had nothing separate from his Father.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, hee shall teache you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, which I haue tolde you.

27 [r] Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as the world giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

r All comfort and prosperitie.

28 Ye haue heard howe I saide vnto you, I go away, [s] I will come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye would verely reioyce, because I saide, I go vnto the Father: for my Father is [t] greater then I.

s In that, that Christ is become man to be Mediatour betweene God and vs.

t Satan executeth his rage and tyrannie by the permission of God.

29 And now haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue.

30 Hereafter will I not speake many things vnto you: for the [u] prince of this world commeth, [x] hath nought in me.

u Satan shall assaile me with all his force, but he shall not finde that in me which he looketh for: for I am that innocent lambe without spot.

31 But [it is] that the worlde may knowe that I loue [my] Father: and as the Father hath commaunded me, so I do. Arise, let vs go hence.

CHAP. XV.

6 The sweete consolation, and mutuall loue betweene Christ and his members vnder the parable of the vine. 18 Of their common afflictions and persecutions. 26 The office of the holy Ghost, and the Apostles.

I Am the true vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 * Euery branch that beareth not fruit in me, he taketh away: and euery one that beareth fruit, hee purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruite. Matth. 15. 13.

3 * Nowe are ye cleane through the worde, which I haue spoken vnto you. Chap. 13. 10.

4 Abide

4 Abide in mee, and I in you: as the a branche can not beare fruite of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, a except ye abide in me.

5 I am ᵖ vine: ye [are] the branches:
he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth foorth much fruite: for without me can ye do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast foorth as a branche, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast [them] into the fire, and they burne.

b We must be rooted in Iesus Christ by faith, which commeth of the worde of God.

7 If ye abide in me, and my b wordes abide in you, aske what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

c So that ye followe Gods worde which ye comprehende by faith.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruite, and be made my disciples.

d Wherewith I loue you.

9 As the Father hath loued mee, so haue I loued you: continue in d my loue.

10 If ye shall keepe my commaundements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers cõmandements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be e full.

e Perfect and entier. Chap.13.34. 1.thess.4.9. 1.iohn 3.11. and 4.21.

12 *This is my cõmandement, that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friendes.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoeuer I commaund you.

15 Henceforth, call I you not ser-uantes: for the seruant knoweth not what his master doeth: but I haue called you friendes: for f all things that I haue heard of my Father, haue I made knowen to you.

f So that there is nothing omitted that is necessarie for vs, and concerning our saluation. Matth.28.19.

16 Ye haue not chosen me, but I haue chosen you, and ordeined you, *that ye go and bring foorth fruite, and that your fruite remaine, that whatsoeuer ye shall aske of the Father in my Name, he may giue it you.

17 These things commaunde I you, that ye loue one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye knowe that it hated me before you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would loue his owne: but because ye are not of the world, but I haue chosen you out of the world, therefore the world ha-teth you.

20 Remember the word that I said vnto you, *The seruant is not greater then his master. *If they haue persecu-ted me, they will persecute you also: if they haue g kept my word, they will also keepe h yours.

g The worde also signifieth, to be diligent

21 But all these things will they doe vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not knowen him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken vnto them, they i should not haue had sinne: but nowe haue they no k cloke for their sinne.

h Which is, the selfe same worde, but called theirs because they preach it.

i But should haue seemed to be innocent, if I had not discouered their malice.

k In that they refused Christ, it taketh from them all excuse wherewith they would haue iustified themselues as if they had bene very holy and without all sinne.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done workes among them which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but nowe haue they both seene, and haue hated both me and my Father.

l That is, in the holy Scriptures. Psal.35.19. Chap.14.26. Iuke 24.49.

25 But [it is] that the word might be fulfilled, that is written in their l Lawe,
*They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter shall come, *whome I will sende vnto you from the Father, [euen] the Spirit of trueth, which proceedeth of the Father, he shall testifie of me.

27 And ye shal witnes also, because ye haue bene with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

a Hee putteth them in remembrance of the crosse, and of their owne infirmitie to come, 7 And therefore doth comfort them with the promise of the holy Ghost. 16 Of the comming again of Christ. 17 Of his ascension. 23 To aske in ᵍ Name of Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the worlde affliction.

THese things haue I saide vnto you, that ye should not be a offended.

a And so shrinke from me.

2 They shall ‡ excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoeuer killeth you, will thinke that he doeth God seruice.

‡ Greeke, put you out of the Synagogues.

3 And these things will they do vnto you, because they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I told you, that when ᵖ houre shall come, ye might remember, that I told you them. And these things b saide I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

b He bare with them because they were but weaklings.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent mee, and none of you asketh mee, c whither goest thou?

c For if you did consider, ye would reioyce.

6 But because I haue said these things
vnto you, your hearts are full of sorow.

7 Yet I tell you the trueth, It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I goe not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will sende him vnto you.

d Or conuince. This is to be vnderstand of the comming of the holy Ghost when his vertue and strength shall shine in the Church.

8 And when he is come, he will d re-proue the world of sinne, and of righte-ousnesse, and of iudgement.

9 Of [c] sinne, because they beleeue not in mee:

10 Of [d] righteousnes, because I go to my Father, and ye shall see me no more:

11 Of [e] iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I haue yet [b] many things to say vnto you, but ye can not beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of trueth, he will leade you into all trueth: for he shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoeuer he shall heare, shall he speake, and he wil shew you the things [i] to come.

14 He shall glorifie me: for he shall receiue of mine, and shall shew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shewe it vnto you.

16 [k] A litle [while,] and ye shall not see mee: and againe a litle [while,] and ye shall see me: for I go to my Father.

17 Then saide [some] of his disciples among themselues, what is this that he saith vnto vs, A litle [while,] and ye shall not see me, & againe, a litle [while,] and ye shall see me, and, For I go to my Father?

18 They said therefore, what is this that he saith, A litle [while?] we knowe not what he saith.

19 Nowe Iesus knewe that they would aske him, and said vnto them, Do ye enquire among your selues, of that I said, A litle [while,] and ye shall not see me: and againe, a litle [while,] and ye shall see me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shall weepe and lament, and the world shall reioyce: and ye shall sorowe, but your sorow shalbe turned to ioy.

21 A woman when she trauaileth, hath sorowe, because her houre is come: but as soone as she is delinered of the childe, she remembreth no more the anguish, for ioy that a man is borne into the worlde.

22 And ye nowe therefore are in sorowe: but I will see you [m] againe, and your heartes shall reioyce, and your ioy shall [n] no man take from you.

23 And in that day shall ye aske me [o] nothing. *Verely, verely I say vnto you, whatsoeuer ye shall aske the Father in my Name, he will giue it you.

24 Hitherto haue ye asked [p] nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parables: but the time will come, when I shall no more speake to you in parables: but I shall shew you plainely of the Father.

26 At that day shall ye aske in my Name, and I say not vnto you, that I will [q] pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For [r] the Father himselfe loueth you, because ye haue loued me, *and haue beleeued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, and came into the world: againe I leaue the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples saide vnto him, Loe, nowe speakest thou plainely, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee. By this we beleeue, that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Do you beleeue now?

32 *Behold, the houre commeth, and is alreadie come, that ye shall be scattered euery man into his owne, and shall leaue me alone: but I am not alone: for the Father is with me.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that [t] in me ye might haue peace: in the world ye shall haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue ouercome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receiue the trueth.

THese things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, and saide, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sõne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee,

2 *As thou hast giuen him [a] power [ouer] all flesh, that hee shoulde giue eternall life to all [b] them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternall, that they know thee [to be] the only very God, and whome thou hast sent, Iesus [c] Christ.

4 I haue [d] glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to do.

5 And now glorifie me, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glorie which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world:

c His enemies which contemned him, and put him to death, shalbe conuict by their owne conscience, for that they did not beleeue in him, Acts. 2.37. and shall know that without Iesus Christ there is nothing but sinne.

d Wherefore the wicked must needes confesse that he was iust, and beloued of his Father, and not condemned by him as a blasphemer or transgressor.

e When they shall know that I whom they called the carpenters sonne, and willed to come downe from the crosse, am the very Sonne of God which haue ouercome all the power of hell, and reigne ouer all, Ephes. 1.19,20.

f These things are conteined in the doctrine of the Apostles which onely is sufficient.

i As touching the spirituall kingdome of God: for the Apostles knewe not that, till after the resurrection.

k Mine absence shall not be long: for I will sende you the holy Ghost, who shall remaine with you for euer.

l From death I passe to glorie, and so will I indue you with mine heauenly vertue.

m By the power and vertue of the holy Ghost.

n For it shalbe grounded vpon my resurrection and the grace of the holy Ghost.

o For ye shall haue perfite knowledge, and shall no more dout, as you were wont. Chap. 14.13, matth. 7.7. and 21.22. marke 11.24. luke 11.9. iames 1.5.

p In respect of that, that you shall obtaine, if you aske in faith.

q Christ denieth not that he is the Mediatour, but sheweth that they shall obteine their requests without difficultie or any paine. Chap. 17.8.

March. 26.31. marke 14.27.

r Although men forsake Christ, yet is he no whit diminished: for he and his Father are one.

s The haue rest and comfort when we are truely grafted in Christ.

a Christ hath all rule and dominion ouer men.

b Which are the elect.

c That is, that they acknowledge both the Father and the Sonne to be very God.

d Alwell by doctrine as miracles.

c Our election standeth in the good pleasure of God, which is the onely fundation, and cause of our saluation, and is declared to vs in Christ, though whom we are iustified by faith, and sanctified, Ro. 8.29.30. Ephes. 1.4.5. Chap.16.27.

f That is, the reprobate.

g That they may be ioyned in vnitie of faith and spirite, h He was so called, not onely for that he perished, but because God had appointed and ordeined him to this end, Act.1.16, 18. & 4.27, 28. Psal.109.7.

i But are separated by the Spirite of regeneration.

‖ Or, consecrate them to thy selfe.

k Renue them with thine heauenly grace, that they onely may seeke thy will.

l Which thing declareth that Christs holines is ours.

m That the infidels may by experience be conuicted to confesse my glorie.

n I haue shewed them the example and paterne of perfite felicitie.

worlde: c thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy worde.

7 Nowe they knowe that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the wordes, which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued [them,] * & haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleeued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for f the worlde, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And nowe am I no more in the worlde, but these are in the worlde, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, [euen] them whom thou hast giuen me, that they may be g one, as We [are.]

12 While I was w them in the worlde, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the h childe of perdition, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And nowe come I to thee, and these things speake I in the worlde, that they might haue my ioye fulfilled in themselues.

14 I haue giuen them thy worde, and the worlde hath hated them, because they are i not of the worlde, as I am not of the worlde.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the worlde, but that thou keepe them from euill.

16 They are not of the worlde, as I am not of the worlde.

17 ‖ k Sanctifie them with thy trueth: thy worde is trueth.

18 As thou diddest sed me into ỹ worlde, so haue I sent them into the worlde.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be l sanctified through the trueth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleeue in mee, through their worde, 21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, [art] in me, and I in thee: [euen] that they may be also one in vs, that the m worlde may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest me, I n haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one,

23 I in them, & thou in me, that they may be made perfite in one, and that the worlde may knowe, that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

24 * Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be o with me euen where I am, that they may behold my glorye, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst me before the fundation of the worlde.

25 O righteous Father, the worlde also hath not knowen thee, but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen, that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued mee, may be in them, and I in p them.

Chap.12.26,

o That they may prosite, and growe vp in such sort, that in the end they may enioy the eternall glorie with me.

p For without him we cannot comprehend the loue wherewith God loueth vs.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Christ is betrayed. 6 The wordes of his mouth smite the officers to the grounde. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus eare. 13 Jesus is brought before Annas and Caiaphas. 25 Where Peter denieth him. 36 He telleth Pilate what his kingdome is.

WHen Jesus had spoken these things, hee went forth with his disciples ouer the a brooke * Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred, and his disciples.

a Which was a deepe valley though the which a streame ranne after a great raine. 1.King.15.13. mat.26.36. mar.14.32. luke 22.39.

2 And Judas which betrayed him, knewe also ỹ place: for Jesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 * Judas then after he had receiued a b band of men and officers of the hie Priestes, & of the Pharises, came thither with lanterns, & torches, and weapons.

Mat.26.47. mar.14.43. luke 22.47.

b The which he had obtained of the gouernour of the Temple.

4 Then Jesus knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth and said vnto them, whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazaret. Jesus saide vnto them, I am hee. Now Judas also which betrayed him, stoode with them.

6 Assoone then as hee had saide vnto them, I am he, they went backewards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, whō seeke ye? And they sayde, Jesus of Nazaret.

8 Jesus answered, I sayd vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seeke mee, let these go their way,

9 [This was] that the worde might be fulfilled which he spake, * c Of them which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.

Chap.17.12.

c He both speareth their bodies and also sauueth their soules.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the hie Priests seruant, and cut off his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.

the

11 Then sayd Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sworde into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cuppe which [my] Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the band and the captaine, and the officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to *[d] Annas first (for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest [e] that same yeere)

14 *And Caiaphas was he, that gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man shoulde die for the people.

15 ¶* Nowe Simon Peter followed Iesus, and another disciple, and that disciple was knowen of the hie Priest: therefore hee went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest.

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was knowen vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then said the maide that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? Hee sayde, I am not.

18 And the seruants & officers stoode there, which had made a fire of coles: for it was colde, and they warmed themselues. And Peter also stoode among them, and warmed himselfe.

19 (¶ The hie Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake [f] openly to the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue and in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? aske them which hearde me what I saide vnto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with [his] rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witnes of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶* Nowe Annas had [g] sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest)

25 *And Simon Peter stoode and warmed himselfe, and they saide vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of [h] the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin whose eare Peter smote off, saide, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediately the cocke crewe.

28 ¶* Then led they Iesus frō Caiaphas into the common hall. Nowe it was morning, & they themselues went not into [i] common hall, lest they should be *defiled, but that they might eate the Passeouer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and sayde, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said vnto him, If he were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take [h] ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes said vnto him, It is not [l] lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

32 [It was] that the worde of Iesus *might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 *So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and saide vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Saist thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the hie Priests haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this [k] world: if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants would surely fight, that I shoulde not be deliuered to the Iewes: But nowe is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a King then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King: for this cause am I borne and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witnes vnto the trueth: euery one that is of the trueth, heareth my voyce.

38 Pilate sayde vnto him, [l] What is trueth? And when he had sayd that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and sayd vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

39 *But you haue a [m] custome, that I should deliuer you one loose at the Passeouer: will ye then that I loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

40 *Then

Luke 3.2.
d Who sent Christ vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest bound.
e Although this office was for terme of life by Gods ordinance, per the ambition and dissention of the Iewes caused the Romanes from time to time to change it eyther for hybernity or fauour, Chap. 11.50. Mat. 26.58. mar. 14.54. luke 22.54.

f That is, frankly, and plainely.

Mat. 26.57. mark. 14.53. luke 22.54.
g After that Caiaphas had first sent him to him. Mat. 26.69, 70. mar. 14.67. luke 22, 55, 56, 57.

Mat. 27.2. mar. 15.1. luke 23.1.

Actes 10.28. and 11.3.

h He spake this disdainefully, because they were so bent against all right and equitie.
i As if they shoulde say, Thou wilt not suffer vs to doe it: for he knewe that it was not permitted to them by the Romanes to punish with death. Mat. 20.19. Mat. 27.11. mar. 15.2. luke 23.3.

k Is standeth not in strength of men nor in worldly defence.

l This was a mocking and disdainefull question. Mat. 27.15. mar. 15.6. luke 23.17.
m This was one of their blind abuses: for the Law of God gaue no libertie to quit a wicked transpasser.

Actes 3.14.

40 *Then cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

CHAP. XIX.

1 When Pilate coulde not allwage the rage of the Iewes against Christ, he deliuereth him vp with his superscription to be hanged betweene two theeues. 23 They cast lottes for his garmentes. 26 He commendeth his mother vnto Iohn. 28 Tasteth for drinke. 33 Dyeth, and his side is pearced, and taken downe from the crosse. 38 He is buried.

Mat.27.27. mar.15.16,17. a He thought to haue pacified the furie of the Iewes by some indifferent correctiō.

THen *Pilate tooke Iesus and a scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And sayd, Haile, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with [their] rods.

4 Then Pilate went foorth againe, and sayde vnto them, Beholde, I bring him foorth to you, that ye may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus forth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And [Pilate] sayde vnto them, b Beholde the man.

b He spake in mockerie, because Christ called himselfe King.

6 Then when the hie Priests and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie [him.] Pilate sayde vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie [him:] for I finde no faulte in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe he ought to dye, because hee made him selfe the c Sonne of God.

c Christ was in deede the Sōne of God, and therefore might iustly call himselfe so without breache of the Lawe: wherefore their coloured accusation was falsly applied.

8 ¶ When Pilate then heard that woord, he was the more afrayde,

9 And went againe into the common hall and sayde vnto Iesus, whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answere.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no d power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

d Hereby he sheweth him, that he ought not to abuse his office and authoritie.

12 From thencefoorth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friende: [for] whosoeuer maketh him selfe a King, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that woorde, he brought Iesus forth, and sate downe in the iudgement seate in a place called the e Pauement, and in Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

e A place somewhat high and raised vp.

14 And it was the Preparation of the Passeouer, and about the f first houre: and he sayde vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

f Which was midday.

15 But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Shal I crucifie your King? The hie Priests answered, We haue no King but Cesar.

16 Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. * And they tooke Iesus, and led him away.

Mat.27.32. mar.15.21. luke 23.26.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named [of dead mens] Skulles, which is called in Hebrewe, g Golgotha:

g Which was the place of execution.

18 where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the middes.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was neere to the citie: and it was written in h Hebrewe, Greeke, and Latin.

h Because all nations might vnderstand it.

21 Then sayde the hie Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that he sayde, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, what I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garmēts, and made foure partes, to euery souldier a part, and [his] coate: and the coate was without seame, wouen from the toppe throughout.

Mat.27.35. mar.15.24. luke 23.34.

24 Therfore they said one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lottes for it, whose it shall be. This was [that the] i Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, * They parted my garments among them, and on my coate did cast lottes. So the souldiers did these things in deede.

i That which was prefigured in Dauid, was accomplished in Iesus Christ. Psal. 22.18.

25 ¶ Then stoode by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie [the wife of] ‖ Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

‖ Or, Clopas.

26 And when Iesus sawe his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom hee loued, he said vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy sonne.

27 Then sayde he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After,

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were perfourmed, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled, he saide, I thirst.

Psalm.69.22.

29 And there was set a vessell full of vineger: and they filled a spounge with vineger, and [k] put it about [l] an hyssope [stalke,] and put it to his mouth.

k Or, fastened it vpon an Hyssope stalke.

l Ie may appeare that the crosse was not hie, seeing a man might reache Christs mouth with an Hyssope stalke, which as appeareth, 1. King. 4.33. was the lowest among herbes, as the ceder was hiest among trees.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vineger, he said, [m] It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghost.

m Iesus salvation is perfected by the onely sacrifice of Christ: and all the ceremonies of the Lawe are ended.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath [day:] for that Sabbath was an [n] hie day) besought Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

n Because the day of the Passouer fell on the Sabbath day.

32 Then came the souldiers and brake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with [Iesus.]

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that hee was dead already, they brake not his legges.

o Which declareth that he was dead in deede as hee rose againe from death to life. Exod. 12.46. Nomb. 9.12. Zech. 12.10. Mat. 27.57. Mar. 15.42, 43. Luke 23. 50, 51.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare [o] pearced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he sayth true, that ye might beleeue it.

p That is to say, before Christs death, but notwithstanding he declareth himselfe manifestly. Chap. 3.2.

36 For these things were done, that the * Scripture should be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shalbe broken.

37 And againe another Scripture sayth, * They shall see him whom they haue thrust through.

38 * And after these things, Ioseph of Arimathea (who was a disciple of Iesus, but [p] secretly for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate that hee might take downe the bodie of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. Hee came then & tooke Iesus bodie.

39 And there came * also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) and brought of myrrhe and aloes mingled together about an hundreth pound.

40 ¶ Then tooke they the body of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the maner of the Iewes is to burie.

q This honorable buriall was as a preparation and entrie vnto the resurrection.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a newe sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet layed.

42 There then layed they Iesus, because of the Iewes Preparation [day,] for the sepulchre was neere.

CHAP. XX.

1 Marie Magdalene commeth to the sepulchre. 3 So doe Peter and John. 12 The two Angels appeare. 17 Christ appeareth to Marie Magdalene, 19 And to all his disciples. 25 The incredulitie of Thomas. 28 His confession.

NOwe * the first [day] of the weeke came Marie Magdalene, earely when it was yet [a] darke vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the tombe.

Mar. 16.1. luke 24.1.

a She departed from home before day, and came thither about ỹ sunne rising, Mark. 16.2.

2 Then shee ranne, and came to Simon Peter, & to the other disciple whom Iesus loued, and said vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and We knowe not where they haue layd him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne both together, but the other disciple did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And hee stouped downe, and sawe the linen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the linen clothes lye,

7 And the || kerchiefe that was vpon his head, not lying w the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.

|| Or, napkin.

8 Then went in also the [b] other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he sawe it, and [c] beleeued:

b That is, John which wrote this Gospel.

c He beleeued that Christes body was taken away, according as Marie reported.

9 For as yet they knewe not ỹ Scripture, That he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the disciples went away againe vnto their || owne home.

|| Or, to their companie.

11 ¶ But Marie stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre,

Mat. 28.1. mark. 16.5.

12 And sawe two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feete, where the body of Iesus had laine.

13 And they saide vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? Shee saide vnto them, They haue take away my Lord, and I know not where they haue layd him.

14 When she had thus sayde, she turned her selfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knewe not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus sayth vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou: whom seekest thou: Shee supposing that hee had bene the gardiner, gardiner, said vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tel me where thou hast layde him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith vnto her, Marie. She turned her selfe, and said vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith vnto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet [d] ascended to my Father, but go to my [e] brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your [f] God.

18 Marie Magdalene came and tolde the disciples that she had seene [g] the Lorde, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ * The same day then at night, which was the first [day] of the weeke, and when the [h] doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Jewes, came Jesus and stoode in the middes, and sayd to them, [i] Peace [be] vnto you.

20 And when he had so sayd, he shewed vnto them [his] hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

21 Then sayd Jesus to them againe, Peace [be] vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.

22 And when he had sayd that, he [k] breathed on them, and sayd vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.

23 * Whosoeuers sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: [and] whosoeuers sinnes ye reteine, they are reteined.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of [l] the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore sayd vnto him, We haue seene the Lord: but he sayd vnto them, Except I see in his hands the print of the nailes, and put my finger into the [||] print of the nailes, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleeue it.

26 ¶ And eight dayes after againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. [Then] came Jesus, when the doores were shut, and stoode in the middes, and sayd, Peace [be] vnto you.

27 After sayd he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see mine hands, and put forth thine hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithles, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and sayd vnto him, [Thou art] my Lorde, and my God.

29 Jesus sayd vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou beleeuest: blessed [are] they that haue [k] not seene, and haue beleeued.

30 ¶ * And many other signes also did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, that ye might beleeue, that Jesus is [l] Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleeuing ye might haue life through his Name.

d Because she was too much addicted to the corporall presence, Christ teacheth her to lift vp her minde by faith into heauen, where onely after his ascension he remaineth, and where we sit with him at the right hand of the Father.

e That is, the disciples: for he was the first borne among many brethren, Psal. 22.22, 23. rom. 8.29. colos. 1.18.

f He is our Father and our God, because Jesus Christ is our brother. Mark. 16.14. luk. 24.36. 1. cor. 15.5.

g So that no man opened him the doores, but by his diuine power he caused them to open of their owne accorde, as of Peter is read, Act. 5.19. & 12.10.

h Or, all superstitious manner of greeting of Jewes vsed.

i To giue the greater power and vertue to execute that weighty charge that he would commit vnto them. Matth. 18.18.

||Or, place.

k Which depende vpon the simplicitie of Gods word, & grounde not themselues vpon mans sense and reason. Chap. 21.25.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commaundeth Peter earnestly to feede his sheepe. 18 He foretelleth him of his death. 25 Of Christes manifolde miracles.

AFter these thinges, Jesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the ||sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he [himselfe.]

||Or, lake of Genneseareth.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the [sonnes] of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter sayd vnto them, I go a fishing. They sayde vnto him, We also will go with thee. They went their way, and entred into a shippe straight way, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was nowe come, Jesus stoode on the shore: neuertheles the disciples knewe not that it was Jesus.

5 Jesus then sayd vnto them, || Sirs, haue ye any meate? they answered him, No.

||Or, Children.

6 Then he sayd vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. So they [a] cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

a Albeit they knewe him not, yet they followed his counsel, because they had all night taken paynes in vaine.

7 Therefore sayd the disciple whom Jesus loued, vnto Peter, It is [l] the Lorde. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lorde, he girded his [b] coate to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

b It was some linen garment, which fishers vsed to weare, which being trussed vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also letted not his swimming.

8 But the other disciples came by ship (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundreth cubites) & they drewe the net with fishes.

9 Assoone then as they were come to land, they sawe hot coales, and fish layde thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus sayd vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue nowe caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped foorth and drewe the net to land, full of great fishes, an hundreth, fiftie and three: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus said vnto them, Come, [and] dyne. And none of the disciples durst aske him, who art thou, seeing they knewe that he was the Lord.

13 Jesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is nowe the third time that Jesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dyned, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simō [sonne] of Jona, [c] louest thou me more then these? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayd vnto him, Feede my lambes.

16 He sayd to him againe the second time, Simon [the sonne] of Jona, louest thou me? He sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He sayd vnto him the [d] third time, Simon [the sonne] of Jona, louest thou me? Peter was sory because he sayd to him the third time, Louest thou me: and sayd vnto him, Lorde, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Jesus sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, when thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall [e] girde thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And this spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had sayd this, he sayd to him, Followe me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whome Jesus loued, following, which had also [*] leaned on his breast at supper, and had sayd, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore sawe him, he sayd to Jesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Jesus sayd vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.

23 Then went this worde abroad among the brethren, that this disciple should not dye. Yet Jesus sayde not to him, He shall not dye: but if I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these thinges, and wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimonie is true.

25 [*] Nowe there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, [f] I suppose the world could not conteine the bookes that should be written. Amen.

c The minister cannot well teach his congregation, except he loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feede not the flocke.

d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ causeth him by these three times confessing, to wype away the shame of his three times denying.

e In stede of a girdle, thou shalt be tyed with bandes & cordes: whereas nowe thou goest at libertie, then thou shalt be drawen to punishment, when thy flesh shall after a sore resist. Chap. 13. 23.

f But God woulde not charge vs with so great an heape: seeing therefore that we haue so much as is necessarie, we ought to content our selues and praise his mercie.

The Actes of the holie Apostles,

written by Luke the Euangelist.

The Argvment.

CHrist, after his ascension, performed his promes to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mindefull of his Church, but would be the head and maintener thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the worlde with the sound of his Gospel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, we may plainely perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppresse, and ouerthrowe the Gospel: he raiseth conspiracies, tumultes, commotions, persecutions, slanders and all kinde of cruelnie. Againe we shall here beholde the prouidence of God who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth, and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to followe their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheles God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good issue, giuing them as it were, in sorow, ioy: in bonds, freedome: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnes: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christes flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall pointes of our fayth: so that this onely historie in a maner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

CHAP.

drewe the net to land, full of great fishes, an hundreth, fiftie and three: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus said vnto them, Come, [and] dyne. And none of the disciples durst aske him, who art thou, seeing they knewe that he was the Lord.

13 Jesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is nowe the third time that Jesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dyned, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simō [sonne] of Jona, [c] louest thou me more then these? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayd vnto him, Feede my lambes.

16 He sayd to him againe the second time, Simon [the sonne] of Jona, louest thou me? He sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He sayd vnto him the [d] third time, Simon [the sonne] of Jona, louest thou me? Peter was sory because he sayd to him the third time, Louest thou me: and sayd vnto him, Lorde, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Jesus sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, when thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall [e] girde thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And this spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had sayd this, he sayd to him, Followe me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whome Jesus loued, following, which had also [*] leaned on his breast at supper, and had sayd, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore sawe him, he sayd to Jesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Jesus sayd vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.

23 Then went this worde abroad among the brethren, that this disciple should not dye. Yet Jesus sayde not to him, He shall not dye: but if I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these thinges, and wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimonie is true.

25 [*] Nowe there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, [f] I suppose the world could not conteine the bookes that should be written. Amen.

c The minister cannot well teach his congregation, except he loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feede not the flocke.

d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ causeth him by these three times confessing, to wype away the shame of his three times denying.

e In stede of a girdle, thou shalt be tyed with bandes & cordes: whereas nowe thou goest at libertie, then thou shalt be drawen to punishment, when thy flesh shall after a sore resist. Chap. 13. 23.

f But God woulde not charge vs with so great an heape: seeing therefore that we haue so much as is necessarie, we ought to content our selues and praise his mercie.

The Actes of the holie Apostles,

written by Luke the Euangelist.

The Argvment.

CHrist, after his ascension, performed his promes to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mindefull of his Church, but would be the head and maintener thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the worlde with the sound of his Gospel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, we may plainely perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppresse, and ouerthrowe the Gospel: he raiseth conspiracies, tumultes, commotions, persecutions, slanders and all kinde of cruelnie. Againe we shall here beholde the prouidence of God who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth, and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to followe their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheles God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good issue, giuing them as it were, in sorow, ioy: in bonds, freedome: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnes: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christes flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall pointes of our fayth: so that this onely historie in a maner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

CHAP.

CHAP. I.

7 The wordes of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles are occupied til the holy Ghost be sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

THe former treatise, O Theophilus, haue made of all that Iesus began to [a] doe, and teach,

2 Untill the day, that he was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost, had giuen [b] commandements vnto the Apostles, whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also he presented himself aliue after that he had suffred, by many infallible tokens, being seene of them by the [space] of fourty dayes, and speaking of those thinges which [apperraine] to the [d] kingdome of God.

4 And when he had [c] gathered [them] together, he cõmanded them, that they should not departe from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promes of the Father, *which [sayde he,] ye haue heard of me.

5 *For Iohn in deede baptized with water, but ye shalbe baptized with the [f] holy Ghost within these fewe dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou [g] at this time restore the kingdome to Israel?

7 And he sayd vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the [h] times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shall receiue power of the holy Ghost, when he shall come on you: and ye shall be [i] witnesses vnto me, both in Ierusalem, and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the [k] vttermost part of the earth.

9 *And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was [l] taken vp: for a cloude tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as he went, behold, [m] two men stood by them in white apparell, 11 Which also sayd, Ye men of Galile, Why stand ye [n] gasing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall [o] so come, as ye haue seene him go into heauen.

12 ¶ Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called [the mount] of Olives, which is nere to Ierusalem, conteining a [p] Sabbath [dayes] iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter, and Iames, [r] Iohn, and Andrewe, Philippe, and Thomas, Bartholmewe, and Matthewe, Iames [the sonne] of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas Iames [brother.]

14 These all continued with one [q] accorde in [r] prayer and supplication with the ‖ women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those dayes Peter stoode vp in the middes of the disciples, [t] sayd, (nowe the nomber of ‖ names that were in one place, were about an hundreth and twentie)

16 Ye men [and] brethren, this [s] Scripture must needes haue bene fulfilled, which the *holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was *guide to them that tooke Iesus.

17 For he was nombred with vs, and had obteined ‖ felowship in this ministration.

18 He therefore hath purchased a field with the [u] reward of iniquitie: and when he *had throwen downe himselfe headlong, he brast asunder in the middes, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowen vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, in so much, that that fielde is called in their owne language, Aceldama, that is, The fielde of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, *Let his habitation be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: *also, Let another take his ‖ charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was [x] conuersant among vs, 22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that he was taken vp from vs, must one of them be made a witnes with vs of his [y] resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two [z] thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take the roome of this ministration and Apostleship, from which Iudas hath gone astray, to go to his owne place.

a Whereby is ment Christes doctrine, & his miracles declared for the confirmation of the same.
b To preache the Gospel.
c Who as they were called by God, so had they their consciences assured by his holy Spirit.
d Whereby God reigneth in vs.
e Because they should be all witnesses of his ascension. Luke 24.49. iohn 14.26.& 15.26.& 16.7. Matth.3.11. mar.1.8.luke 3.16.ioh.1.26. chap.2.2. & 11.16.& 19.4.
f That is, with those spirituall graces which Iesus onely guietly by his Spirit.
g This declareth mans impatience who can not abide quietly till Gods appointed time come, but would haue all things accomplished according to their affections, Reade Iere. 6.14.
h For this passeth our capacitie, & God reserueth it to himselfe.
i To stand in the face of the whole world, which signifieth that they must enter into heauen by afflictions, and therefore must fight before they get the victorie.
k Hereby they might learne that the Messias was not onely for the Iewes, but also for the Gentiles. Luke 24.51.
l Whereby they knew certainly whither he went.
m Which were Angels in mens forme.
n And seeking him with carnall eyes.
o As the true redeemer to gather vs vnto him.
p Which was two mile, according to the Iewes tradition, albeit it was not so appointed by the Scriptures.
q A liuely patterne to learne how to dispose our selues to receiue the gifftes of the holy Ghost.
r Partly to obteine the holy Ghost, and partly to be deliuered from the present pangers.
s Or, writes.
t Or, men.
f The offence, which might haue come by Iudas fall, is hereby taken away, because the Scripture had so forewarned. Psal.41.9. Iohn 13.27.& 18.2,3.
u Or, portion.
t Perpetuall infamie is the reward of all such as by vnlawfully gotten goods buy any thing. Mat.27.5.
Psal.69.25.
Psal.109.8.
‖ Or, ministerie.
x Greeke, went in, and went out.
y In that he mencioneth the principall article of our fayth, he comprehendeth also the rest.
z To the intent that he that should take in hand that excellent office of an Apostle, might be chosen by the authozitie of God.

26 Then they gaue forth their lottes: and the lot fel on Matthias, and he was by a common consent counted with the Eleuen Apostles.

CHAP. II.

3 The Apostles hauing receiued the holy Ghost, make their hearers astonished. 14 When Peter had stopped þ mouthes of the workers, he therwith by the visible graces of the holy Spirit that Christ is come. 41 He baptizeth a great nomber that were conuerted. 42 The godly exercise, charitie, and diuers vertues of the faythfull.

AND when the [a] day of Pentecost was come, they were [b] all with one accorde in one place.

2 And [c] suddenly there came a sound from heauen, as of a rushing [‖] mightie [c] winde, and it filled all the house where they sate.

3 And there appeared vnto them clouen [d] tongues, like [c] fire and it sate vpon eche of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speake with other tongues, as the Spirit gaue them [‖] vtterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.

6 Nowe when this was [e] noysed, the multitude came together and were astonied, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.

7 And they wondered all, [f] maruelled, saying among themselues, Behold, are not all these which speake, of Galile?

8 Howe then heare we euery man our owne [g] language, wherein we were borne?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Judea, and of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,

10 And of Phrygia, and Pamphilia, of Egypt, and of the partes of Lybia, which is beside Cyrene, and [‖] strangers of Rome, [h] Jewes, and [i] Proselytes,

11 Cretes and Arabians: we heard them speake in our owne tongues the wonderfull [‖] workes of God, 12 They were all then amased, and douted, saying one to another, What may this be?

13 And others [k] mocked, and sayd, They are full of [‖] newe wine.

14 [‖] But Peter standing with [l] Eleuen, lift vp his voyce, [f] sayd vnto them, Ye men of Judea, [and] ye all that inhabite Jerusalem, be this knowen vnto you, and hearken vnto my wordes.

15 For these are not dronken, as ye suppose, since it is but the third houre of the day.

16 But this is that, which was spoken by the [i] Prophet * Joel,

17 And it shall be in the last dayes, saith God, I will powre out of my Spirit vpon all [m] flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall prophecie, [f] your yong men shall see visions, [f] your [n] olde men shall dreame dreames.

18 And on my seruants, and on mine handmaides I will [o] powre out of my Spirit in those dayes, and they shall prophesie.

19 And I will shewe wonders in heauen aboue, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

20 * The [p] Sunne shall be turned into darkenes, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall be, * that whosoeuer shall call on the [q] Name of the Lorde, shall be saued.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these wordes, Jesus of Nazaret, a man approued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, [f] signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as ye your selues also knowe:

23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of [r] the wicked, being deliuered by the [s] determinate counsaile, and [‖] foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:

24 Whome God hath raised vp, and loosed the [t] sorowes of death, because it was impossible that he should be holden of it.

25 For Dauid saith concerning him, * I beheld the Lorde alwayes before me: for he is at my [u] right hand, that I should not be shaken.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shall rest in [x] hope, 27 Because thou wilt not leaue my [‖] soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine holy one to [‖] see corruption.

28 Thou hast shewed me the [y] wayes of life, and shalt make me ful of ioy With thy countenance.

29 Men [and] brethren, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarke Dauid, * that he is both dead and buryed, a The holy Ghost was sent why much people was assembled in Jerusalem at the feast, Exod. 23. 16. Leuit. 23. 16. Deu. 16. 9: because the thing might not onely be knowen there, but also throw the whole worlde.

b That is, the Apostles. Chap. 1. 5. & 11. 15. & 19. 6. mat. 3. 11. mar. 1. 8. luke 3. 16.

c Whereby is signified the holy Ghost.

d This signe agreeth with þ thing which is signified thereby.

e To declare the vertue and force that shuld be in them.

[‖] Or, to speake.

f How þ Apostles spake diuers languages. For they could speake all languages, so þ they were able to speake to euery man in his owne language.

[‖] Or, those that dwelt at Rome.

h Whose auncetors were not of the Jewish nation, but were conuerted to the Jewes religion, which their children did professe.

i That is, such as were conuerted to the Jewish religion, which were before Paynims and worshipers.

k There is no worke of God so excellent, which the wicked scoffers do not deride.

l Peter pounderth Joels minde without binding him selfe to his wordes. Joel 2. 28. isa. 44. 3.

m By mankinde meaning yong and olde, man and woman.

n Meaning, that God will shewe himselfe very familarly and plainely both to olde and yong.

o Euen in great abundance. Joel 2. 31.

p God will shewe such signes of his wrath through all the world, that men shall be no lesse amazed then if the whole order of nature were changed. Joel 2. 32. rom. 10. 13.

q He teacheth this remedie to auoyde the wrath, & threatnings of God, and to obtaine saluation.

r God caused their wickednes to set forth his glorie, contrarie to their mindes.

s As Judas treason & the Jewes cruelty towards christ were most detestable, so were they not onely knowen to the eternall wisedome of God, but also directed by his immutable counsell to a most blessed ende.

[‖] Or, prouidence.

t Both as touching þ paine, & also the horrour of Gods wrath & curse. Psal. 16. 8, 9.

u To signifie that nothing can comfort vs in our afflictions, except we know þ God is x Our hope standeth in Gods defence.

[‖] Or, life, or person.

y Or, feele. y In reioyging me from death to life. 1. King. 2. 10. chap. 13. 36.

and [f] Or, sweete.

and his ſepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.

30 Therefore, ſeeing he was a Prophet, and knewe that God had *ſworne with an othe to him, that of the fruite of his loynes hee would rayſe vp Chriſt concerning the fleſh to ſet him vpon his throne,

31 Hee knowing this before, ſpake of the reſurrection of Chriſt, that his ‖ ſoule ſhould not be left in b graue, neither his fleſh ſhould ‖ ſee corruption.

32 This Jeſus hath God raiſed vp, whereof we all are witneſſes.

33 Since then that hee by the c right hande of God hath bene exalted, & hath receiued of his Father the promes of the holy Ghoſt, he hath ſhed forth this which ye now ſee and heare.

34 For Dauid is not aſcended into heauen, but he ſaith, *The Lord ſaid to my Lord, d Sit at my right hand, 35 Vntill I e make thine enemies thy footeſtoole.

36 Therefore, let all the houſe of Iſrael knowe for a ſuretie, that God hath f made him both Lorde, and Chriſt, this Jeſus, ‖ I ſay, whom ye haue crucified.

37 Nowe when they heard it, they were pricked in their heartes, and ſaide vnto Peter & the other Apoſtles, Men [and] brethren, what ſhall we do?

38 Then Peter ſaide vnto them, Amend your liues, and be g baptized euery one of you in the Name of Jeſus Chriſt for the remiſſion of ſinnes: and ye ſhall receiue the h gift of the holy Ghoſt.

39 For the promes i [is made] vnto you, and to your children, and to all that are afarre off, [euen] as many as the Lord our God ſhall call.

40 And with many other wordes he ‖ beſought, and exhorted [them,] ſaying, Saue your ſelues from this frowarde generation.

41 Then they that gladly receiued his worde, were baptized: and the ſame day, there were added [to the Church] about three thouſand ‖ ſoules.

42 And they continued in k Apoſtles doctrine, and l fellowſhip, and l breaking of bread, and prayers.

43 ¶ And feare came vpon euery ſoule: and many wonders and ſignes were done by the Apoſtles.

44 And all that beleeued, were in one place, and had all things *common.

45 And they ſolde their poſſeſſions and m goods, & parted them to all men, as euery one had neede.

46 And they continued dayly with one accorde in the Temple, * and n breaking bread [at home,] did eat their meate together with gladneſſe and ſingleneſſe of heart, 47 Praying God, and had fauour with all the people: and the Lord added to the Church o from day to day, ſuch as ſhould be ſaued.

Lords ſupper, 1. Cor. 11. 21. Jude 12. ‖ Or, from houſe to houſe.

CHAP. III.

7 The lame is reſtored to his feete. 12 Peter preacheth Chriſt vnto the people.

NOw Peter and John went vp together into the Temple, at the a ninth houre of prayer.

2 And a certaine man which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, was caried, whome they layed dayly at the gate of the Temple called Beautifull, to aſke b almes of them that entred into the Temple.

3 Who ſeeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, deſired to receiue an almes.

4 And Peter earneſtly beholding him with John, ſaid, Looke on vs.

5 And he gaue heede vnto them, truſting to receiue ſome thing of them.

6 Then ſaid Peter, Siluer and golde haue I none, but ſuch as I c haue, that giue I thee: In the d Name of Jeſus Chriſt of Nazaret riſe vp, and walke.

7 And he tooke him by e right hande, and lift [him] vp, and immediately his feete and ancle bones receiued ſtrength.

8 And he leaped vp, ſtoode, and walked, & entred with them into the Temple, walking and leaping, and praying God.

9 And all the people ſawe him walke, and praying God,

10 And they knewe him, that it was he which ſate for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple: and they were amazed, and ſore aſtonied at that which was come vnto him.

11 ¶ And as the creeple which was healed, helde Peter and John, all the people ranne amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Solomons.

12 So when Peter ſaw it, he anſwered vnto the people, Ye men of Iſrael, why marueile ye at this? or why looke ye ſo ſtedfaſtly on vs, as though by our z And ſo knewe by reuelation and ſpecial promes that which els he could not haue knowen. Pſal. 132. 11.

L.3. owne

Pſal. 16. 10. chap. 13. 35. ‖ Or, perſon.

a The worde ſignifyeth a place where one can ſee nothing. ‖ Or, feele.

b By the vertue and power.

c He obteined of his father power to accomplish the promes which he made to his Apoſtles, as touching the holy Ghoſt to be ſent vnto them.

Pſal. 110. 1.

d And therefore Chriſt doth farre excell Dauid.

e Chriſt is the onely redemer vnto whom all powers are ſubiect and muſt obey.

f That is, hath appointed as King and ruler: and note, that in all this Sermon Peter ſpeaketh of Chriſtes manhode, as he was dead, buried, riſen and aſcended to heauen.

g He ſpeaketh not here of the forme of baptiſme, but teacheth that the whole effect thereof conſiſteth in Jeſus Chriſt.

h The viſible ſignes.

i Chriſt is promiſed both to the Iewes and Gentiles, but the Iewes haue the firſt place.

‖ Or, proteſted before God.

‖ Or, perſons.

k Which ſtandeth in brotherly loue, and liberalitie, Rom. 15. 26. 2. Cor. 9. 13. Heb. 13. 16.

l Which was the miniſtration of the Lords ſupper. Chap. 4. 32.

m Not that their goods were mingled all together: but ſuch order was obſerued that euery man frankely relieued anothers neceſſitie.

Chap. 20. 7.

n They did eate together, and at theſe feaſts did vſe to miniſter the o Where-by we ſee that the Apoſtles trauailed not in vaine.

a Which is with vs, three a clocke after noone, which was their euening ſacrifice, at which the Apoſtles were preſent to teache, that the ſhadowes of the Lawe were abolished by that lambe that tooke away the ſinnes of the world.

b Becauſe his diſeaſe was incurable, he gaue himſelfe to liue of almes.

c He had the gift of healing ſickeneſſes.

d In the vertue of Jeſus: for Chriſt was the authour of this miracle, and Peter was the miniſter.

3 Peter and John deliuered out of prison, preache the Gospell boldly. 10 They confesse plainely the Name of Christ. 16 They are commaunded to preache no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good successe of the Gospel. 32 The increase, vnitie, and charitie of the Church.

owne [c] power or godlines, we had made this man go?

13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, the* God of our fathers hath glorified his Sonne Iesus, whome ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when hee had iudged him to be deliuered.

14 *But ye denied the holy one and the iust, and desired a [f] murderer to be giuen you,

15 And killed the Lord of life, whome God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his [g] Name hath made this man sounde, whome ye see, and knowe, through faith in* his ‖ Name: and the faith which is by him, hath giuen to him this disposition of his whole bodie in the presence of you all.

17 And now brethren, I knowe that through [h] ignorance ye did it, as [did] also your [i] gouernours.

18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophets, that Christ should suffer, hee hath thus fulfilled.

19 Amende your liues therefore, and turne, that your sinnes may be put away, when the time of refreshing [k] shall come from the presence of the Lord.

20 And hee shall sende Iesus Christ, which before was preached vnto you.

21 Whome the heauen must [l] conteine vntill the time that all things [m] be restored, which God had spoken by [p] mouth of all his holy Prophets since the world began.

22 *For Moses sayde vnto the Fathers, The Lorde your God shall raise vp vnto you a Prophet, [euen] of your [n] brethren like vnto mee: ye shall heare him in all things, whatsoeuer he shall say vnto you.

23 For it shall be that euery person which shal not heare that Prophet, shall be destroyed out of the people.

24 Also all [p] Prophets from Samuel, and thereforth as many as haue spoken, haue likewise foretolde of these dayes.

25 Ye are the [o] children of the Prophets, and of the couenant, which God hath made vnto our fathers, saying to Abraham, *Euen in thy seede shal all the [p] kinreds of the earth be [q] blessed.

26 First vnto you hath God raised vp his Sonne Iesus, and him he hath sent to blesse you, in [r] turning euery one of you from your iniquities.

AND as they spake vnto the people, [p] Priests & the [a] Captaine of the Temple, and the Sadducees came vpon them,

2 Taking it grieuously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus [name] the [b] resurrection from the dead.

3 And they layed hands on them, and put them in holde, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, beleeued, & the nomber of the men was about [c] fiue thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to passe on the morowe, that their rulers, and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high Priestes.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or [d] in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the [e] holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 Forasmuch as we this day are examined of the [f] good deed [done] to the impotent man, [to wit,] by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it knowen vnto you all, & to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whome ye haue crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, [euen] by him doeth this man stand here before you, whole.

11 *This is the stone cast aside of you [g] builders, which is become the head of the [h] corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name [i] vnder heauen, whereby we must be saued.

13 Now when they saw the boldenes of Peter and John, and vnderstood that they were vnlearned men and without knowledge, they marueiled, and knewe them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commaunded them to go a It is to be thought that this was the captaine of the Romanes garison.

b The Sadducees were great enemies to this doctrine.

c The whole Church was increased to this nomber.

d By whose authoritie or commandement?

e For he could not haue so spoken of himselfe.

f Iudges ought not to condemne, but approue and commend that which is well done.

g Meaning Priestes, Elders, and gouernours.

h For to vpholde [p] weight and force of the building.

i That is, none other cause or meane.

c He correcteth the abuse of men, who attribute that to mans holines, which onely appertaineth to God. Chap. 5.30. Matth. 27.20. marke 15.11. luke 23.18. iohn 18.40.

f To wit, Barabbas.

g To wit, Gods Name, whereby it appeareth that they did striue against God. 1. Pet. 1.21.

‖ Or, in Christ.

h He doth not excuse their malice, but because that ignorance & a blind zeale led many, he putteth them in hope of saluation.

i He meaneth some & not all.

k When Iesus shall come to iudge [p] world, he shall know that he will be your redemer, and not your Iudge.

l We therefore beleeue constantly, that he is in none other place.

m What is begun & continueth: but [p] full accomplishment and perfection is deferred to the last day. Deut. 18.15. chap. 7.37.

n Of the stock of Abraham.

o Because they came of [p] same nation, and therefore were heires of the same promes which appertained to the whole body of the people. Gen. 12.3. gal. 3.8.

p Both Iewe and Gentile.

q None are blessed but in Christ.

r So that our regeneration and newnesse of life is included vnder this blessing.

k The wicked still rage against Christ, though their owne conscience doe condemne them.

go aside out of the Councell, and k conferred among themselues, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for surely a manifest signe is done by them, [and it is] openly knowen to all them that dwell in Jerusalem: and we cannot denie it.

17 But that it be noised no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this l Name.

l They gaue commaundement to preach Christ no more.

18 So they called them, & commaunded them, that in m no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Jesus.

m They preferre their authoritie to the ordinance of God.

19 But Peter & Iohn answered vnto them, and saide, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we cannot but speake n things which we haue seene and heard.

n To the intent that we should beare witnesse, and preach them.

21 So they o threatened them, and let them go, & found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

o God hath put a ring through the wickeds noses, to that he stayeth them from their mischieuous purposes.

22 For the man was aboue fourtie yere olde, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then assoone as they were let go, they came to their p felowes, and shewed all that the hie Priestes and Elders had said vnto them.

p To encourage one another, and to glorifie God.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accord, and said, O Lord, thou art q God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them.

q They ground their prayers vpon Gods promes, who had assured that he would enlarge the kingdome of Christ. Psal. 2. 1.

25 Which r by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast sayde, * Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

r This is the verifying of the prophesie.

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

s And appointed to be King, e Power, and iustice.

27 For t doutlesse, against thine holy Sonne Jesus, whom thou haddest s anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered themselues together, t All things are done by the hand of Gods purpose, according to the decree of his will, Ephes. 1. 11.

28 To doe whatsoeuer thine u hande, and thy u counsell had determined before to be done.

u All maye their rage and malice wherby they enterprise against thee.

29 And nowe, O Lord, beholde their x threatnings, and y graunt vnto thy seruants with all boldenesse to speake thy worde, x They seeke not howe to liue at ease, but whereby they may most glorifie God.

30 So that thou stretche forth thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holy Sonne Jesus.

y They seeke not howe to liue at ease, but whereby they may most glorifie God.

31 And When as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all z filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God a boldely.

z This was a signe of Gods presence & the performence of his promes.

a This boldnes & constancie declared that their prayer tooke effect.

32 And the multitude of them that beleeued, were of one heart, & of one b soule: neither any of them said, that any thing of y which he possessed, was his c owne, but they had all things * common.

b Of one minde, will, consent and affection.

c Their hearts were so ioyned in God, y being all members of one body, they could not suffer their fellow members to be destitute.

33 And With great power gaue the Apostles Witnes of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was vpon them all.

Chap. 2. 44.

34 Neither was there any among them, that d lacked: for as many as were possessours of landes or houses, solde them, and brought the price of the things that were solde, d As the Apostles suffred none to lacke, so S. Paul commaundeth that no yble louers be maintened, 2. Thes. 3. 10.

35 And layd it downe at the Apostles feete, and it was distributed vnto euery man, e according as he had neede.

e The goods were not alike deuided among all, but as euerie man had want, so was his necessitie moderately relieued.

36 Also Joses, which was called of the Apostles, Barnabas (that is by interpretation the sonne of consolation) being a Leuite, [&] of the countrey of Cyprus, 37 Where as he had land, solde it, and brought the money, and layed it downe at the Apostles feete.

CHAP. V.

5 The hypocrisie of Ananias and Sapphira is punished. 12 Miracles are done by the Apostles. 17 They are taken, but the Angel of God bringeth them out of prison. 20 Their bolde confession before the Councell. 34 The counsell of Gamaliel. 40 The Apostles are beat, and retoyce in trouble.

BUt a certaine man named Ananias, With Sapphira his wife, solde a possession, a Which signified their sacrilege, distrust, and hypocrisie.

2 And a kept away [part] of the price, his wife also being of counsell, & brought a certaine part, and layde it downe at the Apostles feete.

3 Then saide Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldest lie vnto y holy b Ghost, & keepe away [part] of the price of the possession?

b Who moued thine heart to sell thy possession: wherefore thou turnest part to another vse, as if God did not see thy dissimulation.

4 Whiles it remayned, c apperteined it not vnto thee? and after it was solde, was it not in thine owne d power? how is it that thou hast conceiued this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

c His sinne therefore was so much greater in that he committed it willingly.

d Then no man was compelled to sell his possessions, nor to put his money to the common vse.

5 Nowe When Ananias heard these wordes, he fell downe, and gaue vp the ghost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the yong men rose vp, and tooke him vp, and caried [him] out, and buried [him.]

7 And it came to passe about the space

e Because it shall God so pleased it.

of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter saide vnto her, Tell me, solde ye the lande for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter saide vnto her, Why haue ye agreed together, to [f] tempt the Spirit of the Lord? beholde, the feete of them which haue buried thine husband, [are] at the doore, and shal carie thee out.

10 Then she fell downe straight way at his feete, and yeelded vp the ghost: and the yong men came in, and founde her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the handes of the Apostles were many signes & wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accorde in [g] Solomons porch.

13 And of the other [h] durst no man ioyne himselfe to them: neuertheles the people [i] magnified them,

14 Also the number of them that beleeued in the Lord, both of men and women, grewe more and more)

15 In so much that they brought the sicke into the streetes, and layde them on beddes & couches, that at the least way the shadow of Peter, when he came by, might shadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Jerusalem, bringing sicke folkes, & them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 ¶ Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the [k] Sadduces) and were full of [l] indignation, 18 And layde handes on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But [p] Angel of the Lord, by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Goe your way, and stande in the Temple, and speake to the people all the wordes [m] of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple earely in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Councill together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it,

23 Saying, Certainely We found the prison shut as sure as was possible, and the keepers [n] standing without, before the doores: but when We had opened, We found no man within.

24 Then when the [chiefe] Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priestes heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would growe.

25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Beholde, the men that ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, least they should haue bene stoned)

27 And whē they had brought them, they set them before the Councill, and the chiefe Priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did not We straitly commaund you, that ye should not teache in this Name? and beholde, ye haue filled [o] Jerusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans [p] blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and saide, We ought rather to obey God then [q] men.

30 The [r] God of our fathers hath raysed vp Jesus, whome ye slewe, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, [to be] a Prince and a [s] Sauiour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiuenesse of sinnes.

32 And We are his witnesses concerning these things which We say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whome God hath giuen to them that obey [t] him.

33 Now when they heard it, they brast for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stoode there vp in the counsell a certeine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctour of the Lawe, honoured of all the people, and commaunded to put the Apostles forth a litle space, 35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what ye intende to do touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp [u] Theudas boasting himselfe, to whome reasoned a nomber of men, about a foure hundreth, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man, arose vp [u] Judas of f And to mock him, as if he thought not haue knowne your craftie feeche, which declareth that when men doe any thing of an euill conscience, they do not onely pronounce the sentence of damnation vpon themselues, but also prouoke the wrath of God, because they do proue, as it were purposely, whether God be righteous and almightie.

g Reade the annotation vpon the figure, 1. King. 6.

h Because of their owne euil consciences which made them to tremble: for they that were not assured of Gods mercies in Christ, were astonished at these his strāge iugements.

i That is, they gaue them great praise.

k Which then were the chiefe among them.

l They were full of blinde zeale, emulation and iealousie, in defense of their superstition.

m That is, of the liuely doctrine, whereby the way to life is declared.

n So that there was no fraude nor deceit, nor negligence, but it liuely setteth forth the power of God and his prouidence for his.

o He accuseth them of rebellion and sedition.

p And so make vs guiltie of Christs death.

q When they commaunde, or forbid vs any thing contrary to the word of God.

r Chap. 3. 13.

s Meaning, that he is the Mediatour and onely meane betweene God and man.

t That is, Christ.

u This Theudas was about thirtie yeres before him, of whom Josephus mencioneth, lib. 20. de Antiq. chap. 4. that was after the death of Herode the great, where Archelaus his sonne was at Rome, at what time Judea was full of insurrections: so that it is not sure to giue credite to Eusebius in this point.

u Of him maketh mention Josephus, lib. 18. where he speaketh of the taxing, Luke 2. 1.

of Galile, in the dayes of the tribute, and drewe away much people after him: he also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroade.

38 And now I say vnto you, refraine your selues from these men, & let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke be of men, it will come to nought:

x He grounded vpon good principles, but hee doubteth of the qualitie of the cause, neither dare affirme whether it be good or bad: wherein appeareth he was but a worldling.

39 But if it be of x God, ye cannot destroy it, least ye be found euen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commanded that they shoulde not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them go.

41 So they departed from the Councill, reioycing, that they were counted worthie to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And dayly in the Temple, & from house to house they ceased not to teache, and preache Iesus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

3 Seuen Deacons are ordeyned in the Church. 8 The graces and miracles of Steuen, whom they accused falsly.

AND in those dayes, as the nomber of y disciples grewe, there arose a murmuring of the a Grecians towardes the Hebrewes, because their widowes were b neglected in the dayly ministring.

a Whose ancestors were Iewes and dwelled in Greece: therefore these spake Greeke and not Hebrewe.

b They were not looked vnto in the distribution of the almes.

2 Then the twelue called the multitude of the disciples together, and sayde, It is not meete that we shoulde leaue the word of God to serue the c tables.

c That is, to make prouision for the maintenance of the poore, forasmuch as they were not able to satisfie both the offices.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke ye out among you seuen men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisedome, which wee may appoint to this businesse.

4 And we will giue our selues continually to prayer, and to the ministration of the worde.

d He ioyneth faith with the other gifres of the holy Ghost. Chap. 21.8.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: & they chose Steuen a man full of d faith and of the holy Ghost, and *Philippe, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas e proselyte of Antiochia, e Meaning, one that was turned to the Iewish religion.

6 Which they set before the Apostles: and they prayed, and f layed their handes on them.

f This ceremonie the Iewes obserued in solemne sacrifices, Leuit. 3.2. and also in prayer and priuate blessings, Gen. 48.14. Likewise in the primitiue Church it was vsed, eyther when they made ministers, or gaue the gifts of the holy Ghost: which gifres being nowe taken away, the ceremonie must cease.

7 And the worde of God increased, and the number of y disciples was multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, & a great company of the Priestes were obedient to the g faith.

g That is, to the Gospell, which is receiued by faith.

8 ¶ Nowe Steuen full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the h Synagogue, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

h Or college: diuers nations had colleges at Ierusalem, wherein their youth was instructed, as we see in vniuersities.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisedome, and the Spirit by the which he spake.

11 Then they i suborned men, which sayde, Wee haue heard him speake blasphemous words against Moses, & God.

i That is, instructed and set forth false witnesses: and thus malice seeketh false shiftes when cruelty faileth her.

12 Thus they moued the people and the Elders, and the Scribes: and running vpon him, caught him, & brought him to the Councill, 13 And set forth false witnesses, which sayde, This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous wordes against this holy place, and the Lawe.

14 For wee haue heard him say, that k this Iesus of Nazaret shall destroye this place, and shall change the ordinances, which Moses gaue vs.

k Christ

15 And as all that sate in the Councill looked stedfastly on him, they sawe his face as [it had bene] the l face of an Angel.

l A certaine confidence, but also great maiestie appearing in him.

CHAP. VII.

2 Steuen maketh answere by the Scriptures to his accusers. 51 He rebuketh the hardnecked Iewes, 57 And is stoned to death, 58 Saul keepeth the rommenours clothes.

THen sayde the chiefe Priest, Are these things so?

2 And he saide, Ye a men, brethren, and fathers, hearken. The God of b glory appeared vnto our father Abraham, while hee was in c Mesopotamia, before hee dwelt in Charran, a Steuen was accused that he denied God, and therefore he is more diligent to purge this crime.

b Hereby he is discerned from the false goddes.

c He speaketh here of Mesopotamia, as it conteyneth Babylon and Chaldea in it. Gen. 12.1.

3 *And saide vnto him, Come out of thy countrey, and from thy kinred, and come into the land which I shall shewe thee.

4 Then came hee out of the lande of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran. And after that his father was dead, [God] brought him from thence into this land, wherein ye now dwell,

5 And he gaue him none inheritance in it, no, not the breadth of a foote: yet he promised that he woulde giue it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no childe.

6 But God spake thus, that his *seed should be a sojourner in a strange lande, and that they shoulde keepe it in bondage, and entreate it euill d foure hundreth yeeres.

Gen. 15.13.

d Beginning to reckon the yeeres from the time that Isaac was borne.

7 But

7 But the nation to whom they shal be in bondage, will I e iudge, saith God: and after that, they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

e Take vengeance of them and deliuer my people.

8 * He gaue him also the couenant of circumcision: and so [Abraham] begate *Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac [begate] * Iacob, and Iacob the twelue * Patriarkes.

Gen.17.9,10.

Gen.21.3.

Gen.25.24. 26. Gen.29.32, 33.& 30.5. & 35.22. Gen.37.28.

9 And the Patriarkes moued with enuie solde * Ioseph into Egypt: but God was f with him, f That is, preserued and brought all things to a good ende. Gen.41.37, 39,40.

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and *gaue him fauour and wisdome in the sight of Pharao king of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and [ouer] his whole house.

11 ¶ Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers founde no sustenance.

Gen.4[illegible] 2.

12 But whē * Iacob heard that there was corne in Egypt, he sent our fathers first.

C

13 * And at the seconde time, Ioseph was knowen of his brethren, and Iosephs kinred was made knowne vnto Pharao.

14 Then sent Ioseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kinred, euen g threescore and fifteene soules.

g After the Hebrew, three score and ten. Gen.46.5,6, Gen.49.33. Gen.50.7. Iosh.24.32. h It is probable that some writer through negligence put in Abraham in this place, in stead of Iacob, who bought this field, Gen.33. 19.0, by Abraham he meaneth the posterity of Abraham. Gen.23.16. Exod.1.7.

15 So * Iacob went down into Egypt, and he * died, and our fathers, 16 And were remoued into * Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that h Abraham had bought * for money of the sonnes of Emor, [some] of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promes drewe neere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people * grewe and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another King arose, which knewe not Ioseph.

19 The same dealt i subtilly with our kinred, and euill entreated our fathers, & made them to cast out their yong children [that they should not remaine aliue.

i He inuented craftie wayes both to destroy the Israelites by ouer much labour, and also to get great profit by them, Exod.1.10. [Or, that their race should faile. Exod.2.2. Hebr.11,23.

20 * The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house three moneths.

21 And when hee was cast out, Pharaos daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisedome of the Egyptians, and was mightie in wordes and in deedes.

23 Now when he was ful fourtie yere olde, it came into his heart to visite his brethren, the children of Israel.

24 * And when he sawe one [of them] suffer wrong, hee defended him, & auenged his quarel that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

Exod.2.11.

25 For he supposed his brethrē would haue vnderstand, that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it not.

26 * And the nexte day, he shewed himselfe vnto them as they stroue, & would haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: Why do ye wrong one to another?

Exod,2.13.

27 But hee that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when fourtie yeeres were expired, there appeared to him in the * Wildernes of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame k of fire in a bush.

Exod,3,2.

k This fire represented the furnace of affliction, wherein the people of God were.

31 And when Moses sawe it, he wondred at the sight: and as he drew nere to consider it, the voyce of the Lorde came vnto him, [saying,]

32 I am the l God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.

l Seeing this Angel called himselfe God, it declareth that he was Christ the spectatour, who is the eternall God.

33 Then the Lord said to him, m Put off thy shooes from thy feete: for ṕ place where thou standest, is holy ground.

m In signe of reuerence, read Exod.3.5.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: & now come, and I will sende thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a prince and a iudge? the same God sent for a prince, & a deliuerer by ṕ hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He * brought them out, doing wonders, and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red sea, and in the wildernes * fourtie yeeres.

Exod.7.8.9. 10.11.14. chapters. Exod,16.1. Deut.18.15. chap.3.22.

37 This is that Moses, which saide vnto the children of Israel, A n Prophet shall the Lord your God rayse vp vnto you, [euen] of your brethren, like vnto me: him shall ye heare.

n He proueth that Christ is the ende of the Lawe and the Prophets. Exod.19.2.

38 * This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wildernes with the o Angel, which spake to him in Mount Sina, o Moses was the Angels or Christs minister, and a guide to the fathers.

Sina, and with our fathers, who receiued the p liuely oracles to giue vnto vs.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but refuſed, and in their hearts turned backe againe into Egypt, 40 Saying vnto Aaron, *Make q vs gods that may goe before vs: for r wee knowe not what is become of this Moſes that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt.

41 And they made a calfe in thoſe dayes, & offred ſacrifice vnto the idole, and reioyced in the workes of their owne hands.

42 Then God turned himſelfe away, and *gaue them vp to ſerue the t hoſt of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, * u O houſe of Iſrael, haue ye offred to me ſlaine beaſtes and ſacrifices by the ſpace of fourtie yeeres in the wildernes?

43 And ye u tooke vp the tabernacle of *Moloch, and the ſtarre of your god Remphan, figures, which ye made to worſhip them: therefore I will carie you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of x witnes in the wildernes, as he had appointed, ſpeaking vnto *Moſes, that he ſhould make it according to the facion that he had ſeene.

45 Which [tabernacle] alſo our fathers receiued, and brought in with *Jeſus into the poſſeſſion of y Gentiles, which God draue out before our fathers, vnto the dayes of Dauid:

46 *Who found fauour before God, and deſired that he might *finde a tabernacle for the God of Iacob.

47 *But Salomõ built him an houſe.

48 Howbeit the moſt high *dwelleth not in y temples made with hands, as ſayeth the *Prophet, 49 Heauen [is] my throne, and earth [is] my footeſtoole: what z houſe will ye builde for me, ſayeth the Lord? or what place is it that I ſhould reſt in?

50 Hath not mine hande made all things?

51 * Ye ſtifnecked and of vncircumciſed a hearts and eares, ye haue allwayes reſiſted the holy Ghoſt: as your fathers [did, ſo] do you.

52 Which of the Prophets haue not your fathers perſecuted? and they haue ſlaine them, which ſhewed before of the comming of that b Juſt, of whom ye are nowe the betrayers and murtherers, 53 *Which haue receiued the Law by the c ordinance of Angels, and haue not kept it.

54 But whē they heard theſe things, their hearts braſt for anger, and they gnaſhed at him with [their] teeth.

55 But he being full of the holy Ghoſt, looked ſtedfaſtly vnto heauen, and ſawe the glorie of God, and Jeſus ſtanding at the d right hand of God, 56 And ſayde, Beholde, I ſee the heauens open, and the Sonne of man ſtanding at the right hand of God.

57 Then they gaue a ſhoute with a loude voyce, & ſtopped their eares, and e ranne vpon him all at once, 58 And caſt him out of the citie, and ſtoned him: and the * witneſſes layde downe their clothes at a yong mans feete, named Saul.

59 And they ſtoned Steuen, who called on [God,] and ſayd, Lord Jeſus, receiue my ſpirit.

60 And he kneeled downe, and cryed with a loude voyce, * Lord, lay not this ſinne to their charge. And when he had thus ſpoken, he ſlept.

CHAP. VIII.

2 Steuen is lamented and buried. 3 The rage of the Iewes and of Saul againſt them. 4 The faithfull ſcattered, preach here and there. 9 Samaria is ſeduced by Simon the ſorcerer, but was conuerted by Philippe, and confirmed by the Apoſtles. 19 The couetouſnes and hypocriſie of Simon, 26 And converſion of the Eunuche.

AND Saul conſented to his death, and at that time, there was a great perſecution againſt f Church which was at Jeruſalem, and they were all ſcattered abroade through the regions of Iudea and of Samaria, except the Apoſtles.

2 Then [certaine] men fearing God, a caried Steuen among them, [to be buried,] and made great b lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, & entred into euery houſe, and drewe out both men and women, & put them into priſon.

4 Therefore they that were ſcattered abroade, went to and fro preaching the worde.

5 ¶ Then came Philippe into the citie c of Samaria, and preached Chriſt vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto thoſe things which Philip ſpake, with one accord, hearing, and ſeeing the miracles which he did.

7 For p By oracles is ment the ſayings that God ſpake to Moſes, Exod. 32.1.

q Figures, or reſemblances of the preſence of God.

r Yet they knew he was abſent for their commodite, & ſo would haue by reaſon and lying them the Lawe, Rom. 1.24.

s As the ſunne, moone, & other ſtarres, Deut. 17.3. Amos. 5.25.

t Your fathers began in wilderneſſe to contemne mine ordinances, and you nowe farre paſſe them in impietie.

u And caried it vpon your ſhoulders. Leuit. 20.2.

x They ought to haue beene content with this couenant onely, and not to haue gone after their lewde fantaſies. Exod. 25.40. hebr. 8.5. Ioſh. 3.14. 1. Sam. 13.14. pſalm. 89.21. 2. Sam. 7.2. pſalm. 132.5. 1. Chr. 17.12. 2. King. 6.1. Chap. 17.24.

y He reproueth the groſſe dulnes of the people, which abuſed the power of God, in that they would haue contayned it within the Temple. Iſa. 66.1.

z God cannot be contained in any ſpace of place. Iere. 9.26. ezek. 44.9.

a Which neither forſake your olde wickednes, nor ſo much as heare when God ſpeaketh to you, but ſtill rebell.

b Which is Jeſus Chriſt, who is not onely iuſt for his innocencie, but becauſe all true iuſtice commeth of him.

Exod. 19.16. galat. 3.19.

c By their miniſterie or office.

d And reigning in his fleſh, wherein he had ſuffred.

e This was done of furious violence, & by no forme of iuſtice. Chap. 22.20.

Mat. 5.44. luke 23.34. 1. cor. 4.13.

1 From the place where he was ſtoned.

b When the Church is bereaued of any worthie member, there is iuſt cauſe of ſorow: and note that here is no mention of any reliques or prayers for the dead, or worſhipping.

c The converſion of Samaria was as it were the firſt fruites of the calling of the Gentiles.

7 For vncleane spirites crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed [of them:] and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in ỹ citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which vsed Witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, that he himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they [d] gaue heede from the lest to ỹ greatest, saying, This man is the great [e] power of God.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But assoone as they beleeued Philippe, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe [f] beleeued also and was baptized, and continued with Philippe, and wondred, when hee sawe the signes & great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Now when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the worde of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which whē they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the [g] holy Ghost.

16 (For as yet, he was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized [h] onely in the Name of the Lord Iesus)

17 Then layde they their handes on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon sawe, ỹ through laying on of the Apostles handes the holy Ghost was giuen, he offred them money, 19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whomsoeuer I lay the handes, he may receiue the holy Ghost.

20 Then saide Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obteyned with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor [i] fellowship in this busines: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 [k] Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, that if it be [l] possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiuen thee.

23 For I see that thou art [m] in the gall of [*] bitternes, & in the bond of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye haue spoke, come vpon me.

25 ¶ So they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lorde, returned to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospell in many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philippe, saying, Arise, and go toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is [n] waste.

27 And he arose and went on: and behold, a certaine [o] Eunuche of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe Gouernour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Ierusalem to worship:

28 And as hee returned sitting in his charet, he read Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit saide vnto Philippe, Go nere and ioyne thy selfe to yonder charet.

30 And Philippe ranne thither, and heard him reade the Prophet Esaias, and said, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he sayd, How can I, except I had a guide? And hee desired Philippe, that he would come vp and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, [p] He was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: & like a lambe dombe before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 [p] In his humilitie his [q] iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare his [r] generation? for his life is taken frō the [s] earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philippe, & said, I pray thee of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philippe [t] opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch saide, See, [here is] water: what doth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philippe saide vnto him, If thou beleeuest with [u] all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered, and saide, I beleeue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then he commanded the charet to stand still: and they went downe both into a This declareth how much more we are inclined to follow the illusions of Satan then the trueth of God.

e This is the craft of Satā, to couer all his illusions vnder the Name of God.

f The maiestie of Gods worde forced him to confesse the trueth: but yet was he not regenerate therefore.

g Meaning the particular giftes of the holy Spirit.

h They had onely receiued the common grace of adoption and regeneration which are offered to all the faithfull in baptisme, & as yet had not receiued the gift to speake in diuers languages, and to do miracles.

i Thou art not worthie to be of the number of the faithfull.

k That is, turne away from thy wickednes.

l Hereby hee would make him to feele his sinne, and not that hee doubted of Gods mercies, if hee could repent.

m By this hee shewed his great ignorance, and deadly sleepe of vnbeliefe: for Satan possesseth the hearts of vnbeleeuers, Deut. 29. 18.

n After that Alexander had destroyed it, it was not much peopled, as it was afore, and therefore in respect was as waste.

o Eunuche signifieth him that is gelded: but because in the Call parts great affaires were committed to such, it came in vse that noble men were called Eunuches, although they were not geelded: also all maner officers & seruants that were put in credit to negotiate affaires, were called by this name, as Isa. 39. 7. Isa. 53. 7.

p Albeit Christ was in grauе and in deathes bands, feeling also his Fathers anger against sinne, yet he brake the bandes of death and was exalted, Actes 2. 24.

q The punishment which he suffred, was the beginning of his glorie.

r That is, how long his age shall endure: for being risen from death, death shall no more reigne, neither shall his kingdome euer haue ende: or els we may take generation, for his Church which neuer shal haue ende: for nowe they sit in the heauenly places with Christ their head, as Ephes. 2. 6.

s And he nowe reigneth in heauen.

t He declareth at length this matter of so great importance.

u With a pure and perfect heart.

into the water, both Philippe and the Eunuche, and he baptized him.

x This was, to the intent that he might knowe ſo much the better that Philip was ſent to him by God.

39 And aſſoone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philippe, that ꝓ Eunuche x ſawe him no more: ſo he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philippe ‖ was found at y Azotus, & he walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Ceſarea.

‖ Or, perceiued himſelfe to be.

y Some think this citie was alſo called Aſdod, Ioſ. 15. 47

CHAP. IX.

3 The converſion of Saul. 15 His vocation to the Apoſtleſhip. 20 His zeale to eſtemate the ſame. 25 Howe hee eſcapeth the Iewes conſpiracies. 26 His acceſſe to the Apoſtles. 31 The proſperitie of the Church. 34 Peter healeth Aeneas. 40 Raiſeth Tabitha. 42 He conuerteth many to Chriſt. 43 And lodgeth in a tanners houſe.

Chap. 22. 4, 5. gal. 1. 13. a He perſecuted with a great rage and cruelnes the innocent bloud which he thirſted for: which declareth wherevnto man is led by his rash zeale, before he haue the true knowledge of God. b That is, of that ſect, or ſoyt.

AND a Saul yet b breathing out threatnings and ſlaughter againſt the diſciples of the Lord, went vnto the hie Prieſt,

2 And deſired of him letters to Damaſcus to the Synagogues, that if hee found any that were of that b way (either men or women) hee might bring them bound vnto Ieruſalem.

3 Nowe as he iourneyed, it came to paſſe that as he was come neere to Damaſcus, * ſodainly there ſhined round about him a light from heauen.

Chap. 22. 6. 1. cor. 15. 8.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice, ſaying to him, Saul, Saul, why perſecuteſt thou me?

5 And he ſayd, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord ſaid, I am Ieſus whom thou perſecuteſt: it is hard for thee to kicke againſt c pricks.

c That is, to reſiſt God, which he prickeſth and ſolliciteth our conſciences.

6 He [then] both trembling and aſtonied, ſaid, Lord, What wilt thou that I do? And the Lorde ſaid vnto him, Ariſe and go into the citie, and it ſhall be tolde thee what thou ſhalt do.

7 The men alſo which iourneied with him, ſtood amazed, hearing d [his] voyce, but e ſeeing no man.

d Meaning, Sauls voyce, as Chap. 22. 9.

e For onely Saul knewe that Ieſus ſpake vnto him.

8 And Saul arose from the ground, and opened his eyes, [but] f ſaw no man. Then ledde they him by the hande, and brought him into Damaſcus, f For he was blinde.

9 Where he was three dayes without ſight, and neither g ate nor dranke.

g He was ſo rauiſhed with the viſion, that he did meditate nothing but heauenly things and therewith was ſatisfied.

10 And there was a certaine diſciple at Damaſcus named Ananias, & to him ſayd the Lord in a viſion, Ananias. And he ſayd, Behold, I am [here,] Lord.

11 Then the Lord ſayd vnto him, Ariſe, and go into the ſtreet which is called Straight, and ſeeke in the houſe of Iudas after one called Saul of Tarſus: for behold, he prayeth.

12 (And he ſaw in a viſion a man named Ananias comming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receyue his ſight.)

13 Then Ananias anſwered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, howe much euill hee hath done to thy Saints at Ieruſalem.

14 Moreouer here he hath authoritie of the hie prieſts, to binde all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord ſaid vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a h choſen veſſell vnto me, to i beare my Name before the Gentiles, & kings, and the children of Iſrael.

h A worthie ſeruant of god and endued with excellent graces aboue others.

16 For I will ſhewe him, how many things hee muſt ſuffer for my Names ſake.

i To beare me witnes, and let forth my glory.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the houſe, and put his hands on him, and ſaid, Brother Saul, ꝓ Lord hath ſent me ([euen] Ieſus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou cameſt) that thou mighteſt receiue thy ſight, and be filled with the holy Ghoſt.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as [it had beene] ſcales, and ſodainly he receyued ſight, and aroſe, and was baptized,

19 And receyued meate, and was ſtrengthened. So was Saul certaine dayes with the diſciples which were at Damaſcus.

20 And ſtraight way hee preached Chriſt in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God.

21 So that all that heard him, were amazed, and ſaid, Is not this he, that deſtroied them which called on this Name in Ieruſalem, and came hither for that intent, that he ſhould bring them bound vnto the hie Prieſts?

22 But Saul increaſed the more in ſtrength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damaſcus, k confirming, that this was the Chriſt.

k Proouing by the conference of the Scriptures.

23 And after l that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counſell together to kill him.

l That was after three yeeres, that he had remained at Damaſcus, & in the countrey about. Gal. 1. 18. 2. Cor. 11. 32.

24 But their laying await was knowē of Saul: now they m watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

m The Gouernour at their requeſt appointed a watch as he declareth to the Corinthians, 2. Cor. 11. 32.

25 Then the diſciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wal, and let him downe in a baſket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ieruſalem, he aſſaied to ioine himſelf with the diſciples: but they were all afrayed of him, and beleeued not that he was a disciple.

M. i. a diſ-

27 But Barnabas tooke him, and brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had seene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, and howe he had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

28 And he [z] was conuersant with [n] the at Ierusalem, 29 And spake boldly [o] in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and spake and disputed with the [p] Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knewe it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to [q] Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, [r] walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all [quarters,] he came also to the [s] Saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeres, and was sicke of the palsie.

34 Then saide Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and ‖make vp thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And [t] all that dwelt at Lydda, and [u] Saron, saw him, [x] turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certaine [womã] a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called [y] Dorcas) thee was ‖full of good workes and almes which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those daies, that she was sicke and died: and when they had [z] washed her, they laide her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now for as much as Lydda was nere to Ioppa, [a] the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose and came with them: and when hee was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber, where all the widowes stoode by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the bodie, and saide, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, sate vp.

41 Then hee gaue her the hande and lift her vp, and called the [s] saints and widowes, and restored her aliue.

42 And it was knowen throughout all Ioppa, [a] many beleeued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that he taried many dayes in Ioppa with one Simon a ‖tanner.

CHAP. X.

3 Cornelius admonished by the Angel, 7 He sendeth to Ioppa. 11 The visiõ that Peter saw. 17 How he was sent to Cornelius. 44 The Gentiles also receiue the Spirit, & are baptized.

THere in Cesarea there was a certaine man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a captain of [b] band called the Italian [band,]

2 A deuout man, and [a] one that feared God with all his houshold, which gaue much almes to the people, and prayed God continually.

3 He saw in a vision euidently (about the ninth houre of the day) an Angell of God comming in to him, and saying vnto him, Cornelius.

4 But when hee looked on him, hee was afrayd, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said vnto him, Thy prayers and thine almes are come [b] vp into remembrance before God.

5 Nowe therefore send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: [†] hee shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the Angell which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that wayted on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morowe as they went on their iourney, and drewe neere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the [c] sixt houre.

10 Then wared he an hungred, and would haue eaten: but while they made [something] ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And he sawe heauen opened, and a certaine vessell came downe vnto him, as [it had beene] a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were [d] all maner of foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beasts and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eate.

14 But

z Greeke, went in and out.
n With Peter and Iames, Gal. 1. 18, 19.
o Making open profession of the Gospel.
p Which were Iewes, but so called because they were dispersed through Grecia and other countreis.
q Because it was his owne countrey, and there he might haue some authoritie.
‖Or, trusse thy couch together.
r Speaking, the greatest part.
s A place so called, and not a citie.
t That is, a deer, or, roe bucke.
‖Or, rich.
u To the intent thei might burie her afterward: for this was their custome, x For she was restored to life, rather that others might haue occasion to beleeue, and glorifie God, then for her owne sake.
‖Or, curtier.
a Who had forsaken all superstitions and gaue himselfe to the true seruice of God.
b That is, God did accept the: wherefore if it followeth that he had faith: for els it is impossible to please God.
† He shall speake wordes vnto thee whereby thou shalt be saued, and all thine house.
c Which was midday.
d As camels, horses, dogs, oxen, sheepe, swine, and such like which mã nourisheth for his vse.

14 But Peter sayd, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is ‖polluted, or vncleane.

‖Or, common.

15 And the voyce [spake] vnto him againe the seconde time, The things that God hath [e] purified, [f] pollute thou not.

e In taking away the difference betwixt vncleane beasts and cleane, he sheweth there is no difference betwixt the Iewes and Gentiles.

f Take it not for polluted and impure.

16 This was so done thryse: & the vessell was drawne vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Nowe while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which he had seene, meant, behold, the mē which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stoode at the gate, 18 And called, and asked, whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the visiō, the Spirit sayd vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and go with them, and [g] doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

g Then true obedience which yeeldeth of faith, ought to be without doubting or questioning.

21 ¶ Then Peter went downe to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayde, Behold, I am he whom ye seeke: What is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they sayde, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy wordes.

‖Or, Peter.

23 Then called ‖ he them in, & lodged them, and the next day, Peter wēt forth with them, and certaine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Nowe Cornelius wayted for them, & had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, & fell downe at his feete, and [h] worshipped him.

h Shewed too much reuerence and farre passing decent order, as though Peter had bene God.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euē I my selfe am a man.

27 And as hee talked with him, hee came in, & found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye knowe that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to companie or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed mee, that I should not call any man ‖polluted, or vncleane.

‖Or, common.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, When I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me?

30 Then Cornelius said, Foure dayes ago, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and beholde, a man stoode before mee in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when hee commeth, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediately, and thou hast well done to come. Nowe therefore are wee all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened [his] mouth, and said, Of a trueth I perceiue, that [i] God is no accepter of persons.

Deut.10.17. 2.chro.19.7. Iob 34.19. wisd. 6.7. ecclus.35. 16. rom.2.11. gal.2.6. ephes. 6.9. col.3.25. 1.pet.1.17.

i By this speach the Iewes meane the whole religion of God, which without faith profiteth vs nothing.

35 But in euerie nation he that [k] feareth him, and worketh [l] righteousnes, is accepted with him.

k That is, he that is vpright and doth hurt to no man, but doeth good to all.

l Meaning the reconciliation betweene God and man through Christ Iesus. Luke. 2.14.

36 Ye knowe the worde which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching [m] peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lord of all.

Luke 4.14.

m That is, endued him with graces & gifts aboue all others.

37 [Euen] [n] the word which came through all Iudea, [o] beginning in Galile, after the baptisme which Iohn preached, n Or, how God anointed Iesus of Nazaret with the holy Ghost, & with power: who went about doing good, & healing all that were oppressed of the deuill: for God was with him.

o Meaning that he was the first preacher of the Gospell.

38 [To wit, how God [p] anointed Iesus of Nazaret with the holy Ghost, & with power: who went about doing good, & healing all that were oppressed of the deuill: for God was with him.

p That is, he was ordeined of God a iudge of quicke and dead.

39 And we are witnesses of al things which hee did both in the lande of the Iewes, and in Ierusalem: whom they slewe, hanging him on a tree.

40 Him God raised vp the third day, and caused that he was shewed openly:

41 Not to all the people, but vnto the witnesses chosen before of God, [euen] to vs which did eate and drinke with him, after he arose from the dead.

42 And he commanded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifie, that it is hee that is ordeyned of God a iudge of quicke and dead.

43 To him also giue al the [q] Prophets witnes, that through his Name all that beleeue in him, shall receiue remission of sinnes.

q Iere.31.34. michi.7.18. chap.15.9.

44 While Peter yet spake these wordes, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the worde.

45 So they of the circumcision which beleeued, were astonied, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was powred out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, ᵑ that these should not be baptized, which haue receiued the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 So he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the Lord ᵗ. Then prayed they him to tarie certaine dayes.

n We ought not to debarre them of baptisme whom God testifieth to be his: for seeing they haue the principall, that is Iesse, ought not to be denyed them.

t Iesus Christ.

CHAP. XI.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore he went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church approueth it. 21 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 28 Agabus prophesieth dearth to come. 29 And the remedie.

NOwe the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard, that the Gentiles had also receiued ᵘ word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcisiō ˣ contended against him,

3 Saying, thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded [the thing] in order to ᵇ them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa, praying, and in a traunce I sawe [this] vision, A certaine vessell comming downe as [it had bene] a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to mee.

6 Towarde the which When I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, & sawe foure footed beasts of the earth, & wilde beasts, and ᶜ creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I saide, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauē, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, & all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then beholde, immediately there were three men alreadie come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I should go with thē, without doubting: moreouer these fiue brethren came with me, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And hee shewed vs, how hee had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and sayde to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose syrname is Peter.

14 He shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shalbe saued.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, ʸ euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

Chap. 2, 4. & 4.31.

16 Then I remembred the worde of the Lord, how he said, ᶻ John baptized with water, but ye shalbe baptized with the holy Ghost.

Chap. 1.5, & 19.4. mat. 3.11 mar. 1.8. luk. 3. 16. ioh. 1.26.

17 For as much then as God gaue them a like gift, as [he did] vnto vs, whē we beleeued in the Lorde Iesus Christ, Who was I, that I could let God ᵗ?

c That is, indued with the graces of the holy Ghost.

t Not to giue them the holy Ghost?

18 When they heard these things, ᵃ they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted ᵇ repentance vnto life.

d Their modestie declareth, that they were not ashamed to vnlay that wherof they had vnuistly blamed Peter.

19 ¶ And they which were ‖ scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout til they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

e This repentance dependeth vpō faith. Chap. 8.1.

‖ Or, trouble.

20 Nowe some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which whē they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the ᶜ Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

f De meaneth not the Iewes which being scattered abroad in diuers countreis were called by this name, but the Grecians which were Gentiles.

21 And the ᵈ hand of ᵖ Lord was with them, so that a great nomber beleeued & turned vnto the Lord.

g The power and vertue.

22 Then tydings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go vnto ʰ Antiochia.

h This was the most famous citie of Syria, and bordered vpon Cilicia.

23 who When he was come and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would ‖ cleaue vnto the Lord.

‖ Or, continue with the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, & much people ioyned themselues vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when hee had found him, he brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe that a whole yeere they were conuersant with the Church, and taught much people, in so much, that the disciples were first called ⁱ Christians in Antiochia.

i Whereas before they were called disciples, now they are named Christians.

27 In those daies also came Prophets from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stoode vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the k Spirit,

a For they could not yet comprehend this secrete, which was hid from the Angels themselues, euen from the creation of the world, Ephes. 3.8,9. col. 1.26

b He purgeth his fact before the Church.

k This prophesie was an occasion to the Antiochians to relieue the necessitie of their brethren in Ierusalem. l To signifie that it came of a charitable mind towards them.

k Spirit, that there should bee great famine throughout al the World, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, euery man according to his abilitie, l purposed to send succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Judea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAP. XII.

1 Herode persecuteth the Christians. 2 Hee killeth James, 4 And putteth Peter in prison. 7 Whom the Lord deliuereth by an Angel. 23 The horrible death of Herode. 24 The Gospell flourisheth. 25 Barnabas and Saul returning to Antiochia, take Johns Marke with them.

NOwe about that time, a Herode the King stretched forth [his] handes to vexe certaine of the Church.

a Who was called Agrippa the sonne of Aristobulus: he was nephew vnto Herod the great, and brother of Herodias.

2 And he killed James the b brother of Iohn with the sworde.

b There was another so named which was the sonne of Alpheus.

3 And when hee sawe that it c pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further, to take Peter also (then were the daies of vnleauened bread.)

c It came then of no zeale nor religion, but onely to flatter the people.

4 And when he had caught him, hee put him in prison, and deliuered him to d foure quaternions of souldiours to bee kept, intending after the Passeouer to bring him forth to the people.

d The number being sixteene was diuided by foures, to keepe diuers wards.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herode would haue brought him out vnto the people, ẏ same night slept Peter betweene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, & the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.

Chap.5.19. 7 *And beholde, the Angell of the Lorde came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and rayled him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fel off from [his] hands.

8 And the Angell sayde vnto him, Girde thy selfe, and binde on thy e sandales. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.

e Read Marke 6.9.

9 So [Peter] came out and followed him, & knew not that it was true, which was done by the Angell, but thought he had seene a vision.

10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the iron gate, that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accorde, & they went out, & passed through one streete, and by and by the Angell departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to himselfe, he said, Nowe I knowe for a trueth, that the Lord hath sent his Angell, and hath deliuered mee out of the hand of Herode, and from all the f waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

f For they thought that Herode would haue put him to death, as he had purposed.

12 And as he considered [the thing,] he came to the house of Marie, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But whē she knew Peters voice, she opened not ẏ entrie [doore] for gladnesse, but ran in, and tolde howe Peter stoode before the entrie.

15 But they said vnto her, Thou art madde. Yet shee affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then said they, It is his g Angel.

g For they did know by gods word, that Angels were appointed to defend the faithfull, and also in those dayes they were accustomed to see such sights.

16 But Peter continued knocking, & when they had opened it, and sawe him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand, to holde their peace, and tolde them howe the Lorde had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shewe these things vnto James & to the brethren: and hee departed and went into h another place.

h Which was lesse suspect, by reason of the brethren.

18 ¶ Nowe assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herode had sought for him, and founde him not, hee examined the keepers, and commanded them to be led to bee punished. And hee went downe from Judea to Cesarea, and [there] abode.

20 Then Herode intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidon, but they came all with one accorde vnto him, and i perswaded Blastus the Kings Chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the Kings [land.]

i Both by flattering wordes, and also by bribery.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode araied him selfe in royall apparell, and sate on the iudgement seat, & made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, [saying,] The voyce of God, & not of man.

23 But immediatly the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he k gaue not glorie vnto God, so that he was eaten l of wormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

k Which he should haue done if he had punished the flatterers, of whose vanitie he complained when he was a dying, as Iosephus writeth.

l The vilenesse of the punishment declareth how God detesteth pride, and tyrannie: his grandfather also was eaten of lice.

m The more that tyrants go about to suppresse Gods word the more doth it increase.

24 And the word of God [m] grew, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas & Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their [n] office, and tooke with them John, whose surname was Marke.

n Which was to distribute the almes sent frō Antiochia, Chap. 11. 29.

CHAP. XIII.

2 Paul and Barnabas are called to preach amōg the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 13 The departure of Marke. 14 Paul preacheth at Antiochia. 42 The faith of the Gentiles. 46 The Iewes reiected. 48 They that are ordeined to life, beleeue. 52 The fruit of fayth.

There were also in ỹ Church that was at Antiochia, certaine Prophets & teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, & [a] Manahen (which had beene brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

a This declareth that God calleth of all sorts both hie and low.

2 Now as they [b] ministred to ỹ Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost saide, Separate mee Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

b The worde signifieth to execute a publike charge, as the Apostleship was: so that here is shewed that they preached, and prophesied. Chap. 14. 26.

3 Then fasted they and prayed, & laid their hands on them, and let them go.

4 And they, after they were * sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to [their] minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine sorcerer, a false prophet, being a Iew, named Barielus,

7 Which was with the Deputie Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

8 But Elymas, the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstoode them, and sought to turne away the Deputie from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also [is called] Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eies on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtiltie & all mischiefe, the childe of the deuill, [and] enemie of all righteousnes, wilt thou not cease to peruert the straite wayes of the Lord?

c Which are the doctrine of the Apostles, that onely leadeth vs to God.

11 Now therefore beholde, the hand of the Lord [is] vpō thee, and thou shalt be blind, & not see the sunne for a season. And immediately there fel on him a mist and a darkenes, and he went about, seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he sawe what was done, beleeued, & was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga [a citie] of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to [d] Antiochia [a citie] of Pisidia, & went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

d This was another Antiochia then that which was in Syria.

15 And after the lecture of the Lawe and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men & brethren, if ye haue any word of [e] exhortation for the people, say on.

e This declareth that the Scripture is giuen to teach and exhort vs, and that they refused none that had giftes to set forth Gods glorie & to edifie his people. Exod. 1. 9. Exod. 13. 14. Exod. 16. 1.

16 Then Paul stoode vp and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, & exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of * Egypt, and with an [f] high arme brought them out thereof.

f Here is declared the great patience and long suffering of God before he punisheth. Iosh. 14. 1.

18 And about the time * of fourtie yeeres, suffred he their [g] maners in the wildernes.

Iudge. 3. 9.

g For these 450. yeeres were not fully accomplished, but there lacked 3. yeeres counting from the birth of Isaac to the distribution of the lande of Chanaan.

19 And he destroyed seuen nations in the land of Chanaan, and * deuided their land to them by lot.

1. Sam. 8. 5. 1. Sam. 9. 15, 16. & 10. 1. 1. Sam. 16. 13. psal. 89. 20, 21.

20 Then afterwarde hee gaue vnto them * Iudges about foure hundreth and fiftie yeeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a * king, and God gaue vnto them * Saul, the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Beniamin, [by the space] of fourtie yeeres.

22 And after he had take him away, he rayled vp * Dauid to bee their King, of whome he witnessed, saying, I haue found Dauid [the sonne] of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will do all things that I will.

Isa. 11, 1.

23 Of this mans seede hath God * according to [his] promes rayled vp to Israel, the Sauiour Iesus:

Mat. 3. 1. mar. 1. 2. luk. 3. 2, 23.

24 When * Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And whē Iohn had fulfilled [his] [h] course, he said, * Who ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but beholde, there cōmeth one after me, whose shoe of [his] feete I am not worthie to loose.

h When his office drew to an end, he sent his disciples to Christ. Mar. 1. 7. iohn. 1. 20.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of ỹ generation of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the is the i word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitantes of Ierusalē, & their rulers, because they k knew him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophets, which are l read euery Sabbath [day,] they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they founde no cause of death [in him,] l *yet] desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had m fulfilled all thinges that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God * raised him vp from the dead.

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his Witnesses vnto the people.

32 And wee declare vnto you, þ touching the promes made vnto þ fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he n rayled vp Iesus, euen as it is writtē in the second Psalme, *Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Nowe as concerning that he rayled him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath said thus, *I will giue you the o holy things of Dauid, which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another place, *Thou wilt not suffer thine Holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after hee had serued his time by the counsell of God, hee *slept, and was layde with his fathers, and sawe corruption.

37 But he whom God raised vp, sawe no corruption.

38 Be it knowne vnto you therefore, men [and] brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiuenesse of sinnes.

39 And from all thinges, from which ye coulde not be iustified by the Lawe of Moses, by him euery one that beleueth, is iustified.

40 Beware therfore, least þ come vpō you, which is spoken of in the Prophets, 41 *Behold, ye p despisers, & wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a q worke in your daies, a worke which ye shal not beleeue, if a man would declare it you.

42 ¶ And whē they were come out of the Synagogue of þ Iewes, þ Gentiles besought, that they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath [day.]

43 Nowe when the Congregation was dissolued, many of the Iewes, and Proselytes that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath [day] came almost the whole citie together, to heare the worde of God.

45 But when the Iewes sawe the people, they were full of r enuie, and spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying [them,] and raying on [them.]

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldely, and sayde, *It was necessarie that the worde of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing ye put it from you, and iudge your selues vnworthie of s euerlasting life, loe, wee turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord cōmanded vs, [saying,] *I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be the saluation vnto the end of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lorde: and as many as were t ordeined vnto eternall life, beleeued.

49 Thus the word of the Lord was published throughout þ whole countrey.

50 But the Iewes stirred [certaine] u deuoute and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the citie, and rayled persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coastes.

51 But they * shooke off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioye, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 God giueth successe to his worde. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would doe sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refuse it, and exhorte the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 22 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience. 23 Appoint ministers. 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

AND it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of þ Iewes and of the Grecians beleeued.

2 But the a vnbeleeuing Iewes stirred vp and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, & spake boldly in the Lorde, which gaue testimonie vnto the worde of his i That is, this message and tydings of saluation.

k He rebuketh them for their ignorance.

l Although they reade the Law, yet their hearts are couered that they can not vnderstand, 2. Cor. 3.14.

Matth. 27.22. mark. 15.13. luke 23.23. iohn 19.6.

m In Christ all the promises are Yea, and Amen, 2. Cor. 1.20. Matth. 28.2,6. mark. 16.6. luke 24.6. iohn 20.13.

n In that he was borne and incarnate. Psal. 2.7. hebr. 1.5. & 5.5.

Isai 55.3.

o Meaning, that he would faithfully accomplish þ promise, which he made of his free mercie vnto þ forefathers: and by the worth that as þ grace, which God hath giuen to his Sonne, is permanent for euer, so likewise the life of the Sonne is eternall. Psalm. 16.10. chap. 2.31. 1. King. 2.10. chap. 2.29.

Habak. 1.5.

p He reproueth them sharpely because sobernes would not preuaile.

q Which is, vengeance vnspeakeable, for the contempt of Gods worde.

r They disdained that the Gentiles should be made equall with them.

Mat. 10.6.

s Which is to know one onely God, and whome he hath sent, Iesus Christ. Isa. 49.6. luke 2.32.

t None can beleeue, but they whome God doeth appoint before all beginnings to be saued.

u He meaneth superstitious women, & such as were led with a blinde zeale, albeit the common people esteemed them godly: & therefore Luke speaketh as the worlde esteemed them. Mat. 10.14. mar. 6.11. luke 9.5. chap. 18.6.

a Which would not obey the doctrine, neither suffer themselues to be perswaded to beleeue the truth and to imbrace Christ said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, & visite our brethren in euery citie, where we haue preached ỽ ỽord of the Lorde, [and see] how they do.

37 And Barnabas [t] counselled to take with them John, called Marke.

38 But Paul thought it not meete to take him vnto their company, which departed from them from Pamphylia, & went not with them to the worke.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they [p] departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, & sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

t Would take Iohn &c.

p God suffereth the most perfite to fall, and yet turneth their infirmities to the setting forth of his glorie, as this breache of cõpany caused ỽ ỽorde to be preached in mo places.

CHAP. XVI.

1 When Paul had circumciled Timothie, hee tooke him with him. 7 The Spirit calleth them from one countrey to another. 14 Lydia is conuerted. 28 Paul & Silas imprisoned, conuert the Iayler. 37 And are deliuered as Romanes.

Then came he to Derbe and to Lystra: and beholde, a certaine disciple was there named * Timotheus, a womans sonne, which was a Iewesse & beleeued, but his father was a Grecian.

Rom.16.21. phil.2.19. 1.thes.3.2.

2 Of whom the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that hee should goe forth with him, and tooke & [a] circumcised him, because of the Iewes, which were in those quarters: for they knew all, that his father was a Grecia.

a Least the Iewes should disdaine him as one that were vnpayd, and with out God.

4 And as they went through the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe, ordeined of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, & encreased in number daily.

6 [b] Now whē they had gone through out Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were [c] forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the ỽord in [d] Asia.

b God chuseth not onely men, but also appointeth countries where his ỽorde shalbe preached, and only as he wil.

c Meaning, Asia the lesse.

d Of Iesus.

7 Thē came they to Mysia, & sought to goe into Bithynia: but the Spirit [e] suffered them not.

e Called also Antigonia, and Alexandria.

8 Therefore they passed through Mysia, and came downe to [f] Troas, f The ought not to credite bissons, except we be assured thereof by the Spirit of God.

9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stoode a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia and helpe vs.

10 And after he had seene the vision, immediatly wee prepared to goe into Macedonia, beeing [g] assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a straight course came to Samothracia, & the next day to [h] Neapolis f Which is in the boyders of Thracia and Macedonia.

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe citie in the partes of Macedonia, and [i] whose inhabitantes came from Rome to dwell there, and we were in that citie abiding certaine dayes.

g In Greeke and Latine the ỽord is called Colonia, which can not otherwise be wel expressed, but by such circumlocution.

h Where the Christians accustomed to assemble their Church, when the infidels persecuted them.

13 And on the Sabbath day, we went out of the citie, besides a riuer, where they were wont to [k] pray: and wee sate downe, & spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the citie of ỽ Thyatirians, which ỽorshipped God, heard [vs:] whose heart the Lord opened, that shee attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

15 And when she was baptized, and her houshold, shee besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house, and abide [there:] and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe that as wee went to prayer, a certaine maide hauing * a spirit [l] of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

Leuit.20.27. deu.18.10,11. 1.sam.28.7.

17 She followed Paul and vs, and cried, saying, These men are ỽ seruants of the most high God, which shew vnto vs the [k] way of saluation.

18 And this did she many dayes: but Paul being grieued, [l] turned about, and said to the spirit, I command thee in the Name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And hee came out the same houre.

19 Nowe when her masters sawe that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market place vnto ỽ Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the Gouernours, saying, These men which are Iewes, trouble our citie,

21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also arose vp together against them, and the Gouernours rent [m] their clothes, and commanded [them] to be beaten with roddes.

23 And whē they had beaten thē sore, they cast [them] into prison, cõmanding the i Which is in the boyders of Thracia and Macedonia.

k In Greeke and Latine the ỽord is called Colonia, which can not otherwise be wel expressed, but by such circumlocution.

l Where the Christians accustomed to assemble their Church, when the infidels persecuted them.

k Satan, although hee spake ỽ truely, yet was his malicious purpose to cause the Apostles to be troubled as seditious persons, and teachers of straūge religiō.

l For Satans subtilitie increased, and also it might seeme that Satan & the Spirit of God taught both one doctrine, Reade Mar.1.34.

m To wit, the clothes of Paul and Silas. 2.Cor.11.25. 1.thes.2.2.

the tayler to keepe them surely.

24 Who hauing receiued such commandement, cast them into the ‖ inner prison, and made their feete fast in the stockes.

‖Or, in the bottom of the prison, or in a dungeon.

25 Now at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, [and] sung a Psalme vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And lodemely there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by al the doores opened, and euery mans bandes were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when he sawe the prison doores open, hee drewe out his sworde, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prysoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a loud voice, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for wee are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trebling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and saide, Syrs, what must I do to be saued?

31 And they said, Beleeue in ꝑ Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saued, & thine houshold.

32 And they preached vnto him the word of the Lorde, and to all that were in his house.

33 After ward he tooke them the same houre of the night, and washed [their] stripes, and was baptized with all that belonged vnto him, straight way.

‖Or, woundes, or hurts,

34 And when hee had brought them into his house, he ‡ set meate before thē, and reioyced that hee with all his houshold beleeued in God.

‡Greeke, he set the table.

35 And when it was day, † the gouernours sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men goe.

† The gouernours assembled together in the market, and remembring the earth quake that was, they feared and sent, &c.

36 Then the keeper of the prison tolde these wordes vnto Paul, [saying,] The gouernours haue sent to loose you: nowe therefore get you hence, & go in peace.

37 Then saide Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncondemned, which are a Romanes, they haue cast vs into prison, and now would they put vs out priuily? nay verely: but let them come and bring vs out.

a In no man had authoritie to beat, or put to death a citizen Romane, but the Romanes themselues by the consent of the people.

38 And ꝑ sergeants told these words vnto ꝑ Gouernours, who b feared when they heard that they were Romanes.

b For the punishment was great against them that did iniurie to a citizen Romane.

39 Then came they & prayed them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the [house of] Lydia: and when they had seene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica, 4 Where some receiue him, & others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the fruite of his doctrine.

NOw as they passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, & three Sabbath [dayes] disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening, and alledging that Christ must haue suffred, and risen again from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, who, [said he,] I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecias that feared God a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, moued with enuie, tooke vnto them certaine bagabondes [and] wicked fellowes, and whē they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, and made assault against the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

a Like quarelpicking they vsed against Christ: so these be the weapōs where with the world continually fighteth against the members of Christ, treason and sedition.

6 But when they founde them not, they drewe Jason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of ꝑ citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are,

7 whome Jason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying that there is another a King, one Jesus.

‖Or, sufficient answere.

8 Then they troubled the people, & the heads of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued ‖ sufficient assurance of Jason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of ꝑ Iewes.

11 These were also b more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the worde with all readines, and c searched the Scriptures daily, c whether those things were so.

b For excellent of birth, but more vpright, & courageous in receiuing ꝑ word of God: so he compareth the men of Berea with them of Thessalonica who persecuted the Apostles in Berea. Iohn. 5. 39.

c This was not only to try if these things which they had heard, were true, but also to confirme themselues in the same, and to increase their faith.

12 There-

12 Therefore many of them beleeued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knewe, that the worde of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to go as [it were] to ꝑ sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that ‖ did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas & Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

‖ Or, had the charge to conduct him safely

16 ¶ Nowe while Paul wayted for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when hee sawe the citie [d] subiect to idolatrie.

d That citie which was the fountaine of al knowledge, was nowe the sinke of most horrible idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with thē that were religious, and in the market daily [e] with whomsoeuer he met.

e Such was his feruent zeale towards Gods glorie, that he laboured to amplifie the same both in season, & out of season, as he taught afterward to Timothe.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of ꝑ [f] Epicures, and of the [g] Stoikes, disputed with him, and some said, What will this ‖ babbler say? Others said, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because he preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

f Who helde that pleasure was mans whole felicitie.

g Who taught that vertue was only mās felicitie, which notwithstanding they neuer attained vnto.

19 And they tooke him, and brought him vnto [h] Mars streete, saying, May we not knowe, what this newe doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

‖ Or, rascal, or, trifler.

h Where iudgement was giue of weightie matters, but chiefly of impietie against their gods, wherof Paul was accused: & els was led thither because of the errour of people whose cares euer tickled to heare newes.

20 For thou bringest certaine strange things vnto our eares: We would know therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians, and strangers which dwelt there, ‖ gaue themselues to nothing els, but either to tell, or to heare some newes.

‖ Or, had leisure.

22 Then Paul stoode in the middes of [i] Mars streete, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things yee are to superstitious.

i Which was also called Areopagus.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your deuotions, I found an altar wherin was written, [k] VNTO THE VNKNOWEN GOD. Whome yee then ignorantly worshippe, him shewe I vnto you.

k Hereby Paul taketh an occasion to bring them to the true God. Chap. 7. 48. Psal. 50. 8.

24 God that made the world, and al things that are therein, seeing that he is Lord of heauen & earth, *dwelleth not in temples made with hands,

25 * Neither is worshipped with mens handes, as though he needed any thing, seeing hee giueth to all life and breath and all things,

26 And hath made of one blood all mankinde, to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath [l] assigned ꝑ times which were ordeined before, and the boundes of their [m] habitation, l Before man was created, God had appointed his state and condition.

m This is ment as touching the sundrie changes of the worlde, as whē some people depart out of a country, & others come to dwel therin.

27 That they should seeke the Lord, if so be they might haue groped after him, and found [n] him, ‖ though doutles he be not farre from euery one of vs.

n Yet grope in darkenes till Christ the true light shine in their hearts.

28 For in him We liue, and moue, and haue our being, as also certaine of your owne [o] Poets haue said, For We are also his generation.

o As Aratus and others.

29 * Forasmuch thē, as We are the generatiō of God, We ought not to thinke that the Godhead is like vnto [p] golde, or siluer, or stone grauen by arte and the inuention of man.

Iſa. 40. 19.

p He condemneth ỹ matter and the forme wherwith God is counterfeited.

30 And the time of this ignorance God [q] regarded not: but nowe he admoniseth [r] all men euery where to repent, q But pardoned it, and did not punish it as it deserued.

r This is ment of the vniuersall worlde, and not of euerie particular mā: for whosoeuer sinneth without the lawe, shall die without the Law.

31 Because hee hath appointed a day in the which he Will iudge the worlde in righteousnes, by that man Whome hee hath appointed, ‖ whereof he hath giuē an assurance to all men, in that hee hath raised him from the dead.

‖ Or, a iudge of Mars street.

32 Nowe When they hearde of the resurrection from the dead, some mocked, and other said, Wee will heare thee againe of this thing.

33 And so Paul departed from amōg them.

34 Howbeit certaine men claue vnto Paul, and beleeued: among whom was also Denis ‖ Areopagita, and a woman named Damaris, and other With them.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Paul laboureth with his handes, and preacheth at Cozinthus. 6 He is detested of the Iewes, 8 Yet receiued of many, 9 And comforted of the Lord. 14 Gallio refuseth to meddle with religion. 18 Pauls vowe. 21 His fayth in the ꝓuidence of God, 22 And care for ỹ brethren. 24 The praise of Apollos.

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athenes, and came to Cozinthus,

Rom. 16. 3.

2 And found a certaine Iew, named *Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italie, and his wife Priscilla (because that [a] Claudius had commāded all Iewes to departe from Rome) & he came vnto them.

a This was Claudius Cesar who then was Emperour.

3 And because hee was of the same craft, he abode With them & [b] wrought (for their craft was to make tents.)

b Thus he vsed where euer hee came: but principally at Cozinthus, because of ỹ false Apostles which preached without wages to win ỹ peoples fauour.

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath [day], and exhorted the Iewes, and the Grecians.

5 Now

c Or, paullins which the were made of skins.

5 Nowe When Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul d And boyled with a certaine zeale. d burned in spirite, testifying to ỹ Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blaspheмed, hee * shooke his rayment, and saide vnto them, e Your blood [be] vpon your owne head: I am cleane: from hence footh Will I goe vnto the Gentiles.
Chap.13.51. matth.10.14.
e Because they haue none excuse, he denounceth the vengeance of God against them though their owne fault.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

1.Cor.1.14. 8 And * Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleeued in the Lord With all his houshold: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleeued and were baptized.

9 Then saide the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and holde not thy peace.

f God promiseth him a speciall protection, whereby he would defende him from the violent rage of his enemies. 10 For f I am With thee, and no man shall lay [hands] on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yeere and sixe moneths, g taught the Word of God among them.

‖Or, Grecia. 12 ¶ Nowe When Gallio was Deputie of ‖ Achaia, the Iewes arose With one accorde against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seate, g They accused him because he transgressed the seruice of God appointed by the law. 13 Saying, This felowe perswadeth men to worshippe God contrarie to the g Lawe.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deede, O ye Iewes, I would according to reason mainteine you.

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your Lawe, looke ye to it your selues: for I Will bee no iudge of those things.

h Of whom is spoken, 1.Cor. 1.1. 16 And hee draue them frō the iudgement seate.

17 Then tooke all ỹ Grecians h Sosthenes ỹ chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, and beate him before the iudgement seate: but Gallio cared nothing for those thinges.

i Paul did thus beare with the Iewes infirmities which as yet were not sufficiently instructed. Nom.6,18. chap.21.24. 18 But When Paul had taried there yet a good While, hee tooke leaue of the brethren, and sayled into Syria (g With him Priscilla and Aquila) after that hee had i shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a * vowe.

19 Then hee came to Ephesus, and left them there: but hee entred into the Synagogue and disputed With the Iewes.

20 Who desired him to tarie a longer time With them: but he Woulde not consent, 21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needes keepe this feast that commeth, in Ierusalem: but I Will returne againe vnto you, * if God Will. So hee sayled from Ephesus.

1.Cor.4.19. iam.4.15.

22 ¶ And When hee came downe to k Called Cesarea Stratonis. k Cesarea, hee went vp [to Ierusalem:] and When he had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto Antiochia.

23 Nowe When he had taryed [there] a While, he departed, and went through the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certaine Iewe named * Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man, and ‖ mightie in the Scriptures.
1.Cor.1.12. ‖Or, well instructed.

25 The same was l instructed in the way of the Lorde, and he spake feruently in the spirit, and taught diligently the things of the Lorde, and knewe but the m baptisme of Iohn onely.
l That is, was somewhat entred. m He had but as yet the first principles of Christs religion: and by baptisme is here ment the doctrine.

26 And hee beganne to speake boldely in the Synagogue. Whome When Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they tooke him vnto them, and n expounded vnto him the o Waye of God more perfectly.
n This great learned, & eloquent man disdained not to be taught of a poore craftes man. o The way to saluation.

27 And when he was minded to goe into Achaia, the brethren exhorting him, Wrote to the disciples to receiue him: and after hee Was come thither, hee holpe thē much Which had beleeued through grace.

28 For mightily he confuted publikely the Iewes With great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus Was the Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

6 The holy Ghost is giuen by Pauls handes. 9 The Iewes blaspheme his doctrine, which was confirmed by miracles. 13 The rashnesse, and punishment of the conuerers, and the fruite that came thereof. 24 Demetrius raiseth sedition vnder pretence of Diana. 41 Yet God deliuereth his, and appeaseth it by the towne clarke.

AND it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul When hee passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and founde certaine disciples,

2 And saide vnto them, Haue ye receiued the a holy Ghost since yee beleeued? And they said vnto him, We haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.
a That is, the particular gifts of the spirit: for as yet they knew not the visible gifts

3 And he said vnto thē, [b] Vnto What were ye then baptized? And they sayde, Vnto Johns baptisme.

4 Then sayde Paul, *Johns verely baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they shoulde beleeue in him, which shoulde come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were [c] baptized in the Name of the Lorde Iesus.

6 And Paul layde his handes vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on thē, and they spake the tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the mē were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer, he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing and exhorting to the thinges that [appertayne] to the kingdome of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way [of God] before the multitude, he departed from them, & separated the disciples, and disputed dayly in the schole of one [d] Tyrannus[1].

10 And this was done by the space of two yeeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus, both Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that frō his body were brought vnto the sicke, ‖ kerchiefes [e] or handkerchiefes, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirites went out of them.

13 Then certayne of the bagabonde Iewes, ‖ exorcistes, tooke in hande to name ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lorde Iesus, saying, We [f] adiure you by Iesus, whom Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Iewe, the Priest, [about] seuen which did this)

15 And the euill spirite answered, and sayde, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the euil spirit was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against thē, so that they fled out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeued, came and confessed, and [g] shewed their workes.

19 Many also of them, which vsed curious arts, brought their bookes, & burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and founde it [h] fiftie thousand [pieces] of siluer.

20 So the word of God grew mightily, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed [i] by the spirite to passe through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I haue beene there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent he into Macedonia two of thē that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, [but] he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that [k] way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius a siluer smith, which made siluer ‖ temples of Diana, [l] brought great gaines vnto the craftes men:

25 Whome hee called together, with the workemen of like things, and sayde, Syrs, yee knowe that by this craft [m] We haue our goods.

26 Moreouer ye see & heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost through out all Asia this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying, That they be not gods which are made with hands:

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, [n] that our state should be reproued, but also that the [o] temple of the great goddesse Diana should be nothing esteemed, and that it woulde come to passe that her magnificence, which all Asia & the [p] world worshippeth, shoulde be destroyed.

28 Nowe when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great [is] Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole citie was ful of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, and caught *Gaius, and [q] Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, and Pauls companions of his iourney.

30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia which were his friendes, sent vnto him, desiring him that he would not present him

b Meaning, what doctrine they did professe by their baptisme: for to be baptized in Johns baptisme, signifieth to professe the doctrine which he taught, & sealed with the signe of baptisme: to be baptised in the Name of the Father, &c. is to be dedicate and consecrate vnto him: to be baptized in the death of Christ, or for the dead, or into one bodie, vnto remission of sinnes, is, that sinne by Christs death may be abolished, and die in vs, and that we may growe in Christ our head, and that our sinnes may be washed away by the blood of Christ. Matth. 3.11. mark. 1.8. luk. 3.16. iohn 1. 27. chap. 1.5. & 2.2. and 11.16.

c Indued with the visible graces of the holy Ghost.

d That is, of a certaine man so called.

1 From fiue a clocke vnto tenne.

‖ Or, napkins.

e This was to authorize the Gospell, & to confirme Pauls ministerie, not to cause men to worship him, or his napkins.

‖ Or, coniurers.

f They abuse Pauls authority, & without any vocation of God, vsurpe that which is not in mans power.

g That is, declared by confession of their sinnes and by their good workes that they were faithfull.

h This mounteth to of our money about 2000. markes.

i By the motion of the holy Ghost, he vndertooke this iourney.

k That is, about the state of the Christians: for they contemned the Christians because they left the olde religion, & brought in another trade of doctrine.

‖ Or, shrines.

l What impiete doth not couetousnesse bring a man vnto?

m He was moued with his profit: and the others for their bellies, so that they would rather lose both their liues and religion then their filthie game.

n Meaning their arte and occupation.

o Religion is his second argument which he lesse esteemeth then his profit, & therefore putteth it last, which thing is contrary to the doings of faithfull: for they preferre religion aboue all.

p He groundeth his religion vpon the multitude and authority of the world, as do the Papists. Rom. 16.23. 1. cor. 1.14. Colos. 4.10.

him selfe in the common place.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, & some another: for the assemblie was out of order, and the more part knewe not wherefore they were come together.

q And let him in an hie place where the people could not come nere him but whence they might well heare his voyce.

33 And [some] of the companie q drew forth Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwards. Alexander the beckened with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Iewe, there arose a shout almost for ỹ space of two houres, of all men, crying, Great [is] Diana of the Ephesians.

35 Then the towne clarke, when hee had stayed the people, said, Ye men of Ephesus, what mã is it that knoweth not howe that the citie of the Ephesians is a worshipper of ỹ great goddesse Diana, and of [the image,] which came downe from r Iupiter?

r Antiquitie & the couetousnesse of the priests brought in this superstition: for it is written that the Temple being repaired seuen times, this idole was neuer changed Plin. lib. 16. 40. by such delusions ỹ world is most easily abused.

36 Seeing then ỹ no man can s speake against these thinges, ye ought to be appeased, and to do nothing rashly.

s He pacifieth the people by worldly wisedome, & hath no respect to religion.

37 For yee haue brought hither these men, which haue neither committed sacriledge, neyther doe blaspheme your goddesse.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius and the craftes men which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the Lawe is open, and there are deputies: let them accuse one another.

39 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it may bee determined in a lawfull assemblie.

40 For We are euen in ieopardie to be accused of this daies sedition, forasmuch as there is no cause, whereby wee may giue a reason of this concourse of people.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he let the assembly depart.

CHAP. XX.

Paul goeth into Macedonia, and into Grecia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords supper and preacheth. 9 At Troas hee rayseth vp Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus hee calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

NOwe after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when hee had gone through those partes, and had exhorted the with many wordes, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried [there] three moneths, because the Iewes layed wayte for him, as hee was about to sayle into Syria, hee purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothe-us, and of them of Asia Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And We sailed forth frõ a Philippi, after the daies of vnleauened bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fiue daies, where We abode seuen dayes.

a He remembred there these dayes, because he had better opportunitie to teache: also the abolishing of the Lawe was not yet knowen.

7 And b the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to c breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, readie to depart on the morowe, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.

b Which we call Sunday. Of this place & allo of ỹ 1. Cor. 16. 2. we gather that the Christians vsed to haue their solemne assemblies this day, laying aside the ceremonie of the Iewish Sabbath.

8 And there were many lights in an vpper chamber, where ‖ they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a Windowe a certaine yong ‖ man, named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was lõg preaching, he ouercome with sleepe, fell downe from the thirde loft, and was taken vp dead.

c To celebrate the Lords supper, Chap. 2. 46.

‖ Or, we.

10 But Paul went downe, and layed him selfe vpon him, and imbraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

‖ Or, boye.

11 So when [Paul] was come vp again, and had broken bread, and eaten, he communed a long while till the dawning of the day, [and] so he departed.

12 And they brought the boye aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ Then We went forth to ship, and sayled vnto [the citie] d Assos, that wee might receyue Paul there: for so had he appoynted, and would him selfe goe a foote.

d Which was a citie of Asia, called otherwise Apollonia, Plin. lib. 5. chap. 30.

14 Nowe when hee was come vnto vs to Assos, and wee had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And We sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, & the next day wee arriued at Samos, and taryed at Trogyllium: the next day wee came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to sayle by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted to be, if he could possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of ‖ Penterost.

‖ Or, Whitsontide.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum hee sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he laid vnto them, Ye knowe from the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

19 [c] Seruing the Lord with all [f] modestie, and with many teares, and tentations, which came vnto mee by the layings awaite of the Iewes,

20 And how I kept [g] backe nothing that was profitable, but haue shewed you, and taught you openly, [h] throughout euery house,

21 Witnessing both to the Iewes, and to the Grecians the [i] repentance toward God, and [k] faith towarde our Lorde Iesus Christ.

22 And nowe behold, I go [k] bounde in the spirit vnto Ierusalem, and know not what thinges shall come vnto mee there, 23 Saue that the holy Ghost [l] witnesseth in euery citie, saying, that bands and afflictions abide me [l].

24 But I passe not at all, neyther is my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I may fulfill my course with ioye, and the ministration which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And nowe beholde, I know that henceforth ye al, through whom I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to recorde this day, that I am pure frō the [m] blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you [n] all the counsell of God.

28 Take heede therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holy Ghost hath made you Ouerseers, to feede [p] the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his [o] owne blood.

29 For I knowe this, that after my departing shall grieuous wolues enter in among you, not sparing the flocke.

30 Moreouer, of your owne selues shal men arise speaking [p] peruerse things, to draw the disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch and remember, that by [the space] of three yeeres I ceased not to warne euery one, both night and day with teares.

32 And nowe brethren, I commende you to God, [r] to the worde of his grace, which [q] is able to builde further, and to giue you an [r] inheritance, among al them which are sanctified.

33 I haue coueted no mans siluer, nor golde, nor apparell.

34 Yea, ye knowe, that these handes haue ministred vnto my [s] necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I haue shewed you all thinges, howe that so labouring, ye ought to support the weake, and to remember the wordes of the Lord Iesus, howe that he saide, [t] It is a blessed thing to giue, rather then to receiue.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled downe, and prayed with the all.

37 Then they wept all abundantly, [x] fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him, 38 Being chiefly sorie for the wordes which hee spake, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the shippe.

c In my vocation and ministerie.
f This vertue is contrary to boasting and hie mindednes which vices are vnreliable in ye seruants of Iesus Christ.
g I neyther held my tongue for feare, nor dissembled for gaine.
h Which is the turning to God by newenesse of life.
i Which is the receiuing of the grace, which Christ doeth offer vs.
k That is, by the impulsion and commandement of the holy Ghost, who draweth me as with a hand.
l By the Prophets.
m In Ierusalem.
m I am not the occasion of any of your destructions.
n Which concerneth your saluation.
o That which appertayneth to the humanitie of Christ, is here attributed to his diuinitie, because of the communio of the properties, and vnion of the two natures in one person.
p Though their ambition, which is mother of al heresie and wickednesse.
q To increase you with further graces, & to finish his worke in you.
r Be promiseth to the faithfull continuall increase of grace, till they enter into the possession of that inheritance, which is prepared for them.

1. Cor. 4. 12. 1. thes. 2. 9. 2. thes. 3. 8.

t Although this be not orderly so written in any one place, yet it is gathered of diuers places of the Scripture in effect.

CHAP. XXI.

5 The common prayers of the faithfull. 8 Philippes foure daughters prophetesses. 13 Pauls constancie to beare the crosse, as Agabus & others foresake, although he was otherwise counselled by his brethren. 28 The great danger that he was in, and howe he escaped.

AND as we launched forth, [x] were departed frō them, we came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, [x] from thence vnto Patara.

2 And we founde a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboorde, and set forth.

3 And when wee had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sayled towarde Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the shippe vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, wee tarryed there seuen dayes. And they tolde Paul [a] through the [b] Spirite, that he should not go vp to Ierusalem.

5 But whē the daies were ended, we departed, [x] went our way, and they all accompanied vs with [their] wiues and children, euen out of the citie: [x] we kneeling downe on the shoare, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, wee tooke ship, and they returned home.

7 And when we had ended the course from Tyrus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, Paul and they that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesarea: and wee entred into the house of [*] Philip the Euangelist, which was one of the [c] seuē [Deacons,] and a By [ꝑ] reuelation of Gods Spirit.

b The holy spirit reuealed vnto the the persecutions that Paul should haue made against him, and the same Spirit also strengthened Paul to sustaine them.

Chap. 6. 5.
c This office of Deaconship was but for a time, according as the congregation had need, or other wise.

and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters virgins, which did prophecie.

10 And as we taried there many daies, there came a certaine Prophet from Judea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he tooke Pauls girdle, and bound his own hands and feete, and said, d Thus sayeth the holy Ghost, So shall the Jewes at Jerusalem e bind the man that oweth this girdle, and shal deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when wee had heard these things, both wee and other of the same place besought him that hee would not go vp to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and saide, what do ye weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am readie not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the Name of the Lord Jesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded, wee ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those daies We trussed vp our fardels, and went vp to Jerusalem.

16 There went with vs also [certaine] of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whome wee shoulde lodge.

17 And when We were come to Jerusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto f James: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, he told by order al things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministration.

20 So when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, & saide vnto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousande Jewes there are which beleeue, & they are all zealous of the Law.

21 Nowe they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jewes, which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and sayst, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to liue [after] the g customes.

22 What is then [to bee done?] the multitude must needes come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that wee say to thee. Wee haue h foure men, which haue made a vowe.

24 Them take, and i purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, ℘ they may * shaue their heads: & all shall know that those things, whereof they haue bene informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleeue, We haue written, and determined * ℘ they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselues from things offred to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and frō fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and ℘ next day was purified with them, and entred into the Temple, * declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntill that an offering should be offred for euery one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Jewes which were of Asia (when they sawe him in the Tẽple) moued all the people, and k laide handes on him,

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the law, & this place: moreouer, hee hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath l polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was moued, and the people ran together: and they tooke Paul, and drewe him out of the Temple, and forthwith ℘ doores were shut.

31 But as they wer about to kill him, tydings came vnto the chiefe captaine of the band, that all Jerusalem was on an vproare.

32 Who immediatly tooke souldiers and m Centurions, and ranne n downe vnto them: and when they sawe ℘ chiefe Captaine & the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe captaine came neere and tooke him, and commanded him to be bound with two chaines, and demaunded who he was, and what hee had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among ℘ people. So when he could not know ℘ certaintie for the tumult, he cōmanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when he came vnto ℘ grieces, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

d God would haue his seruants bands knowen to the intent that no man should thinke that he cast himselfe into wilfull danger.

e This was not to make Paul afrayd, but to encourage him against the brunt.

f Who was the chiefe or superintendent of the Church of Jerusalem.

g That is, according to the maners that our fathers obserued, which were commanded by God.

h Who as yet were not well instructed in Christ.

i The end of this ceremonie was thanksgiuing, and was institute by God, & partly of ignorance & infirmitie retemed: therefore S. Paul supported therein the weakines of others, & made himselfe all to all men, not hindering his conscience.

Nom.6.18. chap.18.18.

Chap.15.20.

Nom.6.13. chap.24.18.

k In thinking to appease the faithful, and to support the infirme, he falleth into the handes of his enemies.

l By bringing in such as were not circumcised.

m Which were vnder captaines and had charge ouer an hundred souldiers.

n A notable example of Gods prouidence for the defence of his.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bene led into the castle, he said vnto the chiefe captaine, May I speake vnto thee? who said, Canst thou speake Greeke?

Chap.5,36. o Ioseph. lib. Antiq. 20. cha. 11. & de bello Iuda. lib. 2. chap. 12.

38 Art not thou the *o Egyptian, who before these dayes raised a sedition, and led out into the wildernes foure thousand men that were murtherers?

39 Then Paul said, Doubtles I am a man which am a Iewe, and citizen of *Tarsus, a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

Chap.22.3.

40 And when hee had giuen him licence, Paul stoode on the grieces, and beckened with the hande vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

3 Paul renyeth an account of his life and doctrine. 25 He escapeth the whip by reason he was a citizen of Rome.

MEn, brethren and fathers, heare my ‖ defence nowe towards you.

‖Or, reason, or excuse.

2 And when they heard that hee spake in the Hebrew tongue to thē, they kept the more silence, & he said)

3 I am verely a man, [which am] a Iewe, borne in *Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the a feete of Gamaliel, & instructed according to the perfect maner of the lawe of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

Chap.21.39. a Whereby he declareth his modestie, diligence and docilitie.

4 *And I persecuted this ‖way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into pylon both men and women,

Chap.8.3. ‖Or, this profession of the Christians.

5 As also the chiefe Priest doth beare me witnes, and all the state of the Elders: of *whome also I receyued letters vnto the b brethren, and went to Damascus to bring thē which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

Chap.9.1,2. b To the Iewes to whom the letters were directed.

6 ¶And so it was, as I iourneyed & was come neere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voyce, saying vnto mee, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreouer they that were with me, saw in deed a light and were afraid: but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I saide, What shall I doe, Lord? And the Lord said vnto mee, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shalbe tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to do.

11 So when I could not see for the glorie of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came in to Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Lawe, hauing good reporte of all the Iewes which dwelt there, 13 Came vnto me, & stoode, & said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: & that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he saide, The God of our fathers hath c appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that d Just one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

c This may be referred to the eternall counsel of god, or els to the execution and declaration of the same which seemeth here to be more proper.

d Which is Christ, 1. Iohn. 2.1.

15 For thou shalt be his witnes vnto all men of the things, which thou hast seene and heard.

16 Now therfore why tariest thou? Arise, & be baptized, & wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the e Name of the Lord.

e He sheweth that sinnes can not be washed away, but by Christ who is the substance of Baptisme: in whom also is comprehended the father and the holy Ghost.

17 ¶And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalē, & prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And sawe him saying vnto mee, Make haste, and get thee quickely out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witnes concerning me.

19 Then I saide, Lord, they knowe that I *pyslned, & beat in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

Chap.8.3.

20 And whē the blood of thy martyr Steuen was shed, I also *stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slewe him.

Chap.7.58.

21 Then he said vnto me, Depart: for I will sende thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 ¶And they heard him vnto this worde, [but] then they lift vp their voyces, and said, Away with such a fellowe from the earth: for it is not meete that he should liue.

23 And as they cried and cast off their clothes, and threwe dust into the aire,

24 The chiefe captaine commanded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that he should be scourged, and examined, that he might know wherfore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bounde him with thongs, thongs, Paul saide vnto the Centurion that stoode by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is a [f] Romane, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went, and tolde the chiefe captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, & sayde to him, Tell me, art ỹ a Romane? And he saide, Yea.

28 And the chiefe captaine answered, with a great summe obtayned I this burgesshyp. Thẽ Paul said, But I was [g] so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him, which should haue examined him: and the chiefe Captaine also was afraide, after he knew that he was a Romane, and that he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because he would haue knowen the certaintie wherefore he was accused of the Iewes, he loosed him from [his] bonds, and commanded the hie Priestes and all their Councell to come [together:] and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 The answere of Paul being smit, and the ouerthrowe of his enemies. 11 The Lord encourageth him. 23 And because the Iewes laied waite for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

AND Paul behelde earnestly the Councell, and saide, Men [and] brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vnto this day.

2 Then the hie Priest Ananias commanded thẽ that stoode by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then saide Paul to him, God [a] will smite thee, thou whited wal: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Lawe, and commandest thou mee to be smitten contrarie to the Lawe?

4 And they that stood by, said, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then said Paul, I [b] knew not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euill of the Ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued ỹ the one part were of the Sadducees, & the other of the Pharises, he cried in the Councill, Men [and] brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and [c] resurrection of the dead.

7 And when hee had saide this, there was a dissention betweene the Pharises and the Sadducees, so that ỹ multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Sadducees say ỹ there is no resurrection, neither Angell, nor spirit: but the Pharises confesse [d] both.

9 Then there was a great cry: & the Scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, & stroue, saying, We find none euil in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chiefe captaine, fearing least Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commaunded the souldiers to go downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castel.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lorde stoode by him, and saide, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Iewes made an assemblie, and bounde themselues with an [e] othe, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chief Priests and Elders, & said, We haue bounde our selues with a solemne othe, that we will eate nothing, until we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye & the Councell signifie to the chiefe captaine, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morowe, as though ye would know some thing more perfectly of him, and we, or euer he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters [f] sonne heard of their laying awayt, he went, & entred into the castle, and tolde Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, & saide, Bring this yong man vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shewe him.

18 So he tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this young man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hande, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shewe me?

20 And he saide, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morowe vnto the Councill, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let thẽ not perswade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them, more f Not because he was borne at Rome, but by reason of his citie: for Tarsus was inhabited by the Romanes, and was their Colonia, whereof reade Chap. 16,12.

g This priuiledge was oftentimes giuen in recompence of seruice to them that were sore off Rome, and to their children, though they were not borne in the citie.

a Paul doeth not curse the hie Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpõ him, who vnder pretence of maintaining the Law, doeth transgresse it.

b He made this excuse as it were in mockerie, as if he would say, I know nothing in this man worthy the office of the hie Priest.
Exod. 22, 28. Phil. 3, 5. chap. 24, 22.

c He denieth not but there were other poynts, but he expresseth that, for the which the Sadducees that were the chiefe gouernours hated him most.

Mat. 22. 23.

d Vnderstanding both kindes, the Angels and the spirits, which he concludeth vnder one, and the resurrection which is the other part.

e The worde signifieth cursing, as when a man either sweareth, bindeth or witheth himselfe to die, or to be giuen to the deuill, except he bring his purpose to passe.

f This declareth that God hath so many meanes to deliuer his children out of dager, as there are creatures in the world, so that the aduersaries cannot conspire so craftely against them, but he hath infinite meanes to defeate their wicked practises.

then fourty men, which haue bound thē selues with an othe, that they will neyther eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and nowe are they ready, and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captayne then let the young man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And hee called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make readie two hundreth soudiers, that they may goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and two hundreth with dartes, at the third houre of the night,

24 And let thē make readie an horse that Paul being set on, may bee brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And hee wrote an [g] Epistle in this maner:

26 Claudius Lysias vnto ỳ most noble Gouernour Felix sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garrison, and rescued him, [h] perceiuing that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would haue knowē the cause, wherfore they accused him, I brought him forth into their councill.

29 [There] I perceiued ỳ he was accused of questions of their lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And whē it was shewed me, how that the Iewes laied waite for the man, I sent [him] straightway to thee, & cōmanded his accusers to speake before thee the thinges that they had against him. Fare well.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left ỳ horsemen to go with him, and returned vnto the Castle.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the Epistle to the Gouer-nour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So whē the Gouernour had read it, hee asked of what [i] prouince hee was:
and when he vnderstood that he was of Cilicia,

35 I will heare thee, saide hee, when thine accusers also are come, and commanded him to be kept in Herods iudge-ment hall.

[f] Greeke, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

[g] This letter was written partly in the fauour of Paul, that his aduersaries might not oppresse him.

[h] The captain dissembleth to commend his own diligence: for he did not know ye that Paul was a Romane before he had rescued him, and giuen him to be straitly examined.

[i] By this name the Romans called euery countrey which they had subdued.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix groweth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 And after leaueth him in prison.

NOwe after fiue dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, and [with] Tertullus a certaine Oratour, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse [him, saying, Seeing that we haue obtened great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthie thinges are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholy, and in all places, most [a] noble Felix with all thankes.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courtesie a fewe wordes.

5 Certainly we haue found this man a pestilent fellowe, and a mouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the worlde, and a chiefe maintainer of the [b] sect of the [c] Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our Lawe:

7 But the ‖ chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our handes,

8 Commaunding his accusers to come to thee: of whome thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) knowe all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Iewes like wise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouer-nour had beckened vnto him that hee shoulde speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answere for my selfe, for as much as I know that thou hast bene of many yeres a [d] iudge vnto this [e] nation,

11 Seeing that thou mayest knowe, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp [f] to worship in Jerusalem.

12 And they neither founde me in the Tēple disputing with any man, neither making vproare among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the city.

13 Neither can they proue the things, whereof they nowe accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call [g] he-resie) so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Lawe and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towardes God, that the resurrection of the dead which they them selues looke for also, shall be both

[a] For Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captaine of the murtherers, & put the Egyptian to flight, which raised vp tumults in Iudea: for these the oratour praiseth him: otherwise he was both cruell and couetous, reade Joseph. lib. 20. Antiq. chap. 11. & 12. and lib. 2. de bello Iudaico, chap. 12.

[b] Otherwise: for so the wicked termed the true Christian religion.

[c] Which taught the people to maintaine their liberte against the Romanes: and though the accusers approued both this sect, & their doctrine, yet to get Paul punished, they feigne to condemne it.

‖ Or, captaine of a thousand.

[d] Or, gouernour: for before this he ruled Thrachonites, Batanea, & Gaulanites.

[e] So that thou art not ignorant of their fashions.

[f] Not that his purpose was to worship there, but the Iewes so founde him by the counsell of others: for he thought to haue wonne the simple heathen, and to stoppe the enemies mouthes both of iust and vniust.

[g] As the Scribes and Pharises term men the Christians doctrine.

16 And herein I endeuour my selfe to haue alway a cleere conscience toward God, and toward men.

17 Nowe after [h] many yeres, I came and brought * almes to my nation and offrings.

18 *At what time certaine Iewes of Asia founde me purified in the Temple, 19 Neither with multitude, nor with tumulte.

20 Who [i] ought to haue bene present before thee, and accuse [me,] if they had ought against me.

21 Or let these themselues say, if they haue founde any vniust thing in mee, while I stoode in the Councill, 22 Except [it be] for this one voyce, that I cryed standing among them, *Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

23 Nowe when Felix heard these things, he deferred them, and layd, whe I shall more perfectly know the things which concerne this ‖ way, by the comming of Lylias the chiefe Captaine, I will decise your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that he shoulde haue ease, & that he shoulde forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 ¶ And after certaine dayes, came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a [k] Iewesse, [and] he called for the Paul, & heard him of the faith in Christ.

26 And as he disputed of righteousnesse and temperance, and of the iudgement to come, Felix [l] trembled, and answered, Goe thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I will call for thee.

27 He hoped also that money should haue bene giuē him of Paul, þ he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

28 When two yeeres were expired, Portius Festus came into Felix roome: and [Felix] willing to ‖ get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bounde.

h Meaning, that it was a long time since he had bene at Ierusalem, which was whē he brought almes, Chap.11.29. rom.15.26, 2.cor.9.2. Chap.21.27.

i For his accusers spake but vpon a false report, which these bellowes of Satan had blowen abroad, & durst not themselues appeare. Chap.23.7.

‖ Or, sect.

k By whose counsell Felix called for Paul.

l The worde of God maketh the verie wicked afrayd, & therefore to them it is the sauour of death vnto death.

‖ Or, to doe a pleasure.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus, 8 He answereth for himselfe, 11 And appealeth vnto þ Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa, 23 And he is brought forth.

NOw when Festus was then come into the prouince, after three dayes he went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the hie Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And [a] desired fauour against him, that he would send for him to Ierusalē: & they laid waite to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, & that he him selfe woulde shortly depart [thither.]

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are [b] able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

6 ¶ Nowe when he had taryed among them no more then ten dayes, he went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sate in the iudgement seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, þ Iewes which were come from Ierusalem, stoode about him, and layde many and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they coulde not proue,

8 For as much as he answered, [c] that he had neither offended any thing against the Lawe of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 Yet Festus willing to ‖ get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and said, wilt thou goe vp to Ierusalem, & there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stande at [d] Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to be [e] iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer mee to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with [f] the Councill, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 ¶ And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and [g] Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto þ king, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whome When I came to Ierusalem, the high Priestes and the Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not þ maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to the death, before þ he which is accused, haue þ accusers before him, & haue place to defend himselfe concerning a The enuious sute of the Priests against Paul.

b Which may most commodiously.

c Paul defendeth him selfe in iudgement.

‖ Or, to doe pleasure.

d Seeing him selfe betrayed by the ambition of the iudge, he desireth that in consideration of his freedom he may be sent to Rome.

e It is lawfull to require the defense of the Magistrate to maintaine our right.

f Without whose consent he could do nothing.

g This was his owne sister whome he entertained.

concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following I sate on the iudgement seate, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stoode vp, they brought no crime of such things as I suppосed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their owne [h] superstition, and of one Jesus which was dead, whome Paul affirmed to be aliue.

h This worde doeth also signifie religion: but he speaketh in contempt of the true doctrine.

20 And because I douted of such maner of question, I asked him whether he would goe to Jerusalem, and there be iudged of these things.

21 But because he appealed to be reserued to the examination of Augustus, I commaunded him to be kept, till I might sende him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morowe, said he, ye shalt heare him.

23 And on the morowe when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the ‖ Common hall with the chiefe captaines and chiefe men of the citie, at Festus commaundement Paul was brought forth.

‖ Or, auditorie.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, ye see this man, about whome all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpon me, both at Jerusalem, and here, crying, that he ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet haue I founde nothing worthie of death, that he hath committed: neuertheles, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to sende him.

26 Of whome I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my [i] lord: wherefore I haue brought him forth vnto you, and specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue some what to write.

i Flatterers first vsed to cal Tyrants by this name, and after it so growen into vse, that vertuous Princes refused it not, as appeareth by Plinies epistles to Traiane.

27 For me thinketh it vnreasonable to sende a prisoner, and not to shewe the causes which are [laid] against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approued by rehearsing his conuersation. 25 His modest answere against the iniurie of Festus.

THen Agrippa sayde vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hande, and answered for him selfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happie, King Agrippa, because I shall answere this day before thee of al the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, & questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore, I beseech thee, [a] to heare me patiently.

a Foreasmuch as he beleeued the religion, he ought to be more attentiue.

4 As touching my life from [my] childhoode, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Jerusalem, know all the Iewes,

5 which knew me heretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most strait [b] sect of our religion I liued a Pharisie.

b Paul speaketh of this sect accoyning to the peoples estimation, who preferred it as most holy aboue all others: for their doctrine was least corrupt.

6 And now I stande, and am accused for the hope of the promes made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly seruing [God] day & night, hope to come: for which hopes sake, O king Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verely thought in my selfe, that I ought to doe many contrary thinges against the name of Jesus of Nazaret.

10 *Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: for many of the Saintes I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the hie Priestes, and when they were put to death, I gaue [my] sentence. Chap. 8, 3.

c That is, I approued their cruelte which they vsed against them.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more mad against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to *Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the high Priestes, Chap. 9, 2, 3.

13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightnesse of the sunne, shine rounde about me, & them which went with me.

14 So when we were al fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto me, & saying in the Hebrew tongue, *Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is harde for thee to kicke against pricks. Chap. 9, 4. and 22, 7.

15 Then I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he sayde, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stande vp on thy feet: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the thinges which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from the people, d and from the Gentiles, vnto whome now be d Of the Iewes.

nowe I sende thee,

e Although this properly apperteineth vnto God, yet he applyeth this vnto his ministers vnto whome he giueth his holy Spirit.

18 To e open their eies, that they may turne from darkenes to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenesse of sinnes, and inheritãce among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, king Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly visiõ,

Chap.9.22,26 and 13.14,16

20 *But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout al the coastes of Judea, and [then] to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and do workes worthy amendement of life.

21 For this cause the Jewes caught me in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

Chap.21.30.

22 Neuertheless, I obteined helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to smal and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets & Moses did say should come,

23 [To wit,] that Christ should suffer, & that he should be the first that shoulde rise from the dead, and shoulde shewe light vnto the people, & to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for him selfe, Festus said with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But he sayde, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of trueth and soberneſſe.

26 For the king knoweth of these thinges, before whome also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that f none of these things are hidde from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

f He knewe that the Law and the Prophets were of God, but he did not vnderstande the true applying of the same.

27 O king Agrippa, beleeuest thou the Prophets? I knowe that thou beleeuest.

28 Then Agrippa sayde vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to become a Christian.

29 Thẽ Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also al that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bõds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose vp, and the gouernour, & Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene them selues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthie of death, nor of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene loosed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage & his companie toward Rome. 44 Howe, and where they arriue.

NOw when it was concluded, that we shoulde saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Cẽturion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And *we entred into a shippe of Adramyttium purposing to saile by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

2.Cor.11.25.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Julius curteously entreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friendes, ỳ they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we lauched, and sailed hard by a Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

a From Sidon to Myra they shoulde haue sayled North, and by West: but the windes caused them to saile to Cyprus plaine North: thence to Cilicia North and by East, and so to Pamphylia and Myra plaine West.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, [a citie] in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion founde a shippe of Alexandria, sailing into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sayled slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sailed hard by ‖ Candie, neere to b Salmone,

‖ Or, Creta.

b Which was an high hill of Candie bowing to the seaward.

8 And with much a do sailed beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sailing was nowe ieopardous, because also the c Fast was nowe passed, Paul exhorted [them,]

c This fast the Jewes obserued about the moneth of October in the Feast of their expiatiõ, Leui. 23.37. So that Paul thought it better to winter there, then to saile in the deepe of winter which was at hande.

10 And sayde vnto them, Sirs, I see that this voyage will be with hurte and much domage, not of the lading and shippe onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheless the Centurion beleeued rather the gouernour and the master of the shippe, then those thinges which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsel to depart thẽce, if by any meanes they might atteine to Phenice, [there] to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lyeth toward the SouthWest and by West, and NorthWest and by West.

13 And when the southerne winde blewe softly, they supposing to obteine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But

14 But anon after, there aroſe by it a ſtormie winde, called [d] Euroclydon.

15 And when the ſhippe was caught, and could not reſiſt the wind, we let her goe, and were caryed away.

16 And we ranne vnder a litle Ile named [e] Clauda, and had much a doe to get the boate.

17 Which they tooke vp and vſed all helpe, vndergirding the ſhippe, fearing leaſt they ſhoulde haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the ‖ veſſell, and ſo were caryed.

18 The next day when we were toſſed vè an exceeding tempeſt, they ‖ lightened the ſhippe.

19 And the third day we caſt out with our owne hands the takling of the ſhip.

20 And whē neither ſunne nor ſtarres in many dayes appeared, and no ſmall tempeſt lay vpon vs, all hope that we ſhould be ſaued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abſtinence, Paul ſtoode forth in the middes of them, and ſaid, Sirs, ye ſhould haue hearkened to me, & not haue looſed from Candie: ſo ſhould ye haue [f] gained this hurt & loſſe.

22 But nowe I exhorte you to be of good courage: for there ſhall be no loſſe of any mans life among you, ſaue of the ſhippe onely.

23 For there ſtoode by me this night the Angell of [g] God, whoſe I am, and whome I ſerue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou muſt be brought before Ceſar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto [h] thee all that ſaile with thee.

25 Wherefore, ſirs, be of good courage: for [i] I beleeue God, that it ſhal be ſo as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Howbeit we muſt be caſt into a certaine Ilande.

27 And when the fourtenth night was come, as wee were caryed to and fro in the [k] Adriaticall [ſea] about midnight, the ſhipmen deemed that ſome countrey approched vnto them,

28 And ſounded, and founde it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a litle further, they ſounded againe, and founde fifteene fathoms.

29 Then fearing leaſt they ſhoulde haue fallen into ſome rough places, they caſt foure ancres out of the sterne, and wiſhed that the day were come.

30 Nowe as the mariners were about to flee out of the ſhippe, and had let downe the boate into the ſea vnder a colour as though they woulde haue caſt ancres out of the foreſhippe, 31 Paul ſaid vnto the Centurion and the ſouldiers, Except theſe abide in the ſhippe, [l] ye can not be ſafe.

32 Then the ſouldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when it beganne to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, ſaying, This is the fourtenth day that ye haue taryed, and continued [m] faſting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhorte you to take meate: for this is for your ſafegarde: for there ſhal not [n] an heare fal from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus ſpoken, he tooke bread, and gaue thankes to God, in preſence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they alſo tooke meate.

37 Now we were in ỳ ſhip in all two hundreth, threeſcore and ſixtene ſoules.

38 And when they had eaten ynough, they lightened the ſhippe, and caſt out the wheat into the ſea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the countrey, but they ſpyed a certain creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were poſſible) to thruſt in the ſhippe.

40 So when they had taken vp the ancres, they committed [the ſhip] vnto the ſea, and looſed the rudder bondes, and hoyſed vp the maine ſaile to the winde, and drewe to the ſhore.

41 And when they fell into a place, where two ſeas met, they thruſt in the ſhip: and the fore part ſtucke faſt, & could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then ỳ ſouldiers counſel was [o] to kil the priſoners: leſt any of them, when he had ſwomme out, ſhould flee away.

43 But the Cēturion willing to ſaue Paul, ſtayed them from [this] counſell, and commanded that they that coulde ſwimme, ſhould caſt themſelues firſt into the ſea, and goe out to lande:

44 And the other, ſome on boardes, and ſome on certaine [pieces] of the ſhip: and ſo it came to paſſe, that they came all ſafe to lande.

d That is, the Northeaſt winde or euery Eaſt winde that is furious and ſtormie.

e This yle was Weſt & by South from Cādie ſtraight towarde the goulfe Syrtes, which were certaine boyling ſands that ſwallowed vp all that they caught.

‖ Or, boate.

‖ Or, caſt out the wares.

f That is, ye ſhould haue ſaued the loſſe by auoyding the danger.

g They could not then reproue him of raſhnes, ſeeing that this was the ordinance of God.

h The graces and bleſſings, which God giueth to his children, profit many times the enemies, which are vnworthie to receiue the fruite thereof.

i Faith is grounded vpon the worde of God.

k This ſea in Strabos time was taken for all that part, which was about the mountaines called Seraunii, and ſo deuideth Italie from Dalmatia, and goeth vp to Uenice.

l Paul would vſe ſuch means as God had ordeined, leaſt he ſhuld ſeeme to haue tempted him.

m He meaneth an extraordinarie abſtinence, which came of the feare of death, and ſo tooke away their appetite.

n By this Hebrew phraſe is ment that they ſhoulde be in al points ſafe and ſound, 1. Sam. 14. 45 1. King. 1. 52, Mat. 10. 30.

o This declareth the great & barbarous ingratitude of the wicked, which can not be wonne by any benefites.

CHAP. XXVIII.

2 Paul with his companie are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper hurteth him not. 8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furniſhed by them of things neceſſarie, he fared toward Rome, 15 Where being receiued of the brethren, he declareth his buſineſſe, 30 And there preacheth two yeeres.

And

AND when they were come safe, then they knew that the Ile was called a Melita.

2 And ꝑ Barbarians shewed vs no litle kindenes: for they kindled a fire, & receiued vs euery one, because of the present shoure, & because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a nomber of sticks, and layde them on the ‖ fire, there came a viper out of the heate, and lept on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians sawe the worme hang on his hand, they sayd among themselues, This man surely is a b mutherer, whome, though he hath escaped the sea, yet c Uengeance hath not suffred to liue.

5 But he shooke off the worme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they wayted when hee should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and sawe no inconuenience come to him, they changed their mindes, and sayd, That he was a d God.

7 In ꝑ same quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, and lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was, that the father of Publius lay sicke of the feuer, and of a bloodie flixe: to whome Paul entred in, and when he prayed, he layd [his] hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the Ile, which had diseases, came to him and were healed,

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed, they laded vs with things necessarie.

11 ¶ Now after three moneths we departed in a shippe of Alexandria, which had wintred in the Ile, whose badge was e Castor and Pollux.

12 And when we arriued at Syracuse, we taried [there] three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blewe, and we came the second day to Putioli, 14 Where we found brethren, & were desired to tarie with them seuen dayes, and so we went toward Rome.

15 ¶ And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the f Three ‖ tauerns, whome when Paul sawe, he thanked God, and wared bolde.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was g suffred to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he sayd vnto them, Men [and] brethren, though I haue committed nothing against ꝑ people, or Lawes of the fathers, [yet] was I deliuered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined me, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrarie, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see [you,] and to speake with [you:] for ꝑ hope h of Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

21 Then they sayd vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into [his] lodging, to whome he expounded and testified the i kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Jesus, both out of the Lawe of Moses, & out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded with the things, which were spoken, & some beleeued not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among themselues, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one worde, [to wit,] well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the Prophet vnto our fathers, 26 Saying, *k Go vnto this people, and say, By hearing ye shall heare, and shall not vnderstand, and seeing ye shall see, and not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed fat, & their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes haue they winked, lest they should see with [their] eyes, and heare with [their] eares, and vnderstand with [their] hearts, and should returne that I might l heale them.

28 Be it knowen therefore vnto you, a Now called Malta.

‖ Or, heape.

b Such is the peruerse iudgment of men, that they condemne such as they see in any affliction.

c Whom they made a goddesse and called her Dice, or Nemelis.

d Beholde the extremitie of these infidels, and how much they are bent to superstition: for after one rage & errour they fall into another.

e These the Painims fayned to be Jupiters children and goddes of the sea.

f These places were distant from Rome a dayes iourney or thereabout.

‖ Or, shoppes.

g No dout the captaine vnder stoode both by Festus letters, and also by the report of the vnder captaine that Paul had committed no fault.

h That is, for Jesus Christs cause, whome they had long looked for as he that should be the redemer of the world.

i That this kingdome, which was spoken of by the Prophets, was offred vnto them by the comming of Christ. Isa.9.9.mar.13.14.mar.4.12. luk.8.10.iohn.12.40.rom.11.8.

k Hereby the hearts of the infidels ought to be mollified, and the weaklings confirmed that they be not offended by the stubbernes of the wicked.

l The word of God healeth when the vertue of the spirit is ioyned with it: and it is preached generally, that all might be inexcusable.

that this ſaluation of God is ſent to the Gentiles, and they ſhall heare it.
29 And when he had ſaid theſe things, the Iewes departed, and had great reaſoning among themſelues.
30 And Paul remained two yeres full in an houſe hired for himſelfe, and receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, and teaching thoſe things, which concerne the Lord Ieſus Chriſt, with all boldnes of ſpeach, without let.

The deſcription of the countreys and places mencioned in the Actes of the Apoſtles from Italie on the Weſt part, vnto the Medes and Perſians towards the Eaſt, conteining about 2200. mile in length. The which deſcription ſerueth for the peregrination of Saint Paul, and other of the Apoſtles, and for the vnderſtanding of many things conteyned in this booke.

The names of the yles and countreys mencioned in this mappe.

Achaia.	Cappadocia.	Creta or Cādia yle.	Lesbos yle.	Media.	Phrygia.
Arabia the deſert.	Chios yle.	Cyprus.	Lycaonia.	Pamphylia.	Rhodes yle.
Arabia the ſtonie.	Cilicia.	Galatia.	Lycia.	Perſia.	Samos yle.
Armenia.	Chaldea.	Grecia. Italie.	Malta yle.	Pontus.	Samothracia yle.
Aſia the leſſe.	Clauda yle.	Illyria, or Sclauonie	Macedonia.	Phenicia.	Sicilia yle.
Bythinia.	Coos yle.	Iudea.	Myſia.	Piſidia.	Syria.

The townes ſpecified in this mappe and their ſituation with the obſeruation of the length and breadth.

Amphipolis	50,0 : 41,30	Corinthus	51,15 : 36,55	Miletum	58,0 : 37,0	Rome	56,40 : 41,40
Antiochia of Syria	70,15 : 37,20	Damaſcus	68,55 : 33,0	Myra	61,36 : 40,0	Salamine yle of Cyprus	66,40 : 35,30
Antiochia of Piſidia	62,30 : 39,0	Derbe	64,20 : 38,15	Mytilene	55,0 : 35,0	Samaria	66,20 : 32,19
Apollonia	49,30 : 40,30	Epheſus	57,40 : 37,40	Neapolis	51,15 : 41,40	Seleucia	68,35 : 25,40
Aſſos	56,0 : 40,15	Fayre hauens	56,46 : 35,10	Paphos in Cyprus	65,0 : 36,0	Sidon	67,15 : 33,30
Athenes	52,45 : 37,15	Gaza	65,10 : 31,40	Patara	60,30 : 36,0	Syracuſe	39,30 : 37,15
Attalia	62,15 : 36,30	Gnidum	57,10 : 35,30	Perge	62,15 : 36,56	Tarſus	67,40 : 36,50
Babylon	79,0 : 35,0	Iconium	64,30 : 38,45	Phenix an hauen	53,45 : 34,20	Theſſalonica	49,50 : 40,30
Beroe	48,45 : 39,50	Ieruſalem	66,0 : 31,55	Philippi	50,45 : 41,46	Troas	55,0 : 41,0
Cenchrea hauen	51,20 : 37,0	Ioppe	66,40 : 31,55	Ptolemais	66,50 : 32,58	Tyrus	67,3 : 33,20
Ceſarea Straton	66,16 : 32,25	Laodicea	68,30 : 35,5	Puteoli	39,50 : 41,0
Charran	73,55 : 37,10	Lyſtri	64,0 : 39,0	Rhegium	40,0 : 39,0

The order of the yeres from Pauls conuersion shewing the time of his Peregrination, and of his Epistles written to the Churches.

The yeres of the natiuitie of IESVS Christ.	The yeres of the conuersion of S. Paul.		The yeeres of Tyberius the Emperour.
35	1	Paul a persecuter, Act. 7.8.9. was conuerted as he went toward Damascus, Act. 9.	20
36	2	From Damascus he went into Arabia to preach the Gospel: after he returned to	21
37	3	Damascus where they would haue taken him, but he escaped by the meanes of the faithful, which did let him downe in a basket through the walles, Act. 9. Galatians 1.	22
38	4	From thence he came to Jerusalem to see Peter. Gal. 1. Act. 9. 2. Cor. 12.	23
39	5	The Jewes would haue put him to death, but he was led to Cesarea,	of Caligula
40	6	and from thence sent into Syria & to Tarsus of Cilicia, Act. 9. Gal. 1.	2
41	7		3
42	8	After he was brought to Antiochia by Barnabas, where the disciples were first	4
43	9	named Christians.
44	10	The famine was prophecied by Agabus vnder C. Cesar. Act. 11.	of Claudius
45	11	S. James was slaine by Herode. Act. 12.	2
46	12	Paul the gouernour of Cyrus was conuerted by S. Paul. Act. 13.	3
47	13	Paul preached the Gospel in Antiochia of Pisidia, which is a part of Galatia. Actes 14.	4
48	14	Thence he went to Iconium where he remained for a time. Act. 13. 14.	5 6
49	15	He healed a lame man at Lystri, and there was stoned. Act. 14.	7
50	16	When he had appointed the Elders in the Church, he visited all Pisidia and	8
51	17	Pamphylia, and returned to Antiochia.	9
52	18	At this time was the councill of the Apostles holden at Jerusalem where	10
53	19	Saint Paul appeared, and he returned to Antiochia, whither Peter also came, and Paul resisted him openly. Act. 15. Gala. 2.	11
54	20	Paul went into Syria and Cilicia with Siluanus to confirme the Churches, and afterwarde to Derbe and Lystri, where he taketh Timotheus vnto him: thence he goeth to Macedonia, and teacheth in a citie called Philippi. Act. 15. 16.	12
55	21	Paul preacheth at Athens, Act. 17. & from thence writeth to the Thessalonians.	13
56	22	He remaineth at Corinthus 18. moneths, Act. 18. and from thence writeth to the Romanes.	14
57	23	He returneth to Ephesus, & from thence to Cesarea: afterward to Jerusalem,	of Nero
58	24	and so to Antiochia: afterwarde he visiteth the Churches of Galatia and Phrygia. Act. 18.	2
59	25	He commeth to Ephesus, where he preacheth two yeres, and there leaueth Timotheus. Act. 19. 1. Tim. 1.	3
60	26	He writeth from Ephesus the first to the Corinthians. 1. Cor. 16.	4
61	27	After the tumult that was in Ephesus, he came to Troas, and from thence to Macedonia, and being at Philippi he wrote the second to the Corinthians by Titus and Luke 2. Cor. 2. and 13. Act. 20.	5
62	28	Thence he came into Achaia and to Corinthus as he had promised. 1. Cor. 16. and 2. Cor. 12. and because certaine laide waite for him, he returned by Macedonia vnto Troas towarde Aristarchus and Timotheus, which were gone before him. Act. 20.	6
63	29	From Troas he came to Assos, to Mitylene called Lesbos, vnto Samos, and	7
64	30	from thence to Miletum, where he tooke leaue of the Ephesians. Actes 20. Thence he came to Rodes, to Patara, to Tyrus, to Ptolemais, to Cesarea, and last of all to Jerusalem, where he was taken. Act. 21. and 22.	8
65	31	When he was prisoner, he was led to Cesarea before the gouernour Felix, Act. 23. where he remained two yeeres. Act. 24.	9
66	32	Afterwarde he was sent prisoner to Rome. Act. 27.	10
67	33	And being in prison there, he wrote to the Galatians, to the Ephesians, and to the Philippians.	11
68	34	Also to the Collossians, and to Philemon.	12
69	35	The seconde to Timotheus.	13
70	36	Finally he was beheaded at the commandement of Nero.	14

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

The Argvment.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousnesse is made ours through fayth. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfill the Lawe, yea, committed most abominablie, both against the Law of God and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindfull of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordeined that mans saluation should onely stand in the perfect obedience of his sonne Iesus Christ: so that not onely the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saued by fayth in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust only through faith, and yet afterward receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousnes by fayth. And to the intent that none should thinke that the couenant which God made to him, and his posteritie, was not perfourmed: either becausе the Iewes receiued not Christ, (which was the blessed seede) or els beleeued not that he was the true redeemer, becausе he did not onely, or at lest more notablie preserue the Iewes, the examples of Ismael & Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers & Gentiles grafted in by fayth, are made heyres of the promes. The cause whereof is the onely will of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth some to be saued, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberall mercie of God, which he at length will stretch towarde the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This groundworke of fayth and doctrine layde, instructions of Christian maners follow: teaching euery man to walke in roundnes of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenes, reuerencing and obeying the magistrate, exercising charitie, putting off the olde man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christes example. Finally, saint Paul after his commendations to the brethren exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, & so concludeth with a prayer.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul sheweth by whom, and to what purpose he is called. 13 His ready will. 16 What the Gospel is. 20 The vse of creatures and wherefore they were made. 21. 24 The ingratitude, peruersitie and punishment of all mankinde.

PAul a ‖ seruant of Iesus Christ, [a] called [to be] an Apostle, [b]*put apart [to preach] the Gospel of God,

2 (which he had promised afore by his *Prophets in the [c] holy Scriptures)

3 Concerning his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lorde (which was made of the [d] seede of Dauid according to the flesh,

4 And declared mightily [to be] the Sonne of God, touching the Spirit of [e] sanctification by the resurrection from the dead)

5 By whom we haue receiued [f] grace and Apostleship (that obedience might be giuen vnto the fayth) in his Name among all the Gentiles,

6 Among whom ye be also the [g] called of Iesus Christ:

7 To all [you] ‖ be at Rome beloued of God, called [to be] Saints: *[h] Grace [be] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Iesus Christ.

8 First I thanke my God through IESVS Christ for you all, because your fayth is published throughout [i] ‖ whole worlde.

9 For God is my witnes (whome I serue in my [k] spirit in the [l] Gospel of his Sonne) that without ceasing I make mencion of you

10 Allwayes in my prayers, beseeching, that by some meanes one time or other I might haue a prosperous iourney by the will of God, to come vnto you.

11 *For I long to see you, that I might bestowe among you some spirituall gift, to strengthen you,

12 That is, that I might bee comforted together with you, through [our] mutuall fayth, both yours and mine.

13 Nowe my brethren, I would that ye should not be ignorant, howe that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene [m] let hitherto) that I might haue some [n] fruite also among you, as [I haue] among the other Gentiles.

14 I am detter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise

‖ Or, minister.
a Through Gods mercie, and also appointed by commandement to this Apostleship.
b Or chosen by the eternall counsaile of God, or by the declaration of ‖ same counsel. Act. 13.2. Deut. 18.15. act. 3.22.
c The Scriptures onely set forth the great benefit of God promised and performed to the worlde in Iesus Christ.
d Meaning of the posteritie of the flesh of the virgin Marie.
e By the Spirit he declareth that Christ is God, whose power did so sanctifie his humanitie, that it could not feele corruption, nor yet remaine in death.
f Which was that most liberall benefite to preach the vnsearchable riches of Christ.
g That is, by the mercie of God are adopted in Iesus Christ. 1.Cor.1.3.galat.1.3.2.tim.1.2.
h The free mercie of God and prosperous successe in all thinges.
i That is, through all christian Churches.
k Earnestly, and from the heart.
l In preaching the Sonne of God, that is, reconciliation and peace thorow Christ.
Chap.15.23.
m Either by Satã, 1.Thes. 2.18. or by the holy Ghost, Act.16.6, or called to some other place to preach the Gospel, Chap. 15.20.
n Whereof is spoken, Iohn 15.16.

wise men and vnto the vnwise.

15 Therefore, as much as in me is, I am readie to preache the Gospell to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not ° ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the *p power of God vnto saluation to euery one that beleeueth, to the Jewe first, and also to the ‖ Grecian.

17 For by it the q righteousnes of r God is reuelled, from faith to faith: as it is written, * The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reuelled from heauē against all s vngodlines, and vnrighteousnes of men, which withholde the trueth t in vnrighteousnes, 19 Forasmuch as that, which may be knowen of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For ū inuisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in [his] workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse:

21 *Because that when they knewe God, they u glorifyed him not as God, neyther were thankefull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkenes.

22 When they professed themselues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glorie of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, & of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God x y gaue them vp to their heartes lustes, vnto vncleannes, to defile their owne bodies betwene themselues:

25 Which turned the trueth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped & serued the creature, ‖ forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their ‖ lust one towarde another, and man with man wrought filthines, and receiued in themselues such recompense of their errour, as was meete.

28 For as they regarded not to know God, [euen so] God deliuered them vp vnto a z reprobate minde, to doe those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being full of all vnrighteousnes, fornication, wickednesse, couetousnesse, maliciousnesse, full of enuie, of murther, of debate, of deceite, taking all things in the euill part, whisperers,

30 Backebiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proude, boasters, inuenters of euill things, disobedient to parēts, without vnderstanding, couenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer be appeased, merciless.

31 Which men, though they knew a the ‖ Lawe of God, how that they which commit such thinges, are worthie of death, [yet] not onely do the same, but also b fauour them that do them.

CHAP. II.

1 He feareth the hypocrites with Gods iudgement, 7 And comforteth the faithfull. 12 To beate downe all vaine pretence of ignorance, holines, and of alliance with God, he proueth all men to be sinners, 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 The Jewes by the Lawe written.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoeuer thou art that ‖ a iudgest: * for in that that thou iudgest another, thou condemnest b thy selfe: for thou that iudgest, doest the same things.

2 But we know that the iudgement of God is according to c trueth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudgest them which doe such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his bountifulnes, and *patiente, & long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifulnes of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou, after thine hardnes, and heart that cannot repent, *heapest vnto thy selfe wrath, against ‡ day of d wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

6 *Who will rewarde euery man according to his e workes:

7 [That is,] to them which by continuance in wel doing seeke glorie, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious and disobey the trueth, and obey vnrighteousnes, [shall be] indignation and wrath.

9 Tribulation and anguish [shall be] vpon the soule of euery man that doeth euill: of the Jewe first, and [also] of the f Grecian.

o He passeth not for the mocking of the wicked. 1.Cor.1.18.

p Or, effectuall instrument.

‖ Or, Gentile.

q The perfection, and integritie which whosoeuer hath, appeareth before God holy, blameless, and can be accused of no fault: and this iustice is contrarie to mans iustice, or ỹ iustice of workes, and onely is apprehended by faith which dayly increaseth, Psa.84.7.

r Which God approueth. Hábak.2.4. galat.3.11. hebr.10.38.

s He deuided the Law of nature corrupt into vngodlines, and vnrighteousnes. Ungodlines containeth the false worshipping of God: vnrighteousnes, breache of loue toward man.

t In that they neither worship God, as nature partly teacheth them, nor loue one another. Ephes.4.18.

u They worshipped him not as he prescribed, but after their good intentions.

x Or deliuered them as a iust iudge.

y Seeing men would not according to the knowledge that God gaue them, worship him aright, he smote their heartes with blindenes, that they should not knowe themselues, but do iniurie one to another, and commit such horrible villenie. ‖ Or, aboue the Creator. ‖ Or, appetite. z That is, such one as was destitute of all iudgement.

a Which Lawe God writ in their consciences, and the Philosophers called it the Lawe of nature, the Lawyers, the Lawe of nations, whereof Moses Lawe is a plaine exposition.

‖ Or, righteousnesse.

b Or, consent to them: which is the full measure of all iniquitie.

‖ Or, blamest.

a Neither they which do approue euill doers, nor they which reproue them, are excusable before God. Matth.7.1,2. 1.cor.4.5.

b For either thou art guiltie of the same fault or the like.

c For he iudgeth the heart, and regardeth not the outward person. 2.Peter 3.9. Iames 5.3.

d The wicked shalbe condemned, and the faithfull deliuered. Psal.62.12. matth.16.27. reuel.22.12.

e The cōmon sort of men are most vnable to be iustified by their workes, seeing Abraham the father of beleeuers hath nothing to glorie of before God, and therefore all mens workes shall condemne them, and they onely shalbe saued, which apprehend Jesus Christ by faith to be their onely iustice and sanctification.

f By the Grecian he vnderstandeth the Gentile, and euery one that is not a Jewe.

10 But to euery man that doth good, [shalbe] glorie, and honour, and peace, to the Iewe first, and [also] to the Grecian.

Deut.10.17. 2.chron.19.7. iob.34.19. actes 10.34.

11 For there is no *respect of g persons with God.

g As touching any outward qualitie, but as the potter before he make his vessels, he doeth appoint some to glorie, and others to ignominie.

12 For as many as haue sinned without the Law, shall perish also h without the Lawe: and as many as haue sinned in the Law, shalbe iudged by the Law, h That is, without the knowledge of the Lawe written, which was giuen by Moses.

13 (* For the hearers of the Lawe [are] not righteous before God: but the doers of the Lawe shalbe iustified.

Matth.7.21. iames 1.22.

14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the Lawe, doe by nature the things [conteyned] in the Lawe, they hauing not the Lawe, are a Lawe vnto themselues,

15 Which shew the effect of the Law written in their i hearts, their conscience also bearing witnes, and their thoughts accusing one another or excusing,) i For mans conscience sheweth him when he doeth good or euill.

16 At the day when God shall iudge the secretes of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 (k Behold, thou art called a Iew, and restest in the Lawe, and *gloriest in God, k He awaketh the Iewes, which were a sleepe through a certaine securitie and confidence in the Lawe.

18 And knowest [his] will, and ‖ allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Lawe:

Chap.9.4. ‖ Or, triest the things that dissent from it.

19 And perswadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenes, 20 An instructer of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the l forme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the Lawe.

l The way to teache others in the knowledge of the trueth.

21 Thou therefore, which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not steale, doest thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adulterie, doest thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idols, committest thou sacriledge?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Lawe, through breaking the Lawe dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, *as it is written.

Isa.52.5. ezek.36.20.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou do the Lawe: but if thou be a transgressor of the Law, thy m circumcision is made vncircumcision.

m The ende of circumcision was the keeping of the Lawe, and the Sacrament separated from his ende, is of none effect.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Lawe, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcisiō which is by nature (if it keepe the Law) ‖ iudge thee, which by the n letter and circumcision [art] a transgressour of the Lawe?

‖ Or, condemne.

28 For he is not a Iewe, which is one outwarde: neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But hee is a Iewe which is one within, and the * circumcision [is] of the heart, in the o spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

n When the Lawe is called the letter, or that it pronouncketh death vnto vs, or that it killeth, or is the ministerie of death, or that it is þ strength of sinne, it is ment as we consider the Lawe of it selfe without Christ. Coloss.2.11. o In the inward man and heart.

CHAP. III.

1 Hauing graunted some prerogatiue to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promes. 10 He prooueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes and Gentiles to be sinners, 21. 24 And to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by workes, 31 And so the Lawe to be established.

What is then the preferment of the Iewe? or what is the profite of circumcision?

‖ Or, wordes. Isa.46.13. chap.9.6. 2.tim.2.13.

2 Much euery maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the ‖ oracles of God.

‖ Or, promise. Iohn 3.33. Psal.116.11. Psal.51.4.

3 For what, though some did not beleeue? shall their * vnbeliefe make the ‖ faith of God without effect?

a That thou maiest be declared iust, and thy goodnes and trueth in performing thy promises may appeare, when man either of curiositie or arrogancie woulde iudge thy workes.

4 God forbid: yea, let God be * true, and * euery man a liar, as it is written, * That thou mightest be a iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome, when thou art iudged.

5 Now if b our vnrighteousnes commende the righteousnes of God, what shall wee say? Is God vnrighteous which punisheth? (I speake c as a man)

b He sheweth how the wicked do reason against God.

6 God forbid: els howe shall God iudge the world?

c Whose carnall wisdome will not obey the wil of God.

7 For if the veritie of God hath more aboūded through my lie vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that we say) Why doe we not euill, that good may come [thereof?] whose damnation is iust.

d Least the Iewes should be puffed vp in that he preferred them to the Gentiles, he sheweth that this their preferment standeth onely in the mercie of God, for asmuch as both Iew and Gentile, through sinne are subiect to Gods wrath, that they might both be made equal in Christ.

9 What then? d are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are * vnder sinne, Galat.3.22. Psal.14.1,3. and 53.1,3. Psal.5.9. Psal.140.3.

10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of the way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 * Their throte is an open sepulchre: they haue vsed their tongues to deceite: * the poyson of aspes [is] vnder their lips.

14 * Whose

Psal.10.7.

14 *Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitternesse.

Isa.59.7. prou.1,16.

15 *Their feete are swift to shead blood.

16 Destruction and calamitie [are] in their wayes, e A peaceable and innocent life. Psal.36.1.

17 And the e way of peace they haue not knowen.

18 *The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Nowe we know that whatsoeuer the f Law saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Lawe, that euery mouth may be stopped, and all the worlde be g culpable before God.

f That is, the olde testament.

g The Lawe doth not make vs guiltie, but doeth declare that we are guiltie before God, & deserue condemnation. Galat.2.16.

20 *Therefore by the workes of the h Lawe shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Lawe [commeth] the knowledge of sinne.

h He meaneth the Law, either written or vnwritten which commandeth or forbiddeth any thing, whose workes cannot iustifie because we cannot performe them. Chap.1.17.

21 But nowe is the *righteousnes of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witnesse of the Lawe and of the Prophets, 22 [To wit,] the righteousnes of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleeue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are i depriued of the glorie of God, i The worde signifieth them which are left behinde in the race and are not able to run to the marke, that is to euerlasting life, which here is called the glorie of God.

24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,

25 Whom God hath set forth [to be] a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his k righteousnes, by the forgiuenesse of the sinnes that are passed through the patience of God, k Or fidelitie in performing his promes.

26 To shewe at this time his righteousnesse, that hee might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Lawe? of workes? Nay: but by the l Lawe of faith.

l The Lawe of faith is the Gospel which offereth saluation with condition (if thou believest) which condition also Christ freely giueth to vs. So the condition of the Lawe is (if thou doest all these things) the which only Christ hath fulfilled for vs.

28 Therefore we cõclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Lawe.

29 [God,] is he the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision m of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

m Meaning that they are all iustified by one meanes, and if they will haue any difference, it onely standeth in wordes: for in effect there is none.

31 Doe we then make the Lawe of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea n We establish the Lawe.

n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Lawe: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Lawe: so that the Lawe which coulde not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is nowe made effectuall to vs by Christ Iesus.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 He declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by them themselues, of whom the Iewes most boasted, as of Abraham and of Dauid, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

What shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found a concerning the flesh?

a That is, by workes.

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath wherein to b reioyce, but not with God.

b He might pretend some merite or worke worthie to be recompensed. Gen.15.6. galat.3.6. iames 2.23.

3 For what saith the Scripture? *Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted to him for righteousnes.

4 Nowe to him that c worketh, the wages is not coũted by fauor, but by det, c Meriteth by his workes.

5 But to him that d worketh not, but beleeueth in him that e iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

d That dependeth not on his workes, neither thinketh to merite by them.

6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednes of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnes without workes, [saying,] e Which maketh him that is wicked in himselfe, iust in Christ.

7 *Blessed [are] they, whose iniquities are forgiuen, & whose sinnes are couered. Psal.32.1.

8 Blessed [is] the man, to whome the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 [Came] this blessednes then vpon the f circumcision [onely,] or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousnes.

f Under this excellent sacrament, he comprehendeth the whole Lawe.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

Gen.17.11.

11 *After he receiued the signe of circumcision, [as] the seale of the righteousnes of the faith which he had, when hee was vncircumcised, that hee should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, that righteousnesse might be imputed to them also,

g This may not be vnderstand of the fruits of faith: (for thereof the Apostle doth hereafter expressly intreate) but of the faith it selfe.

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them only which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the g steppes of the faith of our father Abraham, [which he had] when he was vncircumcised.

h In fulfilling the workes thereof.

i And thinke to performe the same by workes.

13 For the promes that hee should be the heire of the world, was not [giuen] to Abraham, or to his seede, through the h Lawe, but through the righteousnes of faith.

k If it be requisite to fulfill the Lawe for him that shalbe of Abrahams inheritance, then it is in vaine to beleeue the promise: for it serueth to no vse.

14 For if they which i are of the Law, [be] k heires, faith is made voyde, and the promes is made of none effect.

15 For the Lawe causeth l wrath: for where no Lawe is, there [is] no m transgression.

l Through our default, and not of it selfe.

m That is, no breach of commandement.

16 Therefore [it is] by faith, that [it might come] by grace, and the promes might be sure to [n] all the seed, not to that onely which is of the Lawe: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is writtē, *I haue made thee a father of many nations) [euen] [o] before God whome hee beleeued, who quickeneth the [p] dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

18 Which [Abraham] aboue hope, beleeued vnder hope, that he should be the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken [to him,] * So shall thy seede be.

19 And hee [q] not weake in the faith, considered not his owne bodie, which was nowe dead, being almost an hundreth yere olde, neither [r] the deadnes of Saras wombe.

20 Neither did hee doute of the promes of God through vnbeliefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue [s] glorie to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to do it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnes.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousnes, 24 But also [t] for vs, to whome it shall be imputed [for righteousnesse,] which beleeue in him that rayled vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.

25 Who was deliuered [to death] for our sinnes, and [u] is risen againe for our iustification.

n Which beleeue.

Gen.17.4.

o By a spirituall kinred which God chiefely accepteth.

p Abraham begate the circumcised, euen by the vertue of faith, and not by ỹ power of nature which was extinguished: so the Gentiles which were nothing, are called by the power of God to be of the number of the faithfull.

Gen.15.5.

q But most strong and constant.

r In that she was past childe bearing.

s For his mercie and trueth.

t For our instruction: for we shalbe iustified by the same meanes.

u To accomplish and make perfect our iustification.

CHAP. V.

1 He declareth the fruite of faith, 7 And by comparison setteth foorth the loue of God and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and ground of the same.

a By peace here is ment that incredible and most constant ioy of minde, when we are deliuered from all terrour of conscience, and fully perswaded of the fauour of God: and this peace is the fruite of faith.

Ephe.2.18.

James 1.3.

b For it hath euer good successe.

c He meaneth that loue wherewith God loueth vs.

THen being iustifyed by faith, we haue [a] peace toward God through our Lorde Iesus Christ.

2 * By whome also we haue accesse through faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glorie of God.

3 Neither [do we so] only, but also we * reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not [b] ashamed, because the [c] loue of God is shed abroade in our heartes by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ when we were yet of no strength, at [his] time, dyed for the * vngodly.

7 Doutlesse one will scarce die for a [d] righteous man: but yet for a [e] good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if When we were [f] enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, we shalbe saued by his life.

11 And not onely [so,] but we also reioyce in God through our Lorde Iesus Christ, by whom we haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men: forasmuch as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the [g] time of the Lawe was sinne in the worlde, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Lawe.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, euen ouer them also that sinned not [h] after the like maner of the trāsgression of [i] Adam, which was the figure of [k] him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neyther is the gift [so,] as [that which entred in] by one that sinned: for the faulte [came] of one [offence] vnto condemnation: but the gift [is] [l] of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by [ỹ] offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receiue the abundāce of grace, and of the gift of [m] righteousnesse, reigne in life through one, [that is,] Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then as by the offence of one, [the fault came] on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, [the benefit abounded] toward [n] all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Moreouer the [o] Law entred thereupon that the offence should [p] abound: neuerthe-

Hebr.9.15.
1.peter 3.18.

d By this comparison he amplifyeth the death of Christ.

e That is, for such one of whom he hath receiued good.

f Because of sinne: yet friends by the grace of Christ.

g From Adam to Moses.

h He meaneth yong babes, which neither had the knowledge of the Law of nature, nor any motion of concupiscence, much lesse committed any actuall sinne: and this may also comprehend the Gentiles.

i Yet all mankinde, as it were, sinned whē they were as yet inclosed in Adams loynes.

k Which was Christ.

l For by Christ we are not onely deliuered from ỹ sinnes of Adam, but also from all such as we haue added thereunto.

m The iustice of Iesus Christ which is imputed to the faithfull.

n Which beleeue to be saued in Iesus Christ.

o The Lawe of Moses.

p That it might be more manifestly knowen and set before all mens eyes.

neuertheleſſe, where ſinne abounded, [there] grace abounded much more:

21 That as ſinne had reigned vnto death, ſo might grace alſo reigne by righteouſnes vnto eternall life, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Becauſe no man ſhoulde glory in the fleſh, but rather ſeeke to ſubdue it to the Spirit, 3 He ſheweth by the vertue and end of Baptiſme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iuſtification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of ſinne and righteouſnes.

What ſhall we ſay then? ſhall we continue ſtill in ſinne, that grace may abounde? God forbid.

2 Howe ſhall we, that are [a] dead to ſinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that * all wee which haue bene baptized into [b] Jeſus Chriſt, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 * We are buried then with him by baptiſme into his death, that like as Chriſt was rayſed vp from the dead by the glorie of [y] Father, ſo we alſo ſhould *walke in newnes of life.

5 *For if we be [c] grafted with him [d] to the ſimilitude of his death, euen ſo ſhall wee be [to the ſimilitude] of his reſurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the [e] body of ſinne might be deſtroyed, that henceforth we ſhould not ſerue ſinne.

7 For he that is dead, is [f] freed from ſinne.

8 wherefore, if wee be dead with Chriſt, we beleeue that we ſhall liue alſo with him,

9 Knowing that Chriſt being rayſed from [y] dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died once [g] to ſinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to [h] God.

11 Likewiſe thinke ye alſo, that ye are [i] dead to ſinne, but are aliue [k] to God in Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

12 Let not ſinne reigne therefore in your mortall bodie, that ye ſhould obey it in the [l] luſtes thereof.

13 Neither giue ye your members [as] ‖weapōs of vnrighteouſnes vnto ſinne: but giue your ſelues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and [giue] your members [as] weapons of righteouſnes vnto God.

14 For ſinne ſhall not haue dominion ouer you: for ye are not vnder [y] [m] Law, but vnder [n] grace.

15 What then? ſhall we ſinne, becauſe we are not vnder the Lawe, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 *Know ye not, that to whom ſo euer ye giue your ſelues as ſeruants to obey, his ſeruants ye are to whom ye obey, whether it be of ſinne vnto death, or of [o] obedience vnto righteouſnes?

17 But God [be] thanked, that ye haue bene the ſeruants of ſinne, but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were [p] deliuered.

18 Being then made [q] free from ſinne, ye are made the ſeruants of righteouſneſſe.

19 I ſpeake [r] after the maner of man, becauſe of the infirmitie of your fleſh: for as ye haue giuen your members ſeruāts to vncleanneſſe and to iniquitie, to [commit] iniquitie, ſo nowe giue your members ſeruants vnto righteouſneſſe in holineſſe.

20 For when ye were the ſeruants of ſinne, ye were freed from righteouſnes.

21 What fruite had ye then in thoſe things, whereof ye are nowe aſhamed? For the [ſ] ende of thoſe things [is] death.

22 But nowe being freed from ſinne, and made ſeruants vnto God, ye haue your fruite in holineſſe, & the ende, euerlaſting life.

23 For the [t] wages of ſinne is death: but [y] gift of God [is] eternal life through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1.7.12 The vſe of the lawe, 6, 24 And howe Chriſt hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmitie of the faithfull. 23 The dangerous fight betweene the fleſh and the Spirit.

Know ye not, brethren, (for I ſpeake to them that know the Lawe) that the [a] Lawe hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 *For the [b] woman which is in ſubiection to a man, is bound by the Lawe to the man, while he liueth: but if the man be dead, ſhee is deliuered from the law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, ſhe take another man, ſhe ſhalbe called an *adultereſſe: but if the man be dead, ſhe is free from the Lawe, ſo that ſhee is not a He vyeth to ſinne in whom the ſtrength of ſinne is broken by the vertue of Chriſt, and ſo now liueth to God. Gal.3.27.

b Which is, that growing together with him, we might receiue vertue to kill ſinne, and raiſe vp our new man. Col.2.12. Eph.4.23,24. col.3.8. heb.12.1. 1.pet.2.1. 1.Cor.6.14. 2.tim.2.11.

c The Greeke worde meaneth, that we growe vp together with Chriſt, as we ſee moſſe, iuie, miſſletowe, or ſuch like growe vp by a tree & are nouriſhed with the iuyce thereof.

d If we by his vertue dye to ſinne.

e The fleſh wherein ſinne ſticketh faſt.

f Becauſe that being dead we cannot ſinne.

g That hee might deſtroy ſinne in our fleſh.

h And ſitteth at the right hand of the Father.

i We may gather that we are dead to ſin, when ſinne beginneth to die in vs: which is by the participation of Chriſtes death, by whom alſo being quickened, we liue to God, that is, to righteouſneſſe.

k In that ye are led with the ſpirit of God.

l The minde firſt miniſtreth euill motions, whereby mans will is entiſed: thence burſt foorth the luſtes, by them the body is prouoked, and the body by his actions doth ſolicit the minde: therefore he cōmandeth at [y] leaſt [y] we rule our bodies. ‖Or, inſtruments or armour.

m Which is the declaration of ſinne.

n Indued with the ſpirit of Chriſt. Iohn 8.34. 2.pet.2.19.

o Shewing that none can be iuſt, which doeth not obey God.

p To cōforme your ſelues vnto it.

q It is a moſt vile thing for him that is deliuered from the ſlauery of ſinne, to returne againe to the ſame.

r Leauing to ſpeake of heauenly things, according to your capacitie, I vſe theſe ſimilitudes of ſeruitude and freedome, that ye might the better vnderſtande.

ſ Or, the reward and recompence.

t Sinne is cōpared to a tyrant which reigneth by force, who giueth death as an allowance to them [y] were preferred by the lawe.

a Meaning, the morall lawe. 1.Cor.7.39.

b Both in this firſt mariage and in the ſecond, the huſband and the wife muſt be cōſidered within our ſelues: the firſt huſband was ſin, and our fleſh was the wife: their children were [y] fruites of the fleſh, Gal.5.19. In the ſecond mariage the ſpirit is the huſband the newe creature is the wife and their children are the fruites of the Spirite, Gal.5.22. Mat.5.32.

not an adultresse, though shee take an other man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the lawe by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto an other, [euē] vnto [c] him that is rayled vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruite vnto God.

5 For when we were [d] in the flesh, the ‖ motions of sinnes, which were by the Lawe, had force in our members, to bring foorth fruite vnto death.

6 But nowe we are deliuered from the Law, being dead [e] vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we shoulde serue in newnesse of Spirit, and not in [f] oldenes of the letter.

7 [f] What shall we say then? [Is] the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the Lawe: for I had not knowen [g] lust, except the Lawe had sayd, * Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in me all maner of concupiscence: for without the Lawe sinne [is] dead.

9 For I once [h] was aliue, without the Lawe: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued,

10 But I died: and the same commandement which was [ordeyned] vnto life, was found [to be] vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceyued me, & thereby slewe [me.]

12 Wherefore the Law [is] * holy, and the commandement [is] holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might [i] appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14 For we know that the Lawe [k] is spirituall, but I am carnall, solde vnder sinne.

15 For I alow not that which I doe: for what I [l] would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I do then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, [ý] [it is] good.

17 Now then, it is no more I that do [m] it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me, that is, in my ‖ flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I finde no meanes to perfourme that which is good.

19 For I do not the good thing, which I would, [n] but the euil, which I would not, that do I.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by [ý] Law, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delite in the Lawe of God, concerning the [o] inner man:

23 But I see another ‖ lawe in my [p] members, rebelling against the law of my minde, and leading me captiue vnto the lawe of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer me from the [q] body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I my selfe in my [r] minde serue the Law of God, but in my [s] flesh the law of sinne.

c Which is the spirit or the seconde husband.
d When we were destitute of the spirite of God.
‖ Or, affections.
e Meaning to sinne, our first husband.
f There is nothing more enemie to sinne, then the Lawe: if so be therefore that sinne rage more by reason thereof then before, why shoulde it be imputed to the Law which discloseth the sleights of sinne her enemie?
g Which is an inwarde vice not openly knowen. Exod. 20. 17. deut. 5. 21.
h He thought himselfe to be aliue, when he knew not the Lawe. 1. Tim. 1. 8.
i Sinne being disclosed by the lawe, is so much more detestable, because it turneth the goodnes of the lawe to our destruction.
k So that it can iudge the affections of the heart.
l He is not able to doe that which he desireth to do, and therefore is farre from the true perfection.
m He doeth not excuse himselfe, but sheweth that he is not able to accomplish that good desire, which is in him.
‖ Or, in my nature.
n The flesh stayeth euen the most perfect, to runne forward as the spirit wisheth.
o That is, in my spirit.
‖ Or, commandement.
p Euen the corruption which yet remaineth.
q This fleshly lumpe of sinne and death.
r In that part which is regenerate.
s Which is the part corrupted.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The assurance of the faythfull, and of the fruites of the holy Ghost in them, 3 The weakenes of the Lawe, and who accomplished it, 4 And wherefore, 5 Of what sort the faithfull ought to be, 6 The fruite of the Spirit in them. 17 Of hope, 18 Of pacience vnder the crosse, 28 Of the mutuall loue betwixt God and his children, 29 Of his foreknowledge.

NOwe then there [is] no [a] condemnation to them [ý] are in Christ Iesus, which walke not [b] after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the [c] Law of the Spirit of life [which is] in [d] Christ Iesus, hath freed me from the law of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the lawe, in as much as it was ‖ weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the [e] similitude of sinful flesh, and ‖ for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the [f] righteousnes of the law might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, sauour the [g] things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisedome of the flesh [is] death: but the wisedome of the Spirit [is] life and peace,

7 Because the wisedome of the flesh [is] enimitie against God: for it is not subiect to the Lawe of God, neither in deede can be.

a Though sinne be in vs, yet it is not imputed vnto vs though Christ Iesus.
b He annexeth the condition, least we should abuse the libertie.
c The power and autoritie of the Spirit, that is, the grace of regeneration.
d Whose sanctification is made ours.
‖ Or, of no strength.
e Christ did take flesh, which of nature was subiect to sinne, which notwithstanding hee sanctified euen in the very instant of his conception, and so did appropriate it vnto him, that he might destroy sinne in it, 2. Cor. 5. 21.
‖ Or, by sinne. f That which ý law requireth. g The word cõprehendeth al that which is most excellent in man, as will, vnderstanding, reason, wit, &c.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Nolbe ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, ‖ because the Spirit of God dWelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the ‖ bodie is dead, because of sinne: but the [h] Spirit [is] life for righteousnes sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Jesus from the dead, dWell in you, he that rayled vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodyes, because that his Spirit dWelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, We are detters not to the flesh, to liue after the [i] flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirite of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receyued the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receyued the Spirit of [k] adoption, whereby We crie *Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit [l] beareth Witnes With our spirit, that We are the children of God.

17 If [we be] children, [we are] also [m] heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed With Christ, if so be that We suffer With him, that We may also be glorified With him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time [are] not ‖ Worthie of the glory, Which shalbe shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature wayteth When the sonnes of God shalbe reuelled,

20 Because the [n] creature is subiect to [o] vanitie, not of it owne Will, but by reason of him, Which hath subdued it vnder hope, 21 Because the creature also shalbe deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For We know that euery [p] creature groneth With vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely [the creature,] but We also Which haue the [q] first fruites of the Spirit, euē We do sigh in our selues, wayting for the adoption, [euen] the *redemption of our [r] body.

24 For wee are saued by hope: but [f] hope that is seene, is not hope: for howe can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if We hope for that We see not, We do With patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for We know not what to pray as We ought: but the spirit it selfe maketh request for vs With sighs, which can not be expressed.

27 But he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth What is the meaning of the Spirit: for he [t] maketh request for the Saintes, according to [the Will of] God.

28 Also We know [ẏ] all things worke together for [ẏ] best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of [his] purpose.

29 For those Which he [u] knew before, he also predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer Whom he predestinate, them also he called, and Whom he called, them also he iustified, and Whom he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall wee then say to these things? If God be on our side, who [can be] against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all [to death,] howe shall he not With him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to [ẏ] charge of Gods chosen? [it is] God that *[x] iustifieth, 34 Who shall condemne? [it is] Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, Which is risen againe, Who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of [y] Christ? shall tribulation or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is Written, * For thy sake are We [z] killed all day long: We are counted as sheepe for the slaughter.

37 Neuertheles, in all these things We are more then cōquerours through him that loued vs.

38 For I am perswaded that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor [a] principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shalbe able to separate vs from [ẏ] [b] loue of God, Which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

‖ Or, if so be.
‖ Or, flesh.
h The spirit of regeneratiō, which aboliſheth sinne in our flesh, not al at once, but by degrees: wherfore we must in ẏ meane time call to God through patience.
i But to liue after the spirit.
k So he nameth the holy Ghost of the effect, which he causeth in vs, when he proposeth vs saluation by the lawe with an impossible condition, who also doth seale our saluation in our hearts by Christes free adoption, that we consider not God now as a rigorous Lord, but as a most mercifull Father. Gala. 4. 5, 6.
l So that we haue two witnesses, Gods Spirit & ours, who is certified by the Spirit of God.
m Freely made partakers of the fathers treasures.
‖ Or, of like value.
n The creatures shall not be restored before that Gods children be brought to their perfection: in the meane season they waite.
o That is, to destruction, because of mans sinne.
p He meaneth not the Angels, neither deuils, nor men.
q And yet are farre from the perfection. Luke 21. 28.
r Which shalbe in the resurrection, when we shalbe made conformable to our head Christ.
f By hope is meant that thing which we hope for.
t In that hee stirreth their hearts to pray, and sheweth both whom to aske, and how.
u He sheweth by the order of our election that afflictions are meanes to make vs like the sonne of God.
Isa. 50. 8.
x Who pronounceth his iust, in his Sonne Christ.
y Wherewith he loued vs, or God in Christ: which loue is grounded vpon his determinate purpose, & Christ is the pledge thereof.
Psal. 44. 22.
z Which is to signifie the condition of Christes Church.
a Paul setteth foorth by these wordes the wonderfull nature of the spirites, as well the good, Eph. 1, 21. Col. 1. 16. as the euill spirites, Eph. 6. 12. Col. 2. 15.
b That is, wherewith God loueth vs in his Sonne Christ Jesus.

CHAP.

CHAP. IX.

1 Hauing testified his great loue towardes his nation, and the signes thereof, 11 He intreateth of the election and reprobation, 24 Of the vocation of the Gentiles, 30 And reiection of the Iewes.

I Say the trueth [a] in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing me witnes in the holy Ghost,
2 That I haue great heauinesse, and continuall sorowe in mine heart.
3 For I would wish my selfe to be [b] separated from Christ, for my brethren that are my kinsmen according to the flesh,
4 Which are [ẏ] Israelites, to whom [perteyneth] the adoption, and the [c] glorie, and the [d] *Couenants, and the giuing of the Lawe, and the seruice [of God,] and the promises.
5 Of whom [are] the fathers, and of whom concerning [ẏ] flesh, Christ [came,] who is [c] God ouer all blessed for euer, Amen.
6 *Notwithstanding it cannot be that the worde of God should ‡ take none effect: for all they are not [f] Israel, which are of Israel:
7 Neither [are they] all children, because they are the seede of Abraham: *but, In [g] Isaac shal thy seede be called:
8 That is, they which are the children of the [h] flesh, are not the children of God: but the * children of the promes are counted for the seede.
9 For this is a word of promes, * In this same time will I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.
10 Neither [he] onely [felt this,] but also *Rebecca when she had conceiued by one, [euen] by our father Isaac.
11 For yet [the children] were borne, and when they had neither done good, nor euill (that the purpose of God might remaine according to election not by workes, but by him that calleth) 12 It was saide vnto her, *The elder shall serue the yonger.
13 As it is written, *I haue loued Iacob, and haue hated Esau.
14 What shall we say then? Is there vnrighteousnes with God? God forbid.
15 For hee sayth to Moses, * I [i] will haue mercie on him, to whom I will shewe mercie: and will haue compassion on him, on whom I will haue compassion.
16 So then [it is] not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercie.
17 For the [k] Scripture sayeth vnto Pharao, * For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shewe my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared throughout all the earth.
18 Therefore he hath mercie on whō he will, & whom he will, he hardeneth.
19 Thou wilt say then vnto me, why doeth hee yet complaine? for who hath resisted his will?
20 But, O man, who art thou which ‖pleadest against God? shall the * thing formed say to him that formed it, why hast thou made me thus?
21 Hath not the potter power of the clay to make of the same lumpe one vessell to ‖honour, and another vnto dishonour?
22 [What] and if God would, to shew his wrath, & to make his power knowen, suffer with long patience the vessels of wrath, prepared to destruction?
23 And that he might declare [ẏ] riches of his glory vpon the vessels of mercie, which he hath prepared vnto glory?
24 Euen vs, whom hee hath called, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles, 25 As he sayth also in Osee, * I will call them, My people, which were not my people: and her, Beloued, which was not beloued.
26 And it shalbe in the place where it was sayde vnto them, * Ye are not my people, that there they shalbe called, The children of the liuing God.
27 Also Esaias cryeth concerning Israel, * Though the nomber of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, [yet] shall [but] a remnant be saued.
28 [l] For he will make his account, and gather it into a short summe with righteousnesse: for the Lorde will make a short count in the earth.
29 *And as Esaias said before, Except the Lorde of hostes had left vs a seede, we had bene made as [m] Sodom, and had bene like to Gomorrha.
30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousnesse, haue attained vnto righteousnesse, euen the righteousnesse which is of fayth.
31 But Israel which followed the Lawe of righteousnesse, coulde not attaine vnto the Lawe of righteousnesse.
32 Wherefore? Because [they sought it] not by faith, but as [it were] by [ẏ] workes of a As becommeth him that reuerenceth Christ, or whose tongue Christ ruleth, and so taketh Christ for his witnes.

b He would redeeme the reiection of the Iewes with his owne damnation, which declareth his zeale towards Gods glorie, reade Exod. 32.32.
c The Arke of the couenant, because it was a signe of Gods presence, was called Gods glory, 1. Sā. 4.21. Psalm. 26.8.
d The two tables of the couenant, Deut. 11.9. Chap. 2.17. ephes. 2.12.
e Christ is very God. Chap. 2.28.
‡ Greeke, fall away.
f That is, of Iacob whose name was also Israel. Gen. 21.12. hebr. 11.18.
g The Israelites must not be esteemed by their kinred, but by the secret election of God, which is aboue the externall vocatiō.
h As Ismael. Galat. 4.28. Gene. 18.10. Gen. 25.21. Gen. 25.23. Mal. 1.2,3. Exod. 33.19.
i As the onely will and purpose of God is the chiefe cause of election and reprobation: so his free mercie in Christ is an inferiour cause of saluation, and the hardening of the heart, an inferiour cause of damnation.

k That is, God in the Scripture. Exod. 9.16.

‖Or, speakest against. Isa. 45.9. iere. 18.6. wisd. 15.7.

‖Or, vnto honest vses.

Hose. 2,23. 1. pet. 2.10.

Hose. 1.10.

Isa. 10.21,22.

l God will make such waste of that people, that the fewe which shall remaine, shal be a worke of his iustice, and shall set forth his glory in his Church. Isa. 1.9.
m That is, vtterly lost.

of the Lawe: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone, 33 As it is written, *Beholde, I lay in Sion a[n] stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euery one that beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

Isa,8,14.& 28. 16,1.pet,2,6. psal.118,22.

n Iesus Christ is to the infidels destruction, and to the faithfull life & resurrection.

CHAP. X.

1 After that he had declared his zeale towards them, 3 He sheweth the cause of the ruine of the Iewes. 4 The ende of the Law. 5 The difference betweene the iustice of the Law, and of fayth. 17 Whereof fayth commeth, and to whom it belongeth. 19 The reiection of the Iewes, and calling of the Gentiles.

BRethren, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them record, that they haue [a] the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of the righteousnes of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousnes, haue not submitted themselues to the righteousnes of God.

4 *For Christ [is] the [b] ende of the Lawe for righteousnes vnto euery one that beleeueth.

5 For Moses [thus] describeth [c] the righteousnes which is of the Lawe, *That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousnes which is of fayth, speaketh on this wise, [c]* Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Or, Who shall descende into the deepe? (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? *The worde is neere thee, [euen] in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the [d] worde of fayth which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lorde Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousnes, & with [c] the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saieth, *whosoeuer beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Grecian: for he that is Lorde ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 *For whosoeuer shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

a That is, a certain affection, but not a true knowledge. Galat,3.24.

b The ende of the lawe is to iustifie them which obserue it: therefore Christ hauing fulfilled it for vs, is made our iustice, sanctification, &c. Leui,18,5.eze. 20.11.gala. 3,12.

c Because we cannot perfourme the law, it maketh vs to dout, who shall goe to heauen, and to saye, Who shall goe downe to the deepe to deliuer vs thence? but faith teacheth vs that Christ is ascended vp to take vs with him, and hath descended into the depth of death to destroy death, and deliuer vs. Deut,30,12. Deut,30,14.

d That is, the promise & the Gospel which agreeth with the lawe.

e That is, the way to be saued, is to beleeue with heart that we are saued onely by Christ, and to confesse the same before the world. Isa,28,16.

Ioel.2.32.act. 2.21.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleeued? and how shall they beleeue in him, of whom they haue not heard? and howe shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And howe shall they preach except they be sent? as it is written, *Howe beautifull are the ‖ feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias saith, *Lorde, who hath beleeued our [f] report.

17 Then faith [is] by hearing, & hearing [g] by the worde of God.

18 But I demaunde, Haue [h] they not heard? *No dout their [i] sound went out through all the earth, and their wordes into the ends of the [k] world.

19 But I demaund, Did not Israel know [God?] First Moses saith, *I wil prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not [my] nation, and by a foolish [nation] I wil anger you.

20 *And Esaias is bolde, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, *All the day long haue I stretched foorth mine hand vnto a ‖ disobedient, and gainesaying people.

Isa.52.7.naum. 1.15.

‖ Or, the comming.

Isa,53,1. iohn. 12.38.

f Meaning, the Gospel and the good tidings of saluation which they preached.

g That is, by Gods commandement, of whō they are sent ỳ preach the Gospel. It may be also taken for the very preaching it selfe.

h Both the Iewes and Gentiles. Psalm.19.4.

i The Hebrew word signifieth the line or proportion of the heauens, whose most excellent frame besides the rest of Gods creatures, preacheth vnto the whole world, and setteth forth the worthinesse of the Creator. k Then seeing all the world knew God by his creatures, the Iewes could not be ignorant, and so sinned of malice. Deut.32.21. Isa.65.1. Isa.65.2. ‖ Or, vnbeleeuing.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church although it be not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reueiled himselfe to the Gentiles. 18 Whome he warneth to humble themselues. 29 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

IDemaunde then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he [a] knewe before. Know ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, howe he maketh request vnto God [b] against Israel, saying,

3 *Lorde, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life?

4 But what saieth the answere of God to him? *I haue reserued vnto my selfe [c] seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is a And elected before all beginning.

b He talked with God, not that he should punish Israel, but yet lamented their falsehood and so his wordes made against them. 1.King.19.10. 1.King.19.18.

c Meaning an infinite number.

there a remnant through the ‖election of grace.

6 And if [it be] of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or els were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obteined that he sought: but the election hath obteined it, and the rest haue bene hardened,

8 According as it is written, *God hath giuen them the spirite of ‖slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, *Let their [d] table be made a snare, and a net, & a stumbling blocke, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and [e] bowe downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaund then, Haue they stumbled, that they [f] should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation [commeth] vnto the Gentiles, to [g] prouoke them to followe them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them [be] the riches of the worlde, and the diminishing of them the [h] riches of the Gentiles, howe much more shall their abundance [be?]

13 For [in that] I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, 14 [To trie] if by any meanes I might [i] prouoke them of my flesh to followe them, and might saue some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them [be] the reconciling of the world, what [shall] the receiuing [be,] but [k] life from the dead?

16 For if [l] the first fruites [be] holy, so [is] the whole lumpe: and if the [m] roote be holy, so [are] the branches.

17 And though some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde oliue tree, wast graft in ‖for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnes of the [n] oliue tree, 18 Boast not thy selfe against [o] the branches: and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graft in.

20 Well: through vnbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: be not hie minded, but [o] feare.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, [take heede,] lest he also spare not thee.

22 [p] Beholde therefore the bountifulnes, and seueritie of God: toward them which haue fallen, seueritie: but toward thee, bountifulnes, if thou continue in [his] bountifulnes: or els thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in vnbeliefe, shalbe graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the oliue tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast graffed contrarie to nature in a right oliue tree, howe much more shall they that are by nature, be graffed in their owne oliue tree?

25 For I would not brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this secret (least ye should be arrogant in your selues) that partly [q] obstinacie is come to Israel, vntill the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so [r] all Israel shall be saued, as it is written, *The deliuerer shall come out of Sion, and shall turne away the vngodlines from Jacob.

27 And this is my couenant to them, *when I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospel, [they are] enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloued for the fathers sakes.

29 For the [s] giftes and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For euen as ye in time past haue not beleeued God, yet haue nowe obteined mercie through their vnbeliefe, 31 Euen so nowe haue they not beleeued ‖by the mercie [shewed] vnto you, that they also may obteine mercie.

32 For God hath shut vp [t] all in vnbeliefe, that hee might haue mercie on all.

33 O the deepenes of the riches, both of the wisedome, & knowledge of God! how vnsearchable are his iudgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 *For [u] who hath knowen [y] minde of the Lorde? or who was his counseller?

35 Or who hath [x] giuen vnto him first, and he shalbe recompensed?

36 For of [y] him, and through him, and for him are all things: to him [be] glorie for euer. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and workes of such as beleeue in Christ. 19 Not to seeke reuengeance.

I beseech

‖Or, free election,

Isa. 6. 9. matth. 13. 14. ioh. 12. 40. act. 28. 26.

‖Or, pricking.

Psal. 69. 22.

d Christ by the mouth of the prophet wisheth that which came vpon the Iewes, that is, that as birdes are take where as they thinke to finde foode, so the lawe which the Iewes of a blind zeale preferred to the Gospel, thinking to haue saluation by it, should turne to their destruction.

e Take from them thy grace and strength.

f Without hope to be restored.

g The Iewes to followe the Gentiles.

h In that the Gentiles haue the knowledge of the Gospel.

i That they might be iealous ouer Christ against the Gentiles, and so to be more feruent in loue toward Christ then the Gentiles.

k The Iewes now remaine, as it were, in death for lacke of the Gospel: but when both they and the Gentiles shall imbrace Christ, the world shall be restored to a newe life.

l Abraham was not onely sanctified, but his seede also which neglected not the promise.

m Meaning Abraham.

‖Or, in them.

n That is, the Church of the Israelites.

o Be carefull: worship God, and trust in his promise.

p He speaketh of the Iewes and Gentiles in generall.

q Meaning stubbernesse and induration against Gods word.

r He sheweth that the time shall come that the whole nation of the Iewes, though not euery one particularly, shalbe ioyned to the Church of Christ. Isai. 59. 20. Isa. 27. 9. iere. 31. 33. 34. heb. 8. 8. & 10. 16. 17.

s To whome God giueth his spirit of adoption, & whome he calleth effectually, he can not perish: for Gods eternall counsell neuer chaungeth.

‖Or, that by your mercie.

t That is, both Iewes and Gentiles. Isa. 40. 13. wisd. 9. 13. 1. cor. 2. 16.

u He reproueth the rashnes of men which murmure against the iudgemẽts of God.

x That is, prouoked him by his good workes?

y All thinges are created and preserued of God to set forth his glory.

I Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your bodies a [a] liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, [which is] your [b] reasonable seruing of God.

2 And facion not your selues like vnto this worlde, but be ye changed by the renewing of your minde, that ye may *proue what is the [c] good will of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstande aboue that which is meete to vnderstand, but that he [d] vnderstand according to [e] sobrietie, as God hath dealt to euery man the *measure of fayth.

4 For as we haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

5 So we being many are one body in Christ, and euery one, one anothers members.

6 *Seeing then that we haue giftes that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, Whether [we haue] [f] prophesie, [let vs prophesie] according to the proportion of [g] faith:

7 Or an office, [let vs waite] on the office: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that [h] distributeth, [let him doe it] *with simplicitie: he that ruleth, With diligence: he that [i] sheweth mercie, with *chearefulnes.

9 [Let] loue [be] without dissimulation. *Abhorre that which is euill, and cleaue vnto that which is good.

10 *Be affectioned to loue one another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, go one before another,

11 Not slouthfull to doe seruice: fervent in spirit: seruing ‖ the Lord,

12 Reioycing in hope, patient in tribulation, *continuing in prayer, 13 *Distributing vnto the necessities of the Saints: *giuing your selues to hospitalitie.

14 *Blesse them which persecute you: blesse [I say,] and curse not.

15 Reioyce with them that reioyce, and weepe with them that weepe.

16 Be of like affection one towards another: be not hie minded: but make your selues equall to them of the lower sort: *be not wise in [k] your selues.

17 *Recompence to no man euill for euill: [l] procure things honest in the sight of all men.

18 *If it be possible, as much as in you is, haue peace with all men.

19 Dearely beloued, *auenge not your selues, but giue place vnto wrath: for it is written, *Vengeance is mine: I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 *Therefore, if thine enemie hunger, feede him: if hee thirst, giue him drinke: for in so doing, thou shalt heape [m] coales of fire on his head.

21 Be not ouercome of euill, but ouercome euill with goodnes.

him with thy benefite, or else his conscience shall beare him witnesse that Gods burning wrath hangeth ouer him.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The obedience to the rulers. 4 Why they haue the sworde. 8 Charitie ought to measure all our doings. 11 An exhortation to innocencie and puritie of life.

LEt *euery soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordeined of God.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to them selues [a] iudgement.

3 For Princes are not to be feared [for] good workes, but [for] euill. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue prayse of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou doe euill, feare: for he beareth not the sword for nought: for he is the minister of God ‡ to take vengeance on him that doeth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for [b] conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause ye pay also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying themselues for the same [c] thing.

7 *Giue to all men therefore their duetie: tribute, to whome [ye owe] tribute: custome, to whome custome: feare, to whome feare: honour, to whome [ye owe] honour.

8 Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the [d] Lawe.

9 For this, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnes, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandement, it a In steade of dead beastes, liuely sacrifice: in steade of the blood of beasts which was but a shadow, and pleased not God of it selfe, the acceptable sacrifice of the spirituall man, framed by faith to godlines, and charitie.

b That is, true, lawfull and spirituall, 1.Pet.2.5. Ephes.5.17. 1.thes.4.1,3.
c Whatsoeuer is not agreeable to Gods will, is euill, displeasant and vnperfect.
d Two things are required, if we will iudge soberly of Gods giftes in vs: the one, that we doe not arrogate to our selues that which we haue not: next, that we boast not of the gifts but reuerently vse them to Gods honour.
e That is, soberly, not neglecting Gods gifts, but vsing them to his glorie. 1.Cor.12.11. ephe.4.7. 1.Pet.4.10.
f By prophesying, here he meaneth, preaching and teaching, and by office or ministery, all such offices as appertaine to the Church, as Elders, Deacons, &c.
g By faith he meaneth the knowledge of God in Christ, with the giftes of the holy Ghost.
h Of these officers some are Deacõs, some gouernours, some keepe the poore. Mat.6.2.
i He meaneth them which were appointed to looke vnto the poore, as for the most part were ỹ widowes, Act.6.1. 1.tim.5.9. 2.Cor.9.7. Amos 5.15. Ephes.4.2. 1.pet.2.17. hebr.13.1. ‖ Or, the time. Luke 18.1. 1.Cor.16.1. Hebr.13.2. 1.pet.4.9. Matth.5.44.

Prou.3.7. isa. 5.21.
k That is, in your owne conceite. Prou.20.22. matth.5.39. 1.pet.3.9. 1.cor.6.7.
l Liue so honestly & godly that no man can finde fault with you. Heb.12.14.
Ecclus.28.1. mat.5.39. Deut.32.35. heb.10.30. Prou.25.21,22.
m For either thou shalt win

Wisd.6.3. tit. 3.1. 1.pet.2. 13,14.

a Not onely the punishment of the iudges, but also ỹ vengeance of God.

‡ Greeke, a reuenger with wrath.
b For no priuate man can contemne that gouernement which God hath appointed, without the breach of his conscience: and here hee speaketh of ciuill Magistrates: so that Antichrist and his can not wrest this place to establish their tyrannie ouer the conscience.
c That is, to defend ỹ good, and to punish the euill. Mat.22.21.
d He meaneth onely the second table. Exod.20.14. deut.5.18.

is briefly comprehended in this saying, [euen] in this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

Leuit.19.18. mat.22.39. gal.5.14.iam. 2.8.

10 Loue doeth not euill to his neighbour: therefore is loue the *fulfilling of the Lawe.

1.Tim.1.5.

11 And that, considering the season, that [it is] nowe time that we should arise from sleepe: for nowe is our saluation [e] neerer, then when we beleeued it.

e Before we beleeued, it had bene in vaine to tell vs these things: but nowe seeing our saluation is neere, let vs take heede that we neglect not this occasion.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand: let vs therefore cast away the workes of darkenesse, and let vs put on the [f] armour of light, f That is, honest maners and godly.

13 So that we walke honestly, as in the day: not in *‖gluttonie, and drunkennes, neither in chambering & wantonnes, nor in strife and enuying:

Luke 21.34. ‖Or, riote. Gal.5.16.

14 *But put ye on the Lorde Iesus Christ, and take no thought for the flesh, to [fulfill] the lustes of it.

1.pet.2.11.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The weake ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offende anothers conscience, 15 But one to support another in charitie and fayth.

a That is, the doctrine of the Gospel.

b Lest he should depart either more ignorant then he came, or els with a greater scrupule of conscience.

HIm that is weake in [a] faith, receiue vnto you, [but] not [b] for controuersies of disputations.

2 One beleeueth that he may eate of all things: & another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.

Iames 4.12.

4 *Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? he standeth or falleth to his owne [c] master: yea, he shall be established: for God is able to make him stand.

c It is the Lords matter and not thine.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue another day, and another man counteth euery day alike: let euery man be [d] fully perswaded in his minde.

d We must be assured in our conscience by Gods worde in all things that we doe: that if we be strong, we may knowe what is our libertie: & if we be weake, we may learne to profite dayly.

6 He that [e] obserueth the day, obserueth it to the [f] Lord: and he that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. He that eateth, eateth to ỹ Lorde: for he giueth God thankes: and he that [g] eateth not, [h] eateth not to the Lorde, and giueth God thankes.

e That counteth one day more holy then another.

f Who iudgeth whether he doe well or no.

g Because he thinketh the meats vnclean by the Lawe.

h Here we must note three things: first, that he speaketh of things which of themselues are indifferent, albeit in the law they were not: next, that he reproueth not ỹ condemning of the act, but of the persons: thirdly, that he meaneth not the stubburne & malicious, whom he calleth dogs & concision, but the weake & infirme, to whom as yet God had not reuealed ỹ perfect libertie.

7 For none of vs liueth [i] to himselfe, neither doeth any die to himselfe.

i Both our life & death ought to profit our brother.

8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether we die, we die vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or die, we are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore died and rose againe, & reuiued, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother? *for we shall all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ.

2.Cor.5.10.

11 For it is written, *[k] I liue, saith the Lord, & euery knee shal bowe to me, and all tongues shall [l] confesse vnto God.

Isa.45.23.phil. 2.10.

k This othe particularly apperteineth to God, who is the true life of himself, and giueth it to all others.

l And acknowledge me for their God.

12 So then euery one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse [your] iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before [his] brother.

14 [m] I knowe, and am perswaded through the Lorde Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him [it is] vncleane.

m He preuenteth the obiection which the Christians might vse.

15 But if thy brother be grieued for the meate, nowe walkest thou not charitablie: *destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ dyed.

2.Cor.8.11.

16 Cause not your [n] commoditie to be euill spoken of.

n Which is the benefite of Christian libertie, by abusing whereof ye cause the weaklings to blaspheme the Gospel, which might seeme to them contrary to Gods will, and ỹ doctrine of the lawe.

17 For the [o] kingdome of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousnes, and peace, and ioye in the holy Ghost.

o God will not reign ouer his by such obseruations.

18 For whosoeuer [p] in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

p In peace & righteousnes.

19 Let vs then followe those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: *all thinges in deede are pure: but [it is] euill for the man which eateth with offence.

Titus 1.15. 1.Cor.8.13.

21 *[It is] good neither to eate flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing, whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou [q] fayth? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is he that [r] condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

q Faith here is taken for a full persuasion of the Christian libertie in things indifferent as the Apostle interpreteth it in the 14. verse.

r Which hath none euill remorse of conscience in his doing.

23 For he that douteth, is condemned if he eate, because [he eateth] not of faith: and whatsoeuer is not of [s] faith, is sinne.

s Meaning, of a right conscience.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 And by the onely mercie of God which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 He sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 And requireth the same of them.

We

WE which are strong, ought to beare ỹ infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 [Therefore] let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to [a] edification.

3 For Christ also would not please him selfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell [b] on me.

4 For whatsoeuer things are written afore time, are written for our learning, that we through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures might haue hope.

5 Now the God of [c] patience and consolation giue you that ye be * like minded one towardes another, according to Christ Jesus,

6 That ye with one minde, [and] with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the [d] glorie of God.

8 Now I say, that Jesus Christ was a [e] minister of the circumcision, for the [f] trueth of God, to confirme the promises [made] vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for [his] mercie, as it is written, * For this cause I will confesse thee among ỹ Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe he saith, * Reioyce, ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laude ye him, all people together.

12 And againe Esaias saith, * There shalbe a roote of Jesse, and [g] hee that shall rise to reigne ouer [h] the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ioye, and peace in beleeuing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodnesse, [f] filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuertheless brethren, I haue somewhat boldely after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ towarde the Gentiles, ministring the Gospell of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might be acceptable [i] being sanctifyed by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Jesus in those things which [pertaine] to God.

18 For I dare not [k] speake of any thing, which Christ hath not wrought by me, [to make] the Gentiles obedient in word and deede, 19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Jerusalem, and rounde about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abounde the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preache the Gospell, not where Christ was named, least I shoulde haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see [him,] and they that heard not, shall vnderstand [him.] Isa.52.15.

22 Therefore also I haue bene * oft let to come vnto you. Chap.1.13. 1.thess.2.17, 18.

23 But nowe seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue * bene desirous many yeeres agone to come vnto you, Chap.1.10.

24 When I shall take my iourney into Spaine I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my iourney, and to be brought on my way thitherwarde by you, after that I haue bene somewhat filled with your [companie.]

25 But nowe go I to Jerusalem, to [l] minister vnto the Saintes.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 For it hath pleased them, and their detters are they: * for if the Gentiles be made partakers of their spirituall thinges, their duetie is also to minister vnto them in carnall things. 1.Cor.9.11.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue [m] sealed them this [n] fruite, I wil passe by you into Spaine.

29 * And I know when I come, that I shall come to you with [o] abundance of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

30 Also brethren I beseech you for our Lorde Jesus Christes sake, and for the loue of the spirit, that ye * would striue a To edifie, signifieth to do all maner duties to our neighbour, either to bring him to Christ, or if hee be wonne, that he may growe from faith to faith: for the faithfull are called the temple of God wherein he is resident by his holy spirit: and these faithfull are the stones of the newe Jerusalem: that is the vniuersal Church, Isa.54. Reuel. 21. of the which building Christ is the chiefe corner stone, Ephes.2.20. Psal.69.7,9.

b I did so beare them, as if they had bene done to me, and not to my Father.

c Which is the authour of patience. 1.Cor.1.10. phil.3.16. and 4.3.

d To make vs partakers of Gods glorie.

e First to gather ỹ Jewes, and then the Gentiles, that both might be made one flocke.

f That God might be knowen true. Psal.18.49. 2.sam.22.50. Deut.32.43. Psal.117.1. Isa.11.10.

g Which is Christ who did spring as a yong bud out of the drie and dead roote.

h Then seeing he tooke both the Jewes and Gentiles to his Fathers glorie, they ought by his example to loue together.

i The minister offereth vp the people to God by the Gospel.

k God gaue him such ample occasions to set forth his excellēt workes that hee had done by him, that the Apostle neede not to seeke any other thing to boast vpon.

l Which was to carie the almes.

m I shal faithfully leaue it with them, and as it were sealed most surely.

n Almes is the fruite of faith and charitie.

o His coming shall be profitable vnto them: for God wil giue him abundant knowledge of diuine mysteries, to communicate vnto them. 2.Corinth.1.11.

with me by prayers to God for me,

31 That I may be deliuered from them which are disobedient in Judea, and that my seruice which I haue to do at Jerusalem, may be [p] accepted of the Saintes, 32 That I may come vnto you with ioye by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Thus the * God of peace [be] with you all. Amen.

p He feared lest slanderous tongues would haue made his message either odious or lesse acceptable, Isa.9.6.

CHAP. XVI.

1 After many recommendations, 17 He admonisheth them to beware of false brethren and to be circumspect. 20 He prayeth for them, and giueth thankes to God.

I Commend vnto you Phebe our sister which is a seruant of the Church of Cenchrea,

2 That ye receiue her in the Lord, as it becommeth Saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoeuer busines she needeth of your ayde: for she hath giuen hospitalitie vnto many, and to me also.

Actes 18.2.

3 Greete * Priscilla and Aquila my fellowe helpers in Christ Jesus.

4 (which haue for my lyfe layed downe their owne necke. Vnto whome not I only giue thankes, but also all the Churches of the Gentiles.)

5 Likewise [greete] the Church that is in their house. Salute my beloued Epenetus, which is the [a] first fruites of ‖ Achaia in Christ.

a The first which was consecrated to the Lord by embracing the Gospel. ‖ Or, Asia.

6 Greet Marie which bestowed much labour on vs.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia my cousins and fellow prisoners, which are notable among the Apostles, and [b] were in Christ before me.

b They were grafted in Christ by faith afore I was called, & were well esteemed of the Apostles and of the Churches.

8 Greete Amplias my beloued in the Lorde.

9 Salute Urbanus our fellowe helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloued.

10 Salute Apelles approued in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus [friendes.]

11 Salute Herodion my kinseman. Greete them which are of the [friendes] of Narcissus which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, which [women] labour in the Lord. Salute the beloued Persis, which [woman] hath laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Greete Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Mercurius, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus and Julias, Nereas, and his sister, & Olympas, and all the Saintes which are with them.

16 Salute one another with an * holy [c] kisse. The Churches of Christ salute you.

1.Cor.16.20. 2.cor.13.12. 1.peter 5.14.

c This was a signe of amitie among the Jewes, which he willeth to be holy, that is, that it come from a minde full of godly charitie. 2.Iohn 10.

17 ¶ Nowe I beseeche you brethren, marke them diligently which cause diuision and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye haue learned, and * auoide them.

18 For they that are such, serue not the Lord Jesus Christ, but their owne [d] bellies, and with [e] faire speach and flattering deceiue the heartes of the simple.

d These be markes, to know the false apostles by.

19 For your obedience is come abroad among all: I am glad therefore of you: but yet I would haue you wise, vnto that which is good, and simple concerning euill.

e The word signifyeth him that promiseth much and performeth nothing, who seemeth also to speake for thy profite, but doeth nothing lesse.

20 The God of peace shall treade Satan vnder your feete shortly. The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ [bee] with you.

21 * Timotheus my companion, and Lucius and Jason, and Sosipater my kinseman, salute you.

Actes 16.1. philip.2.19.

22 I Tertius, which wrote out this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 * Gaius mine hoste, and of the whole Church saluteth you. Erastus the ‖ chamberlaine of [f] the citie saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

1.Cor.1.14.

‖ Or, receiuer. f Corinthus.

24 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ [be] with you all. Amen.

25 * To him nowe that is of power to establish you according to my Gospel, and preaching of Jesus Christ, * by the reuelation [g] of the mysterie, which was kept secret since the world began:

Ephe.3.20. Ephes.3.9. colos.1.26. 2.tim.1.9. titus 1.2. 1.peter 1.20.

26 (But nowe is opened, and published among all nations by the Scriptures of the Prophets, at the commandement of the euerlasting God for the obedience of faith)

g Both as touching the doctrine of the Gospel, and also the calling of the Gentiles.

27 To God, [I say,] onely wise, be prayse through Jesus Christ for euer. Amen.

Written to the Romanes from Corinthus [and sent] by Phebe, seruant of the Church, which is at Cenchrea.

The

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

The Argvment.

After that S.Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and an halfe, he was compelled by the wickednes of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glorie, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrectiō from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian religion. Against these euils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians heartes, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproueth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concorde and humilitie, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heauenly wisdome of the Gospell, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this saluation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein S. Paul behaued himselfe skilfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the ende proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which douted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit hee had declared by manifest signes that hee neuer sought his owne glorie, neither yet howe he might liue, but onely the glorie of Christ: which thing at his comming hee woulde declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought themselues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreprooued and vnpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, hee answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of mariage, of discorde and dissension among the married, of virginitie, and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, he warneth them to haue respect to their weake brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing rather then hee would doe, hee woulde neuer vse that libertie which God had giuen him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfe will was the cause of those great euils, hee admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glorie in these outwarde giftes, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to followe Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lordes supper, the abuse of the spirituall giftes, which God hath giuen to maintaine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

2 Hee praiseth the great graces of God shewed towarde them, 10 Exhorting them to concorde and humilitie. 19 Hee beateth downe all pride, and wisedome which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whome God hath chosen to confounde the wisedome of the worlde.

PAul called [to be] an Apostle of Iesus Christ, through the wil of God, and [our] brother Sosthenes,

2 Unto the Church of God which is at Corinthus, to them that are *[a] sanctified in Christ Iesus, *[b] Saintes by calling, * with all that [c] call on the Name of our Lorde Iesus Christ in euery place, both their [Lord,] and ours:

3 Grace [be] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Iesus Christ.

4 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe for the [d] grace of God, which is giuen you in Iesus Christ,

5 *That in all thinges ye are made riche [e] in him, in [f] all kinde of speach, and in all knowledge:

6 As the testimonie of Iesus Christ hath bene confirmed in you:

7 So that ye are not destitute of any gift: *waiting for the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ.

8 *Who shall also confirme you vnto the ende, that ye may be [g] blamelesse in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 *God is faithfull, by whome ye are called vnto the fellowship of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.

10 Nowe I beseech you, brethren, by the Name of our Lorde Iesus Christ, *that ye all [h] speake one thing, and that there be no dissensions among you: but be ye knit together in one minde, and in one iudgement.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you, by them that are of the house of [i] Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

Actes 15.9. 1.thess.4.7.
a Whome God hath separated from the rest of ỹ world, purified, and giuen to his Sonne, that he might be in them, and they in him. Rom.1.7. ephes.1.1. coloss.1.22. 2.tim.1.9. titus 2.3.
b Made holy by the free mercie and calling of God. 2.Tim.2.23.
c Which is to acknowledge him to be very God, to worship him, and seeke vnto him for helpe. d For all the benefites which ye haue receiued by the Gospel. Coloss.1.10. and 2.7.
e As members of the same body which communicate with their head.
f He commendeth those gifts in them, whose abuse after he doth reproue, as eloquence, philosophie, & their knowledge of Gods word. Phil.3.20. titus 2.13. 1.Thes.3.13. and 5.23.
g For there is no condemnation to them that are grafted in Christ Iesus. Psal.138.8. 1.thes.5.24. Rom.15.5. phil.3.16.
h Disagreeing in wordes ingendereth dissension of minde, whereof proceedeth repugnancie of iudgement, which is the mother of schisme and heresie.
i Which was a vertuous woman and zealous of gods glorie, and sought the quietnes of the Church.

12 Nowe this I say, that euery one of you saith, I am Pauls, and I am *Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christes.

13 Is Christ deuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were ye baptized [k] into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but *Crispus, and [l] Gaius, 15 Least any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the household of Stephanas: furthermore know I not, whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to [m] baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with *[n] wisdome of wordes, [o] lest the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnes: but vnto vs, which are saued, it is the *power of God.

19 For it is written, I *will destroy the wisedome of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the [p] Scribe? where is the [q] disputer of this worlde? hath not God made the wisedome of this world foolishnes?

21 For seeing the world by wisedome knew not God in the wisedome of God, it pleased God by the foolishnes of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a *signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisedome.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnes:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians [we preach] Christ, the power of [God,] and the wisedome of God.

25 For the [r] foolishnes of God is wiser then men, and the weakenes of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men [s] after the flesh, not many mightie, not many noble [are called.]

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the worlde to confounde the wise, and God hath chosen the weake things of the worlde, to confounde the mightie things.

28 And vile things of the worlde and things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things [t] which are not, to bring to nought things [u] that are,

29 That no [x] flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But ye are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs *wisdome and righteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 That, according as it is written, *Hee that reioyceth, [y] let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 He putteth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gospel. 8 Which Gospel was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And againe honourable and manifest to the spirituall.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with *excellencie of wordes, or of wisedome, shewing vnto you the ‖ [a] testimonie of God.

2 For I esteemed not to ‖ knowe any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 *And I was among you in [b] weakenes, and in feare, and in much trembling,

4 Neither [stoode] my word, and my preaching in the *entising speach of mans wisedome, but in plaine euidence of ‖ the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not be in the wisedome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisedome among them that are [c] perfect: not the wisdome of this worlde, neither of the [d] princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But we speake the wisdome of God in a mysterie, [euen] the hid [wisdome,] which God had determined before the world, vnto our glorie.

8 Which [e] none of the princes of this world hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the [f] Lord of glorie.

9 But as it is written, *The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither [g] came into mans heart, [are,] which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuealed [them] vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit [h] searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the spirit [i] of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but [ỹ] Spirit of God.

Acts 18.24.
k Reade the annotation, Acts 3.16. Acts 18.8.
l This Gaius was Pauls hoste, in whose house also the Church was at Corinthus, Rom.16.23. there was yet an other so called, which was of Derbe, and followed Paul Acts 20.4.
m That is, chiefly and peculiarly. Chap.2.13. galat.5.4. 2.peter 1.16.
n As Rhetoricke, or art oratorie. o When men should attribute that vnto eloquence, which only belonged to the power of God. Rom.1.16. Isa.29.14.
p That is, the interpreter of the Lawe.
q He that is so subtile in disclissing questions: and herein Paul reproueth euen the best learned, as though not one of them could perceiue by his owne wisedome this mysterie of Christ reuelled in the Gospel. Matth.12.38.
r He speaketh in the person of the wicked, who contrary to their conscience rather attribute these things to God then acknowledge their owne folly and weakenesse.
s According as the world termeth wise men.
t Which are in mans iudgement almost nothing, but taken for abiects and castawayes.
u Esteemed and in reputation.
x Thus he calleth man in contempt, and to beate downe his arrogancie. Iere.23.5,6. Iere.9.24. 2.cor.10.17.
y That is, attribute all things to God with thankesgiuing.

Chap.1.17.
‖ Or, mysterie.
a That is, the Gospel, whereby God doeth manifest himselfe to the world, or whereof God is the authour, and witnesse.
‖ Or, I thought nothing worthy to be knowne. Actes 18.1.
b Herein appeareth his great modestie who was not glorious but abiect and humble, not full of vaine boastings and arrogancie, but with feare and trembling set foorth the mightie power of God. Chap.1.17. 2.pet.1.16.
‖ Or, heauenly, or diuine.
c They whose vnderstandings are illuminate by faith, acknowledge this wisdome, which the world calleth follie.
d The word is here taken for them whome either for wisdome, riches or power, men most esteeme.
e That is, verie fewe.
f He calleth Iesus ỹ mightie God, full of true glorie and maiestie, whome Dauid also calleth the King of glorie, Psal.24.7. and Steuen nameth him the God of glorie, Actes 7.2. and hereby appeareth the diuinitie of Christ, and coniunction of two natures in one person. Isa. 64.4.
g Man is not able to thinke Gods prouidence toward his.
h For he is one God with the father and the Sonne.
i Mans minde, which vnderstandeth and iudgeth.

12 Nowe

12 Nowe we haue [k] receiued not the spirit of the worlde, but [ỹ] Spirit, which is of God, that wee might knowe the [l] things that are giuen to vs of God.

13 Which things also we speake, not in the * wordes which mans wisedome teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing [m] spirituall things with spirituall things.

14 But the [n] naturall man perceiueth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishnes vnto him: neither can he knowe [them,] because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is * spiritual, discerneth all things: yet he himselfe is [o] iudged of no man.

16 * For who hath knowen the minde of the Lord, that he might instruct him? but we haue the [p] minde of Christ.

k We are not moued with that spirit, which teacheth things wherewith the world is delited, and which men vnderstand by nature.
l All the benefites of God in Jesus Christ. Chap.1.17. 2.pet.1.16.
m As that which we teach is spirituall, so our kind of teaching must be spirituall, that the wordes may agree with ỹ matter.
n Whose knowledge and iudgement is not cleared by Gods Spirit. Prou.27.19.
o For the trueth of God is not subiect to the iudgement of man. Isa.40.13. wisd.9.13. rom.11.34.
p That is, Christes spirite, John 16.13. rom.8.9.

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the sectes and authours thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluation to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware erronious doctrines. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church. 16 The dignitie and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithfull.

AND I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, [euen] as vnto [a] babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, & not meate: for ye were not yet able [to beare it,] neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnall: for where as [there is] among you enuying, & strife, and diuisions, are yee not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one sayth, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whome ye beleeued, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watred, but God gaue the encrease.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth, any thing, neither he that watreth, but God that giueth the encrease.

8 And he that planteth, and hee that watreth, are [b] one, * and euery man shal receiue his wages, according to his labour 9 For we together are Gods [c] labourers: ye are Gods husbandry, [and] Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuē to me, as a skilfull master builder, I haue laide the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man [d] take heede how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is layde, which is Jesus Christ.

12 And if any man build on this foundation, golde, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, [or] stubble, 13 Euery mans worke shalbe made manifest: for the [e] day shall declare it, because it shalbe reuealed by the [f] fyre: and the fire shall trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that hee hath built vpon, abide, hee shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, he shal [g] lose, but he [h] shall be [i] safe himselfe: neuertheles yet as it were by the fire.

16 * Knowe ye not that ye are [ỹ] Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you seeme to be wise in this worlde, let him be a foole, that hee may be wise.

19 For the wisedome of this worlde is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, * Hee catcheth the wise [k] in their owne craftinesse.

20 * And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man [l] reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they be things present, or things to come, [euen] all are yours, 23 And ye Christes, and Christ Gods.

a Being ingrafted in Christ by faith, we begin to moue by his spirit, and as we profite in faith, we grow vp to a ripe age. And here let him take heede that teacheth, lest for milke he giue popes: for milk and strong meate in effect are one, but only differ in maner and forme.
b He chargeth them with two faults, the one that they attributed to much to the ministers, and the other, that they preferred one minister to another. Psal.62.12. gal.6.5.
c So made by his grace.
d Hee reproueth the ministers of Corinth, as teachers of curious doctrines and questions.
e Or the time: which is, when the light of the trueth shall expell the darkenes of ignorance, then the curious ostentation of mans wisedome shall be brought to nought.
f By the tryal of Gods spirit.
g Both his labour & reward.
h He reproueth them not as false Apostles, but as curious teachers of humane sciences, as they which lothing at the simplicitie of Gods worde, preache Philosophicall speculations.
i As touching his life, if hee holde fast the foundation. Chap.6.19. 2.cor.6.16. Iob 5.13.
k When they themselues are entangled in ỹ same snares, which they laid for others. Psal.94.11.
l But in God who worketh by his ministers to his owne glory & the comfort of his Church.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that hee had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 He appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating downe their glory which hindered them to praise that, which they dispraysed in him. 16 Hee sheweth what he requireth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

LET a man so thinke of vs, as of the [a] ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that euery man be founde faithfull.

3 * As touching me, I passe very litle to be iudged of you, or of [‡] mans iudgement: no, I iudge not [b] mine owne selfe.

a As it is a thing intollerable to contemne the true ministers of God, so it is greatly reprehensible to attribute more vnto them then is meete. Matth.7.1,2.
‡ Greeke, mans day.
b Whether I haue great giftes or litle, fewe or many.

4 For

4 For I [c] knowe nothing by [d] my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but he that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore * iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who wil lighten things that are hid in darkenes, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue prayse of God.

6 Nowe these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto mine owne selfe & Appollos, for your sakes, that ye might learne [e] by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 For who [f] separateth thee? & what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou haddest not receiued it?

8 Now ye are full: now ye are made riche: ye reigne as Kings without vs, and woulde to God ye did reigne, that wee also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs [g] the last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gasing stock vnto the worlde, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We [are] [h] fooles for Christes sake, and ye [are] wise in Christ: wee [are] weake, and ye strong: ye [are] honourable, and we [are] despised.

11 Vnto this houre wee both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, & haue no certaine dwelling place, 12 * And labour, working with our owne hands: we are reuiled, & [yet] we blesse: we are persecuted, [and] suffer it.

13 * Wee are euill spoken of, and wee ‖ pray: wee are made as the filth of the worlde, the offscowring of all things vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousand ‖ instructours in Christ, yet [haue ye] not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lorde, which shall put you in [i] remembrance of my waies in Christ as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, * if the Lorde will, and will knowe, not the speach of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the [k] kingdome of God [is] not in word, but in [l] power.

21 What will ye? shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spirit of meekenes?

CHAP. V.

1 He reproueth sharpely their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Willing them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace puritie, 9 And flee wickednesse.

IT is heard certainely [that there is] fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the [a] Gentiles, * that one shoulde haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp and haue not rather sorowed, that hee which hath done this deede, might be put from among you.

3 * For I verely as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already as though I were present, that hee that hath [b] thus done this thing,

4 when ye are gathered together, and my [c] spirit, [d] in ỹ name of our Lorde Iesus Christ, that such one, [I say,] by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ,

5 * Be deliuered vnto [e] Satan, for the [f] destruction of the flesh, that the spirite may be saued in the day of the Lorde Iesus.

6 Your reioycing is not [g] good: * know ye not that a litle leauen, leaueneth the whole lumpe?

7 Purge out therefore the old leauen, that ye may be a newe lumpe, [h] as ye are vnleauened: for Christ our Passeouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leauen, neither in the leauen of maliciousnes and wickednes: but with the vnleauened bread of synceritie and trueth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, * that ye shoulde not companie together with fornicatours,

10 And [i] not altogether with the fornicatours of this worlde, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must go out of the worlde.

11 But

---

c For as I do not knowe whereby I should take any occasion of glory: so I am certaine that before God another maner of iustice is required.
d Concerning mine office. Mat.7.1. rom.2.1.
e By our example.
f To wit, from other men and preferreth thee.
g To diminish his authoritie they obiected, that he was not made an Apostle by Christ, but afterwards.
h By this bitter taunting in abiecting himselfe and exalting the Corinthians, hee maketh them ashamed of their vaine glory. Actes 20.34. 1.thes.2.9. 2.thes.3.8. Mat.5.44. luke 23.34. actes 7.60.
‖ Or, vse gentle wordes,
‖ Or, pedagogues and scholemasters,
i For asmuch as they had so soone forgotten.

Actes 18.21. and 19.21. iames 4.15.
k That is, whatsoeuer gifts we haue receiued of God to this ende, that he may reigne among vs.
l Of the holy Ghost.

a Who would thinke that you would suffer that mischiefe vnpunished which the most barbarous nations abhorre to speake of? Leuit.18.8. Col.2.5.
b Hauing now receiued the Gospell.
c By will and consent.
d With inuocation of Gods name, as becometh them which procure the Lordes busines and not their owne. 1.Tim.1.20.
e Which is, to be as an heathen man and publicane.
f For being wounded with shame and sorowe, his flesh or olde man shall dye: & the spirit or newe man shall remaine aline and enioy the victorie in that day when the Lord shall iudge ỹ quicke and dead, 2.Cor.4.18. 1.Pet.4.6.
g Seing you suffer such monsterous vices among you. Gal.5.9.
h As euery man particularly is pure, so the whole Church in generall may be pure.

Mat,18.17. 2.thes.3.14. i But he meant of those that were conuersant in the Church, whom they ought by discipline to haue corrected: for as touching strangers they ought by all meanes godly to winne them to Christ.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye company not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or [k] an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what haue I to doe, to iudge them also which are [l] without: do ye not iudge them that are [m] within:

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. Put away therefore from among your selues that wicked man.

k Who to please both parts would be present at idole seruice, and yet professe the Gospell.
l Unto whom the ecclesiasticall discipline doeth not stretch.
m Which are subiect to Gods worde, and to the discipline of the Church.

CHAP. VI.

1 He rebuketh them for going to law together before the Heathen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 He reproueth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 And sheweth that wee ought to serue God purely, both in body, and in soule.

DAre any of you, hauing busines against another, be iudged vnder ‖ the [a] vniust, and not vnder the Saints:

2 * Doe ye not knowe, that the Saints shall iudge the worlde: If the World then shalbe iudged by you, are ye vnworthy to iudge [b] smallest matters:

3 Knowe ye not that we shall iudge the [b] Angels: howe much more things that pertaine to this life:

4 If then ye haue iudgements of things pertaining to this life, [c] set vp them which are [d] least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man amõg you: no not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren:

6 But a brother goeth to Law with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

7 Now therefore there is vtterly ‖ a fault among you, because ye goe to lawe one with another: * why rather suffer ye not wrong: Why rather susteine ye not harme:

8 * Nay, ye your selues [e] doe wrong, and do harme, & that to your brethren.

9 Knowe ye not that the vnrighteous shall not inherite the kingdome of God: Be not deceiued: * neither fornicatours, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor bouggerers, 10 Nor thieues, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners shall inherite the kingdome of God.

11 And such were * some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are iustified in the Name of the Lorde Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 ¶ * All [f] things are lawfull vnto me: but all things are not profitable. I may doe all things, but I will not be brought vnder [g] the power of any thing.

13 Meates [are ordeyned] for the belie, and the bellie for the meates: but God shall destroy both it, and them. Now the body [is] not for [h] fornication, but for the [i] Lord, and the Lorde for the body.

14 And God hath also raised vp the Lord, & * shall raise vs vp by his power.

15 Knowe ye not, that your bodies are the members of Christ: shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an [k] harlot: God forbid.

16 Doe ye not knowe, that he which coupleth himselfe with an harlot, is one body: * for two, saith he, shalbe one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto [p] Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: euery sinne that a man doeth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his [l] owne body.

19 Knowe ye not, that * your body is the temple of the holy Ghost, [which is] in you, whom ye haue of God: and ye are not your owne.

20 * For ye are bought for a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit: for they are Gods.

a Or, iudges and magistrates, which are infidels.
a Hee calleth them vniust, whosoeuer are not sanctified in Christ. Wisd. 3.8.
b Who are nowe apostates and deuils, Mat. 25. 41.
c That is, make them iudges.
d If ye so burne with desire to plead, keepe a court among your selues, & make the least esteemed your iudge: for it is most easye to iudge betweene brethren.
‖ Or, impotencie of minde. Mat. 5.39. luke 6.29. rom. 12.19. 1. Thes. 4.6.
e He doeth not reproue [p] godly, which with a good conscience vseth the magistrate to defende his right, but condemneth hatred, grudges and desires of reuengeance. Ephe. 5.3,5. 1. tim. 1.9,10. Ephe. 2.12. titus 3.3. 1. pet. 4.3. Chap. 10.23. ecclus. 37.27.
f Here hee speaketh of things indifferent of their nature, and first as touching carnall libertie.
g For wee are subiect to those things which wee cannot want.
h They abused meates, both in that they offended others thereby, and also prouoked their owne lustes to vncleannes.
i God will be Lord both of the soule and body.
Rom. 6.5.
k Whereby hee signifieth, that both wee shall see the glory of the resurrection of the iust, & also that dignitie and priuiledge whereby wee be made the members of Christ. Gen. 2.24. mat. 19.5. mar. 10.8. ephe. 5.31.
l That is, he more polluteth his owne body, then hee that committeth any other sinne. Chap. 3.16. 2. cor. 6.16. Chap. 7.23. 1. pet. 1.15,19.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certaine questions, which the Corinthians desired to know, 2 As of single life, 3 Of the duetie of marriage, 11 Of diuords and dissension in marriage, 13 Of marriage betweene the faithfull and vnfaithfull, 18 Of vncircumcising the circumcised, 21 Of seruitude, 25 Of virginitie, 39 And seconde marriage.

NOwe concerning the things whereof ye wrote vnto me, It [were] [a] good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Neuertheles, to auoide fornication, let [b] euery man haue his wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband.

3 * Let the husband giue vnto [p] wife [c] due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the husband.

4 The wife hath not [p] power of her owne body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not [p] power of his owne body, but the wife.

5 Defraude not one another, except [it be] with consent for a time, that ye may giue your selues to fasting & prayer, and againe come together that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, [d] not by commandement.

7 For I would [p] all men were euen as a Or, expedient: because marriage, through mans corruption, & not by Gods institution bringeth cares and troubles.

b Speaking to all men in generall. 1. Pet. 3.7.
c Which conteineth all dueties pertaining to marriage.
d He sheweth that hee commandeth not precisely all men to marry, but [p] God hath graunted this remedie vnto them which cannot liue chaste.

as I my ſelfe [am:] but euery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I ſay vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the Widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I [do.]

9 But if they cannot abſtaine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to [e] burne.

10 And vnto ỹ married I command, not I, but the Lorde, Let not the wife *depart from her huſband.

11 But and if ſhee [f] depart, let her remaine vnmarried, or be reconciled vnto her huſband, and let not the huſband put [g] away [his] wife.

12 But to ỹ remnant I ſpeake, [and] not [h] the Lorde, if any brother haue a wife, that beleeueth not, if ſhe be content to dwell wt̃ him, let him not forſake her.

13 And ỹ woman which hath an huſband that beleeueth not, if he be content to dwell wt̃ her, let her not forſake him.

14 For the vnbeleeuing huſband is [i] ſanctified by the wife, and the vnbeleeuing wife is ſanctified by the huſband, els were your children vncleane: but nowe are they [k] holy.

15 But if the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart: a brother or a ſiſter is not in ſubiection in [l] ſuch things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knoweſt thou, O wife, whether thou ſhalt ſaue thine huſband? Or what knoweſt thou, O man, whether thou ſhalt ſaue thy wife?

17 But as God hath diſtributed to euery man, as the Lorde hath [m] called euery one, ſo let him walke: and ſo ordeine I in all Churches.

18 Is any man called being circumciſed? let him not [n] gather [his vncircumciſion:] is any called vncircumciſed? let him not be circumciſed.

19 [o] Circumciſion is nothing, and vncircumciſion is nothing, but the keeping of the commandements of God.

20 * Let euery man abide in the ſame vocation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called [being] a ſeruant? [p] care not for it: but if yet thou mayeſt be free, vſe it rather.

22 For he that is called in the [q] Lorde [being] a ſeruant, is the Lords freeman: likewiſe alſo hee that is called [being] free, is Chriſtes ſeruant.

23 * Ye are bought ‖ With a price: be not the ſeruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein he was called, therein abide [r] with God.

25 Nowe concerning ‖ virgines, I haue no [ſ] commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obteined mercie of the Lord to be ‖ faithfull.

26 I ſuppoſe then [t] this to be good for the preſent [u] neceſſitie: [I meane] that it is good for a man ſo to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? ſeeke not to be looſed: art thou looſed from a wife? ſeeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takeſt a wife, thou ſinneſt not: and if a virgine marie, ſhe ſinneth not: neuertheles, ſuch ſhall haue [x y] trouble in the fleſh: but I [z] ſpare you.

29 And this I ſay, brethren, becauſe the time is ſhort, ‖ hereafter that both they which haue wiues, be as though they had none:

30 And they that [a] weepe, as though they wept not: and they that [b] reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they poſſeſſed not:

31 And they that vſe this worlde, as though they vſed it not: for the [c] facion of this world goeth away.

32 And I woulde haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, howe he may pleaſe the Lord.

33 But hee that is married, careth for the things of the [d] worlde, howe he may pleaſe [his] wife †.

34 There is difference alſo betweene a virgine and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of ỹ Lord, that ſhe may be [e] holy, both in body and in ſpirit: but ſhe that is married, careth for the things of ỹ world, howe ſhe may pleaſe her huſband.

35 And this I ſpeake for your owne cõmoditie, not to [f] tangle you in a ſnare, but that [ye followe] that, which is honeſt, and that ye may cleaue faſt vnto the Lord without ſeparation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgine, if ſhe paſſe the flowre of [her] age, & [g] neede ſo require, let him doe what he will, he ſinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheles he [h] ỹ ſtandeth firme in his heart, that he hath no neede, but e With the fire of concupiſcence, that is, when mans will ſo giueth place to the luſt that tempteth, that hee cannot call vpon God with a quiet conſcience. Mat.5.32.& 19.9. marke 10.11. luke 16.18.

f For hatred, diſſenſion, anger, &c.

g Saue for whoredome, as Matth.5.32.

h In aſmuch as there was nothing expreſſly ſpoken hereof in the lawe, or Prophets: or els he ſpake this moued by the ſpirit of God as he teſtifieth, in the 25. verſe.

i Meaning that the fayth of the beleeuer hath more power to ſanctifie mariage, then the wickednes of the other to pollute it.

k They that are borne of either of the parents faithfull, are alſo counted members of Chriſts church, becauſe of the promes, Actes 2.39.

l When ſuch things come to paſſe, that the faithfull and vnfaithfull be maried together, and the one forſake the other without cauſe.

m The lawful vocatiõ in outward things muſt not lightly be neglected.

n Which is when the ſurgeon by arte draweth out the ſkinne to couer the part, Celſus lib.7.cap.25. Epiph.lib. de ponderibus & menſur.1. Mac.1.16.

o It is all one whether thou be Iewe or Gentile. Ephe.4.1. 1.tim.6.1.

p Although God hath called thee to ſerue in this life, yet thinke not thy condition vnworthie for a Chriſtian: but reioyce ỹ thou art deliuered by Chriſt from ỹ miſerable ſlauerie of ſinne & death.

q Being ſeruant by cõdition is made partaker of Chriſt.

Chap.6.20. 1.pet.1.19.

‖ Or, dearely.

r Sincerely as in the preſence of God.

‖ Or, the ſtate of virginitie.

ſ He bindeth no man to that which God hath left free: but ſheweth what is moſt agreeable to Gods will, according to the circumſtãce of the time, place, and perſons.

‖ Or, beleeued.

t To be ſingle.

u In theſe afflictions and perſecutions.

x As worldly cares of their children and familie.

y He doeth not preferre ſinglenes as a thing more holy then mariage, but by reaſon of incommodities, which the one hath more then the other.

z In wiſhing that you could liue without wiues.

‖ Or, it remaineth that.

a Which be in aduerſitie.

b Which be in proſperitie.

c In this world there is nothing but meere vanitie.

d Which onely apperteine to this preſent life.

† And he is deuided, meaning into diuers cares.

e Shee may attaine vnto it ſooner then the other, becauſe ſhee is without cares.

f Seeing S. Paul coulde binde no mans conſcience to ſingle life, what preſumption is it, that any other ſhould do it?

g That is, that ſhe ſhould marry to auoid hath no neede.

hath

hath i power ouer his owne will, & hath so decreed in his heart, that he wil keepe his virgine, he doth well.

38 So then he that giueth her to mariage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to mariage, doeth k better.

39 The wife is bound by the l Law, as long as her husband *liueth: but if her husbād be dead, she is at libertie to mary with whom she will, onely in the Lord.

40 But she is more blessed, if she so abide, in my iudgement: * and I thinke that I haue also the Spirit of God.

i For the fathers will dependeth on his childrens in this point: in so much as he is bound to haue respect to their infirmity, neither can he iustly require of them singlenes, if they haue not that gift of God so to liue.
k And more commodious for his children in preseruing them from cares. l Of Matrimonie. Rom.7.2. 1.Thes.4.8.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slāder of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth howe men ought to behaue them toward such as be weake.

NOW as touching things sacrificed vnto idols, We know that wee all haue a knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Nowe, if any man thinke that hee knoweth any thing, hee knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is ‖ knowen of him.

4 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed vnto idoles, We knowe that an idole [is] b nothing in the worlde, and that there [is] none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there bee many gods, and many c lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there [is] but one God, [which is] the Father, of whome are all things, and we in him: and * one Lorde Iesus Christ, by whom [are] all things, and we by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some hauing d conscience of the idole, vntil this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neither if we eate, haue wee the e more: neither if wee eate not, haue we the lesse.

9 But take heede lest by any meanes this ‖ power of yours bee an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weake, bee ‡f boldened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles:

11 And through thy knowledge shall the *g weake brother perish, for whome Christ died.

12 Now when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weake conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 * Wherefore if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offende my brother.

a Of the libertie that God hath giuen vs touching outward things.

‖ Or, taught.

b This he speaketh in their person which bragged so much of their libertie, saying that an image amongs all things that are made is of no force.
c Which being idoles, yet are esteemed of men as Lordes and seigneurs. Iohn 13.13. chap.12.3.
d In that they thought the meate offered vp to ỳ image, not to be pure, and therefore could not eate it with a good conscience.
e This abundance & want is referred to spirituall things, Rom. 14.17.
‖ Or, libertie in things indifferent.
‡ Greeke, builded vp.
f By thine example without any ground of doctrine.
g Which eateth against his conscience, or in doubt.

Rom.14.15.

Rom.14.21.

CHAP. IX.

He exhorteth them by his example to vse their libertie to the edification of other. 24 To runne on forth in the course that they haue begunne.

AM I not an Apostle: am I not free: haue I not seene Iesus Christ our Lord: are yee not my worke in the Lorde:

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtles I am vnto you: for ye are ỳ a seale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them b that examine me, is this,

4 Haue we not power to eate, c and to drinke:

5 Or haue we not power to d leade about a wife being a e sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the ‖ brethren of the Lord, and Cephas:

6 Or I onely and Barnabas haue not we power f not to worke:

7 Who goeth a warrefare any time at his owne cost: Who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof: or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke:

8 Say I these things according to man: saith not the Law the same also:

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, * Thou shalt not muzzell the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take g care for oxen:

10 Either sayeth hee it not altogether for our sakes: For our sakes no doubt it is written, that he which eareth, should eare in hope: and that hee that thresheth in hope, should bee partaker of his hope.

11 * If we haue sowen vnto you spirituall things, [is it] a great thing if wee reape your carnall things:

12 If others with you bee partakers of [this] h power, [are] not we rather: neuertheles, we haue not vsed this power: but ‖ suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not knowe, that they which minister about the * holy things, eate of the things of the Temple: and they which wayte at the altar, are partakers a I neede no further declaration but the workes that I wrought among you.

b And call into doubt mine office.
c On the Church charges:
d The Apostles led their wiues about with them.
e A faithfull and Christian wife.
‖ Or, Cousins.
f Whether they might not as lawfully liue without labouring for their liuing with their owne handes, as other Apostles. Deut.25.4. 1.tim,5.18.
g Had God respect properly to the oxen themselues when he made this lawe, and not rather vnto men: Rom.15.27.
h To liue on other mens charges:
‖ Or, take in worth.

Deut.18.1.

kers[i] with the altar?

14 So also hath the Lorde ordeyned, that they which preach ỹ Gospel, should liue of the Gospell.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should bee so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my[k] reioycing vaine.

16 For though I preach the Gospell, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layd vpon me, and wo is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospell.

17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a rewarde: but if I do it against my will, I [notwithstanding] the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verely that whē I preach the Gospell, I make the Gospell of Christ[m] free, that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the mo.

20 *And vnto the Iewes I become as a Iew, that I may win the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as [though I were] vnder the[n] law, that I may win them that are vnder the law:

21 To them that are without Law, as [though I were] without law (whē I am not without law as perteyning to God, but [am] in the Lawe through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.

22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may win the weake: I am made [o] all things to al men, that I might by al meanes saue some.

23 And this I do for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not, that they which run in a race, runne all, yet one receyueth the price? so runne, that ye may obteine.

25 And euery man that proueth masteries, [p] absteineth from all things: and they [do it] to obtein a corruptible crown: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the aire.

27 But I beat downe my [q] body, and bring it into subiectiō, lest by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be [r] reproued.

i For that part ỹ was burnt, was deuoured of the altar, and the other was due vnto the Priests by the lawe.

k For now you haue no iust cause agaynst me, seeing that I preached the Gospell freely vnto you.

l Seeing he is charged to preach, he must willingly and earnestly follow it: for if he do it by constraint, he doth not his duetie.

m That I be not chargeable to them vnto whō I preach, seeing that they thinke that I preach for gaines. Acts. 16.3. gal.2.3.

n As touching the ceremonies.

o In things indifferent, as eating of meates, obseruatiō of feasts and dayes, and such like, he facioned himselfe to men in such sort as hee might best gaine them to Christ.

p That is, keepeth a straight diet, and refraineth from such things as might distemper his bodie.

q Or, old man which rebelleth agaynst the spirit.

r Least hee should be reproued of men when they should see him do contrarie, or contemne that thing which he taught others to doe.

CHAP. X.

He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 And offence of their neighbour.

MOreouer, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorāt, that all our fathers were vnder *the cloude, and all passed through the *sea,

2 And were all baptized vnto [a] Moses, in the cloud, and in the sea.

3 *And did all eate the same [bc] spirituall meate,

4 *And did al drinke the same spirituall drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that followed them: & the Rocke [d] was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were *ouerthrowen in the wildernes.

6 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that wee should not lust after euill things * as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters as [were] some of them, as it is written, *The people sate downe to [e] eate and drinke, and rose vp to play.

8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fell in one *[f] day three and twentie thousand.

9 Neither let vs tempt [g] Christ, as some of them also tempted [him,] & were *destroied of serpents.

10 Neither murmure ye, as some of them *also murmured, & were destroyed of the [h] destroyer.

11 Nowe all these things came vnto them for ensamples, and were written to admonish [i] vs, vpon whom the [k] endes of the world are come.

12 Wherefore, let him that thinketh he standeth, take heede lest he fall.

13 There hath no tentation taken you, but such as apperteyneth to man: and God is faythfull, which will not suffer you to bee tempted aboue that you bee able, but [l] will euen giue the issue with the tentation, that ye may be able to beare it.

14 Wherefore my beloued, flee from idolatrie.

15 I speake as vnto them which haue vnderstanding: iudge ye what I say.

16 The cuppe ‖ of blessing which wee [m] blesse, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which wee breake, [n] is it not the communion of the bodie of Christ?

Exod.13.21. nom.9.18. Exo.14.16,22.

a Moses being their guide or minister, or as some reade, they were baptized vnto Moses law, others, by Moses. Exod.16.15.

b That is, Manna, which was the outward signe or Sacrament of the spirituall grace.

c They ate the same meate that we doe, because the substance of theirs and our sacraments is all one. Exod.17.6. nom.20.10,11 d That is, signified Christ as all Sacraments doe. Nom.26.65. Nom.11.4. & 26.64 psal.106.14. Exod.32.6.

e Because hereby occasiō was taken to forget God, and commit idolatrie, therfore these indifferent things are counted idolatrie. Nom.25.9.

f Moses readeth foure and twentie thousand, which declareth an infinite number.

g Who was their leader, & was called the Angel of God. Nom.21.6. psal.106.14. Nom.14.37.

h Meaning either the good or euill Angel, whose ministerie God vseth to execute his iudgement to the vtter destruction of the wicked.

i Howe God will plague vs if we be subiect to the like vices. k Or, later dayes of Christs comming. l He that ledde you into this tentation, which commeth vnto you either in prosperitie or aduersitie, or for your sinnes past, will turne it to your cōmoditie, & deliuer you. ‖ Or, thanksgiuing. m Or, prepare to this holy vse with praise & thanksgiuing. n The effectual badge of our coniunction & incorporation with Christ.

17 For

o If we that are many in number, are but one bodie in effect, ioyned with our head Christ, as many cornes make but one loafe, let vs renounce idolatrie which doth separate our vnitie.

17 For wee that are many, are °one bread and one bodie, because wee are all partakers of one bread.

18 Beholde Israel [which is] after the p flesche: are not they which eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

p Which is gouerned according to the ceremonies of the Lawe.

19 What say I then? that the idole is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

20 [Nay,] but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I woulde not that ye should haue q felowship with the deuils.

q Which is to assemble in that companie where idoles are called vpō.

21 Ye cannot drinke the cuppe of the Lord, and the cup of the deuils. Yee can not bee partakers of the Lordes table and of the table of deuils.

22 Do we prouoke the Lord to anger? are we stronger then he?

Chap.6.12. ecclus.37.27.

23 *All things are lawfull for mee, but al things are not expedient: al things are lawfull for mee, but all things edifie not.

24 Let no man seeke his owne, but euery man anothers wealth.

r For in those dayes they were accustomed to sell certaine of the flesh of beasts sacrificed in the shambles, and turned the money to the Priests profit.

25 Whatsoeuer is solde in the r shambles, eate yee, and f aske no question for conscience sake.

f Or, doubt not.

26 *For the earth [is] the Lords, and all that therein is.

Psal.24.1.

27 If any of them which beleeue not, call you [to a feast:] and if yee will goe, whatsoeuer is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idoles, eate it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience (for the earth [is] the Lordes, and all that therein is)

29 And the conscience I say, not thine, but of that other: for why should my t libertie bee condemned of another mans conscience?

t We must take heede that through our abuse, our libertie be not condemned.

30 For u if I through [Gods] benefite bee partaker, why am I euill spoken off, for that wherefore I giue thankes?

u If by the benefite of God I may eate any kinde of meate, why should I by my default cause this benefite to be euill spoken of?

31 *whether therefore ye eat or drinke, or whatsoeuer ye do, doe all to the glorie of God.

Col.3.17.

32 Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes, nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

x That is, the infirme.

33 Euen as I please x all men y in all things, not seeking mine owne profite, but [the profit] of many, that they might be saued.

y Which are indifferent.

CHAP. XI.

Ye rebuketh the abuses which were crept into their Church, 4 As touching prayer, prophesying, 18 And ministring the Lordes supper, 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

1 *BE ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.

2.Thes.3.9. ‖Or, in all things remember me. Ephes.5.23.

2 Nowe, brethren, I commend you, that ye remember ‖al my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.

3 But I wil that ye know, that Christ is the *head of euery man: and the man is the womans head: & God is Christes head.

4 Euery man a praying or ‖prophesying hauing [any thing] on [his] head, b dishonoureth his head.

a This is referred to common prayer, & preaching: for although one speake, yet the action is common, so that the whole Church may be said to pray or preach. ‖Or, preaching

b This tradition was obserued according to the time and place that all things might be done in comlinesse and to edification.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or c prophesieth bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one verie thing, as though she were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it bee shame for a woman to be ‖ shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

c Read chapter.14.34. ‖ Or, powled.

7 For a man ought not to couer [his] head: forasmuch as he is the *d image & glory of God: but the woman is the e glorie of the man.

Gen.1.26,& 5.1, and 9.6. col.3.10.

d The image of Gods glorie in whom his maiestie and power shine concerning his authoritie.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 *For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

e Or, receyueth her glory, in commendation of man, and therefore is subiect. Gen. 2.18,22.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue f power on [her] head, because of the g Angels.

f Some thing to couer her head in signe of subiection.

11 Neuertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the womā without the man in the h i Lord.

g To whom they also shewe their dissolution, and not only to Christ.

h Who is author and mainteiner of their mutuall coniunction.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

i For as God made the woman of man, so now is man multiplied by the woman.

14 Doeth not nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long k heare, it is a shame vnto him?

k As women vse to weare.

15 But if a woman haue long heare, it is a praise vnto her: for her heare is l giuen her for a couering.

l For God hath giuen to womē longer heare then vnto man, to the ende she should trusse it vp about her head, whereby she declareth þ she must couer her head.

16 But if any man lust to be contentious, We haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 Nowe in this that I declare, I praise [you] not, that ye come together, not with profite, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleeue it[to be true] m in some part.

19 For there must be n heresies euen among you, that they which are approued among you, might be knowen.

20 When yee come together therefore into one place, [this] is not to eate the Lords supper.

21 For euery man when they shoulde eate, taketh his owne supper afore, & one is hungrie, and another is drunken.

22 Haue ye not houses to eate and to drinke in? despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? What shall I say to you? shall I prayse you in this? I prayse you not.

23 For I haue receyued of the o Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, [to wit,] That the Lorde Jesus in the night that he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 *And when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eate: this is my body, which is p broken for you: this do ye in remembrance of me.

25 After ỳ same maner also [he tooke] the cuppe, When hee had supped, saying, This cuppe is the Newe Testament in my blood: this doe as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shall eate this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shewe the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, Whosoeuer shall eate this bread, and drinke the cuppe of the Lord q vnworthily, shall be giltie of the bodie and blood of the Lord.

28 *Let a man therefore examine him selfe, and so let him eat of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth & drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, [because] hee discerneth not r the Lords bodie.

30 For this cause many [are] weake, & sicke among you, and many s sleepe.

31 For if wee would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when wee are iudged, wee are chastened of ỳ Lord, because we shoulde not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when yee come together to eate, tarie one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eate at home, that yee come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

m Not that all were so, but the most part.

n Gods church is not onely subiect to dissention as touching orders & maners, but also to heresies as touching doctrine.

o Who ought onely to beare authoritie in the Church.

Matt. 26. 26. mar. 14. 22. luke 22. 19.

p Signifying the maner of his death, when his body should, as it were, be torne and broken with most grieuous torments (albeit not as the thighes of the theeues were) ỳ which thing the breaking of the bread, as a figure, doth most liuely represent.

q By peruerting the true and pure vse of the same.

2. Cor. 13. 5.

r But as though these holy mysteries of the Lords body and blood were common meates, so without reuerence he commeth vnto them.

s Or, die. Let them looke to themselues which either adde or take away from the Lords institution.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersitie of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be vsed to the edifying of Christs Church, 12 As the members of mans bodie serue to the vse one of another.

NOwe concerning spirituall [gifts,] brethren, I woulde not haue you a ignorant.

2 Ye knowe that ye were Gentiles, & were caried away vnto the b domme idoles, as ye were c led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man *speaking by the d Spirit of God, calleth Jesus * execrable: also no man can say that Jesus is the Lorde, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Nowe there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirite is giuen to euery man, to e profite withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirite the worde of wisedome: and to another the worde of f knowledge, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another [is giuen] g fayth, by the same Spirit: & to another the giftes of healing by the same Spirit:

10 And to another h the operations of great workes: and to another, i prophecie: and to another, k the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 *And all these things worketh euen the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man seuerally as he will.

12 For as the bodie is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the bodie, which is one, though they be many, [yet] are [but] one bodie: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into l one bodie, whether [wee bee] Jewes or Grecians, whether [wee bee] bond, or free, and haue beene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the bodie also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eie, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

17 If the whole body [were] an eye, where a The Corinthians hauing notable giftes, seemed to haue forgotten, of whom, and for what end they had receyued them.

b Which could not heare your prayers.

c By Satans suggestion. Mar. 9. 39.

d As no man that hath the spirit of God, can blaspheme Christ, & worship idoles: so none can acknowledge Christ for Lord and God without the same spirite. Iohn. 13. 13. chap. 8. 6. phil. 2. 11.

e To wit, the Church, which is the whole bodie.

f That is, the vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

g To do onely miracles by.

h To worke by miracles against Satan and hypocrits, as was done against Ananias, Elymas, &c.

i Meaning the declaration of gods mysteries.

k To trie both the doctrine & the persons. Rom. 12. 3. ephes. 4. 7.

l That we might be one bodie with Christ, and the whole Church one Christ: of the which coniunction, baptisme and the Lords supper are effectuall signes: for by baptisme, we are regenerate into one spirit, and by the Lords supper we are incorporate into Christs bodie to be gouerned by the same spirit.

where [were] the hearing? If the whole [were] hearing, where [were] the smelling?

18 But nowe hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the bodie at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where [were] the bodie?

20 But nowe [are] there many members, yet but [m] one bodie.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hande, I haue no neede of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to be [n] more feeble, are necessarie.

23 And vpon those [members] of the bodie, which wee thinke most vnhoneſt, put we more [o] honestie on: and our vncomely [partes] haue more comelynesse on.

24 For our comely [partes] neede it not: but God hath tempered the bodie together, and hath giuen the more honour to that [part] wich lacked,

25 Least there should be any diuision in the bodie: but that the mẽbers should [p] haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member bee had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members [q] ‖ for [your] part.

28 *And God hath ordeined some in the Church: [as] first Apostles, secondly Prophets, thirdly teachers, then them that do miracles: after that, the gifts of healing, [r] helpers, [s] gouernours, diuersitie of tongues.

29 Are al Apostles? are al Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the gifts of healing? doe all speake with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But ‖ desire you the best giftes, and I will yet shewe you a more excellent way.

m And therfore whatsoeuer the diuersitie is, yet the profite ought to bee common and serue to the edification of the Church.
n Whose vse seemeth to be more vile.
o Wee are more carefull to couer them.
p Euery one in his office for the preseruatiõ of the bodie.
q For all Churches dispersed through out the world are diuerse members of one bodie.
‖ Or, euery one for his part. Ephes. 4. 11.
r As Deacons.
s As Elders.
‖ Or, doe you then desire the best gifts.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature, office and prayse thereof.

Though I speake with the tongues of men and [a] Angels, and haue not loue, I am [as] sounding brasse, or a tinckling cymball.

2 And though I had the [gift] of prophecie, and knewe all secretes and all knowledge, yea, if I had [b] all fayth, so that I could remoue *mountaines and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, & haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffreth long: it is bountifull: loue enuieth not: loue doeth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed vp:

5 It disdaineth not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the trueth:

7 It suffreth all things: it beleeueth [c] all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth [d] all things.

8 Loue doth neuer fal away, though ỹ prophetyings be abolished, or ỹ tõgues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For [e] we know [f] in part, & we ‖ prophecie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shall be abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstoode as a childe, I thought as a childe: but whẽ I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For nowe we see [g] through a glasse darkely: but then [shall wee see] face to face. Now I know in part: but thẽ shal I know euen as I am ‖ knowen.

13 And now abideth faith, hope [and] loue, [euen] these three: but the [h] chiefest of these [is] loue.

a If the Angels had tongues, and I had the vse thereof, and did not bestowe them to profit my neighbor, it were nothing but vaine babbling.
b Fayth is here taken for the gift of doing miracles, which the wicked may haue, as Mat. 7. 22. and also for that faith (called historicall) which beleeueth the mightie power of Christ, but can not apprehende Gods mercie through him: and this deuils haue, Jam. 2. 19: and therefore is seperated from charitie, but ỹ faith that iustifieth in effect cãnot, as 1. Joh. 2. 9. Mat. 17. 20. luke. 17. 6.
c Not that it suffereth it self to be abused, but iudgeth others by all loue and humanitie.
d Which may be without offence of Gods word.
e Knowledge it selfe shall be perfected in the world to come, and not abolished: but the maner of knowing and teaching shall cease when we shall be before Gods presence where we shall neither neede scholes nor teachers.
f That is, imperfectly.
‖ Or, teach.
g The mysteries of God.
‖ Or, taught of God.
h Because it serueth both here and in the life to come: but faith and hope appertaine onely to this life.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 He exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirituall gifts, 5 But chiefly propheeying. 34 He commandeth womẽ to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

Follow after loue, and couet spirituall [giftes,] and rather that ye may [a] prophecie.

2 For hee that speaketh a [strange] tongue, speaketh not vnto mẽ, but vnto God: for no mã [b] heareth [him:] howbeit in [c] the spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophecieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortatiõ, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh [strange] lãguage, edifieth [d] himselfe: but he that prophecieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that ye all spake [strange] a That is, to expound the word of God to the edification of the Church.

b Understandeth him.
c By the spirituall gifte, which he hath receiued.
d For he profiteth none saue himselfe.

languages, but rather that yee prophecied: for greater is hee that prophecieth, then he that ſpeaketh [diuers] tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And nowe, brethren, if I come vnto you ſpeaking [diuers] tongues,
What ſhall I profit you, except I ſpeake to you, eyther by [c] reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

7 Moreouer things without life which giue a ſound, whether [it be] a ‖ pipe or an harpe, except they make a diſtinction in the ſounds, how ſhal it be knowen what is pyped or harped?

8 And alſo if the trumpet giue an vn-certaine ſound, who ſhall prepare him-ſelfe to battell?

9 So likewiſe you, by the tongue, except ye vtter wordes that haue ſignifica-tion, how ſhall it be vnderſtand what is ſpoken? for ye ſhall ſpeake in the [f] aire.

10 There are ſo many kinds of voices (‖ as it commeth to paſſe) in the worlde, and none of them [g] is domme.

11 Except I know then the power of the voice, I ſhall be vnto him that ſpeaketh, [h] a barbarian, & hee that ſpeaketh, ſhalbe a barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen ſo, for as much as ye couet ſpi-rituall [gifts,] ſeeke that ye may excel vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that ſpeaketh a [ſtrange] tongue, pray, that hee may interpret.

14 For if I pray [in] a [ſtrange] tongue, my ſpirit [i] prayeth: but mine vnderſtanding is without [k] fruit.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the ſpirit, but I will pray with the vn-derſtanding alſo: I will [l] ſing with the ſpirit, but I will ſing with the vnderſtāding alſo.

16 Els, when thou bleſſeſt with the ſpirit, howe ſhall hee that occupieth the roome of the vnlearned, ſay [m] Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, ſeeing he knoweth not what thou ſayeſt?

17 For thou verely giueſt thanks wel, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I ſpeake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to ſpeake [n] fiue wordes with mine vnder-ſtanding, that I might alſo inſtruct others, then ten thouſande wordes in a [ſtrange] tongue.

20 Brethren, bee not * children in vn-derſtanding, but as concerning malici-ouſnes be children, but in vnderſtanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Lawe it is written, * [o] By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I ſpeake vnto this people:
yet ſo ſhall they not heare me, ſayth the Lord.

22 Wherefore [ſtrange] tongues are for a [p] ſigne, not to them that beleeue, but to them that beleeue not: but prophey-ing [ſerueth] not for them that beleeue not, but for them which beleeue.

23 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all ſpeake [ſtrange] tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleeue not, will they not ſay, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all prophecie, & there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlear-ned, [q] he is rebuked of [r] all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And ſo are the ſecrets of his heart made manifeſt, and ſo he will fal downe on his face and worſhip God, and faye plainely that God is in you in deede.

26 What is to be [done] then, brethē?
When ye come together, [according as] euery one of you hath a pſalme, [or] hath doctrine, [or] hath a tongue, [or] hath re-uelation, [or] hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If any man ſpeake a [ſtrange] tongue, [let it be] by two, or at the [ſ] moſt, by three, and that by courſe, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe ſilence in the Church, [which ſpeaketh lāguages,] and let him ſpeake to himſelfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets ſpeake two, or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuealed to another that ſitteth by, let the firſt hold his peace.

31 For yee may all prophecie one by one, that all may learne, & all may haue comfort.

32 And the [t] ſpirits of the Prophets are [u] ſubiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not [the authour] of confuſion, but of peace, as [we ſee] in all the Churches of the Saintes.

34 * Let your Women keepe [x] ſilence

c The prophecie expounded that which God hath reueiled: and the doctrine teacheth that which he hath giuen vs to vnderſtand.
‖ Or, flute.
f Your wordes ſhalbe loſt: for ye ſhall neither glorifie God thereby, nor profite man.
‖ Or, as the thing requireth.
g That is, they may be able to be vnderſtand.
h He condemneth the Corinthians of barbarouſneſſe in that thing, whereby they thought to haue attained to the greateſt praiſe of eloquence.
i And doth his part.
k Not in reſpect of him ỳ prayeth, but in reſpect of the Church, which is nothing edified thereby.
l Or giue thanks by ſinging.
m One onely made the prayers, and the reſt of the people followed in hart his wordes, and when he had prayed, they all ſaid, Amen, ſignifying that they beleeued aſſuredly that God would grant their requeſts.
n That is, moſt fewe. Mat. 18.3.

Iſai. 28.11. deut. 28.49. iere. 5.15. ezek. 3.6.
o He threateneth them moſt ſharply, that God will puniſh the contempt of his word, & their counterfait ignorance, for aſmuch as to ſpeake with vnknowen tongues is a ſigne of Gods curſe towards the wicked.
p Of Gods curſe when they are not vnderſtand.
q By hearing his ſecret fauts ript vp, and his ſinnes reproued by Gods word, he is cōpelled by his owne conſcience to praiſe God.
r Which expounde the word of God.
ſ Paul beareth as yet with their weakeneſſe, becauſe alſo theſe were the gifts of God: but yet he ſheweth that they ſhould not paſſe this meaſure, that firſt one, after another, and at the vtmoſt the third ſhould reade in a ſtraunge language, which was to declare gods miracle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly he commandeth that nothing be don without interpretation.
t Or learning which Gods ſpirit moueth them to vtter.
u To the intēt ỳ others may iudge of him that hath ſpoken, if he haue paſſed the compaſſe of Gods word: wherefore S. John commandeth to trie the ſpirits whether they be of God. 1. Tim. 2. 11. x Becauſe this diſorder was in ỳ Church, ỳ women vſurped ỳ which was peculiar to men, ỳ Apoſtle here ſheweth what is meete to be done, & what is not: & albeit he mētioned this abuſe afore, yet he referred it to this place to be reproued, becauſe there he brought it in for another purpoſe.

in the

in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but [they ought] to be subiect, as also *the Lawe sayth.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbandes at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 y Came the Word of God out from you: either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke him selfe to be a Prophete, or z spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the thinges, that I write vnto you, are the cõmandements of the Lord.

38 a And if any man bee ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbidde not to speake languages.

40 Let all thinges bee done honestly and by order.

Gene.3.16. y Are ye the first or the last Christians, þ ye neither submit yourselues to the Churches, of whom you haue receiued the Gospel: nor haue respect to the others to whome the Gospel doeth likewise appertaine? z To haue vnderstanding of spirituall things. a If any man haue iudgement, let him acknowledge that I speake of the Spirit of God, and so let him obey: and if he haue no iudgement, let him acknowledge his ignorance, and trouble not the Church, but credite them that are learned.

CHAP. XV.

He proueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 And first that Christ is risen: 22 Then that wee shall ryse, 52 And the maner howe.

Galat.1.11. MOreouer, * brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospell, which I preached vnto you, which yee haue also receiued, and wherein ye continue,

2 And whereby yee are saued, if yee keepe in memorie, after what maner I preached it vnto you, a except ye haue beleeued in vaine.

3 For first of al, I deliuered vnto you that which b I receiued, how that Christ dyed for our sinnes, according to þ *scriptures,

4 And that hee was buried, and that he arose the thirde day, according to the *Scriptures,

5 *And that he was seene of Cephas, then of the c twelue.

6 After that, he was seene of mo then fiue hundreth brethren at once: whereof many remayne vnto this present, and some also are a sleepe.

7 After that, he was seene of James: then of all the Apostles.

8 *And last of all he was seene also of me as of one, borne out of due time.

9 For I am *the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to bee called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 *But by the d grace of God, I am that I am: & his grace which is in mee, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, & so haue ye beleeued.

12 ¶ Nowe if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, howe say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not rise, thẽ is our preaching e vaine, and your f faith is also vaine.

15 And we are founde also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of GOD, that he hath raysed vp Christ: whome he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised,

17 And if Christ bee not raised, your faith is g vain: ye are yet in your h sinnes.

18 And so they which are a sleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life ‖onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, [and] was made the *first i fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man [came] death, by mã [came] also the resurrectiõ of þ dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in k Christ shall l all be made aliue,

23 But euery man in his *owne order: the first fruites [is] Christ, afterwarde, they that are of Christ, at his comming [shal rise againe.]

24 Then [shall be] the ende, when he hath m deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when he hath put downe all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must reigne * till he hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemie that shall be destroyed, [is] death.

27 *For he hath put downe al things vnder his feet. (And when he saith that all things are subdued [to him,] it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shal the Sonne also him selfe be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be n all in all, a If you beliue to be saued by the gospel, ye must beliue also the resurrection of the dead, which is one of the principall points thereof, or els your beliefe is but vaine. b He sheweth that nothing ought to be taught, which we haue not learned by Gods word. Isai.53.5. 1.pet,2.24. Ionas 2.1,10. Iohn 20.19. e Although Iudas wãted, yet they were so called still. Actes 9.4. rom.6.3. Ephe.3.8. Ephe.3.7. d For he was but the instrument & minister, and giueth the whole glory to God. e Christs death is not effectuall, except he rise frõ death. f For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more. g As mortification and remission of sins depende on Christs death: so our quickening and restoring to life stand in his resurrection. h You are not forgiuen nor sanctified. ‖Or, onely for this lifes sake. Col.1.18. reuel.1.5. i As by the offering of the first fruite the whole fruite is sanctified, so by Christ which is the first þ is raised, all haue assurance of þ resurrection. k Who rose first from the dead to take possession in our flesh for vs. his members. l To wit, the faithfull. 1.Thess.4.15. m Christ as he is man and head of the Church, is said to be subiect to God: but in respect of the worlde, is king of heauen and earth. This kingdom standeth in gouerning the faithfull, and ouercomming the aduersaries, euen death the chiefest: which done, Christ being perfected, with all his members, shall as he is man and head of the Church, with his fellowe heires deliuer his kingdome, and be subiect to God vñ whome and the holy Ghost in Godhead he is equal. Psal.110.1. act.2.34,35. heb.1.13. & 10.13. Psal.8.6. hebr.2.8. n We shalbe perfectly fulfilled with his glory & felicity.

29 Els what shall they do which are baptized ᵒ ᵖ for dead: if ẏ dead rise not at al, why are they then baptized for dead:
30 Why are we also in ieopardy euery houre:
31 ᵠ By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die dayly.
32 If I haue fought ẇ beastes at Ephesus after ʳ the maner of men, what aduantageth it me, if the dead be not raised vp: *let vs eat and drinke: for to morowe we shall die.
33 Be not deceiued: *euill speakings corrupt good maners.
34 Awake to [liue] righteously, & sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame.
35 But some man will say, Howe are the dead raised vp: and with what body come they forth:
36 O foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.
37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that bodie that shall be, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.
38 But God giueth it a bodie at his pleasure, euen to euery seede his owne bodie.
39 All flesh [is] not the same flesh, but there is one ˢ flesh of men, and another flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.
40 There [are] also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heauenly [is] one, and [the glory] of the earthly [is] another.
41 There is another glory of ẏ ˢ sunne, and another glory of the moone, & another glory of ẏ starres: for one starre differeth from [another] starre in glory.
42 So also [is] the resurrection of the dead. [The body] is sowen in corruptiõ, [and] is raised in incorruption.
43 It is sowne in ᵘ dishonour, [and] is raised in glory: it is sowen in weakenes, [and] is rayled in power.
44 It is sowne a natural body, [and] is raised a ˣ spirituall body: there is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
45 As it is also written, The first man *Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adã [was made] a ʸ quickening Spirite.
46 Howbeit ẏ [was] not first [made] which is spirituall: but that [which is] naturall, and afterward that [which is] spirituall.
47 The first man [is] of the earth, earthly: the seconde man [is] the Lorde ᶻ from heauen.
48 As [is] the earthly, such [are] they that are earthly: & as [is] the heauenly, such [are] they also that are heauenly.
49 And as we haue borne the ᵃ image of the earthly, so shall we beare ẏ image of the heauenly.
50 This say I, brethren, that ᵇ flesh and blood can not inherite the kingdom of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption.
51 Beholde, I shewe you a secrete thing, We shal not all sleepe, but we shal all be ᶜ changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkeling of an eye at the last * trumpet: for the trumpet shall blowe, and the dead shall be raised vp incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption: and this mortall [must] put on immortalitie.
54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie, then shall be brought to passe ẏ saying that is writtẽ, *Death is swallowed vp into victorie.
55 ‖ *O death, where [is] thy sting: O graue, where [is] thy victorie:
56 The sting of death [is] sinne: and the ᵈ strength of sinne [is] the Lawe.
57 *But thankes [be] vnto God, which hath giuen vs victorie through our Lorde Iesus Christ.
58 Therefore my beloued brethren, be ye stedfast, vnmoueable, abounding alwayes in the worke of the Lorde, forasmuch as ye knowe, that your labour is not in ᵉ vaine in the Lorde.

ᵒ That is, as dead, & because they were but newly come to Christ, would be baptized before they died.
ᵖ Except these things be true of Christes kingdome and his subiection, what shall become of them whome the Church dayly baptizeth, for to destroy death in them which is ẏ end of baptisme, & so they to rise againe?
ᵠ I take to witnes all my sorowes wherein I may iustly reioyce in the Lorde, that I haue sustained them among you.
ʳ That is, hauing regarde to this present life, and not to Gods glory, & to life euerlasting. Isa. 22. 13. wis. 2. 6. *Menander in Thaidi.
ˢ There is one substance as touching the flesh both of man and beast, but the difference is as touching the qualitie.
ᵗ Euen as the Sũne and the Moone being of one substãce differ in dignitie: so in the resurrection our bodies shal haue more excellẽt qualities then they haue nowe.
ᵘ For what is more vile to looke vnto thẽ the dead carkeis?
ˣ Not changing the substance, but made partaker of the diuine nature. Gene. 2. 7.
ʸ Christ bringeth vs from heauen the spirit of life.
ᶻ This is attributed to Christ as concerning his diuinitie, not in respect of his humanitie whose flesh hath this glorie by the power of God who dwelleth in it.
ᵃ Both in substance & forme we are earthly.
ᵇ This naturall bodie as it is now, til it be made newe by the spirit of Christ.
ᶜ When the Lord commeth to iudgement, some of the Saints shall be aliue, whom he will change euen as if they were dead, so that this chãge is in steade of death to them. Mat. 24. 31. 1. thes. 4. 16. Isa. 25. 8. reuel. 7. 17. ‖ O death, where is thy victorie? O graue, where is thy sting? Hose 13. 14. heb. 2. 14.
ᵈ Sinne first brought in death and giueth it power ouer vs, & the strength of sin is the lawe, because it doeth reueile the iudgement of God against vs: or else the chiefe cause of our destruction is in our selues. 1. Iohn 5. 5.
ᵉ The hope of resurrection causeth the faithfull to surmount all difficulties.

CHAP. XVI.

He putteth them in remembrance of the gathering for the poore brethren at Ierusalem. 13 We must perseuere in faith, in the loue of Christ and our neighbour. 15 After his commendations he wisheth to them all prosperitie.

Oncerning * the gathering for the Saintes, as I haue ordeyned in the Churches * of Galatia, so doe ye also.
2 ᵃ Euery first [day] of the weeke, let euery one of you put aside by him selfe, and lay vp as [GOD] hath prospered him, that then there be no gatherings when I come.
3 And when I am come, whosoeuer

Actes 11. 29. and 12. 25. rom. 12. 13.
Actes 18. 23.
ᵃ Vpon the first day of the weeke which the scripture calleth the Lordes day, others Sunday, they accustomed not onely in the Church, but at home also according to euery mans zeale, to lay vp some piece of money towarde the relefe of the poore brethren.

ye

ye shall alow [b] by letters, thē will I send to bring your liberalitie vnto Ierusalē.

4 And if it be meete that I goe also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia)

6 And it may be that I wil abide, yea, or winter with you, that yee may bring me on my way whithersoeuer I go.

7 For I will not see you nowe in my passage: but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tarie at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and [c] effectuall is opened vnto me: but there are many aduersaries.

10 ¶ Now if Timotheus come, see that he be [d] without feare vnto you: for he worketh the worke of the Lord, euen as I [do.]

11 Let no man therefore [e] despise him: but conuey him forth [f] in peace, that hee may come vnto me: for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching [our] brother Apollos, I greatly desired him, to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when he shall haue conuenient time.

13 ¶ [g] Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite you like men, [and] be strong.

14 Let al your things be done in [h] loue.

15 Now, brethren, I beseech you (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the [i] first fruites of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselues to minister vnto the Saintes)

16 That ye be [k] obedient euen vnto such, & to al that helpe with vs & labour.

17 I am glad of the cōming of Stephanas, & Fortunatus, & Achaicus: for they haue [l] supplied the want of you.

18 For they haue cōforted my ‖ spirit & yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lord.

20 All the brethrē greete you. Greete ye one another with an * holy [m] kisse.

21 The salutation of [me] Paul with mine owne hand.

22 If any man loue not the Lorde Iesus Christ, let him be had in execration, ‖ [yea excommunicate] to death.

23 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ [be] with you.

24 My loue [be] with you al in Christ Iesus, Amen.

The first [Epistle] to the Corinthians, written from [n] Philippi, [and sent] by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

b Which ye shall send by them that carry the money.

c Because God blessed his labour.

d Willing that they should defend him against the aduersaries of Christ, because it is the Churches duetie, to be carefull for the preseruatiō of their ministers.

e As though he were too young to be a minister.

f That is, safe and sound.

g Least Satan steale vpon you at vnwares.

h For they had euery man respect to him selfe contrary to loue.

i That is, the first which imbraced the Gospel.

k And reuerence them.

l The griefe that I tooke for your absence, was greatly assuaged by their presence.

‖ Or, minde.

Rom. 16. 16. 2. cor. 13. 12. 1. pet. 5. 14.

m In token of mutuall loue, which thing was obserued in the primitiue Church when the Lords supper was ministred.

‖ Or, Maranatha.

n Or, as is most probable, from Ephesus.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

The Argvment.

AS nothing can be written, either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them farre passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profite all, but hardned the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbernes, & contemne the Apostles authoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accompliſh the worke which he had begonne among them. First therefore he wisheth them well in the Lord, declaring that albeit certain wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessarie scholings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And where as they blame his long absence it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrarie to his fatherly affection, he should haue bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe wryting in the former epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, til he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles wēt about to vndermine his authoritie, he confuteth their arrogant bragges, and cōmendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnes of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect wherof is newnes of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorowe which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercy and compassion towards our brethren: also wisedome to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fill their bellies, where as he contrariwise, sought them, and not their goodes, as those ambitious persons slaundered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth such as rebell against his authoritie, that he will declare by liuely example, that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP.

ye shall alow [b] by letters, thē will I send to bring your liberalitie vnto Ierusalē.

4 And if it be meete that I goe also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia)

6 And it may be that I wil abide, yea, or winter with you, that yee may bring me on my way whithersoeuer I go.

7 For I will not see you nowe in my passage: but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tarie at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and [c] effectuall is opened vnto me: but there are many aduersaries.

10 ¶ Now if Timotheus come, see that he be [d] without feare vnto you: for he worketh the worke of the Lord, euen as I [do.]

11 Let no man therefore [e] despise him: but conuey him forth [f] in peace, that hee may come vnto me: for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching [our] brother Apollos, I greatly desired him, to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when he shall haue conuenient time.

13 ¶ [g] Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite you like men, [and] be strong.

14 Let al your things be done in [h] loue.

15 Now, brethren, I beseech you (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the [i] first fruites of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselues to minister vnto the Saintes)

16 That ye be [k] obedient euen vnto such, & to al that helpe with vs & labour.

17 I am glad of the cōming of Stephanas, & Fortunatus, & Achaicus: for they haue [l] supplied the want of you.

18 For they haue cōforted my ‖ spirit & yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lord.

20 All the brethrē greete you. Greete ye one another with an * holy [m] kisse.

21 The salutation of [me] Paul with mine owne hand.

22 If any man loue not the Lorde Iesus Christ, let him be had in execration, ‖ [yea excommunicate] to death.

23 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ [be] with you.

24 My loue [be] with you al in Christ Iesus, Amen.

The first [Epistle] to the Corinthians, written from [n] Philippi, [and sent] by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

b Which ye shall send by them that carry the money.

c Because God blessed his labour.

d Willing that they should defend him against the aduersaries of Christ, because it is the Churches duetie, to be carefull for the preseruatiō of their ministers.

e As though he were too young to be a minister.

f That is, safe and sound.

g Least Satan steale vpon you at vnwares.

h For they had euery man respect to him selfe contrary to loue.

i That is, the first which imbraced the Gospel.

k And reuerence them.

l The griefe that I tooke for your absence, was greatly assuaged by their presence.

‖ Or, minde.

Rom. 16. 16. 2. cor. 13. 12. 1. pet. 5. 14.

m In token of mutuall loue, which thing was obserued in the primitiue Church when the Lords supper was ministred.

‖ Or, Maranatha.

n Or, as is most probable, from Ephesus.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

The Argvment.

AS nothing can be written, either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them farre passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profite all, but hardned the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbernes, & contemne the Apostles authoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accompliſh the worke which he had begonne among them. First therefore he wisheth them well in the Lord, declaring that albeit certain wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authoritie, yet they were necessarie scholings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And where as they blame his long absence it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrarie to his fatherly affection, he should haue bene compelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe wryting in the former epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, til he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles wēt about to vndermine his authoritie, he confuteth their arrogant bragges, and cōmendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnes of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect wherof is newnes of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorowe which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercy and compassion towards our brethren: also wisedome to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fill their bellies, where as he contrariwise, sought them, and not their goodes, as those ambitious persons slaundered him: wherefore at his comming he menaceth such as rebell against his authoritie, that he will declare by liuely example, that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profite that commeth to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15.17. And because they should not impute to lightnes, that he deferred his comming contrary to his promes, he proueth his constancie, both by the sincerities of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

PAul an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, by ỹ Wil of God, and [our] brother Timotheus, to ỹ Church of God, which is at Corinthus with al the Saintes, which are in all [a] Achaia:

a Meaning the countrey whereof Corinthus was the chiefe citie. Ephe.1.3. 1.pet.1.3.

2 Grace [be] with you, & peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Jesus Christ.

b Or, praise & glorie be giuē.

3 *[b] Blessed [be] God, euē the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulatiō, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by ỹ cōfort wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

c Which I suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffereth in me, Rom.7.5.& 8. 5.col.1.24.

5 For as the [c] sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our cōsolation aboūdeth through Christ.

d For seeing him indure so much, they had occasion to be confirmed in ỹ Gospel.

6 And whether we be afflicted, [it is] for your consolation, and [d] saluation, which e As God only worketh all things in vs: so doth he also our saluation by his free mercy, and by such meanes as he hath here left in this life for vs to be exercised in.

[e] is wrought in the enduring of ỹ same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be cōforted, [it is] for your consolation and saluation.

f Hereby he sheweth his own infirmity, that it might appeare how wonderfully Gods graces wrought in him.

7 And our hope is stedfast cōcerning you, in as much as we know that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so [shall ye be] also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how we were presed [f] out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether douted, euen of life.

g I was vtterly resolued in my selfe to die.

9 Yea, wee [g] receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because wee shoulde not trust in our selues, but in God, which raiseth the dead.

h So many dangers of death. Rom.15.30.

10 Who deliuered vs from so [h] great a death, & doth deliuer [vs:] in whom we trust, ỹ yet hereafter he wil deliuer [vs,]

11 * So that yee labour together in praier for vs, that for the gift [bestowed] vpon vs for many, thankes may be giuē by many persons for vs.

i He rendreth a reason why they ought to pray to God for his recouerie.

12 [i] For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly purenes, [and] not in fleshly wisedome, [k] but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to you wardes.

k Ying that wisedome which God gaue me from heauen.

13 For we [l] write none other things vnto you, then that ye reade, or els that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the ende.

l Ye knowe partly my constancie both by my dwelling with you, and also by my writing vnto you: and I trust ye shall know me to be the same to the very end.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your [m] reioycing, euen as ye are [n] ours, in the [o] day of [our] Lord Jesus.

m In that we haue taught you the Gospel so sincerely.

n Because we haue wonne you to Christ.

o Which shall abolish all worldly glory.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that ye might haue had a double grace,

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth toward Judea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnes? or minde I those things which I minde, [p] according to the flesh, that with me shoulde bee, [q] Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

p Which is rashly to promise and not to performe.

q Now to affirme one thing and then to deny it, which is a signe of inconstancie.

18 Yea, [r] God is faithfull, that our word toward you was not Yea, & Nay.

r He taketh God to witnes, that he preacheth the trueth.

19 For the Sonne of God Jesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, [that is,] by me, and Siluanus, & Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was [s] Yea.

s He preached nothing vnto them but onely Jesus Christ, who is ỹ most cōstant and infallible trueth of the Father.

20 For al the promises of God in him [are] [t] Yea, and [are] in him Amen, vnto the glorie of God through vs.

t They are made and performed, and we are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in that he hath fulfilled them for vs. Ephe.1.13.& 4.30. Ephe.1.14. chap.5.5.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, & hath anoynted vs.

22 Who hath also *sealed vs, and hath giuen the *earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Nowe, I call God for a recorde vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not that we [u] haue dominion ouer your faith, but wee are helpers of your ioy: for by [x] fayth ye stande.

u In that I saie I came not because I would spare you, I meane not that I haue authoritie to alter true religion, or to binde your consciences: but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you. x And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towards them, 7 Requiring likewise that they would bee fauourable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine, 17 Confuting thereby such quarelpickers, as vnder pretēce of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the ouerthrow of his doctrine.

BVt I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse.

2 For if I make you sorie, who is he then ỹ should make me glad, but the same which is made [a] sory by me?

a Which was giuen to Satā but now doth repent.

3 And I wrote [b] this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I should take heauines of them, of whom I ought to reioyce:

b Which made you and him sory in my former epistle.

reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the [ioy] of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should be made sorie, but that ye might perceiue ỹ loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

5 And if any haue caused sorowe, the same hath not [c] made me sorie, but partly (least I should [d] more charge [him]) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that nowe contrariwyse yee ought rather to forgiue [him,] and comfort [him] least the same [e] shoulde bee swallowed vp with ouermuch heauines.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you woulde [f] confirme your loue towardes him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might knowe the proofe of you, whether ye would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgiue any thing, I [forgiue] also: for verily if I forgaue any thing, to whome I forgaue it, for your sakes [forgaue I it] in ỹ [g] sight of Christ, 11 Lest Satan should [h] circumuēt vs: for we are not ignorāt of his enterprises.

12 ¶ Furthermore, when I came to Troas [to preach] Christs Gospel, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest ‖ in my spirit, because I foūd not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 [i] Nowe thankes [bee] vnto God which alwayes maketh vs [k] to triumph in Christ, & maketh manifest the sauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

15 For wee are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ, in them that are saued, and in them which perish.

16 To the one [we are] the [l] sauour of death, vnto death, * and to the other the sauour of life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

17 * For we are not as many, [m] which make marchandise of the word of God: but as of synceritie, but as of God in the sight of God speake we ‖ in Christ.

c After this adulterer did repent and amend, Paul did so vtterly cast off all sorowe, that he denieth that in manner he was any whit sory.
d And so shuld increase his sorowe which I would diminish.
e The adulterer, which entertained his mother in law.
f That at my intercessiō you would declare by the publike consent of the Church that you imbrace him againe as a brother: seeing he was excommunicate by the common consent.
g That is, truly, and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ.
h By our rigorous punishing.
‖ Or, in my minde. i From this place vnto the first chap. 11. he intreateth onely of the ministers, saue he sometime intermedleth that which appertaineth to the whole Church, as chap. 3. 17. and 18. verses, and not onely to the ministers.
k In working mightily by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumphe.
l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to thē which onely consider Christes death as a common death, and be thereat offended, or els thinke it folly: and bringeth againe life to them, who in his death behold their life. Ro. 11, 15, 16. Rom. 16. 18. chap. 4. 2.
m That is, which preach for gaine, and corrupt it to serue mens affections.
‖ Or, through Christ, or of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the trueth which he preached. 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false apostles. 7. 13 He maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

DOe [a] we begin to prayse our selues againe? or neede we as some other, epistles of recommendation vnto you, or [letters] of recommendation from you?

2 Yee are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnderstand and read of all men,

3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ, [b] ministred by vs, and written, not with inke, but with the spirit of the liuing God, not in [c] tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And such trust haue wee through Christ to God:

5 Not that wee are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiencie [is] of God.

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the newe testament, not of the [d] letter, but of the [e] Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the [f] spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministration [g] of death [written] with letters, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the childrē of Israel could not beholde the face of Moses for the [h] glorie of his countenāce (which [glorie] is done away)

8 Howe shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministerie of [i] condemnation [was] glorious, much more doeth the ministration of [k] righteousnesse exceede in glorie.

10 For euē that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, [that is,] as touching the exceeding glorie.

11 For if that which shoulde bee abolished, [was] glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that wee haue such trust, we vse [l] great boldnes of speach.

13 * And [we are] not as Moses, [which] [m] put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ende of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the Olde Testament, which [vaile] in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is layde ouer their heartes.

16 Neuertheles when their [heart] shalbe turned to the Lord, the vaile shal be taken away.

a Meaning himselfe, Timotheus and Siluanus.
b Who were Gods pen.
c The hardnes of mans heart before he be regenerate, is as a stony table, Eze. 11. 19. & 36. 26: but being regenerate by the Spirit of God, it is as soft as flesh, that the grace of the Gospell may be written in it, as in newe tables, Jerem. 31. 31, 32, 33.
d Whose minister Moses was.
e Which Christ gaue.
f Meaning, the spirituall doctrine, which is in our hearts
g Thus he nameth the Law, in comparison of the Gospel.
h After that God had spoken with him, and giuen him the Lawe.
i For the lawe declareth all men to be vnder condemnation.
k Meaning, of the Gospell which declareth that Christ is made our righteousnes.
l In preaching the Gospel.
Exod. 34. 33.
m Moses shewed the Lawe as it was couered with shadowes, so that the Jewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the ende thereof: againe the Gospel setteth forth the glorie of God cleerely, not couering our eyes, but driuing the darkenes away from them.

17 Now the [n] Lorde is the * Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lorde [is,] there [is] libertie.

18 But we all beholde as in a [o] mirrour the glorie of the Lorde with open face, and are changed into ỹ same image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

n Christ is our mediatour, and author of the Newe testament, whose doctrine is spirituall and giueth life to the lawe. Iohn, 4.24.

o In Christ, who is God manifested in the flesh, we see God the Father as in a most cleare glasse.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He declareth his diligence and roundnes in his office, 8 And that which his enemies tooke for his disaduantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which he endured, he turneth to his great aduantage, 11. 17 Shewing what profite commeth thereby.

Therfore, seeing that we haue this ministerie, as wee haue receiued mercie, [a] wee faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the [b] clokes of shame, and * walke not in craftines, neither handle wee the worde of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth wee approue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whome the [c] god of this world hath blinded the mindes, [that is,] of ỹ infidels, that the light of ỹ glorious Gospell of Christ, which is ỹ [d] image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For we preache not our [e] selues, but Christ Iesus the Lorde, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God that * commanded ỹ light to shine out of darkenes, [is hee] which hath shined in [f] our hearts, to giue the [g] light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we haue this [h] treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God, and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet [are we] not in distresse: in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouertie.

9 [We are] persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where wee beare about in our bodie the [i] dying of the Lord Iesus, that ỹ life of Iesus might also bee made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might bee made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then [k] death worketh in vs, & life in you.

13 And because we haue ỹ same [l] Spirit of faith, according as it is written, * I beleeued, and therefore haue I spoken, we also beleeue, and therefore speake, 14 Knowing that hee which hath raised vp the Lorde Iesus, shall [m] raise vs vp also by Iesus, & shall set vs with you.

15 For all things [are] for your sakes, that most plenteous grace by ỹ thanksgiuing of [n] many, may redounde to the prayse of God.

16 Therfore we faint not, but though our outward man ‖ perish, yet the inward man is [o] renued dayly.

17 For our [p] light affliction which is but for a mom̄et, causeth vnto vs a farre most excellent [and] an eternall waight of glorie:

18 Whyle we looke not on the things which are seene, but on ỹ things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, [are] temporall: but the things which are not seene, [are] eternall.

a For any troubles or afflictions.

b Meaning, such shifts and pretences as become not th̄e that haue such a great office in hand. Chap. 2.17.

c To wit, Satan, Iohn, 12. 31, and 14.30. Ephe. 6, 12.

d In whome God doth shew him selfe to be seene: and heere Christ is called so in respect of his office.

e As they, which preach for gaine, or els which rather seeke to be seen and knowen then to edifie. Gen. 1, 3.

f Which are your seruants.

g That we hauing receiued light, should cōmunicate the same with others, & therefore Christ calleth them the light of the world, Mat. 5. 14.

h Albeit the ministers of ỹ Gospel be contemptible as touching their person, yet the treasure which they carry is nothing worse or inferiour.

i All the faithfull, and chiefly the ministers must drinke of this cup, because the worlde hateth Christ: and also that the members should be conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mightie power of Christ, who ouercame death, they are made conquerours.

k By our death you haue life: so that ỹ fruite of our afflictions commeth to you.

l The same faith by the inspiration of the holy Ghost. Psal. 116.10.

m In deliuering vs from these dangers, which is as it were a restoring frō death to life.

n That I being deliuered and restored to you againe, may not onely my selfe giue God thankes for this infinite benefite of deliuerance, but also you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction and comfort, may abundantly set foorth his glorie.

‖ Or, be corrupted. o Groweth stronger. p Which is so called in respect of the euerlasting life.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vtilitie that commeth by the crosse. 4 How we ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 By whom, 9 And for what end. 14, 19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 And the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

For we knowe ỹ if [a] our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroied, we haue a building [giuen] of God, [that is,] an house not made with handes, [but] eternall in the heauens.

a After this body shalbe dissolued, it shall be made incorruptible and immortall.

2 For therefore we sighe, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is frō heauen.

3 ‖ Because that if we be clothed, wee shall not be founde * naked.

‖ Or, if so be we shalbe found clothed, and not naked. Reue. 16, 15.

4 For in deede we that are in this tabernacle, sigh & are burdened, ‖ because we would not be vnclothed, but would be clothed vpō, that mortalitie might be swalowed vp of life.

‖ Or, wherein.

5 And he that hath created vs for this thing, [is] God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the * earnest of the Spirit.

Chap. 1.22.

6 Therefore wee are alway [b] bolde, though wee knowe that whyles we are ‖ at home in the bodie, we are absent frō the Lord.

b Not onely quiet in minde, but also ready to sustaine all dangers: being assured of the good successe thereof.

7 (For we [c] walke by faith, and not by sight)

‖ Or, strangers in the body.

8 Neuertheles, we are bolde, & loue rather to remoue out of the bodie, and to dwell with the Lord.

c For here only we beleeue in God, and see him not.

9 Where-

9 Wherefore also we couet, that both dwelling [d] at home, & remouing [e] from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 *For we must al appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery mā may receiue the things which are [done] in his bodie, according to that hee hath done, whether [it be] [f] good or euill.

11 Knowing therefore the [g] terrour of the Lorde, we [h] perswade men, and we [i] are made manifest vnto God, & I trust also that wee are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, ỳ yee may haue [to answere] against them, which reioyce in the [k] face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be [l] out of our wit, [we are it] [m] to God: or whether we be in our right minde, [we are it] vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were [n] all dead,

15 And he died for al, that they [o] which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto thē selues, but vnto him which died for thē, and rose againe.

16 Wherfore, henceforth know we no man [p] after the flesh, yea though we had known Christ after the flesh, yet nowe henceforth [q] know we [him] no more.

17 Therefore if any mā [be] in Christ, [let him bee] a [r] newe creature. * Olde thinges are passed awaye: beholde, all thinges are become newe.

18 And all things [are] of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto him selfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was [s] in Christ, and reconciled the worlde to him selfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the worde of reconciliation.

20 Now then are we ambassadours for Christ: as though God dyd beseeche [you] through vs, wee praye you in Christes stead, that yee bee reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him [to be] [t] sinne for vs, which knewe no sinne, that wee should be [u] made ỳ righteousnes of God in him.

d In this body.
e Out of this body, to heauen.
Rom.14.10.
f That is, either glory or shame.
g His fearefull iudgement.
h He prayeth the dignitie of his ministerie by the fruite & effect thereof, which is, to bring men to Christ.
i By imbracing the same faith which we preach to others.
k As they, which more esteemed the outward shew of wisdome & eloquence, then true godlines.
l As the aduersaries said, which coulde not abide to heare them prayse.
m Our folly serueth to Gods glory.
n Therefore whosoeuer giueth place to ambition or vaine glory, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.
o As the onely faithfull doe in Christ.
p According to ỳ estimation of the worlde: but as he is guyded by the spirit of God.
q We doe not esteeme, nor commende Christ himselfe nowe, as he was an excellent man: but as he was the sonne of God, partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and doe you thinke, that I will flatter my selfe or any man in setting forth his giftes? Yea, when I prayse my ministerie, I commende the power of God: when I commende our worthie facts, I prayse the mightie power of God, set forth by vs wormes and wretches.
r Let him be regenerate, and renounce himselfe, els all the rest is nothing. Isa.43.19. reuel.21.5.
s Therefore without Christ wee can not enioye euerlasting life nor come to God.
t That is, a sacrifice for sinne.
u By imputation, when wee shall bee clad with Christes iustice.

CHAP. VI.

1 An exhortation to Christian life, 11 And to beare him like affection, as he doeth them: 14 Also to keepe themselues from all pollution of idolatrie both in body, and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolaters.

SO wee therefore as workers together beseech [you,] that ye receiue not ỳ grace of God in vaine.

2 For he saith, *I haue heard thee in a time accepted, & in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: behold now the [a] accepted time, beholde nowe the day of saluation.

3 Wee giue no occasion of offence in any thing, that [our] ministerie shoulde not be [b] reprehended.

4 But in all thinges we approue our selues as *the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumultes, in labours,

6 By [c] watchings, by fastings, by puritie, by knowledge, by long suffring, by kindnesse, by the [d] holy Ghost, by [e] loue vnfained,

7 [f] By the word of trueth, by ỳ power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour, and dishonour, by euill report & good report, as deceiuers, and [yet] true:

9 As vnknowen, and [yet] knowen: as dying, and behold, we liue: as chastened, and [yet] not killed:

10 As sorowing, and [yet] alway reioycing: as poore, and [yet] make many riche: as hauing nothing, and [yet] possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our [g] mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

12 Ye are not kept straict in vs, but ye are kept straict in your owne [h] bowelles.

13 Nowe for the same recompence, I speake as to [my] children, [i] Be you also enlarged.

14 [k] Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for * what fellowshippe hath righteousnesse with vnrighteousnesse? and what communion hath lyght with darkenesse?

15 And what cōcord hath Christ with ‖Belial? or what part hath the beleeuer with the infidell?

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idoles? * for ye are the Temple of the [l] liuing God: as God

Isa.49.8.
a To wit, Gods free mercy, wherein hee hath powred forth his infinite loue.
b By the infidels, if they sawe no fruite come thereof.
1.Cor.4.1.
c He declareth with what weapons he resisted his afflictions.
d Who is the efficient cause.
e Which is the finall cause.
f By the Gospel & the power of God and his owne integritie, he ouerthrewe Satan, and the world, as with weapons on euery side most readie.
g Signifying his most vehement affection.
h Their iudgment was so corrupted, that they were not likewise affectioned towards him, as he was towards them.
i Shew like affection towards me.
k He seemeth to allude to that which is written, Deut. 22.10. where the Lord commandeth that an Ore and an Asse be not poked together, because the match is vnequall: so if the faithfull marry with the Infidels, or els haue to doe with them in any thing vnlawfull, it is here reprooued. Ecclus.13.18. ‖Or, the deuill. 1.Corinth.3.16. and 6.19.
l So called, because hee hath not onely life in him selfe, but giueth it also to all liuing creatures.

hath saide, *I will dwell among them, and walke there: & I will be their God, and they shalbe my people.

Leuit.26.11, 12.

17 *Wherefore come out from among them, and separate your selues, saith the Lorde: and touch none vncleane thing, & I will receiue you.

Isa.52.11.

18 *And I will be a father vnto you, and yee shall be my sonnes & daughters, saith the Lord almightie.

Iere.31.1.

CHAP. VII.

1 He exhorteth them by the promises of God to keepe themselues pure, 3.7 Assuring the of his loue, 8.13 And doth not excuse his severitie toward them, but reioyceth thereat, considering what profit came thereby. 10 Of two sorts of sorowe.

SEeing the we haue these promises, dearely beloued, let vs [a] cleanse our selues from al filthines of the [b] flesh and spirit, and growe vp vnto full holines in the feare of God.

a Consider this well, ye that serue Idoles with your bodies, and yet thinke your consciences pure toward God: God will one day smite you for your halting.
b Of body and soule.

2 [c] Receiue vs: We haue done wrong to no man: We haue corrupted no man: We haue [d] defrauded no man.

c That we may teach you.
d By greedy couetousnes.

3 I speake it not to [your] condemnation: for I haue said before, that ye are in our hearts, to die and liue together.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speache toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, & am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For whe we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but We were troubled on euery side, fightings [e] without, and terrours within.

e He had neither rest in body nor spirit: & it seemeth ỳ he alludeth to that which is written, Deu.32.25, for the crosse to mans eye is common both to ỳ godly and to the wicked, although to contrarie endes.

6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:

7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when he tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to mewarde, so that I reioyced [f] much more.

f This ioy ouercame al my sorowes.

8 For though I made you sorie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same epistle made you sorie, though [it were] but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorie, but that yee sorowed to repentance: for yee sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 *For godly sorowe causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to bee repented of: but the worldly sorow causeth death.

1.Pet.2.19.

11 For behold, this thing that ye haue byn [g] godly sorie, What great care it hath wrought in you: yea, What [h] clearing of your selues: yea, [what] indignation: yea, [what] feare: yea, [how] great desire: yea, [what] a zeale: yea, [what] [i] punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are pure in this matter.

g Whose hart Gods Spirit doeth touch, he is sory for his sinnes committed against so merciful a Father: and these are the fruites of his repentance, as witnesse Dauids & Peters teares: others which are sory for their sinnes onely for feare of punishment & Gods vengeance, fal into desperation, as Caine, Saul, Achitophel and Judas.
h In asking God forgiuenes.
i For in iudging & chastising your selues, you preuented Gods anger.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done ỳ wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God myght appeare vnto you.

13 Therfore We were cõforted, because ye were comforted: but rather We reioyced much more for the ioy of Tytus, because his ‖spirit was refreshed by you al.

‖Or, heart.

14 For if ỳ I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not byn ashamed: but as I haue spokẽ vnto you all things in trueth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And [k] his inward affection is more abundant towarde you, when hee remembreth the obedience of you al, [and] howe with feare and trembling yee receiued him.

k The Greeke word signifieth his bowels, whereby is meant most great loue and tender affections.

16 I reioyce [therefore] that I may [l] put my confidence in you in all things.

l Both in thinking & reporting wel of you.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 And Christ, he exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saints, cõmending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus and his fellowes vnto them.

WE doe you also to witte, bretheren, of the [a] grace of God bestowed vpõ the Churches of Macedonia, a This benefite of God appeared in two things: first, ỳ the Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to help others: & next that being in great pouerty, were very liberall towards others.

2 Because in great triall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie [b] abounded vnto their rich liberalitie.

b So ỳ a most abundant riuer of riches flowed out of their pouertie.

3 For to [their] power (I beare record) yea, and beyonde their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that we would receiue the [c] grace, and fellowship * of the ministring which is towarde the Saints.

c So he calleth their liberality, either because they were the bestowers of Gods graces, or because they receiued them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to ỳ distribution thereof. Chap.9.12.

5 And [this they did,] not as We looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lorde, and [after] vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That We should exhort Titus, ỳ as he had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as yee abounde in euery thing, in faith & worde, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, [euen so see] that ye abounde in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commandemẽt, but but because of the diligence of others: therfore proue I ỹ naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that yee through his pouertie might be made rich.

10 And I shewe [my] minde herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begun not to do onely, but also to [d] will, a yeere a goe.

d Euery man may doe good that hath abilitie thereunto: but to will, and haue a minde to doe good, commeth of perfect charitie.

11 Nowe therefore performe to doe it also, that as [there was] a readinesse to will, euen so ye may performe it of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to ỹ a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither [is it] ỹ other men should be eased and you grieued.

14 But vpon like cõdition, at this time your [e] abundance [supplieth] their lacke, that also their abundance may bee for your lacke that there may be [f] equalitie:

e That as you helpe others in their neede, so others shall relieue your want.

15 As it is written, * Hee that [gathered] much, had nothing ouer, & hee that [gathered] litle, had not the lesse.

f That both you & others, as occasion shal serue, may relieue ỹ godly according to their necessities. Exod. 16, 18.

16 And thanks [be] vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Because he accepted the [g] exhortation, yea, hee was so carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

g And willingly offred himselfe to gather your almes.

18 And We haue sent also with him ỹ brother, whose praise [is] [h] in the Gospel throughout all the Churches, h In preaching the Gospel. Some vnderstande this to be spoken of Luke, others of Barnabas.

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a felowe in our iourney cõcerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and [declaration] of your prompt minde)

20 Auoyding this, that no mã should blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs,

Rom. 12, 17.

21 * Prouiding for [i] honest things, not only before ỹ Lord, but also before men.

i His wel doing is approued before God and man.

22 And wee haue sent with them our brother whome we haue oft times proued to bee diligent in many thinges, but nowe much more diligent, for the great confidence, which [I haue] in you.

23 Whether [any doe enquire] of Titus, [he is] my fellow and helper to youwarde: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, [and] the [k] glorie of Christ.

k That is, by whom Christs glory is greatly aduanced.

24 Wherefore shewe towarde them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioycing that wee haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 He exhorteth to giue almes cherefully, 7 Shewing what fruite will come thereof.

For as touching ỹ ministring to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I knowe your readines of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, [and say,] that Achaia was prepared a yeere a goe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, least our reioycing ouer you shoulde bee in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue saide) be readie:

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come wt me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I neede not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, [and come] as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet [remẽber,] ỹ he which soweth sparingly, shal reape also sparingly, & he that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, [so let him giue,] not * grudgingly, or of necessitie: * For God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

Prou. 12, 25. rom. 12, 8. Ecclus. 35, 10.

8 And God is able to make al grace to abounde towarde you, that ye alwayes hauing [a] al sufficiencie in all things, may abound in euery [b] good worke,

9 * As it is written, [c] He hath sparsed abroade and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he ỹ findeth seed to the sower, wil minister likewise bread for food, and multiplie your seed, and increase ỹ fruits of your beneuolence, 11 That on all parts ye may be made riche vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thankesgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministration of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saintes, but also is abundant by the thankesgiuing of many vnto God,

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministration praise God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to thẽ, and to all men) a Lest they should giue but litle, distrusting to impouerish them selues thereby, he sheweth that God will so blesse their liberall hearts, that both they shall haue ynough for thẽ selues and also to helpe others withall.

b That ye may do good and helpe others at all times.

Psal. 112, 9.

c Dauid speaketh of that man which feareth God and loueth his neighbour.

14 And by [d] their prayer for you, ‖ desiring after you greatly, for ỹ abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thankes therefore [be] vnto God for his vnspeakable gift.

d Besides that by their liberalitie God shall be prayed, they also shall be commended to God by their prayers whom they haue holpen, yea, and all men shall reuerence them, as being endued with an excellent gift of God. ‖Or, greatly affectioned toward you.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false Apostles and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And howe he vseth it.

NOw I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenesse, & gentlenes of Christ, which when I am present among you, [am] [a] base, but am bold toward you being absent:

a These words his backbiters vsed, thinking therby to diminish his authoritie, as vers. 10

2 And [this] I require you, that I neede not to be bolde whē I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bold against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked [b] according to the flesh.

b As though we boasted of our selues by a carnall affection.

3 Neuertheless, though we walke in the flesh, yet wee doe not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warrefare are not carnal, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on thinges after the appearance: If any man trust in him selfe that he is Christes, let him consider this againe of him self, that as he [is] Christs, euen so [are we] Christs.

8 For though I shoulde boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lorde hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 [This I say] that I may not seeme as [it were] to feare you with letters.

c Meaning, a certaine man among them, which thus spake of Paul.

10 For the letters, [c] saith he, are sore & strong, but his bodily presēce is weake, and his speach is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as we are in worde by letters when we are absent, such [will we be] also in deed, when we are present.

12 For wee dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which prayse themselues: but they vnderstand not that they [d] measure themselues with themselues, and compare themselues with themselues.

13 But We will not reioyce of things, which are not within [our] measure, *but according to ỹ [e] measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For wee stretch not our selues beyond [our] measure, as though we had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come [in preaching] the gospel of Christ,

15 Not boasting of things which are without [our] measure: [that is,] of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shal increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abūdantly,

16 And to preach ỹ Gospel in those [regions] which [are] beyonde you: not to reioyce in [f] another mans line, [that is,] in the things that are prepared alreadie.

17 *But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For hee that prayseth him selfe, is not alowed, but he whom ỹ Lord prayseth.

d He that measureth any thing, must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure a thing by it selfe: so these boasters must measure them selues by their worthie actes: and if they will compare with others, let thē shewe what countreys, what Cities, & people they haue wonne to the Lorde: for who wil prayse that souldier, which onely at the table can finely talke of the warres, and when he commeth to the brunt, is neither valiant nor expert?

e That is, the giftes and vocation, which God had giuen him to winne others by.

Ephe. 4. 7.

f God gaue the whole worlde to the Apostles to preach in, so that Paul here meaneth by the line, his portion of the countryes where he preached.

Iere. 9. 24. 1. cor. 1. 31.

CHAP. XI.

2 He declareth his affection toward them. 5 The excellencie of his ministerie. 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The fetches of the false apostles. 16 The peruerse iudgement of the Corinthians. 22 And his owne prayses.

WOuld to God, ye could suffer a litle my [a] foolishnes, and in deede, [b] ye suffer me.

a He calleth the praysing of him selfe dotage, to the which thing the arrogancie of the false apostles compelled him, who sought nothing els, but to ouerthrowe the Church by diminishing the authoritie of his ministerie.

b To speake in mine owne commendation.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielousie: for [c] I haue prepared you for one husbande, to present you [as] a pure virgine to Christ:

c The minister marrieth Christ and his Church as husband and wife by the preaching of the Gospel.

3 But I feare least as the * serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your mindes should be corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if he that commeth, preacheth another [d] Jesus then him whome wee haue preached: or if yee receiue another [e] spirit thē that which ye haue receiued: either another Gospel, thē that yee haue receyued, yee might well haue suffered [him.]

5 Uerely I [f] suppose that I was not inferiour to the very chiefe Apostles.

6 And though [I be] [g] rude in speaking, yet [I am] not [so] in knoledge, but amōg

Gen. 3. 4. d That is more perfect doctrine concerning Christ Jesus. e More excellent giftes of the Spirit by other mens preaching. f They did not preach Christ more purely then I did: for in this behalfe I was nothing inferiour to the chiefest Apostles. g That is, vse no worldly eloquence.

you

you we haue bene made manifest to the vtmost, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that yee might bee exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I [h] robbed other Churches, & tooke wages [of them] to do you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you, and had neede, I was [i] not slouthfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethē which came from Macedonia, supplyed, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I should not* bee grieuous to you.

10 [k] The trueth of Christ is in me, that this reioicing shal not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion frō them which desire [l] occasion, that they might bee founde like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

13 For such false [m] apostles are deceytful workers, and transforme themselues into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no maruaile: for Satā himselfe is transformed into an Angell of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselues, as though [they were] the ministers of righteousnes, whose ende shalbe according to their workes.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or els take me euen as a foole, ỳ I also may boast my selfe a litle.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the [n] Lord: but as [it were] foolishly, in this [my] great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce [o] after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For ye suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For yee suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure [you,] if a man take [your goodes,] if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

21 [p] I speake as cōcerning the reproch: as though that Wee had bene [q] Weake: but wherein any man is bold (I speake foolishly) I am bolde also.

22 They are Ebrewes, *so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I:

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I [r] speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes aboue measure: in prison more plenteously: in [s] death oft.

24 Of the Iewes [t] fiue times receiued I fourtie [stripes] * saue one.

25 [u] I was thrise * beaten with rods: I was * once stoned: I suffered thrise * shipwracke: night & day haue I bene in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneying [I was] often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the citie, in perils in wildernes, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, 27 In wearines and painefulnes, in watching often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in colde and in nakednes.

28 Beside the things which are outward, I am combred dayly, [and haue] the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weake, & I am not weake? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needes reioyce, I will reioyce of mine [x] infirmities.

31 The God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In * Damascus the gouernour of ỳ people vnder king Aretas, laide watch in the citie of the Damascens, & would haue caught me.

33 But at a windowe was I let downe in a basket through the wall, and escaped his handes.

h Other Churches relieued mee.
i He did not onely labour with his handes for his liuing, but in his extreme pouerty preached diligently, without burdening any man, or els waxing slouthfull to do his duetie to euery man. Chap.12.13. acts 20.34.
k Let not the truth of Christ be thought to be in me, if I suffer my ioy to be shut vp, which I haue conceyued of Grecia.
l To slander my ministerie, if I should receiue wages.
m By false apostles here is not ment such as teach false doctrine, (which doubtles, they would haue growen vnto) but such as were vaine glorious, and did not their duty sincerely.
n In his heart he had respect to the Lord: but this fashion of boasting seemed according to man, whereunto they compelled him.
o In outward things.
p I note this dishonour, which they do vnto you.
q That is, abiect, vile, miserable, a craftes man, an idiot, and subiect to a thousand calamities, which things ỳ false apostles obiected against him as most certaine testimonies of his vnworthinesse. Phil.3.5.
r Put case ye terme it so, yet is it true.
s In the present danger of death.
t At fiue seuerall times, euery time, thirtie and nine. Deut.25.3.
u Of the Romane Magistrates. Act.16.22,23. Act.14.19. Act.27.14.
x As imprisonmēts, beating, hunger, thirst, cold, nakednes, and such like: which things the aduersaries condemne as infirme in me. Acts.9.24.

CHAP. XII.

1 He reioyceth in his preferment, 5.7. But chiefly in his hūblenes, 11 And layeth the cause of his boasting vpon the Corinthians. 14 He sheweth what good will hee beareth them, 20 And promiseth to come vnto them.

IT is not expedient for me no doubt to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

2 * I know a man [a] in Christ aboue fourtene yeeres agone, (whether [hee were] in the bodie, I cannot tell, or out of the bodie, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the [b] third heauen.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the bodie, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that hee was taken vp into Paradise, and heard [c] wordes which can not bee spoken, which are not ‖ possible for man to vtter.

5 Of such a man wil I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it bee of Acts.9.3.

a That is, a Christian: or, I speake it in Christ.
b That is to say, into the highest heauen.
c Mans infirmitie was not able to declare them, neither were they shewed vnto him for that ende.
‖ Or, lawfull.

mme infirmities.

6 For though I woulde reioyce, I should not bee a foole: for I will say the trueth, but I refraine, least any man should thinke of me aboue that he seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And least I should be exalted out of measure through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuē vnto me [d] a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord [e] thrise, that it might depart from me.

9 And he saide vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made [f] perfect through weakenes. Very gladly therefore will I reioice rather in mine infirmities, that ẏ power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therfore [g] I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferiour vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, wherein yee were inferiours vnto other Churches, *except that I haue not bene ‖ slouthfull to your hinderance: forgiue me this wrong.

14 Behold, the [h] third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be slouthfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but [i] you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestowe, and will bee bestowed for your ‖ soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But be it that I charged you not: [k] yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pil you by any of them whō I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired [l] Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the selfe same spirit? [walked we] not in the same steppes?

19 Againe, thinke yee that we excuse our selues vnto you? wee speake before God in Christ. But [we doe] all things, dearely beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare least when I come, I shal not finde you such as I would: and that I shalbe founde vnto you [m] such as ye would not, & lest [there bee] strife, enuying, wrath, cōtentions, backebitings, whisperings, swellings [and] discorde.

21 [I feare] lest when I come again, my God [n] abase me among you, & I shal bewaile many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of ẏ vncleannes, and fornication, and wantonnes, which they haue committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He threatneth ẏ obstinate, 5 And declareth what his power is by their owne testimonie. 10 Also he sheweth what is the effect of this epistle. 11 After hauing exhorted them to their duetie, he wisheth them all prosperitie.

This [is] the [a] third time that I come vnto you. *In the mouth of two or three witnesses shal euery word stād.

2 [b] I told you before, and tell you before: as though I had bene present the seconde time, so write I nowe being absent to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare,

3 Seeing that yee seeke experience of Christ, ẏ speaketh in me, which towarde you is not weake, but is mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning [his] [c] infirmitie, yet liueth hee through the power of God. And wee no doubt are weake in him: [d] but wee shall liue with him, through ẏ power of God toward you.

5 *Proue your selues whether ye are in the faith: examine your selues: know yee not your owne selues, howe that Jesus Christ is in you, except yee bee reprobates?

6 But I trust that yee shall knowe that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God that ye do none euill, not ẏ We should seeme approued, but that ye should do that which is honest: though we be as [e] reprobates.

8 For we cannot [do] any thing against the trueth, but for the trueth.

9 For we are glad whē we are weake, and that ye are [f] strōg: this also we wish for: [euen] your perfection.

10 Therefore write I these things being absent, least when I am present, I should vse sharpnes, according to the power which the Lord hath giuen me, to [g] edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally

d The Greeke word signifieth a sharpe piece of wood as a pale, or stake, and also a litle spilde or sharpe thing which pricketh one as he goeth through bushie and thicke places, and entring into the flesh, cannot be taken out without cutting of the flesh: and this was the rebelling of the flesh against the spirit, and warned him that Satan was at hand.

e That is to say, often times.

f Is knowen and euidently seene.

g He doth not onely patiently beare his afflictions, but also ioyfully, and as one that taketh pleasure therein for Christs sake. Chap. 11.9.

‖ Or, chargeable.

h For first, he was minded to depart from Ephesus into Macedonia, and so to Corinthus, 1. Cor. 16.5. Then when the Lord letted this purpose, hee appointed to go straight from Ephesus to Corinthus, Chap. 1.15. which intent being changed, he writ to Macedonia, from whence now he appointeth the third time to come vnto thē.

i Which declareth his fatherly affection.

‖ Or, your cause or persons.

k Thus said his aduersaries, that though he tooke it not by himselfe, yet he did it by the meanes of others.

l To go to you.

m Meaning, sharp & seuere.

n There was nothing wherat he so much reioyced, as when his preaching profited: and therefore he calleth the Thessalonians his glorie and ioy: as also nothing did so much cast down his heart as when his labour did no good.

a His first cōming was his dwelling amōg them: his second was his first epistle, and now he is ready to come the third time: which three cōmings he calleth his three witnesses. Deut. 19.15. mat. 18.16. iohn 8.17. heb. 10.28.

b In my first epistle, chap. 4.20.

c In that he humbled him selfe and tooke vpon him the forme of a seruant.

d Christ as touching the flesh in mans iudgemēt was vile and abiect: therefore we that are his members, can not be otherwise esteemed: but being crucified, he shewed him selfe very God: so thinke, that we whom ye contemne as dead men & castawayes, haue through God such power to execute against you, that ye may feele sensibly that we liue in Christ. 1. Cor. 11.28.

e In mans iudgemēt who for ẏ most part reiecteth ẏ best, and approueth the worst.

f Hauing abundance of the grace of God. g Cōmit not by your negligence, that that which is ordeined to saluation, turne to your destruction.

11 Finally brethren, fare ye well: bee perfect: bee of good comfort: bee of one minde: liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shalbe with you.

12 Greete one another with an *holy h kisse. All the Saints salute you.

13 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ, & the loue of God, & the cõmunion of the holy Ghost be with you al, Amen.

Rom.16.16. 1.cor.16.20. 1.pet.5.14.

h Which was according to those countreis in those dayes both of the Jewes and of other nations.

The seconde [Epistle] to the Corinthians, written from Philippi, a citie in Macedonia, [and sent] by Titus and Lucas.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

The Argvment.

THe Galatians after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Lawe must bee necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the graunting thereof is the ouerthrowe of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretende, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authoritie, but spake of himselfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordeined by God, and also that he is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but nowe they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the ende thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to embrace that liberty, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the grennes of mans traditions: finally hee sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffred themselues to be seduced by the false Apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Lawe were necessarie to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 Hee sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

Tit.1.3.

a For God is the author of all ministerie.

b This prerogatiue was peculiar to the Apostles. Luke 1.74.

c Which is, the corrupt life of man without Christ.

‖Or, doctrine.

d That is, to be partakers of the saluation offred freely by Christ.

e For what is more contrary to our free iustification by faith, then the iustification by the lawe, or our workes?

f If it were possible, that an Angel should so doe: whereby Paul declareth the certaintie of his preaching.

PAul *an Apostle (not a of men, neither by b man, but by Jesus Christ, & God the Father, which hath rayled him from the dead)

2 And all the brethrẽ which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace [be] with you, and peace frõ God the Father, and [from] our Lorde Jesus Christ,

4 which gaue himselfe for our sinnes, that he might deliuer vs *from this c present euill worlde according to the will of God euen our Father,

5 To whome [be] glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I marueile that ye are so soone remoued away vnto another ‖ Gospell, from him that had called you in the d grace of Christ,

7 which is not another [Gospel,] saue that there be some which trouble you, and intende to e peruert the Gospell of Christ.

8 But though that we, or an f Angell from heaue̅ preach vnto you otherwise, ‖Or, abominable. then that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be ‖ accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I nowe againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwise then that ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For g nowe preach I mans [doctrine,] or Gods? or go I about to please men? for if I shoulde yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 *Nowe I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after h man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the i reuelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Jewish religiõ, howe that *I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

14 And profited in k the Jewish religion aboue many of my ‖ cõpanions of mine owne nation, & was much more zealous of the k traditions of my Fathers.

15 But when it l pleased God (which had separated mee from my mothers wombe, and called [me] by his grace)

16 To reuele his Sonne ‖ in me, that I shoulde preach him *among the Gentiles, immediately I communicated not with m flesh and blood:

17 Neither came I againe to Jerusalem

g Since that of a Pharise I was made an Apostle. 1.Cor.15.1.

h That is, doctrine inuẽted by man, neither by mans authoritie doe I preach it.

i By an extraordinarie reuelation. Acts.9.1.

‖Or, Age.

k That is, of the lawe of God, which was giuen to the ancient fathers.

l He maketh three degrees in Gods eternall predestination: first his eternall counsell, then his appointing from the mothers wombe, and thirdly his calling.

‖Or, to me. Ephes.3.8.

m That is, with any man as though I had neede of his counsell to approue my doctrine.

11 Finally brethren, fare ye well: bee perfect: bee of good comfort: bee of one minde: liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shalbe with you.

12 Greete one another with an *holy h kisse. All the Saints salute you.

13 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ, & the loue of God, & the cõmunion of the holy Ghost be with you al, Amen.

Rom.16.16. 1.cor.16.20. 1.pet.5.14.

h Which was according to those countreis in those dayes both of the Jewes and of other nations.

The seconde [Epistle] to the Corinthians, written from Philippi, a citie in Macedonia, [and sent] by Titus and Lucas.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

The Argvment.

THe Galatians after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Lawe must bee necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the graunting thereof is the ouerthrowe of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretende, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authoritie, but spake of himselfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordeined by God, and also that he is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but nowe they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the ende thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to embrace that liberty, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the grennes of mans traditions: finally hee sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffred themselues to be seduced by the false Apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Lawe were necessarie to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 Hee sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

Tit.1.3.

a For God is the author of all ministerie.

b This prerogatiue was peculiar to the Apostles. Luke 1.74.

c Which is, the corrupt life of man without Christ.

‖Or, doctrine.

d That is, to be partakers of the saluation offred freely by Christ.

e For what is more contrary to our free iustification by faith, then the iustification by the lawe, or our workes?

f If it were possible, that an Angel should so doe: whereby Paul declareth the certaintie of his preaching.

PAul *an Apostle (not a of men, neither by b man, but by Jesus Christ, & God the Father, which hath rayled him from the dead)

2 And all the brethrẽ which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace [be] with you, and peace frõ God the Father, and [from] our Lorde Jesus Christ,

4 which gaue himselfe for our sinnes, that he might deliuer vs *from this c present euill worlde according to the will of God euen our Father,

5 To whome [be] glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I marueile that ye are so soone remoued away vnto another ‖ Gospell, from him that had called you in the d grace of Christ,

7 which is not another [Gospel,] saue that there be some which trouble you, and intende to e peruert the Gospell of Christ.

8 But though that we, or an f Angell from heaue̅ preach vnto you otherwise, ‖Or, abominable. then that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be ‖ accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I nowe againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwise then that ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For g nowe preach I mans [doctrine,] or Gods? or go I about to please men? for if I shoulde yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 *Nowe I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after h man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the i reuelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Jewish religiõ, howe that *I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

14 And profited in k the Jewish religion aboue many of my ‖ cõpanions of mine owne nation, & was much more zealous of the k traditions of my Fathers.

15 But when it l pleased God (which had separated mee from my mothers wombe, and called [me] by his grace)

16 To reuele his Sonne ‖ in me, that I shoulde preach him *among the Gentiles, immediately I communicated not with m flesh and blood:

17 Neither came I againe to Jerusalem

g Since that of a Pharise I was made an Apostle. 1.Cor.15.1.

h That is, doctrine inuẽted by man, neither by mans authoritie doe I preach it.

i By an extraordinarie reuelation. Acts.9.1.

‖Or, Age.

k That is, of the lawe of God, which was giuen to the ancient fathers.

l He maketh three degrees in Gods eternall predestination: first his eternall counsell, then his appointing from the mothers wombe, and thirdly his calling.

‖Or, to me. Ephes.3.8.

m That is, with any man as though I had neede of his counsell to approue my doctrine.

salem to them which were Apostles before mee, but I went into Arabia, & turned againe vnto Damascus.

18 Then after three yeres I came againe to Jerusalem to visite Peter, and abode with him fifteene dayes.

19 And none other of the Apostles saw I, saue James the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write vnto you, beholde, [I witnes] before God, that I lie not.

21 After that, I went into the coasts of Syria & Cilicia: for I was vnknowen by face vnto the Churches of Judea, which were in Christ.

22 But they had hearde onely [some saye,] Hee which persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the [n] faith which before he destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

n That is, the Gospell which is the doctrine of faith.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleshippe to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferiour to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that he hath reproued Peter the Apostle of the Jewes. 16 After he commeth to the principal scope, which is to proue that iustification only commeth of the grace of God by faith in Jesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe.

Then fourteene yeres after, I went vp againe to Jerusalē [a] with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also.

a Paul nothing doubted of his doctrine: but because many reported that he taught contrarie doctrine to ỹ other apostles which rumors hindered the course of ỹ Gospell, he endeuored to remedie it, and to proue that they consented with him. Actes 15.2. ‡Greeke without profit.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and communicated with thē of the Gospel which I preache among the Gentiles, *but particularly with them that were the chiefe, lest by any meanes I shoulde runne, or had runne ‡ in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with mee, though hee were a Grecian, was [b] compelled to be circumcised, b Which declareth ỹ the other Apostles agreed with him.

4 For all the false brethren ỹ crept in: who came in priuily to spie out our libertie, which we haue in Christ Jesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

c Least wee should haue betrayed ỹ Christian libertie.

5 To whome wee [c] gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the trueth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 And of them which seemed to bee great, [I was not taught] (what they [d] were in time passed, it maketh no matter to me: *God accepteth no mans person) neuertheles, they that are ỹ chiefe, [e] did communicate nothing with me.

d Albeit they had byn cōuersant vñ Christ afore time. Deut.10.17. 2.chro.19.7. iob.34.19.wis. 6.7. eccles.35. 12,16.acts.10. 34.rom.2.11. ephe.6.9.colo. 3.25.1.pet.1. 17.

e But approued my doctrine perfect in all poynts.

7 But contrariwise, whē they sawe ỹ the Gospel ouer the vncircumcision was committed vnto me, as [the Gospell] ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For he that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleshippe ouer the circumcision, was also mightie by me toward the Gentiles)

9 And when James, and Cephas, and John knewe of the grace that was giuen vnto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to me and to Barnabas the [f] right handes of fellowshippe, that we [shoulde preach] vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision,

10 *[Warning] onely that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

f In token that we all agreed in doctrine. Acts.11.30. 2.cor.9.3.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstoode him [g] to his face: for he was to be blamed.

g Meaning, before all men. ‡Greeke, with a right foote.

12 For before that certaine came from James, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrewe and separated him selfe, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.

13 And the other Jewes dissembled likewise w̄ him, in so much ỹ Barnabas was brought into their dissimulatiō also.

14 But when I saw, that they went not ỹ ‡ right way to ỹ trueth of the Gospel, I said vnto Peter before al men, If thou being a Jew, liuest as ỹ Gentiles, & not like the Jewes, why [h] constrainest thou the Gentiles to do like the Jewes?

h In bringing their consciences into doubt, by thine example, & authoritie: and here the Apostle commeth to his chief point.

15 We [which are] Jewes by nature, and not [i] sinners of the Gentiles, i For so the Jewes called the Gentiles in reproch. ‖Or, man. Rom.3.19,20. phil.3.9.

16 Know ỹ a man is not iustified by ỹ workes of the Law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ: euē we, [I say,] haue beleued in Jesus Christ, ỹ we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, & not by the works of ỹ Law, because ỹ by ỹ workes of the Lawe no ‖ flesh shall be iustified.

k Except our fruits be agreable to our faith, we declare that we haue not Christ.

17 *If thē while we seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are founde [k] sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God [l] forbid.

l For he caused them not to sinne, but disclosed it, nether tooke he away the righteousnes of the law, but shewed their hypocrisie, which were not able to performe that whereof they boasted.

18 For if I builde againe the things that I haue destroyed, [m] I make my selfe a trespasser.

m For my doctrine is to destroy sinne by faith in Christ and not to establish sinne.

19 For I through the Law am dead to the Lawe, [and] that I might liue vnto God, I am [n] crucified with Christ.

n And feele his strength in me which killeth sinne.

20 Thus I liue [yet,] [o] not I nowe, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I nowe liue in the [p] flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, and giuen him selfe for me.

o Not as I was once, but regenerate, and changed into a newe creature, in qualitie and not in substāce.

21 I doe not abrogate the [q] grace of God: for if righteousnes [be] by ỹ Law, then Christ dyed ‖ without a cause.

p In this mortall body.

q As did the false apostles which preached not the faith in Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He rebuketh them sharpely, 2 And proueth by diuers reasons that iustification is by faith, 6 As appeareth by the example of Abraham, 10.19.24. And by the office, and the ende, both of the Lawe, 11.25 And of faith.

‖ Or, for nothing.

O foolish

O Foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you that yee shoulde not obey the trueth, to whome Jesus Christ before [a] was described in your sight, [and] among you crucified?

2 This only would I learne of you, Receiued ye the [b] Spirit by the workes of the Lawe, or by the hearing of [c] faith [preached?]

3 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begunne in the Spirit, ye woulde nowe [d] be made perfect by the [c] flesh?

4 Haue ye suffred so many things in vaine? if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore that ministreth to you the Spirite, and worketh miracles among you, [doeth he it] through the workes of the Lawe, or by the hearing of faith [preached?]

6 [Yea rather] as Abraham beleeued God, and it was * imputed to him for righteousnesse.

7 Knowe yee therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing, that God would iustifie the Gētiles through faith, preached before the Gospell vnto Abraham, [saying,] * In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the [f] workes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is euery man that continueth not in al things, which are written in the booke of the Law, to do them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Lawe in the sight of God, it is euident: * for the iust shal liue by faith.

12 And the [g] lawe is not of faith: but * the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, that we might receiue the [h] promes of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, [i] I speake as men doe, * Though it be but a mās couenant whē it is confirmed, [yet] no man doeth abrogate it, or [k] addeth any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. He sayeth not, And to the seedes, as [speaking] of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which [l] is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Lawe which was foure hundreth and thirtie yeeres after, can not disanull the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it shoulde make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance [be] of the Law, [it is] no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then [serueth] the Lawe? It was added because of the [m] transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordeined by [n] Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Nowe a Mediatour is not [a Mediatour] of [o] one: but God is [p] one:

21 [Is] the Lawe then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Lawe giuen which coulde haue giuen life, surely righteousnesse should haue bene by the Lawe.

22 But the Scripture hath * concluded [q] all vnder sinne, that the promes by the faith of Jesus Christ shoulde be giuen to them that beleeue.

23 But before [r] faith came, we were kept vnder the Lawe, and shut vp vnto the faith, which shoulde afterwarde be reuelled.

24 Wherefore the * Lawe was our scholemaster [to bring vs] to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, wee are no longer vnder [s] a scholemaster.

26 For ye are all the sonnes of God by faith, in Christ Jesus.

27 * For all ye that are [t] baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jewe nor Grecian: there is neither bonde nor free: there is neither male nor female: for ye are all [u] one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if [ye be] Christs, then are ye Abrahams seede, and heires by promise.

a To whome Christ was so liuely preached, as if his liuely image were set before your eyes, or els had bene crucified among you.
b Meaning, the giftes of the spirit.
c That is, the doctrine of saluation through faith in Jesus Christ, as Chap.1.22.
d The false apostles taught that Christ profited nothing, except they were circumcised, and that the lawe was the perfection, and Christs doctrine onely the rudiments thereunto.
e And ceremonies of the lawe?
Gen.15.6. rom.4.3. iam.2.23.
Gen.12.3. ecclus.44.20, 21.act.3.25.
f Which think to be iustified by them.
Deut.27.26. Habak.2.4. rom.1.17. heb.10.38.
g The Lawe pronounceth not them iust, which beleeue, but which worke, and so condemneth all them which in all pointes doe not fulfill it.
Leuit.18.5. Deut.21.23.
h Which is the Gospell.
i I will vse a common example ỳ you may be ashamed to attribute lesse vnto God, then to such couenants, which one man maketh to another. Heb.9.17.
k No more is the promise or couenant of God abrogate by the Lawe, nor yet is the Lawe added to the promise to take any thing away that was superfluous, or to supply any thing that wāted.
l Which declareth that the Jewes and Gentiles are both partakers of the promise, because they are ioyned in Christ, which is this blessed seede.
m That sinne might appeare and be made more abundant, and so all to be shut vp vnder sinne.
n Who as ministers gaue it to Moses by the authoritie of Christ.
o But serueth both for the Jewes and Gentiles to ioyne them to God.
p Constant and alwayes like him selfe. Rom.3.9.
q Both men and all their workes.
r The full reuelation of things which were hid vnder the shadowes of the lawe. Rom.10.4.
s Not that the doctrine of the lawe is abolished, but the condemnation thereof is taken away by faith. Rom.6.3.
t So that baptisme succeedeth Circumcision, and so through Christ both Jewe and Gentile is saued.
u As all one man.

CHAP. IIII.

2 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeined. 3 Which being shadowes must end when Christ the trueth cōmeth. 9 He moueth thē by certaine exhortations. 22 And cōfirmeth his argument with a strong example, or allegorie.

Then I say, that the [a] heire as long as he is a childe, differeth nothing from a seruant, though he be lorde of all, a The Church of Israel was vnder the lawe as the pupil subiect to his tutor, euen vnto the time of Christ, when she waxed strong, and then her tutelshippe ended.

2 But

2 But is vnder [b] tutours and gouernours, vntill the time appointed of the father.

3 Euen so, We when we were childrē, were in bondage vnder the [c] rudiments of the worlde.

4 But when the fulnes of time was come, God sent forth his Sōne made of a woman, [†] made [d] vnder the Lawe,

5 That he might redeeme thē which were vnder the Lawe, that we* might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, GOD hath sent forth the [e] Spirit of his Sonne into your heartes, which cryeth, [f] Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more [g] a seruant, but a sonne: nowe if [thou be] a sonne, [thou art] also the heire of God through Christ.

8 But euen then, when ye [h] knewe not God, ye did seruice vnto thē, which by [i] nature are not gods.

9 But now seeing ye know God, yea, rather are knowen of God, howe turne [k] ye againe vnto impotent and beggerly rudiments, wherunto [as] from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

10 Ye obserue [l] dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeeres.

11 I am in feare of you, least I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Be ye as [m] I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseech you: ye haue not hurt [n] me at all.

13 And ye knowe, how through [o] infirmitie of the flesh I preached the Gospell vnto you at the first.

14 [p] And the triall of me which was in my flesh, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but ye receiued me as an [q] Angell of God, [yea,] as Christ Jesus.

15 What was then your felicitie? for I beare you record, [ŷ] if it had bene possible, ye woulde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are ielous ouer you [r] amisse: yea, they woulde exclude [ſ] you, that ye shoulde altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you, 19 My litle children, of whom I trauaile in birth againe, vntil Christ be [t] formed in you.

20 And I woulde I were with you nowe, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doute of you.

21 Tell me, ye that will be vnder the Lawe, doe ye not heare the Lawe?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, * one by a seruant, and * one by a free woman.

23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the free woman, [was borne] by promes.

24 By the which thinges an other thing is meant: for these [mothers] [u] are the two Testaments, the one which is [x] Agar of mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar [or] Sina is a mountaine in [y] Arabia, and it answereth to Jerusalem which nowe is) and she is in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem, which is ‖aboue, is free: which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, * Reioyce thou [z] barren that beareſt no children: breake forth, and crie, thou that trauaileſt not: for the desolate hath many mo children, then she which hath an husband.

28 * Therefore, brethren, we are after the maner of Isaac, children of the promise.

29 But as then he that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that [was borne] after the spirit, euen so [it is] now.

30 But what sayeth the Scripture? * Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruāt shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not childrē of the seruant, but of the [a] free woman [†].

CHAP. V.

2 He laboureth to drawe them away from Circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battell betwixt the Spirit and the flesh, and the fruites of them both.

STand fast therefore in the libertie wherwith Christ hath made vs free, and be not intangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 * Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be [a] circumcised, Christ shal profite you nothing.

3 For I testifie againe to euery man, which is circumcised, that he is bound to keepe the whole Lawe.

4 Ye

b That is, the lawe, which before he called a scholemaster, Chap. 3.25.
c That is, vnder the lawe, which was but an a. b. c. in respect of the Gospell.
d That is, who was subiect vnto the lawe. Rom. 8.14,15.
e For our adoption vnto Christ is sealed by him.
f He instructeth both Jewes and Gentiles to call God their Father in euery language, so that none are excepted.
g Which maist not vse thy libertie.
h When ye receiued the gospell, ye were idolaters: therefore it is shame for you to refuse liberty, and become seruants, yea and seeing the Jewes desire to be out of their tutelship.
i Not in deede, but in opinion.
k The Galatians, of Painims began to be Christians, but by false apostles were turned backewarde to begin anew the Jewish ceremonies, and so in steade of going forward toward Christ, they ran backward from him.
l Ye obserue dayes, as Sabbaths, newe moones &c: ye obserue moneths, as the first and seuēth moneth: ye obserue times, as Easter, Whitsontide, the feast of Tabernacles: ye obserue yeeres, as the Jubile, or yeere of forgiuenes, which beggerly ceremonies are most pernicious to them which haue receiued the sweete libertie of the Gospell, and thrust them backe into superstitious slauery.
m So friendful to me, as I am affectioned towarde you.
n For I pardon you, if you repent.
o Being in great dangers and afflictions, or without pompe and ostentation.
p That is, the troubles and vexations which God sent to trye me while I was among you.
q For my ministeries sake.
r For they are but ambitious.
ſ They would turne you from me, that you might followe them.
t And imprinted so in your hearts that you loue none other.
u That is, signifie.
x Agar and Sina represent the Lawe: Sara and Jerusalem the Gospell: Ismael ŷ Jewish synagogue, and Isaac the Church of Christ.
y That is, out of the lande of promise.
‖ Or, hye and heauenly. Isa. 54.1.
z Meaning Sara. Rom. 9.8. Gen. 21.10.
a For we are in the Church of Christ, which is our mother, and not of the synagogue which is a seruant vnder the law.
† By the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free.
a If you ioyne circumcision to the Gospell, as a thing necessarie to saluation.

Gen. 16.15. Gen. 21.2.

Acts. 15.1.

1.Cor.1,17.

4 Ye are * abolished from Christ: whosoeuer are iustified by the Lawe, ye are fallen from grace.

5 For We through the Spirit [b] waite for y hope of righteousnes through faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither Circūcisiō auaileth any thing, neither vncircūcision, but faith which worketh by loue.

7 Ye did runne wel: Who did let you, that ye did not obey the [c] trueth?

8 [It is] not the perswasion of him that [d] calleth you.

9 *A litle [e] leauen doeth leauen the whole lumpe.

10 I haue trust in you through the Lord, y ye will be none otherwise [f] minded: but he y troubleth you, shall beare [his] condemnation, whosoeuer he be.

11 And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the [g] slaunder of the crosse abolished.

12 Woulde to God they were euen cut off, which doe disquiet you.

13 For brethren, ye haue bene called vnto libertie: onely vse not [your] libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14 For [h] all the Lawe is fulfilled in one worde, which is this, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

15 If ye bite and deuoure one another, take heede lest ye be consumed one of another.

16 Thē I say, *walke in the [i] Spirit, & ye shall not fulfil the lustes of the flesh.

17 For the [k] flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary one to the other, so that ye can not doe the same thinges that ye woulde.

18 And if ye be led by the [l] Spirite, ye are not vnder the Lawe.

19 Moreouer the workes of the flesh are manifest, which are adulterie, fornication, vncleanneſſe, wantonneſſe,

20 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, debate, emulations, wrath, contentions, seditions, heresies,

21 Enuie, murders, drunkennesse, gluttonie, and such like, whereof I tell you before, as I also haue tolde you before, that they which doe such thinges, shall not inherite the kingdome of God.

22 But the fruite of the Spirite is loue, ioye, peace, long suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faith, 23 Meekenesse, temperancie: against such there is [m] no Lawe.

24 For they that are Christes, [n] haue crucified the flesh with the affections and the lustes.

25 If We liue in the Spirit, let vs also walke in the [o] Spirit.

26 Let vs not be desirous of vaine glorie, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

CHAP. VI.

1 He exhorteth them to vse gentlenesse toward the weake, 2 And to shewe their brotherly loue and modestie: 6 Also to prouide for their ministers, 9 To persеuere, 14 To reioyce in the crosse of Christ, 15 To newnesse of life, 16 And last of all wisheth to them with the rest of the faithfull all prosperitie.

BRethren, If a man be [a] fallen by occasion into any fault, ye which are spirituall, restore such one with the spirite of meekenesse, considering thy selfe, least thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so [b] fulfill the Lawe of Christ.

3 For if any man seeme to him selfe, y he is somewhat, when he is [c] nothing, he deceiueth himselfe in his imagination.

4 But let euery man proue his owne worke, & then shall he haue [d] reioycing in himselfe onely and not in another.

5 *For euery man shall beare his owne burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, make him that hath taught him, partaker of all [his] [e] * goods.

7 Be not deceiued: God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man soweth, that shall he also reape.

8 For he that [f] soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but he that soweth to the spirit, shall of the spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 *Let vs not therefore be wearie of well doing: for in due season we shall [g] reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs do good vnto al mē, but specially vnto thē, which are of the housholde of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I haue written vnto you w̄ mine owne hande.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shewe [h] in the flesh, they constraine you to be circumcised, onely because they woulde not suffer persecution for the [i] crosse of Christ.

13 For they themselues which are circumcised, keepe not the Lawe, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might reioyce [k] in your flesh.

14 But

b We liue in hope through that Spirit which causeth faith, & which is giuen to the faithfull, that we should by faith and not by the lawe obtaine the crowne of glorie, which Christ giueth freely.
c Then whatsoeuer is not the worde of God, which here he calleth trueth, is very lyes.
d Which is God.
1.Cor.5.6.
e A litle corruption doth destroy the whole doctrine.
f That ye wil imbrace the worde of God purely.
g That is, the doctrine of the Gospel, which the world abhorred, as a slanderous thing, & therewith were offended.
h Meaning the seconde table.
Leuit.19.18. mat.22.39. mar.12.31. iam.2.8. Rom.13.14. 1.pet.2.11.
i In the man regenerate.
k That is, the naturall man striueth against the spirit of regeneration.
l If you be guided by the spirit of adoption, that which ye doe, is agreeable to God, although it be not perfect.
m For they are vnder the spirit of grace, n Christ hath not onely remitted their sinnes, but sanctified them into newnes of life.
o That being dead to sinne & liuing to God, we may declare y same in holines & innocencie of life.
a Either by reason of his flesh or Satan.
b Christ exhorteth in sundry places to mutuall loue, and therefore brotherly loue is here called the law of Christ, and his commandement, John 13.34. and 15.12.
c He sheweth that man hath nothing of him selfe wherof he should reioyce.
d For his reioycing is a testimonie of a good conscience, 2.Cor.1.12. wherein he may reioyce before men, but not before God.
1.Cor.3.8.
e For it were a shame not to prouide for their corporall necessities which feede our soules with the heauenly deities.
1.Cor.9.7.
f He proueth that the ministers must be nourished: for if men onely prouide for worldly things without respect of the life euerlasting, thē they procure to them selues death, & mocke God, who hath giuen them his ministers to teach them heauenly things. 2.Thess.3.13. g The fruite which God hath promised. h By the outwarde ceremonies. i That is, for preaching Christ crucified. k That they haue made you Jewes.

14 But God forbid that I ſhould reioyce, but in the croſſe of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt, whereby the [l] worlde is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the worlde.

15 For in Chriſt Ieſus neither circumciſion auaileth any thing, nor vncircumciſion, but a newe [m] creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace [ſhall be] vpon them, and mercy, [n] vpon the Iſrael of God.

17 From henceforth let no man [o] put me to buſineſſe: for I beare in my body the [p] markes of the Lorde Ieſus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt [be] with your ſpirit, Amē.

¶ Vnto the Galatians written from Rome.

l By the worlde he meaneth all outwarde pompe, ceremonies and things which pleaſe mens fantaſies.

m Which is regenerate by faith.

n That is, vpon the Iewes, as Rō. 10, 19.

o Let no man trouble my preaching frō henceforth: for my markes are witneſſes howe valiantly I haue fought.

p Which are odious to the worlde, but glorious before God.

The Epiſtle of Paul to the Epheſians.

The Argvment.

WHile Paul was priſoner at Rome, there entred in among the Epheſians falſe teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reaſon whereof he wrote this Epiſtle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And firſt after his ſalutation, he aſſureth them of ſaluation, becauſe they were thereunto predeſtinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and ſealed vp to this eternall life by the holy Ghoſt, giuen vnto them by the Goſpell, the knowledge of the which myſterie he prayeth God to confirme towarde them. And to the intent they ſhoulde not glorie in them ſelues, he ſheweth them their extreme miſerie, wherein they were plonged before they knew Chriſt, as people without God, Gentiles to whome the promiſes were not made, and yet by the free mercie of God in Chriſt Ieſus, they were ſaued, and he appointed to be their Apoſtle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he deſireth God to lighten the Epheſians hearts with the perfite vnderſtanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewiſe to be mindful of ſo great benefites, neither to be moued with the falſe apoſtles, which ſeeke to ouerthrowe their faith, and treade vnder foote the Goſpell, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counſell of God: who by this meanes preſerueth onely his Church. Therefore the Apoſtle commendeth his miniſterie, foraſmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and cauſeth it to bring foorth moſt plentifull fruites, as innocencie, holineſſe, with all ſuch offices apperteining to godlineſſe. Laſt of all, he declareth not onely in general, what ought to be the life of the Chriſtians, but alſo ſheweth particularly, what things concerne euery mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his ſalutation, 4 He ſheweth that the chiefe cauſe of their ſaluation ſtandeth in the free election of God through Chriſt. 16 He declareth his good will towarde them, giuing thankes, and praying God for their faith. 21 The maieſtie of Chriſt.

PAul an Apoſtle of IESVS CHRIST, by [y] Wil of God, to the * Saints, which are at Epheſus, and to the faithfull in CHRIST IESVS.

2 Grace [bee] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

3 * Bleſſed [be] God, euen the Father of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt, which hath bleſſed vs with all [a] ſpirituall bleſſing in heauenly ‖ things in Chriſt,

4 * As he hath [b] choſen vs in him, before the foundation of the worlde, that we * ſhoulde be [c] holy, & without blame before him in loue:

5 who hath predeſtinate vs, to be [d] adopted through Ieſus Chriſt vnto him ſelfe, according to the good pleaſure of his will,

1.Cor.1.2. 2.Cor.1.3. 1.pet.1.3.

a As with the knowledge of God in Chriſt, with faith, hope, charitie, and other giftes.

‖ Or, places. 2.Tim.1.9.

b This election to life euerlaſting can neuer be changed: but in temporall offices, which God hath appointed for a certaine ſpace, when the term is expired, he changeth his election, as we ſee in Saul & Iudas. Col.1.22.

c When Chriſtes iuſtice is imputed ours.

d Where as we were not the naturall children, he receiued vs by grace, and made vs his children.

6 To the [e] praiſe of the glorie of his grace, wherewith he hath made vs accepted in [his] beloued,

7 By whome we haue redemption through his blood, [euen] the forgiuenes of ſinnes, according to his rich grace:

8 whereby he hath bene abundant towarde vs in all wiſedome and vnderſtanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs [y] myſterie of his wil according to his good pleaſure, which he had purpoſed [f] in him,

10 That in the diſpēſation of [y] fulnes of the times he might gather together in one [g] all things, both which are in heauen & which are in earth, [euē] in Chriſt:

11 In whom alſo we are choſen whē we were predeſtinate according to [y] purpoſe of him, which worketh all thinges after the counſell of his owne will,

12 That [h] we, which firſt truſted in Chriſt, ſhoulde be vnto the praiſe of his glorie:

13 In whome alſo ye [haue truſted] after that ye heard the worde of trueth, [euen] [y] Goſpel of your ſaluatiō, wherein alſo after that ye beleeued, ye were ſealed with the holy Spirit of promiſe,

14 which

e The principall end of our election is to praiſe and glorifie the grace of God.

f That is, in Chriſt.

g By this he meaneth the whole body of the Church, which he deuideth into them which are in heauen, and them which are in earth: alſo the faithfull which remaine in earth ſtande of the Iewes and the Gentiles.

h To wit, the Iewes.

14 But God forbid that I ſhould reioyce, but in the croſſe of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt, whereby the [l] worlde is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the worlde.

15 For in Chriſt Ieſus neither circumciſion auaileth any thing, nor vncircumciſion, but a newe [m] creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace [ſhall be] vpon them, and mercy, [n] vpon the Iſrael of God.

17 From henceforth let no man [o] put me to buſineſſe: for I beare in my body the [p] markes of the Lorde Ieſus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt [be] with your ſpirit, Amē.

¶ Vnto the Galatians written from Rome.

l By the worlde he meaneth all outwarde pompe, ceremonies and things which pleaſe mens fantaſies.

m Which is regenerate by faith.

n That is, vpon the Iewes, as Rō. 10, 19.

o Let no man trouble my preaching frō henceforth: for my markes are witneſſes howe valiantly I haue fought.

p Which are odious to the worlde, but glorious before God.

The Epiſtle of Paul to the Epheſians.

The Argvment.

WHile Paul was priſoner at Rome, there entred in among the Epheſians falſe teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reaſon whereof he wrote this Epiſtle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And firſt after his ſalutation, he aſſureth them of ſaluation, becauſe they were thereunto predeſtinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and ſealed vp to this eternall life by the holy Ghoſt, giuen vnto them by the Goſpell, the knowledge of the which myſterie he prayeth God to confirme towarde them. And to the intent they ſhoulde not glorie in them ſelues, he ſheweth them their extreme miſerie, wherein they were plonged before they knew Chriſt, as people without God, Gentiles to whome the promiſes were not made, and yet by the free mercie of God in Chriſt Ieſus, they were ſaued, and he appointed to be their Apoſtle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he deſireth God to lighten the Epheſians hearts with the perfite vnderſtanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewiſe to be mindful of ſo great benefites, neither to be moued with the falſe apoſtles, which ſeeke to ouerthrowe their faith, and treade vnder foote the Goſpell, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counſell of God: who by this meanes preſerueth onely his Church. Therefore the Apoſtle commendeth his miniſterie, foraſmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and cauſeth it to bring foorth moſt plentifull fruites, as innocencie, holineſſe, with all ſuch offices apperteining to godlineſſe. Laſt of all, he declareth not onely in general, what ought to be the life of the Chriſtians, but alſo ſheweth particularly, what things concerne euery mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his ſalutation, 4 He ſheweth that the chiefe cauſe of their ſaluation ſtandeth in the free election of God through Chriſt. 16 He declareth his good will towarde them, giuing thankes, and praying God for their faith. 21 The maieſtie of Chriſt.

PAul an Apoſtle of IESVS CHRIST, by [y] Wil of God, to the * Saints, which are at Epheſus, and to the faithfull in CHRIST IESVS.

2 Grace [bee] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

3 * Bleſſed [be] God, euen the Father of our Lorde Ieſus Chriſt, which hath bleſſed vs with all [a] ſpirituall bleſſing in heauenly ‖ things in Chriſt,

4 * As he hath [b] choſen vs in him, before the foundation of the worlde, that we * ſhoulde be [c] holy, & without blame before him in loue:

5 who hath predeſtinate vs, to be [d] adopted through Ieſus Chriſt vnto him ſelfe, according to the good pleaſure of his will,

1.Cor.1.2. 2.Cor.1.3. 1.pet.1.3.

a As with the knowledge of God in Chriſt, with faith, hope, charitie, and other giftes.

‖ Or, places. 2.Tim.1.9.

b This election to life euerlaſting can neuer be changed: but in temporall offices, which God hath appointed for a certaine ſpace, when the term is expired, he changeth his election, as we ſee in Saul & Iudas. Col.1.22.

c When Chriſtes iuſtice is imputed ours.

d Where as we were not the naturall children, he receiued vs by grace, and made vs his children.

6 To the [e] praiſe of the glorie of his grace, wherewith he hath made vs accepted in [his] beloued,

7 By whome we haue redemption through his blood, [euen] the forgiuenes of ſinnes, according to his rich grace:

8 whereby he hath bene abundant towarde vs in all wiſedome and vnderſtanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs [y] myſterie of his wil according to his good pleaſure, which he had purpoſed [f] in him,

10 That in the diſpēſation of [y] fulnes of the times he might gather together in one [g] all things, both which are in heauen & which are in earth, [euē] in Chriſt:

11 In whom alſo we are choſen whē we were predeſtinate according to [y] purpoſe of him, which worketh all thinges after the counſell of his owne will,

12 That [h] we, which firſt truſted in Chriſt, ſhoulde be vnto the praiſe of his glorie:

13 In whome alſo ye [haue truſted] after that ye heard the worde of trueth, [euen] [y] Goſpel of your ſaluatiō, wherein alſo after that ye beleeued, ye were ſealed with the holy Spirit of promiſe,

14 which

e The principall end of our election is to praiſe and glorifie the grace of God.

f That is, in Chriſt.

g By this he meaneth the whole body of the Church, which he deuideth into them which are in heauen, and them which are in earth: alſo the faithfull which remaine in earth ſtande of the Iewes and the Gentiles.

h To wit, the Iewes.

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, [i] vntill the redemption of the possession purchased vnto the prayse of his glorie.

15 Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lorde Jesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ the Father of glorie, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisedome, and reuelation through the knowledge of [k] him,

18 That the eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightned, that ye may knowe what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance [is] in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatnesse of his power toward vs, which beleeue, * according to the working of his mightie power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and [l] set him at his right hand in the heauenly [places,]

21 Farre aboue all principalitie, and power, and might, and domination, and euery name that is named, not in this worlde onely, but also in that that is to come,

22 * And hath made all things subiect vnder his feete, and hath appointed him ouer all thinges [to be] the head to the Church,

23 Which is his body, [euen] the [m] fulnes of him that filleth all in all things.

i Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom. 6. 22. yet we hope for this second redemption which shall be when we shall possesse our inheritance in ỳ heauens, wherof we haue the holy Ghost for a gage, as chap. 4. 30.

k Of Christ. Col. 2. 12. chap. 3. 7.

l Made him gouernor of all things both in heauen and in earth: so that Christs bodie is nowe onely there, or els it shoulde not be a true body, & his ascension should be but a fantasticall thing and only imagined. Psal. 8. 6. hebr. 2. 8.

m This is the great loue of Christ toward his Church, ỳ he counteth not himselfe perfect without vs which are his members: and therfore the church is also called Christ, as 1. Cor. 12. 12, 13.

CHAP. II.

5 To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the onely cause of saluation, 11 He sheweth them what maner of people they were before their conuersion, 18 And what they are nowe in Christ.

Col. 2. 13.

AND * you [hath he quickned,] that were dead in trespasses and sinnes,

2 Wherein, in time past ye walked, according to the course of this worlde, [and] after the * [a] prince that ruleth in ỳ aire, [euen] the spirit, that nowe worketh in the children of disobedience,

Chap. 6. 12.

a Meaning Satan.

3 Among whom we also had our conuersation in time past, in the lustes of our flesh, in fulfilling the wil of the flesh, and of the minde, and were [b] by nature the children of wrath, as wel as others.

b Not by creation, but by Adams transgression, and so by birth.

4 But God which is rich in mercy, through his great loue wherewith hee loued vs,

5 Euen when we were dead by sinnes, hath quickened vs [c] together ‖ in Christ, [by whose] grace ye are saued,

6 And hath [d] raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly [places] in Christ Jesus,

7 That he might shewe in the ages to come the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindenesse toward vs in Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saued through fayth, and that not of your selues: it [is] the gift of God,

9 Not of workes, lest any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are [e] his workemanship created in Christ Jesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordeined, that we should walke in them.

11 Wherefore [f] remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, [and] called * vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in ỳ flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, [I say,] at that time without Christ, and were aliants from the common wealth of Israel, & were * straungers from the [g] couenants of promise, & had no [h] hope, and [were] ‖ without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Jesus, ye which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the [i] stoppe of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his [k] flesh the hatred, [that is,] the Lawe of commandements [which standeth] in ordinances, for to make of twaine one newe man in himselfe, [so] making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one [l] body by [his] ‖ crosse, and slay hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were afarre off, and to them that were neere.

18 * For through him we both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Nowe therefore ye are no more straungers & forreners: but citizens with the Saints, & of the houshold of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone,

21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord, c Both Jewe and Gentile. ‖ Or, with Christ.

d We that are the members, are raised vp from death & reigne wt our head Christ in heauen by faith.

e Here he meaneth, as concerning grace, & not by nature.

f He sheweth here ỳ the further the Gentiles were off frõ the grace of God, the greater debters they are now to the same. 1. Sam. 17. 26. ezek. 44. 7. Rom. 9. 4.

g It was but one couenant, but because it was diuerse times confirmed and established, therefore here he calleth thẽ couenants.

h Where no promise is, there is no hope. ‖ Or, Atheists.

i That is, the cause of the diuisiõ that was betweene the Jewes and the Gentiles.

k For in Christ al things were accomplished, which were prefigurated in the Lawe.

l For of the Jewes and the Gentiles he made one flocke. ‖ Or, death. Rom. 5. 2.

22 In whome ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

FOr this cause, I Paul [am] the [a] prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye haue heard of the [b] dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen me to youwarde,

3 [That is,] that [God] by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto me (as I wrote [c] aboue in fewe wordes,

4 whereby when ye reade, ye may know mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ)

5 which in other ages was [d] not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reuelled vnto his holy Apostles & Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheriters also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto me *through the working of his power.

8 *Euen vnto me ẏ least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the *Gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the felowship of the *mysterie is, which from the beginning of the world hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things by Jesus Christ,

10 To the intent, that now vnto [e] principalities and powers in heauenly [places] might be knowen [f] by the Church the manifolde wisedome of God, 11 According to the eternall purpose, which he wrought in Christ Jesus our Lorde.

12 By whom we haue boldenes & entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glorie.

14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the Father of our Lorde Jesus Christ,

15 (Of whome is named the whole [g] familie in [h] heauen and in earth)

16 That he might graunt you according to the riches of his glorie, that ye may be strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwell in your [i] hearts by fayth, that ye, being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 May be able to comprehende with all Saints, What is the [k] breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to knowe the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled with all [l] fulnes of God.

20 *Unto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding abundantly aboue all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in [m] vs, 21 [Be] prayse in the Church by Christ Jesus, throughout all generations for euer. Amen.

CHAP. IIII.

Pe exhorteth them vnto meekenes, long suffring, vnto loue and peace, 3 Euery one to serue and edifie another with the gift that God hath giuen him, 14 To beware of strange doctrine, 22 To lay aside the olde conuersation of griedie lustes, and to walke in a newe life.

I *Therefore, being prisoner in the [2] Lorde, pray you that ye walke worthy of ẏ vocation whereunto ye are called,

2 With all humblenes of minde, and meekenes, with long suffring, supporting one another through loue,

3 Endeuouring to keepe the vnitie of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There [is] [b] one body, & one [c] Spirit, euen as ye are called in one hope of your vocation.

5 [There is] one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

6 *One God and Father of all, which is [d] aboue all, and [e] through all, and in you all.

7 *But vnto euery one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the [f] gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, *when he ascended vp on hie, he [g] led captiuitie captiue, and gaue giftes vnto men.

9 (Nowe, in that he ascended, what is it but that he had also descended first into the lowest partes of the earth:

10 He that descended, is euen the same that ascended, farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill [k] all things)

11 *He therefore gaue some [to be] Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Euangelists, and some Pastours, and Teachers,

12 For the [i] gathering together of the Saints, for the worke of the ministerie, [k] [and] for the edification of the body of Christ, a He reioyceth in that he suffered imprisonment for the maintenãce of Christs glory.

b Which was his vocation to preach vnto the Gentiles.
c That is, in ẏ first Chap. of this Epistle, verse 9.
d Although the fathers, & the Prophets had reuelatiõs certaine, yet it was not in cõparison of that abundance which was shewed when the Gentiles were called: neither yet was ẏ time nor the maner knowne. Chap. 1, 19. 1. Cor. 15, 9, 10. Gal. 1, 16. Rom. 16. 25. col. 1. 26. 2. tim. 1, 10. tit. 1, 2. 1. pet. 1, 20.
e The Angels.
f The Church being gathered of so many kinds of people, is an example, or a glasse for the Angels to beholde the wisedome of God in, who hath turned their particular discords into an vniuersal concord, and of the sinagogue of bondage, hath made the Church of freedome.
g He that is not of the body of Christ, is in death.
h The faithful which dyed before Christ came, were adopted by him and make one familie with the Saints which yet remaine aliue.
i For we confesse ẏ which we beleeue.
k Al perfectiõ on euery side is in him.
l That all the graces of God may abound in you. Rom. 16, 25.
m In that we feele Christ in vs.
Phil. 1. 27. col. 1, 10. 1. thes. 2. 12.
2 For ẏ Lords cause.
b Which by dissentions you separate asunder.
c So that ye can not dissent one from another, seeing the spirit, which ioyneth you in one body cannot dissent from himselfe. Mal. 2, 10.
d In power.
e By his prouidence. Rom. 12. 3. 1. cor. 12. 11. 2. cor. 10. 13.
f Which he giueth vs. Psal. 68. 18.
g The Messias came down, from heauen into ẏ earth, to triumph ouer Satan, death and sinne, and led ẏm as prisoners & slaues, which before were conquerers, and kept all in subiectiõ: which victory he gate and also gaue it as a most precious gift to his Church.
h With his gifts & benefits 1. Cor. 12. 27.
i To restore that which was out of order.
k That the body of Christ might be perfect.

13 Till we all meete together (in the vnitie of fayth and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a [l] perfite man, [and] vnto the measure of the age of the fulnes of Christ, l That we may be of a ripe Christian age, and come to the ful measure of that knowledge which we shall haue of Christ.

14 That we henceforth be no more children, wauering and caryed about with euery winde of doctrine, by the deceite of men, and with craftines, whereby they lay in waite to deceiue.

15 But let vs follow ỹ trueth in loue, and in all thinges growe vp into him, Which is the [m] head, [that is] Christ, m Christ being head of his Church, nourisheth his members, and ioyneth them together by ioynts, so that euery part hath his iust proportion of foode, that at length the body may growe vp to perfection. Rom.1,21.

16 By whome all the body being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for the furniture [thereof] (according to the effectuall power, [which is] in the measure of euery part) receyueth increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in loue.

17 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lorde, that ye henceforth walke not as * other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their [n] minde, n Man not regenerate hath his mind, vnderstanding and heart corrupt.

18 Hauing their cogitation darkened, and being strangers from the life of [o] God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [p] hardnes of their heart:

o By ỹ which God liueth in his.

p The hardnes of heart is the fountaine of ignorance.

19 Which being ‖ past * feeling, haue giuen themselues vnto wantonnesse, to worke all vncleannes, [euen] with greedines.

‖ Or, without remorse of conscience. 1.Tim.4.2.

20 But ye haue not so learned Christ.

21 If so be ye haue heard him, and haue bin taught by him, as the [q] trueth is in Iesus, q As they are taught which truely knowe Christ. Col.3.8.

22 [That is,] * that ye cast off, concerning the conuersation in time past, the [r] olde man, which is corrupt through the deceiueable lustes, r That is, all the naturall corruptiõ that is in vs. Rom.6,4.col. 3,10. hebr.12, 1, 1.pet.2,1.& 4.2.

23 And be renewed in the spirite of your minde,

24 * And put on the newe man, which [s] after God is created in righteousnesse, and true holinesse.

s Which is created according to the Image of God. Zech.8,16. Psal.4.4.

25 * Wherefore cast off lying, & speake euery man trueth vnto his neighbour: for We are members one of another.

26 * Be [t] angrie, but sinne not: let not the sunne go downe vpon your wrath, t If so be that ye be angry, so moderate your affection, that it burst not out into any euill worke, but be soone appeased. Iames 4.7. Chap.5.3. col.4.6.

27 * Neither giue place to the deuill.

28 Let him that stole, steale no more: but let him rather labour, and worke with his hands ỹ thing which is good, that he may haue to giue vnto him that needeth.

29 * Let no corrupt communication proceede out of your mouthes: but that which is good to the vse of edifying, that it may minister [u] grace vnto the hearers.

u And cause them to profite in godlines.

30 And [x] grieue not the holy Spirit of God, by Whome ye are * sealed vnto the day of redemption.

x So behaue your selues that the holy Ghost may willingly dwel in you, & giue him no occasion to depart for sorowe by your abusing of Gods graces. 2.Cor.1.22. Col.3.12,13.

31 Let all bitternes, and anger, and wrath, crying, and euill speaking be put away from you, with all maliciousnes.

32 * Be ye courteous one to another, and tender hearted, forgiuing one another, euen as God for Christes sake forgaue you.

CHAP. V.

1 He exhorteth them vnto loue, 3 Warneth them to beware of vncleannes, couetousnes, foolish talking, & false doctrine, 17 To be circumspect, 18 To auoide drunkennes, 19 To reioyce and to be thankful toward God, 21 To submit them selues one to another. 22 He entreateth of corporall marriage and of the spirituall betwixt Christ and his Church.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as deare children,

2 * And walke in loue, euen as Christ hath loued vs, and hath giuen himselfe for vs, [to be] an offring & a sacrifice of a sweete [a] smelling sauour to God.

Iohn 13.34. and 15.12. 1.iohn 3.23.

a Alluding to the perfumes and incensing in the Lawe.

3 * But fornication, and all vncleannes, or couetousnesse, let it not be once named among you, as it becommeth Saints,

Marke 7.21. chap.4.29.col. 3.5. 2.thes.2. 17.

4 Neither filthinesse, neither foolish talking, neither [b] iesting, which are things not comely, but rather giuing of thankes.

b Which is either vaine, or els by example and euill speaking may hurt your neighbour for otherwise there be diuers examples in the scriptures of pleasant talke, which is also godly, as 1.King.18,27.

5 For this ye knowe, that no whoremonger, neither vncleane person, nor couetous person, which is [c] an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdome of Christ, and of God.

c Because he thinketh that his life standeth in his riches. Mat.24.4.mar. 13.5.Luke 21. 8. 2.thes.2.3.

6 * Let no [d] man deceiue you with vayne wordes: for, for such things commeth the wrath of God vpon the children of disobedience.

d Either in excusing sinne, or in mocking at the menaces & iudgements of God.

7 Be not therefore companions with them.

8 For ye were once darkenes, but are nowe light in the Lord: walke as [e] children of light, e Seeing God hath adopted you for his, that ye should be holy.

9 (For the fruite of the Spirit [is] in all goodnesse, and righteousnesse, and trueth)

10 Approuing that which is pleasing to the Lord.

11 And haue no fellowship with the vnfruitfull workes of darkenesse, but euen [f] reproue them rather.

f And make them knowen by your honest and godly life.

12 For it is shame euen to speake of the things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things when they are reproued of the [g] light, are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest.

g The worde of God discouereth the vices which were hid before.

14 Wherefore he saith, [h] Awake thou that sleepest, & stand vp from the dead, and Christ shall giue thee light.

15 Take heede therefore that ye walke circumspectly, not as fooles, but as *wise, 16 [i] Redeeming the time: for the [k] dayes are euill.

17 *Wherefore, be ye not vnwise, but vnderstand what the wil of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunke with wine, wherein is excesse: but be fulfilled with the Spirit,

19 Speaking vnto your selues in psalmes, and ‖ hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing, and making melodie to the Lord in your [l] hearts,

20 Giuing thankes alwayes for all things vnto God euen the Father, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 21 Submitting your selues one to another in the [m] feare of God.

22 ¶ *Wiues submit your selues vnto your husbands, as vnto the Lord.

23 *For the husband is the wiues head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and the same is the sauiour of [his] [n] body.

24 Therefore as the Church is in subiection to Christ, euen so [let] [o] wiues [be] to their husbands in euery thing.

25 ¶ *Husbands, loue your wiues, euen as Christ loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it,

26 That he might sanctifie it, & cleanse it by the [o] washing of water through the worde,

27 That he might make it vnto him selfe a glorious Church, not hauing [p] spot or wrinckle, or any such thing: but that it shoulde bee holy and without blame.

28 So ought men to loue their wiues, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.

29 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth & cherisheth it, euen as the Lord [doeth] the Church.

30 For we are members of his body, [q] of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 *For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, & shall cleaue to his wife, and they twaine shalbe one flesh.

32 This is a great secret, but I speake concerning CHRIST, and concerning the Church.

33 Therefore euery one of you, [doe ye so:] let euery one loue his wife, euen as himselfe, and [let] the wife [see] that she feare her husband.

h God thus speaketh by his seruants to drawe the Infidels from their blindnes. Col.4.5.

i Selling all worldly pleasures to bye time.

k In these perilous dayes and craft of the aduersaries, take heede howe to bye againe the occasions of godlines, which the world hath taken from you. Rom.12.2. 1.thes.4.3.

‖ Or, songs of prayse and thanksgiuing.

l And not onely w tongue.

m Except our friendship be ioyned, and knit in God, it is not to be esteemed. Col.3.18. titus 2.5. 1.pet.3.1. 1.Cor.11.3.

n The Church: so the husband ought to nourish, gouerne, and defende his wife from perils. Col.3.19.

o Baptisme is a token that God hath consecrated the Church to himselfe, and made it holy by his worde: that is, his promise of free iustification and sanctification in Christ.

p Because it is couered and cladde with Christs iustice and holines.

q This our coniunction with Christ must be considered as Christ is the husband and we the wife, which are not onely ioyned to him by nature, but also by the communion of substance, through the holy Ghost and by faith: the seale and testimonie thereof is the Supper of the Lord. Gen.2,24. mat.19,5. marke 10.7. 1.cor,6.16.

CHAP. VI.

1 How children should behaue themselues toward their fathers and mothers, 4 Likewise parents towarde their children, 5 Seruants toward their masters, 9 Masters toward their seruants. 13 An exhortation to the spirituall battell, and what weapons the Christians should fight withall.

Children, *obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Col.3.20.

2 *Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commandement with [a] promes) Exod.20,12. deut.5.16. ecclus.3.9. mat.15.4. mar.7,10.

3 That it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest liue long on earth.

4 And ye, fathers, prouoke not your children to [b] wrath: but bring them vp in [c] instruction and information of the Lorde.

5 *Seruants, be obeient vnto them that are [your] masters, [d] according to the flesh, with feare and trembling in singlenes of your hearts as vnto Christ,

6 Not with seruice to the eye, as men pleasers, but as the seruants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart,

7 With good will seruing the Lorde, and not men.

8 And knowe ye that whatsoeuer good thing any man doeth, that same shall he receiue of the Lord, whether [he be] bond or free.

9 And ye masters, doe the same things vnto them, putting away threatening: and knowe that euen ‖ your master also is in heauen, neither is there *[e] respect of person with him.

10 ¶ Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, & in the power of his might.

11 Put on the ‖ whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the assaultes of the deuill.

12 For we wrestle not against [f] flesh and blood, but against *principalities, against powers, [and] against the worldly gouernours, [the princes] of the darknesse of this worlde, against spirituall wickednesses, [which are] in the hie places.

13 For this cause take vnto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to resist in the euill day, and hauing finished all things, stand fast.

14 Stand therefore, and your loynes girde about with veritie, and hauing on the brestplate of [g] righteousnes, 15 And your feete shod with the [h] preparation of the Gospel of peace.

16 Aboue

a This is, the first commandement of the second table, and hath ỹ promise with condition.

b By austeritie.

c That they be not brought vp in wantonnes, but in the feare of the Lorde. Col.3.22. titus 2.9. 1.pet.2.18.

d Which haue dominion ouer your bodies, but not ouer the soules.

‖ Or, both yours & their Master. Deut.10,17. 2.chro.19.7. iob 34.19. wis. 6.7. ecclus 35. 12,16. act.10. 34. rom.2.11. gal.2.6, col.3. 25. 1.pet.1.17.

e Whether he be seruant or master.

‖ Or, complete harnesse.

f The faithful haue not onely to striue against men and themselues, but against Satan the spirituall enemie, who is most dangerous: for he is ouer our heads so that we can not reach him, but he must be resisted by Gods grace. Chap.2,2.

g Innocencie, and godly life.

h That ye may be ready to suffer all things for the Gospel.

16 Aboue all, take the shielde of faith, wherewith ye may quench all the fierie dartes of the wicked,

17 *And take the helmet of [i] saluation, and the swoorde of the Spirit, which is the woord of God.

18 And pray alwayes with all maner prayer and supplication in the Spirit: and *watch thereunto with all perseuerance and supplication for all Saintes,

19 *And for me, that vtterance may be giuen vnto me, that I may open my mouth boldly to publish the secret of the Gospel,

20 Whereof I am the ambassadour in bondes, that therein I may speake boldly, as I ought to speake.

21 But that ye may also know mine affaires, [and] what I doe, Tychicus [my] deare brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shal shew you of all things,

22 Whome I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose, that ye might knowe mine affaires, and that hee might comfort your heartes.

23 Peace [be] with the brethren, and loue with faith from God the Father, and [from] the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace [be] with all them which loue our Lorde Jesus Christ, to [their] [k] immortalitie, Amen.

Written from Rome vnto the Ephesians, [and sent] by Tychicus.

Isa.59.17. 1.thess.5.8.
i The saluation purchased by Jesus Christ.

Coloss.4.2.

Coloss.4.3. 2.thess.3.1.

k Or, to be without corruption, that is, to haue life euerlasting, which is the ende of this grace.

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

The Argument.

PAul being warned by the holy Ghost to go to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauailed from place to place, till at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with relefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stoode manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrinke: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modestie, promising to sende Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, he confuteth their false doctrine, by prooving onely Christ to be the ende of all true religion, with whome we haue all thing, and without whome we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this followe certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with testification of his affection toward them, and thankefull accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul discouereth his heart towarde them, 3 By his thankesgiuing, 4 Prayers, 8 And wishes for their faith and saluation. 7. 12. 20 Hee sheweth the fruite of his crosse, 15. 27 And exhorteth them to vnitie, 28 And patience.

PAul and Timotheus the seruãts of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with [y] [a] Bishops, and Deacons:

2 Grace [be] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Jesus Christ.

3 *I thanke my God [hauing] you in perfect memorie,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the [b] fellowship which ye haue in the Gospel, from the [c] first day vnto nowe.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing that hee that hath begonne [this] good worke in you, will perfourme it vntill the [d] day of Jesus Christ,

7 As it becommeth me so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance [e] that both in my bandes, and in [my] defence, and confirmation of the Gospell you all were partakers of my [f] grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abounde, yet more & more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may discerne things that ‖ differ [one from another,] that ye may be pure, and [g] without offence, vntill the day of Christ,

11 Filled with the fruits of [h] righteousnesse, which are by Jesus Christ vnto the glorie and praise of God.

12 I would ye vnderstood, brethren, but also that ye profite more and more without slipping backe, or standing in a stay.

a By Bishops here he meaneth them that had charge of the worde, and gouerning, as pastours, doctours, elders: by deacons, such as had charge of the distribution, and of y poore and sicke. 1.Thess.1.2.
b With other Churches.
c That ye receiued the Gospel,
d When you shall receiue the crowne of glorie.
e It was a sure token of their loue, that they did helpe him by all meanes possible, when he was absent, and in prison, euen as if they had bene prisoners with him.
f Of this peculiar benefite to suffer for Christes sake.
‖ Or, are excellent,
g That you so increase in godlynes that not onely ye can put difference betweene good and euill:
h Righteousnesse is the tree, good workes the fruite.

16 Aboue all, take the shielde of faith, wherewith ye may quench all the fierie dartes of the wicked,

17 *And take the helmet of [i] saluation, and the swoorde of the Spirit, which is the woord of God.

18 And pray alwayes with all maner prayer and supplication in the Spirit: and *watch thereunto with all perseuerance and supplication for all Saintes,

19 *And for me, that vtterance may be giuen vnto me, that I may open my mouth boldly to publish the secret of the Gospel,

20 Whereof I am the ambassadour in bondes, that therein I may speake boldly, as I ought to speake.

21 But that ye may also know mine affaires, [and] what I doe, Tychicus [my] deare brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shal shew you of all things,

22 Whome I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose, that ye might knowe mine affaires, and that hee might comfort your heartes.

23 Peace [be] with the brethren, and loue with faith from God the Father, and [from] the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace [be] with all them which loue our Lorde Jesus Christ, to [their] [k] immortalitie, Amen.

Written from Rome vnto the Ephesians, [and sent] by Tychicus.

Isa.59.17. 1.thess.5.8.
i The saluation purchased by Jesus Christ.

Coloss.4.2.

Coloss.4.3. 2.thess.3.1.

k Or, to be without corruption, that is, to haue life euerlasting, which is the ende of this grace.

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

The Argument.

PAul being warned by the holy Ghost to go to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauailed from place to place, till at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with relefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stoode manfully against the false apostles, putting them in minde of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrinke: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modestie, promising to sende Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, he confuteth their false doctrine, by prooving onely Christ to be the ende of all true religion, with whome we haue all thing, and without whome we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this followe certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with testification of his affection toward them, and thankefull accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul discouereth his heart towarde them, 3 By his thankesgiuing, 4 Prayers, 8 And wishes for their faith and saluation. 7. 12. 20 Hee sheweth the fruite of his crosse, 15. 27 And exhorteth them to vnitie, 28 And patience.

PAul and Timotheus the seruãts of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with [y] [a] Bishops, and Deacons:

2 Grace [be] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Jesus Christ.

3 *I thanke my God [hauing] you in perfect memorie,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the [b] fellowship which ye haue in the Gospel, from the [c] first day vnto nowe.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing that hee that hath begonne [this] good worke in you, will perfourme it vntill the [d] day of Jesus Christ,

7 As it becommeth me so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance [e] that both in my bandes, and in [my] defence, and confirmation of the Gospell you all were partakers of my [f] grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abounde, yet more & more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may discerne things that ‖ differ [one from another,] that ye may be pure, and [g] without offence, vntill the day of Christ,

11 Filled with the fruits of [h] righteousnesse, which are by Jesus Christ vnto the glorie and praise of God.

12 I would ye vnderstood, brethren, but also that ye profite more and more without slipping backe, or standing in a stay.

a By Bishops here he meaneth them that had charge of the worde, and gouerning, as pastours, doctours, elders: by deacons, such as had charge of the distribution, and of y poore and sicke. 1.Thess.1.2.
b With other Churches.
c That ye receiued the Gospel,
d When you shall receiue the crowne of glorie.
e It was a sure token of their loue, that they did helpe him by all meanes possible, when he was absent, and in prison, euen as if they had bene prisoners with him.
f Of this peculiar benefite to suffer for Christes sake.
‖ Or, are excellent,
g That you so increase in godlynes that not onely ye can put difference betweene good and euill:
h Righteousnesse is the tree, good workes the fruite.

that the things which [haue come] vnto me, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel, i Which I sustaine for Christes cause.

13 So that my bandes in i Christ are famous throughout all the k iudgement hall, and in all other [places,] k That is, in the court or Palace of the Emperour Nero.

14 In so much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bandes, and dare more frankely speake the l word.

l Or, professe the Gospel, considering my constancie.

15 Some preach Christ euen through enuie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preacheth Christ of contention [and] not m purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bandes:

m But with a corrupt minde.

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I ‖ am set for the defence of the Gospel.

‖ Or, lie in bandes.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all maner wayes, whether [it n be] vnder a pretence, or syncerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

n Their pretence was to preach Christ, and therefore their doctrine was true: but they were full of ambition and enuie, thinking to deface Paul and preferre themselues.

19 For I knowe that this shall turne to my saluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so nowe Christ shalbe magnified in my body, whether [it be] by life or by death.

21 For Christ [is] to mee both in life, and in death aduantage.

22 And whether to o liue in the flesh [were] profitable for mee, and what to choose I knowe not.

o To liue in the flesh is to liue in this brittle body, till we be called to liue euerlastingly: but to liue according to the flesh, or to be in the flesh, signifie, to be destitute of the spirit, and to be plonged in the filthie concupiscences of the flesh.

23 For I am greatly in doubt on both sides, desiring to be loosed and to be with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Neuertheless, to abide in p ‖ flesh, [is] more needefull for you.

‖ Or, body. Ephes. 4. 1. colos. 1. 10. 1. thess. 2. 12.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioy of [your] faith,

26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Jesus Christ for me, by my comming to you againe.

27 *Onely let your conuersation be, as it becommeth the Gospell of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters that ye ‖ continue in one Spirit, [and] in one minde fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

‖ Or, stand.

28 And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them q a token of perdition, and to you of saluation, and r that of God.

p The more that tyrants rage against the Gospel, the more manifestly they declare that they runne to their owne destruction: and againe constant perseuerance for Christes sake is an euident signe of saluation.

q God sheweth by this meanes of bearing the crosse who are his, and who are not.

29 For vnto you it is giuen for ‖ Christ, that not onely ye should beleeue in him, but also suffer for his sake,

‖ Or, Christes cause.

30 Hauing the same fight, which ye sawe in me, and nowe heare [to be] in me.

CHAP. II.

3 Hee exhorteth them aboue all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefely mainteined, 19 Promising that he and Timotheus will speedily come vnto them, 27 And excuseth the long taryng of Epaphroditus.

IF [there be] therefore any a consolation in Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fellowship of s Spirit, if any compassion and mercie, a If you so loue me that you desire my comfort.

2 Fulfill my ioye, that ye be like minded, hauing the same loue, being of one accorde, and of b one iudgement, b From the consent of wils and mindes he proceedeth to the agreement in doctrine, that there might be full and perfect concorde. Rom. 12. 10.

3 That nothing [be done] through contention or vaine glorie, but that in meekenesse of minde *euery man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Looke not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same minde be in you that was euen in Christ Jesus,

6 Who c being in the forme of God, thought it no d robberie to be equall with God:

c If Christ being very God equall with the Father, layde aside his glorie, and being Lord, became a seruant, and willingly submitted himselfe to most shamefull death, shall we which are nothing but vile slaues, through arrogancie treade downe our brethren, and preferre our selues?

d For he that was God, should haue done none iniurie to the Godhead. Matth. 20. 28.

7 *But he made himselfe of no reputation, and tooke on him the e forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was founde in f shape as a man.

e The poore and weake nature of man.

8 *He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

f Hee was seene & heard of men, so that his behauiour and person declared that he was as a miserable man.

9 Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a Name aboue euery name,

10 *That at t Name of Jesus should euery g knee bowe, [both] of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth,

11 *And that euery tongue shoulde confesse that Jesus Christ [is] the Lord, vnto the glorie of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloued, as ye haue allwayes obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but nowe much more in mine absence, [so] h make an ende of your owne saluation with i feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deede, [euen] of [his] k good pleasure.

Hebr. 2. 9. Rom. 14. 11. isa. 45. 23. g Worship, & be subiect to him. Ioh. 13. 13. 1. cor. 8. 6. and 12. 3. h Runne forward in that race of righteousnesse, wherein God hath freely placed you through Jesus Christ, and conducteth you his children by his Spirit to walke in good workes, and so to make your vocation sure. i Which may make you carefull and diligent. k Which is his free grace.

14 Doe

1.Peter 4.9.

14 Doe all things without *murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blameleſſe, and pure, [and] the ſonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughtie and crooked nation, among whome ye ſhine as* lightes in the worlde,

Matth.5.16.

l As they which in the night ſet forth a candle to giue light to others.

16 l Holding forth the m worde of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Chriſt, that I haue not runne in vaine, neither haue laboured in vaine.

m The goſpel.

17 Yea, and though I be n offered vp vpon the ſacrifice, and ſeruice o of your faith, I am glad, & reioyce with you all.

n The worde ſignifieth to powre out as the drinke offering was powred on the ſacrifice.

o To confirme you in your faith.

18 For the ſame cauſe alſo be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I truſt in the Lord Jeſus, to ſend *Timotheus ſhortly vnto you, that I alſo may be of good comfort, when I knowe your ſtate.

Actes 16.1.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who wil faithfully care for your matters.

21 *For all p ſeeke their owne, [and] not that which is Jeſus Chriſtes.

1.Cor.10.24.

p They rather ſought profite by their preaching then Gods glory.

22 But ye knowe the proofe of him, that as a ſonne with the father, he hath ſerued with me in the Goſpel.

23 Him therefore I hope to ſende aſſoone as I know howe it wil go with me, 24 And truſt in the Lord, that I alſo my ſelfe ſhall come ſhortly.

25 But I ſuppoſed it neceſſarie to ſende [my] brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellowe ſouldier, euen your meſſenger, and hee that miniſtred vnto me ſuch things as I wanted.

26 For hee longed after all you, and was full of heauineſſe, becauſe ye had heard that he had bene ſicke.

27 And no doubt he was ſicke, very neere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, and not on him onely, but on me alſo, leſt I ſhould haue ſorowe vpon ſorowe.

q He calleth it here the worke of Chriſt, to viſite Chriſt, who was bound in the perſon of Paul, and was in neede of neceſſaries.

r He approueth them which hazard their life to relieue the priſoners of Chriſt.

28 I ſent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye ſhould ſee him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the leſſe ſorowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladneſſe, & make much of ſuch:

30 Becauſe that for q the worke of Chriſt hee r was neere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that ſeruice which was lacking on your part toward me.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee warneth them to beware of falſe teachers, 3 Againſt whome hee ſetteth Chriſt, 4 Likewiſe himſelfe, 9 And his doctrine, 12 And reproueth mans owne righteouſues.

MOreouer, my brethren, reioyce in the Lorde. It grieueth mee not to write a the ſame things to you, and for you it is a ſure thing.

a Which ye haue often heard of me.

2 Beware of b dogges: beware of euil workers: beware of the c concision.

b Which barke againſt the true doctrine to fill their bellies.

c The falſe apoſtles glorien in their circumciſion, whereunto S. Paul here alludeth, calling them conciſion, which is cutting off and tearing aſunder of the Church.

3 For we are the circumciſion, which worſhip God in the ſpirit, and reioyce in Chriſt Jeſus, and haue no confidence d in the fleſh:

d In outward things.

2.Cor.11.22. Actes 23.6.

4 Though I might alſo haue confidence in the fleſhe. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might truſt in the fleſh, much more I:

5 Circumciſed the eight day, of the kinred of Iſrael, of the tribe of Beniamin, *an Ebrewe of the Ebrewes, *by the ‖ lawe a Phariſe.

‖ Or, profeſſion.

6 Concerning zeale, I perſecuted the Church: touching e righteouſnes which is in the Lawe, I was vnrebukeable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto mee, the ſame I counted loſſe for Chriſtes ſake.

8 Yea, doubtleſſe I thinke all things but loſſe for e excellent knowledge ſake of Chriſt Jeſus my Lord, for whome I haue counted all things loſſe, and doe iudge [them] to be dongue, that I might winne Chriſt, e As one graſted in him by faith.

9 And might be f founde in him, [that is,] not hauing mine owne righteouſnes, which is of the Lawe, but that which is through e faith of Chriſt, [euen] the righteouſnes which is of God through faith, f That is, to life euerlaſting.

10 That I may knowe him, and the vertue of his reſurrection, and the felowſhip of his afflictions, and be made conformable vnto his death, g Or haue now taken full poſſeſſion therof, not that he douted to attaine vnto it, but becauſe he would declare the excellencie thereof.

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the f reſurrection of the dead:

h We can runne no farther then God giueth vs ſtrength, and ſheweth vs the way.

12 g Not as though I had alreadie attained [to it,] either were alreadie perfect: but I followe, if that I may comprehend [that] for whoſe ſake alſo I am h comprehended of Chriſt Jeſus.

i That is, to obteine the crowne of glorie in the heauens.

13 Brethren, I count not my ſelfe, that I haue attained [to it,] but one thing [I do:] I forget that which is behinde, and endeuour my ſelfe vnto that which is before, k Or, haue more profited then others.

14 And followe harde toward the i marke, for the prize of the hie calling of God in Chriſt Jeſus.

l This perfection ſtandeth in forſaking ſinne, and to be renewed through faith by him which is only perfect.

15 Let vs therefore as many as k be l perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwiſe minded, God ſhall reuele euen the m ſame vnto you.

m That is, that this is the true wiſdome, and ſtraight rule of liuing.

S.4. 16 Neuer-

16 Neuertheleſſe, [in that] Whereunto we are come, let vs proceede by one rule, * that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be followers of me, and looke on them, which walke ſo, as ye haue vs for an enſample.

18 * For many walke, of whome I haue tolde you often, and nowe tell you weeping, [that they are] the enemies of the [n] Croſſe of Chriſt, 19 Whoſe ‖ ende [is] damnation, whoſe god [is their] bellie, and [whoſe] [o] glorie [is] to their ſhame, which minde earthly things.

20 But our [p] conuerſation is in heauen, from whence alſo we looke for the * Sauiour, [euen] the Lorde Jeſus Chriſt, 21 Who ſhall change our vile body, that it may be facioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby hee is able euen to ſubdue all things vnto himſelfe.

Rom.15.5. 1.cor.1,10.

Rom,16.17, 18.

n That is, of the Goſpel, which is the preaching of the croſſe.

‖ Or, rewarde.

o The vaine glorie which they ſeeke after in this world, ſhall turne to their confuſion and ſhame.

p In minde, and affection. 1.Cor,1.7. titus 2,11,13.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be of honeſt conuerſation, 15 And thanketh them, becauſe of the prouiſion that they made for him being in priſon, 21 And ſo concludeth with ſalutations.

Therefore, my brethren, beloued and longed for, [my] ioye and my crowne, ſo continue in the Lord, ye beloued.

2 I pray Euodias, and beſeech Syntyche, that they be of one accorde in the Lord.

3 Yea, and I beſeeche thee, faithfull yokefellow, helpe thoſe [women] which laboured with mee in the Goſpel, with Clement alſo, and with other my fellow labourers, whoſe names [are] in the *[a] booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I ſay, reioyce.

5 Let your patient minde be knowen vnto all men. The Lord [is] [b] at hand.

6 * Bee nothing carefull, but in all things let your requeſtes be ſhewed vnto God in prayer, and ſupplication with giuing of thankes.

7 And [q] peace of God which paſſeth all vnderſtanding, ſhall [c] preſerue your heartes and minds in Chriſt Jeſus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatſoeuer things are true, whatſoeuer things [are] honeſt, whatſoeuer things [are] iuſt, whatſoeuer things [are] pure, whatſoeuer things perteine to loue, whatſoeuer things [are] of good report, if there [be] any vertue, or if there [be] any praiſe, thinke on theſe things,

9 Which ye haue both learned and receiued, and heard, and ſeene in me: thoſe things doe, and the God of peace ſhalbe with you.

10 Nowe I reioyce alſo in the Lord greatly, that nowe at the laſt ye are [d] reuiued againe to care for me, wherein notwithſtanding ye were carefull, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 I ſpeake not becauſe of [e] want: for I haue learned in whatſoeuer ſtate I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can be abaſed, and I can abound: euery where in all things I am inſtructed both to be full, and to be hungrie, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to [do] all things through the helpe of [f] Chriſt, which ſtrengtheneth me.

14 Notwithſtanding yee haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

15 And ye Philippians knowe alſo that in the [g] beginning of the Goſpell, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated with me concerning the [h] matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye onely.

16 For euen [when I was] in Theſſalonica, ye ſent once, and afterwarde againe for my neceſſitie, 17 Not that I deſire a gift: but I deſire the fruite which may ‖ further your reckoning.

18 Nowe I haue receiued all, and haue plentie: I was euen filled, after that I had receiued of Epaphroditus that which [came] from you, an odour that ſmelleth ſweete, a ſacrifice acceptable and pleaſant to God.

19 And my God ſhall fulfill all your neceſſities through his riches with glorie in Jeſus Chriſt.

20 Unto God euen our Father [be] praiſe for euermore, Amen.

21 Salute all the Saintes in Chriſt Jeſus. The brethren, which are with me, greete you.

22 All the Saintes ſalute you, [i] moſt of all they which are of [i] Cæſars houſeholde.

23 The grace of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſt [be] with you all, Amen.

Written to the Philippians from Rome, [and ſent] by Epaphroditus.

a This Booke Ezekiel calleth the writing of the houſe of Iſrael, and the ſecret of the Lord, chap. 13.9.

b To ſuccour you. Matth.6.25.

c From Satan, who ſeeketh to take from vs this peace of conſcience.

d That is, begin anewe to helpe me.

e That I was not able to endure my pouertie.

f Not of his owne vertue or free will.

g When I firſt preached the Goſpel vnto you.

h He had giuen of his part in communicating with them ſpirituall things, but he receiued nothing of them, which ought at leaſt to haue relieued him in his neceſſitie.

‖ Or, abounde towarde your count.

i Of ſuch as did belong to the Emperour Nero.

The

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

The Argument.

In this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectuall and true Christ, and the fained, counterfaite and imagined Christ, whom the false apostles taught. And first, hee confirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefite toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoeuer good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely we embrace by the Gospell. But forasmuch as the false brethren woulde haue mixed the Lawe with the Gospell, he toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay only on Christ, without whom all things are but meere vanitie. And as for Circumcision, abstinence from meates, externall holines, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, hee vtterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that nowe the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faythfull.

CHAP. I.

3 He giueth thankes vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their fayth. 13 He sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discouereth the counterfaite Christ of the false apostles. 25 Hee approueth his authoritie and charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

PAul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus [our] brother,

2 To them, which are at [a] Colosse, Saintes and faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace [be] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Jesus Christ.

3 Wee giue thankes to God euen the Father of our Lorde Jesus Christ, alwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your fayth [b] in Christ IESVS, and of [your] loue toward all Saints,

5 For the hopes sake, which is layde vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the worde of trueth, [which is] the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as [it is] vnto all the worlde, and is fruitefull, as [it is] also among you, from the day that ye heard and truely knewe the grace of God,

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, [which ye haue] [c] by the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day wee heard [of it,] cease not to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be fulfilled with knowledge of [d] his will, in all wisedome, and spirituall vnderstanding,

10 * That ye might walke worthy of the Lord, and please [him] in all things, being * fruitefull in all good workes, 1.Cor.1.5.
and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long suffring with ioyfulnes,

12 Giuing thankes vnto the Father, which hath made vs meete to to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saintes in light, 13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenesse, and hath translated vs into the kingdome * of his deare Sonne, Mat.3.17. and 17.5. 2.pet.1.17.

14 In whom wee haue redemption through his blood, [that is,] the forgiuenesse of sinnes, 15 Who is the * [e] image of the inuisible God, the [f] first borne of euery creature. Hebr.1.3.

16 * For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and inuisible: whether [they be] Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him, Iohn 1.3.

17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.

18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: hee is the beginning, * [and] [g] the first borne of the dead, that in all things hee might haue the preeminence. 1.Cor.15.20. reuel.1.5.

19 * For it pleased [the Father,] that in him should all [h] fulnes dwell,

20 And by him to reconcile [i] all things vnto himselfe, & to set at peace through the blood of his crosse both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past strangers and enemies, because [your] mindes [were set] in euill workes, hath he now also reconciled, a Which was a citie of Phrygia.

22 In

b For without Christ there is no faith to be saued by, but onely a vaine opinion.

c Which commeth of the holy Ghost.

d That is, Gods.

Ephes.4.1. philip.1.27. 1.thes.2.12.

e For God is made visible in the flesh of Christ, and the diuinitie dwelleth in him corporally.

f Borne before any thing was created. Iohn 1.3.

g He that rose first againe from the dead to take possession of life euerlasting: which rising may be called a new birth. Iohn 1.14. chap.2.9.

h That the Church, which is his body, might receiue of his abundance.

i That is, the whole Church.

22 In the body of his fleſh through death, to make you * holy, and vnblameable, and without fault in his ſight,

23 * If ye continue, grounded and ſtabliſhed in the faith, and be not moued away from ẏ hope of the Goſpell, whereof ye haue heard, and which hath bene preached to euery creature which is vnder heauen, whereof I Paul am a miniſter.

24 Nowe reioyce I in my ſuffrings for [k] you, and fulfill [l] the reſt of the afflictions of Chriſt in my fleſh, for his bodyes ſake, which is the Church,

25 Whereof I am a miniſter, according to the diſpenſation of God, which is giuen me vnto youward, to fulfill the [m] worde of God,

26 * [which is] the myſterie hid ſince the worlde began, & from [all] ages, but now is made manifeſt to his [n] Saintes,

27 To whom God woulde make knowen what is the riches of this glorious myſterie among ẏ Gentiles, which [riches] is Chriſt in you, * ẏ hope of glory,

28 Whom wee preach, admoniſhing euery man, and teaching euery man in all wiſdome, that we may preſent euery man perfect in Chriſt Jeſus:

29 Whereunto I alſo labour & ſtriue, according to his working which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

1 Hauing proteſted his good will toward them, 4 Hee admoniſheth them not to turne backe from Chriſt, 8 To the ſeruice of Angels or any other inuention, or els ceremonies of the Lawe, 17 Which haue finiſhed their office, and are endued in Chriſt.

FOr I would ye knewe what great ‖ fighting I haue for your ſakes, and for them of Laodicea, and for as many as haue not ſeene my [a] perſon in the fleſh,

2 That their heartes might be comforted & they knit together in loue, and in all riches of the full aſſurance of vnderſtanding, to knowe the myſterie of God euen the Father, and of Chriſt:

3 In whom are hid all the treaſures of wiſdome and knowledge.

4 And this I ſay, leſt any man ſhould beguile you with entiſing wordes:

5 * For though I be abſent in ẏ [b] fleſh, yet am I with you in the [c] ſpirit reioycing, and beholding your order, & your ſtedfaſt faith in Chriſt.

6 As ye haue therfore receiued Chriſt Jeſus the Lord, [ſo] walke in him,

7 Rooted and built in him, and ſtabliſhed in the fayth, as ye haue * beene taught, aboūding therein with thankes giuing.

8 Beware leſt there be any man that ſpoyle you through [d] philoſophie, and vaine deceite, through the traditions of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not after Chriſt.

9 * For in him dwelleth all the fulnes of the [e] Godhead ‖ bodily.

10 And ye are compleate in him, which is the head of all Principalitie & Power:

11 In whome alſo yee are circumciſed with * circumciſion made without handes, by putting off the ſinfull body of the fleſh, through the circumciſion [f] of Chriſt,

12 In that yee are * buried with him through baptiſme, in whom ye are alſo rayſed vp together through * the fayth [g] of the operation of God which rayſed him from the dead.

13 * And ye which were dead in ſinnes, and in the vncircumciſion of your fleſh, hath hee quickened together with him, forgiuing ‖ you all [your] treſpaſſes,

14 And putting out the * ‖ [h] hand writing of ordinances that was againſt vs, which was contrary to vs, he euē tooke it out of the way, and faſtened it vpon the croſſe,

15 And hath [i] ſpoyled the Principalities, & Powers, and hath made a ſhewe of them openly, and hath triumphed ouer them in the ſame [croſſe.]

16 Let no man therefore condemne you in meate and drinke, or in reſpect of an [k] holy day, or of the new moone, or of the Sabbath [dayes,]

17 Which are [but] a ſhadow of things to come: but the body is in Chriſt.

18 * Let no man [l] at his pleaſure ‖ beare rule ouer you by humblenes of minde, and worſhipping of Angels, aduaūcing himſelfe in thoſe things which hee neuer ſaw, raſhly puft vp with his fleſhly minde, 19 And holdeth not the head, whereof all the body furniſhed and knit together by ioyntes and bandes, increaſeth with the increaſing of God.

20 Wherefore if ye [be] dead wt Chriſt from the ordinances of the world, why, as though ye liued in the worlde, are ye burdened with traditions:

21 [As,] Touch not, Taſte not, Handle not:

Luke 1.75. 1.cor.1.2. epheſ.1.4. tit.2.11,12. Iohn 15.6.

k Or your commoditie.

l As Chriſt hath once ſuffered in himſelfe to redeeme his Church, and to ſanctifie it: ſo doth he dayly ſuffer in his members, as partaker of their infirmities, and therefore a reuenger of their iniuries.

m Which is the promiſes of Chriſt, and of the calling of the Gentiles. Rom.16.25. epheſ.3.9. 2.tim.1.10. titus 1.2. 1.pet.1.20.

n Whom he hath elected & conſecrated to him by Chriſt. 1.Tim.1.1.

‖Or, paine and care.

a We preſent in body.

1.Cor.5.3.

b In body.

c In minde.

d Teaching you vaine ſpeculations, as worſhipping of Angels, of blinde ceremonies and beggerly traditions: for nowe they haue none vſe ſeeing Chriſt is come. Chap.1.19. iohn 1.14.

e In ſaying that the Godhead is really in Chriſt, hee ſheweth that he is very God: alſo ſaying, in him, he declareth two diſtinct natures, and by this word dwelleth, he proueth that it is there for euer.

‖Or, eſſētially. Rom.2.29.

f Made by the Spirit of Chriſt. Rom.6.4. Epheſ.1.19.

g In beleeuing that God by his power raiſed vp Chriſt, whereof we haue a ſure token in our baptiſme. Epheſ.2.1.

‖Or, vs all our. Epheſ.2.15.

‖Or, obligatiō.

h The ceremonies, and rites were as it were a publike profeſſion, & hand writing of the miſerable ſtate of mankinde: for circumciſiō did declare our naturall polluction: the purifiings, and waſhings ſignified the filth of ſinne: the ſacrifices teſtified ẏ we were giltie of death, which were all taken away by Chriſtes death.

i As Satan and his angels from whom he hath taken all power.

k Or, diſtinction, as to make diffrence betwixt dayes. Matth.24.4.

l Meaning, that the hypocrites led them at their pleaſure into all ſuperſtition, and error.

‖Or, defraude you of your price.

22 Which all [m] perish with the vsing, [and are] after ỳ commandements and doctrines of men:

23 Which things haue in deede a shew of wisdome, in [n] voluntarie religion and humblenes of minde, and in not sparing the body: ‖ neither haue they it in any estimation to satisfie the [o] flesh.

m And appertaine nothing to the kingdome of God.
n Such as men haue chosen according to their owne fantasie.
‖Or, but they are of no value saue for the filling of the flesh.
o They pinche and defraude their bodye to shewe themselues greater hypocrites.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth where we should seeke Christ. 5 Hee exhorteth to mortification, 10 To put off the olde man and to put on Christ. 12 To the which he addeth exhortations, both generall and particular, to charitie and humilitie.

IF ye then be [a] risen wᵭ Christ, seeke those things which are aboue, where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God.

2 Set your affections on things which are aboue, [and] not on things, which [b] are on the earth.

3 For ye are [c] dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ which is our life, shal appeare, then shall ye also appeare with him in glorie.

5 *[d] Mortifie therefore your members which are on the earth, fornication, vncleannes, the inordinate affection, euill concupiscence, and couetousnes which is idolatrie.

6 For the which things sakes the wrath of God commeth on the children of disobedience,

7 Wherein ye also walked once, whē ye liued in them.

8 *But nowe put ye away euen all these things, wrath, anger, maliciousnes, cursed speaking, filthie speaking, out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye haue put off the olde man with his workes,

10 And haue put on the new, which is renewed in knowledge *after the image of him that created him,

11 Where is neither Grecian nor Iew, circumcision nor vncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, free: but Christ is all and in all things.

12 *Now therefore, as the elect of God [e] holy and beloued, put on ‖ tender mercie, kindnes, humblenes of mind, meekenes, long suffring:

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiuing one another, if any man haue a quarell to another: euen as Christ forgaue you, euen so do ye.

14 And aboue al these things [put on] loue, which is the bond of perfectnes.

15 And let the peace of God [f] rule in your hearts, to the which ye are called in one bodie, and be ye ‖ amiable.

16 Let the [g] worde of Christ dwell in you plenteously in al wisdome, teaching and admonishing your owne selues, in [h] psalmes, and hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing with a * ‖ grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 *And whatsoeuer ye shall doe, in worde or deede, [do] all in the Name of the Lord Iesus, giuing thankes to God euen the Father by him.

18 ¶*Wiues, submit your selues vnto your husbands, as it is comely in the Lord.

19 *Husbandes, loue your wiues, and be not bitter vnto them.

20 ¶*Children, obey your parents in [i] all things: for that is well pleasing vnto the Lord.

21 Fathers, [k] prouoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 ¶*Seruants, bee obedient vnto them that are [your] masters according to the flesh in al things, not with eye seruice as men pleasers, but in singlenes of heart, fearing God.

23 And whatsoeuer ye do, doe it heartily, as to the Lorde, and not vnto men, 24 Knowing that of the Lorde, ye shall receiue the reward of the inheritance: for ye serue the Lord Christ.

25 But he [l] that doeth wrong, shal receiue for the wrong that hee hath done, and there is no *[m] respect of persons.

f Let it guide all your doings.
‖Or, gracious, or thankefull.
g The doctrine of the Gospel.
h Psalmes properly conteine complainings to God, narrations & expostulatiōs: hymnes, onely thanksgiuing: songs conteine prayses, and thanksgiuing, but not so largely and amply, as hymnes doe.
Ephes.4.29.
‖Or, thanksgiuing.
1.Cor.10.31.
Ephes.5.22.
1.Pet.3.7.
ephes.5.25.
Ephe.6.1.
i Which are in the Lord.
k By too much rigour.
Ephes.6.5.
tit.2.9.1.pet.2.18.
l The cruell master.
Deut.10.17.
wisd.6.7.
ecclus.35.12.
rom.2.11.
gal.2.6.
ephes.6.9.
m Whether he be master or seruant.

CHAP. IIII.

2 Hee exhorteth them to be feruent in prayer, 5 To walke wisely toward them ỳ are not yet come to ỳ true knowledge of Christ. He saluteth them, & wisheth them all prosperitie.

YE masters, do vnto your seruants, that which is iust, and equall, knowing that ye also haue a master in heauen.

2 *Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thankes giuing,

3 *Praying also for vs, that God may open vnto vs the [a] doore of vtterance, to speake the mysterie of Christ: wherefore I am also in bondes,

4 That I may vtter it, as it becommeth me to speake.

5 ¶*Walke [b] wisely towarde them that are without, & [c] redeeme the time.

6 [Let] your speach [be] gracious alwayes, and powdred with [d] salt, that ye may knowe howe to answere euery man.

Luke 18.1.
1.thes.5.17.
Ephes.6.18.
2.thes.3.1.
a That I may freely preach the Gospel.
Ephes.5.15.
b To the commoditie of your neighbours.
c Bestowe the time well, which the malice of men euery where plucketh from you, and causeth you to abuse it.
d Pertaining to edification, and mixt with no vanitie.

7 ¶Tychicus

Ephes.5.3.
d Extinguish all the strength of the corrupt nature which resisteth against the spirit, that ye may liue in the Spirit, and not in the flesh.
Rom.6.4.
ephes.4.25.
hebr.12.1.
1.pet.2.1.
and 4.1,2.
Gen.1.26.
& 5.1.& 9.6.
Ephes.4.32.
and 6.11.
e He sheweth what fruites are in them that are dead to the world, and are risen againe with Christ.
‖Or, the bowels of mercies.

7 ¶ Tychicus [our] beloued brother, and faithfull miniſter, and fellowe ſeruant in the Lord, ſhall declare vnto you my whole ſtate,

8 Whom I haue ſent vnto you for the ſame purpoſe that he might knowe your ſtate, and might comfort your heartes, Philemon 10. 9 * With Oneſimus a faithfull and a beloued brother, Who is one of you. They ſhall ſhewe you of al things here.

10 Ariſtarchus my priſon fellow ſaluteth you, and Marcus, Barnabas ſiſters ſonne (touching whom ye receiued commandements, If he come vnto you, receyue him)

11 And Jeſus Which is called Juſtus, Which are of the circumciſion. Theſe e only are my f worke fellowes vnto the kingdome of God, which haue bene vnto my conſolation.

12 Epaphras the ſeruant of Chriſt, Which is one of you, ſaluteth you, and alwayes ſtriueth for you in prayers, that ye may ſtand perfect, and full in all the will of God.

13 For I beare him record, that hee hath a great zeale for you, and for them of Laodicea, and them of Hierapolis.

14 * Luke the beloued phyſition greeteth you, and Demas. 2.Tim.4.10, 11.

15 Salute the brethren which are of Laodicea, and Nymphas, & the Church Which is in his houſe.

16 And When this Epiſtle is read of you, cauſe that it be read in the Church of the Laodiceans alſo, and that ye likewiſe reade the Epiſtle g [Written] from Laodicea, 17 And ſay to Archippus, Take heede to the miniſterie, that thou haſt receiued in the Lord, that thou fulfill it.

18 The ſalutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bands. Grace [be] with you, Amen.

Written from Rome to the Coloſſians, [and ſent] by Tychicus, & Oneſimus.

e If they only did helpe him to preache the Goſpell at Rome, where was Peter? or thoſe xxv. yeres that they feine he abode at Rome?

f In preaching the Goſpell.

g Either to Paul, or els which they woulde write as an anſwere to this Epiſtle ſent to the Coloſſians.

The firſt Epiſtle of Paul to the Theſſalonians.

The Argvment.

After that the Theſſalonians had bene well inſtructed in the fayth, perſecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Goſpell, aroſe, againſt the which although they did conſtantly ſtand, yet S. Paul (as moſt carefull for them) ſent Timothie to ſtrengthen them, who ſoone after admoniſhing him of their eſtate, gaue occaſion to the Apoſtle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be conſtant in fayth, and to ſuffer whatſoeuer God calleth them vnto for the teſtimonie of the Goſpell, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be ſo purged, that ſome cockle remaine not among the wheate, ſo there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious queſtions to ouerthrowe their fayth, taught falſly, as touching the point of the reſurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly inſtructeth them what to thinke, earneſtly forbidding them to ſeeke curiouſly to know the times, willing them rather to watch leaſt the ſudden comming of Chriſt come vpon them at vnwares: and ſo after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, hee endeth.

CHAP. I.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are ſo ſtedfaſt in fayth and good woorkes, 6 And receyue the Goſpell with ſuch earneſtnes, 7 That they are an example to all others.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Theſſalonians, [Which is] in a God the Father, & in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt: Grace [be] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Jeſus Chriſt.

2 * Wee giue God thankes alwayes for you all, making * mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceaſing, remembring your b effectuall faith, and c diligent loue and the pacience of [your] hope in our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, in the ſight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our d Goſpel was not vnto you in worde onely, but alſo in power, and in the holy Ghoſt, and in much aſſurance, as ye know after what maner we were among you for your ſakes.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lorde, and receiued the worde in much affliction, with c ioy of the holy Ghoſt,

7 So that ye were as ‖ enſamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For a For there is no Church which is not ioyned together in God. 2.Theſ.1.3. Phil.1.3,4.

b Which declareth it ſelfe by moſt liuely fruites.

c Whereby you declared your ſelues moſt ready and painefull to helpe § poore.

d The effects all preaching of the Goſpell is an euident token of our election.

e To beleeue, and to be fully perſwaded to haue the gifts of the holy Ghoſt, and ioyfully to ſuffer for Chriſtes ſake, are moſt certaine ſignes of our election.

‖ Or, patternes.

7 ¶ Tychicus [our] beloued brother, and faithfull miniſter, and fellowe ſeruant in the Lord, ſhall declare vnto you my whole ſtate,

8 Whom I haue ſent vnto you for the ſame purpoſe that he might knowe your ſtate, and might comfort your heartes, Philemon 10. 9 * With Oneſimus a faithfull and a beloued brother, Who is one of you. They ſhall ſhewe you of al things here.

10 Ariſtarchus my priſon fellow ſaluteth you, and Marcus, Barnabas ſiſters ſonne (touching whom ye receiued commandements, If he come vnto you, receyue him)

11 And Jeſus Which is called Juſtus, Which are of the circumciſion. Theſe e only are my f worke fellowes vnto the kingdome of God, which haue bene vnto my conſolation.

12 Epaphras the ſeruant of Chriſt, Which is one of you, ſaluteth you, and alwayes ſtriueth for you in prayers, that ye may ſtand perfect, and full in all the will of God.

13 For I beare him record, that hee hath a great zeale for you, and for them of Laodicea, and them of Hierapolis.

14 * Luke the beloued phyſition greeteth you, and Demas. 2.Tim.4.10, 11.

15 Salute the brethren which are of Laodicea, and Nymphas, & the Church Which is in his houſe.

16 And When this Epiſtle is read of you, cauſe that it be read in the Church of the Laodiceans alſo, and that ye likewiſe reade the Epiſtle g [Written] from Laodicea,

17 And ſay to Archippus, Take heede to the miniſterie, that thou haſt receiued in the Lord, that thou fulfill it.

18 The ſalutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bands. Grace [be] with you, Amen.

Written from Rome to the Coloſſians, [and ſent] by Tychicus, & Oneſimus.

e If they only did helpe him to preache the Goſpell at Rome, where was Peter? or thoſe xxv. yeres that they feine he abode at Rome?

f In preaching the Goſpell.

g Either to Paul, or els which they woulde write as an anſwere to this Epiſtle ſent to the Coloſſians.

The firſt Epiſtle of Paul to the Theſſalonians.

The Argvment.

After that the Theſſalonians had bene well inſtructed in the fayth, perſecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Goſpell, aroſe, againſt the which although they did conſtantly ſtand, yet S. Paul (as moſt carefull for them) ſent Timothie to ſtrengthen them, who ſoone after admoniſhing him of their eſtate, gaue occaſion to the Apoſtle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be conſtant in fayth, and to ſuffer whatſoeuer God calleth them vnto for the teſtimonie of the Goſpell, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be ſo purged, that ſome cockle remaine not among the wheate, ſo there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious queſtions to ouerthrowe their fayth, taught falſly, as touching the point of the reſurrection from the dead: whereof he briefly inſtructeth them what to thinke, earneſtly forbidding them to ſeeke curiouſly to know the times, willing them rather to watch leaſt the ſudden comming of Chriſt come vpon them at vnwares: and ſo after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, hee endeth.

CHAP. I.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are ſo ſtedfaſt in fayth and good woorkes, 6 And receyue the Goſpell with ſuch earneſtnes, 7 That they are an example to all others.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Theſſalonians, [Which is] in a God the Father, & in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt: Grace [be] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Jeſus Chriſt.

2 * Wee giue God thankes alwayes for you all, making * mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceaſing, remembring your b effectuall faith, and c diligent loue and the pacience of [your] hope in our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, in the ſight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our d Goſpel was not vnto you in worde onely, but alſo in power, and in the holy Ghoſt, and in much aſſurance, as ye know after what maner we were among you for your ſakes.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lorde, and receiued the worde in much affliction, with c ioy of the holy Ghoſt,

7 So that ye were as ‖ enſamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For a For there is no Church which is not ioyned together in God. 2.Theſ.1.3. Phil.1.3,4.

b Which declareth it ſelfe by moſt liuely fruites.

c Whereby you declared your ſelues moſt ready and painefull to helpe § poore.

d The effects all preaching of the Goſpell is an euident token of our election.

e To beleeue, and to be fully perſwaded to haue the gifts of the holy Ghoſt, and ioyfully to ſuffer for Chriſtes ſake, are moſt certaine ſignes of our election.

‖ Or, patternes.

8 For from you ſounded out ỹ worde of the Lorde, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your fayth alſo which is towarde God, ſpread abroade in all quarters, that we neede not to ſpeake any thing.

f To wit, all the faithfull.

9 For [f] they themſelues ſhewe of you what maner of entring in we had vnto you, and howe ye turned to God from idoles, to ſerue the [g] liuing and true God, g For idols are dead things & onely feined fantaſies.

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whom he raiſed from the dead, [euen] Jeſus which deliuereth vs from the [h] wrath to come.

h Which he ſhall execute vpon the wicked.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they ſhould not faint vnder the croſſe, 2 He commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And theirs in obeying. 18 He excuſeth his abſence, that he could not come and open his heart to them.

FOr ye your ſelues knowe, Brethrẽ, that our entrance in vnto you was not in [a] vaine, a Not in outward ſhew and in pompe, but in trauell and in the feare of God. Act.16,12,23.

2 But euen after that we had ſuffred before, and were ſhamefully entreated at *Philippi (as ye know) we were bolde [b] in our God, to ſpeake vnto you the Goſpel of God with much ſtriuing.

b By his helpe and grace.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceite, nor by vncleannes, nor by guile.

4 But as we were alowed of God, that the Goſpel ſhould be committed [vnto vs,] ſo we ſpeake, not as they that [c] pleaſe men, but God, which tryeth our hearts.

c Which declareth a naughtie conſcience.

5 Neither yet did we euer vſe flattring wordes, as ye knowe, nor coloured couetouſnes, God [is] recorde.

6 Neither ſought we prayſe of men, neither of you, nor of others,

‖ Or, in authoritie.

7 When we might haue bin ‖ chargeable, as the Apoſtles of Chriſt: but we were gentle among you, euen as a [d] nource cheriſheth her children.

d He humbled himſelf to ſupport all things without all reſpect of lucre: euen as the tender mother which nourceth her children, and thinketh no office too vile for her childrens ſake. Act.24.34. 1.cor.4.12. 2.theſ.3.8.

8 Thus being affectioned towarde you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Goſpel of God onely, but alſo our owne ſoules, becauſe ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, *our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, becauſe we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Goſpel of God.

10 Ye [are] witneſſes, and God [alſo,] howe holily, and iuſtly, and vnblameably we behaued our ſelues among [e] you that beleeue.

e For it is not poſſible to auoyde the reproches of the wicked, which euer hate good doings.

11 As ye knowe howe that we exhorted you, and comforted, & beſought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye *would walke worthie of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glorie.

Ephe.4.1, phil. 1,27. col.1.10.

13 For this cauſe alſo thanke we God without ceaſing, that when ye receiued of vs the word of the preaching of God, ye receiued it not as the worde of men, but as it is in deede the worde of God, which alſo worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Judea are in [f] Chriſt Jeſus, becauſe ye haue alſo ſuffered the ſame things of your owne countrey men, euen as they [haue] of the Jewes, f In his name and vnder his protection.

15 Who both killed the Lorde Jeſus and their owne Prophets, and haue perſecuted vs, and God they pleaſe not, and are contraries [g] to all men, g And would hinder all men from their ſaluation.

16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might be ſaued, to [h] fulfill their ſinnes alwayes: for the wrath [of God] is [i] come on them, to the vtmoſt.

h And heape vp ỹ meaſure, Matth.23.32.

i He meaneth not this of all the Jewes in general: but of certaine of thẽ particularly, which ceaſed not after they had put Chriſt to death to perſecute his word and his miniſters. Rom.1.11.

17 Foraſmuch, Brethren, as we were kept from you for a ſeaſon, concerning ſight, but not in the heart, we *enforced the more to ſee your face with great deſire.

18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at leaſt once or twiſe) but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope or ioy, or crowne of reioycing? are [k] not euen you it in the preſence of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſt at his comming?

k Therefore I could not forget you except I would forget my ſelfe.

20 Yes, ye are our glorie and ioy.

CHAP. III.

2 He ſheweth howe greatly he was affectioned towarde them, both in that he ſent Timotheus to them, 10 And alſo prayed for them.

WHerefore ſince we coulde no longer forbeare, we thought it good to remaine at Athens [a] alone, a Rather ſeeking your commoditie then mine owne, in ſending of Timotheus to you. Acte.16.1.

2 *And haue ſent Timotheus our brother and miniſter of God, and our labour fellowe in the Goſpel of Chriſt, to ſtabliſh you, and to comfort you touching your fayth,

3 That no man ſhould be mooued with theſe afflictions: for ye your ſelues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verely when we were with you, we tolde you before that we ſhould ſuffer tribulations, euen as it came to paſſe, and ye knowe it.

5 Euen for this cauſe, when [b] I could b His great affection toward the ſmall flocke.

no longer forbeare, I sent[him]that I might knowe of your fayth, least the [c] tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your fayth and loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also [doe]you,

7 Therefore, brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction and necessitie through your fayth.

8 For now are we [d] aliue, if ye [e] stand fast in the Lorde.

9 For what thankes can we recompence to God againe for you for all the ioye wherewith we reioyce for your sakes before our God,

10 Night and day *praying exceedingly that we might see your face, & might [f] accomplish that which is lacking in your fayth?

11 Now God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, guide our iourney vnto you,

12 And the Lorde encrease you, and make you abounde in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as we[doe]toward you:

13 *To make your hearts stable & vnblameable in holines before God euen our Father, at [g] y comming of our Lorde Jesus Christ with all his Saints.

c Meaning, Satan.

d If ye remaine constant in fayth & true doctrine, I shal thinke that all mine afflictiõs be so many pleasures, and shall be restored from death to life.

e If you perseuer[e] in faith, Rom.1.10. and 15.23.

f We must dayly growe from faith to faith.

Chap.5.23. 1,cor,1,8.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee exhorteth them to holinesse, 6 Innocencie, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Describing the ende of the resurrection.

AND furthermore we beseech you, Brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that [a] ye increase more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke, and to please God.

2 For ye knowe what [b] commandements we gaue you by the Lord Jesus.

3 *For this is the will of God[euen] your sanctification, [c] [and]that ye should abstaine from fornication,

4 That euery one of you should knowe, howe to possesse his [d] vessel in holines and honor,

5 [And]not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which knowe not God:

6 *That no man oppresse or defraude his brother in any matter: for the Lord [is]auenger of all such things, as we also haue tolde you beforetime, & testified.

7 *For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannes, but vnto holines.

8 He therefore that despiseth [e] [these thinges,] despiseth not man, but God who hath euen giuen * you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye neede not that I write vnto you: *for ye are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Yea, and that thing verely ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but we beseech you, Brethren, that ye increase more & more,

11 *And that ye studie to be quiet, and to meddle with your owne busines, and to worke with your [f] owne hands, as we commanded you,

12 That ye may behaue your selues honestly towarde them that [g] are without, & that nothing be [h] lacking vnto you.

13 ¶ I Would not, brethren, haue you ignorant concerning them which are a sleepe, that ye [i] sorowe not euen as other which haue no hope.

14 For if we beleeue that Jesus is dead, and is risen, euen so them which sleepe in [k] Jesus, will God [l] bring with him.

15 For this say we vnto you by the [m] worde of the Lorde, *that we which liue, and are remaining in the comming of the Lorde, shall not preuent them which sleepe.

16 For the Lorde himselfe shall descend from heauen with a shoute, [and] with the voyce of the Archangel, and *with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

17 Then shall [n] we which liue and remaine, be [o] caught vp with them also in the cloudes, to meete y Lord in the aire: and so shall we euer be with the Lorde.

18 Wherefore, comfort your selues one another with these wordes.

a And as it were, ouercome your selues.

b The Greeke word signifieth such commandements as one receiueth from some mã to giue them in his name to others. Rom.12.2. ephe.5.17.

c That is, that you should dedicate your selues wholy vnto God.

d That is, his body which is prophaned by such filthines. 1.Cor.6.8. 1,Cor,1,2.

e By these precepts of godly life it appeareth what were the commandements which Paul gaue vnto thẽ. 1,Cor.7.40. Iohn 13.34. and 15.12. 1,Iohn 2,8,& 4.21. 2.Thes.3.7.

f And not be idle.

g As strangers and Infidels.

h But that ye may be able by your diligence to supply your want and necessitie.

i He doeth not condemne all kind of sorow, but that which proceedeth of infidelitie.

k Or, haue cõtinued cõstantly in the faith of Christ.

l By rayling their bodies out of ỹ graue.

m Which is in the name of the Lord, and as he should speake himselfe. 1,Cor,15.23. Matth,24.31. 1,cor,15.52.

n Meaning them which shalbe found aliue.

o In this sudden taking vp there shalbe a kinde of mutation of the qualities of our bodies which shalbe as a kinde of death.

CHAP. V.

1 He informeth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lord, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard such as preach Gods worde among them.

BUt of the [a] times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.

2 For ye your selues know perfectly, that the *day of the Lord shall come, euen as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, and safetie, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the [b] trauaile vpon a woman a So much the more we ought to beware of all dreames and fantasies of men which weary themselues and others in searching out curiously the time that the Lorde shall appeare, alledging for themselues a vaine prophesie, and most falsely ascribed to Elias, that 2000. yeere before the Law, 2000. vnder the Law, and 2000. after the Lawe the worlde shall endure. Mat.24.44. 2.pet.3.10. reuela.3.3. and 16.15. b That is, suddenly and vnlooked for.

woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenes, that that day should come on you, as [it were] a thiefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: We are not of the night, neither of darkenes.

6 Therefore let vs not [c] sleepe as doe other, but let vs [d] Watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the [e] day, be sober, * putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obteine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 Which died for vs, that whether we wake or [f] sleepe, we should liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Nowe we beseech you, brethren, that ye knowe them, Which labour among you, & are ouer you in the Lorde, and [g] admonish you,

13 That ye haue them in singular loue for [h] their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 We desire you, brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake: be patient toward all men.

15 * See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 [i] Reioyce euermore.

17 * Pray continually.

18 In all things giue thanks: for this [is] the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you.

19 Quench not the [k] Spirit.

20 Despise not [l] prophecying.

21 Trie all things, [and] keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine frō all appearance of euil.

23 Nowe the very God * of peace sanctifie you throughout: and [I pray God] that your [m] whole spirit and soule and body, may be kept blameless vnto the comming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 * Faithfull [is he] which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

27 I charge you in the Lorde, that this Epistle be read vnto all the brethren the Saints.

28 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ [be] with you, Amen.

The first [Epistle] vnto the Thessalonians Written from Athens.

c Here sleepe is taken for contempt of saluation, whē men continue in sinnes, & wil not awake to godlines.

d And not be ouercome with the cares of the world.

e That is, lightened by the Gospel. Isa.59.17. ephes.6.17.

f Here it is taken only to die & is meant of the faithfull.

g As the flock is bound to loue the shepheard, so is it his duetie to teache them & exhort them in true religion.

h Where this cause ceaseth, that they work not: the honour also ceaseth, and they must be expelled as woolues out of ỹ flocke.

Prou.17.13. & 20.22. mat. 5.39. rom.12. 17.1.pet.3.9.

i Haue a quiet minde and conscience in Christ which shall make you reioyce in the middes of sorowes, Rom. 5.3. 2.cor.6. 10. Luke 18.1. ecclus 18.22. col.4.2.

k God that hath giuen his Spirit to his elect, will neuer suffer it to be quenched, but hath reuealed by what meanes it may be maintained, that is, by such exhortations as these, and by continuall increase in godlines.

l The preaching of the worde of God. Chap.3.12, 13.1.cor.1.8.

m Then is a man fully sanctified and perfect, when his mind thinketh nothing, his soule, that is, his vnderstanding and will, couet nothing: neither his body doeth execute any thing contrarie to the wil of God. 1.Cor.1.9.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

The Argvment.

LEast the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them and exhorteth them to patience and other fruites of fayth, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, he willeth them to correct such sharpely, as liue idlely of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their fayth, loue, and patience. 11 He prayeth for the encrease of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruite shall come thereof.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, [which is] in GOD our Father, and in the Lorde Jesus Christ:

2 Grace [be] with you, & peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Jesus Christ.

3 * We ought to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your fayth groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you toward another aboundeth, 1.Thes.1.2.

4 So that We our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of GOD, because of your [a] patience and fayth in all your persecutions & tribulations that ye suffer, a Which proceedeth of your fayth as a most notable fruite.

woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenes, that that day should come on you, as [it were] a thiefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: We are not of the night, neither of darkenes.

6 Therefore let vs not [c] sleepe as doe other, but let vs [d] Watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the [e] day, be sober, * putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obteine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 Which died for vs, that whether we wake or [f] sleepe, we should liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Nowe we beseech you, brethren, that ye knowe them, Which labour among you, & are ouer you in the Lorde, and [g] admonish you,

13 That ye haue them in singular loue for [h] their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 We desire you, brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake: be patient toward all men.

15 * See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 [i] Reioyce euermore.

17 * Pray continually.

18 In all things giue thanks: for this [is] the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you.

19 Quench not the [k] Spirit.

20 Despise not [l] prophecying.

21 Trie all things, [and] keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine frō all appearance of euil.

23 Nowe the very God * of peace sanctifie you throughout: and [I pray God] that your [m] whole spirit and soule and body, may be kept blameless vnto the comming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 * Faithfull [is he] which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

27 I charge you in the Lorde, that this Epistle be read vnto all the brethren the Saints.

28 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ [be] with you, Amen.

The first [Epistle] vnto the Thessalonians Written from Athens.

c Here sleepe is taken for contempt of saluation, whē men continue in sinnes, & wil not awake to godlines.

d And not be ouercome with the cares of the world.

e That is, lightened by the Gospel. Isa.59.17. ephes.6.17.

f Here it is taken only to die & is meant of the faithfull.

g As the flock is bound to loue the shepheard, so is it his duetie to teache them & exhort them in true religion.

h Where this cause ceaseth, that they work not: the honour also ceaseth, and they must be expelled as woolues out of ỹ flocke.

Prou.17.13. & 20.22. mat. 5.39. rom.12. 17.1.pet.3.9.

i Haue a quiet minde and conscience in Christ which shall make you reioyce in the middes of sorowes, Rom. 5.3. 2.cor.6. 10. Luke 18.1. ecclus 18.22. col.4.2.

k God that hath giuen his Spirit to his elect, will neuer suffer it to be quenched, but hath reuealed by what meanes it may be maintained, that is, by such exhortations as these, and by continuall increase in godlines.

l The preaching of the worde of God. Chap.3.12, 13.1.cor.1.8.

m Then is a man fully sanctified and perfect, when his mind thinketh nothing, his soule, that is, his vnderstanding and will, couet nothing: neither his body doeth execute any thing contrarie to the wil of God. 1.Cor.1.9.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

The Argvment.

LEast the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them and exhorteth them to patience and other fruites of fayth, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, he willeth them to correct such sharpely, as liue idlely of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their fayth, loue, and patience. 11 He prayeth for the encrease of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruite shall come thereof.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, [which is] in GOD our Father, and in the Lorde Jesus Christ:

2 Grace [be] with you, & peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde Jesus Christ.

3 * We ought to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your fayth groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you toward another aboundeth, 1.Thes.1.2.

4 So that We our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of GOD, because of your [a] patience and fayth in all your persecutions & tribulations that ye suffer, a Which proceedeth of your fayth as a most notable fruite.

5 [Which is] a [b] token of the righteous* iudgement of God that ye may be counted worthie of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompence tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs * when the Lorde Iesus shall shewe himselfe from heauen with his [c] mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendring vengeance vnto them that doe not know God, and which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shalbe punished with [d] euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lorde, and from the glorie of his power,

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to be made marueilous in all them that beleeue (because our testimonie towarde you was beleeued) in that day.

11 Wherefore, We also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthie of [his] calling, and fulfill [c] all the good pleasure of [his] goodnes, and the [f] worke of fayth with power, 12 That the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be [g] glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

b The faithful by their afflictions see, as in a cleare glasse the ende of Gods iust iudgment, when as they shall reigne with Christ which haue suffered wt him, and the wicked shall feele his extreme wrath & vengeance. Iude 6. 1. Thes. 4, 16.

c By whom he declareth his might.

d As God is euerlasting, so shall their punishment be euerlasting: and as he is most mightie of power, so shall their punishment be most sore.

c The free beneuolence of Gods goodnes comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination and vocation: the worke of fayth conteineth our iustification, to the which God addeth glorification: & all these he worketh of his meere grace through Christ. f Faith is Gods wonderfull worke in vs. g As the head with the body.

CHAP. II.

3 He sheweth them that the day of the Lorde shall not come, till the departing from the fayth come first, 9 And the kingdome of Antichrist, 15 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught them.

NOwe we beseech you, brethren, by the comming of our Lorde Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not suddenly moued from [your] minde, nor troubled neither by [a] spirit, nor by [b] worde, nor by letter, as [it were] from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

3 * Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for [that day shall not come,] except there come a [c] departing first, & that that [d] man of sinne be disclosed, [euen] the sonne of [c] perdition,

4 Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth himselfe against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

6 And nowe ye know what [f] withholdeth [h] that he might be reuealed in his time.

7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth already [g] worke: onely he which [h] nowe withholdeth, [shall let] till he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall [h] wicked man be reuealed, * whom the Lord shall consume, with [h] [i] Spirit of his mouth, & shal abolish with the brightnes of his comming,

9 [Euen him] whose [k] comming is by the working of Satan, with all power and signes, and lying wonders,

10 And in all deceiueablenes of vnrighteousnes, among them that [l] perish, because they receiued not the loue of the trueth, that they might be saued.

11 And therefore God shall send them strong delusion, that they should beleeue lyes, 12 That all they might be damned which beleeued not the trueth, but had [m] pleasure in vnrighteousnes.

13 But we ought to giue thankes alway to God for you, brethren [n] beloued of the Lorde, because that God hath [o] from the beginning chosen you to saluation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of [p] trueth, 14 Whereunto he called you by [q] our Gospel, to obteine the glorie of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast and keepe the [r] instructions, which ye haue bene taught, either [f] by worde, or by our Epistle.

16 Nowe the same Iesus Christ our Lord & our God euen the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs euerlasting consolation & good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in euery worde and good worke.

a As false reuelation, or dreames.

b Which are spoken or written. Ephe. 5, 6.

c A wonderfull departing of the most part from the fayth.

d This wicked Antichrist comprehendeth the whole succession of the persecuters of the Church, and all that abominable kingdome of Satan, whereof some were Beares, some Lions, others Leopards, as Daniel describeth them, and is called the man of sinne because he setteth himselfe vp against God. e Who as he destroyeth others, so shall he be destroyed himselfe.

f Because the false apostles had perswaded after a sort the Thessalonians, that the day of the Lord was nere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible dissipation before: & therefore rather to prepare themselues to patience then to rest and quietnes: for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospel shoulde be preached throughout al, Matth. 24, 14.

g To wit, priuily, & is therefore called a mystery because it is secret.

h Which shall stay for a time. Isai. 11, 4.

i That is, with his word.

k Meaning the whole time that he shall remaine.

l Satans power is limited that he cannot hurt the elect to their destruction.

m Delighted in false doctrine.

n The fountaine of our election is the loue of God: the sanctification of the Spirite, and beleeuing the trueth are testimonies of the same election.

o Before the foundation of the world. p And Gospel. q By our preaching. r That is, the doctrine. 1. Thes. 2, 2. Chap. 3, 6. f That is, by my preaching of the Gospel.

CHAP. III.

1 He desireth them to pray for him, that the Gospel may prosper, 6 And giueth them warning to reproue the idle, 16 And so wisheth them all wealth.

FUrthermore, brethren, * pray for vs, that [p] worde of [p] Lord may haue free passage, and be glorified, euen as [it is] wt you, Ephe. 6, 18, 19. col. 4, 3.

2 And

2 And that we may be deliuered from vnreasonable and euill men: for all men haue not [a] faith.

3 But ỹ Lord is faithfull, which will stablish you, and keepe you from [b] euill.

4 And wee are perswaded of you through the Lord, that ye both do, & will do the things which we [c] command you.

5 And the Lord guide your hearts to the loue of God, and the wayting for of Christ.

6 We commande you, brethren, in the Name of our Lorde Jesus Christ, that ye withdrawe your selues from euery brother that walketh inordinately, and not after the [d]* instruction, which he receiued of vs.

7 For ye your selues knowe * how ye ought to follow vs: *for we behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

8 Neither tooke we bread of any man for nought: but we wrought with * labour & trauaile night & day, because we would not be chargeable to any of you.

9 Not but that wee had authoritie, *but that we might make our selues an ensample vnto you to follow vs.

10 For euen when we were with you, this wee warned you of, that if there were any, which woulde not [e] worke, that he should not eate.

11 For we heard, that there are some which walke among you inordinately, and worke not at all, but are busie bodies.

12 Therefore them that are such, we commande and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that they worke with quietnesse, and eate their owne bread.

13 *And ye, brethren, be not wearie in well doing.

14 If any man obey not our sayings, note him by a letter, * & haue no companie with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an [f] enemie, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Nowe the Lord of peace giue you peace always by all meanes. The Lord [be] with you all.

17 The salutation of me Paul, with mine owne hand, which is the [g] token in euery Epistle: so I write,

18 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ [be] with you all, Amen.

¶ The second [Epistle] to the Thessalonians, written from Athens.

a Although they boast themselues thereof.
b From the sleightes of Satan.
c By the word of God.
d Which is, to trauaile, if he will eate as verse 10. Chap. 2.15. 1. Cor. 4.12. 1. thes. 4.11. Actes 20.34. 1. cor. 4.12. 1. Thes. 2.9.
1. Cor. 11.1.
e Then by the word of God none ought to liue idely, but ought to giue himselfe to some vocation to get his liuing by, and to do good to others.
Galat. 6.9.
Matth. 18.17. 1. cor. 5.9.
f The ende of excommunication is not to driue from the Church such as haue fallen, but to winne them to the Church by amendement.
g Whether they be mine Epistles or other mens.

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

The Argument.

In writing this Epistle Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teache Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionistes, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Lawe, they knew not what was the chiefe ende of the Lawe. And as for himselfe, he so confesseth his vnworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore hee willeth prayers to be made for all degrees and sortes of men, because that God by offring his Gospel and Christ his sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whome the mysterie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion men shall teache things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the duetie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnes, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 He exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing be taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith with a good cõscience, charitie & edification are the end thereof. 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus & Alexander.

PAul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the ‖ commandement of God our sauiour, and of [our] Lord Jesus Christ * our hope,

2 *Unto Timotheus [my] [a] naturall sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, [and] peace from God our Father, and [from] Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, [so do,] that thou mayest commande some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heede to *fables and genealogies, [*which are] endlesse, which breed questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

‖ Or, ordinãce. Col. 1.27. Actes 16.1.
a So called because he followed the simplicitie of the Gospel.
Chap. 4.7. titus 1.14. Chap. 6.4.

2 And that we may be deliuered from vnreasonable and euill men: for all men haue not [a] faith.

3 But ỹ Lord is faithfull, which will stablish you, and keepe you from [b] euill.

4 And wee are perswaded of you through the Lord, that ye both do, & will do the things which we [c] command you.

5 And the Lord guide your hearts to the loue of God, and the wayting for of Christ.

6 We commande you, brethren, in the Name of our Lorde Jesus Christ, that ye withdrawe your selues from euery brother that walketh inordinately, and not after the [d]* instruction, which he receiued of vs.

7 For ye your selues knowe * how ye ought to follow vs: *for we behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

8 Neither tooke we bread of any man for nought: but we wrought with * labour & trauaile night & day, because we would not be chargeable to any of you.

9 Not but that wee had authoritie, *but that we might make our selues an ensample vnto you to follow vs.

10 For euen when we were with you, this wee warned you of, that if there were any, which woulde not [e] worke, that he should not eate.

11 For we heard, that there are some which walke among you inordinately, and worke not at all, but are busie bodies.

12 Therefore them that are such, we commande and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that they worke with quietnesse, and eate their owne bread.

13 *And ye, brethren, be not wearie in well doing.

14 If any man obey not our sayings, note him by a letter, * & haue no companie with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an [f] enemie, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Nowe the Lord of peace giue you peace always by all meanes. The Lord [be] with you all.

17 The salutation of me Paul, with mine owne hand, which is the [g] token in euery Epistle: so I write,

18 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ [be] with you all, Amen.

¶ The second [Epistle] to the Thessalonians, written from Athens.

a Although they boast themselues thereof.
b From the sleightes of Satan.
c By the word of God.
d Which is, to trauaile, if he will eate as verse 10. Chap. 2.15. 1. Cor. 4.12. 1. thes. 4.11. Actes 20.34. 1. cor. 4.12. 1. Thes. 2.9.
1. Cor. 11.1.
e Then by the word of God none ought to liue idely, but ought to giue himselfe to some vocation to get his liuing by, and to do good to others.
Galat. 6.9.
Matth. 18.17. 1. cor. 5.9.
f The ende of excommunication is not to driue from the Church such as haue fallen, but to winne them to the Church by amendement.
g Whether they be mine Epistles or other mens.

The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

The Argument.

In writing this Epistle Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teache Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionistes, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professing the Lawe, they knew not what was the chiefe ende of the Lawe. And as for himselfe, he so confesseth his vnworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore hee willeth prayers to be made for all degrees and sortes of men, because that God by offring his Gospel and Christ his sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whome the mysterie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion men shall teache things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the duetie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnes, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 He exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing be taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith with a good cõscience, charitie & edification are the end thereof. 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus & Alexander.

PAul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the ‖ commandement of God our sauiour, and of [our] Lord Jesus Christ * our hope,

2 *Unto Timotheus [my] [a] naturall sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, [and] peace from God our Father, and [from] Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, [so do,] that thou mayest commande some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heede to *fables and genealogies, [*which are] endlesse, which breed questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

‖ Or, ordinãce. Col. 1.27. Actes 16.1.
a So called because he followed the simplicitie of the Gospel.
Chap. 4.7. titus 1.14. Chap. 6.4.

Rom.13.10.
b Because these questionists preferred their curious fables to all other knowledge, & beautified them with the Lawe, as if they had bene the very Lawe of God, S. Paul sheweth that the ende of Gods Lawe is loue, which cannot be without a good cõscience, neither a good conscience without faith, nor faith without the word of God: so their doctrine which is an occasion of contention, is worth nothing.
‖ Or, of the Lawe.
Rom.7.12.
c Whose heartes Gods spirit doeth direct to doe that willingly which the Law requireth: so that their godly affection is to them as a lawe without further constraint.
d Such as onely delight in sinning.
e Which steale away children or seruants.
Chap.6.15.
f He declareth to Timothie the excellent force of Gods spirit in them whome he hath chosen to beare his word, although before they were Gods vtter enemies, to encourage him in this battell that he should fight against all infidels and hypocrites.
g Not knowing that I fought against God.
h Which chased away infidelitie.
i Which ouercame crueltie.
‖ Or, faithfull and assured.
Matth.9.13. marke 2.17.
k He hasteth forth into these godly affections, considering Gods great mercie towarde him.
l It appeareth that the vocation of Timothie was approued by notable prophesies which then were reueiled in the primitiue Church as Paul and Barnabas by the oracle were appointed to go to the Gentiles.
Chap.6.12.

5 For* the [b] ende of the ‖ commandement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfayned.

6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling.

7 They would bee doctours of the Lawe, & yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither whereof they affirme.

8 *And we know, that the Lawe is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the Lawe is not giuen vnto a [c] righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to [d] sinners, to the vnholy, and to the prophane, to murtherers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers,

10 To whoremongers, to buggerers, to [e] menstealers, to liars, to the periured, and if there be any other thing, that is contrarie to wholesome doctrine,

11 [Which is] according to the glorious Gospell of the * blessed God, which is committed vnto me.

12 Therefore [f] I thanke him, which hath made me strong, [that is,] Christ Iesus our Lorde: for hee counted mee faithfull, and put me in [his] seruice:

13 When before I was a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and an oppresser: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it [g] ignorantly through vnbeliefe.

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with [h] faith and [i] loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This [is] a ‖ true saying, and by all meanes worthie to bee receiued, that *Christ Iesus came into the worlde to saue sinners, of whome I am chiefe.

16 Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercie that Iesus Christ should first shewe on me all long suffering vnto the ensample of them, which shall in time to come beleeue in him vnto eternall life.

17 [k] Now vnto the King euerlasting, immortall, inuisible, vnto God onely wise, [be] honour [and] glorie for euer, and euer, Amen.

18 This commandement commit I vnto thee, sonne Timotheus, according to the [l] prophecies, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shouldest *fight a good fight, 19 Hauing [m] faith and a good conscience, which some haue put away, and as cõcerning faith, haue made shipwracke.

20 Of whome is Hymeneus, and Alexander, * whome I haue [n] deliuered vnto Satan, that they might learne not to blaspheme.

1.Cor.5.5.
m That is, sound doctrine.
n Excommunicate, and cast out of the Church.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth to pray for all men, 4 Wherefore, 8 And how, 9 As touching the apparell and modestie of women.

I Exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, [&] giuing of thanks be made for [a] all men,

2 For [b] Kings, and for all that are in authoritie, that we may lead a quiet and a peaceable life, in all godlines and honestie.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Sauiour, 4 *who will that [c] all men shalbe saued, and come vnto the knowledge of the trueth.

5 For there is one God, and one [d] Mediatour betweene God and man, [which is] the [e] man Christ Iesus,

6 who gaue himselfe a [f] ransome for all [g] men, [to be] a [h] testimonie in due time,

7 *whereunto I am ordeyned a preacher and an Apostle (I speake the trueth in Christ, and lie not) [euen] a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and veritie.

8 I will therefore that the men pray, euery where lifting vp [i] pure handes without wrath, or douting.

9 *Likewise also the women, that they aray themselues in comely apparell, with shamefastnesse and modestie, not with [k] broyded heare, or golde, or pearles, or costly apparell,

10 But (as becommeth women that professe the feare of God) with good workes.

11 Let the woman learne in silence with all subiection.

12 I permit not a woman to [l] teache, neither to vsurpe authoritie ouer the man, but to be in silence.

13 For* Adam was first formed, then Eue.

14 *And Adam was [m] not deceiued, but the woman was deceiued, and was in the [n] transgression.

15 Notwithstãding, through bearing a That is, of euery degree, and of all sorts of people.

b Although they persecute the Church of God, so it be of ignorance: els if they doe it maliciously as Julianus Apostata, they may not be prayed for.
Galat.5.12.
1.thess.2.16.
2.tim.4.14.
1.iohn 5.16.
1.Peter 3.9.
c As Iew and Gentile, poore and rich.
d Who will reconcile of all nations, people and sortes to one God.
e Who being God was made man.
f He sheweth that there can be no mediator, except he be also the redeemer.
g Which should beleue.
h Which the Prophets testified, that Christ should offer himselfe for the redemption of man, at the time that God had determined.
2.Tim.1.11.
i As testimonies of a pure heart and conscience.
1.Peter 3.3.
k The worde signifieth to plat, to crispe, to broyde, to folde, to bush, to curle, or to lay it curiously: whereby all pompe and wantonnes is condemned, which women vse in trimming their heads.
l Reade 1.Cor.14.34. Gen.1.27. Gen.3.6.
m The woman was first deceiued, and so became the instrument of Satan to deceiue the man: and though therefore God punisheth them with subiection & paine in their trauaile, yet if they be faithful and godly in their vocatiõ, they shalbe saued.
n That is, guiltie of the transgression.

of

‖Or, women.

of children she shalbe saued if ‖they continue in faith, and loue, and holinesse with modestie.

CHAP. III.

2 He declareth what is the office of Ministers, 11 And as touching their families, 15 The dignitie of the Church, 16 And the principall point of the heauenly doctrine.

Titus 1.6.
a With a feruent zeale to profite the Church of God, whereseuer he shall call him.
b Whether he be a Pastor or Elder.

THis [is] a true saying, *If any man [a] desire the office of a [b] Bishop, he desireth [c] a worthie worke.

2 A Bishop therefore must be vnreproueable, the husbande of [d] one wife, watching, sober, modest, harberous, apt to teache,

3 Not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthie lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not couetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, hauing children vnder obedience with all ‖honestie.

5 For if any can not rule his owne house, how shall he [e] care for the Church of God?

c Both for the difficultie of the charge, and also the excellencie thereof, and the necessitie of the same.
d For in those countreys at that time some men had mo then one, which was a signe of incontinencie.
‖Or, reuerence.
e If it be requisite that a man should take care in gouerning his owne house, how much more are they bound to be carefull, which shall gouerne the Church of God?

6 He may not be a yong [f] scholar, lest he being puffed vp fall into the [g] condemnation of the deuill.

7 He must also be wel reported of, euen of them which are [h] without, least he fall into [i] rebuke, and the snare of the deuill.

8 Likewise [must] Deacons [be] honest, not double tongued, not giuen vnto much wine, neither to filthie lucre, 9 *[k] Hauing the mysterie of the faith in pure conscience.

10 And let them first be proued: then let them minister, if they be found blameles.

11 Likewise their [l] wiues [must be] honest, not euill speakers, [but] sober, [and] faithfull in all things.

12 Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, ‖such as can rule their children well, and their owne households.

13 For they that haue ministred well, get themselues a [m] good degree, ‖great [n] libertie in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I vnto thee, trusting to come very shortly vnto thee.

15 But if I tarie long, that thou mayest yet know, how thou oughtest to behaue thy selfe in the house of God, which is the Church of the liuing God, the [o] pillar and ground of trueth.

16 And without controuersie, great is the mysterie of godlines, [which is,] God is manifested in the flesh, [p] iustified in the Spirit, [q] seene of Angels, preached vnto the Gentiles, beleeued on in the world, [and] receiued vp in [r] glorie.

f In the doctrine of faith.
g Lest being proude of his degree, he be likewise condemned as the deuil was, for lifting vp himselfe by pride.
h That is, no man may haue any thing iustly to lay to his charge.
i As being defamed, should become impudent, and do much harme.
Chap.1.19.
k Hauing the true doctrine of the Gospel and the feare of God.
l Of the Bishops and Deacons.
m The good report of all men. n To serue God with greater assurance, because they haue alway a good conscience. o This is spoken in respect of men, forasmuch as in this world the trueth onely remaineth in the Church, by reason of Gods worde: for otherwise Christ is the foundation and the corner stone, which both beareth, and mainteyneth his Church.
p Approued iust, in that he was not onely a man, but God also.
q So that the Angels marueyled at his excellencie. r To the right hand of God the Father.

CHAP. IIII.

2 He teacheth him what doctrine he ought to flee, 6. 8. 11 And what to follow, 15 And wherein he ought to exercise himselfe continually.

2.Tim.3.1. 2.peter 3.3. iude 18.
a False teachers, which boast themselues that they haue the reuelation of the holy Ghost.
b Their dull consciences first waxed hard, then after, canker, and corruption bred therein, last of all it was burnt off with an hote yron, so that he meaneth such as haue no conscience, Ephes.4.19.

NOwe the Spirit speaketh euidently, that in the *latter times some shal depart from the faith, and shall giue heed vnto [a] spirites of errour, and doctrines of deuils,

2 Which speake lyes through hypocrisie, and haue their [b] consciences burned with an hote yron,

3 Forbidding to marrie, [and commanding] to abstaine frō meates which God hath created to be receiued with giuing thankes of them which beleeue and knowe the trueth.

4 For euery creature of God [is] good, and nothing [ought] to be refused, if it be receiued with thankesgiuing.

5 For it is [c] sanctified by the worde of God, and prayer.

c Vnto vs, which receiue it, as at Gods handes.
Chap.1.4. and 6.20. 2.tim.2.16,23. titus 3.9.
d Meaning, to be giuen to ceremonies, and to such things as delight the fantasie of man.
e That is, he that hath faith and a good conscience is promised to haue all things necessarie for this life, and to inioy life euerlasting.
f The goodnesse of God declareth it selfe toward all men, but chiefly toward the faithfull by preseruing them: and here he meaneth not of life euerlasting.
g In godly zeale or giftes of the Spirit.
h And reuelation of the holy Ghost.
i Under this name he containeth the whole ministerie of the Church which was at Ephesus.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, which hast bene nourished vp in the wordes of faith, and of good doctrine, which thou hast continually followed.

7 *But cast away prophane, and olde wiues fables, and exercise thy selfe vnto godlinesse.

8 For [d] bodily exercise profiteth litle: but [e] godlinesse is profitable vnto all thinges, which hath the promes of the life present, and of that that is to come.

9 This [is] a true saying, and by all meanes worthy to be receiued.

10 For therefore We labour and are rebuked, because We trust in the liuing God, which is the [f] Sauiour of all men, specially of those that beleeue.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be vnto them that beleeue, an ensample in word, in conuersation, in loue, in [g] spirit, in faith, [and] in purenesse.

13 Till I come, giue attendāce to reading, to exhortation, [and] to doctrine.

14 Despise not the gift that is in thee, which was giuen thee [h] by prophecie with the laying on of the handes of the companie of the [i] Eldership.

15 These things exercise, [and] giue thy selfe vnto them, that ‖ it may be seene howe thou profitest among all men.

16 Take heede vnto thy selfe, and vnto learning: continue therein: for in doing this thou [k] shalt both saue thy selfe, and them that heare thee.

‖ Or, that all may see how thou profitest.

k Thou shalt faithfully do thy duetie, which is an assurance of thy saluation.

CHAP. V.

1 He teacheth him how he shall behaue himselfe in rebuking all degrees. 3 An order concerning widowes. 17 The establishing of Ministers. 23 The gouernance of his bodie, 24 And the iudgement of sinnes.

REbuke not an Elder, but exhort him as a father, [and] the yonger men as brethren,

2 The elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters, with all pureneſſe.

3 [a] Honour Widowes, which are widowes in deede.

4 But if any widowe haue children or nephewes, let [b] them learne first to shewe godlines towarde their owne house, and to recompense their kinred: for that is an honest thing and acceptable before God.

5 And she that is a widow [c] in deede, and left alone, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications & prayers night and day.

6 But she that liueth in pleasure, is [d] dead, while she liueth.

7 These things therefore commande, that they may be blameleſſe.

8 If there be any that prouideth not for his owne, and namely for them of his household, hee denieth the faith, and is worse then an infidel.

9 Let not a widowe be taken into the nomber vnder threescore yere olde, that hath bene the wife of [e] one husband,

10 And well reported of for good workes: if she haue nourished her children, if she haue lodged the strangers, if she haue washed the Saints feete, if she haue ministred vnto them which were in aduersitie, if she were cõtinually giuen vnto euery good worke.

11 But refuse [f] yonger widowes: for when they haue begun to waxe [f] wanton against Christ, they will marrie, 12 Hauing [g] damnation, because they haue broken the [h] first faith.

13 And likewyse also being ydle they learne to go about from house to house: yea, [they are] not onely ydle, but also prattelers & busibodies, speaking things which are not comely.

14 I will therefore that the yonger women marrie, & beare children, and gouerne the house, [and] giue none occasion to the aduersarie to speake euill.

15 For certaine are alreadie turned backe after Satan.

16 If any faithfull man, or faithfull woman haue widowes, let them minister vnto them, and let not the Church be charged, that there may be sufficient for them that are widowes in [i] deede.

17 ¶ The Elders that rule well, are worthy of *double honour, specially they which labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture saith, *Thou shalt not mouzell the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne: and, *The labourer is worthie of his wages.

19 Against an Elder [k] receiue none accusation, but vnder two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sinne, [l] rebuke openly, that the rest also may feare.

21 ¶* I ‖ charge [thee] before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect Angels, that thou obserue these things without ‖ preferring one to another, and do nothing partially.

22 Lay handes suddenly on no man, [m] neyther bee partaker of other mens sinnes: keepe thy selfe [n] pure.

23 Drinke no longer water, but vse a litle wine for thy stomackes sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some mens sinnes are open [o] before hande, & go before vnto iudgement: but some mens [p] followe after.

25 Likewise also the good workes are manifest before hand, and they that are otherwise, cannot be hid.

a Take care for them.
b Paul willeth that the widowes put the Church to no charge, which haue either children or kinsfolkes, that are able to relieue them, but that the children nourish their mother, or kinsefolkes accordiag as nature bindeth them.
c Which hath no maner of worldly meanes to helpe her selfe with.
d Because she is vtterly vnprofitable.
e He meaneth such widowes which being iustly diuorced from their first husbands, maried againe to the slander of the Church: for els he doth not reproue the widowes that haue bene oftener maried then once.
f Forgetting their vocation.
g Not onely haue slaundered the Church in leauing their charge, but haue forsaken their religion, and therefore shalbe punished with euerlasting death.
h They haue not onely done dishonour to Christ in leauing their vocation, but also haue broken their faith.
i Which are without all mans helpe and succour. Deut.5.16.
Deut.25.4. 1.cor.9.9. Matth.10.10. luke 10.7.
k Except that he which doth accuse him, haue at least two witnesses which promise with the accuser to proue that which they lay to his charge.
l Chiefly the ministers and so all others. Chap.6.13.
‖ Or, protest.
‖ Or, without hastie iudgement.
m In admitting them without sufficient triall.
n From iust offence.
o As Simon the sorcerer.
p Their sinnes followe, which for a time haue deceiued the godly, and after are detected, as Saul, Judas, and other hypocrites.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duetie of seruants toward their masters. 3 Against such as are not satisfied with the worde of God. 6 Of true godlines, and contentation of minde. 9 Against couetousnes. 11 A charge giuen to Timothie.

LEt as many *seruants as are vnder the yoke, count their masters worthie of all honour, that [p] Name of God, and [his] doctrine be not euill spoken of.

Ephes.6.5. colos.3.22. 1.peter 2.18.

2 And they which haue beleeuing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather do seruice, because they are faithfull, and beloued, and partakers of the [a] benefite. These things teache and exhort.

a That is, of the grace of God, as their seruants are, and hauing the same adoption.

3 If any man teache otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholsome wordes of our Lorde Jesus Christ, & to the doctrine, which is according to godlines,

4 He is puft vp, & knoweth nothing, but doteth about *questions, and strife of wordes, whereof commeth enuie, strife, raylings,

Chap.1.4.

raylings, euill surmisings,
5 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt mindes, and destitute of the trueth, which thinke that gaine is godlinesse: from such separate thy selfe.
b They that measure religion by riches, are heere taught, that onely religion is the true riches. Iob 1.21. prou.27.24. eccles.5.14.
6 b But godlines is great gaine, if a man be content with that he hath.
7 *For we brought nothing into the worlde, [and] it is certaine, that we can carie nothing out.
8 Therefore when wee haue foode and rayment, let vs therewith bee content.
c That set their felicitie in riches.
9 For they that will be c rich, fall into tentation and snares, and into many foolish and noysome lustes, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.
10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the fayth, and d perced themselues through with many sorowes.
d For they are neuer quiet neither in soule nor body.
11 But thou, O c man of God, flee these things, and followe after righteousnes, godlines, fayth, loue, patience, [and] meekenes.
c Whom Gods Spirit doth rule.
12 Fight the good fight of fayth: lay holde of eternall life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
Chap.5.21. 13 *I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Jesus Christ which vnder Pontius Pilate *witnessed a good confession,
Mat.27.11. iohn 18.37. 14 That thou keepe [this] commandement without spot, and vnrebukeable, vntill the appearing of our Lorde Jesus Christ,
15 Which in due time he shall shewe, that is *blessed and prince onely, f the *King of Kings, and Lord of Lordes, Chap.1.11. f By this mighty power of God the faithfull are admonished boldly to stand in their vocation, although the world, Satan and hell rage against them. Reue.17.14. and 19.16. Iohn 1.18. 1.Iohn 4.12.
16 Who onely hath immortalitie, and dwelleth in the light that none can attaine vnto, *whom neuer man sawe, neither can see, vnto whom [be] honour and power euerlasting, Amen.
17 Charge them that are rich g in this worlde, that they be not high minded, and that they *trust not in vncertaine riches, but in the liuing God (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioy)
g In things perteining to this life. Mar.4.19. luke 12.15.
18 That they do good, [and] be riche in good workes, [and] readie to distribute, and communicate,
19 *Laying vp in store for themselues a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obteyne eternall life.
Mat.6.20. luke 12.33.
20 O Timotheus, keepe h that which is committed vnto thee, and *auoyde prophane [and] vaine babblings, and i oppositions of science falsely so called,
h The gifts of God for the vtilitie of the Church. Chap.1.4. and 4.7.
21 Which while some professe, they haue erred concerning the fayth. Grace [be] with thee, Amen.
i As when question ingendreth question.

The first [Epistle] to Timotheus written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest citie of Phrygia Pacaciana.

The seconde Epistle of Paul

to Timotheus.

The Argvment.

THe Apostle being nowe ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which hee had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospell, and in the constant and syncere confession of the same: willing him not to shrink for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue, as do husbandmen, which at length receyue the fruites of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as souldiers doe which seeke onely to please their captaine: shewing him briefely the summe of the Gospell, which hee preached, commanding him to preache the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authoritie and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ, are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods tryall come: yet he reserueth them whom hee hath elected, euen to the ende. And that Timotheus shoulde not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall followe, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures, both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessarie affayres, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP.

raylings, euill surmisings,
5 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt mindes, and destitute of the trueth, which thinke that gaine is godlinesse: from such separate thy selfe.
b They that measure religion by riches, are heere taught, that onely religion is the true riches. Iob 1.21. prou.27.24. eccles.5.14.
6 b But godlines is great gaine, if a man be content with that he hath.
7 *For we brought nothing into the worlde, [and] it is certaine, that we can carie nothing out.
8 Therefore when wee haue foode and rayment, let vs therewith bee content.
c That set their felicitie in riches.
9 For they that will be c rich, fall into tentation and snares, and into many foolish and noysome lustes, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.
10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the fayth, and d perced themselues through with many sorowes.
d For they are neuer quiet neither in soule nor body.
11 But thou, O c man of God, flee these things, and followe after righteousnes, godlines, fayth, loue, patience, [and] meekenes.
c Whom Gods Spirit doth rule.
12 Fight the good fight of fayth: lay holde of eternall life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
Chap.5.21. 13 *I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Jesus Christ which vnder Pontius Pilate *witnessed a good confession,
Mat.27.11. iohn 18.37. 14 That thou keepe [this] commandement without spot, and vnrebukeable, vntill the appearing of our Lorde Jesus Christ,
15 Which in due time he shall shewe, that is *blessed and prince onely, f the *King of Kings, and Lord of Lordes, Chap.1.11. f By this mighty power of God the faithfull are admonished boldly to stand in their vocation, although the world, Satan and hell rage against them. Reue.17.14. and 19.16. Iohn 1.18. 1.Iohn 4.12.
16 Who onely hath immortalitie, and dwelleth in the light that none can attaine vnto, *whom neuer man sawe, neither can see, vnto whom [be] honour and power euerlasting, Amen.
17 Charge them that are rich g in this worlde, that they be not high minded, and that they *trust not in vncertaine riches, but in the liuing God (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioy)
g In things perteining to this life. Mar.4.19. luke 12.15.
18 That they do good, [and] be riche in good workes, [and] readie to distribute, and communicate,
19 *Laying vp in store for themselues a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obteyne eternall life.
Mat.6.20. luke 12.33.
20 O Timotheus, keepe h that which is committed vnto thee, and *auoyde prophane [and] vaine babblings, and i oppositions of science falsely so called,
h The gifts of God for the vtilitie of the Church. Chap.1.4. and 4.7.
21 Which while some professe, they haue erred concerning the fayth. Grace [be] with thee, Amen.
i As when question ingendreth question.

The first [Epistle] to Timotheus written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest citie of Phrygia Pacaciana.

The seconde Epistle of Paul

to Timotheus.

The Argvment.

THe Apostle being nowe ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which hee had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospell, and in the constant and syncere confession of the same: willing him not to shrink for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue, as do husbandmen, which at length receyue the fruites of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as souldiers doe which seeke onely to please their captaine: shewing him briefely the summe of the Gospell, which hee preached, commanding him to preache the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authoritie and in estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ, are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods tryall come: yet he reserueth them whom hee hath elected, euen to the ende. And that Timotheus shoulde not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall followe, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures, both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessarie affayres, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnes & pacience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that he had taught him, 12 Whereof his bondes and afflictions were a gage, 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

PAul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, [a] according to ỳ promes of life, which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timotheus [my] beloued sonne: Grace, mercie [&] peace from God the Father, and [from] Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, *whom I serue frō [mine] [b] elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfained fayth that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that [it dwelleth] in thee also.

6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance, that thou [c] stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of [d] mine hands.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of [c] feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sounde minde.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lorde, neither of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saued vs, and called vs with an * holy calling, not according to our * workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Jesus before the *world was,

10 But is nowe made manifest by the [f] appearing of our Sauiour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.

11 * Whereunto I am appointed a preacher and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I knowe whom I haue beleeued, and I am perswaded ỳ hee is able to keepe that which I haue [g] committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of ỳ wholesome wordes, which thou hast heard of me in fayth and loue which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That [h] worthie thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercie vnto ỳ house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when hee was at Rome, hee sought me out very diligently, & founde [me.]

18 The Lorde graunt vnto him, that he may finde mercie with the Lorde at that day, and in howe many things hee hath ministred vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

2 Hee exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholsome doctrine of our Lorde Jesus Christ, 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his, 19 And the marke thereof.

THou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, ‖ by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithfull men, which shalbe able to [a] teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with [b] the affaires of [this] life, because he woulde please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also striue for a masterie, he is not crowned, except he striue as he ought to do.

6 The husbandman [c] must labour before he receiue the fruites.

7 Consider what I say: & the Lorde giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember ỳ Jesus Christ [made] of the seede of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospell:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euil doer, euen vnto bondes: but the worde of God is not [d] bound.

10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the *[e] electes sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternall glory.

11 It [is] a true saying, For if we be *dead with him, we also shall liue with him.

12 If wee suffer, we shall also reigne with him: * if we denie him, he also will deny vs.

13 If a Being sent of God to preache that life which he had promised in Christ Jesus.

Actes 22.3.

b Following the steppes of mine ancesters, as Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and others of whō I am come, and of whom I receiued the true religion by succession.

c The gift of God is a certaine liuely flame kindled in our hearts, which Satan and the flesh labour to quench, and therefore we must nourish it and stirre it vp.

d With the rest of the Elders of Ephesus, 1. Tim. 4.14.

e As though God would destroy vs. 1.Cor.1.2. ephes.1.3,4. Titus 3.5. Rom.16.25. ephes.3.9. col.1.26. titus 1.2. 1.pet.1.20.

f Hee speaketh here of his first comming, which though it seemed poore and contemptible, yet was honourable and glorious: therefore our mindes ought to be lifted vp from the consideration of worldly things, to contemplate the maiestie thereof. 1.Tim.2.7.

g Which is my selfe.

h The graces of the holy Ghost.

‖ Or, in the presence of many witnesses.

a So that the trueth of God may remaine perfect.

b As with his household, and other ordinarie affaires.

c So that the paine must goe before the recompence.

d Notwithstanding mine imprisonment the worde of God hath his race, and increaseth. 2.Cor.1.4. col.1.24.

e To confirme their faith, more esteeming the edification of the Church then himselfe. Rom.6.5. Mat.10.33. mar.8.38.

Rom.3.3. and 9.6.

13 If* we beleeue not, [yet] abideth he faythfull: he cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remẽbrance, and protest before the Lord, that they striue not about wordes, which is to no profite, [but] to the peruerting of the hearers.

15 Studie to shewe thy selfe approued vnto God, a workeman that needeth not to be ashamed, [f] diuiding the worde of trueth aright.

f Giuing to euery one his iust portion. wherein he alludeth to the Priestes of the olde Lawe, which in their sacrifice gaue to God his parte, tooke their owne part, and gaue to him that brought the sacrifice his duetie. 1.Tim.4.7. and 6.20. titus 3.9.

16 * Stay prophane, and vaine babblings: for they shall increase vnto more vngodlinesse.

17 And their word shall fret as a canker: of which sort is Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Which as concerning the trueth haue erred, saying that the resurrection is past alreadie, and do destroy the fayth of certaine.

19 But the foundation of God remayneth sure, and hath this seale, [g] The Lorde knoweth who are his, and, Let euery one that calleth on the Name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

g He groundeth vpon Gods election and mans faith.

20 Notwithstanding in a [h] great house are not onely vessels of golde & of siluer, but also of wood and of earth, and some for honor, and some vnto dishonour.

h Because the wicked shoulde not couer themselues vnder the name of the Church, he sheweth by this similitude, that both good and bad may bee therein.

21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from [i] these, he shalbe a vessell vnto honour, sanctified, & meete for the Lord, and prepared vnto euery good worke.

i That is, both separate himselfe from the wicked, and also purge his naturall corruption by Gods Spirit. 1.Cor.1.2. 1.Tim.1.4. and 4.7. titus 3.9.

22 Flee also from the lusts of youth, and followe after righteousnes, faith, loue, [and] peace, with them that* call on the Lord with pure heart.

23 *And put away foolish, and [k] vnlearned questions, knowing that they ingender strife.

k Which doe not edifie.

24 But the seruant of the Lord must not striue, but [must] be gentle toward all men, apt to teach, [l] suffring the euill men [patiently,] l Which faile of ignorance.

25 Instructing them with meekenes that are contrary [m] minded, [proving] if God at any time will giue them repentance, that they may know the trueth, m He meaneth not this of Apostates or heretikes, whom hee willeth to flee: but of them onely which as yet are not come to the knowledge of the trueth, and fall through ignorance. ‖ Or, that being deliuered out of the snare of the deuill of whom they are taken, they may come to amendment and performe his will.

26 And ‖ that they may come to amendement out of the snare of [y] deuil, which are taken of him at his will.

CHAP. III.

1 He prophecieth of the perilous times, 2 Setteth out hypocrites in their colours, 12 Sheweth the state of the Christians, 14 And howe to auoyde dangers, 16 Also what profite commeth of the Scriptures.

THis knowe also, that in the * last dayes shall come perilous times. 1.Tim.4.1. 2.pet.3.3. iude 18.

2 For [a] men shalbe louers of their owne selues, couetous, boasters, proude, cursed speakers, disobedient to parents, vnthankfull, vnholy, a He speaketh of them which make profession to be Christians.

3 Without naturall affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despisers of them which are good,

4 Traitours, headie, high minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

5 Hauing a shewe of godlines, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from such.

6 For of this sort are they which [b] creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and led with diuers lustes, b As monkes, fryers, & such hypocrites.

7 [Which women are] euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the trueth.

8 * And as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so doe these also resist the trueth, men of [c] corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the fayth. Exo.7.11,12.

c Which can iudge nothing aright.

9 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their madnes shall be euident vnto al men, as theirs also was.

10 ¶ But thou hast fully knowen my doctrine, maner of liuing, [d] purpose, fayth, long suffering, loue, patience, d Not onely what I taught and did, but also what my minde and will was.

11 Persecutions, [&] afflictions which came vnto me at * Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Lystri, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered me. Acts.13.14, 50. and 14.1, 6,19.

12 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Jesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euill men and [e] deceyuers, shall waxe worse and worse, deceyuing, and being deceyued.

e The worde signifieth them that by any craftie packing or conueyance beguile men wt false colours, flatteries, and illusions, and such God letteth by to exercise his by them: and here S. Paul admonisheth vs of them.

14 But continue thou in the thinges which thou hast learned, and art perswaded [thereof,] knowing of whom thou hast learned [them:]

15 And that thou hast knowen the holy scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the fayth which is in Christ Jesus.

16 * For the whole Scripture [is] giuen by inspiration of God, and [is] profitable to teache, to improoue, to correct [and] to instruct in righteousnes, 2.Pet.1.20.

f Which is content to be gouerned by Gods worde.

17 That the [f] man of God may be [g] absolute, being made perfect vnto all good workes.

g The onely scripture sufficeth to leade vs to perfection.

CHAP.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth Timotheus to be feruent in the worde, and to suffer aduersitie, 6 Maketh mention of his owne death, 9 And biddeth Timothie come vnto him.

‖Or, adiure.

I ‖ Charge [thee] therefore before God, & [before] the Lord Iesus Christ, which shall iudge the quicke and dead at his appearing, and in his kingdome, a Leaue none occasion to preach and to profite.

2 Preach the Word: be instant, [a] in season and out of season: improue, rebuke, exhorte with all long suffring and doctrine.

3 For the time will come, when they will not suffer wholesome doctrine: but hauing their eares itching, shall after their owne lustes get them an heape of teachers,

b To false and vnprofitable doctrine.

4 And shall turne their eares from the trueth, and shall be giuen vnto [b] fables.

c So behaue thy selfe in this office, that men may be able to charge thee with nothing, but rather approue thee in all things.

5 But watch thou in all things: suffer aduersitie: doe the worke of an Euangelist: make [c] thy ministerie fully knowne.

d Reade Phil. 2.17.

‖Or, dissoluing.

6 For I am nowe readie to be [d] offered, and the time of my ‖ departing is at hand.

7 I haue fought a good fight, and haue finished [my] course: I haue kept the fayth.

8 [For] henceforth is layde vp for me the crowne of righteousnes, which the Lord the righteous iudge shall giue me at that day: and not to mee onely, but vnto all them also that loue his appearing.

9 Make speede to come vnto mee at once.

10 For Demas hath forsaken me, and hath embraced this present worlde, and is departed vnto Thessalonica. Crescens [is gone] to Galatia, Titus vnto Dalmatia.

11 * [e] Onely Luke is with me. Take Marke and bring him with thee: for he is profitable vnto me to minister.

Col. 4.10, 14.

e Hereby it is manifest that Peter as yet was not at Rome, and if euer hee were there, it is vncertaine.

12 And Tychicus haue I sent to Ephesus.

13 The [f] cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou commest, bring with thee, and the bookes, but specially the parchements.

f Some reade coffer: others, booke.

14 Alexander the coppersmith hath done me much euill: the Lord [g] reward him according to his workes.

g For Paul sawe in him manifest signes of reprobation.

15 Of whom be thou ware also: for he withstoode our preaching sore.

16 At my first answering [h] no man assisted me, but all forsooke me: [I pray God,] that it may not be layde to their charge.

h If S. Peter had bene there, he would not haue forsaken him.

17 Notwithstanding the Lorde assisted me, and strengthened me, that by me [ỹ] preaching might be fully knowne, and that all the Gentiles shoulde heare, and I was deliuered out of the mouth of the [i] lyon.

i Out of the great daunger of Nero.

18 And the Lord wil deliuer me from euery [k] euill worke, and will preserue me vnto his heauenly kingdome: to whom [be] praise for euer & euer, Amen.

k That I cõmit nothing vnworthy mine office.

19 Salute Prisca, and Aquila, and the *houshold of Onesiphorus.

Chap. 1.16.

20 Erastus abode at Corinthus: Trophimus I left at Miletum sicke.

21 Make speede to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Iesus Christ [be] with thy spirit. Grace [be] with you, Amen.

The second [Epistle] written frõ Rome vnto Timotheus the first bishop elected, of the Church of Ephesus, when Paul was presented the seconde time before the Emperour Nero.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

The Argvment.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begun, Satan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernement of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition woulde haue thrust in themselues to bee pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Law brought in many trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to choose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sounde doctrine to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongs other things hee noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holines in meates and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or els doth not obey, hee willeth him to be auoided.

CHAP.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth Timotheus to be feruent in the worde, and to suffer aduersitie, 6 Maketh mention of his owne death, 9 And biddeth Timothie come vnto him.

‖Or, adiure.

I ‖ Charge [thee] therefore before God, & [before] the Lord Iesus Christ, which shall iudge the quicke and dead at his appearing, and in his kingdome,

a Leaue none occasion to preach and to profite.

2 Preach the Word: be instant, [a] in season and out of season: improue, rebuke, exhorte with all long suffring and doctrine.

3 For the time will come, when they will not suffer wholesome doctrine: but hauing their eares itching, shall after their owne lustes get them an heape of teachers,

b To false and vnprofitable doctrine.

4 And shall turne their eares from the trueth, and shall be giuen vnto [b] fables.

c So behaue thy selfe in this office, that men may be able to charge thee with nothing, but rather approue thee in all things.

5 But watch thou in all things: suffer aduersitie: doe the worke of an Euangelist: make [c] thy ministerie fully knowne.

d Reade Phil. 2.17.

‖Or, dissoluing.

6 For I am nowe readie to be [d] offered, and the time of my ‖ departing is at hand.

7 I haue fought a good fight, and haue finished [my] course: I haue kept the fayth.

8 [For] henceforth is layde vp for me the crowne of righteousnes, which the Lord the righteous iudge shall giue me at that day: and not to mee onely, but vnto all them also that loue his appearing.

9 Make speede to come vnto mee at once.

10 For Demas hath forsaken me, and hath embraced this present worlde, and is departed vnto Thessalonica. Crescens [is gone] to Galatia, Titus vnto Dalmatia.

11 * [e] Onely Luke is with me. Take Marke and bring him with thee: for he is profitable vnto me to minister.

Col. 4.10, 14.

e Hereby it is manifest that Peter as yet was not at Rome, and if euer hee were there, it is vncertaine.

12 And Tychicus haue I sent to Ephesus.

13 The [f] cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou commest, bring with thee, and the bookes, but specially the parchements.

f Some reade coffer: others, booke.

14 Alexander the coppersmith hath done me much euill: the Lord [g] reward him according to his workes.

g For Paul sawe in him manifest signes of reprobation.

15 Of whom be thou ware also: for he withstoode our preaching sore.

16 At my first answering [h] no man assisted me, but all forsooke me: [I pray God,] that it may not be layde to their charge.

h If S. Peter had bene there, he would not haue forsaken him.

17 Notwithstanding the Lorde assisted me, and strengthened me, that by me [ỹ] preaching might be fully knowne, and that all the Gentiles shoulde heare, and I was deliuered out of the mouth of the [i] lyon.

i Out of the great daunger of Nero.

18 And the Lord wil deliuer me from euery [k] euill worke, and will preserue me vnto his heauenly kingdome: to whom [be] praise for euer & euer, Amen.

k That I cõmit nothing vnworthy mine office.

19 Salute Prisca, and Aquila, and the *houshold of Onesiphorus.

Chap. 1.16.

20 Erastus abode at Corinthus: Trophimus I left at Miletum sicke.

21 Make speede to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Iesus Christ [be] with thy spirit. Grace [be] with you, Amen.

The second [Epistle] written frõ Rome vnto Timotheus the first bishop elected, of the Church of Ephesus, when Paul was presented the seconde time before the Emperour Nero.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

The Argvment.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begun, Satan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernement of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition woulde haue thrust in themselues to bee pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Law brought in many trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to choose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sounde doctrine to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and amongs other things hee noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holines in meates and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or els doth not obey, hee willeth him to be auoided.

CHAP.

CHAP. I.

5 He aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernment of ỹ Church. 7 The ordinance and office of ministers. 12 The nature of the Cretians, and of them which sowe abroad Jewish fables and inuentions of men.

PAul a‖ seruant of God, and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the a faith of Gods elect, and the knowledge of he trueth, which is according to godlinesse,

2 Under the hope of eternal life which God that cannot lie, hath b promised before the *world began:

3 But hath made his worde manifest in due time through the preaching, which is *committed vnto mee, according to the commandement of God our c Sauiour:

4 To Titus [my] naturall d sonne according to the common fayth, grace, mercie [and] peace from God the father, and [from] the Lorde Jesus Christ our Sauiour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to redresse the things that remaine, and shouldest ordeine Elders in euery citie, as I appoynted thee,

6 *If any c be vnreprooueable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandred of riot, neither are disobedient.

7 For a bishop must be vnreprooueable, as f Gods steward, not‖froward, not angry, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthie lucre,

8 But harberous, one ỹ loueth ‖goodnes, wise, g righteous, h holy, temperate,

9 Holding fast the faithfull worde according to doctrine, that he also may bee able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and improue them that say against it.

10 For there are many disobedient and vaine talkers and deceyuers of mindes, chiefly they of the i Circumcision,

11 Whose mouthes must bee stopped, which subuert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthie lucres sake.

12 One of thẽselues, [euen] one of their owne k prophets said, The Cretians [are] alwayes liars, euill beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witnes is true: wherefore rebuke them sharpely, that they may bee sound in the faith,

14 And not taking heede to *Jewish fables & commandements of men, that turne from the trueth.

15 Unto the pure [*are] all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and vnbeleuing, [is] nothing pure, but euẽ their minds and consciences are defiled.

16 They professe that they know God, but by l workes they deny [him,] and are abominable and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 He commendeth vnto him the wholsome doctrine, and telleth him howe hee shall teach all degrees to behaue themselues, 11 Through the benefite of the grace of Christ.

BUt speake thou the thinges which become a wholesome doctrine,

2 That the elder men bee sober, honest, discrete, sound in the fayth, in loue, [and] in patience:

3 The elder womẽ likewise, that they bee in such behauiour as becõmeth holines, not false accusers, not giuẽ to much wine, [but] teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the yong women to bee sober minded, that they loue their husbandes, that they loue their children,

5 [That they be] discrete, chaste, b keeping at home, good & *subiect vnto their husbands, that the worde of God be not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 Aboue all things shew thy selfe an ensample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integritie,

8 [And] with the wholesome worde, which can not bee reproued, that hee which withstandeth, may be ashamed, hauing nothing cõcerning you to speake euill of.

9 *Let seruants bee subiect to their masters, and please [them] in all things, not answering againe,

10 Neither pikers, but that they shew all good faythfulnesse, that they may adorne the doctrine of GOD our sauiour in all things.

11 *For the grace of God that bringeth c saluation vnto all men hath appeared,

12 And teacheth vs that we should denie vngodlines, and worldly lusts, & that we should liue soberly and righteously, and godly in this present world,

13 Looking for the blessed hope, & appearing of the glory of the mightie God, and of our Sauiour Jesus Christ,

‖Or, minister.
a That is, to preach the faith to increase their knowledge, to teach them to liue godly, that at length they may obtaine eternall life.
b Hath willingly, & of his meere liberalitie promised without foreseeing our faith or workes as a cause to moue him to this free mercie. Rom.16,25. ephe.3.9.col.1 26. 2.tim.1.9, 10.1.pet.1.20. Gal.1,1.
c Which both giueth life, and preserueth life.
d In respect of faith, which was common to them both, so that hereby they are brethren: but in respect of the ministery Paul begat him as his sonne in fayth. 1.Tim.3,2.
e That is, without all infamie, whereby his authoritie might be diminished.
f Who hath the dispensatiõ of his gifts.
‖Or, selfewilly.
‖Or, good mẽ.
g Toward men.
h Toward God.
i Which were not onely the Jewes, but also the Hebionites, and Cherinthians heretikes, which taught that the Lawe must be ioyned with Christ.
k He calleth Epimenides the Philosopher, or Poet, whose verse he here reciteth, a Prophet, because the Cretians so esteemed him: and as Laertius writeth, they sacrificed vnto him as to a god, forasmuch as he had a marueilous gift to vnderstand things to come: which thing Satan by the permission of God hath opened to the infidels from time to time, but it turneth to their greater condemnation.

1.Tim,1,4.

Rom,14,20.
l Forasmuch as they stay at things of nothing, and passe not for them, that are of importance, and so giue themselues to all wickednes.

a Wherewith our soules are fed & maintened in health.

b Not running to and fro without necessarie occasions, which is a signe of lightnesse. Ephes.5,22, 23,24.

Ephe.6.5. col.3,22. 1.pet.2,18.

1.Cor.1,2. col,1,22.
c Of what condition or state soeuer they be.

CHAP. I.

5 He aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernment of ỹ Church. 7 The ordinance and office of ministers. 12 The nature of the Cretians, and of them which sowe abroad Jewish fables and inuentions of men.

PAul a‖ seruant of God, and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the a faith of Gods elect, and the knowledge of he trueth, which is according to godlinesse,

2 Under the hope of eternal life which God that cannot lie, hath b promised before the *world began:

3 But hath made his worde manifest in due time through the preaching, which is *committed vnto mee, according to the commandement of God our c Sauiour:

4 To Titus [my] naturall d sonne according to the common fayth, grace, mercie [and] peace from God the father, and [from] the Lorde Jesus Christ our Sauiour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to redresse the things that remaine, and shouldest ordeine Elders in euery citie, as I appoynted thee,

6 *If any c be vnreprooueable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandred of riot, neither are disobedient.

7 For a bishop must be vnreprooueable, as f Gods steward, not‖froward, not angry, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthie lucre,

8 But harberous, one ỹ loueth ‖goodnes, wise, g righteous, h holy, temperate,

9 Holding fast the faithfull worde according to doctrine, that he also may bee able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and improue them that say against it.

10 For there are many disobedient and vaine talkers and deceyuers of mindes, chiefly they of the i Circumcision,

11 Whose mouthes must bee stopped, which subuert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthie lucres sake.

12 One of thẽselues, [euen] one of their owne k prophets said, The Cretians [are] alwayes liars, euill beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witnes is true: wherefore rebuke them sharpely, that they may bee sound in the faith,

14 And not taking heede to *Jewish fables & commandements of men, that turne from the trueth.

15 Unto the pure [*are] all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and vnbeleuing, [is] nothing pure, but euẽ their minds and consciences are defiled.

16 They professe that they know God, but by l workes they deny [him,] and are abominable and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 He commendeth vnto him the wholsome doctrine, and telleth him howe hee shall teach all degrees to behaue themselues, 11 Through the benefite of the grace of Christ.

BUt speake thou the thinges which become a wholesome doctrine,

2 That the elder men bee sober, honest, discrete, sound in the fayth, in loue, [and] in patience:

3 The elder womẽ likewise, that they bee in such behauiour as becõmeth holines, not false accusers, not giuẽ to much wine, [but] teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the yong women to bee sober minded, that they loue their husbandes, that they loue their children,

5 [That they be] discrete, chaste, b keeping at home, good & *subiect vnto their husbands, that the worde of God be not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 Aboue all things shew thy selfe an ensample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integritie,

8 [And] with the wholesome worde, which can not bee reproued, that hee which withstandeth, may be ashamed, hauing nothing cõcerning you to speake euill of.

9 *Let seruants bee subiect to their masters, and please [them] in all things, not answering againe,

10 Neither pikers, but that they shew all good faythfulnesse, that they may adorne the doctrine of GOD our sauiour in all things.

11 *For the grace of God that bringeth c saluation vnto all men hath appeared,

12 And teacheth vs that we should denie vngodlines, and worldly lusts, & that we should liue soberly and righteously, and godly in this present world,

13 Looking for the blessed hope, & appearing of the glory of the mightie God, and of our Sauiour Jesus Christ,

‖Or, minister.
a That is, to preach the faith to increase their knowledge, to teach them to liue godly, that at length they may obtaine eternall life.
b Hath willingly, & of his meere liberalitie promised without foreseeing our faith or workes as a cause to moue him to this free mercie. Rom.16,25. ephe.3.9.col.1 26. 2.tim.1.9, 10.1.pet.1.20. Gal.1,1.
c Which both giueth life, and preserueth life.
d In respect of faith, which was common to them both, so that hereby they are brethren: but in respect of the ministery Paul begat him as his sonne in fayth. 1.Tim.3,2.
e That is, without all infamie, whereby his authoritie might be diminished.
f Who hath the dispensatiõ of his gifts.
‖Or, selfewilly.
‖Or, good mẽ.
g Toward men.
h Toward God.
i Which were not onely the Jewes, but also the Hebionites, and Cherinthians heretikes, which taught that the Lawe must be ioyned with Christ.
k He calleth Epimenides the Philosopher, or Poet, whose verse he here reciteth, a Prophet, because the Cretians so esteemed him: and as Laertius writeth, they sacrificed vnto him as to a god, forasmuch as he had a marueilous gift to vnderstand things to come: which thing Satan by the permission of God hath opened to the infidels from time to time, but it turneth to their greater condemnation.

1.Tim,1,4.

Rom,14,20.
l Forasmuch as they stay at things of nothing, and passe not for them, that are of importance, and so giue themselues to all wickednes.

a Wherewith our soules are fed & maintened in health.

b Not running to and fro without necessarie occasions, which is a signe of lightnesse. Ephes.5,22, 23,24.

Ephe.6.5. col.3,22. 1.pet.2,18.

1.Cor.1,2. col,1,22.
c Of what condition or state soeuer they be.

14 Who gaue himſelfe for vs, that he might redeeme vs from al iniquitie, and purge vs [to be] a [d] peculiar people vnto himſelfe, zealous of good workes.

15 Theſe things ſpeake, and exhort, and rebuke with al [e] authoritie. See that no man deſpiſe thee.

d Moſt deere and precious.

e As becommeth the ambaſſadour of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Of obedience to ſuch as be in authoritie. 9 He warneth Titus to beware of fooliſh and vnprofitable queſtions, 12 Concluding with certaine priuate matters, 15 And ſalutations.

PVT them in remembrance that they *[a] bee ſubiect to the principalities and powers, [and] that they bee obedient, [and] readie to euery good worke,

Rom.13.1. 1.pet.2.13,14.

a Although the rulers be Infidels, yet we are bound to obey them in ciuill policies, & where as they command vs nothing againſt the word of God.

2 That they ſpeake euill of no man, that they be no fighters, [but] ſoft, ſhewing all meekeneſſe vnto all men.

3 *[b] For wee our ſelues alſo were in times paſt vnwiſe, diſobedient, deceiued, ſeruing the luſtes and diuers pleaſures, liuing in maliciouſneſſe and enuie, hatefull, [and] hating one another.

1.Cor.6.11.

b For let vs conſider what we our ſelues were when God ſhewed vs fauour.

4 But when the bountifulneſſe and loue of God our Sauiour toward man appeared,

5 *Not [c] by the workes of righteouſnes, which wee had done, but according to his mercie hee ſaued vs, by the [d] waſhing of the newe birth, & the renewing of the holy Ghoſt,

2.Tim.1.9.

c God doth not iuſtifie vs for reſpect of any thing, which he ſeeth in vs but doth preuēt vs with his grace & freely accepteth vs.

d Baptiſme is a ſure ſigne of our regeneration, which is wrought by the holy ghoſt.

6 Which he ſhedde on vs abundantly through Jeſus Chriſt our Sauiour,

7 That wee, being iuſtified by his grace, ſhould bee made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This [is] a true ſaying, and theſe things I will thou ſhouldeſt affirme, that they which haue beleeued in God, might bee carefull to ſhewe forth good workes. Theſe things [are] good and profitable vnto men.

9 *But ſtay fooliſh queſtions, and genealogies, and contentions, & brawlings about the Lawe: for they are vnprofitable and vaine.

1.Tim.1.4.& 4.7.2.tim.2. 16,23.

10 [e] Reiect him that is an heretike, after once or twiſe admonition, e This commandement is giuen to the miniſter, and ſo particularly to all men to whō the ſworde is not committed: but els the magiſtrate, whoſe chief office is to maintaine Gods glory in his Church, ought to cut of al ſuch rotten and infectuous members from the bodie.

11 Knowing that hee that is ſuch, is [f] peruerted, and [g] ſinneth being damned of his owne ſelfe.

f So that there is no hope of amendment.

g Willingly & wittingly.

12 When I ſhall ſend Artemas vnto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me vnto Nicopolis: for I haue determined there to Winter.

13 Bring Zenas [h] the expounder of the lawe, and Apollos on their iourney diligently, that they lacke nothing.

h It is probable that he was an interpreter of the Lawe of Moſes, as Apollos, &c.

14 And let ours alſo learne to ſhewe forth good workes for neceſſarie vſes that they be not vnfruitfull.

15 All that are with mee, ſalute thee. Greete them that loue vs in the fayth. Grace [be] with you all, Amen.

To Titus, elect the firſt biſhop of the Church of the Cretians, written from Nicopolis in Macedonia.

The Epiſtle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGVMENT.

ALbeit the excellencie of Pauls ſpirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epiſtles, yet this Epiſtle is a great witneſſe, and a declaration of the ſame. For farre paſſing the baſeneſſe of his matter, he fleeth as it were vp to heauen, and ſpeaketh with a diuine grace and maieſtie. Oneſimus ſeruant to Philemon both robbed his maſter, and fled away, whome Paul hauing wonne to Chriſt, ſent againe to his maſter, earneſtly begging his pardon, with moſt weightie arguments prouing the duetie of one Chriſtian to another, and ſo with ſalutations endeth.

4 He reioyceth to heare of the fayth and loue of Philemon, 9 Whom he deſireth to forgiue his ſeruant Oneſimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

PAul a priſoner of IESVS CHRIST, and [our] brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deere friende and fellowe helper,

2 And to [our] deere [ſiſter] Apphia, and to Archippus our fellowe ſouldier, and to the Church that is in thine houſe:

3 Grace [be] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde IESVS Chriſt.

4 I* giue thankes to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

1.Theſ.1.2. 2.theſ.1.3.

a Thy beneuolence toward the Saints, which proceedeth of a liuely and effectuall faith.

5 (when I heare of thy loue & fayth, which thou haſt toward the Lorde Jeſus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the [a] felowſhip of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatſoeuer good thing is in you [b] through Chriſt Jeſus, may be knowen.

b That experience may declare that you are the mēbers of Jeſus chriſt.

7 For we haue great ioy and conſolation in thy loue, becauſe by thee, brother, the Saints [c] hearts are comforted.

c Meaning their inward parts & affections were through his charitie comforted.

8 Wherefore,

14 Who gaue himſelfe for vs, that he might redeeme vs from al iniquitie, and purge vs [to be] a [d] peculiar people vnto himſelfe, zealous of good workes.

15 Theſe things ſpeake, and exhort, and rebuke with al [e] authoritie. See that no man deſpiſe thee.

d Moſt deere and precious.

e As becommeth the ambaſſadour of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Of obedience to ſuch as be in authoritie. 9 He warneth Titus to beware of fooliſh and vnprofitable queſtions, 12 Concluding with certaine priuate matters, 15 And ſalutations.

PVT them in remembrance that they *[a] bee ſubiect to the principalities and powers, [and] that they bee obedient, [and] readie to euery good worke,

Rom.13.1. 1.pet.2.13,14.

a Although the rulers be Infidels, yet we are bound to obey them in ciuill policies, & where as they command vs nothing againſt the word of God.

2 That they ſpeake euill of no man, that they be no fighters, [but] ſoft, ſhewing all meekeneſſe vnto all men.

3 *[b] For wee our ſelues alſo were in times paſt vnwiſe, diſobedient, deceiued, ſeruing the luſtes and diuers pleaſures, liuing in maliciouſneſſe and enuie, hatefull, [and] hating one another.

1.Cor.6.11.

b For let vs conſider what we our ſelues were when God ſhewed vs fauour.

4 But when the bountifulneſſe and loue of God our Sauiour toward man appeared,

5 *Not [c] by the workes of righteouſnes, which wee had done, but according to his mercie hee ſaued vs, by the [d] waſhing of the newe birth, & the renewing of the holy Ghoſt,

2.Tim.1.9.

c God doth not iuſtifie vs for reſpect of any thing, which he ſeeth in vs but doth preuēt vs with his grace & freely accepteth vs.

d Baptiſme is a ſure ſigne of our regeneration, which is wrought by the holy ghoſt.

6 Which he ſhedde on vs abundantly through Jeſus Chriſt our Sauiour,

7 That wee, being iuſtified by his grace, ſhould bee made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This [is] a true ſaying, and theſe things I will thou ſhouldeſt affirme, that they which haue beleeued in God, might bee carefull to ſhewe forth good workes. Theſe things [are] good and profitable vnto men.

9 *But ſtay fooliſh queſtions, and genealogies, and contentions, & brawlings about the Lawe: for they are vnprofitable and vaine.

1.Tim.1.4.& 4.7.2.tim.2. 16,23.

10 [e] Reiect him that is an heretike, after once or twiſe admonition,

e This commandement is giuen to the miniſter, and ſo particularly to all men to whō the ſworde is not committed: but els the magiſtrate, whoſe chief office is to maintaine Gods glory in his Church, ought to cut of al ſuch rotten and infectuous members from the bodie.

11 Knowing that hee that is ſuch, is [f] peruerted, and [g] ſinneth being damned of his owne ſelfe.

f So that there is no hope of amendment.

g Willingly & wittingly.

12 When I ſhall ſend Artemas vnto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me vnto Nicopolis: for I haue determined there to Winter.

13 Bring Zenas [h] the expounder of the lawe, and Apollos on their iourney diligently, that they lacke nothing.

h It is probable that he was an interpreter of the Lawe of Moſes, as Apollos, &c.

14 And let ours alſo learne to ſhewe forth good workes for neceſſarie vſes that they be not vnfruitfull.

15 All that are with mee, ſalute thee. Greete them that loue vs in the fayth. Grace [be] with you all, Amen.

To Titus, elect the firſt biſhop of the Church of the Cretians, written from Nicopolis in Macedonia.

The Epiſtle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGVMENT.

ALbeit the excellencie of Pauls ſpirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epiſtles, yet this Epiſtle is a great witneſſe, and a declaration of the ſame. For farre paſſing the baſeneſſe of his matter, he fleeth as it were vp to heauen, and ſpeaketh with a diuine grace and maieſtie. Oneſimus ſeruant to Philemon both robbed his maſter, and fled away, whome Paul hauing wonne to Chriſt, ſent againe to his maſter, earneſtly begging his pardon, with moſt weightie arguments prouing the duetie of one Chriſtian to another, and ſo with ſalutations endeth.

4 He reioyceth to heare of the fayth and loue of Philemon, 9 Whom he deſireth to forgiue his ſeruant Oneſimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

PAul a priſoner of IESVS CHRIST, and [our] brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deere friende and fellowe helper,

2 And to [our] deere [ſiſter] Apphia, and to Archippus our fellowe ſouldier, and to the Church that is in thine houſe:

3 Grace [be] with you, and peace from God our Father, and [from] the Lorde IESVS Chriſt.

4 I* giue thankes to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

1.Theſ.1.2. 2.theſ.1.3.

a Thy beneuolence toward the Saints, which proceedeth of a liuely and effectuall faith.

5 (when I heare of thy loue & fayth, which thou haſt toward the Lorde Jeſus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the [a] felowſhip of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatſoeuer good thing is in you [b] through Chriſt Jeſus, may be knowen.

b That experience may declare that you are the mēbers of Jeſus chriſt.

7 For we haue great ioy and conſolation in thy loue, becauſe by thee, brother, the Saints [c] hearts are comforted.

c Meaning their inward parts & affections were through his charitie comforted.

8 Wherefore,

8 Wherefore, though I be very bold in Christ to command thee that which is conuenient,

9 [Yet] for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I bee as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

Col.4.9. 10 I beseech thee for my Sonne *Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bondes,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but nowe profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whome I haue sent againe: thou therfore, receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue reteined with me, that in thy stead he might haue ministred vnto me in ỹ bõds of the Gospell.

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing, that thy benefit should not bee as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

d He fled away from thee. c For he is thy seruant by condition, and also now ỹ Lords: so that both for thine own sake & for ỹ Lords, thou oughtest to loue him.

15 It may be that he therfore [d] departed for a seaon, that thou shouldst receiue him for euer,

16 [c] Not now as a seruant, but aboue a seruant, [euen as] a brother beloued, specially to me: how much more thē vnto thee, both in the flesh, & in the Lord?

17 If therfore thou count our things [f] common, receiue him as my selfe.

f That all thine is mine, and all mine is thine.

18 If he hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written [this] with mine owne hand: I will recompence it, albeit I do not say to thee, ỹ thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let mee obteine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my [g] bowels in the Lord.

g Grant me this benefite, which shall be most acceptable vnto me of all others.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt do euen more then I say.

22 Moreouer also prepare me lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shal be giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner [h] in Christ Iesus, h That is, for Christs cause.

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas [&] Luke my fellow helpers.

25 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ [be] with your spirit, Amen.

Written from Rome to Philemon, [and sent] by Onesimus a seruant.

The Epistle to the Hebrevves.

The Argvment.

FOrasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowne, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the spirit of God is the authour therof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although we know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the propheſies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe: for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priestes were but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. vers. 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18. to the 25. vers. of the same Chap. yea, and is the King to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that vers. 25. to the beginning of the last chap. Wherfore according to the examples of the old fathers, we must cõstantly beleeue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdome, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly, and couragiously perseuere euen to the end in hope of that ioy that is set before our eies, occupying our selues in Christian exercises that we may both be thankful to God, and dutiful to our neighbor.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 Aboue the Angels, 7 And of their office.

AT sundrie times and in diuers maners [a] God spake in the olde time to [our] Fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these [b] last dayes he hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom he hath made heire of all things, [c] by whom also he made the worldes,

3 *Who being the brightnes of the glorie, and the [d] ingraued forme of his person, & bearing vp all things by his mightie worde, hath by himselfe [e] purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hande of a God, who is euer constant, and mercifull to his Church declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundry sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all truth to vs by his sõne. b So that now we may not credite any new reuelations after him.

c He entreateth here of Christ, both as touching his person, which is very God, and very man, by whom all things are made, and also as touching his office, wherby he is King, Prophet, and Priest. Wisd. 7.26. col. 1.15. d The liuely image and paterne, so that he that seeth him, seeth the Father, Iohn 14.9: for else the person of the Father is not seene, but apprehended by fayth. e So that our sinnes can be purged by none other meanes.

8 Wherefore, though I be very bold in Christ to command thee that which is conuenient, 9 [Yet] for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I bee as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

Col.4.9. 10 I beseech thee for my Sonne *Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bondes,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but nowe profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whome I haue sent againe: thou therfore, receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue reteined with me, that in thy stead he might haue ministred vnto me in ỹ bõds of the Gospell.

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing, that thy benefit should not bee as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

d He fled away from thee. c For he is thy seruant by condition, and also now ỹ Lords: so that both for thine own sake & for ỹ Lords, thou oughtest to loue him.

15 It may be that he therfore [d] departed for a seaon, that thou shouldst receiue him for euer,

16 [c] Not now as a seruant, but aboue a seruant, [euen as] a brother beloued, specially to me: how much more thē vnto thee, both in the flesh, & in the Lord?

17 If therfore thou count our things [f] common, receiue him as my selfe.

f That all thine is mine, and all mine is thine.

18 If he hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written [this] with mine owne hand: I will recompence it, albeit I do not say to thee, ỹ thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let mee obteine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my [g] bowels in the Lord.

g Grant me this benefite, which shall be most acceptable vnto me of all others.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt do euen more then I say.

22 Moreouer also prepare me lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shal be giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner [h] in Christ Iesus, h That is, for Christs cause.

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas [&] Luke my fellow helpers.

25 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ [be] with your spirit, Amen.

Written from Rome to Philemon, [and sent] by Onesimus a seruant.

The Epistle to the Hebrevves.

The Argvment.

FOrasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowne, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the spirit of God is the authour therof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, although we know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the propheſies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe: for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priestes were but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. vers. 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18. to the 25. vers. of the same Chap. yea, and is the King to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from that vers. 25. to the beginning of the last chap. Wherfore according to the examples of the old fathers, we must cõstantly beleeue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdome, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly, and couragiously perseuere euen to the end in hope of that ioy that is set before our eies, occupying our selues in Christian exercises that we may both be thankful to God, and dutiful to our neighbor.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 Aboue the Angels, 7 And of their office.

AT sundrie times and in diuers maners [a] God spake in the olde time to [our] Fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these [b] last dayes he hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom he hath made heire of all things, [c] by whom also he made the worldes,

3 *Who being the brightnes of the glorie, and the [d] ingraued forme of his person, & bearing vp all things by his mightie worde, hath by himselfe [e] purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hande of a God, who is euer constant, and mercifull to his Church declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundry sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all truth to vs by his sõne. b So that now we may not credite any new reuelations after him.

c He entreateth here of Christ, both as touching his person, which is very God, and very man, by whom all things are made, and also as touching his office, wherby he is King, Prophet, and Priest. Wisd. 7.26. col. 1.15. d The liuely image and paterne, so that he that seeth him, seeth the Father, Iohn 14.9: for else the person of the Father is not seene, but apprehended by fayth. e So that our sinnes can be purged by none other meanes.

the maiestie in the highest places,

4 And is made so much more excellent then the [f] Angels in as much as hee hath obteyned a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels sayd hee at any time, *Thou art my Sonne, [g] this day begate I thee: and againe, I *will be his Father, and he shalbe my sonne:

6 And againe when hee bringeth in [his] first begotten Sonne into [h] the world, he sayth, *And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he saith, *He maketh the [h] Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the sonne [hee saith,] *O GOD, thy throne [is] for euer and euer: the [i] scepter of thy kingdome [is] a scepter of righteousnesse.

9 Thou hast loued righteousnes and hated iniquitie. Wherefore God, [euen] thy God, hath [k] anointed thee with the oyle of gladnes aboue thy fellowes.

10 And, *Thou, Lorde, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou doest remaine: and they all shall waxe old as doth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same and thy yeeres shall not fasle.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels sayde hee at any time, *Sit at my right hande, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole:

14 Are they not all ministring spirits, sent foorth to minister, for their sakes which shalbe heires of saluation:

f Much more then, then all other things created.

Psal.2.7.chap.5.5.act.13.33.

g Because he was at the time appointed, declared to the world.

2.Sam.7.14. 1.chro.22.10. Psal.97.7.

Psal.104.4.

h He compareth the Angels to the windes, which are here beneath as Gods messengers.

Psal.45.6,7.

i The administration of thy kingdome is iust.

k This is ment in that that the word is made flesh, and that the holy Ghost was powred on him without measure, that we may al receiue of him euery one according to his measure.

Psal.102.25.

Psal.110.1. matth.22.44. 1.cor.15.25. chap.10.12.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth vs to bee obedient vnto the new Lawe which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to bee offended at the infirmitie and low degree of Christ, 10 Because it was necessarie that for our sakes he should take such an humble state vpō him, that he might be like vnto his brethren.

Wherefore wee ought diligently to giue heede to the things which wee haue heard, least at any [a] time wee shoulde let them slippe.

2 For if the [b] word spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of rewarde,

3 Howe shall We escape, if We neglect so [c] great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and [afterwarde] was confirmed vnto vs by [d] them that heard him,

4 *God bearing witnes thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles, & gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the [e] world to come, whereof We speake.

6 But *one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, [f] What is man, that thou shouldest bee mindefull of him! or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him!

7 Thou madest him a litle inferiour to the Angels: thou crownedst him with [g] glorie and honour, and hast set him aboue the workes of thine hands.

8 *Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that he hath put al things in subiection vnder him, he left nothing that should not bee subiect vnto him. [h] But We yet see not all things subdued vnto [i] him.

9 But wee see Jesus [k] crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a litle inferiour to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whom [are] all things, and by whom [are] al things, seeing that hee brought many children vnto glorie, that he should consecrate the [l] Prince of their saluation through [m] afflictions.

11 For he that sanctifieth, & they which are sanctified, are all [n] of one: wherefore he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, *I Wil declare thy Name vnto my [o] brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing prayses to thee.

13 And againe, *I will put my [p] trust in him. And againe, *[q] Behold, here am I, and the children, which God hath giuen me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, hee also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that hee might destroy *through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuill,

15 And that he might deliuer all them, a We must diligently keepe in memorie the doctrine, which we haue learned, least like vessels full of chappes we leake, and run out on euery part.

b Which was the lawe giuen to Moses by the handes of Angels, Gal.3.19. Actes.7.53.

c As the Gospel is, which onely offereth saluation.

d That is, the Apostles. Mat.16.20.

e Which Isai calleth the new heauens, and the new earth, chap.65.17. whereof Christ is the father, Isa.9.6. that is, the head of vs his members. Psal.8.4.

f He speaketh here chiefly of the faithfull, which are made through Christ, cittizens of the world to come, where they shall inioy with their prince all these things which now they haue onely but in part.

g In making him fellowe heire with Christ. Mat.28.18. 1.cor.15.27. phil. 2.9,10,11.

h To them which obiect that they see not these things accomplished in man, the apostle answereth that they are fulfilled in Christ our captaine, who leadeth his to the same glorie with him.

i To man, as he is of Christ.

k By his vertue which most manifestly appeareth in the Church.

l Jesus Christ by humbling himselfe & taking vpon him the forme of a seruant, which was our flesh, & mortalitie, giueth vs assurance of our saluation.

m Therefore we by afflictions are made like to the sonne of God. n The head and the members are of one nature: so Christ which sanctifieth vs, & we that are sanctified, are al one by ỹ vnion of our flesh. Psal.22.22. o This moueth Christs humanitie. Psal.18.2. p Meaning, that Christ touching his humanitie put his trust in God. Isai.8.18. q Isai speaketh this of himselfe & his disciples, but properly it is applied to Christ the head of all ministers. Hos.13.14. 1.cor.15.55.

which for feare of [r] death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

16 For he in no sort tooke the [s] Angels, but he tooke the seede of Abraham.

17 Wherefore [t] in all things it became him to bee made like vnto his brethren, that he might be mercifull, and a faythfull high Priest in thinges concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.

18 For in that he [u] suffered, and was tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

r And Gods anger.
s Not the nature of Angels but of man.
t Not onely as touching nature but also qualities, only sinne except.
u Forasmuch as he is exercised in our miseries, we may be assured, that at al times in our tentations he wil succour vs.

CHAP. III.

1 He requireth them to bee obedient vnto the worde of Christ, 3 Who is more worthie then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts, and not beleeue, that they might haue eternall rest.

Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, [a] consider the Apostle and high Priest of our [b] profession, Christ Jesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed [c] him, euen as * Moses [was] in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, inasmuch as hee which hath builded the house, [d] hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and hee that hath built all things, [is] [e] God.

5 Now Moses verely was faithfull in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnesse of the things which should bee spoken after.

6 But Christ [is] as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose [f] house we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the reioicing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saith, * To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the [g] prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernes,

9 Where your fathers tempted mee, proued me, and sawe my workes fourtie yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and said, They erre euer in [their] heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, [h] If they shall enter into my [i] rest.

12 Take heede, brethren, least at any time there be in any of you an euil heart, and vnfaythfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhorte one another dayly, while it is called [k] To day, least any of you be hardened through the deceitfulnes of sinne.

14 For wee are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the ‖ end the ‖ beginning, wherewith we are vpholde, 15 So long as it is said, To day if yee heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked [m] him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he displeased fourty yeeres? was hee not displeased with them that sinned, * whose ‖ carkeises fell in the wildernes?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

a Take heede to his wordes & receiue him
b Of that doctrine which we beleeue, and ought to confesse.
c To be ỳ ambassadour and hie Priest.
Nom.12.7.
d Moses was but part of the house, that is, of the Church whereof the pastours are ỳ liuely stones, but Christ builded it, and laid the stones: therefore he deserueth more prayse.
e That is, Christ: for Christ is the foundation, and head of his Church: he is our brother, & Lord: he is the sonne of God, and verie God working all things by his owne power.
f For in obeying the Sonne we are made the house of God.
Psal.95.7,8.
chap.4.7.
g As when ye prouoked Gods anger in Massa and Meriba, Exod.17.7.
h Meaning by this othe, that they should not enter.
i As disobeying God, they in old time were debarred from the quietnes of the land of Chanaan: so they which do not obey Christ, shall not enter into the heauenly rest.
k Which is all ỳ time wherin God doth call vs: while hee therefore speaketh, let vs heare.
l Which is by faith to imbrace and hold fast the true doctrine of Jesus Christ.
‖ Or, foundatiō of our assurāce,
m To wit, the Lord.
Nom.14.37.
‖ Or, bodies & members.

CHAP. IIII.

2 The word without faith is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of vnbeleeuers. 12 The nature of the worde of God.

Let vs feare therefore, least at any time by forsaking ỳ promises of entring into his rest any of you should seeme to be depriued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospell preached as also vnto them: but the worde that they heard, profited not them, because it was not [a] mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleeued, do enter into rest, as he said [to the other,] * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If [b] they shall enter into my rest: although [c] the workes were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth daye from all his workes.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whome it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeliefes sake:

7 Againe he appointed in [d] Dauid a certaine day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is sayd, * This day if yee heare his voyce, harden not your heartes.

8 For if [e] Jesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this day haue a He compareth the preaching of the Gospell, as it were, to wine, whereof if we will taste, that is, heare and vnderstande with profite, we must temper or mixe it with faith.

Psal.95.11.
b Although that God by his rest, after the creation of his workes, signified the spirituall rest of the faithfull, yet he sware to giue rest in Chanaan, which was but a figure of ỳ heauenly rest, and oured but for a time.
c The perfection of Gods workes, and so his rest, signifie our heauenly rest.
Gen.2.2.
deut.5.14.
d That is, in the Psalmes.
Chap.3.7.
e Meaning, Joshua.

ſpoken of another.

9 There remaineth therfore a reſt to the people of God.

10 For he that is entred into his reſt, f hath alſo ceaſed from his owne workes, as God [did] from his.

11 Let vs ſtudie therefore to enter into that reſt, leaſt any man fall after the ſame enſample of diſobedience.

12 For the Word of God [is] liuely, and mightie in operation, and ſharper then any two edged ſworde, and g entreth through, euen vnto the deuiding aſunder of the h ſoule and the i ſpirite, and of the ioynts, and the marow, and is a diſcerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is their any creature, which is not manifeſt in his ſight: but al things [are] naked & k open vnto his eies, ‖ With whom we haue l to do.

14 Seeing then that we haue a great high Prieſt, which is entred into heauē, [euen] Jeſus the Sonne of God, let vs hold faſt our profeſſion.

15 For we haue not an hie Prieſt, which cannot bee touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all thinges tempted in like ſort, [yet] without ſinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercie, and find grace to helpe in time of neede.

f Hath caſt off his appetites, mortified his fleſh, renounced himſelfe, & followeth God.

g For it mortally woūdeth the rebellious, and in the elect it killeth the old man that they ſhould liue vnto God.

h Where the affections are.

i Which conteyneth will and reaſon.

k As that thing which is cleft aſunder euen through the mids of the backe, and ſo is made open, that it may be ſeene throughout.

‖ Or, cōcerning whō we ſpeake

l Therefore when we heare his worde, we muſt tremble, knowing therby that God ſoundeth our hearts.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Jeſus Chriſt with the Leuitical Prieſts, ſhewing wherein they eyther agree or diſſent. 11 Afterward he reproueth the negligence of the Jewes.

For euerie hie Prieſt is taken from among men, and is a ordeined for men, in thinges perteyning to God, that hee may offer both b gifts and c ſacrifices for ſinnes,

2 Which is able ſufficiently to haue compaſſion on them d that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, becauſe that he alſo is compaſſed with infirmitie,

3 And for the ſames ſake he is bounde to offer for ſinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 *And no man taketh this honour vnto himſelfe, but hee that is called of God, as [was] Aaron.

5 So likewiſe Chriſt tooke not to him ſelfe this honour, to bee made the hie Prieſt, but he that ſaid vnto him, *Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee, [gaue it him.]

6 As hee alſo in an other place ſpeaketh, *Thou art a Prieſt for euer after the c order of Melchi-ſedec.

7 Which in the f dayes of his fleſh did offer vp prayers and ſupplicatiōs, with g ſtrong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to ſaue him from death, and was alſo heard h in that which hee feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he ſuffered.

9 And being conſecrate, was made the authour of eternall ſaluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an high Prieſt after the order of Melchi-ſedec.

11 i Of whom we haue many things to ſay, which are hard to be vttered, becauſe ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye need againe that we teach you the firſt ‖ principles of the Word of God: and are become ſuch as haue neede of k milke, and not of ſtrong meate.

13 For euery one that vſeth milke, is inexperte in the l Word of righteouſnes: for he is a babe.

14 But ſtrong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through lōg cuſtome haue their wittes exerciſed, to diſcerne both good and euill.

a He ſheweth that man can haue none acceſſe to God without an hie prieſt, becauſe that of himſelfe he is prophane and ſinfull.

b Which were of things without life.

c As, of beaſts which are killed.

d That is, of ſinners.

1.Chro.13,10

Pſal.2.7. chap.1.5.

Pſal.110.4. chap.7.17.

e Who was both Prieſt and King.

f When he liued in this world.

g He meaneth that moſt earneſt Prayer which Chriſt prayed in the garden: where he ſweat drops of blood.

h Being in perplexitie, & fearing ỹ horrors of death.

i He digreſſeth till he come to the beginning of the 7. Chap.

‖ Or, rudimēts.

k Read.1, Cor. 3.2.

l That is, the Goſpel which is ỹ true knowledge that teacheth vs where we haue our iuſtice.

CHAP. VI.

1 He proceedeth in reproouing them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be ſtedfaſt and patient, 18 Foraſmuch as God is ſure in his promes.

Therefore, leauing ỹ doctrine of the a beginning of Chriſt, let vs be led forwarde vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation b of repentāce from dead workes, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of c baptiſmes, and laying on of handes, and of the reſurrection from the dead, and of eternal iudgement.

3 And this wil we do, d if God permit.

4 *For it is impoſſible ỹ they, which were once lightened, and haue taſted of the heauenly gifte, and were made partakers of the holy Ghoſt,

5 And haue taſted of the good worde of God, and of the powers of the worlde to come,

6 If they fal away, ſhould be renewed againe by repentance: ſeeing they a That is, the firſt rudiments of our Chriſtiā religion.

b He mentioneth v. points of the catechiſme, which was thē in vſe: the confeſſion of amēdment of life: ỹ ſumme of the faith: a briefe explication of Baptiſme, and laying on of hands: the article of the reſurrection, and the laſt iudgement.

c Then the vſe of Baptiſme was declared, when on the ſolemne dayes appointed to baptize, the Church came together. d It is Gods ſingular gift to increaſe in knowledge, and to go forwarde in the vnderſtanding of Gods worde. Mat.12.31,32. 2.pet.2.20, chap.10,26.

e They which are apostates, and sinne against the holy Ghost, hate Christ, crucifie & mocke him, but to their owne destruction, and therefore fall into desperation, and cannot repent.

e crucifie againe to them selues the sonne of God and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in ỹ raine that cõmeth oft vpon it, & bringeth forth herbes meete for them by whome it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes & briars, [is] reproued, and is neere vnto cursing, whose ende [is] to be burned.

9 But beloued, wee haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompanie saluation, though wee thus speake.

10 For God [is] not vnrighteous, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which yee shewed towarde his Name, in that yee haue ministred vnto the Saints, and [yet] minister.

11 And we desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence, to the f full assurance of hope vnto the ende, f Whereby it may appeare, that you are fully perswaded of life euerlasting.

12 That ye bee not slouthfull, but followers of g them, which through fayth and patience, inherit the promises.

g As the holy fathers, Prophets, & martyres that were before vs.

13 For Whē God made the promes to Abraham, because hee had no greater to sweare by, he sware by himselfe,

Gene. 12.2. & 17.4. & 22.17.

14 Saying, * Surely I will abundantly blesse thee & multiplie thee marueilously.

15 And so after that he had tarried patiently, he enioyed the promes.

16 For mẽ verely sweare by him that is greater [then themselues,] and an oth for confirmation is among them an end of all strife.

h Because of mans wickednes, which wil not beleue God except he sweare.

17 So God willing more h abundantly to shew vnto the heires of promes the stablenesse of his counsel, bound himself by an othe, i Gods word and othe are two things in him vnchangeable.

18 That by i two immutable things, wherin it is vnpossible that God should lie, wee might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to holde fast the hope that is set before vs, k He returneth to the cõparison betwene Christs priesthood and the Leuiticall which he had begun in the 5. Chap.

19 Which we haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure & stedfast, and it k entreth into that which is within the l vaile, l Which is heauen whither Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

20 Whither the forerunner is for vs entred in, [euen] Jesus that is made an hie Priest for euer after ỹ order of Melchi-sedec.

CHAP. VII.

1 He compareth the Priesthoode of Christ vnto Melchi-sedec, 11 Also Christs Priesthoode with the Leuites.

Gene. 14.18.

For this Melchi-sedec *[was] king of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as he returned from the slaughter of the Kinges, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousnesse: after that, [he is] also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

3 Without a father, without mother, Without kinred, and hath neither beginning of [his] dayes, neither ende of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

a So called, because that Moses maketh no mention of his parents or kinsfolkes, but as he had bene sodenly sent of God into the worlde, to be a figure of Christ our euerlasting Priest, & shortly taken out of the worlde againe, so Christ as touching his humanitie had no father, and concerning his diuinitie, no mother.

4 Now consider howe great this man [was,] vnto whom euen ỹ b Patriarke Abrahã gaue the tithe of ỹ spoyles.

b That is, the chiefe of fathers.

5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthoode, haue a * c commandement to take, according to the Lawe, tythes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they d came out of the loynes of Abraham.

Nom. 18.21. deut. 18.1,2. iosh. 14.4.

c The Leuites had commandement to receiue that, which Abraham gaue freely to Melchisedec.

d Was begotten of Abraham.

6 But he whose kinred is not counted among them, e receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

e The Leuites receiued tithes of their brethren, but Melchi-sedec of Abraham the patriarke: therefore his Priesthoode is more excellent then the Leuiticall.

7 And without all contradiction the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men ỹ die, receiue tythes: but there he [receiueth them,] of whom it is witnessed, that he f liueth.

f Because there is no mention of his death.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tythes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loines of his father [Abraham,] when Melchi-sedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthoode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchi-sedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthoode be changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the g Lawe.

g The Lawe and the priesthoode are both of one condition: so that both Aarons and Moses office pertaine to Christ, which is Priest and lawe maker.

13 For he of whome these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lorde sprong out of Juda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthoode.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchi-sedec, there is risen vp another Priest,

16 Which is not made [Priest] after ỹ h Which stood in outwarde & corporall ceremonies. Psal.1104. chap.5,6.

Lawe [h] of the carnall commandement, but after the power of the endles life.

17 For he testifieth [thus,] *Thou art a Priest for euer after the order of Melchi-sedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because [i] of ỹ weakenesse thereof, and vnprofitablenesse.

i For the lawe hath no vertue nor profit till a man be come to Christ. ‖Or, it was an introduction of a better hope.

19 For the Lawe made nothing perfite, but ‖ the bringing in of a better hope [made perfite,] whereby We draw neere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priestes without an othe:

21 But this, he [is made] with an othe by him that saide vnto him, *The Lord hath sworne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec)

Psal.110.4. ‖Or, couenant.

22 By so much is Jesus made a suretie of a better ‖ Testament.

23 And among thē many were made Priests, because they were not suffred to endure by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath an [k] euerlasting Priesthoode.

k Therefore al others are blasphemous, that either make them selues his successors, or pretende any other sacrifice.

25 Wherefore, he is able also [l] perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

l The fruit of his Priesthood is to saue, and that fully and perfectly, not by supplying that that wanteth, but by taking away the lawe which is vnperfect by reason of our infirmities.

26 For such an high Priest it became vs to haue, [which is] holy, harmeles, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made hier then the heauens:

Leuit.16,6.

27 Which needed not daily as those high Priestes to offer vp sacrifice, *first for his owne sinnes, and thē for the peoples: for that did he [m] once, When he offred vp himselfe.

m And can not without blasphemie be said to be offred againe, or else by any creature: for none coulde offer him, but himselfe.

28 For ỹ lawe maketh men hie priests, which haue infirmitie: but the worde of the othe that was [n] since the lawe, [maketh] the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

n Not that it was first made after the lawe was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternall oth was then reuealed to the world.

CHAP. VIII.

6 He proueth the abolishing as wel of the Leuitical Priesthode, as of the olde Couenant by the spiritual & euerlasting Priesthode of Christ, 8 And by the newe Couenant.

NOwe of the thinges which we haue spoken, [this is] the summe, that We haue such an hie Priest, that sitteth at the right hande of the throne of the maiestie in heauens, a That is, heauen.

2 And [is] a minister of the [a] Sanctuarie, and of the true [b] Tabernacle which the Lord pight, and not [c] man.

b Which is the body of Christ.

c For else it should be corruptible.

3 For [d] euery hie Priest is ordeined to offer both giftes and sacrifices: Wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man shoulde haue somewhat also to offer.

d He proueth that Christs bodie is ỹ true tabernacle, and that he must needs be made man, to the intent that he might haue a thing to offer, which was his bodie.

4 For he Were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seeing there are Priestes that according to the Lawe offer giftes,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne and shadowe of heauenly things, as Moses was warned by God, When he was about to finish the Tabernacle. *See, sayde he, that thou make all things according to the [e] paterne, shewed to thee in the mount.

Exod.25.40. actes 7.44.

e Seeing the offrings of the Leuites were but shadowes of heauenly things, as appeareth by the oracle to Moses, it followeth then that Christes heauenly sanctuarie, his Tabernacle and office are farre more excellent.

6 But nowe [our hie Priest] hath obteined a more excellent office, in as much as he is the Mediatour of a better ‖ Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

‖Or, couenant. Iere.31,31. rom.11,27. chap.10,16.

7 For if that first [Testament] had bene faultlesse, no place should haue bene sought for the seconde.

8 For in rebuking them he sayeth, *Beholde, the dayes will [f] come, saith the Lord, When I shall make With the house of Israel, and With the house [g] of Juda a newe Testament:

f That is, when Christ shall remit our sinnes by the preaching of the Gospell.

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hande, to leade thē out of the lande of Egypt: for they [h] continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lorde.

g Signifying that there shoulde be no more diuision, but all shall be made one Church.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make With the house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their mind, and in their heart I will write them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people, h Man by transgressing the bands of the couenant, could not inioy the commoditie thereof.

11 And they shall not [i] teach euery mā his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Knowe the Lorde: for all shall knowe me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

i Men shall not in the time of the Gospell be so ignorant as they were before, but shall knowe God much more perfectly through Christ

12 For I will bee mercifull to their vnrighteousnesse, and I Wil remember their sinnes & their iniquities no more.

13 In that he sayeth a newe [Testament,] he hath abrogate the olde: nowe that which is disanulled and waxed olde, is readie to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Lawe are abolished 11 By the eternitie and perfection of Christes sacrifice.

THen ỹ first [‖ Testament] had also ‖ ordinances of religion, & a [a] Worldly Sanctuarie.

‖Or, tabernacle. ‖Or, ceremonies.

2 For ỹ first * Tabernacle was made, Wherein was ỹ candlesticke, and a Not heauenly and spirituall, Exod.26,1. and 36.1.

and the table, and the shewbread, which [Tabernacle] is called the Holy places.

3 And after the [b] second vaile [was] the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlayed round about with golde, wherein the golden pot which had Manna, [was,] and *Aarons rodde that had budded, & the *tables of the Testament.

5 *And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the ‖mercy seate: of which things wee will not nowe speake particularly.

6 Nowe when these thinges were thus ordeined, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the *hie Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the ‖ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the [c] way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet ỹ first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered giftes and sacrifices that could not make ‖holy, concerning the conscience, [d] him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stood in meates and drinkes, & diuers washings, and [e] carnall rites, vntill the time of [f] reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good thinges to come, by a greater and a more perfect [g] Tabernacle, not made with handes, that is, not of this building,

12 Neither by the blood of goates & calues: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the [h] Holy place, [i] and obtained eternall redemption [for vs.]

13 *For if the [k] blood of bulles and of goates and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the [l] flesh,

14 How much more shall the* blood of Christ which through ỹ eternall Spirit offered him self without spot to God, purge your conscience frō [m] dead works, *to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediatour of ỹ new Testament, that through *death which was for the redemption of the transgressions [that were] in the [n] former Testament, they which were called, might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament [is,] there must be the death of him that made the Testament.

17 *For the [o] Testamēt is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is aliue.

18 Wherefore neither was the first ordeined without [p] blood.

19 For whē Moses had spoken euery precept to the people, according to the Lawe, he tooke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple wolle and hyssope, and sprinkled both ỹ booke, and all the people, 20 *Saying, This is the blood of the Testament which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, hee sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Lawe purged with blood, and without sheading of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the similitudes of heauenly things shoulde bee purified with such things: but the heauenly things them selues [are purified] with better [q] sacrifices thē are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with handes, which are ‖similitudes of the true [Sānctuarie:] but [is entred] into very heauen, to appeare nowe in the sight of God for vs,

25 Not that he should offer him selfe [r] often, as the hie Priest entred into the Holie place euery yere with other blood, 26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the world) but now in the [s] ende of the worlde hath he appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of him selfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shall once die, and after that [commeth] the iudgement, 28 So *Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of [t] many, and vnto them that looke for him, shall hee appeare the second time [u] without sinne vnto saluation.

b That is, on the inwarde side of the vaile which was hid from the people. Nom.17.10. 1.King.8.9. 2.chro.5.10. Exod.25.22. ‖Or, couer of the Arke. Exod.30.10. leui.16.2. ‖Or, errors.

c For so long as the hye Priest offered once a yeere for his owne sinnes and for the peoples, and also while this earthly tabernacle stood, the way to the heauenly Tabernacle, which is made open by Christes blood, could not be entred into. ‖Or, perfect.

d Neither yet him for whom they were offered.

e Which ceremonies although they were ordeined of GOD, yet considered in them selues, or els compared with Christ, are but carnal, grosse, & earthly and touch not the soule.

f Till the new testament was appointed.

g Which was his body and humane nature.

h Which is, heauen.

i For Christ was the sacrifice, the tabernacle and the Priest. Leui.16.14. nom.19.4.

k The Leuiticall Priest offered beastes blood: but Christ the true and eternall Priest offered his own blood, which was most holy and pure: the Leuiticall Priest offered peerely, and therefore did onely represent the true holines: but Christ by one onely sacrifice hath made holy for euer all them that beleeue.

l Outwardly in the sight of man. 1.Pet.1.19. 1.iohn 1.7. reue.1.5.

m Which of them selues procure death and are the fruites thereof. Luk.1.74.

Rom.5.6. 1.pet.3.18.

n Made betweene God & Christ, who by his death shuld make vs heires.

Gal.3.15.

o He proueth ỹ Christ must die, because the couenant or testament is of none effect wout the death of the testator.

p Without the death of beasts that were sacrificed: which signified, that Christ would pacifie his Fathers wrath with his blood. Exod.24.8.

q Albeit there is but one sacrifice, which is Christ himselfe once offered, yet because this true and eternall sacrifice is compared with all those which were figuratiue, & is more sufficient then all they, therefore he calleth it in the plurall number, sacrifices. ‖Or, paterns.

r Therefore to make any other offring or sacrifice for sinne after that Christes body was once offered, is blasphemie.

s Which is, the latter dayes when Christ came. Rom.5.8. 1.pet.3.18.

t Of the elect.

u That is, without a sacrifice for sinne or sinne abolished.

CHAP. X.

1 The olde Law had no power to clense away sinne, 10 But Christ did it with offring of his body once for all. 22 An exhortation to receiue the goodnes of God thankefully with patience and stedfast faith.

For

FOr the * Lawe hauing the [a] shadowe of good things to [b] come & not the very ‖image of ỹ things, can neuer with those sacrifices, which they offer yeere by yeere continually, ‖ sanctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes:

3 But in those [sacrifices] there [is] a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere,

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of bulles and goates should * take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when hee [c] commeth into the World, hee saieth, * Sacrifice and offring thou wouldest not: but a [d] body hast thou ordeined me.

6 In burnt offrings, & sinne offrings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I sayd, Lo, I come (In the beginning of the [e] booke it is written of me) that I should doe thy Will, O God.

8 Aboue, when he said, Sacrifice and offring and burnt offrings, and sinne offrings thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure [therein] (which are offred by the Law)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy Will, O God, he taketh away [f] the first, that he may establish the [g] second.

10 By the which Will we are sanctified, [euen] by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once [made.]

11 And euery Priest appeareth daily ministring, and oft times offereth one maner of offring, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God, 13 And from henceforth tarieth, * till his enemies be made his footestoole.

14 For With one offring hath [h] hee consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before,

16 * This [is] the Testament that I will make vnto them after those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my Lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them.

17 And their sinnes & iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where [i] remission of these things [is,] there [is] no more [k] offring for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore, Brethren, that by the blood of Jesus We [l] may be bolde to enter into the Holy place,

20 By the newe and [m] liuing Way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

21 [And seeing wee haue] an high Priest, [which is] ouer the house of God,

22 Let vs draw neere With a true heart in assurance of faith, [n] sprinkled in our hearts from an euill conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs keepe the profession of our hope, without wauering (for [hee is] faithfull that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, & to good workes,

25 Not forsaking the felowship that we haue among our selues, as the maner of some [is:] but let vs exhorte [one another,] and that so much the more, because yee see that the [o] day draweth neere.

26 * For if We sinne [p] Willingly after that We haue receiued the knowledge of the trueth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes, 27 But a fearful looking for of iudgement, and violent fire, Which shall deuoure the aduersaries.

28 He that despiseth Moses lawe, dieth Without mercy * vnder two, or three Witnesses.

29 Of howe much sorer punishment suppose ye shall he bee worthy, which treadeth vnder foote the Sõne of God, and counteth the blood of the Testamẽt as an vnholy thing, Wherewith he was sanctified, and [q] doeth despite the Spirit of grace:

30 For We know him that hath said, * Vengeance [belongeth] vnto mee: I Will recompence, saith the Lorde. And againe, The Lorde shall [r] iudge his people.

31 It is a fearefull thing to fall into the handes of the liuing God.

32 Now call to remembrance the daies that are passed, in the Which, after ye had receiued light, ye endured a great fight in afflictions,

33 Partly whyle you were made a gazing stocke both by reproches and afflictions, and partly Whyle yee became [s] companions of them Which were ‖ so tossed to and fro.

34 For both ye sorowed With me for my

Leuit.16,14, 21.

a Which was as it were the first draught and purtrait of the liuely paterne to come.

b Which are eternall.

‖ Or, substance.

‖ Or, make perfect.

Leuit.16.21.

c Whē Christ was made man.

Psal.40.6,7.

d In the Hebrue it is, thou hast pearced mine eares thorowe, that is, hast made me prompt and ready to heare: & in ỹ Greeke, thou hast made me a body, that is to obey thee, which both tende to one purpose.

e Or role and folding: for in old time they vsed to folde Bookes like rolles.

f That is, sacrifices.

g Which is, the wil of God to stand content with Christs sacrifice.

Chap.1.13. Psal.110.1. 1.cor.15.25. chap.1.13.

h That is, sanctifyed to God & made perfect.

Iere.31.33. chap.8.8,10. rom.11.27.

i Where there remaine no sinnes to be forgiuen, there is no more sacrifice: seeing therefore that onely Christes death hath washed away all sinnes, and doth euer a fresh when sinners do repent there can be none other sacrifice but that, and it can be no more reiterated.

k For the offring of thākesgiuing, which is the only sacrifice now of the Christians is not for sinne: but a thankesgiuing, and an offring vp of our selues and ours for the same.

l Wee by Christ haue that libertie which the ancient fathers could not haue by the lawe.

m The blood of Christ is alwayes fresh & liuely, before ỹ father to sprinkle and quicken vs.

n That is, hauing our harts made pure.

o Of Christes second comming.

Chap.6.4.

p That is, forsake Jesus Christ, as Iudas, Saul, Arrius, Julian ỹ Apostate did.

Deut.19.15. mat.18.16. iohn 8.17. 2.cor.13.1.

q Whereby it is euident that the Apostle heere onely meaneth that sinne, which is against the holy Ghost, as also Chap.6.4. Deut.32.35. rom.12.19.

r Defend the godly and punish the wicked.

s For ỹ which thing also S. Paul prayseth the Philippians & Thessalonians.

‖ Or, of that state.

my bondes, & ſuffred with ioy the ſpoiling of your goods, knowing in your ſelues how that ye haue in heauen a better and an enduring ſubſtance.

35 Caſt not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye haue neede of patience, that after ye haue done the will of God, yee might receiue the promes.

37 For yet a very litle while, & he that ſhall come, will come, and will not tary.

Habak.2.4. rom.1.17. gal.3.11.

38 *Nowe the iuſt ſhall liue by faith: but if [any] withdraw himſelf, my ſoule ſhall haue no pleaſure in him.

39 But we are not they which withdraw our ſelues vnto perdition, but [followe] faith vnto the conſeruation of the ſoule.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, and a commendation of the ſame. 9 Without faith we can not pleaſe God. 16 The ſtedfaſt beliefe of the fathers in olde time.

NOwe faith is the grounde of things, which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not ſeene.

a Haue bene approued, and ſo obtained ſaluation. Gen.1.3. iohn 1.10.

2 For by it [our] Elders were well a reported of.

b For God made al things of nothing. Gen.4.4.

3 *Through faith we vnderſtād that the world was ordeined by the word of God, ſo that the things which wee ſee, are not made of things, which b did appeare.

c Meaning faith. Mat.23.35.

4 By faith Abel *offred vnto God a greater ſacrifice then Cain, c by * the which he obtained witnes that hee was d righteous, God teſtifying of his gifts: by the which [faith] alſo he being dead, yet c ſpeaketh.

d Becauſe God receiued him to mercy, therefore he imputed him righteous.

e That is, liueth. Gen.5.24 ecclus.44.16. and 49.14.

5 By faith was *f Enoch taken away, that he ſhould not ſee death: neither was he found: for God had taken him away: for before hee was taken away, hee was reported of, that hee had pleaſed God.

f For Enochs and Elias taking vp was ſuch a thing, as is ſpoken of, 1.Cor.15.51. and 1.Theſ.4.17.

6 But without faith it is vnpoſſible to pleaſe [him:] for hee that commeth to God, muſt beleeue that [God] is, and that hee is g a rewarder of them that ſeeke him.

g Firſt God muſt finde vs before we can ſeeke him: then we muſt ſeeke him w a pure heart in Chriſt, who is reuiled in his word: and thereby we learne to beleue Gods free mercy toward vs in his Sonne through whome we obteine the reward of his promes, and not of our deſerts. Gen.6.13. ecclus.44.17.

7 By faith *Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not ſeene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the ſauing of his houſholde, through the which [Arke] he condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteouſnes, which is by faith.

8 By faith *Abraham, when he was called, obeyed [God,] to goe out into a place, which hee ſhould afterward receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither he went. Gen.12.4.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promes, as in a ſtrange coūtrey, as one that dwelt in tents with Iſaac and Iacob heires with him of the ſame promes.

10 For he looked for a citie hauing a h foundation, whoſe builder and maker [is] God.

h For al things in the world are ſubiect to corruption. Gen.17.19. and 21.2.

11 Through faith *Sarra alſo receiued ſtrength to conceiue ſeede, and was deliuered of a childe when ſhe was paſt age, becauſe ſhee iudged him faithfull which had promiſed.

12 And therefore ſprang there of one, euen of one which was i dead, [ſo many] as *the ſtarres of the ſkie in multitude, and as the ſand of the ſea ſhore which is innumerable.

i Euen as dead. Eccluſ. 44.21.

13 All theſe died in faith, and k receiued not the promiſes, but ſawe them l afarre off, and beleeued [them,] and receiued [them] thankefully, and confeſſed that they were m ſtrangers & pilgrimes on the earth.

k Which was the inioying of the land of Canaan. l With ỹ eyes of fayth. m And therefore put not their confidēce in things of this world.

14 For they that ſay ſuch things, declare plainely that they ſeeke a coūtrey.

15 And if they had bene mindefull of n that [countrey,] from whēce they came out, they had leaſure to haue returned.

n That is, of Meſopotamia.

16 But now they deſire a better, that is an heauenly: wherefore God is not aſhamed of them to bee called their God: for hee hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith *Abraham offered vp Iſaac, when he o was tried, and he that had receiued the promiſes, offered his onely begotten ſonne. Gen.22.10. ecclus.44.20.

o For it might ſeeme to the fleſh that the promiſe was cōtrary to this cōmandement, to ſacrifice his ſonne. Gen.21.12. rom.9.7.

18 (To whome it was ſaid, *In Iſaac ſhall thy ſeede be called)

19 For hee conſidered that God was able to raiſe [him] vp euē from the dead: from whence he receiued him alſo after a ſorte.

20 By faith *Iſaac bleſſed Iacob & Eſau, concerning things to come. Gen.27.28.

21 By faith Iacob when he was a dying, bleſſed both the ſonnes of Ioſeph, and ‖[leaning] on the ende of his ſtaffe, worſhipped [God.] Gen.48.15,16 Gen.47.31. ‖ Or, worſhipped toward the end of his ſtaffe.

22 By faith *Joſeph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Iſrael, and gaue commandement of his bones. Gen.50.24,25

23 *By faith Moſes when hee was borne, Exod.2.2. act.7.20.

borne, was hid three moneths of his parents, because they sawe hee was a proper childe, neither feared they the kings Exod.1.16. *commandement.
Exod.2.11. 24 By fayth *Moses when hee was come to age, refused to be called the sõne of Pharaos daughter,
25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enp The entisings of the world, which drawe vs from God, and which we can not vse without prouoking of Gods anger. ioy the [p] pleasures of sinnes for a season,
26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompence of the reward.
27 By fayth he forsooke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenesse of the king: for he endured, as he that sawe him which is inuisible.
28 Through fayth hee ordained the Exod.12.21,22. *Passeouer and the effusion of bloude, least hee that destroied the first borne, should touch them.
Exod.14.22,23. 29 By fayth they * passed through the red sea as by drie land, which when the Egyptians had assayed to doe, they were drowned.
Iosh.6.20. 30 By fayth the *walles of Jericho fell downe after they were compassed about seuen dayes.
Iosh.6 23. 31 By faith [y] harlot *Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when Iosh.2.1. *she had receiued the spies peaceably.
32 And what shall I more say: for the time would be to short for me to tell Iud.6.11, of *Gedeon, of *Barac and of *Sampson, and of *Jephte, also of *Dauid, and Iud.4.6. Iud.13.24. Iud.11.1. and 12.7. 1.Sam.1.20. and.13.14. Samuel, and of the Prophets:
33 Which through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousnes, obteined q Or fruite thereof. the [q] promises, stopped the mouthes of Lions, 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sworde, of weake were made strong, waxed valiant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the aliants.
r As Elias rayled vp the widow of Sareptas sonne, and Eliseus the Sunamites sonne. 35 The [r] women receiued their dead raised to life: other also were racked, & would not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.
36 And others haue bene tried by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bondes and prisonment.
37 They were stoned, they were hewē asunder, they were tempted, they were slaine with the sworde, they wandered vp and downe in sheepes skinnes, and in goates skinnes, being destitute, afflicted, [and] tormented:
38 Whome the world was not worthie of: they wandred in wildernesses and mountaines, and dennes, and caues of the earth.
39 And these al through faith obteined good report, & receiued [t] not the promes, 40 God prouiding a better thing for vs, that they [t] without vs should not be made perfite.

[t] They had not such cleare light of Christ as we: for they looked for that which we haue: therfore it were shame for vs, if at least we haue not as great cõstancy as they.
t For we are all one body together.

CHAP. XII.

1 An exhortation to be patient and stedfast in trouble and aduersitie, vpon hope of euerlasting reward. 25 A commendation of the newe Testament aboue the olde.

Wherefore, *let vs also, seeing that we are compassed with so great a ‖ cloude of witnesses, cast away euery thing [y] [a] presseth downe, and the sinne that ‖ hangeth so fast on: let vs runne with patiẽce the race that is set before vs,
Rom.6.4. ephe.4.23,24. col.3,8. 1.pet. 2,1.
‖ Or, multitude a As riches, cares and such like, & so to become Christes disciples by denying our selues, and taking our crosse to follow him.
‖ Or, so easely compasseth vs about.
2 [b] Looking vnto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the ioy [y] was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.
b As being our marke,
3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against of sinners, least ye should bee wearied and faint in your mindes.
4 Ye haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striuing against [c] sinne.
c Which by reason of our concupiscence assaileth vs on all sides.
5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, *My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.
Prou.3.11. reue.3.19.
6 For whome the Lorde loueth, hee chasteneth: & he scourgeth euery sonne that he receiueth.
7 If ye endure chastening, God offereth him self vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whome the father chasteneth not?
8 If therefore ye bee without correction, wherof all are partakers, then are ye bastardes, and not [d] sonnes.
d He concludeth that they which refuse ẏ crosse, deny to be of the nomber of Gods children, but are bastards.
9 Moreouer wee haue had the fathers of our [e] bodies which corrected vs, and wee gaue them reuerence: shoulde we not much rather be in subiectiõ vnto the father of [f] spirits, that we might liue?
e Which haue naturally begotten vs.
10 For they verely for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he [chasteneth vs] for our profite, ẏ we might be partakers of his holines.
f As he doeth create our spirits without any worldly meane, so he doth instruct & mainteine thē by the wonderfull vertue of his Spirit.
11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grieuous: but afterwarde, it bringeth the quiet fruite of righteousnes, vnto them which are thereby exercised.
12 Where-

12 Wherefore lift vp [your] handes which hang downe, and [your] weake knees,

13 And make straight steps vnto your feete, leste g ỹ which [is] halting, be turned out of ỹ way, but let it rather be healed.

14 *Followe peace with all men, and holinesse, without ỹ which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heede, that no man fal away from the grace of God: let no h roote of bitternesse spring vp and trouble [you,] least thereby many be defiled.

16 Let there bee no fornicator, or prophane person as *Esau, which for a portion of meate solde his birthright.

17 *For ye knowe howe ỹ afterward also when he woulde haue inherited the blessing, he was reiected: for he found no place to i repentance, though hee sought [the blessing] with teares.

18 For ye are not come vnto ỹ *mount that k might bee touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blackenesse and darkenesse, and tempest,

19 Neither vnto the sound of a trumpet, and the voyce of wordes, which they that heard it, excused them selues, that the word shoulde not be spoken to them any more.

20 (For they were not able to abide ỹ which was commanded, *Yea, though a beast touche the mountaine, it shall bee stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was ỹ sight which appeared, that Moses said, I feare and quake.)

22 But yee are come vnto the mount l Sion, and to the citie of the liuing God, the m celestiall Ierusalem, & to the company of innumerable n Angels,

23 And to the Congregation of ỹ first borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the iudge of all, and to the spirits of iust and perfect men,

24 And to Iesus the Mediatour of the newe Testament, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaketh better things then that of *Abel.

25 See that ye despise not him ỹ speaketh: for if they escaped not which refused him, ỹ spake on o earth: much more shall we [not escape,] if we turne away from him, that [speaketh] from heauen.

26 Whose voyce then shooke ỹ earth, and nowe hath declared, saying, *Yet once more will I shake, not the earth onely, but also heauen.

27 And this [worde,] Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things, which are shaken, as of thinges which are made [with hands,] that the things which are not shaken, may remaine.

28 Wherefore seeing we receiue a kingdom, which cannot be shakē, let vs haue grace, whereby wee may so serue God, that we may please him with reuerence and feare.

29 For *euen our God [is] a p consuming fire.

g Their halting partly declared their slownes, and partly their inconstancie in doctrine: therefore they were in danger to be punished. Rom.12.18.

h As heresies or apostasie. Gene.25.33. Gene.27.38.

i He was full of despite and disdaine, but was not touched with true repentance to be displeased for his sinnes and so seeke amendment. Exod.19.16. and 20.21.

k Which might be touched and seene, forasmuch as it was materiall, but God had commanded ỹ none should touch it.

Exod.19.13.

l Whence the worde of God must come.

m Which shal be extended through all the world.

n By the Gospel we are ioyned with the Angels and Patriarkes.

Gen.4.10.

o Which spake but rudely in comparison of Christ, who preached not the lawe but the Gospel. Hag.2.7.

p To destroy them that resist him. Deut.4.24.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He exhorteth vs vnto loue, 2 To hospitalitie, 3 To thinke vpon such as be in aduersitie, 4 To maintaine wedlocke, 5 To auoide couetousnesse, 7 To make much of them that preache Gods worde, 9 To beware of strange learning, 13 To be content to suffer rebuke with Christ, 15 To be thankfull vnto God, 17 And obedient vnto our gouernours.

LEt *brotherly loue continue. Rom.12.10. 1.pet.4.8.

2 Bee not forgetfull to lodge strangers: for thereby some haue *receyued Angels into their houses vnwares. Gen.18.3. and 19.3.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as though ye were bound with them: & them that are in affliction, as if yee were also [afflicted] in the body.

4 a Mariage [is] honourable among all, & the bed vndefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will iudge.

5 Let your conuersation bee without couetousnes, and bee content with those things that ye haue: for b he hath said, *I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee:

6 So that we may boldly say, *The Lorde [is] mine helper, neither will I feare what man can do vnto me.

7 Remember thē which haue the ouersight of you, which haue declared vnto you the word of God: whose faith followe, considering what hath bene ỹ end of their conuersation.

8 Iesus Christ c yesterday, and to day, the same also [is] for euer.

9 Bee not caried about with diuers [and] strange d doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be stablished with grace, [and] not with e meates, which haue not profited them that haue bene occupied therein.

10 We haue an altar wherof they haue no authoritie to f eate which serue in the Tabernacle.

11 *For ỹ bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the Holie place by the high priest for sinne, are g burnt without the campe.

12 Therefore euen Iesus, that hee

a As incontinencie is a disease common to men of all sorts and degrees, so mariage the remedy is offered by the free mercy of God to all maner of men without respect.

b The Lord. Iosh.1.9. Psal.118.6.

c He was, is, and shalbe the foundation of the Church for euer.

d Whatsoeuer doctrine is not according to ỹ simple trueth of Gods word, is straunge.

e By reproouing them which superstitiously put difference betwixt meats, he condēneth all the seruice which stood in ceremonies, cōparing it wt the spirituall worshipping, & regeneration.

f They that sticke to the ceremonies of ỹ Lawe, cannot eat, that is, cannot be partakers of our altar, which is thankesgiuing and liberalitie, which two sacrifices or offerings are now onely left to the Christians. Leu.4.11. & 6.30, & 16.27. g So that the Priests had no piece there of.

might sanctifie ỹ people with his owne blood, suffred without the gate.

13 Let vs go forth therefore out of the campe, bearing his reproch.

Mich.2.10. 14 *For here haue we no continuing citie: but we seeke one to come.

15 Let vs therefore by him offer the sacrifice of prayse alwayes to God, that is, the *fruite of the lips, which confesse his Name.

Hose.14.2.

h Thankesgiuing and doing good are our only sacrifices which please

16 hTo do good, and to distribute forget not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue ỹ ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accounts, that they may doe it with ioye, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 Pray for vs: for we are assured that we haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I desire you somewhat the more earnestly, that ye so do, that I may be restored to you more quickely.

20 The God of peace that brought againe frō the dead our Lorde Iesus, the great ishepheard of the sheepe, through the blood of the euerlasting Couenant, i Read Actes. 20.28. & Iohn 10.11.

21 Make you perfect in al good workes, to doe his will, working in you ỹ which is pleasant in his sight through Iesus Christ, to whom [be] prayse for euer and euer, Amen.

22 I beseech you also, brethren, suffer the wordes of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in fewe words.

23 Knowe that [our] brother Timotheus is deliuered, with whome (if hee come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouersight of you, & all the Saints. They of Italie salute you.

25 Grace [be] with you all, Amen.

Written to the Hebrewes from Italie, [and sent] by Timotheus.

*That is, written to no one man, citie or countrey, but to all ỹ Iewes generally, being nowe dispersed.

The *generall Epistle of Iames.

The Argvment.

Iames the Apostle and sonne of Alpheus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were conuerted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreys, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to be partiall, neither to boast of an idle faith, but to declare a true faith by liuely fruits, to auoyde ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to vtter their faults when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

2 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, 6 To be feruent in prayer with stedfast beliefe, 17 To looke for all good things from aboue, 21 To forsake all vice, and thankefully to receiue the word of God, 22 Not only hearing it, and speaking of it, but to do thereafter in deede. 27 What true religion is.

IAmes a seruant of God, and of the Lord IESVS CHRIST, to the twelue Tribes which are scattered abroade, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when ye fall into diuers ‖ tentations,

‖ Or, afflictions Rom.5.3.

3 *Knowing that the a trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

a Afflictions try our faith and ingender patience.

4 And let patience haue [her] b perfect worke, that yee may bee perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

b Our patience ought to continue to the ende till by working it hath polished vs and made vs perfect in Christ.

5 If any of you lacke c wisedome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shalbe giuen him.

c To endure patiently what soeuer God layeth vpon him.

6 *But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for hee that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and caried away.

Matt.7.7. mar. 11.24. luk.11.9. iohn. 14.13. and 16.23.

7 Neither let that man thinke that he shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 Ad ‖ wauering minded man [is] vnstable in all his wayes.

d Douting in doctrine, or of Gods will.

‖ Or, double.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is e exalted:

e That he is called to the company of Christ and his Angels.

10 Againe he that is rich, in that he is made f low: for as ỹ flower of the grasse, shall he *vanish away.

f Or contemptible to the world.

11 For [as when] ỹ sunne riseth with heate, thē the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, & the beautie of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away in [all] his ‖ wayes.

Ecclus.14.18. isa.40.6.1.pet. 1.24.

‖ Or, in all his thoughts and deedes.

12 *Blessed [is] ỹ man, that endureth tentation: for whē he is tried, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

Iob.5.17.

13 Let

might sanctifie ỹ people with his owne blood, suffred without the gate.

13 Let vs go forth therefore out of the campe, bearing his reproch.

Mich.2.10. 14 *For here haue we no continuing citie: but we seeke one to come.

15 Let vs therefore by him offer the sacrifice of prayse alwayes to God, that is, the *fruite of the lips, which confesse his Name.

Hose.14.2.

h Thankesgiuing and doing good are our only sacrifices which please

16 hTo do good, and to distribute forget not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue ỹ ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accounts, that they may doe it with ioye, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 Pray for vs: for we are assured that we haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I desire you somewhat the more earnestly, that ye so do, that I may be restored to you more quickely.

20 The God of peace that brought againe frō the dead our Lorde Iesus, the great ishepheard of the sheepe, through the blood of the euerlasting Couenant, i Read Actes. 20.28. & Iohn 10.11.

21 Make you perfect in al good workes, to doe his will, working in you ỹ which is pleasant in his sight through Iesus Christ, to whom [be] prayse for euer and euer, Amen.

22 I beseech you also, brethren, suffer the wordes of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in fewe words.

23 Knowe that [our] brother Timotheus is deliuered, with whome (if hee come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouersight of you, & all the Saints. They of Italie salute you.

25 Grace [be] with you all, Amen.

Written to the Hebrewes from Italie, [and sent] by Timotheus.

*That is, written to no one man, citie or countrey, but to all ỹ Iewes generally, being nowe dispersed.

The *generall Epistle of Iames.

The Argvment.

Iames the Apostle and sonne of Alpheus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were conuerted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreys, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to be partiall, neither to boast of an idle faith, but to declare a true faith by liuely fruits, to auoyde ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to vtter their faults when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

2 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, 6 To be feruent in prayer with stedfast beliefe, 17 To looke for all good things from aboue, 21 To forsake all vice, and thankefully to receiue the word of God, 22 Not only hearing it, and speaking of it, but to do thereafter in deede. 27 What true religion is.

IAmes a seruant of God, and of the Lord IESVS CHRIST, to the twelue Tribes which are scattered abroade, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when ye fall into diuers ‖ tentations,

‖ Or, afflictions Rom.5.3.

3 *Knowing that the a trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

a Afflictions try our faith and ingender patience.

4 And let patience haue [her] b perfect worke, that yee may bee perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

b Our patience ought to continue to the ende till by working it hath polished vs and made vs perfect in Christ.

5 If any of you lacke c wisedome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shalbe giuen him.

c To endure patiently what soeuer God layeth vpon him.

6 *But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for hee that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and caried away.

Matt.7.7. mar. 11.24. luk.11.9. iohn. 14.13. and 16.23.

7 Neither let that man thinke that he shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 Ad ‖ wauering minded man [is] vnstable in all his wayes.

d Douting in doctrine, or of Gods will.

‖ Or, double.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is e exalted:

e That he is called to the company of Christ and his Angels.

10 Againe he that is rich, in that he is made f low: for as ỹ flower of the grasse, shall he *vanish away.

f Or contemptible to the world.

11 For [as when] ỹ sunne riseth with heate, thē the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, & the beautie of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away in [all] his ‖ wayes.

Ecclus.14.18. isa.40.6.1.pet. 1.24.

‖ Or, in all his thoughts and deedes.

12 *Blessed [is] ỹ man, that endureth tentation: for whē he is tried, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

Iob.5.17.

13 Let

‖Or, moued to euill.
g He meaneth nowe of the inwarde tentations as of our disordered appetites, which cause vs to sinne.

13 Let no man say whē he is ‖[g] tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But euery man is tempted whē he is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is entised.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

h Seeing, all good things come of God, we ought not to make him the author of euill.
i He alludeth vnto ỹ Sunne which in his course & turning sometime is cleare and bright, sometime darke and cloudie: but Gods liberalitie is euer like vnto it selfe, bright & continually shining. Pro. 17.27.

17 Euery good [h] giuing, & euery perfect gift is from aboue, and commeth downe from the father of lights, with whom is no variablenesse, [i] neither shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begat he vs with the word of trueth, that we should be as the first fruites of his creatures.

k That is, prompt to learne.
l For we can not heare God except we be peaceable, and modest.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, *let euery man bee [k] swift to heare, slowe to speake, [and] [l] slowe to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doth not accomplish the [m] righteousnes of God.

m But hindreth Gods worke in vs.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluitie of maliciousnesse, [and] receiue with meekenesse the worde that is [n] grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

n By hearing the word preached. Matth. 7.21. rom. 2.13.

22 *And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his naturall face in a [o] glasse.

o So Gods worde is a glasse wherein we must behold our selues and become like vnto him.

24 For when he hath considered him selfe, hee goeth his way, and forgetteth immediately what maner of one hee was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Lawe of libertie, and continueth [therein,] he not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed [p] in his deede.

p In so behauing himselfe.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, & refrayneth not his tongue, but deceiueth his own heart, this mans religion [is] vayne.

27 Pure religiō and vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherles, and widowes in their aduersitie, [and] to keepe him selfe vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, 5 But to regarde the poore as well as the rich, 8 To bee louing and mercifull, 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deedes are: 17 For it is but a dead fayth, where good workes followe not.

MY brethrē, haue not the faith of our glorious Lorde Iesus Christ [a] in ‖respect of persons.

a As esteeming faith and religion by the outwarde appearance of men.
‖Or, acceptation.

2 For if there come into your companie a man with a gold ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And yee haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footestoole, b That is, are ye not euill affectioned?

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, & are become iudges of euill [b] thoughts.

c Seeing God esteemeth them we may not contemne them.

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not [c] God chosen the poore of this world, [that they shoulde bee] rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which he promised to them that loue him?

d The name of God and Christ, whereof you make profession: and in that they dishonor God, it is not meete that you his children should honor them.

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the riche oppresse you by tyrannie, & do not they drawe you before the iudgement seates?

7 Do not they blaspheme the [d] worthie Name after which ye be named?

e Which is here taken prouerbially, for the hie or broad way, wherein there is no turnings & euery man can go it: so euery mā is our neighbour as well the poore as ỹ rich. Leuit. 19.18. matth. 12.39. mark. 12.31. rom. 13.9. galat. 5.14. Leuit. 19.15. deut. 1.17. and 16.19. Matth. 5.19. Exod. 20.14. deut. 5.18.

8 But if yee fulfill the [e] royall Lawe according to the scripture, [which saith,] *Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 *But if yee regarde the persons, ye commit sinne, & are rebuked of the lawe, as transgressours.

10 For *whosoeuer shall keepe the whole Lawe, [and] yet fayleth in one [poynt,] he is guiltie of all.

11 For he that saide, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie, saide also, Thou shalt not kill. Nowe though thou doest none adulterie, yet if ỹ killest, thou art a transgressour of the Lawe.

f By the mercie of God which deliuereth vs from the curse of the Lawe.

12 So speake yee, and so doe, as they that shall bee iudged by the [f] Lawe of libertie.

g And feareth it not.

13 For there shalbe iudgement merciless to him that sheweth no mercy, and mercy [g] reioyceth against iudgement.

h S. Paul to the Romanes and Galatians, disputeth against them which attributed iustificatiō to the workes: and here S. Iames reasoneth against them, which vtterly condemne workes: therefore Paul sheweth the causes of our iustification, & here howe wee are knowen to be iustified: there workes are excluded as not the cause of our iustification: here they are approued as effects proceeding thereof: there they are denyed to go before them that shalbe iustified: and here they are said to followe them that are iustified. Luk. 3.11. 1. iohn. 3.17.

14 What auayleth it, my brethren, though a man saith he hath [h] faith, whē he hath no woorkes? can the fayth saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be *naked, and destitute of daily foode,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, & fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee giue them not those things which are needefull to the bodie, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so ỹ faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might saye, Thou hast [i] the faith, & I haue workes: shewe me thy faith out of thy ‖ [k] workes, & I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that ỹ faith [which is] without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when hee offred Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest ỹ not that ỹ faith [l] wrought with his workes? and through ỹ workes was the faith made [m] perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, * Abraham beleeued God, & it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: & he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that of workes, a man is [n] iustified, & not [o] of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * [p] Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, whē shee had receiued the messengers, & sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euē [q] so the faith without workes is dead.

i In thine owne opinion.
‖ Or, without workes.
k Here deedes are considered as ioyned with true faith.
l So that faith was not idle.
m The more his faith was declared by his obedience & good workes, the more was it knowen to men to be perfect, as the goodnesse of a tree is knowen by her good fruite, otherwise no man can haue perfection in this world: for euery man must pray for remission of his sinnes, and increase of faith. Gene. 15.6. rom. 4.3. gal. 3.6.
n Is so knowen & declared to man.
o Of that baren and dead faith where of ye boast. Iosh. 2.1.
p Meaning hereby al them that were not Iewes, and were receiued to grace.
q Wherefore wee are iustified onely by that liuely faith, which doeth apprehende the mercy of God toward vs in Iesus Christ.

6 And ỹ tongue is fire, [yea,] a [d] world of wickednes: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and [e] setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beasts, & of birdes, and of creeping things, & things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But ỹ tongue can no man tame. [It is] an vnruly euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God euen the Father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing & cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountaine send forth at one place sweete [water] and bitter?

12 Can ỹ figge tree, my brethren, bring forth oliues, either a vyne figges? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweete.

13 Who is a wise man & endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his woorkes in meekenesse of wisedome.

14 But if ye haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither be lyers against the trueth.

15 This wisedome descendeth not from aboue, but [is] earthly, sensuall, and deuilish.

16 For where enuing and strife [is,] there [is] sedition, and all maner of euill workes.

17 But the wisedome that [is] from aboue, is first [f] pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be entreated, ful of mercy and good fruites without [g] iudging, & without hypocrisie.

18 And the [h] fruite of righteousnes is sowen in peace, of thē that make peace.

d An heape & full measure of all iniquitie.
e The intemperancie of the tongue is as a flame of hell fire.
f Without mixtion & dissimulation.
g And examining things to extremerigour as hypocrites, who onely iustifie thēselues, and cōdemne all others.
h So ỹ their life is according to their profession.

CHAP. III.

1 He forbiddeth al ambition to seeke honour aboue our brethrē. 3 He describeth the propertie of the tongue, 15.16 And what difference there is betwixt the wisedome of God, and the wisdome of the world.

Be not [a] many maisters, my brethren, knowing that wee shal receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many thinges wee ‖ [b] sinne all. * If any man sinne not in [c] worde, hee is a perfect man, and able to bridle all the bodie.

3 Behold, we put bits into the horses mouthes that they shoulde obey vs, and we turne about all their bodie.

4 Behold also ỹ ships, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whithersoeuer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a litle member, and boasteth of great thinges: beholde, how great a ‖ thing a little fire kindleth.

a Usurpe not through ambition authoritie ouer your brethren.
‖ Or, stumble.
b He that well considereth himselfe, shall not be rigorous toward his brethren. Eccles. 14.1. & 19.16. & 25.8.
c He that is able to moderate his tōgue, hath attained to an excellent vertue.
‖ Or, matter.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hauing shewed the cause of all wrong, and wickednesse, and also of al graces & goodnes, 4 He exhorteth thē to loue God, 7 And submit them selues to him, 11 Not speaking euill of their neighbours, 13 But patiently to depende on Gods prouidence.

From whence [are] warres and cōtentions among you? are they not hence, [euen] of your lusts, that [a] fight in your members?

2 Ye lust, and haue not: ye enuie, and haue indignation, and cannot obteine: ye fight and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske, and receiue not because yee aske a For the lawe of the members continually fighteth against the lawe of the minde.

aske amisse, that ye might consume it on your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers & [b]adulteresses, know ye not that the amitie of the worlde is the enimitie of God? *Whosoeuer therefore will bee a friend of the worlde, maketh himselfe the enemie of God.

5 Doe yee thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The [c] spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But [the Scripture] offreth more grace, [&] therefore saith, *God resisteth the proud, & giueth grace to the humble.

7 *Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw neere to God, and hee will draw neere to you. Cleanse your handes ye sinners, & purge your hearts, yee wauering minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, & [d] sorow ye, and weepe: let your laughter be turned into mourning, and [your] ioy into heauines.

10 *Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

11 Speake not euill one of another, brethren. Hee that speaketh euill of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euil of the Law, and [e] condemneth the Law: and if thou condemnest the Lawe, thou art not an obseruer of the Law, but a iudge.

12 There is one [f] Lawgiuer which is able to saue, & to destroy. *who art thou that iudgest another man?

13 Go to now ye that say, [g] To day or to morow we will go into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gaine,

14 (And yet ye can not tell what [shal be] to morrowe. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and afterwarde vanisheth away)

15 For that yee ought to say, *If the Lord will, and, If we liue, wee will do this or that.

16 But nowe yee reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 Therfore, [h] to him ỳ knoweth how to do well, & doth it not, to him it is sinne.

b He calleth adulterers here after the maner of the Scriptures, them which preferre the pleasures of the world to the loue of God. 1.Iohn 2.15.

c The imagination of mãs heart is wicked, Gen.6,5. and 8.21. Pro.3,34. 1.pet.5.5. Ephes.4.27.

d The Greeke worde signifieth that heauines, which is ioyned with a certaine shamefastnes, as appeareth in the countenance. 1.Pet.5,6.

e In vsurping the authoritie of iudging, which is due to the lawe.

f He sheweth that this seuere iudging of others is to depriue God of his authoritie. Rom.14.4.

g We ought to submit our selues to the prouidence of God.

Acts.18.21. 1.cor.4.19.

h He answereth to them, which said they knewe what was good, but they would not do it.

CHAP. V.

2 He threatneth ỳ wicked rich men, 7 Exhorteth vnto pacience, 12 To beware of swearing, 16 One to knowledge his faults to another, 20 And one to labor to bring another to the truth.

O to nowe, yee rich men: weepe, and [a] howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

a He menaceth them with the vengeance of God, which shal not only make them to weepe, but to houle and dispaire.

2 Your riches are corrupt: and your garments are motheaten.

3 Your gold & siluer is cankred, and the rust of them shalbe a [b] witnes against you, and shal eate your flesh as [it were] fire. *Ye haue heaped vp treasure for the [c] last daies.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers, which haue reaped your fieldes (which is of you kept backe by fraude) crieth, and the cryes of them which haue reaped, are entred into ỳ eares of the Lord of hostes.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on ỳ earth, and in wantonnesse. Ye haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of [d] slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned [and] haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, vnto the comming of the Lord. Beholde, the husbandman wayteth for the precious fruite of the earth, and hath lõg pacience for it, vntill he receiue the [e] former, and the latter raine.

8 Be ye also patient therefore & settle your hearts: for the cõming of the Lord draweth neere.

9 [f] Grudge not one against another, brethren, least ye be condemned: behold, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, & of long patience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lord.

11 Beholde, wee count them blessed which endure. Ye haue heard of the pacience of Job, and haue knowen what end the Lord [made.] For the Lorde is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But before al things, my brethren, *sweare not, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your [g] yea, be yea, and [your] nay, nay, least ye fall into ‖ condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any mery? Let him sing.

14 Is any sicke amõg you? Let him call for the [h] Elders of the Church, & let them pray for him, & anoynt him with *[i] oyle in the [k] Name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall saue the sicke, and the Lorde shall raise him vp: and if he haue cõmitted sinne, it shall be forgiuen him.

16 Acknowledge [l] your faultes one to another, & pray one for another, that ye may be healed: for ỳ prayer of a righteous man auaileth much, if it be feruent.

17 *Helias was a man subiect to like passions as we are, and hee prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained b And kindle the wrath of God against you. Rom.2.5.

c To suffice till the end of the world.

d Which were the daies of the sacrifices or feasts, whẽ they vsed to banket and feede more abundantly then other dayes.

e Which is when the corne is sowen and a little before it is mowen.

f Be not grieued nor aske vengeance. Mat.5.34.

g That which must be affirmed, affirme it simply & without other: likewise ỳ which must be denied: by this he taketh not from the magistrate his authoritie who may require an othe for the maintenãce of iustice, iudgemẽt, and trueth.

‖ Or, hypocrisie

h The gift of healig was thẽ in the Church. Mar.6.13.

i Which in those daies was a signe of the gift of healing, but now ỳ gift being taken away, the signe is to no vse.

k In calling on the name of the Lord.

l Open that which grieueth you, that a remedy may be found: and this is commanded both for him ỳ complaineth, & for him ỳ heareth, that the one shold shew his griefe to the other.

1.King.17.1. ecclus.48.3. luke 4.25.

ned not on the earth for three yeeres and sixe moneths.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you hath erred from the truth, and some man hath conuerted him,

20 Let him know that he which hath conuerted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, & shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

The Argument.

He exhorteth the faythfull to deny themselues, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heauenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reueiled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by fayth, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holines of life. And to the intent this faith should not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole worlde, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that hee should bee the stumbling stone to the reprobate and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to go forward, considering what they were, & to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular poynts, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and howe maried folkes ought to behaue themselues. And because it is appointed for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good yssue their afflictions shall haue, & contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselues, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 And how faith must be tried, 10 That the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophecied of olde. 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, forasmuch as they are now borne anewe by the worde of God.

PEter an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to [a] the strangers that dwell here & there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, a Which were Iewes to whom he was appointed to be an Apostle.

2 Elect according to the [b] foreknowledge of God ỹ Father vnto sanctificatiõ of the spirite, ‖ through [c] obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace & peace be multiplied vnto you.

b The free election of God is the efficient cause of our saluation, the materiall cause is Christs obedience, our effectual calling is the formall cause, and the finall cause is our sanctification.

‖Or, vnto obedience.

c To wit of Christ. 2.Cor.1.3. ephe.1.3.

3 *Blessed [be] God euen the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten vs againe vnto a [d] liuely hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ frõ ỹ dead,

d For it is but dead and vaine hope which is without Christ

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in [e] heauen for you,

e Therefore they ought to looke for no earthly kingdome of the Messias.

5 Which are kept by ỹ power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the [f] last time:

f At the day of iudgement.

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though nowe for a season (if neede [g] require) yee are in heauines, through manifold tẽtatiõs, g And neede doth so require when it pleaseth God to lay his crosse vpon his, for to drawe them frõ earthly things & make thẽ partakers of his heauenly graces.

7 That the triall of your fayth, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it be tried with fire) might be founde vnto [your] prayse, and honour and glorie, at the [h] appearing of Jesus Christ:

h At his secõd comming.

8 Whome ye haue not seene, and yet loue [him,] in whome nowe, though ye see him not, yet do you beleeue, & reioyce with ioye vnspeakeable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the ‖ ende of your faith, [euen] the saluation of your soules.

‖Or, rewarde.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue inquired & searched, which prophecied of ỹ grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testifieth before of Christ which was in them, should declare the suffrings [that should come] vnto Christ, and the glorie that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reueiled, that [i] not vnto themselues, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are nowe shewed vnto you by them which *haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holy Ghost sent downe frõ heauen, ỹ which things ỹ Angels desire to behold.

i Their ministery was more profitable to vs then to them: for we see the things accomplished which they prophecied. Acts.2.4.

13 Wherefore, [k] girde vp the *loynes of your minde: bee sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the [l] reuelation of Jesus Christ, k Prepare your selues to the Lord. Luk.12.35.

l Until his second cõming.

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto ỹ former [m] lustes of your ignorance:

m When you were in ignorance & knewe not Christ.

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so bee yee holy in *all maner of conuersation, Luk.1.75.

16 Because it is written, *Be ye holy, for Leui.11.44. & 19.2. & 20.7.

ned not on the earth for three yeeres and sixe moneths.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you hath erred from the truth, and some man hath conuerted him,

20 Let him know that he which hath conuerted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, & shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

The Argument.

He exhorteth the faythfull to deny themselues, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heauenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reueiled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by fayth, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holines of life. And to the intent this faith should not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole worlde, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that hee should bee the stumbling stone to the reprobate and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to go forward, considering what they were, & to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular poynts, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and howe maried folkes ought to behaue themselues. And because it is appointed for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good yssue their afflictions shall haue, & contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselues, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 And how faith must be tried, 10 That the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophecied of olde. 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, forasmuch as they are now borne anewe by the worde of God.

PEter an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to [a] the strangers that dwell here & there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, a Which were Iewes to whom he was appointed to be an Apostle.

2 Elect according to the [b] foreknowledge of God ỹ Father vnto sanctificatiõ of the spirite, ‖ through [c] obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace & peace be multiplied vnto you.

b The free election of God is the efficient cause of our saluation, the materiall cause is Christs obedience, our effectual calling is the formall cause, and the finall cause is our sanctification.

‖Or, vnto obedience.

c To wit of Christ. 2.Cor.1.3. ephe.1.3.

3 *Blessed [be] God euen the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten vs againe vnto a [d] liuely hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ frõ ỹ dead,

d For it is but dead and vaine hope which is without Christ

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in [e] heauen for you,

e Therefore they ought to looke for no earthly kingdome of the Messias.

5 Which are kept by ỹ power of God through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the [f] last time:

f At the day of iudgement.

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though nowe for a season (if neede [g] require) yee are in heauines, through manifold tẽtatiõs,

g And neede doth so require when it pleaseth God to lay his crosse vpon his, for to drawe them frõ earthly things & make thẽ partakers of his heauenly graces.

7 That the triall of your fayth, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it be tried with fire) might be founde vnto [your] prayse, and honour and glorie, at the [h] appearing of Jesus Christ:

h At his secõd comming.

8 Whome ye haue not seene, and yet loue [him,] in whome nowe, though ye see him not, yet do you beleeue, & reioyce with ioye vnspeakeable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the ‖ ende of your faith, [euen] the saluation of your soules.

‖Or, rewarde.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue inquired & searched, which prophecied of ỹ grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testifieth before of Christ which was in them, should declare the suffrings [that should come] vnto Christ, and the glorie that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reueiled, that [i] not vnto themselues, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are nowe shewed vnto you by them which *haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holy Ghost sent downe frõ heauen, ỹ which things ỹ Angels desire to behold.

i Their ministery was more profitable to vs then to them: for we see the things accomplished which they prophecied. Acts.2.4.

13 Wherefore, [k] girde vp the *loynes of your minde: bee sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the [l] reuelation of Jesus Christ, k Prepare your selues to the Lord. Luk.12.35.

l Until his second cõming.

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto ỹ former [m] lustes of your ignorance:

m When you were in ignorance & knewe not Christ.

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so bee yee holy in *all maner of conuersation, Luk.1.75.

16 Because it is written, *Be ye holy, for Leui.11.44. & 19.2. & 20.7.

for I am holy.

17 And if yee call him Father, which without * respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans [n] worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing ỹ ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, [as] siluer and gold, frō your vaine conuersation, receiued by the traditions of the [o] fathers, 19 * But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lambe vndefiled, and without spot.

20 Which was * ordeined before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the [p] last times for your sakes, 21 Which by his meanes do beleue in God that raised him from the dead, and gaue him glory, that your faith & hope might be in God.

22 Seeing your soules are purified in obeying the trueth through the spirit, to * loue brotherly without feyning, loue one another with a pure heart feruētly, 23 Being borne anewe, not of mortall seede, but of [q] immortall, by the worde of God, who liueth & endureth for euer.

24 For all * flesh [is] as grasse, and al the glory of mā [is] as ỹ flower of grasse. The grasse withereth, and the flower falleth away.

25 But ỹ word of the Lord endureth for euer: and this is the worde which is preached among you.

n According to ỹ synceritie of the heart.

o Reade Ezekiel.20.18. 1.Cor.6.20.& 7.23.heb.9.14 1.iohn.1.7. reuel.1.5. Rom.16.25. ephe.3.9.col. 1.26.2. tim.1. 9.tit.1.2.

p When Christ appeared vnto the world, and when the Gospel was preached.

Rom.12.10. ephe.4.2. chap.2.17.

q Therefore we must renounce our former nature. Isa.40.6.ecclus 14.18.iam. 1.10.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them to lay aside all vice, 4 Shewing ỹ Christ is the foundation whereupon they builde. 9 The excellent estate of the Christians. 11 He prayeth them to abstaine frō fleshly lustes. 13 To obey the rulers. 18 Howe seruantes shoulde behaue them selues toward their masters. 20 He exhorteth to suffer after the ensample of Christ.

Rom.6.4. ephe.4.23,25. col.3.8.heb. 12.1.

Wherefore, * laying aside al maliciousnes & all guile, and dissimulation, and enuie, and all euill speaking,

2 As newe borne babes desire [a] the ‖syncere milke of the worde, that ye may growe thereby, a In this their infancie and newe cōming to Christ, he willeth them to take heede lest for the pure milke, which is the first beginnings of learning the syncere word, they be not deceiued by them which chop & change it, and giue poyson in stead thereof. ‖Or, the milke of vnderstanding which is without deceit.

3 If so bee that yee haue tasted howe bountifull the Lord [is.]

4 To whom ye come as vnto a liuing stone disalowed of men, but chosen of God [and] precious.

5 And yee as liuely stones, be made a spirituall house, and holy * Priesthood to offer vp spirituall sacrifices acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore it is conteined in ỹ scripture, * Behold, I put in [b] Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: & he that beleeueth therein, shall not be ashamed.

Reue.1.6. Isa.28.16.rom.9.33. b Meaning that God hath appointed Christ to be chiefe and head of his Church.

7 Unto you therfore which beleeue, it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the * stone which the [c] builders disalowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

Psal.118.22. mat.21.42. actes 4.11.

c The Priests, doctors and ancients of the people. Isa.8.14. rom.9.33.

8 And a * stone to stumble at, & a rocke of offence, euen [to them] which stumble at ỹ word being disobedient, vnto the which thing they were euen ordeined.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a [d] royall * Priesthoode, an holy nation, a ‖peculiar people, that ye shoulde shewe forth the vertues of him that hath called you out of darkenesse into his marueilous light, d That is, partakers of Christs Priesthoode & kingdome. Exod.19.6. reue.5.10.

10 * Which in time past were not a people, yet [are] now the people of God: which in time past were not vnder mercie, but nowe haue obteined mercie:

‖Or, gotten by purchase. Hose.2.23. rom.9.25.

11 Dearely beloued, I beseech you, as straungers and pilgrims, * abstaine from fleshly lustes, which fight against the soule,

Gal.5.16. rom.13.14.

12 * And haue your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that they which speake euill of you as of euill doers, may by [your] * good workes which they shall see, glorifie God in the day of [e] the visitation.

Chap.3.16. Mat.5.16.

e Your good conuersation shall be as a preparatiue against that day that God shall shewe mercie vnto them & turne them.

13 * Submit your selues vnto al ‖ maner ordināce of man for the Lords sake, whether it be vnto the King, as vnto the superiour, Rom.13.1. ‖Or, publike gouernement.

14 Or vnto gouernours, as vnto thē that are sent of him, for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men, Chap.1.22. rom.12.10.

16 As free, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloke of maliciousnes, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men: * loue [f] brotherly fellowshippe: feare God: honour the King.

f With them which acknowledge one selfe Father in heauen. Eph.6.5. col.3.22.

18 * Seruants, bee subiect to your masters with all feare, not onely to the good and courteous, but also to the [g] frowarde.

g In all obedience: this must be before our eyes, that we obey in the Lorde: for if any commaund things against God, then let vs answere, It is better to obey God then men.

19 * For this is thanke worthie, if a man for [h] conscience toward God endure griefe suffering wrongfully.

2.Cor.7.10.

20 For what praise is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faultes, ye take it patiently: but and if when ye doe well, ye suffer [wrong] and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

h Knowing that God layeth this charge vpon him.

21 For hereunto ye are called: for Christ also suffred for vs, leauing vs an ensample that ye should followe his steppes.

Isai.53.9. 1.iohn 3.9.

22 *Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 Who When he was reuiled, reuiled not againe: When he suffered, he threatned not, but cõmitted it to him that iudgeth righteously.

Isai.53.5. matth.8.17.

24 *Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that wee being deliuered from sinne, shoulde liue in righteousnesse: by Whose stripes yee were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepe going astray: but are nowe returned vnto ỹ shepherd and Bishop of your soules.

CHAP. III.

1 Howe wiues ought to order them selues towarde their husbandes, 3 And in their apparell. 7 The duetie of men toward their wiues. 8 He exhorteth all men to vnitie and loue, 14 And pacietly to suffer trouble by the example and benefite of Christ.

Colos.3.18. ephe.5.22. 1.Tim.2.9. Gene.18.11.

LIkewise *let the wiues bee subiect to their husbands that euen they which obey not the word, may without the word bee wonne by the conuersation of the wiues,

‖Or, master. a But willingly do your dutie: for your condition is not the worse for your obedience.

2 while they beholde your pure conuersation, which is With feare.

3 *Whose apparelling let it not be outward, [as] With broyded heare, & golde put about, or in putting on of apparell.

4 But let ỹ hid man of ỹ heart be vncorrupt, with a meeke and quiet spirite, which is before God a thing much set by.

5 For euen after this maner in time past did the holy Women, which trusted in God, tier them selues, & were subiect to their husbands.

6 As Sarra obeyed Abraham, and *called him ‖ Syr: Whose daughters ye are, Whiles ye do well, not being [a] afraid of any terrour.

7 *Likewise ye husbands, dwel With them as men of [b] knowledge, [c] giuing honour vnto the woman, as vnto the weaker vessell, euen as they which are [d] heires together of the grace of life, that your [e] prayers be not interrupted.

8 Finally, be ye all of one minde: one sufferwith another: loue as brethren: [be] pitifull: [be] courteous,

9 *Not rendring euil for euill, neither rebuke for rebuke: but contrariwise blesse, knowing that yee are thereunto called, ỹ ye should be [f] heires of blessing.

10 *For if any man long after life, and to see good dayes, let him refraine his tongue from euill, and his lippes that they speake not guile.

Isa.1.16.

11 *Let him eschew euil and do good: let him seeke peace, and followe after it.

12 For the eies of the Lord [are] ouer the righteous, and his eares [are open] vnto their prayers: and the face of the Lorde [g][is] vpon them that doe euill.

g To take bengeance on him.

13 And Who is it that Wil harme you, if ye followe that Which is good?

14 *Notwithstãding blessed [are ye,] if ye suffer for righteousnesse sake. Yea, [h]feare not their feare, neither be troubled.

Mat.5.10.

h That is, when they thinke to make you afraid by their threatnings. Isa.8.13.

15 *But [i] sanctifie the Lorde God in your heartes: and be readie alwayes to giue an answere to euery man ỹ asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, i Giue him praise and depend on him. Chap.2.12.

16 *[And that] With meekenesse and reuerence, hauing a good cõscience, that When they speake euill of you as of euill doers, they may be ashamed, Which blame your good conuersation in Christ.

Rom.5.6. heb.9.15,28.

17 For [it is] better (if the Will of God be so) that ye suffer for Well doing, then for euill doing.

18 *For Christ also hath once suffred for sinnes, the iust for the vniust, that he might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the [k] Spirite.

k By the power of God.

19 By the Which [l] he also went, and preached vnto the spirits ỹ [are] in prison

l Christ being from the beginning head and gouernor of his Church, came in the dayes of Noe, not in body, which then he had not, but in spirit, and preached by the mouth of Noe for the space of 120. yeeres to the disobedient, which woulde not repent, & therefore are nowe in prison reserued to the last iudgemẽt. Gen.6.14. mat.24.38. luke 17.26.

20 Which were in time passed disobedient, When once the long suffering of God abode in ỹ daies of *Noe, While the arke was preparing, Wherein few, that is, eight ‖ soules were saued in ỹ Water.

‖Or, persons.

21 To the Which also the figure that nowe saueth vs, [euen] Baptisme [agreeth] (not the putting away of ỹ filth of the flesh, but in ‖ that a good conscience maketh request to God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

‖Or, the taking to witnes of a good conscience. Heb.1.3.

22 Which is* at ỹ right hand of God, gone into heauen, to Whom the Angels, and Powers, and might are subiect.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth men to cease from sinne, 2 To spende no more time in vice, 7 To be sober and apt to pray, 8 To loue eche other, 12 To be patient in trouble, 15 To beware that no man suffer as an euill doer, 16 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

FOr as much then as Christ hath suffred for vs in ỹ flesh, Harme your selues likewise With ỹ same [a] minde, [Which is,] that he Which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne, a Our sanctification standeth in two points, in dying to sinne, and liuing to God.

2 That he henceforward should liue (as f God hath made vs When we were his enemies, heires of his kingdome, and shall not we forgiue our brethren a small faulte? Psalm.34.13.

c Taking care and prouiding for her.

d Man ought to loue his wife, because they leade their life together, also for that she is the weaker vessell, but chiefly because that God hath made them as it were fellowe heires together of life euerlasting.

e For they can not pray When they are at dissension. Prou.17.13, & 20.22. matt.5.39. rom.12.17. 1.thes.5.15.

b By neither keeping them too straite, nor in giuing them too much libertie.

..Cor.7.3.

‖Or, body.

(as much time as remaineth in ỹ ‖ flesh) not after the lustes of men, but after the will of God.

Ephe.4.22.

3 *For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gētiles, walking in wantonnes, lustes, drunkennes, in gluttonie, drinkings, & in abominable idolatries.

4 Wherein it seemeth to them strāge, that ye runne not with them vnto the same excesse of ryote: [therefore] speake they euill [of you.]

5 Which shall giue accountes to him, that is readie to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospell preached also vnto the [b] dead, that they might be condemned, according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the spirit.

b Although the wicked think this gospell newe, and here you that embrace it: yet, hath it bene preached to them of time past, which nowe are dead, to the intent ỹ they might haue bene condemned, or dead to sinne in the flesh, and also might haue liued to God in the Spirit, which two are the effect of the Gospell.

7 Nowe the ende of all things is at hande. Be ye therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboue all things haue feruent loue among you: * for [c] loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

Prou.10.12.

c As hate moueth vs to reproch our brother when he offendeth vs: so loue hideth and pardoneth the faultes which he committeth against vs, though they be neuer so many.

9 *Be ye harberous one to another, without grudging.

Rom.12.13. heb.13.2.

10 *Let euery man as he hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good disposers of the manifold grace of God.

Rom.12.6. phil.2.14.

11 If any man speake, [let him talke] as the wordes of God. If any man ministre, [let him doe it] as of the ability which God ministreth, that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom is praise and dominion for euer, and euer, Amen.

Mat.5.10.

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery triall, which is among you to proue you, as though some strāge thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as ye are partakers of Christes sufferings, that when his glorie shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 *If ye be rayled vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed [are ye:] for the spirit of glorie, and of God resteth vpon you: [which] on their [d] part is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

d That is, by the Infidels.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murtherer, or [as] a thiefe, or an euill doer, or as a busie bodie in others mēs matters.

16 But if [any man suffer] as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

‖Or, punishment.

17 For ỹ time [is come,] that ‖ iudgement must begin at *ỹ house of God. If it first [begin] at vs, what shal ỹ end be of thē which obey not the Gospel of God?

Iere.25.29. luke 23.31.

18 *And if the righteous scarcely be [e] saued, where shall the vngodly and the sinner appeare?

Prou.2.21,22.

e As concerning this life where he is punished.

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit their soules [to him] in well doing, as vnto a faithfull Creator.

CHAP. V.

2 The duetie of Pastours is to feede the flocke of Christ, and what rewarde they shall haue, if they be diligent. 5 He exhorteth yong persons to submit them selues to the Elders, 8 To be sober, & to watch that they may resist the enemie.

THe [a] elders which are among you, I beseech which am also an Elder, and a witnesse of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glorie that shall be reuealed, a By Elders he vnderstandeth all them which preach, teach, or minister in the Church.

2 Feede the flocke of ‖ God, which ‖ dependeth vpon you, caring for it not by constraint, but willingly: not for filthie lucre, but of a readie minde:

‖Or, Christ.

‖Or, which is committed vnto you, or, as much as in you lyeth.

3 Not as though ye were Lordes ouer [Gods] heritage, but that ye may be ensamples to the flocke.

4 And whē the chiefe shepherd shall appeare, ye shal receiue an incorruptible crowne of glorie.

5 Likewise ye yonger, submit your selues vnto the elders, and submit your selues euery man, one to another: *decke your selues inwardly in lowlinesse of minde: for God * resisteth the proude, and giueth grace to the humble.

Rom.12.10.

Iam.4.6.

6 *Humble * your selues therefore vnder the mightie hande of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

Iam.4.10. Psal.55.22. wisd.12.13. mat.6.25. luke 12.22. Luke 22.31.

7 Cast * all your care on him: for he careth for you.

8 Be sober & watch: for *your aduersarie ỹ deuill as a roaring lyon walketh about, seeking whome he may deuoure:

9 Whome resist stedfast in the faith, knowing [b] that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren which are in the worlde.

b Nothing commeth vnto vs, which we see not to apperteine to the rest of Christs members: and therefore we ought not to refuse that condition which is common to all the Saints.

10 And the God of all grace, which hath called vs vnto his eternall glorie by Christ Jesus, after that ye haue suffered a litle, make you perfect, confirme, strengthen and stablish [you.]

11 To him [be] glorie and dominion for euer and euer. Amen.

12 By Syluanus a faithfull brother vnto you, as I suppose, haue I written briefly, exhorting and testifying howe that this is the true grace of GOD, wherein ye stande.

13 [The

c Which was a famous citie in Assyria, where Peter then was the Apostle of the circumcision.

13 [The Church] that is at cBabylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and Marcus my sonne.

14 Greete ye one another with the *kisse of loue. Peace [be] with you all which are in Christ Jesus. Amen. Rom.16.16. 1.cor.16.20. 2.cor.13.12.

The second Epistle generall of Peter.

The Argvment.

THe effect of the Apostle here is to exhorte them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stande to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men, moueth them to holinesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, and in increasing his giftes in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being nowe almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as he had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes towarde heauen, as they be taught by the Gospell, whereof he is a cleare witnesse, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And least they shoulde promes to them selues quietnesse by professing the Gospell, he warneth them both of troubles which they shoulde susteine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners & trade he liuely setteth forth as in a table: aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his comming, and to preserue them selues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 For as much as the power of God hath giuen thē all things perteining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lusts, 10 To make their calling sure with good workes, and fruites of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lorde Jesus to be the true Sonne of God, as he himselfe had seene vpon the mount.

SImon Peter a seruant and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to you which haue obteyned like precious faith with vs by the a righteousnesse of our God and Sauiour Jesus Christ:

a In that he declared him selfe iust and faithfull in accomplishing his promise by Christ.

2 Grace and peace be multiplyed to you, by the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lorde,

3 According as his b godly power hath giuē vnto vs all things ẏ [perteine] vnto c life and godlinesse, d through the knowledge of him that hath called vs ‖ vnto glorie and vertue.

b He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Sauiour.
c That is, saluation.
d The summe of our saluation and religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.
‖ Or, through his glorie.

4 Whereby most great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by thē ye shoulde be partakers of the e godly nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the worlde through lust.

e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that we flee the corruption of the world: or as Paul writeth are dead to sinne and are not in the flesh.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer f vertue with your faith: & with vertue, knowledge:

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: & with patience, godlinesse:

f Godly maners.

7 And w̄ godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse: and with brotherly kindnes, loue.

8 For if these thinges be among you, and abounde, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle, nor vnfruitfull in the knowledge of our Lorde Jesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these thinges, is blinde, and g can not see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged frō his olde sinnes.

g The Greeke worde signifieth him, that naturally can not see, except he holdeth neere his eyes. So Peter calleth such as cannot see heauenly things which are farre off, purblinde, or sandblinde.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election h sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer i fall.

h Albeit it be sure in it selfe, forasmuch as God can not change: yet we must confirme it in our selues, by the fruites of the Spirit, knowing that the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth, and iustifieth vs.
i For God will euer vpholde you.

11 For by this meanes an entring shal be ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lorde and Sauiour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I wil not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these thinges, though ẏ ye haue knowledge, & be stablished in ẏ present trueth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this k tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance.

k In this bodie, 2. Cor. 5. 3, 4.

14 Seeing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lorde Jesus Christ hath * shewed me. Iohn 21.18.

15 I wil endeuour therfore alwaies, that ye also may be able to haue remembrāce of these things after my departing

16 For we followed not * ‖ deceiueable fables whē we opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lorde Jesus Christ, but with our eyes we sawe his maiestie: 1.Cor.1.19. and 2.1.

‖ Or, sophisticall and crafty.

17 For he receiued of God the Father honour & glorie, when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent glorie, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am well pleased. Mat.17.5.

18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the l holy mount.

l For by Christes presence it was for the time holy.

19 We

c Which was a famous citie in Assyria, where Peter then was the Apostle of the circumcision.

13 [The Church] that is at cBabylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and Marcus my sonne.

14 Greete ye one another with the *kisse of loue. Peace [be] with you all which are in Christ Jesus. Amen. Rom.16.16. 1.cor.16.20. 2.cor.13.12.

The second Epistle generall of Peter.

The Argvment.

THe effect of the Apostle here is to exhorte them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stande to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men, moueth them to holinesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, and in increasing his giftes in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being nowe almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as he had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes towarde heauen, as they be taught by the Gospell, whereof he is a cleare witnesse, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And least they shoulde promes to them selues quietnesse by professing the Gospell, he warneth them both of troubles which they shoulde susteine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners & trade he liuely setteth forth as in a table: aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his comming, and to preserue them selues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 For as much as the power of God hath giuen thē all things perteining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lusts, 10 To make their calling sure with good workes, and fruites of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lorde Jesus to be the true Sonne of God, as he himselfe had seene vpon the mount.

SImon Peter a seruant and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to you which haue obteyned like precious faith with vs by the a righteousnesse of our God and Sauiour Jesus Christ:

a In that he declared him selfe iust and faithfull in accomplishing his promise by Christ.

2 Grace and peace be multiplyed to you, by the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lorde,

3 According as his b godly power hath giuē vnto vs all things ẏ [perteine] vnto c life and godlinesse, d through the knowledge of him that hath called vs ‖ vnto glorie and vertue.

b He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Sauiour.
c That is, saluation.
d The summe of our saluation and religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.
‖ Or, through his glorie.

4 Whereby most great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by thē ye shoulde be partakers of the e godly nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the worlde through lust.

e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that we flee the corruption of the world: or as Paul writeth are dead to sinne and are not in the flesh.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer f vertue with your faith: & with vertue, knowledge:

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: & with patience, godlinesse:

f Godly maners.

7 And w̄ godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse: and with brotherly kindnes, loue.

8 For if these thinges be among you, and abounde, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle, nor vnfruitfull in the knowledge of our Lorde Jesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these thinges, is blinde, and g can not see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged frō his olde sinnes.

g The Greeke worde signifieth him, that naturally can not see, except he holdeth neere his eyes. So Peter calleth such as cannot see heauenly things which are farre off, purblinde, or sandblinde.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election h sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer i fall.

h Albeit it be sure in it selfe, forasmuch as God can not change: yet we must confirme it in our selues, by the fruites of the Spirit, knowing that the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth, and iustifieth vs.
i For God will euer vpholde you.

11 For by this meanes an entring shal be ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lorde and Sauiour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I wil not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these thinges, though ẏ ye haue knowledge, & be stablished in ẏ present trueth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this k tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance.

k In this bodie, 2. Cor. 5. 3, 4.

14 Seeing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lorde Jesus Christ hath * shewed me. Iohn 21.18.

15 I wil endeuour therfore alwaies, that ye also may be able to haue remembrāce of these things after my departing

16 For we followed not * ‖ deceiueable fables whē we opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lorde Jesus Christ, but with our eyes we sawe his maiestie: 1.Cor.1.19. and 2.1.

‖ Or, sophisticall and crafty.

17 For he receiued of God the Father honour & glorie, when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent glorie, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whome I am well pleased. Mat.17.5.

18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the l holy mount.

l For by Christes presence it was for the time holy.

19 We

m That is, the doctrine of the Prophets.

19 We haue also a most sure [m] Worde of the Prophets, to the which ye doe well, that ye take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the [n] day dawne, and the [o] day starre arise in your heartes.

n A perfecter knowledge the vnder the law.

o Meaning, Christ the sunne of iustice, by his Gospell. 2.Tim.3.16.

20 *So that ye first knowe this, that no prophecie in the Scripture is of [p] any priuate ‖ motion.

p Commeth not of men.

‖Or, interpretation.

21 For the prophecie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

The prophecieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

Actes 20.29. 1.tim.4.1. iude 4.and 18.

BVt * there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lorde, that hath bought them, and bring vpon thē selues swift damnation.

‖Or, insolent and wanton.

2 And many shall follow their ‖ damnable wayes, by whome the way of trueth shall be euill spoken of, a This is euidently seene in the Pope & his Prelates, which by lyes and flatteries sel mēs soules, so that it is certaine that he is not the successour of Simon Peter but of Simon Magus.

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fayned wordes make [a] marchandise of you, whose iudgement long agone is not farre off, and their damnation sleepeth not.

Iob.4.18. iude 6. Gen.7.1. Gen.19.24, 25.

4 For if God spared not the *Angels, that had sinned, but cast them down into hell & deliuered them into chaines of darkenesse, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared the old world, but saued * Noe the eight [person] a preacher of righteousnesse, and brought in the flood vpō the world of ỹ vngodly,

6 And * turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrhe into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrewe them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after shoulde liue vngodly,

Gen.19.16.

7 *And deliuered iust Loth vexed with the vncleanly conuersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling amōg them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deedes.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of tentation, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to be punished:

10 And chiefely them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleanesse, and despise the gouernement, [which are] presumptuous, and stande in their owne conceite, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Where as the Angels which are greater both in power and might, *giue not [b] rayling iudgement against them before the Lorde.

1.King.22.22. iob.1.12.

b Albeit the Angels condemne the vices and iniquitie of wicked magistrates, yet they blame not the authoritie and power which is giuen them of God.

12 But these, as [c] brute beastes, ledde with sensualitie and made to be taken, & destroyed, speake euill of those thinges which they knowe not, and shall perish through their owne corruption.

c As beasts without reason or wit followe whither nature leadeth them: so these wicked men destitute of the Spirit of God onely seeke to fulfil their sensualitie, and as they are vessels made to destruction, & appointed to this iudgemēt, so they fall into the snares of Satan to their destruction.

13 And shall receiue the wages of vnrighteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciously for a season. Spottes [they are] and blottes, [d] delighting them selues in their deceiuings, m feasting with you, d For in your holy feastes they sit as members of the Church, whereas in deede they be but spottes, and so deceiue you, reade Iude 12.

14 Hauing eyes full of adulterie, and that can not cease to sinne, beguiling vnstable soules: they haue heartes exercised with couetousnesse, cursed children,

Nom.22.23. iude 11. Iude 12.

15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of *Balaam, [the sonne] of Bosor, which loued the wages of vnrighteousnesse.

16 But he was rebuked for his iniquitie: [for] the domme asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnesse of the Prophet.

17 *These are welles without water, [and] [e] cloudes caryed about with a tempest, to whome the blacke darkenes is reserued for euer.

e They haue some appearance outwarde, but within they are dry and barren, or at most they cause but a tempest.

18 For in speaking swelling wordes of vanitie, they beguile with wantonnesse through the lusts of the flesh them that were cleane escaped from them which are wrapped in errour, 19 Promising vnto them libertie, and are thē selues the *seruants of corruptiō: for of whom soeuer a man is ouercome, euen vnto the same is he in bondage.

Iohn 8.34. rom.6.20.

20 *For if they, after they haue escaped from the filthinesse of the worlde, through the [f] knowledge of the Lorde, and of the Sauiour Iesus Christ, are yet tangled againe therein, and ouercome, the latter ende is worse with thē then the beginning.

Mat.12.45. heb.6.4,5,6. and 10.26, 27.

21 For it had bene better for them, not to haue knowen the way of righteousnesse, then after they haue knowen it, to turne from the holy ‖ commaundement giuen vnto them.

f Which commeth by hearing the Gospell preached.

‖Or, doctrine.

22 But it is come vnto them, according to the true prouerbe, * The dogge is returned to his owne vomite: and, The sow that was washed, to the wallowing in the myre.

Prou.26.11.

CHAP.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the impietie of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sorte the ende of the worlde shall be. 8 That they prepare them selues thereunto. 16 Who they are which abuse the writings of Saint Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures, 18 Concluding with eternall thankes to Christ Iesus.

THis seconde Epistle I nowe write vnto you, beloued, wherewith [a] I stirre vp, and warne your pure mindes,

2 To call to remembrãce the wordes, which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, & also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lorde and Sauiour.

3 *This first vnderstande, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lustes,

4 And say, where is the promes of his comming? for since the fathers dyed, all thinges continue a like from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they [b] willingly know not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water and by the water, by the worde of God.

6 Wherefore the [c] worlde that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauẽs and earth, which are nowe, are kept by the same worde in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of iudgement, and of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloued, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lorde, * as a thousande yeeres, and a thousande yeeres, as one day.

9 The Lorde is not slacke concerning [his] promise (as some men counte slackenesse) but is patient towarde vs, and * [d] woulde haue no man to perishe, but woulde all men to come to repentance.

10 *But the day of the Lorde will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe awaye with a noyse, and the elements shall melt with heate, and the earth with the woorkes, that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these thinges must be dissolued, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlinesse,

12 Looking for, and hasting vnto the comming of the day of GOD, by the which the heauens being on fire, shall be dissolued, and the elements shal melt with heate?

13 But we looke for *newe heauens, and a newe earth, according to his promes, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that ye looke for such things, be diligent that ye may be founde of him in [e] peace, without spot and blameles.

15 *And suppose that the lõg suffring of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisedom giuen vnto him wrote to [f] you,

16 As one, that in all [his] Epistles speaketh of these thinges: among the which some things are [g] harde to be vnderstande, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable, ‖ peruert, as they [do] also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing yee knowe these things before, beware, lest ye be also plucked away with the errour of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lorde and Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him [be] glorie both nowe and for euermore. Amen.

a For we fall quickly a sleep and forget that which we are taught.

1.Tim.4.1. 2,tim.3,1. iude 18.

b He meaneth them which had once professed Christian religion, but became afterwarde contemners and mockers, as Epicureans, and Atheists.

c As touching the beautie thereof, and things which were therein, except them which were in the Arke. Psal.90.4. Ezek.33.11. 1,tim.2.4.

d He speaketh not here of the secret and eternall counsel of God, whereby he electeth whome it pleaseth him, but of the preaching of the Gospel whereby all are called and bidden to the banquet.

Mat,24.44. 1.thess.5.2. reuel.3.3. and 16,15.

Isa.65.17. and 66,22. reuel,21,1.

e In quiet conscience. Rom.2.4.

f Albeit his epistles were written to peculiar Churches, yet they conteine a generall doctrine appertaining to all men.

g As no man condemneth the brightnesse of the Sunne because his eye is not able to sustaine the clearenesse thereof: so the hardnesse which we can not sometime compasse or perfectly vnderstand in the Scriptures, ought not to take away from vs the vse of the Scriptures.

‖ Or, wrest.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

The Argvment.

After that Saint Iohn had sufficiently declared, howe that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, least that any man shoulde thereby take a boldenesse to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleeue in Christ, vnlesse he doeth endeuour him selfe to keepe his commaundements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false Prophets, whome he calleth Antichristes, and to trie the spirites. Last of all he doeth earnestly exhorte them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the impietie of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sorte the ende of the worlde shall be. 8 That they prepare them selues thereunto. 16 Who they are which abuse the writings of Saint Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures, 18 Concluding with eternall thankes to Christ Iesus.

THis seconde Epistle I nowe write vnto you, beloued, wherewith [a] I stirre vp, and warne your pure mindes,

2 To call to remembrãce the wordes, which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, & also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lorde and Sauiour.

3 *This first vnderstande, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lustes,

4 And say, where is the promes of his comming? for since the fathers dyed, all thinges continue a like from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they [b] willingly know not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water and by the water, by the worde of God.

6 Wherefore the [c] worlde that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauẽs and earth, which are nowe, are kept by the same worde in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of iudgement, and of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloued, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lorde, * as a thousande yeeres, and a thousande yeeres, as one day.

9 The Lorde is not slacke concerning [his] promise (as some men counte slackenesse) but is patient towarde vs, and * [d] woulde haue no man to perishe, but woulde all men to come to repentance.

10 *But the day of the Lorde will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe awaye with a noyse, and the elements shall melt with heate, and the earth with the woorkes, that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these thinges must be dissolued, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlinesse,

12 Looking for, and hasting vnto the comming of the day of GOD, by the which the heauens being on fire, shall be dissolued, and the elements shal melt with heate?

13 But we looke for *newe heauens, and a newe earth, according to his promes, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that ye looke for such things, be diligent that ye may be founde of him in [e] peace, without spot and blameles.

15 *And suppose that the lõg suffring of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisedom giuen vnto him wrote to [f] you,

16 As one, that in all [his] Epistles speaketh of these thinges: among the which some things are [g] harde to be vnderstande, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable, ‖ peruert, as they [do] also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing yee knowe these things before, beware, lest ye be also plucked away with the errour of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lorde and Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him [be] glorie both nowe and for euermore. Amen.

a For we fall quickly a sleep and forget that which we are taught.

1.Tim.4.1. 2,tim.3,1. iude 18.

b He meaneth them which had once professed Christian religion, but became afterwarde contemners and mockers, as Epicureans, and Atheists.

c As touching the beautie thereof, and things which were therein, except them which were in the Arke. Psal.90.4. Ezek.33.11. 1,tim.2.4.

d He speaketh not here of the secret and eternall counsel of God, whereby he electeth whome it pleaseth him, but of the preaching of the Gospel whereby all are called and bidden to the banquet.

Mat,24.44. 1.thess.5.2. reuel.3.3. and 16,15.

Isa.65.17. and 66,22. reuel,21,1.

e In quiet conscience. Rom.2.4.

f Albeit his epistles were written to peculiar Churches, yet they conteine a generall doctrine appertaining to all men.

g As no man condemneth the brightnesse of the Sunne because his eye is not able to sustaine the clearenesse thereof: so the hardnesse which we can not sometime compasse or perfectly vnderstand in the Scriptures, ought not to take away from vs the vse of the Scriptures.

‖ Or, wrest.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

The Argvment.

After that Saint Iohn had sufficiently declared, howe that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, least that any man shoulde thereby take a boldenesse to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleeue in Christ, vnlesse he doeth endeuour him selfe to keepe his commaundements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false Prophets, whome he calleth Antichristes, and to trie the spirites. Last of all he doeth earnestly exhorte them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP.

CHAP. I.

2 True witnes of the euerlasting worde of God. 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne.

THat which was [a] from the beginning, which we haue [b] heard, which we haue seene with our eyes, which we haue looked vpon, and our hands haue handled of ỹ Worde [c] of life,

2 (For the life appeared, and we haue seene it, and beare witnes, and shew vnto you the eternall life, which was [d] with the Father, and appeared vnto vs)

3 That, [I say,] which we haue seene and heard, declare we vnto you, that ye may also [e] haue felowship with vs, [f] that our felowship also may be with the Father, and with his Sonne Jesus Christ.

4 And these thinges write we vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God* is [f] light, and in him is no darkenes.

6 If we say that we haue felowship with him, and walke in [g] darkenes, we lie, and doe not truely:

7 But if we walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue felowship [h] one with another, and the* blood of Jesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 *If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and trueth is not in vs.

9 If we [i] acknowledge our sinnes, he is faythfull and iust, to forgiue vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnes.

10 If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a liar, and his ‖ Worde is not in vs.

a That is, Christ God eternall.
b That is, Christ being man.
c Which giueth life & had it in himselfe, Iohn.1.4.
d Before all beginning.
e The effect of the Gospel is, that we all being ioyned together in Christ by faith should be the sonnes of God, Iohn.8.12.
f The fruits of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being the very puritie & light, will not haue felowship with them which lye in sinne and darknesse.
g In an euill conscience and without the feare of God.
h That is, Christ with vs and we with our selues. Hebr.9.14. 1.pet.1.19. reuel.1,5. 1.King.8.46. 2.chro.6.36. prou.20.9. eccles.7.22.
i If we be not ashamed, earnestly and openly to acknowledge our selues before God to be sinners.
‖Or, doctrine.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our Aduocate. 10 Of true loue, and howe it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any mā sinne, we haue an [a] Aduocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the Just.

2 And he is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for [the sinnes] of [b] the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we [c] knowe him, if we keepe his commandements.

4 He that sayth, I knowe him, and keepeth not his commandements, is a liar, and the trueth is not in him.

5 But he that keepeth his worde, in him is [d] the loue of God perfect in deede: hereby we knowe that we are in him.

6 He that sayth he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as hee hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no newe ‖ commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement, which ye haue had from the [e] beginning: the [f] olde commandement is the worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a newe commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light nowe shineth.

9 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenesse vntill this time.

10 *He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenes, & walketh in darknes, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenes hath blinded his eyes.

12 [g] Litle children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiuen you for [h] his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowne him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, yong men, because ye haue ouercome the ‖ Wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue knowen the Father. I haue written vnto you, Fathers, because ye haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, yong men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome the ‖ Wicked.

15 Loue not the [i] World, neither the things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the* World, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the worlde ([as] the lust of the [k] flesh, the [l] lust of the eyes, and the [m] pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the worlde.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen nowe are there many Antichristes: whereby we knowe that it is the last time.

d Whereby he loueth God: so that to loue God is to obey his word.
‖Or, doctrine.
e When the lawe was giuen.
f Loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, is the olde commandement taught in the law: but when Christ saith, So loue one another as I haue loued you, he giueth a newe commandement onely as touching the forme, but not as touching the nature or substance of the precept. Chap.3.14.
g He nameth al the faithfull, children, as he being their spirituall Father, attributing to old men knowledge of great things, to yong men strength, to children obedience and reuerence to their gouernours.
h For Christs sake.
‖Or, the deuill.
‖Or, the deuill.
i As it is aduersarie to God. Iames 4.4.
k To liue in pleasure.
l Wantonnes.
m Ambition and pride.

a Christ is our onely Aduocate & atonement: for the office of intercession and redemption are ioyned together.
b That is, of them which haue embraced the Gospel by faith in al ages, degrees, and places: for there is no saluation without Christ.
c That is, by faith and so obey him: for knowledge can not be without obedience.

19 [n] They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But [this commeth to passe,] that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

n Which seemed to haue bene of our nomber, because for a time they occupied a place in the Church.

20 But ye haue an [o] oyntment from him, that is [p] Holy, and ye haue knowen all things.

o The grace of the holy ghost.
p Which is Christ.

21 I [q] haue not written vnto you, because ye knowe not the trueth: but because ye knowe it, and that no lie is of the trueth.

q In this Epistle which I nowe write vnto you.

22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Iesus is [r] Christ? the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

r He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the natures in Christ, or he that confoundeth or separateth them, els he that putteth not difference betwene the person of the Sonne, & also he that beleeueth not to haue remission of sinnes by his onely sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messias.

23 Whosoeuer denieth the Sonne, the same [s] hath not the Father [†].

s Then the infidels worship not the true God.
† But he that confesseth the Sonne, hath also the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised vs, [euen] eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anoynting which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye neede not that any man teache you: but as the same [t] Anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true, & is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide ‖ in him.

t Christ communicateth himselfe vnto you, and teacheth you by the holy ghost and his ministers.
‖ Or, in Christ.

28 And nowe, [u] litle children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

u By this name he meaneth the whole Church of Christ in generall.

22 If ye knowe that he is righteous, knowe ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

CHAP. III.

1 The singular loue of God towarde vs, 7 And howe we againe ought to loue one another.

BEholde, what loue the Father hath shewed on vs, that we should be [a] called ẏ sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

a Being made the sonnes of God in Christ, he sheweth what qualities we must haue to be discerned from bastards.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shall be: and we knowe that when [b] he shall appeare, we shalbe [c] like him: for we shall see him as he is.

b That is, Christ.
c As ẏ members and head are, which make one perfect body.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as hee is pure.

4 Whosoeuer [d] committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Lawe: for sinne is the transgression of the Lawe.

d That is, in whom sinne doth reigne, so that he seeketh not to be sanctified, Isa. 53.4,9. 1.pet.2.22.

5 And ye knowe that he appeared that he might * take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoeuer abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoeuer sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath knowen him.

7 Litle children, let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousnesse, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that * committeth sinne, is of the deuil: for the deuil sinneth from the [e] beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that he might loose the workes of the deuill.

Iohn.8.44.
e As appeared by Adam.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for his [f] seede remaineth in him, neither can he [g] sinne, because he is borne of God.

f Which is the holy Ghost.
g He cannot be vnder the power of sinne because ẏ spirit of God correcteth his euil and corrupt affections.

10 In this are the children of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doeth not righteousnes, is not of God, neither he that [h] loueth not his brother.

h He declineth from the first table of the cõmandements to the second.

11 For this is ẏ [i] message that ye heard from the beginning, that * we should loue one another.

Iohn 13.34 & 15.12.

12 Not as * Cain which was of the wicked, & slewe his brother: and wherefore slewe he him? because his owne workes were euil, & his brothers good.

Gene.4.8.

13 Marueile not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We knowe that we are translated from death vnto life, because we [i] loue the brethren: * he that loueth not [his] brother, abideth in death.

i This loue is the spirituall fruite of our faith, & a certaine signe of our regeneration.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye knowe that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

Chap.2.10. leui.19.17,18. Iohn 15.13. ephes.5.2. Luke 3.11.

16 * Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he layde downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe [our] liues for the brethren.

k Which is not the cause, wherefore we are the sonnes of God, but a most certaine signe.

17 * And whosoeuer hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, howe dwelleth the loue of God in him?

l If our conscience being guiltie of any thing, be able to cõdemne vs, much more the iudgement of God, which knoweth our hearts better then we our selues, is able to condemne vs.

18 My litle children, let vs not loue in worde, neither in tongue [onely,] but in [k] deede and in trueth.

19 For thereby we know that we are of the trueth, and shal before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our [l] heart condemne vs, God

God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse towarde God.

22 *And whatsoeuer we aske, we receiue of him, because we keepe his commaundements, and doe those thinges which are pleasing in his sight.

23 *This is then his commaunde-ment, That we beleeue in the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commandement.

24 *For he that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we knowe that he abideth in vs, [euen] by the Spirit which he hath giuen vs.

John 13.7.& 16.23. matt. 21.22.chap. 5.14.

John 6.29.& 17.3.

John 13.34.& 15.10.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 Howe the Spirit of God may be knowen from the spirit of errour. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbours.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirit, but trie the [a] spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shall ye knowe the Spirit of God, Euery spirit that confesseth that Iesus [b] Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the [spirit] of Antichrist, of whome ye haue heard, howe that he should come, and [c] nowe already he is in the world.

4 Litle children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then [d] he that is in the worlde.

5 They are of the worlde, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, *he that knoweth God, [e] heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the Spirit of trueth, & the spirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth, is borne of God, & knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 *In [f] this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the worlde, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne [to be] a [g] reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 *No man hath seene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, & his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue seene, and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne [to be] the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer [h] confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue knowen, and beleeued the loue that God hath ‖ [i] in vs. God is loue, & he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we should haue boldnes in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this world.

18 There is no [k] feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath painefulnes: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a liar: for [l] how can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

21 *And this commaundement haue we of him, that he which loueth God, should loue his brother also.

a Them which boast that they haue the spirit to preach or prophecie.

b Who being very God came from his Father and tooke vpon him our flesh. He that confesseth or preacheth this truely, hath the Spirit of God, els not.

c He began to builde the mysterie of iniquitie.

d Satan the prince of the world.

John 8.47.

e With pure affection and obedience.

John 3.16.

f Trueth it is, that God hath declared his loue in many other things, but herein hath passed al other.

g By his onely death.

John 1.18. 1.tim.6,16.

h So that his confession proceedeth of fayth.

‖ Or, towarde vs.

i By inspiring it into vs.

k Such as should trouble the conscience.

l For God presenteth himselfe to vs in them which beare his image.

John 13.34. and 15.12.

CHAP. V.

1, 10. 13 Of the fruites of fayth. 14. 20 The office, authoritie and diuinitie of Christ. 21 Against images.

WHosoeuer beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is [a] borne of God, and euery one that loueth him which begate, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this we know that we loue the children of God, when we loue [b] God, and keepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God that we keepe his commaundements: and his *commandements are not [c] grieuous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercommeth the world: and this is the victorie that ouercommeth the worlde, [euen] our fayth.

5 *Who is it that ouercommeth the world, but he which beleeueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

a Is regenerate by the vertue of his Spirit.

b The loue of God must goe before, or els we can not loue aright.

c They are easie to the sonnes of God which are led with his Spirit: for they delight therein.

Mat.11.30. 1.Cor.15.57.

God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse towarde God.

22 *And whatsoeuer we aske, we receiue of him, because we keepe his commaundements, and doe those thinges which are pleasing in his sight.

23 *This is then his commaunde-ment, That we beleeue in the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commandement.

24 *For he that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we knowe that he abideth in vs, [euen] by the Spirit which he hath giuen vs.

John 13.7.& 16.23. matt. 21.22.chap. 5.14.

John 6.29.& 17.3.

John 13.34.& 15.10.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 Howe the Spirit of God may be knowen from the spirit of errour. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbours.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirit, but trie the [a] spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shall ye knowe the Spirit of God, Euery spirit that confesseth that Iesus [b] Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the [spirit] of Antichrist, of whome ye haue heard, howe that he should come, and [c] nowe already he is in the world.

4 Litle children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then [d] he that is in the worlde.

5 They are of the worlde, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, *he that knoweth God, [e] heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the Spirit of trueth, & the spirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth, is borne of God, & knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 *In [f] this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the worlde, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne [to be] a [g] reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 *No man hath seene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, & his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue seene, and doe testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne [to be] the Sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer [h] confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue knowen, and beleeued the loue that God hath ‖ [i] in vs. God is loue, & he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we should haue boldnes in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this world.

18 There is no [k] feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath painefulnes: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a liar: for [l] how can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

21 *And this commaundement haue we of him, that he which loueth God, should loue his brother also.

a Them which boast that they haue the spirit to preach or prophecie.

b Who being very God came from his Father and tooke vpon him our flesh. He that confesseth or preacheth this truely, hath the Spirit of God, els not.

c He began to builde the mysterie of iniquitie.

d Satan the prince of the world.

John 8.47.

e With pure affection and obedience.

John 3.16.

f Trueth it is, that God hath declared his loue in many other things, but herein hath passed al other.

g By his onely death.

John 1.18. 1.tim.6,16.

h So that his confession proceedeth of fayth.

‖ Or, towarde vs.

i By inspiring it into vs.

k Such as should trouble the conscience.

l For God presenteth himselfe to vs in them which beare his image.

John 13.34. and 15.12.

CHAP. V.

1, 10. 13 Of the fruites of fayth. 14. 20 The office, authoritie and diuinitie of Christ. 21 Against images.

WHosoeuer beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is [a] borne of God, and euery one that loueth him which begate, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this we know that we loue the children of God, when we loue [b] God, and keepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God that we keepe his commaundements: and his *commandements are not [c] grieuous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercommeth the world: and this is the victorie that ouercommeth the worlde, [euen] our fayth.

5 *Who is it that ouercommeth the world, but he which beleeueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

a Is regenerate by the vertue of his Spirit.

b The loue of God must goe before, or els we can not loue aright.

c They are easie to the sonnes of God which are led with his Spirit: for they delight therein.

Mat.11.30. 1.Cor.15.57.

6 This is that Jesus Christ that came by [d] Water [e] and blood, not by Water onely, but by Water and blood: and it is the [f] spirit, that beareth witnes: for the Spirit is [g] trueth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Worde, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare recorde in the earth, the spirite and the Water and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If We receiue the Witnesse of men, the Witnesse of God is greater: for this is the Witnesse of God, which he testified of his Sonne.

10 *He that beleeueth in the Sonne of God, hath the Witnesse [†] in himselfe: he that beleeueth not God, hath made him a lyar, because hee beleeued not the recorde, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the recorde, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life: and he that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you, that beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may knowe that ye haue eternall life, and that ye may beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance that We haue in him, *that if We aske any thing according to his Will, he heareth vs.

15 And if We knowe that he heareth vs, whatsoeuer We aske, We know that We haue the petitions that We haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shall giue him life for them that sinne not [h] vnto death. *There is a sinne [i] vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We know that Whosoeuer is borne of God, [k] sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, [l] keepeth himselfe, and the [m] Wicked [n] toucheth him not.

19 We know that We are of God, and the whole World [o] lieth in Wickednesse.

20 But We knowe that the Sonne of God is *come, [‡] hath giuen vs a minde to knowe him, Which is true: and We are in him that is true, [that is,] in his Sonne IESVS Christ: this same is very [p] GOD, and eternall life.

21 Babes, keepe your selues from [q] idoles. Amen.

d That is, regeneration.
e The water and blood that came out of his side, declare that we haue our sinnes washed by him, and he hath made full satisfaction for the same.
f Our minde inspired by the holy Ghost.
g Which testifieth to our hearts, that we be the children of God.
Iohn 3.36.
† Of God.
Mat.7.7.& 21.22.chap.3.22.
h Although euery sinne be to death, yet God through his mercy pardoneth his in his Sonne Christ.
Mat.12.31. mar.3.29.luke 12.10.
i As theirs is whome God doth so forsake þ they fall into vtter despaire.
k Giueth not himselfe so ouer to sinne, that he forgetteth God.
l Taketh heed þ he sinne not.
m That is, Satan.
n With a mortall wound.
o That is, all men generally, as of themselues lye as it were buried in euill.
Luke 24.45.
p Christ very God.
q Meaning, from euery forme and fashion of thing which is set vp for any deuotion to worship God.

The seconde Epistle of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certaine Lady, 4 Reioycing that her children walke in the trueth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 Warneth them to beware of such deceyuers as denie that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to doe with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus our Sauiour.

The Elder to the ‖ elect Lady, and her children, whome I loue in [a] the trueth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowen the trueth,

2 For the trueths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be With you, mercie & peace from God the Father, & from the Lord Jesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, With [b] trueth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I founde of thy children walking [c] in trueth, as We haue receiued a commaundement of the Father.

5 And nowe beseech I thee, Ladie, (not as Writing a newe commandement vnto thee, but that same which We had from the beginning) that We *loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that We should walke after his ‖ commaundements. This commaundement is, that as ye haue heard from [þ] beginning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into the Worlde, Which confesse not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceyuer and an Antichrist.

8 Looke to your selues, that We [d] lose not the things which We haue done, but that We may receyue a full rewarde.

9 Whosoeuer [e] transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that continueth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Sonne.

10 If

‖ Or, worthie, and noble.
a According to godlinesse and not with any worldly affection.
b We cannot receiue the grace of God, except we haue the true knowledge of him, of the which knowledge loue proceedeth.
c According to Gods worde.
Iohn 15.12.
‖ Or, doctrine.
d By suffring our selues to be seduced.
e He that passeth the limits of pure doctrine.

6 This is that Jesus Christ that came by [d] Water [e] and blood, not by Water onely, but by Water and blood: and it is the [f] spirit, that beareth witnes: for the Spirit is [g] trueth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Worde, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare recorde in the earth, the spirite and the Water and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If We receiue the Witnesse of men, the Witnesse of God is greater: for this is the Witnesse of God, which he testified of his Sonne.

10 *He that beleeueth in the Sonne of God, hath the Witnesse [†] in himselfe: he that beleeueth not God, hath made him a lyar, because hee beleeued not the recorde, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the recorde, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life: and he that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you, that beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may knowe that ye haue eternall life, and that ye may beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance that We haue in him, *that if We aske any thing according to his Will, he heareth vs.

15 And if We knowe that he heareth vs, whatsoeuer We aske, We know that We haue the petitions that We haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne that is not vnto death, let him aske, and he shall giue him life for them that sinne not [h] vnto death. *There is a sinne [i] vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We know that Whosoeuer is borne of God, [k] sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, [l] keepeth himselfe, and the [m] Wicked [n] toucheth him not.

19 We know that We are of God, and the whole World [o] lieth in Wickednesse.

20 But We knowe that the Sonne of God is *come, [‡] hath giuen vs a minde to knowe him, Which is true: and We are in him that is true, [that is,] in his Sonne IESVS Christ: this same is very [p] GOD, and eternall life.

21 Babes, keepe your selues from [q] idoles. Amen.

d That is, regeneration.
e The water and blood that came out of his side, declare that we haue our sinnes washed by him, and he hath made full satisfaction for the same.
f Our minde inspired by the holy Ghost.
g Which testifieth to our hearts, that we be the children of God.
Iohn 3.36.
† Of God.
Mat.7.7.& 21.22.chap.3.22.
h Although euery sinne be to death, yet God through his mercy pardoneth his in his Sonne Christ.
Mat.12.31. mar.3.29.luke 12.10.
i As theirs is whome God doth so forsake þ they fall into vtter despaire.
k Giueth not himselfe so ouer to sinne, that he forgetteth God.
l Taketh heed þ he sinne not.
m That is, Satan.
n With a mortall wound.
o That is, all men generally, as of themselues lye as it were buried in euill.
Luke 24.45.
p Christ very God.
q Meaning, from euery forme and fashion of thing which is set vp for any deuotion to worship God.

The seconde Epistle of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certaine Lady, 4 Reioycing that her children walke in the trueth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 Warneth them to beware of such deceyuers as denie that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to doe with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus our Sauiour.

The Elder to the ‖ elect Lady, and her children, whome I loue in [a] the trueth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowen the trueth,

2 For the trueths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be With you, mercie & peace from God the Father, & from the Lord Jesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, With [b] trueth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I founde of thy children walking [c] in trueth, as We haue receiued a commaundement of the Father.

5 And nowe beseech I thee, Ladie, (not as Writing a newe commandement vnto thee, but that same which We had from the beginning) that We *loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that We should walke after his ‖ commaundements. This commaundement is, that as ye haue heard from [þ] beginning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into the Worlde, Which confesse not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceyuer and an Antichrist.

8 Looke to your selues, that We [d] lose not the things which We haue done, but that We may receyue a full rewarde.

9 Whosoeuer [e] transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that continueth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Sonne.

10 If

‖ Or, worthie, and noble.
a According to godlinesse and not with any worldly affection.
b We cannot receiue the grace of God, except we haue the true knowledge of him, of the which knowledge loue proceedeth.
c According to Gods worde.
Iohn 15.12.
‖ Or, doctrine.
d By suffring our selues to be seduced.
e He that passeth the limits of pure doctrine.

Rom.16.17. f Haue nothing to doe with him, neither shewe him any signe of familiaritie or acquaintance.

10 If there come any vnto you, and bring not this doctrine, * receiue him not to house, neither bid him, f God speede.
11 For hee that biddeth him, God speede, is partaker of his euil deedes.
12 Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet I would not [write] with paper and ynke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.
The sonnes of thine ‖ elect sister greete thee, Amen. ‖ Or, worthie.

The thirde Epistle of Iohn.

3 He is glad of Gaius that he walketh in the trueth, 8 Exhorteth them to be louing vnto the poore Christen in their persecution, 9 Sheweth the vnkinde dealing of Diotrephes, 12 And the good report of Demetrius.

THe Elder vnto the beloued Gaius, whome I loue in the trueth.
2 Beloued, I wishe chiefely that thou prosperedst and faredst wel, as thy soule prospereth.
2 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, howe thou walkest in the trueth.
4 I haue no greater ioye then this, [that is,] to heare that my sonnes walke in [a] veritie.
5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully whatsoeuer thou doest to the brethren, and to [b] strangers,
6 which bare witnesse of thy loue before the Churches. Whome if thou bringest on their iourney as it [c] beseemeth according to God, thou shalt do well,
7 Because that for his Names sake they went foorth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth.
9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.
10 Wherefore if I come, I will declare his deedes which he doeth, prating against vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.
11 Beloued, follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: hee that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not ‖ seene God. ‖ Or, knowen.
12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea, and we our selues beare record, and ye know that our record is true.
13 I haue many things to write: but I will not with ynke and pen write vnto thee.
14 For I trust I shal shortly see thee, and wee shall speake mouth to mouth. Peace [be] with thee. The friends salute thee. Greete the friends by name.

a That is, in godly conuersation, as they which haue both the knowledge and feare of God.
b By keeping hospitalitie.
c If thou furnishest them with necessaries toward their iourney, knowing that the Lord saith, He that receiueth you, receiueth me.

The generall Epistle of Iude.

The Argvment.

SAint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which go about to drawe away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whome hee setteth foorth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally hee comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IVde a seruant of Iesus Christ, and brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified [a] of God the Father, and [b] reserued to Iesus Christ:
2 Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.
3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needefull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that ye should earnestly [c] contende for [the maintenance] of the faith, which was [d] once giuen vnto the Saintes.
4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of olde [e] ordeined to this condemnation: vngodly men [they are] which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and * denie God the only Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 The faithful are sanctified of God the Father in the Sonne by the holy Ghost.
b That hee should keepe you, Iob.17.6.
c Against the assaultes of Satan and heretikes.
d That ye should keepe it for euer.
e He confirmeth their heart against the contemners of religion and Apostates, shewing that such men trouble not the Church at all aduentures, but are appointed thereunto by the determinate counsell of God. 2.Peter 2,1.

Rom.16.17. f Haue nothing to doe with him, neither shewe him any signe of familiaritie or acquaintance.

10 If there come any vnto you, and bring not this doctrine, * receiue him not to house, neither bid him, f God speede.
11 For hee that biddeth him, God speede, is partaker of his euil deedes.
12 Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet I would not [write] with paper and ynke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.
The sonnes of thine ‖ elect sister greete thee, Amen. ‖ Or, worthie.

The thirde Epistle of Iohn.

3 He is glad of Gaius that he walketh in the trueth, 8 Exhorteth them to be louing vnto the poore Christen in their persecution, 9 Sheweth the vnkinde dealing of Diotrephes, 12 And the good report of Demetrius.

THe Elder vnto the beloued Gaius, whome I loue in the trueth.
2 Beloued, I wishe chiefely that thou prosperedst and faredst wel, as thy soule prospereth.
2 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, howe thou walkest in the trueth.
4 I haue no greater ioye then this, [that is,] to heare that my sonnes walke in [a] veritie.
5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully whatsoeuer thou doest to the brethren, and to [b] strangers,
6 which bare witnesse of thy loue before the Churches. Whome if thou bringest on their iourney as it [c] beseemeth according to God, thou shalt do well,
7 Because that for his Names sake they went foorth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth.
9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.
10 Wherefore if I come, I will declare his deedes which he doeth, prating against vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.
11 Beloued, follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: hee that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not ‖ seene God. ‖ Or, knowen.
12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea, and we our selues beare record, and ye know that our record is true.
13 I haue many things to write: but I will not with ynke and pen write vnto thee.
14 For I trust I shal shortly see thee, and wee shall speake mouth to mouth. Peace [be] with thee. The friends salute thee. Greete the friends by name.

a That is, in godly conuersation, as they which haue both the knowledge and feare of God.
b By keeping hospitalitie.
c If thou furnishest them with necessaries toward their iourney, knowing that the Lord saith, He that receiueth you, receiueth me.

The generall Epistle of Iude.

The Argvment.

SAint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which go about to drawe away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whome hee setteth foorth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally hee comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IVde a seruant of Iesus Christ, and brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified [a] of God the Father, and [b] reserued to Iesus Christ:
2 Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.
3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needefull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that ye should earnestly [c] contende for [the maintenance] of the faith, which was [d] once giuen vnto the Saintes.
4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of olde [e] ordeined to this condemnation: vngodly men [they are] which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and * denie God the only Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 The faithful are sanctified of God the Father in the Sonne by the holy Ghost.
b That hee should keepe you, Iob.17.6.
c Against the assaultes of Satan and heretikes.
d That ye should keepe it for euer.
e He confirmeth their heart against the contemners of religion and Apostates, shewing that such men trouble not the Church at all aduentures, but are appointed thereunto by the determinate counsell of God. 2.Peter 2,1.

Rom.16.17. f Haue nothing to doe with him, neither shewe him any signe of familiaritie or acquaintance.

10 If there come any vnto you, and bring not this doctrine, * receiue him not to house, neither bid him, f God speede.
11 For hee that biddeth him, God speede, is partaker of his euil deedes.
12 Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet I would not [write] with paper and ynke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.
The sonnes of thine ‖ elect sister greete thee, Amen. ‖ Or, worthie.

The thirde Epistle of Iohn.

3 He is glad of Gaius that he walketh in the trueth, 8 Exhorteth them to be louing vnto the poore Christen in their persecution, 9 Sheweth the vnkinde dealing of Diotrephes, 12 And the good report of Demetrius.

THe Elder vnto the beloued Gaius, whome I loue in the trueth.
2 Beloued, I wishe chiefely that thou prosperedst and faredst wel, as thy soule prospereth.
2 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, howe thou walkest in the trueth.
4 I haue no greater ioye then this, [that is,] to heare that my sonnes walke in [a] veritie.
5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully whatsoeuer thou doest to the brethren, and to [b] strangers,
6 which bare witnesse of thy loue before the Churches. Whome if thou bringest on their iourney as it [c] beseemeth according to God, thou shalt do well,
7 Because that for his Names sake they went foorth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth.
9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.
10 Wherefore if I come, I will declare his deedes which he doeth, prating against vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.
11 Beloued, follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: hee that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not ‖ seene God. ‖ Or, knowen.
12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea, and we our selues beare record, and ye know that our record is true.
13 I haue many things to write: but I will not with ynke and pen write vnto thee.
14 For I trust I shal shortly see thee, and wee shall speake mouth to mouth. Peace [be] with thee. The friends salute thee. Greete the friends by name.

a That is, in godly conuersation, as they which haue both the knowledge and feare of God.
b By keeping hospitalitie.
c If thou furnishest them with necessaries toward their iourney, knowing that the Lord saith, He that receiueth you, receiueth me.

The generall Epistle of Iude.

The Argvment.

SAint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which go about to drawe away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whome hee setteth foorth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally hee comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IVde a seruant of Iesus Christ, and brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified [a] of God the Father, and [b] reserued to Iesus Christ:
2 Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.
3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needefull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that ye should earnestly [c] contende for [the maintenance] of the faith, which was [d] once giuen vnto the Saintes.
4 For there are certaine men crept in which were before of olde [e] ordeined to this condemnation: vngodly men [they are] which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and * denie God the only Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 The faithful are sanctified of God the Father in the Sonne by the holy Ghost.
b That hee should keepe you, Iob.17.6.
c Against the assaultes of Satan and heretikes.
d That ye should keepe it for euer.
e He confirmeth their heart against the contemners of religion and Apostates, shewing that such men trouble not the Church at all aduentures, but are appointed thereunto by the determinate counsell of God. 2.Peter 2,1.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuch as ye once knew this, how that the Lorde, after that hee had deliuered the people out of Egypt, *destroyed them afterwarde which [f] beleeued not.

6 The *Angels also which kept not their first ‖ estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserued in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenesse vnto ỹ [g] iudgement of the great day.

7 As *Sodom and Gomorrhe, and the cities about them, which in like maner as they did, committed, and followed [h] strange flesh, are set foorth for an ensample, and suffer the vengeance of eternall fire.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these [i] dreamers also defile the flesh, and despise gouernement, and speake euill of them that are in authoritie.

9 Yet [k] Michael the Archangel, when hee stroue against the deuill, and disputed about the bodie of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but said, [l] The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speake euill of those thinges, which they knowe not: and whatsoeuer things they knowe [m] naturally, as beastes, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt themselues.

11 Wo [be] vnto them: for they haue followed the way * of Cain, and are cast away by the deceit * of Balaams wages, and perish in the [n] gainesaying * of Core.

12 These are spottes [o] in your feastes of charitie when they feast with you, without [p] all feare, feeding themselues: *cloudes [they are] without water, caried about of winds, corrupt trees, [and] without fruit, twise dead, [and] plucked vp by the rootes.

13 [They are] the raging waues of the sea, foming out their owne shame: [they are] wandring starres, to whome is reserued the blackenesse of darkenesse for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seuenth from Adam, prophesied of such, saying, * [q] Behold, the Lorde commeth with thousands of his Saintes,

15 To giue iudgemẽt against all men, and to rebuke all the vngodly among them of all their wicked deedes, which they haue vngodly committed, and of all their cruell speakings, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their owne lustes [†]: *whose mouthes speake proude things, hauing mens persons in admiration, because of a vantage.

17 But, ye beloued, remember the words which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 How that they tolde you that there should bee mockers * in the last time, which should walke after their owne vngodly lustes.

19 These are makers of sects, fleshly, hauing [r] not the Spirit.

20 But, ye beloued, edifie your selues in your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost,

21 And keepe your selues in the loue of God, looking for the mercie of our Lord Jesus Christ, vnto eternall life.

22 And haue compassion of some, [f] in putting difference:

23 And other saue with [t] feare, pulling them out of the fire, and hate euen the [u] garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Nowe vnto him that is able to keepe you, that ye fall not, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glorie with ioy,

25 [That is,] to God onely wise, our Sauiour, [be] glorie, and maiestie, and dominion, and power, both nowe, and for euer, Amen.

Nom. 14.37.
f Their incredulitie was the fountaine of all their euill.
2. Peter 2.4.
‖ Or, originall.
g Then shalbe their extreme punishment.
Gen. 19.24, 25.
h Most horrible pollutions.
i Which shew themselues dull and impudent.
k It is most like that this example was written in some of those bookes of the Scripture which are now lost, Nomb. 21.14. Iosh. 10. 13. 2. Chron. 9.29.
l In Zecharie 3.2. Christ vnder the name of the Angel rebuked Satan as knowing that he went about to hinder the Church: but here we are admonished not to seeke to reuenge our selues by euill speaking, but to referre the thing to God.
m By their carnall iudgement.
Gen. 4.8.
Nomb. 22.23.
n For as Core, Dathan, and Abiram, rose vp and spake against Moses, so doe these against them that are in authoritie. Nomb. 16. 1, 2.
o These were generall feastes which the faithfull kept, partly to protest their brotherly loue, and partly to relieue the needie, Tertul. in Apologet. chap. 39.
p Either of God, or of his Church. 2. Per. 2.17.

Reuel. 1.7.
q This saying of Enoch might for the worthynesse thereof haue bene as a common saying among men of all times, or else haue bene written in some of those bookes which nowe remaine not: yet by the prouidence of God, so many are left as are able to instruct vs in the faith of Jesus Christ to saluation, John 20.31.
† In vngodlynesse and iniquitie.
Psal. 17.10.
1. Tim. 4.1.
2. tim. 3.1.
2. peter 3.3.
r Of regeneration.
f Some may be wonne with gentlenesse, other by sharpnesse.
t By sharpe reproofes to drawe them out of danger.
u He willeth not onely to cut off the euil, but also to take away all occasions which are preparatiues, and accessaries to the same.

The Reuelation ‖ of Iohn

‖ Or, declared to Iohn.

the Diuine.

The Argvment.

IT is manifest, that the holy Ghost would as it were gather into this most excellent booke a summe of those prophecies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the comming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, aswell to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set foorth the Diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things hee reproueth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and consolation in the day of vengeance: howe that the hypocrites which sting like Scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed,

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuch as ye once knew this, how that the Lorde, after that hee had deliuered the people out of Egypt, *destroyed them afterwarde which [f] beleeued not.

6 The *Angels also which kept not their first ‖ estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserued in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenesse vnto ỹ [g] iudgement of the great day.

7 As *Sodom and Gomorrhe, and the cities about them, which in like maner as they did, committed, and followed [h] strange flesh, are set foorth for an ensample, and suffer the vengeance of eternall fire.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these [i] dreamers also defile the flesh, and despise gouernement, and speake euill of them that are in authoritie.

9 Yet [k] Michael the Archangel, when hee stroue against the deuill, and disputed about the bodie of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but said, [l] The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speake euill of those thinges, which they knowe not: and whatsoeuer things they knowe [m] naturally, as beastes, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt themselues.

11 Wo [be] vnto them: for they haue followed the way * of Cain, and are cast away by the deceit * of Balaams wages, and perish in the [n] gainesaying * of Core.

12 These are spottes [o] in your feastes of charitie when they feast with you, without [p] all feare, feeding themselues: *cloudes [they are] without water, caried about of winds, corrupt trees, [and] without fruit, twise dead, [and] plucked vp by the rootes.

13 [They are] the raging waues of the sea, foming out their owne shame: [they are] wandring starres, to whome is reserued the blackenesse of darkenesse for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seuenth from Adam, prophesied of such, saying, * [q] Behold, the Lorde commeth with thousands of his Saintes,

15 To giue iudgemẽt against all men, and to rebuke all the vngodly among them of all their wicked deedes, which they haue vngodly committed, and of all their cruell speakings, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their owne lustes [†]: *whose mouthes speake proude things, hauing mens persons in admiration, because of a vantage.

17 But, ye beloued, remember the words which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 How that they tolde you that there should bee mockers * in the last time, which should walke after their owne vngodly lustes.

19 These are makers of sects, fleshly, hauing [r] not the Spirit.

20 But, ye beloued, edifie your selues in your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost,

21 And keepe your selues in the loue of God, looking for the mercie of our Lord Jesus Christ, vnto eternall life.

22 And haue compassion of some, [f] in putting difference:

23 And other saue with [t] feare, pulling them out of the fire, and hate euen the [u] garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Nowe vnto him that is able to keepe you, that ye fall not, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glorie with ioy,

25 [That is,] to God onely wise, our Sauiour, [be] glorie, and maiestie, and dominion, and power, both nowe, and for euer, Amen.

Nom. 14.37.
f Their incredulitie was the fountaine of all their euill.
2. Peter 2.4.
‖ Or, originall.
g Then shalbe their extreme punishment.
Gen. 19.24, 25.
h Most horrible pollutions.
i Which shew themselues dull and impudent.
k It is most like that this example was written in some of those bookes of the Scripture which are now lost, Nomb. 21.14. Iosh. 10. 13. 2. Chron. 9.29.
l In Zecharie 3.2. Christ vnder the name of the Angel rebuked Satan as knowing that he went about to hinder the Church: but here we are admonished not to seeke to reuenge our selues by euill speaking, but to referre the thing to God.
m By their carnall iudgement.
Gen. 4.8.
Nomb. 22.23.
n For as Core, Dathan, and Abiram, rose vp and spake against Moses, so doe these against them that are in authoritie. Nomb. 16. 1, 2.
o These were generall feastes which the faithfull kept, partly to protest their brotherly loue, and partly to relieue the needie, Tertul. in Apologet. chap. 39.
p Either of God, or of his Church. 2. Per. 2.17.

Reuel. 1.7.
q This saying of Enoch might for the worthynesse thereof haue bene as a common saying among men of all times, or else haue bene written in some of those bookes which nowe remaine not: yet by the prouidence of God, so many are left as are able to instruct vs in the faith of Jesus Christ to saluation, John 20.31.
† In vngodlynesse and iniquitie.
Psal. 17.10.
1. Tim. 4.1.
2. tim. 3.1.
2. peter 3.3.
r Of regeneration.
f Some may be wonne with gentlenesse, other by sharpnesse.
t By sharpe reproofes to drawe them out of danger.
u He willeth not onely to cut off the euil, but also to take away all occasions which are preparatiues, and accessaries to the same.

The Reuelation ‖ of Iohn

‖ Or, declared to Iohn.

the Diuine.

The Argvment.

IT is manifest, that the holy Ghost would as it were gather into this most excellent booke a summe of those prophecies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the comming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, aswell to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set foorth the Diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things hee reproueth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and consolation in the day of vengeance: howe that the hypocrites which sting like Scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed, destroyed, but the Lambe Christ shall defend them, which beare witnesse to the trueth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limitted, and albeit that hee is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no farther then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length hee shalbe destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victorie: neuertheless for a season God will permit this Antichrist, and strumpet vnder colour of faire speach and pleasant doctrine to deceiue the world: wherefore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoide this harlots flatteries, and bragges, whose ruine without mercie they shall see, and with the heauenly companies sing continual praises: for the Lambe is married: the worde of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vntied, is nowe cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrarywise the faithfull (which are the holy Citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enioy perpetuall glorie. Reade diligently: iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

CHAP. I.

1 The cause of this reuelation. 3 Of them that reade it. 4 John writeth to the seuen Churches. 5 The maiestie and office of the Sonne of God. 20 The vision of the candlestickes and starres.

THe [a] reuelation of IESVS CHRIST, which [b] God gaue vnto him, to shewe vnto his seruantes thinges which must shortly be [c] done: which he sent, and shewed by his Angel vnto his seruant John,

2 Who bare recorde of the worde of God, & of the testimonie of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed [is hee] that readeth, and they that heare the wordes of this [d] prophesie, and keepe those thinges which are written therein: for the time is [c] at hande.

4 John, to the [f] seuen Churches which are in Asia, Grace [be] with you, and peace from him, which * is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the [g] seuen Spirits which are before his Throne,

5 And from Jesus Christ, which is a *faithfull witnesse, [and] * the first begotten of the dead, and Prince of the Kings of the earth, vnto him that loued vs, and washed vs from our sinnes in his *blood,

6 And made vs *Kings and Priestes vnto God euen his Father, to him [be] glorie, and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 Beholde, he cõmeth with *cloudes, and euery eye shall see him: [yea,] euen they which [h] pearced him through: and all kinreds of the earth shall waile ‖ before him, Euen so, Amen.

8 I *am [i] Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, [euen] the Almightie.

9 I John, euen your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdome and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the worde of God, and for the witnessing of Jesus Christ.

10 And I was [rauished] in spirite on [k] the Lords day, and heard behinde mee a great voyce, as it had bene of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am [l] Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and that which thou seest, write in a booke, and sende it vnto the [m] seuen Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamus, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardi, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned backe to see the [n] voyce, that spake with me: and when I was turned, I sawe [o] seuen golden candlestickes, 13 And in the middes of the seuen candlestickes, one like vnto the [p] Sonne of man, clothed with a garment [q] downe to the feete, and girde about [r] the pappes with a golden girdle.

14 His head, & heares [were] [s] white as white wooll, [and] as snowe, and his eyes [were] as [t] a flame of fire.

15 And his feete like vnto ‖ fine [u] brasse, burning as in a fornace: and his [x] voyce as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seuen [y] starres: and out of his mouth went a [z] sharpe two edged sworde: and his face [shoone] as the sunne shineth in his strength.

17 And when I sawe him, I fell at his feete as * dead: then hee layed his right [a] hand vpon mee, saying vnto mee, Feare not: I am the *[b] first and the last,

18 And am aliue, but I was dead: and behold, I am aliue for euermore, Amen: and I haue the [c] keyes of hell & of death.

a Of things which were hid before.
b Christ receiued this reuelation out of his fathers bosome as his owne doctrine, but it was hid in respect of vs, so that Christ as Lord and God reueiled it to John his seruant by the ministerie of his Angell, to the edification of his Church.
c To the good and bad.
d Which expoundeth the old Prophets, and sheweth what shall come to passe in the newe Testament.
e And began euen then.
f Meaning, the Church vniuersall.
Exod.3.14.
g That is, from the holy Ghost: or these seuen Spirits were ministers before God the Father & Christ, whome after he calleth the hornes & eyes of the Lambe, Chap.5.6. In a like phrase Paul taketh God and Christ, and the Angels to witnesse, 1. Timoth.5.21.
Psalm.89.37. 1.Corinth.15.20,21. coloss.1.18. Hebr.9.14. 1.peter 1.19. 1.iohn 1.7,9. 1.Peter 2.5. Matth.24.30. isai.3.14. iude 14. h They that contemned Christ, and most cruelly persecuted him, and put him to death, shall then acknowledge him. ‖ Or, for him. Chap.21.6. and 22.13. i Alpha and Omega are the first and the last letters of the a, b, c, of the Greekes.

k Which some call sunday: Saint Paul the first day of the weeke, 1. Cor.16.2. act. 20.7. and it was established after that the Jewes Sabbath was abolished.
l I am he before whom nothing was, yea, by whom whatsoeuer is made, was made, and he that shall remaine when all things shall perish, euen I am the eternall God.
m Of the which some were fallen: others decayed: some were proude: others negligent: so that he sheweth remedie for all.
n That is, him whose voyce I heard.
o Meaning the Churches.
p Which was Christ ỹ head of the Church.
q As the chiefe Priest.
r For in him was no concupiscence, which is signified by girding the lopnes.
s To signifie his wisedome, eternitie and diuinitie.
t To see the secrets of the heart.
‖ Or, Alcumine.
u His iudgements and wayes are most perfect. x Both because all nations praise him, and also his worde is heard and preached through the worlde. y Which are the pastors of the Churches. z This sword signified his word and the vertue thereof, as is declared, Hebr.4.12. Dan.10.8,9. a To comfort me. Isai.41.4. and 44.6. b Equall God with my Father, and eternall. c That is, power ouer them.

19 Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall come here [d] after.

20 The mysterie of the seuen starres which thou sawest [e] in my right hande, and the seuen golden candlestickes, [is this,] The seuen starres are the [f] Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

d In the latter dayes.

e In my protection.

f That is, the ministers, Mal.2,7.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth foure Churches 5 To repentance, 10 To perseuerance, patience, and amendement: 5.14.20.23 As well by threatnings, 7.10.17.26 As promises of rewarde.

UNto the [a] Angel of the Church of Ephesus write, These things saith hee that [b] holdeth the seuen starres in his [c] right hand, and [d] walketh in the middes of the seuen golden candlestickes.

2 I knowe thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience, and howe thou canst not forbeare them which are euill, and hast examined them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them lyers.

3 And thou hast suffred, and hast patience, and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Neuertheless, I haue [somewhat] against thee, because thou hast left thy first [e] loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, & repent, and do the first workes: or els I will come against thee shortly, & will remoue thy [f] candlesticke out of his place, except thou amende.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the workes of the [g] Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 Let him that hath an eare, heare, what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches, To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the tree of [h] life, which is in the middes of the Paradise of God.

8 And vnto the [i] Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These things saith he that is first, and last, which was dead, and is [k] aliue.

9 I knowe thy workes and [l] tribulation, and pouertie, (but thou art [m] riche) and [I knowe] the blasphemie of them, which say they are Iewes, & [n] are not, but [are] the Synagogue of Satan.

a To the pastor or minister which are called by this name, because they are Gods messengers, and haue their office common with Iesus Christ, who also is called an Angell.

b Read Chap. 1,13.

c In his protection.

d According to his promes, Matth.28,20. he will be with them to the ende of the worlde.

e The first loue that thou haddest toward God and thy neighbour at the first preaching of the Gospel.

f The office of the Pastor is compared to a candlesticke or lampe, forasmuch as he ought to shine before men.

g These were heretikes which held that wiues should be common, & as some thinke, were named of one called Nicolas, of whom is written, Actes 6,5. which was chosen among the Deacons.

h Meaning the life euerlasting: thus by corporall benefits, he raiseth them vp to consider spirituall blessings. i This is thought to be Polycarpus, who was minister of Smyrna, 86. yeres as he himselfe cõfessed before Herodes, when as he was led to be burned for Christes cause.

k The eternal Diuinitie of Iesus Christ is here most plainly declared, with his manhood and victorie ouer death, to assure his that they shall not be ouercome by death. l This was the persecution vnder the Emperour Domitian. m In spirituall treasures. n They are not Abrahams children according to the faith.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: behold, it shall come to passe, that the [o] deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be [p] tryed, and ye shal haue tribulation [q] ten dayes: be thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the spirit saith to the Churches. He that ouercommeth, shall not be hurt of the [r] seconde death.

12 And to the Angell of the Church which is at Pergamus write, This saith he which hath the sharpe [s] sworde with two edges.

13 I knowe thy workes and where thou dwellest, [euen] where Satans [t] throne is, and thou keepest my Name, and hast not denied my faith, [u] euen in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a fewe things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintaine the [x] doctrine of * Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 Euen so hast thou them, that maintaine the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent thy selfe, or els I wil come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sworde of my mouth.

17 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the spirit saith vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the Manna that is [y] hid, & will giue him a [z] white stone, and in the stone a [a] newe name written, which no man knoweth sauing he that receiueth it.

18 ¶ And vnto the Angell of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saith the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like ‖ fine brasse.

19 I know thy workes and thy loue, and [b] seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that [they are] mo at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a fewe things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman * [c] Iezabel, which calleth o Here he nameth the authour of all our calamitie, incouraging vs manfully to fight against him, in promising vs the victorie.

p The ende of affliction is, that we may be tryed and not destroyed.

q Signifying many times as Gen.31,41. nom.14,22, although there shalbe comfort and release.

r The first death is the naturall death of the body, the second is the eternall death: from the which all are free that beleeue in Iesus Christ, Ioh n 5.24.

s The word of God is the sword with two edges, Heb. 4.12.

t All townes and countries whence Gods word and good liuing is banished, are the throne of Satan, and all those places where the word is not preached syncerely, nor maners arighte reformed.

u In the verie heate of persecution and slaughter of the martyrs they continued in the pure faith, and therefore are commended after a sort.

x All such are like counsellours to Balaam, which for lucre perswade to idolatrie or whoredome. Nomb. 23.14. and 25.1.

y And not common to all.

z Such a stone was wont to be giuen to them that had gotten any victorie or prise, in signe of honour, and therefore it signifieth here a token of Gods fauour and grace: also it was a signe that one was cleared in iudgement.

a The new name also signifieth, renoume and honour. ‖ Or, Alcumine. b To helpe the Saints. 1.King.16,31. c As that harlot Iezabel maintained strange religion, and exercised crueltie against the seruants of God, so are there among them that doe the like.

her her selfe a Prophetesse, to teache and to deceiue my seruãts to make them [d] commit fornication, and to eate meates sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Beholde, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

23 And I will kill her [e] children with death: and all the Churches shall know that I am he which [*] searche the reines and hearts: and I will giue vnto euerye one of you according vnto your workes.

24 And vnto you I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, as many as haue not this learning, neither haue known the [f] deepenesse of Satan (as [g] they speake) I will put vpon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye haue already, holde fast till I come.

26 For he that ouercommeth and keepeth my workes vnto the ende, to him will I giue power ouer nations, 27 [*] And hee shall rule them with a rodde of yron: [and] as the vessels of a potter, shall they be broken.

28 Euen as I receiued of my Father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith to the Churches.

d They that consent to idolatrie and false doctrine, commit spirituall whoredome, whereof followeth corporall whoredome, Hose.4.13.

e Them that followe her wayes, 1.Sam.16.7. psal.7.9. iere.11.20. and 17.10.

f The false teachers termed their doctrine by this name, as though it contained the most deepe knowledge of heauenly things, and was in deede drawen out of ye deepe dungeon of hell: by such learnes nowe the Anabaptists, Libertines, Papists, Arrians, &c. vse to beautifie their mischeuous errors and blasphemies.

g The children of Iezabel. Psal.2.9.

CHAP. III.

He exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true profession of fayth and to watching, 12 With promes to them that perseuere.

AND write vnto the Angell of the Church which is at Sardi, These things sayth hee that hath the seuen spirits of God, and the seuen starres, I know thy workes: for thou hast a name that thou [a] liuest, but thou art dead.

a The minister liueth when he hath greate fruites, els he is dead.

2 Bee awake and strengthen the things which remaine, that are ready to die: for I haue not found thy workes perfite before God.

3 Remember therefore, howe thou hast receiued and heard, and holde fast, and repent. [*] If therefore thou wilt not watch, I will come on thee as a theefe, and thou shalt not know what houre I will come vpon thee.

Chap.16.15. 1.thes.5.2. 2.per.3.10.

4 [Notwithstanding] thou hast a fewe [||] names yet in Sardi, which haue not [b] defiled their garments: and they shall walke with me in white: for they are worthie.

||Or, persons.

b Either by consenting to idolaters, or els polluting their confessiõ with any euill

5 He that ouercommeth, shall be clothed in white aray, and I will not put out his name out of the [*] booke of life, but I will confesse his Name before my Father, and before his Angels.

Chap.20.12. and 21.27. phil.4.3.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare, what the Spirit sayth vnto the Churches.

7 ¶ And write vnto the Angell of the Church which is of Philadelphia, These things sayth hee that is holye and True, which hath the [*] [c] keye of Dauid, which openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth, Es.22.22. iob 12.14.

c Which signifieth that Christ hath all the power ouer the house of Dauid, which is the Church, so that he may either receiue or put out who he will.

8 I knowe thy workes: beholde, I haue set before thee an open [d] doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a litle strength and hast kept my worde, and hast not denied my Name.

d Which is to aduance the kingdome of God.

9 Beholde, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which call them selues Iewes and are not, but doe lie: beholde, [I say,] I will make them, that they shal come and [e] worship before thy feete, and shall know that I haue loued thee.

e I will cause them in thy sight to humble themselues, and to giue due honor to God, and to his sonne Christ.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of tentation, which will come vpon all the worlde, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Behold, I come shortly: hold that which thou hast, that no man take thy [f] crowne.

f Let no man plucke them away which thou hast wone to God: for they are thy crowne, as S. Paul witnesseth, saying, Brethren, ye are my ioy and my crowne, Phili.4.1. 1.thes.2.19.

12 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in [g] the Temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the name of the citie of my God, [which is] the newe Ierusalem, which commeth downe out of heauē from my God, and [I will write vpon him] my newe Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit sayth vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things sayeth [h] Amen, the faythfull and true witnesse, the [i] beginning of [k] creatures of God.

g That is, truethe selfe.

h Of whom all creatures haue their beginning.

15 I know thy workes, that thou art neither colde nor hote: I would thou were colde or hote.

16 Therefore, because thou art lukewarme, and neither colde nor hote, it will come to passe, that I shall spewe thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I [i] am rich and increased with goods, and haue [k] neede of nothing, and knowest not howe thou art wretched and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buie of me golde tryed by the fire, that thou mayest be made riche, & white rayment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that thy filthie nakednes do not appeare: and [l] anoint thine eyes with eye salue, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I loue, I *rebuke and chasten: be [m] zealous therefore and amende.

20 Beholde, I stand at the doore, and knocke. If any man heare my voyce and open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will suppe with him, and hee with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, will I grant to sitte with me in my [n] throne, euen as I ouercame, and sitte with my Father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit sayth vnto the Churches.

i Perswading thy selfe of that which thou hast not.
k Thus the hypocrites boast of their owne power and doe not vnderstand their infirmities to seeke to Christ for remedie.
l Suffer the eyes of thine vnderstanding to be opened. Prou. 30.12. Hebr. 12.5.
m Nothing more displeaseth God then indifferencie and coldnesse in religion, and therefore he will spewe such out as are not zealous and feruent.
n In my seate royall, and to be partaker of mine heauenly ioyes.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The vision of the maiestie of God. 2 Hee seeth the throne, and one sitting vpon it, 8 And xxiiii. seates about it with xxiiii. elders sitting vpon them, and foure beastes praysing God day and night.

AFter this I looked, and beholde, a [a] doore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as [it were] of a trumpet talking with me, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shewe thee things which must be done hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was [rauished] in the spirit, and beholde, a throne was set in heauen, & one sate vpon ỹ throne.

3 And [b] he that sate, was to looke vpon, like vnto a iasper stone, and a sardine, & there [was] a raineboWe rounde about the throne in sight like to an emeraude.

4 And round about ỹ throne [were] foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe [c] foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, & had on their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne [d] proceeded [e] lightnings, and thundrings, & voyces, and there were seuen lampes of fire, burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

a Before that he make mention of ỹ great afflictions of the Church, he setteth foorth the maiestie of God, by whose will, wisdome, and prouidẽce all things are created, and gouerned, to teache vs patience.
b He describeth the diuine and incomprehensible vertue of God the Father, as chap. 5.6. and the Sonne who is ioyned with him.
c By these are ment, all the holy companie of the heauens.
d From the throne of the Father, and the Sonne proceedeth the holy Ghost, who hauing all but one throne, declare the vnitie of the Godhead.
e The holy Ghost is as a lightning vnto vs that beleeue, and as a fearefull thunder to the disobedient.

6 And before the throne there [was] a [f] sea of glasse like vnto [g] christall: and in the ‖ midst of the throne, and rounde about the throne [were] foure [h] beastes full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast [was] like a lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast [was] like a flying egle.

8 And the foure beastes had eche one of them sixe winges about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, [i] *Holy, holy, holy Lord God almightie, which was, and which is, and which is to come.

9 And when those beastes gaue glorie, and honour, and thankes to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that sate on ỹ throne, and worshipped him, that liueth for euermore, [k] and cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art * worthie, O Lorde, to receiue glory and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy willes sake they are, and haue bene created.

f The worlde is compared to a Sea, because of the changes and vnstablenes.
g It is as cleare as christall before the eyes of God, because there is nothing in it so litle that is hid from him. ‖ Or, vnder the throne.
h They are called Cherubins, Eze. 10.20.
i We are hereby taught to giue glorie to God in all his workes. Isai 6.3. k They will chalenge no authoritie, honor nor power before God. Chap. 5.12.

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8. 14 And therefore the foure beastes, the xxiiii. elders, and the Angels prayse the Lambe, and doe him worship 9 For their redemption and other benefites.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne, [a] a Booke written within, and on the backeside, sealed with [b] seuen seales.

2 And I sawe a strong Angel, which preached with a loude voyce, who is worthie to open the booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth, was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthie to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the elders said vnto me, weepe not: beholde, the *Lyon which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obtained to open the Booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the foure beastes, and in the middes of the Elders, stoode a [c] Lambe as though he had bene killed, which a A similitude take of earthly princes, which iudge by bookes and writings: and here it doth signifie all the counsels and iudgements of God, which are onely knowen to Christ the Sonne of Dauid, vers. 5.

b That is, many.
Gen. 49.9.
c This vision confirmeth the power of our Lorde Iesus, which is the Lambe of God that taketh away the sinne of the worlde.

Which had [d] seuen hornes, and [e] seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the worlde.

7 And he came, and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken ỹ Booke, the foure beastes, and the foure & twentie Elders fell [f] downe before ỹ Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vialles ful of odours, which are the [g] prayers of the Saints.

9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthie to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast [h] redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our God *Kings and Priestes, & we shal [i] reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, & heard the voyce of many Angels rounde about the throne, and [about] the beastes and the Elders, and there [were] * thousande thousands,

12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthie is the * Lambe that was killed to receiue power and riches, and wisdome, and strength, and honour, and glorie, and prayse.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying, Prayse and honour, and glory, and power [be] vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts sayd, Amen, and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

d That is, manifolde power.
e Signifying the fulnes of the Spirit, which Christ powreth vpon all.
f The Angels honor Christ: he is therefore God.
g This declareth howe the prayers of the faythfull are agreeable vnto God, read Act. 10.4.chap.8,3 h Our Sauiour Jesus hath redeemed his Church by his blood shedding and gathered it of al nations. 1.Pet.2.9.
i Not corporally.
Dan.7.10.
Chap.4.11.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the sixe seales, and many things followe the opening thereof, so that this containeth a generall prophesie to the ende of the worlde.

AFter, I beheld when the Lambe had opened one [a] of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beasts say, as [it were] the [b] noyse of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and lo, there [was] a [c] white horse, and he that [d] sate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and hee went foorth conquering that hee might ouercome.

a The opening of the seale is the declaration of Gods will, and the executing of his iudgements.
b Signifying, that there were merueylous things to come.
c The white horse signifieth innocencie, victorie, and felicitie which shoulde come by the preaching of the Gospell.
d Hee that rideth on the white horse, is Christ.

3 And when hee had opened the seconde seale, I heard the seconde beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, [that was] [e] red, and power was giuen to him that [f] sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, & lo, [g] a blacke horse, and hee that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beastes say, A [h] measure of wheate for a [i] penie, and three measures of barly for a penie, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And whē he had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde, a [k] pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and ‖ Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sworde, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beastes of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the [l] fift seale, I saw vnder the altar [m] the soules of them, that were killed for the word of God, and for the testimonie which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Howe long, Lorde, holy and true! doest not thou iudge and auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was sayde vnto them, that they should rest for a litle season vntill their fellowe seruants, and their brethren that should be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when hee had opened the sixt seale, and lo, there was a great [n] earthquake, and the [o] sunne was as blacke as [p] sackecloth of heare, and the [q] moone was like blood.

13 And the [r] starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, as a figge tree casteth her greene figs, when it is shaken of a mightie winde.

14 And [s] heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and yle were moued out of their places.

15 And

e Signifying, ỹ cruel warres that insued when the Gospell was refused.
f Who was Satan.
g This signifieth an extreme famine and want of all things.
h The Greeke worde signifieth that measure which was ordinarily giuen to seruants for their portion or stint of meat for one day.
i Which amounted about foure pence halfepenie.
k Whereby is ment sickneſſe, plagues, pestilence, and death of man and beast.
‖ Or, the graue.
l The continuall persecution of the Church noted by ỹ fift seale.
m The soules of the Saintes are vnder the altar, which is Christ, meaning that they are in his safe custody in the heauens.
n Which signifieth the change of the true doctrine, which is the greatest cause of motions and troubles that come to the worlde.
o That is, the brightnes of the Gospell.
p The traditions of men.
q The Church miserably defaced with idolatrie and afflicted by tyrants.
r Doctours and preachers that depart frō the trueth.
s The kingdome of God is hid, & withdrawen from men, and appeareth not.

15 And the Kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaines, and the mightie men, and euery bondman, & euery free man, hid themselues in dennes, and among the rockes of the mountaines,

16 And saide to [t] the mountaines and rockes, * [u] Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

t Realmes, kingdomes, and persons, that did seeme to be as stable in the faith as mountaines. Isa.2.19. hose. 10.8. luke 23.30.

u Such men afterward, of what estate so euer they be, shalbe desperate, and not able to sustaine the weight of Gods wrath, but shall continually feare his iudgemẽts.

CHAP. VII.

4. 9 Hee seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheads out of all nations and people, 15 Which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water, 17 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

AND after that, I sawe foure Angels stande on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure [a] windes of the [b] earth, that [p] windes should not blowe on the earth, neither on the [c] sea, neither on any [d] tree.

a The spirit is compared to winde, and the doctrine also: and though there be one spirit and one doctrine, yet foure are here named in respect of the diuersitie of the foure quarters of the earth where the Gospel is spread, and for [p] foure writers thereof, and [p] preachers of the same through the whole worlde.

b Meaning, the men of the earth.

c That is, the Ilands.

d Signifying all men in generall, who can no more liue without this spirituall doctrine, then trees can blossome & beare, except the winde blowe vpon them.

2 And I sawe another ‖ Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loud voyce to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea,

‖ Or, Christ.

3 Saying, [e] Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither [p] trees, till we haue [f] sealed the seruants of our God in their foreheads.

e God preuenteth the dangers and euils, which otherwise woulde ouerwhelme the elect.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, & there [were] sealed [g] an hundreth & foure & fourtie thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

f Those that are sealed by [p] spirit of God, and marked with the blood of the Lambe, and lightned in faith by the worde of God, so that they make open profession of the same, are exempted from euill.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Ruben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousande.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelue thousand. Of [p] tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of [h] Leui were sealed twelue thousande. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

g Though that this blindnes be brought into the worlde by the malice of Satan, yet the mercies of God reserue to him selfe an infinite number which shall be saued, both of the Iewes and Gentiles through Christ. h Hee omitteth Dan, and putteth Leui in, whereby he meaneth the twelue Tribes.

8 Of the tribe of [i] Joseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed twelue thousād.

i That is, the tribe of Ephraim, which was Josephs sõne.

9 After these things I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man coulde number, of all nations and kinreds, and people, and tongues, stoode before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long [k] white robes, and [l] palmes in their handes.

k In signe of puritie.

l In token of victorie and felicitie.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, [m] Saluation [commeth] of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

m All that are saued, attribute their saluation vnto God onely and to his Christ, and to none other thing.

11 And all the Angels stood rounde about the throne, and [about] the Elders, and the foure beastes, and they fel before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen. Prayse and glorie, and wisedome, and thankes, & honour, and power, and might, [be] vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

n There is no puritie nor cleannesse, but by the blood of Christ onely, which purgeth our sinnes, and so maketh vs white.

o That is, of the maiestie of God the Father, the sonne and the holy Ghost.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto me, What are these which are arayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I sayd vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he sayde to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in [n] the blood of the Lambe.

p Meaning continually: for els in heauen there is no night. Isa.49.10.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne [o] of God, and serue him day and [p] night in his Temple, and hee that sitteth on the throne, will dwell among them.

q For all infirmitie and miserie shalbe then taken away.

16 * They shall [q] hunger no more, neyther thirst any more, neither shall the sunne [r] light on them, neither any heate.

r They shall haue no more griefe & paine, but still ioy and consolation.

17 For the [f] Lambe, which is in the [t] middes of the throne, shall gouerne them, and shall leade them vnto [u] the liuely fountaines of waters, and * God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

s Jesus Christ the mediatour and redeemer.

t Which is very God.

u He shal giue them life and conserue them in eternall felicitie. Isa.25.8. chap.21.4.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The seuenth seale is opened: there is silence in heauen. 6 The foure Angels blowe their trumpets, and great plagues followe vpon the earth.

AND when he had opened the [a] seuenth seale, there was [b] silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

a Under the first seale hee touched in generall the corruption of the doctrine: but vnder the seuenth hee sheweth the great danger thereof, & what troubles, sects, & heresies haue bene & shalbe brought into [p] church thereby.

b That [p] hearers might be more attentiue.

2 And

2 And I saw the seuen Angels, which stoode [c] before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

3 Then another Angel came & stoode before the altar hauing a golden censer, and much odours was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon ỹ golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with [d] fire of the altar, and cast it into the [e] earth, and [f] there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpets, prepared them selues to blowe the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel [g] blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of [h] trees was burnt, and all greene [i] grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel [k] powre the trumpet, and as [it were] a great [k] mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of [l] shippes were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blewe the trumpet, and there fell [m] a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called Wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became Wormewood, and many men dyed of the [n] waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blewe the trumpet, & the third part of the [o] sunne was smitten, and the third part of the [p] moone, & the third part of the [q] starres, so that ỹ third part of them was [r] darkened: and the day [was smitten,] that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying through the mids of heauen, saying, with a loude voyce, [s] Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

c He sheweth the only remedie in our afflictions, to wit, to appeare before the face of God by the meanes of Jesus Christ, who is the Angel, the sacrifice, and the Priest, which presenteth our prayers, which remaine yet in earth, before the altar and diuine maiestie of God.
d He meaneth by fire ỹ grace of god wherby we are purged and made cleane, Isa. 6, 6 e He powreth the graces of the holy ghost into the hearts of the faithfull.
f When this grace is declared, meruelous rebellions arise against it by reason of the wicked, who can neither abide to heare their sinnes touched, nor mercie offred.
g That is, proclaimeth war against the Church, and troubles by false doctrine, and so admonisheth them to watch.
h That is, the most part of men were seduced.
i Euen the very elect were sore tryed and proued.
k Diuers sects of the heretiks were spred abroade in the world.
l Meaning the ship masters, & so them that had any gouernment.
m That is, some excellent minister of the Church, which shall corrupt the scriptures.
s Horrible threatnings against the Infidels and rebellious persons.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fift and sixt Angel blowe their trumpets: the starre falleth from heauen. 3 The locustes come out of the smoke. 12 The first wo is past. 14 The foure Angels that were bound, are loosed. 18 And the third part of men is killed.

AND the fift Angel blewe the trumpet, & I sawe [a] a starre which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, & to him was giuen the [b] key of the bottomles pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the [c] smoke of a great fornace, and the sunne, and the aire were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d] Locustes vpon the earth, & vnto them was giuen [e] power, as the [f] scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the [g] grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but onely those [h] men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commanded that they should not [i] kill them, but that they should be [k] vexed fiue moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that commeth of a [l] scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

6 *Therefore in those dayes shall men [m] seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to dye, and death shall flee from them.

7 *And ỹ forme of the locustes [was] like vnto [n] horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heads [were] as [it were] [o] crownes, like vnto golde, and their faces [p] [were] like the faces of men.

8 And they had heare as the [q] heare a That is, the Bishops & ministers, which forsake the word of God, and so fall out of heauen & become Angels of darkenes.

b This authoritie chiefly is committed to the Pope, in signe whereof he beareth the keyes in his armes.
c Abundance of heresies and errors, which couer with darkenesse Christ and his Gospel.
d Locusts are false teachers, heretikes, and worldly subtill Prelats, with Monkes, Fryers, Cardinals Patriarkes, Archbyshoppe, Bishops, doctors, Bacheilers and Maisters which forsake Christ, to mainteine false doctrine.
e False & deceiuable doctrine, which is pleasant to the flesh.
f That is, secretly to persecute & to sting with their taile as Scorpions n Which here signifie false and corrupt doctrine. o That is, of Christ who is the Sunne of iustice, meaning, that men by boasting of their workes and merits obscure Christ and tread his death vnder feete. p That is, of the Church. q Of the ministers and teachers, which haue not taught, as they ought to doe. r These are plagues for the contempt of the Gospell.

doe: such is the facion of the hypocrites. g For the false Prophets can not destroy the elect, but such as are ordeined to perdition. h That is, the infidels whome Satan blindeth with the efficacie of errour, 2. Thess. 2. 11. i Though the elect be hurt, yet they cannot perish. k The elect for a certaine space and at times are in troubles: for the grashoppers endure but from Aprill to September, which is fiue moneths. l For at the beginning the sting of their conscience seemeth as nothing, but except they soone seeke remedie, they perish. Isai. 2. 19. hose. 10. 8. luke 23. 30. chap. 6. 16. m Such is the terrour of the vnbeleeuing conscience, which hath no assurance of mercie, but feeleth the iudgment of God against it, when men embrace errour, and refuse the true simplicitie of Gods worde. Wisd. 16. 9. n Which signifieth that the Popes clergie shall be proude, ambitious, bolde, stoute, rash, rebellious, stubburne, cruell, lecherous, and authours of warre and destruction of the simple children of God. o They pretende a certaine title of honour, which indeede belongeth nothing vnto them, as the Priestes by their crownes and strange apparell declare. p That is, they pretende great gentlenesse and loue: they are wise, politike, subtill, eloquent, and in worldly craftinesse passe all in all their doings. q That is, effeminate, delicate, idle, trimming themselues to please their harlots.

of women, and their [r] teeth were as the teeth of lyons.

9 And they had [s] habbergions, like to habbergions of yron: and the sound of their [t] wings [was] like the sound of charets when many horses runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were [u] stings in their tailes, and their power was to hurt men fiue moneths.

11 And they haue a King ouer them, which is the [x] Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrewe [is,] [y] Abaddon, and in Greeke hee is named Apollyon.

12 One Woe is past, [and] beholde, yet two Woes come after this.

13 ¶ Then the sixt Angel blewe the trumpet, and I heard a [z] voyce from the foure hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixt Angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the foure [a] Angels, which are bound in the great riuer Euphrates.

15 And the foure Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an [b] houre, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yeere, to slay the third part of men.

16 And the nomber of horsemen of warre were twenty thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the nomber of them.

17 And thus I sawe the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, hauing fierie habbergions, and of Jacinth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, [that is,] of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the brimstone which came out of their mouthes,

19 For their power is in their [c] mouthes, and in their tayles: for their tayles were like vnto serpents, & had heads, wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, [d] repented not of the workes of their hands that they should not worship deuils, and *idoles of golde, & of siluer, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare nor goe.

21 Also they repented not of their murther, and of their sorcerie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

r Signifying their oppressiõ of the poore and crueltie against Gods Children.
s Which signifieth their hardnes of heart and obstination in their errors, with their assurance vnder the protection of worldly princes.
t For as though they had wings, so are they lifted vp aboue the common sort of men and esteemed most holy, and doe all things with rage & fiercenesse.
u To infect and kill with their venemous doctrine.
x Which is Antichrist the Pope, king of hypocrites, and Satans ambassadour.
y That is, destroyer: for Antichrist the sonne of perdition destroyeth mens soules with false doctrine, and the whole world with fire and sword.
z Which was the voyce of Christ, sitting on the right hand of the father.
a Meaning the enemies of the East countrey, which should afflict the Church of God, as dyd the Arabians, Saracins, Turkes and Tartarians.
b This signifieth the great readinesse of the enemies.
c Which signifieth their false doctrine and hypocrisie.
d And therefore were iustly destroyed.
Psal. 115.4, & 135.15.

CHAP. X.

1 The Angel hath the booke open. 6 He sweareth there shall be no more time. 9 He giueth the booke vnto Iohn, which eateth it vp.

AND I sawe another mightie [a] Angel come downe from heauen, clothed w̃ a cloude, and the [b] rainebowe vpon his head, and his face was as the [c] sunne, and his [d] feete as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a litle [e] booke open, and he put his right foote vpon the sea, and [his] left on the earth,

3 And cryed with a [f] loude voyce, as when a lyon roareth: and when he had cryed, seuen [g] thunders vttered their voyces.

4 And when the seuen thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: But I heard a voyce from heauen saying vnto me, *[h] Seale vp those things which the seuen thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea and vpon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And sware [i] by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, & the earth, and the thinges that therein are, and the sea, & the things which therein are, that time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the seuenth Angel, when he shall beginne to blowe the trumpet, euen the [k] mysterie of God shalbe finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto [l] me againe and said, Go, & take the litle booke which is open in the hand of the [m] Angel, which standeth vpon the sea and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and sayde to him, Giue me the litle [n] booke. And he said vnto me, *Take it, & [o] eate it vp, & it shall make thy bellie bitter, but it shalbe in thy mouth as sweete as honie.

10 Then I tooke the litle booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as [p] sweete as honie: but when I had eaten it, my a Which was Jesus Christ that came to comfort his church against the furious assaults of Satan and Antichrist: so that in all their troubles, the faithfull are sure to finde consolation in him.

b Jesus Christ beareth the testimonie of Gods loue toward vs.
c It ouercame all the darknes of the Angel of the botomles pit.
d Straight, strong, & pure from al corruptions.
e Meaning the Gospel of Christ, which Antichrist can not hide, seeing Christ bringeth it open in his hand.
f Which declareth that in despite of Antichrist the gospel shoulde be preached through al the world: so that the enemies shalbe astonied.
g The whole graces of Gods spirit bent themselues against Antichrist.
Dan. 12.4.
h Beleeue that that is written: for there is no neede to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children.
i That is, by God with whom Christ by his diuinitie is equall.
k The faithful shall vnderstand and see this mysterie of the last iudgement, the damnation of Antichrist and infidels, and also the glorie of the iust at the resurrection.
l As Saint Iohn vnderstood this by reuelation, so is the same reuealed to the true preachers to discouer the Pope, and Antichrist.
m Meaning Christ.
n That is, the holy Scriptures: which declareth that the minister must receiue them at the hand of God, before he can preach them to others. Exo. 3.1.
o Which signifieth that the ministers ought to receiue the word into their hearts, & to haue graue & deepe iudgement, & diligently to studie it, & with zeale to vtter it.
p Signifying that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the worde of God, yet shall he haue sore, and grieuous enemies, which shall be troublesome vnto him.

bellie

bellie was bitter.

11 And he sayd vnto me, Thou must prophecie [q] againe among ỹ people and nations, and tongues, & to many Kings.

[q] Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this booke after his death should be as a preaching vnto all nations.

CHAP. XI.

1 The temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raised vp by the Lord, are murdered by the beast, 11 But after received to glorie. 15 Christ is exalted, 16 And God prayed by the foure and twentie Elders.

[a] Which declareth that Christ Jesus will build his Church and not haue it destroyed: for he measureth out his spirituall Temple.

THen was giuen me a reede, like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise & [a] mete the Temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [b] the court which is without the Temple cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy [c] citie shall they treade vnder foote [d] two and fourtie moneths.

[b] The Jewish Temple was deuided into three partes: the body of ỹ Temple which is called ỹ court, whereinto euery man entred: the holy places where the Leuites were: and the holiest of all, whereinto ỹ hie Priest once a yeere entred: in respect therefore of these two latter, the first is sayde to be cast out, because as a thing prophane it is neglected whē the Temple is measured, and yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the temple, and that none are of the Temple but they.

[c] That is, the Church of God.

[d] Meaning a certaine time: for God hath limited the times of Antichristes tyrannie.

3 But I will giue [power] vnto my [e] two witnesses, and they shall prophecie a [f] thousand, two hundreth, and three score dayes, clothed in [g] sackcloth.

4 These are two [h] oliue trees, and two candlesticks, standing before the God of the [i] earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, [k] thus must he be killed.

6 These haue power to shut [l] heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophecying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into [m] blood, and to smite the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finished their testimonie, the [n] beast that commeth out of the bottomles pit, shall make warre against them, & shall [o] ouercome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpses shall lye in the streetes of the great [p] citie, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kinreds, and tongues, and Gentiles shal see their corpses three dayes and an halfe, & shall not suffer their carkeises to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon ỹ earth, shall reioyce ouer them, and be glad, and shall send giftes one to another: for these two Prophets [q] vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

[q] The infidels are tormented by hearing the trueth preached.

11 But after three dayes and an halfe, the spirit of life [comming] from God, shall enter into them, & they shall [r] stand vp vpon their feete: and great feare shall come vpon them which sawe them.

[r] Which shall be at the last resurrection.

12 And they shall heare a great voyce from heauen, saying vnto them, [s] Come vp hither. And they shall ascende vp to heauen in a cloude, and their enemies shall see them.

[s] For it seemed that Antichrist had chased them out of the earth.

13 And the same houre shall there be a great earthquake, & the tenth part of the citie [t] shall fal, and in the earthquake shalbe slaine in nomber seuen thousand: and the remnant shall be afraide, [u] and giue glorie to the God of heauen.

[t] Of ỹ power of Antichrist.

[u] When they shall vnderstand by Gods worde the glorie of his, and the punishment of his enemies, they shall fall from the Pope and glorifie God.

14 The second Wo is past, [and] beholde the third Wo wil come anon.

15 And the seuenth Angel blewe the trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, saying, The [x] kingdomes of this world are our Lords, & his Christs, and he shall reigne for euermore.

[x] Albeit Satan by ỹ Pope, Turke and other instruments troubleth the world neuer so much, yet Christ shall reigne.

16 Then the foure and twentie Elders, which sate before God on their seates, fel vpon their faces, and worshipped [y] God, [y] Jesus Christ.

17 Saying, [z] We giue thee thankes, Lorde God almightie, which art, and which wast, and which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdome.

[z] This declareth the office of the godly which is to giue God thanks for the deliuerance of his, & to prayse his iustice for punishing of his enemies.

18 And the Gentiles were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be iudged, & that thou shouldest giue reward vnto thy seruants the Prophets, & to the Saints, and to them that feare thy Name, to small and great, and shouldest destroy them, which destroy the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was seene in his Temple the Arke of his couenant: and there were [a] lightnings, and voyces, and thundrings, and earthquake, and much haile.

[a] Which signifie the destruction of the enemies.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victorie is gotten to the comfort of the faythfull.

[e] Whereby are signified the excellent graces of them which beare witnesse to the Gospell. [f] Signifying a certaine time: for when God giueth strength to his ministers, their persecutions seeme, as it were but for a day or two. [g] In poore and simple apparell. [h] Whereby are signified the excellent graces of them which beare witnesse to the Gospell. [i] Who hath dominion ouer the whole earth. [k] By Gods worde, whereby his ministers discomfit the enemies. [l] They denounce Gods iudgment against the wicked, that they cannot enter into heauen. [m] Which is to declare & procure Gods vengeance. [n] That is, the Pope which hath his power out of hell, & commeth thence. [o] He sheweth how ỹ Pope, gaineth ỹ victorie, not by Gods word, but by cruell warre. [p] Meaning ỹ whole iurisdiction of ỹ Pope, which is compared to Sodom for their abominable sinne, & to Egypt because the true liberty to serue God is taken away from the faithful: & Christ was condemned by Pilate who representeth the Romane power which should be enemie to the godly.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A [a]woman clothed with [y] sunne, and the [b]moone [was] vnder her feete, and vpon her head a [c] crowne of twelue starres.

2 And she was with childe and [d] cried trauailing in birth, and was pained readie to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for beholde, a great [e] red dragon hauing [f] seuen heads, and ten hornes, and seuen crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his tayle drewe the [g] thirde part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman, which was ready to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when she had brought it forth.

5 So she brought forth a [h] man childe, which should rule all nations with a *rod of yron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into [i] wildernes where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feede her there a thousand, two hundreth and three score dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen. [k] Michael & his Angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his Angels.

8 But they preuailed not, neither was their place found any more in [l] heauen.

9 And the great dragon, that olde serpent, called the deuill & Satan, was cast out, which deceiueth all the worlde: he was [euen] cast into the earth, and his Angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loud e voyce, saying, Nowe is saluation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for [y] accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by [y] blood of the Lambe, and by the worde of their testimonie, and they [m] loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and ye that dwell in them. Wo to the [n] inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuil is come downe vnto you which hath great wrath, knowing that hee hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon sawe that he was [o] cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man [childe.]

14 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great eagle, that she might flie into the wildernes, into [p] her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And [y] serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that he might cause her to be caried away of the flood.

16 But the [q] earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the [r] remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Jesus Christ.

18 And I stoode on the sea sand.

a In this third vision is declared howe the Church which is compassed about with Jesus Christ the sonne of righteousnesse, is persecuted of Antichrist.
b The Church treadeth vnder foote whatsoeuer is mutable and inconstant, with all corrupt affections and such like.
c Which signifieth God and his word.
d The Church euer wt a most feruent desire longed that Christ should be borne, and that the faithfull might be regenerate by his power.
e The deuill, and all his power which burneth with furie, and is red with the blood of the faythfull.
f For he is the prince of this world, and almost hath the vniuersall gouernment.
g By his flatteries and promises he gaineth many of the excellent ministers and honorable persons, and bringeth them to destruction.
h Which is Jesus Christ the first borne among many brethren, who was borne of the virgin Marie, as of a speciall member of the Church. Psal. 2. 9.
i The Church was remoued from among the Jewes to the Gentiles, which were as a barren wildernes, and so it is persecuted to and fro.
o And was ouercome of Christ, then he fought against his members.
p Which the Lord had appointed for her.
q God giueth meanes to his Church to escape the furie of Satan, making his creatures to serue to the support thereof.
r Satan was not able to destroy the head nor the body, and therefore sheweth his rage against the members.

CHAP. XIII.

1, 8 The beast deceiueth the reprobate. 2, 4, 12 And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The priuiledge of the beastes marke.

AND I sawe a [a] beast rise out of [y] sea, hauing [b] seuen heads, and [c] ten hornes, & vpon his hornes [were] ten crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a [d] Leopard, & his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the [e] dragon gaue him his power and his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his [f] heads as [it were] wounded to death, but his [g] deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondred [and] followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they [h] worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to doe [i] two and fourtie moneths.

6 And he opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

a Here is the description of the Romane empire which standeth in crueltie and tyrannie.
b Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by seuen Kings or Emperors after Nero, and also is compassed about with seuen mountaines.
c Which signifie many prouinces.
d By these beasts are signified the Macedonians, Persians and Caldeans, whom the Romanes ouercame.
e That is, the Deuill.
f This may be vnderstanded of Nero, who moued the first persecution against the Church, a Jesus Christ and his members, as Apostles, Martyrs, and the rest of the faythfull. l For the dragon was depriued of all his dignitie, and had no more place in the Church. m They put their liues in danger so oft as neede required. n Meaning them that are giuen to the worlde and fleshly lustes.

and after slewe himselfe, so that the familie of the Ceasars ended in him. g For tutes, ordinances, decrees, ceremonies, and religion of the Romane Empire. h By receiuing the statutes, ordinances, decrees, ceremonies, and religion of the Romane Empire. i Antichristes time and power is limitted.

7 And

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, & to [k] ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery [l] kinred and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose [m] names are not *written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine [n] from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, he shall goe [o] into captiuitie: if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, & the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beast comming vp out of the [p] earth, which had two [q] hornes like the Lambe, but hee [r] spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first [s] beast could do before him, and hee caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first [t] beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [u] he did great wonders, so that hee made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the [x] sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the [y] image of the beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a [z] spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast shoulde [a] speake, and should cause that as many as would not [b] worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 And hee made all, both small and great, riche and poore, free and bonde, to receiue a [c] marke in their right hande or in their foreheades.

17 And [d] that no man might bye or sell, saue he that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is Wisedome. Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beast: for it is the number [e] of a man, & his number is sixe hundreth, threescore and sixe.

k In their bodies, not in soule.

l He meaneth that vniuersall departing whereof Saint Paul speaketh to the Thessalonians.

m Antichrist hath not power ouer the elect. Chap. 3.5.

n As God ordained from before all beginning, and all the sacrifices were as signes and sacraments of Christs death.

o They which led soules captiues, go themselues into captiuitie.

p As the kingdome of Christ is from heauen, & bringeth men thither: so the Popes kingdome is of the earth & leadeth to perdition, and is begun and established by ambition, couetousnes, beastlines, craft, treason and tyrannie.

q Which signifie the priesthood and the kingdome, and therefore he giueth in his armes two keyes, and hath two swords caried before him. So Boniface the viii. which first ordained the Jubile, shewed himselfe one day in apparell as a Pope, and the next day in harneis as the Emperour, and the two hornes in the Bishops Mitre are signes hereof.

r He spake diuilish doctrine, accused Gods worde of imperfection, set vp mans traditions, and spake things contrary to God and his worde.

s For the Pope in ambition, crueltie, idolatrie, and blaspheme did followe and imitate the ancient Romanes.

t Brought them to idolatrie and astonished them with the name of that holy Empire (as he termeth it.)

u The man of sinne according to the operation of Satan shalbe with all power, signes and miracles of lyes, 2. Thess. 2.9, 10.

x Before the whole Empire which representeth the first beast, and is the image thereof.

y For the first empire Romane was as the paterne, and this seconde empire is but an image and shadow thereof.

z For except the Pope confirme the authoritie of the King of Romanes, hee is not esteemed worthie to be made Emperour.

a The same thinges which the Pope, or false prophets instruct him in.

b Receiue the ordinances and decrees of the seate of Rome, and to kisse the vileins foote, if he were put thereunto.

c Whereby he renounceth Christ: for as faith, the worde and the Sacraments are the Christians markes: so this Antichrist will accept none but such as will approue his doctrine: so that it is not ynough to confesse Christ, and to beleeue the Scriptures, but a man must subscribe to the Popes doctrine: moreouer, their chrismatories, greasings, bowes, othes, and shauings are signes of this marke, in so much as no nation was excepted that had not many of these marked beastes.

d He that is not sealed with Antichrists marke, cannot be suffered to liue among men.

e Such as may be vnderstand by mans reason: for about 666. yeeres after this reuelation the Pope or Antichrist began to be manifest in the worlde: for these characters χξς signifie 666: and this number is gathered of the small number, λατεινος which in the whole make 666. and signifieth Latcinus, or Latin, which noteth the Pope or Antichrist who vseth in all things the Latin tongue, and in respect thereof he contemneth the Hebrewe and Greeke wherein the word of God was first and best written: and because Italie in olde time was called Latinum, the Italians are called Latini, so that hereby he noteth of what countrey chiefly he should come.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The notable companie of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospell, 8 Another the fall of Babylon, 9 And the thirde warneth to flee from the beast. 13 Of their blessednesse which die in the Lord. 18 Of the Lords haruest.

AND I looked, & lo, a [a] Lambe stoode on mount Sion, and with him an [b] hundreth, fourtie and foure thousande, hauing his Fathers [c] Name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the sounde of many [d] waters, and as the sounde of a great thunder: and I heard [e] the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes,

3 And they sung as [it were] a newe song before the throne, and before the foure beastes, and the Elders, and no [f] man coulde learne that song, but the hundreth, fourtie and foure thousande, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they, which are not [g] defiled with women: for they are virgins: these followe the Lambe [h] whither soeuer hee goeth: these are bought from men, being the [i] first fruites vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouthes was founde no guile: for they are without [k] spot before the throne of God.

6 ¶ Then I sawe another [l] Angell flie in the middes of heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospel, to preach vnto them, that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 *Saying with a loud voyce, [m] Feare God, & giue glorie to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made *heauen and earth, and a Jesus Christ ruleth in his Church to defend and comfort it, though the beast rage neuer so much: and seeing Christ is present euer with his Church, there can be no vicar: for where there is a vicar there is no Church.

b Meaning a great and ample Church.

c Which was the marke of their election, to wit, their faith.

d Signifying that the number of the Church should bee great, and that they should speake boldly and aloude, and so glorifie the Lord.

e None can praise God, but the elect whome he hath bought.

f By whoredome: and vnder this vice he comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly meant of idolatrie, which is the spirituall whoredome.

g For their whole delight is in the Lambe Jesus, and they loue none but him.

h Which declareth that the faithfull ought to liue iustly and holyly, that they may be the first fruites, and an excellent offering of the Lorde.

i For as much as their sinnes are pardoned, and they are clad with the iustice of Christ.

k By this Angell are meant the true ministers of Christ which preache the Gospell faithfully. Psalm. 145. 6.

l The Gospell teacheth vs to feare God and honour him, which is the beginning of heauenly wisedome. Acles 14.15.

the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there folowed another Angel, saying, *It is fallen, it is fallen, [m] Babylon the great citie: for she made all nations to drinke of the wine of the [n] wrath of her fornication.

9 ¶ And the thirde Angell followed them, saying with a loude voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue [his] marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the [o] pure wine, which is powred into the cuppe of his wrath, and hee shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And [p] smoke of their torment shall ascende euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of [p] Saintes: here are they that keepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 Then I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, [q] Blessed [are] the dead, which hereafter die ‖ in the [r] Lorde. Euen so saith the spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their workes follow them.

14 ¶ And I looked, and beholde, a white [s] cloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angell came out of the Temple, crying with a loude voyce to him that sate on the cloude, *[t] Thrust in thy sickle, and reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harueste of the earth is ripe.

16 And hee that sate on the cloude, [u] thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then an other Angell came out of the Temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And an other Angel came out from the [x] altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loude crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, and said, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, and cut downe the vines of the vineyarde of the earth, and cast them into the great wine presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the [y] wine presse was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the wine presse, vnto the [z] horse bridles by the space of a thousande and sixe hundreth furlongs.

in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and effusion of blood.

CHAP. XV.

1 Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The song of them that ouercome the beast. 7 The seuen vials full of Gods wrath.

AND I saw another [a] signe in heauen, great & marueilous, [b] seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 And I sawe as [it were] a [c] glassie sea, mingled with fire, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God,

3 And they sung the song of Moses the *seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and marueilous [are] thy workes, Lord God almightie: iust and true [are] thy *‖ wayes, King of Saintes.

4 *Who shall not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name? for thou onely [art] holy, and all nations shal come and worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and beholde, the Temple of the tabernacle of testimonie was open in heauen.

6 And [y] seuen Angels came out of the Temple, which had the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and [d] bright linen, and hauing their [e] breastes girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the [f] foure beastes gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liueth for euermore.

8 And the Temple was full of the smoke of the glorie of God and of his power, and no man was able to [g] enter into the Temple, till the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled.

Isai.21.9. iere.51.8. chap.18.2.

m Signifying Rome, for as much as the vices which were in Babylon, are found in Rome in greater abundance, as persecution of the Church of God, oppression and slauerie, with destruction of the people of God; confusion, superstition, idolatrie, impietie, and as Babylon the first Monarchie was destroyed, so shall this wicked kingdome of Antichrist haue a miserable ruine, though it be great and seemeth to extend throughout all Europa.

n By the which fornication God is prouoked to wrath: so that he suffereth many to walke in the way of the Romish doctrine to their destruction.

o That is, of his terrible iudgement.

p The faithfull are exhorted to patience.

q For they are deliuered from the horrible troubles which are in the Church, and rest with God.

‖ Or, for the Lords cause.

r Which are ingrafted in Christ by faith, which rest and stay onely on him, and reioyce to be with him: for immediatly after their death they are receiued into ioy. s Signifying that Christ shall come to iudgement in a cloude, euen as he was seene to go vp. Ioel.3.13. matth.13.39. t The ouerthrowe of the people is compared to an harueste, Isai.19.5. also to a vintage, Isai.6.3. u This is spoken familiarlie for our capacitie, alluding vnto an husbandman, who suffereth himselfe to be aduertised by his seruants when his harueste is ripe, and not that Christ hath neede to be tolde, when hee should come to iudgement for the comfort of his Church, and destruction of his enemies.

x This was Christ who is also the altar, the Priest and sacrifice.

y That is, a certaine place appointed, and not in the heauen.

z By this similitude he declareth the horrible confusion of the tyrants and infidels, which delight a This is the fourth vision which conteineth the doctrine of Gods iudgements for the destruction of the wicked and comfort of the godly.

b Meaning an infinite nomber of Gods ministers, which had infinite maners and sortes of punishments.

c Signifying this brittle and inconstant world mixt with fire, that is, troubles and afflictions, but the saints of God ouercome them all, and sing diuine songs vnto God by whose power they get the victorie. Exod.15.1. Psal.145.17.

‖ Or, actes, and deedes. Iere.10.7.

d Which is to declare that Gods iudgements are cleare, iust, and without spot.

e As readie to execute the vengeance of God.

f By the foure beastes are meant all the creatures of God, which willingly serue him for the punishment of the infidels.

g God giueth vs full entry in to his Church by destroying his enemies: for the Saintes cannot clearely knowe all Gods iudgements before the full ende of all things.

CHAP.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Angels powre out their vials full of wrath, 6 And what plagues followe thereof. 15 Admonition to take heede and watche.

AND I hearde a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seuen Angels, Goe your wayes, and powre out the [seuen] vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went, and powred out his viall vpon the earth: and there fell a noysome, and a grieuous [a] sore vpon the men, which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angell powred out his viall vpon the sea, and it became as the [b] blood of a [c] dead man: and euery liuing thing dyed in the sea.

4 And the thirde Angell powred out his viall vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they became [d] blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the [e] waters say, Lord, thou art iust, which art, and which wast, and Holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shedde the blood of the Saintes, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuarie say, Euen so, Lord God almightie, [f] true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angell powred out his viall on the sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with [g] heate of fire,

9 And men boyled in great heate, and [h] blasphemed the name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glorie.

10 And the fift Angell powred out his viall vpon the throne of the [i] beast, and his kingdome [k] wared darke, and they gnewe their tongues for sorowe, 11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, and repented not of their workes.

12 And the sixt Angel powred out his viall vpon the great riuer [l] Euphrates, and the water thereof dryed vp, that the way of the Kings of the East should be prepared.

13 And I sawe three [m] vncleane spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false Prophet.

14 For they are the spirits [n] of deuils, working miracles, to go vnto the [o] kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almightie.

15 (*Behold, I come as a thiefe. Blessed [is] he that watcheth and keepeth his [p] garments, least hee walke naked, and men see his filthinesse)

16 And they gathered them together into a place called in Hebrewe [q] Armagedon.

17 ¶ And the seuenth Angell powred out his viall into the ayre: and there came a loude voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, [r] It is done.

18 And there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mightie an earthquake.

19 And the great [s] citie was deuided into three partes, and the [t] cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, *to giue vnto her the cuppe of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fled away, and the mountaines were not found.

21 And there fell a great haile, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

a This was like the first plague of Egypt, which was sores and boyles or pockes: and this reigneth commonly among Canons, Monkes, Fryers, Nunnes, Priestes, and such filthy vermine which beare ỹ marke of the beast.
b This is like to the first plague of Egypt, which signifyeth all kindes of pestilences and contagious diseases.
c That is, corrupt and infect.
d The first plague of Egypt was like vnto this.
e He bringeth foorth these two Angels: the one which is gouernour of the waters, and the other from vnder the altar, as witnesses and commenders of Gods iust iudgements.
f For as much as thou destroyest the rebels, and preseruest thine.
g Signifying famine, drought, and hote diseases which proceede thereof.
h The wicked were harde hearted and stubborn when God punished them.
i This answereth to the ninth plague of Egypt, which signifyeth that the Popes doctrine is an horrible plague of God which keepeth men still in darke ignorance and errors.
k They shall shewe their furie, rage and blasphemie against God, when the light of his Gospell shall shine.
l By Euphrates which was the strength of Babylon, is meant the riches, strength, pleasures, and commodities of Rome the second Babylon, which the faithfull which are the true Kings and Priestes in Christ haue taken away by disclosing their wicked deceite.
m That is, a strong number of this great deuill ỹ Popes ambassadours which are euer crying and croking like frogges and come out of Antichrists mouth, because they should speake nothing but lyes, and vse all maner of craftie deceit to maintaine their rich Euphrates against the true Christians.
n Albeit they call themselues spirituall and holy fathers.
o For in all Kings courtes the Pope hath had his ambassadours to hinder the kingdome of Christ.
p Of righteousnes and holines, wherewith we are clad through Iesus Christ.
q As if hee would say, the craftinesse of destruction when as Kings and Princes shall warre against God, but by the craft of Satan are brought to that place where they shall be destroyed.
r This is the last iudgement when Christ shall come to destroy the wicked and deliuer his Church.
s Meaning, the whole number of them that shall call themselues Christians, whereof some are so in deede, some are Papists, and vnder pretence of Christ serue Antichrist, and some are Neuters which are neither on the one side nor of the other.
t Signifying all strange religions, as of the Iewes, Turkes and others, which then shall fall with that great whore of Rome, and be tormented in eternall paines. Iere. 25.15.

CHAP. XVII.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her sinnes and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

THEN there came [a] one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I will shewe thee the damnation of the great [b] whore that sitteth vpon many [c] waters,

2 With whome haue committed fornication the Kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken a Which was Christ Iesus who will take vengeance on this Romish harlot.

b Antichrist is compared to an harlot, because hee seduceth the worlde with vaine wordes, doctrines of lyes, and outward appearance.
c Meaning diuers nations and countreis.

with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wildernes in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a skarlet coloured [d] beast, full of names of [e] blasphemie, which had seuen heads, and tenne hornes.

4 And the [f] woman was arayed in purple & skarlet, and guilded with gold, and precious stones, and pearles, & had a cup of golde in her hande, full of [g] abominations, and filthines of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead [was] a name written, [h] A mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I sawe the woman drunken with the blood of Saintes, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Jesus: and when I sawe her, I wondered with great marueile.

7 Then the Angell sayde vnto mee, Wherefore maruellest thou? I wil shew thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast, that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and tenne hornes.

8 The [i] beast ỳ thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shal ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the worlde) when they beholde the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here [is] the minde that hath Wisedome. The seuen heades are [k] seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also [l] seuen Kings.

10 Fiue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he commeth, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the [m] eight, and is one of the seuen, and shall go into destruction.

12 And the tenne hornes which thou sawest, are tenne Kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shall receiue power, as kings at one houre with the beast.

13 [n] These haue one minde, and shall giue their power, and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall [o] ouercome them: *for he is Lorde of Lords, and King of Kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And he said vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the [p] tenne hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath [q] put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to do with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill ỳ wordes of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the Kings of the earth.

CHAP. XVIII.

3, 9 The louers of the worlde are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God to flee out of her dominion, 20 But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

AND after these thinges, I sawe [another] Angell come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that ỳ earth was lightned with his glorie.

2 And hee cryed out mightily with a loude voyce, saying, *[a] It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great [citie,] and is become the habitation of [b] deuils, and the holde of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vncleane and hatefull birde.

3 For [c] all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, & the marchants of the earth are waxed riche of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen, say, [d] Go out of her my people, that ye be not partakers in her sinnes, and that ye receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are [e] come vp vnto heauen, and God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 [f] Reward her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: [and] in the cup that she hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In as much as she glorified her self, and liued in pleasure, so much giue ye to her torment & sorow: for she saith in her heart, *I sit being [g] a Queene, and am no [h] widow, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therfore shall her plagues come at d The beast signifyeth the ancient Rome: the woman that sitteth there on, the newe Rome, which is the Papistrie, whose crueltie and bloodshedding is declared by scarlet.

e Full of idolatrie, superstition and contempt of the true God.
f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole body of his filthie creatures, as is expounded, vers. 18, whose beautie onely standeth in outwarde pompe and impudencie and craft like a strumpet.
g Of false doctrines and blasphemies.
h Which none can knowe to auoyde, but the elect.
i This is the Romane empire which being fallen into decay, the whore of Rome vsurped authoritie, and proceeded from the deuill, and thither shall returne.
k Which are about Rome.
l For after that the empire was decayed in Nero, Galba, Otho, Vitellius, Vespasian and Titus dyed in lesse then fourtene yeres and reigned as Kings: Domitian then reigned, and after him Coccius Nerua which was the seuenth.
m Hee meaneth Traian the Emperour who was a Spanyard and adopted by Nerua, but because he persecuted the faithfull, he goeth also to perdition.
n He signifieth the horrible persecutions which haue bene vnder the Empire of Rome, and in all other Realmes subiect to the same.
o And breake them to shiuers as a potters potte. 1.Tim.6.15. chap.19.16.

p Diuers nations as the Gothes, Vandales, Hunnes, and other nations, which were once subiect to Rome, shal rise against it, & destroy it.
q That in stead of doing homage to Christ Jesus, they should be cast into a reprobate sense to serue Antichrist, and to dedicate themselues & theirs wholly vnto him.

Isai.21.9. ierem.51.8. chap.14.8.
a This description of the ouerthrowe of the great whore, is like to that whereby the Prophets vse to declare the destruction of Babylon.
b He describeth Rome to be the sinke of all abomination and diuelishnesse, and a kinde of hell.
c The greatest part of the worlde hath bene abused and seduced by this spirituall whoredome.
d When God threateneth the wicked, hee euer comforteth and counselleth his, what they ought to do, that is, that they doe not communicate with the sinnes of the wicked.
e The Greeke worde is, that her sinnes so follow one another, and so rise one after another, that they grow to such an heape, that at length they touche the very heauens.
f Blessed is hee that can repay to the whore the like, as is written, Psal.137.8,9. Isai.47.8.
g The glorious boasting of the strumpet.
h But full of people and riches.

one

one day, death, and sorow, & famine, and she shalbe burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will cõdemne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shal bewaile her, & lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 And shall stand afarre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

i Both they that temporally haue had profit by the strumpet, and also the spirituall marchants shall for sorowe and want of their gaine crie out and despaire.

11 And the [i] marchants of the earth shall weepe and waile ouer her: for no man byeth their ware any more.

12 The ware of gold and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, & of fine linen, and of purple, and of silke, and of skarlet, & of all maner of Thine [k] wood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of al vessels of most precious wood, & of brasse, and of yron, and of marble, k Which is very odoriferous and precious.

13 And of cinamom, and odours, and oyntments, and frankinsence, and wine, and oyle, and fine floure, and wheat, and beasts, and sheepe, and horses, & charets, and seruants, and [m] soules of men.

l Such as the wantons vse at Rome.

m This is the vilest ware that these marchants sell, and best cheape, which soules notwithstanding the sonne of God redeemed with his precious blood 1.Pet.1,19.

14 (And the [n] apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and al things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more) n That is, the things which thou louedst best.

15 The marchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand a far off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wayling,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linen and purple, & skarlet, and guilded with gold, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and al the people that occupie ships, and shipmen, and whosoeuer trauaile on the sea, [illegible]ll stande a farre off, 18 And crie, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What [citie was] like vnto this great citie?

o And so shew signes of great sorowe.

19 And they shall cast [o] dust on their heades, and crie weeping, and wayling, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherin were made riche all that had shippes on the sea by her ‖costlinesse: for in one houre she is made desolate.

‖Or, noble estate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath [p] giuen your iudgement on her.

p And hath reuenged your cause in punishing her. Iere.51.63.

21 Then a mightie Angell tooke vp a stone like a great milstone, * and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, and shall be [q] founde no more.

q It shall not be like to other cities which may be builded againe, but it shall be destroyed without mercie.

22 And the voyce of harpers, & musitians, & of pipers, & trumpetters shalbe heard no more in thee, & no craftes man, of whatsoeuer craft [he be,] shalbe found any more in thee: and the sounde of a milstone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: & the voyce of the bridegrome & of ỹ bride shalbe heard no more in thee: for thy [r] marchants were ỹ great men of the earth: & with thine inchantments were deceiued all nations.

r The Romish prelates and marchants of soules are as kings & Princes: so that their couetousnes and pride must be punished: secondly their craftes and deceites: and thirdly their crueltie.

24 And in her was founde the blood of the Prophets, & of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praises are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, & for auẽging ỹ blood of his seruãts. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules & birds are called to the slaughter.

AND after these thinges I heard a great voice of a great multitude in heauen, saying, [a] Hallelu-iah, saluation, and glory, and honor, and power [be] to the Lord our God.

a That is, praise ye God, because the Antichrist and all wickednes is taken out of the worlde.

2 For [b] true and righteous [are] his iudgements: for he hath condemned the great whore, which did corrupt ỹ earth with her fornication, & hath auẽged the blood of his seruãts [shed] by her hand.

b So that all the Saints are confirmed and ought nothing to doubt of the saluation of the faithful.

3 And againe they saide, Hallelu-iah: and her [c] smoke rose vp for euermore.

c The wicked shalbe burned in continuall fire, that neuer shall be extinguished.

4 And the foure and twenty Elders, and the foure [d] beastes fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on ỹ throne, saying, [e] Amen, Hallelu-iah.

d By the foure beasts are meant all creatures.

e Signifying, that his iudgements are true and iust, and that we ought to praise him euermore for the destruction of the Pope.

5 Then a voyce came out of ỹ throne, saying, Praise our God, al ye his seruãts, and ye that feare him, both smal & great.

6 And I heard like a voice of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thũdrings, saying, Hallelu-iah: for [our] Lorde God almightie hath reigned.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glorie to him: for the [f] marriage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready.

f God made Christ ỹ bridegrome of his Church at the beginning, and at the last day it shall be fully accomplished when we shall be ioyned with our head.

8 And to her was granted, that she shoulde be arayed with pure fine linen & shining: for the fine linen is the righteousnesse of Saintes.

9 Then [g] he saide vnto me, Write, *Blessed [are] they which are [h] called vnto ỹ Lãbs supper. And he said vnto me, g That is, the Angell. Mat.22.2.

chap.14.13. h Whome God of his free mercie calleth to be partakers of his heauenly graces, and deliuereth from the filthie pollutions of Antichrist.

These

These wordes of God are true.

10 And I fell before his feete, *to worship him: but he said vnto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow seruant, & one of thy brethren, which haue the i testimonie of Jesus. Worship God: for ỹ k testimonie of Jesus, is ỹ Spirit of prophecie.

11 And I saw heauen open, & beholde, a white l horse, & he that sate vpon him, was called, m Faithfull and true, and he n iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes [were] as a flame of fire, and on his head [were] o many crownes: and hee had a name written, that no man p knewe but himselfe.

13 And * hee was clothed with a garment dipt in q blood, & his name is called, THE r WORDE OF GOD.

14 And the s warriers which were in heauē, followed him vpō white horses, clothed with fine linen white and pure.

15 And out of his mouth went out a sharpe t sworde, that with it he shoulde smite ỹ heathen: for he * shall rule them with a rod of yron: for he it is that treadeth the wine presse of the fiercenes and wrath of almightie God.

16 And hee hath vpon his garment, & vpon his u thigh a name written, *THE KING OF KINGS, AND LORDE OF LORDES.

17 And I saw an Angell stand in the x sunne, who cryed w a loude voyce, saying to all the foules ỹ did flie by the mids of heauē, Come, & gather your selues together vnto ỹ supper of the great God,

18 That ye may eat ỹ flesh of Kings, & the flesh of hie Captaines, & the flesh of mightie men, & the flesh of horses, and of them ỹ sit on them, & the flesh of all free men and bond men, & of small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, & the Kings of the earth, & their y warriers gathered together to make battell against him, ỹ sate on the horse & against his souldiers.

20 But the beast was z taken, & with him that false Prophet that wrought myracles before him, whereby he deceyued them that receyued ỹ beasts marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were alive cast into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slaine with the swoorde of him ỹ sitteth vpon ỹ horse, which commeth out of his mouth, & all the foules were filled full w̄ their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan being bounde for a certaine time, 7 And after let loose, vexeth the Church grieuously. 10. 14 And after the world is iudged, he and his are cast into the lake of fire.

AND I sawe an a Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the b keye of ỹ bottomles pit, & a great chaine in his hand.

2 And hee tooke the dragon that olde serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and hee bound him c a thousand yeeres,

3 And cast him into the bottomles pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed [ỹ doore] vpon him, that hee shoulde deceiue the people no more, till the d thousand yeres were fulfilled: for after that hee must be loosed for a litle season.

4 And I sawe e seates: and they sate vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them, and [I sawe] the soules of them, that were beheaded for the witnes of Jesus, and for the worde of God, and which did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or on their handes: and they liued, and reigned with Christ a f thousand yeere.

5 But ỹ rest of the g dead men shal not liue againe, vntil the thousand yeeres be finished: this is the h first resurrection.

6 Blessed & holy is hee, ỹ hath part in the first resurrection: [for] on such the i seconde death hath no power: but they k shalbe ỹ Priests of God & of Christ, and shall reigne with him a l thousand yeere.

7 And when the thousand yeeres are m expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceiue the people, which are in the foure quarters of the earth: [euen] n Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell, whose number [is] as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went vp into the plaine of the earth, which compassed the tentes of the Saints about, and the beloued citie: but fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

10 And the deuil ỹ deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire & brimstone, where the beast & the false prophet shall be tormented euen day & night for euermore.

11 And I sawe a great white throne,

Chap. 22. 8, 9.

i Who am charged to testifie of Jesus, or which am partaker of the same Gospel and faith.

k Hee sheweth ỹ none ought to be worshipped but onely God: and that hee is of their nomber whom God vseth to reuele his secrets vnto the Prophets, that they may declare them to others, also ỹ we must beleeue no other spirit of prophecie, but that which doth testifie of Jesus, and leade vs to him.

l Whereby is signified that Jesus Christ our iudge shall be victorious and shall triumph ouer his enemies.

m Hee meaneth Christ.

n So that the wicked shall tremble before his face.

o To shewe that he was ruler of all the world.

p That is, none can haue so full reuelation howe Christ is very God, eternall, infinite and almightie, as he himselfe.

Isai 63. 1, 2.

q Whereby is signified his victorie, & the destruction of his enemies.

r Signifying that Jesus Christ, which is the word, is made flesh, & is our Lorde, our God & ỹ iudge of the quicke and dead.

s This declareth that his Angels shall come with him to iudge the world.

t Which driueth the wicked into eternall fire. Psal. 2. 9. chap. 2. 27.

u Which declareth his humanitie, wherein he is Lord of all, and shall iudge the world. 1. Tim. 6. 15. chap. 17. 14.

x This signifieth that the day of iudgement shalbe cleare and euident, so that none shalbe hid: for the trumpet shall blow aloude and all shall vnderstand it.

y For the Pope and the worldly princes shal fight against Christ, euen vntill this last day.

z The ouerthrowe of the beast and his, which shall be chiefely accomplished at the seconde comming of Christ.

a This Angel representeth the order of the Apostles, whose vocation and office was from heauen: or may signifie Christ, which shoulde treade downe the serpents head.

b Hereby he meaneth the Gospel whereby hell is shut vp to the faithfull, and Satan is chained that he cannot hurt them, yea and the ministers hereby open it to the infidels, but through their impietie and stubburnnes.

c That is, from Christes natiuitie vnto the time of Pope Syluester the seconde: so long ỹ pure doctrine should after a sort remaine.

d After this terme Satan had greater power then he had before.

e The glory and authoritie of them that suffer for Christes sake.

f That is, whiles they haue remained in this life.

g He meaneth them, which are spiritually dead: for in whom Satan liueth, he is dead to God.

h Which is to receiue Jesus Christ in true faith, and to rise from sinne in newnes of life.

i The death of soule, which is eternall damnation.

k Shalbe true partakers of Christ and of his dignitie.

l That is, for euer.

m After that the chaine is broken and the true preaching of Gods worde is corrupt.

n By them are ment diuers and strange enemies of ỹ Church of God, as ỹ Turke, the Sarazins, & others, reade Eze. 38. 2, & 39. 1, 2. by whom ỹ Church of God should be grieuously tormēted.

and

and ° one that sate on it, from whose face fled away both the earth and heauen, and their place was no more found.

12 And I sawe ẏ dead, both great and small stand before God: and the ᵖ bookes were opened, and *another booke was opened, which is [the booke] of life, and the dead were iudged of those things, which were written in the bookes, according to their workes.

13 And ẏ sea gaue vp her dead, which were in her, and ᵠ death and hell deliuered vp the dead, which were in them: and they were iudged euery man according to their workes.

14 And ʳ death and hell were cast into the lake of fire: this is the second death.

15 And whosoeuer was not founde written in the booke of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

o Which was Christ, prepared to iudgement with glorie & maiestie.
p Euery mans conscience is as a booke wherein his deedes are written, which shall appeare when God openeth the booke. Phil.4.3. chap.3,5. and 21,27.
q Vnderstanding all kindes of death, wherby men haue bene slaine.
r Hell & death which are the last enemies, shalbe destroyed.

CHAP. XXI.

3. 24 The blessed estate of the godly, 8. 27 And the miserable condition of the wicked. 11 The description of the heauenly Ierusalem, and of the wife of the Lambe.

AND I sawe *a newe heauen, and a new earth: ᵃ for *ẏ first heauen, and the first earth were ᵇ passed away, & there was no more sea.

2 And I Iohn sawe the ᶜ holy citie newe Ierusalem come ᵈ downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Beholde, the Tabernacle of God [is] with men, & hee will dwel with them: & they shalbe his people, and God himselfe shalbe their God ẇ them.

4 *And God shall wipe ᵉ away all teares from their eyes: & there shalbe no more death, neither sorowe, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And hee that sate vpon the throne, said, *Behold, I make all things newe: and hee sa[id] vnto me, Write: for these wordes ar[e] faithfull and true.

6 And he said vnto me, It is done, *I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will giue to him that is a thirst, of ẏ ᶠ well of ẏ water of life freely.

7 He that ouercommeth, shall inherite all things, and I will be his God, and hee shall be my sonne.

8 But the ᵍ fearefull & vnbeleeuing, and the ʰ abominable & murtherers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, & all liers shall haue their part in the lake, which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

Isa.65,17. and 66.22.
a All things shalbe renued and restored into a most excellent & perfect estate, and therefore the day of the resurrection is called, the day of restauration of all things, Actes 5,21. 2.Pet.3.13.
b For all things shalbe purged from their corruption, and the faithfull shall enter into heauen with their head Christ.
c The holy company of the elect.
d Meaning, that God by his diuine maiestie will glorifie and renue his, and take them vnto him. Isa.25.8. chap.7.17.
e All occasions of sorrowes shall be taken away: so that they shall haue perpetuall ioye. Isa.43.19. 2.cor.5.17. Chap.1.8. and 22.13.
f I that am the eternall life, will giue vnto mine to drinke of the liuely waters of this euerlasting life.
g They which feare men more then God.
h They which mocke and iest at religion.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come: I will shewe thee the ⁱ bride, the Lambes wife.

10 And he caried me away in the spirit to a great & hie mountaine, & he shewed me the great ᵏ citie, holy Ierusalem, ˡ descending out of heauen from God,

11 Hauing the glorie of God: & her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a ᵐ Iasper stone cleare as crystal,

12 And had a great ⁿ wall and hie, and had twelue ° gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the East part [there were] three gates, [&] on the Northside three gates, on the Southside three gates, [and] on the westside three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue ᵖ Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reede to measure the citie with all, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay foure square, and the length is as large as the bredth of it, and hee measured the citie with the reede, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, & the bredth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundreth fourty and foure cubits, by the measure of mã, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Iasper: and the citie was pure gold like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all maner of precious stones: the first foundation [was] Iasper: the seconde of Saphire: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraude:

20 The fift of a Sardonyx: the sixt of a Sardius: ẏ seuenth of a Chrysolite: the eight of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaze: the tenth of a Chrysoprasus, the eleuẽth of a Iacinct: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And ẏ twelue gates [were] twelue perles, and euery gate [is] of one pearle, and the streete of the citie [is] pure golde, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the i Meaning the Church, which is married to Christ by faith.

k By this description is declared the incomprehensible excellencie, which the heauenly companie do enioy.
l It is said to come downe from heauen, because all the benefites that ẏ Church hath they acknowledge it to come of God thorough Christ.
m Euer greene & flourishing.
n Signifying that the faithful shalbe surely kept in heauen.
o That is, place inough to enter: for els we knowe there is but one way and one gate, euen Iesus Christ.
p For the Apostles were meanes whereby Iesus christ the true foundation was reuealed to the worlde.

the Lord God almightie and ỹ [q] Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 *And the citie hath no neede of the sunne, neither of the Moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 *And the people which are saued, shall walke in the light of it: and the [r] Kings of the earth shall bring their glorie and honour vnto it,

25 *And the gates of it shal not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory, and honour of the Gentiles shalbe brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vncleane thing, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination or lies: but they which are written in ỹ Lambes* Booke of life.

q This declareth ỹ Christ is God inseparable with his Father. Isa.60.19. Isa.60.3,5.

r Here we see as in infinite other places that Kings and Princes (contrary to that wicked opinion of the Anabaptists) are partakers of the heauenly glory, if they rule in the feare of the Lorde. Isa.60.11. Phil.4.3. chap.3,5. and 20.12.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The riuer of the water of life. 2 The fruitefulnesse & light of the citie of God. 6 The Lorde giueth euer his seruants warning of things to come. 9 The Angell will not be worshipped. 18 To the worde of God may nothing be added nor diminished therefrom.

AND he shewed me a pure [a] riuer of water of life, cleare as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

2 In the [b] middes of the streete of it, and of either side of the riuer, was the tree of life, which bare twelue maner of fruites, and gaue fruite euery [c] moneth: and ỹ leaues of the tree [serued] to heale the [d] nations with.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God & of the Lambe shall be in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

4 And they shall see his face, and his Name shalbe in their foreheads.

5 *And there shalbe no [e] night there, & they neede no candle, neither light of the Sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shal reigne for euermore.

6 And he said vnto me, These words are faithfull and true: and the Lorde God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shew vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Beholde, I come shortly. Blessed [is] hee that keepeth the wordes of the prophecie of this booke.

8 And I am John, which sawe and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, *I [f] fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angel, which shewed me these things.

9 But he said vnto me, See thou [do it] not: for I am thy felowe seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, & of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worship God.

10 And he sayd vnto me, [g] Seale not the wordes of ỹ prophecie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 Hee that is vniust, let him be vniust still: and he which is filthie, let him be filthie still: and hee that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And beholde, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, * to giue euery man according as his worke shalbe.

13 I am *Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ende, the first and ỹ last.

14 Blessed [are] they, that do his commandements, that their right may be in the [h] tree of life, & may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without [shalbe] dogs and enchanters, & whoremongers, and murtherers, and idolaters, and whosoeuer loueth or maketh [i] lies.

16 I Jesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in ỹ Churches: I am the roote & the [k] generation of Dauid, & the bright morning [l] starre.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, [m] Come: and let him that is a-[n] thirst, come: and *let whosoeuer [o] will, take of the water of life freely.

18 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth ỹ wordes of ỹ prophecie of this booke, *If any man shal adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues, that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shal diminish of the wordes of ỹ booke of this prophecie, God shal take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of ỹ holy citie, and from those things which are written in this booke.

20 Hee which testifieth these things, sayeth, [p] Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Euen so [q] come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lorde Jesus Christ [be] with you all, Amen.

a He alludeth to the visible paradise to set forth more sensibly the spirituall: and this agreeth with ỹ which is written, Ezek.47.1.

b Meaning, that Christ who is the life of his Church, is common to all his, and not peculiar for any one sort of people.

c For there are all things pleasant and full of all contentation continually.

d Which some time were vnpure as Gentiles, but nowe are purged and made whole by Christ. Isa.60.19,20.

e The light shallbe vnchangeable, and shine for euer. Chap.19.10.

f Now this is the seconde time that hee suffered himselfe to be caried away with the excellencie of the person: which is to admonish vs of our infirmitie & readines to fall, except God strengthen vs miraculously with his spirit. Deut.4.2. and 12.32. prou.30.6.

g This is not then as the other prophesies which were commanded to be hid, till the time appointed, as in Dan.12.4. because that these things shoulde bee quickely accomplished, and did nowe begin. Rom.2.6. Isa.41.4. and 44.6. chap.1,8. and 21.6.

h They shall liue eternally with the sonne of God.

i That maintaine false doctrine, and delight therein.

k That is, a true and naturall man, and yet God equall with my Father.

l For Christ is the light that giueth light to euery one that commeth into this worlde.

m Let them be afrayde of Gods horrible iudgements, and assoone as they heare the Lambe call, let them come.

n He that feeleth himselfe oppressed with afflictions, and desireth the heauenly graces and comfort. Isa.55.1.

o That is, when God beginneth to reforme our will by his spirit.

p Seeing the Lorde is at hand, we ought to be constant and reioyce, but wee must beware we esteeme not the length nor shortnes of the Lords comming by our owne imagination, 2.Peter 3.9.

q This declareth the earnest desire that the faithfull haue to be deliuered out of these miseries, and to be ioyned with their head Christ Jesus.

THE ENDE.